Interracial Marriage Shocks Small Iowa Town

W. A. Scott, Publisher and Founder of Atlanta Daily World, Is Found Dead

NAACP to Honor It's Twenty-fifth Anniversary Thruout Nation

Southern Editor Was Mysteriously Slain, Rumor

Cause of Death Unknown
Word has been received by wire from Atlanta, Ga., by the Iowa Bystander of the death of W. A. Scott, publisher and founder of the Scott Newspaper Syndicate and the Atlanta Daily World of Atlanta, Ga., which occurred Thursday morning. Definite information could not be secured when the news dispatches were released Friday. Mr. Scott was probably the youngest pioneer in the field of journalism being but 32 at the time of his death.

Mr. Scott originated and conceived the idea of a Negro daily which he established in the southern metropolis in 1932. From this organization grew the newspaper syndicate which bears his name. He established the bureau, the only rotogravure publication operated by Negroes, published semi-weekly newspapers in twenty large cities and supplied fifty weekly newspapers from coast to coast.

The inside section of the Iowa Bystander is a part of the syndicate news material from Atlanta. Clifford W. Mackay, former Des Moines boy and of the Bystander, is news editor of the daily.

Officer Refuses to Talk for Peterson

Birmingham, Ala. (A. N. P.)—Fred McDuff, former chief of police here, in a letter to the recording secretary of Gov. R. M. Miller, Friday, refused to intervene in behalf of Willie Peterson, condemned to die February 16. The governor's secretary had written McDuff to obtain an opinion from him. Sometime ago, Sheriff Hawkins of Jefferson county wrote to Gov. Miller soliciting clemency for Peterson. The sheriff said that he did not believe Peterson was guilty of the crime of killing two white girls. Sheriff Hawkins also stated that McDuff, the police chief, shared the same opinion. But McDuff is now a candidate for sheriff, and if he ever had an opinion on Peterson's innocence, he is denying it now. In his letter to the governor's secretary, McDuff wrote: "The Negro had a fair trial, and was duly convicted. In view of this it would be presumptuous on my part to question the correctness of the verdict."

Lincoln Post Boys Honored

NEGROES PROMINENT IN VETERANS' ORGANIZATIONS
During the past week, Des Moines Negroes have been given unusual recognition by the various veterans' organizations. The Polk County American Legion Association met Tuesday evening with Baldwin Patterson Post composed of East Des Moines white veterans; the invocation was offered by G. B. Tucker, county chaplain, member of Lincoln Post, composed of Negro veterans.

At the meeting of the Polk County Veterans' Council, delegates from eight organizations of the Spanish American and the World War soldiers, held Thursday, Atty. S. Joe Brown was elected vice president and G. L. Leath as sergeant-at-arms, both of Lincoln Post.

At the City-wide Adult Education Forum held Monday and addressed by Frank Miles, editor of the Legionaire, two prominent legionnaires were invited to sit as members of the "panel" of official questioner upon the subject of "National Defense" in the North High auditorium: Hon. Robt. W. Colner, past State Commander American Legion, Atty. Jas. B. Morris, past commander of Lincoln Post and editor of the Bystander.

YWCA Drive Is Now Under Way

MRS. J. G. BROWNE REELECTED
Mrs. J. G. Browne was elected chairman of the Committee of Management of the Blue Triangle branch Y. W. C. A. for the third successive term at the February meeting. Mrs. Hazel G. Dixon is vice-chairman and Anna Wilson secretary. The quota for the branch team in the 1934 campaign is $400. Mrs. Mary M. Woodson is captain.

ASSISTANT TO DIRECTOR OF C. W. A. TO PROTECT INTERESTS OF NEGROES IN THE NEW DEAL

Washington, D. C., Feb. 1: Additional protection for the Negro's interests in the "New Deal" was provided for here today by the appointment of Forrester B. Washington, Director of the Atlanta School of Social Work, as an assistant to Harry L. Hopkins, National Director of the C. W. A., which administers the Government's program of civil works and relief.

Mr. Washington's title will be Director of Negro Work of the Federal Emergency Relief and Civil Works Administrations and his duties will concern all phases of relief and civil works as they affect Negroes in all parts of the country. While his headquarters will be in Washington, he will continue as director of the Atlanta School of Social Work, of which he has been the head since 1927.

DEPRIEST SUGGESTS NEGRO MINISTER TO MAKE OPENING PRAYER IN HOUSE

Washington — (CNS) Representative Oscar DePriest of Illinois has suggested to Speaker Rainey that a colored minister be selected to give the opening prayer at a House session. The Speaker told Mr. DePriest he would leave the request up to the House chaplain, and the latter, the Rev. James Shera Montgomery, chaplain, said he had "deferred the matter until later for consideration."

New York.—A new war on lynching signaled by a campaign for the passage of the Costigan-Wagner federal anti-lynching bill, will mark the 25th birthday of the N. A. A. C. P., Feb. 12. "The N. A. A. C. P. has been in the forefront of the fight for the emancipation proclamation of President Abraham Lincoln a real document. Lincoln's birthday will have this year double significance to millions of colored people because it offers not only a chance to pay homage to the great emancipator, but to launch a second quarter century of organized effort to secure all the rights as citizens which Lincoln intended they should have," declares Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, in an anniversary statement.

N. A. A. C. P. Born in 1909

Lincoln's birthday and the N. A. A. C. P. anniversary will be jointly observed by the 378 branches of the association in mass meetings and dinners all over the country in which the past history of the association will be reviewed and public opinion will be aroused in support of the anti-lynching bill. Hearings on the measure will be begun by a sub-committee of the senate on Feb. 15.

The N. A. A. C. P. idea was born in 1909 as a result of the indignation of William English Walling, southern writer and lecturer, over the terrible race riot in 1908 in Springfield, Ill., the home town of Lincoln. Mr. Walling is still a member of the board of directors.

Local N. A. A. C. P. Plans Anniversary Program

The Des Moines branch N. A. A. C. P. will observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of the N. A. A. C. P. with a program Monday evening, Feb. 12, at St. Paul A. M. E. church at 8:00 o'clock. Lincoln-Douglass numbers will be given by Irene Glass and Jerome Southers of the junior branch; a report of the Wagner-Costigan bill will be given by the legal redress committee.

The history of the organization will be given by S. Joe Brown, the first president of the Des Moines branch. Mrs. Brown also report on the drive of one cent for every Negro in the country.

These young people have been designated an auxiliary committee to raise Des Moines quota of the national budget of one hundred twenty-thousand dollars: Ada Graham, assisted by Jerome Southers; Jesseann Sharron, assisted by Alpha Dixon; Myra Morgan, assisted by Virgil Mann; Eunice Rhodes, assisted by Francis Bates; Atrill Jett, assisted by Owen Robinson; Doris Jones, assisted by George Robinson; Vernagene White, assisted by Melvin Overton; and Evelyn Brooks assisted by L. T. Johnson; Verlene Reeves, assisted by Robert Brooks; Odessa Carter, assisted by Jas. Bailey and Donna Graham, assisted by Orlanda Johnson.

Authorities Attempt to Hold Boy on False Charge

Warner Lynching Case Is Dismissed

St. Joseph, Mo.—The Missouri lynching cases that began here two months ago after a mob of 10,000 persons lynched and burned Lloyd Warner, 19-year-old Negro, Nov. 28, ended late Saturday when a jury in Judge J. V. Gaddy's circuit court acquitted Walter Garton, 43, of a first degree murder charge in connection with the lynching. Warner was charged with criminal assault upon a 21-year-old white girl. The girl has repeatedly said she was unharmed.

Garton was the first to be tried. An all-white jury returned its verdict at 7:45 p. m. Saturday, in less than an hour of deliberation. As a matter of fact the deliberation of the jury was a mere formality for it was apparent that the jury had its mind made up even before it left the court room. Only one ballot was taken. The state contends that Garton's case was the strongest one of the eight it had in connection with the lynching of Warner and the destruction of jail property.

Following a review of the case by Rpy McKittrick, attorney general at Jefferson City, he announced Monday that he had recommended that the remaining cases in the lynching be dismissed. Before making his decision he conferred with Frank L. Kirtley, Buchanan county prosecutor, by telephone and with William O. Sawyers, assistant attorney general who had charge of the lynching investigation and prosecution.

WHITE GIRL DEMANDS RIGHT TO CHOOSE LOVER

Missouri Valley, Iowa. (Spec.)—This little town, sandwiched between two great railroads near the Nebraska border, leaped into national prominence last week when a 20-year-old white girl defied racial lines, wagging small town tongues and social ostracism of her classmates, rescued her lover from the hands of the law and finally marched with him to the altar, thus becoming the bride in the first interracial marriage ever performed in this isolated community. Following the marriage, the couple left Iowa and headed toward Ohio, where the bridegroom, who won fame on the gridiron and basketball courts, will pursue his athletic career in college.

Mother's Plea Fails

Carter Matthews, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Matthews, prominent dairy farmer, the Missouri Valley athlete, and Letha Wilson, were pulled off a bus at Carroll, Ia., Tuesday night as they attempted to elope. They had boarded the bus at Logan, after slipping away from their homes here. Frank and Henry Matthews, brothers of the bridegroom, and former Simpson college students, are well known in Des Moines. Henry is now employed at the Katz drug store.

Letha's mother, who, it is said, knew of her blond daughter's passionate love for the star athlete, and also of their surreptitious meetings in and around town, suspected the elopement plans and appealed to state police. The young woman is said to have left her home following a stormy session when her mother tearfully and angrily tried to dissuade her daughter from "this insane step." But Letha was determined.

Held by Authorities

After being caught at Carroll, the girl was returned home and young Matthews was returned to Logan on a charge of seduction. For two days the authorities tried to exact a promise from the youth to avoid the girl forever, but Matthews refused. Late Saturday night, after all pleadings failed and the girl had hysterically proclaimed her undying love for Matthews, the athlete was taken from jail to the courtroom of Judge J. M. Davis, who married the couple. The mother stood by weeping. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Matthews got on a bus and headed eastward. Missouri Valley is just recovering from the shock.

FISK PROFESSOR IN CITY NEXT WEEK

Prof. A. L. Snell of the department of education at Fisk University, will speak in Des Moines, during the week of Feb. 14, according to a letter received by J. G. Browne, from the Fisk Alumni association.

Prof. Snell will be available for lecture engagements at high schools, colleges and civic clubs on Negro problems. Local Fisk graduates are planning informal reunions and meetings in his honor.

Helen Childs to Teach Typing

Sioux City, Iowa—Miss Helen Childs, daughter of Mrs. Daisy Childs of Des Moines, Iowa, has been appointed to teach shorthand and typewriting classes at the Community House here, according to an announcement made Saturday by the superintendent of the public schools and official representative of the CWS board of education.

MISS HELEN CHILDS

Miss Childs is a graduate of East Des Moines high school, where she majored in commercial subjects, receiving honors in typewriting and shorthand. She was former stenographer and society editor of the Iowa Bystander. The other courses offered are: general science, world history, vocal, piano, English, nutrition, and public speaking, in charge of Mrs. Lena Thomas and Morris McClain. Eighty students have enrolled for the classes.

CHURCH RALLY NOW UNDER WAY

The thousand dollar drive sponsored by Rev. C. B. Wheeler and members of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church opened Sunday with their initial "kickoff" raising fifty dollars.

The captains or engineers are in railroad race; the rally will close Sunday, April 8, according to an announcement made this week by the pastor.

Newell In Race For Public Safety

E. C. Newell, attorney and former member of the Des Moines police force is a candidate for Public Safety. Born in Des Moines, he finished East High school and Drake University where he completed his law course while on the force. He began the law practice here later, practiced five years in Chicago.

Mr. Newell, through his experience in Chicago where he studied traffic problems and his work on the police force is well suited to fill the office of public safety, commissioner. He feels that only the participation can be greatly improved by establishment of Small stations in communities where heavy trucks cannot go; that with the coming of hard liquor, places where it will be sold need added and more strict supervision; that conditions in our garbage system can be greatly improved; that parks should be opened in communities where the poor as well as the rich live; that our system of streets and public improvements will stand improvement all of which he will work for should he be elected to office.

In his campaign announcement he states: "As a result of the city of Des Moines is now in debt in round figures, Twelve Million Dollars, which is a large sum per capita for a city of 120,000 souls; strict economy must be practiced, without destroying any police, health, fire or other protection, but that protection must reach a higher point of efficiency, which can only be attained by tireless efforts and careful thought and management."

Rites Held Tuesday For Mrs. Adel Webb

Funeral services for Mrs. Adel Webb, 19, 1444 Fremont street, who died Saturday night after an illness of three weeks, were held Tuesday afternoon at Maple Street Baptist Church with the Rev. A. Ross Brent officiating. Burial was at Laurel Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Webb was a former student at East High school, member of Maple Street Baptist Church, and was popular among the younger people of the city. She is survived by her husband, Elbert Webb, son, Gordon Douglass, foster sister, Mrs. Anna Heard and foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heard all of Des Moines.

"ESKIMO," TALT OF THE NORTH, AT STRAND

The great epic of the North, the "Eskimo," starts Tuesday, February 13, at the Strand Theatre, presenting a panorama of the life with its dangers and hardships of the natives living in the icy regions, and the Eskimo's strange code of morals which permits the loaning of one's wife to one's friend and the exchanging of wives freely.

Mala, the principal character of "Eskimo," has two wives, and while he does not mind lending his wife to his brother, Eskimos, he deeply resents the lecherous desires of a white captain of a whaling ship, an antagonism which ultimately culminates in a murder. Among breath-taking spectacles obtained by the expedition are scenes of caribou herds on stampede; walrus hunts with natives risking their lives in small boats; whaling expeditions; the terrific roaring and crashing of millions of tons of ice, and other thrills of the Far North.

BURLINGTON, IOWA, NEWS

The Young Men's Social club gave a dance at Masonic hall and among those who were present were: the famous baseball pitcher, and dance master of Burlington, Iowa, Ace Ferguson, better known as William B. Ferguson. The Burlington Colored Giants are looking forward to a great season of baseball which they are to have "Steel Arm" Ferguson with them. Miss Helen Klipper has returned from the hospital, and is getting along fine.

New York Moves To Wipe Out Policy, Digits Racket

VICE MUST GO STATE OFFICIALS

NEW YORK (By A. E. White for the Associated Negro Press)—A thirty-day war on numbers, slot machines and kindred and allied rackets flourishing in Harlem and elsewhere in New York City is expected to furnish the same kind of excitement in this town that the recent raid on the prison at Welfare Island elicited.

Police Commissioner O'Ryan has issued an edict that he wants this vice cleaned up and will spare no effort to rid Harlem of one of the most vicious rackets extant.

Heretofore, slot machines have been permitted to function in the numerous streets of Harlem under an injunction obtained to prevent police interference. But Monday saw court action to lift this restraining injunction with Irving Ben Cooper formerly of Mr. Seabury's staff conducting the prosecution.

Numbers, which in the past three years have flourished under a systematic organization, involving some of the best known racketeers in the city as well as the usual "higher ups" are doomed to extinction, if the plans of the department are executed as the commissioner plans.

Promises of promotion for convictions in this racket, both of players and of bankers has stirred the police to efforts heretofore unknown. The playing of the numbers has become as dangerous as receiving numbers plays. The punishment is double barreled and according to the Commissioner, he is dead earnest over the proposed clean up.

Flourishing under Tammany Government, the numbers racket has attracted attention on Harlem as has nothing else. The paying of the numbers or policy spread into other areas of the city going into five boroughs almost overnight. From New York, the craze swept all over country, until numbers playing was just about killed off policy as old folks knew it.

But Mayor La Guardia is determined to stamp this out and with a fighting Police Commissioner laying down the gauntlet to men hitherto protected by persons unnamed. The slot machine racket has only three months to be seen whether or not Mayor La Guardia's administration will be successful in stamping out in thirty days what has flourished and nourished under Tammany administrations for ten years.

Spring into existence within the last five years. But it has grown to such a point that it is considered a menace to the young folks of the city and to their morals. There is scarcely a store in the city where slot machines are not placed. And from these machines the numbers reap a rich harvest.

The odds against the player in the slot machine racket is almost mad as in the numbers racket. Using nickies and in some instances quarters, the player has no chance in four hundred of winning any considerable amount back and then he has only twenty-dollars at the top.

Fighting with Commissioner O'Ryan are his teachers, who are police of the honest hard-billed school. They do not believe in playing with crooks and are ready to stamp out all semblance of organized racket and crime, especially where the good name of the Police Department is involved.

STILL PROGRESSING

HUBERT T. DELANEY

History was made in New York this week when Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia swore Hubert T. Delaney in as Commissioner of Taxes and Assessments. This high post pays a salary of $10,840 a year. Mr. Delaney is a native of Raleigh, N. C., where his mother has taught for 40 years at St. Augustine college. His father, the Rev. Henry Beard Delaney, was episcopal bishop of North and South Carolina.

The new commissioner has also served as former assistant United States attorney in the southern New York district.

Bishop Fountain Carries Book On

By Rev. Allen R. Cooper, COLEMBUS, Ga., Feb. 8.—(Special.) Bishop William A. Fountain, and his distinguished son, President W. A. Fountain, Jr., of Morris Brown college, met in a conference at St. John A.M.E. church, Columbus, Ga., Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock when the presiding elders, pastors and laymen of the Southern Georgia conference, Georgia conference, began an attempt to hear their outline their new program concerning the Morris Brown college "New Deal Book" of 250,000 names.

Rev. R. H. Rome, the pastor of St. John A.M.E. church, extended the official welcome. Never before in the history of the state of Georgia have the A. M. E. members in Southern Georgia seen so many of their presiding elders, pastors and laymen face to face.

The popular editor, Rev. Clayborne, is a good friend of mine, but he is as "wron" as wrong.

Mr. Clayborne is a friend of my bishop, then I think that he should find some way to make a change, but so far as Georgia is concerned, we have decided to bring Bishop Fountain back to Georgia until he decides to go elsewhere. The presiding elders are satisfied. The pastors are satisfied. Therefore, I venture to affirm that it will take

Wins $3500 Estate of His Mother

MEMPHIS, TENN.—Will Hurl, bookbinder at the Exchange building for twenty years, won a circuit court lawsuit involving the $3500 estate left by his deceased mother, according to word received by the Memphis World.

The veteran shoe shiner was given the entire estate, facts brought out in the case showing that in his mother's will he was named as the beneficiary. The estate had been made to Margaret Thompson, school teacher, an executrix.

MRS. WASHINGTON TALKS AT NEGRO DAY AT FAIR

TAMPA, Fla.—Mrs. Bessie A. Washington was the principal speaker at the annual Negro Day of the Florida Fair and was vociferously received by the hundreds of teachers and school children who attended the exercises.

The Reverend Monroe presided as chairman of ceremonies and introduced the speaker for the day. The speaker commended the Negroes upon the enormous progress made in the last seventeen years. She said that she had been more or less connected with the department of exhibits for the day.

The speaker complimented Director Rose upon the manner in which he has brought the Negro exhibit to a place of prominence. She said that she had been more or less connected with the department of exhibits for the day.

The Negro Day Program was held in the Negro building at the fairgrounds and was attended by hundreds of people.

JOHN ARCH CLAM UNION LABORS GETS "BREAKS"

MOBILE, Ala.—John Arch, who was accused of killing J. A. Hildred (white) on Labor Day, 1932, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 to 10 years, is now a free man. Lawyer D.P. Moore proved himself a real lawyer in this case and did not give up until his client was free.

The Rev. Jas. Abraham was a chief assistant in this case. He arrived in Montgomery January 12, with many good recommendations to the governor from Lawyer D. P. Moore, and many others. In a few minutes after arrival, he was escorted to the office of the clerk by the janitor.

History is Written as Race Priest Sings Mass

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 8.—In the ancient tongue of the vanished Latins, fixed and unchanging throughout the dim centuries, the voice of a Negro priest of the Church of Rome trailed away, as throngs of black and white worshippers that filled every nook in the Church of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament quietly rose—genocided—and filed out into the cold drizzle of a winter day.

In mystic adoration they had for almost two hours faced the dazzling high altar of their Church—mother of Christendom's myriad churches—following with reverent interest the age-old order of his High Mass, as before them in the brilliant robes of the Mother Church a Negro priest faultlessly intoned the Proper and Order of the ancient rite. They had witnessed history in the making!

Reverend William Leroy Lane, priest of the Church, was making his first public appearance since his ordination at Wheeling, West Virginia, December 23, 1933, and launching his active ministry on a trail that leads between the Grand Bocos of the Caribbean sea into the black waters of the Gulf of Peru and tropic Trinidad, where his labors begin.

The little church on East 79th street, near Central avenue, with a capacity of several hundred, was packed. Chairs were placed in the aisles. It was the first time in the history of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese that a Negro priest had celebrated Mass.

Rev. George Manning and Rev. Lew Brennan, white classmates of Father Lane, were his deacons and sub-deacons, and at the conclusion of the Mass Father Lane spent an hour bestowing blessings upon members of the congregation who came forward to the communion rail.

In his sermon, Rev. Joseph J. Mullon of the faculty of the diocesan seminary stressed the apostolic character of the priesthood and welcomed Father Lane to its ranks. Officiating at vespers and benediction last night, Father Lane addressed the congregation, expressing his happiness at his being present at a religious act of the nation of his heretofore hope in being ordained to that office.

Oliver G. Waters was chairman for a program of talks in the parish hall last night by Bernard Squire, member of the parish; Charles B. Colman, chairman of the former of Cleveland; Rev. Thomas E. McKenney, pastor of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish, and Father Lane.

GREENVIEW, S. C. (ANP)—After pleading guilty to an attack on 19-year-old white girl, Joe Green was sentenced to die in the electric chair in the Superior court Tuesday afternoon. The date was set as April 25.

THREAT RESULTS IN SHOOTING

TAMPA, Fla.—Agnes Donaldson, 25, 1537 Laurin street, was shot and fatally wounded at the home of Eva Wynn, 1503 Laurel street, about noon, Saturday, Jan. 27. The woman died at the Tampa Negro Hospital about 2:30 P. M. Sunday, Jan. 28.

The slaying is alleged to have resulted from threats made by the Donaldson woman at a party Friday night. While at the party the woman is alleged to have threatened an ice pick and said that she was going to kill a certain woman because the latter had been the cause of a rift in the friendship of the Donaldson woman and her man friend.

Saturday the woman went to the Wynn woman and attempted to put her threat into operation. As she advanced with the drawn ice pick, the Wynn woman fired.

FINE WOMAN TWO MURDER CASES ARE BEATEN BY POLICE

ATLANTA, Ga.—The brutal beating of a colored woman, a young mother of a small child, by a police officer Sunday night, formed the chief topic of discussion along Decatur street Monday.

Hailed before Judge Cone in police court Monday after the officer, Detective F. J. Norton, had booked against her, the woman was fined $10 or thirty days in the city stockade.

Declaring that "distinguished and influential Southern newspapers like the Atlanta Constitution, and many thoughtful southern people, white and colored, are convinced that the lynching evil will be checked only when Federal assistance is given the state in punishing lynchers," Mr. White says, "It is amazing that the venerable Dean of Howard University should oppose any legislation, Federal or state, which would tend to correct this serious situation represented by 20 authenticated lynchings in 1933 against only 10 in 1932." Citing the drastic provisions of the Costigan-Wagner bill, the letter concludes: "The Federal Government must act, by law, to no longer a sectional nor a racial one."

The woman, Mrs. Mary Hall of a Decatur street address, told the court a tear-ringing story of Atlanta police brutality in the court Monday.

She said she was standing watching officers raid an upstairs apartment at 106 1/4 Decatur street, when Detective Norton saw her husband, Ed Hall, whom the officer said he wanted on whiskey charges.

Hall broke and ran and Detective Norton followed. Mrs. Hall joined in the chase in time to see Detective Norton whip out his revolver. "Please don't shoot my husband," Mrs. Hall told the court she yelled at the officer, whereupon he turned on her and placed her under arrest after slapping her.

When she asked him why he was arresting her, Mrs. Hall told the court, Detective Norton took out his blackjack and began beating her about the head with it, knocking her into the gutter. Placing his left foot on the woman's prone body, he then snapped some handcuffs on her wrist, she said. Blood from deep lacerations about her head, blinded her, she said.

Witnesses told reporters Monday that Detective Norton dragged Mrs. Hall from in front of the 81 theatre back down to the Washington street viaduct. In court Monday, the officer sought to justify his beating of the woman.

"She's the meanest nigger I ever tried to arrest," he said. "She fought me like a tiger and I had to slap her a couple of times. "If it hadn't been for her I would have caught that nigger. I have been after him for two or three weeks for liquor. Just as I was reaching for him, that woman grabbed my hand and jerked me back.

Cautioning her not to interfere with an officer while he was making an arrest, Judge Cone fined Mrs. Hall $17 or thirty days.

Oscar DePriest and Social Justice

The writer of this article has always believed in social justice, as every true American citizen should. However, I am surprised at Mr. DePriest who has been a member of Congress for six years, was elected by Republicans and took a seat when the majority in the senate and house were Republicans. At that time, the President of the United States was a Republican; the speaker of the house, a Republican; and yet he failed to make such demands on the party which has always posed as being "the Defenders of Justice and the Guardians of Liberty." However, Mr. DePriest waits until now to seek restitution for our race from the party which he has been fighting so relentlessly.

I wonder, does Mr. DePriest call to mind that shortly after his election as a congressman he thereupon was sworn in and took his seat? I wonder, does he remember the pandemonium that reigned in Washington when the question arose as to whether he and Mrs. DePriest should be accorded the same social courtesies at the White House such as other congressmen and their wives were about to receive? Does he recall that it was some good Republican congressmen and their wives who believed the social set for congressmen and their wives was not meant for any Negro congressman and his wife? Mr. DePriest admits that this matter of refusing to cater to Negroes in the capitol restaurant has covered a period of at least twelve years. Out of these twelve years, there have been eight years during which the party of his choice was in power with a majority in both house and senate. For some reason or other, Mr. DePriest must have greatly overlooked the fact that discrimination was taking place in our nation's capital under Republican administration.

It appears to me that had Mr. DePriest the presence of mind to have asked for a privilege resolution while he had such an overwhelming Republican majority in congress, it might have been he could have given his party another chance to prove how much love they have for our group. Possibly he was so busy trying to get another Negro into West Point to become a target of war to protect our nation's money barons or to have another Negro die with a broken heart, such as Colonel Young, that he forgot to do something which might have caused his name to be carved in the hall of fame. Would it not have been just as well for Mr. DePriest to have planned this little trick on his own party and then sat outside and waited for his secretary to come and tell him he had been refused the privilege of eating in the capitol restaurant? Oh, well, we can see why the trick was played now.

There happens to be a gentleman living in Chicago, whose name is King, aspiring for the same seat in congress which Mr. DePriest now holds. From what I hear, this man King will be filling the seat Mr. DePriest is about to vacate. You might be wondering why. Well, Mr. King is a Democrat who believes in "Roosevelt or Ruin." It is quite natural the congressional district of which Mr. DePriest and King are a part, will of necessity vote for Mr. King. They could not do otherwise, when the people of Illinois stop to take into account the many constructive things the Democratic administration is now doing for our nation. The only ax Mr. DePriest is attempting to grind is to turn Negro sentiment against the Democratic party so that he might incur their favor and thus be re-elected. But, Mr. DePriest, you have spoken at the wrong time. The good citizens of Chicago know your game. And another thing, the Negroes not only of Illinois, but throughout the United States are looking for more than an "aye and nay" representative.

Mr. DePriest, you, as a congressman, mean as much to the Negroes as does Senator Dickinson to the commonwealth of Iowa: only a blow torch to incite a flame of sentiment against the administration. How can you expect the support of the people who are backing up the President and congress almost to a man? From your present and past attitude, it appears you want to return to private life to engage in real estate once more. I am sure your wish will come true.

In a national crisis such as we are now undergoing, the people of the United States wish their representatives to lay down partisanship in order that they give their all to the good of the country. Yes, there are fifteen million Negroes, who, like yourself, believe in human rights, but we ask, why do you attempt to put on the pressure now when you could have at least started five years ago with the party of Lincoln? Nevertheless, this party of Jefferson which has never camouflaged by having a Race plank in its platform, but which, in the language of our good President, believes in social justice, will see to it that you get your request granted. The Negro Democrats impose much greater confidence in their party than you could ever hope to receive from yours. Obviously, time has proven all of this because they have defaulted not only the Negroes but the nation as well.

Lest you forget, the Democrats have given to the nation the first President to openly declare to congress and to the nation his position toward lynching. There are three Democrats who are now ready to present bills to congress opposed to lynching. Pretty good for Democrats! We expect some one of these bills to be passed and not to be thrown into the waste paper basket as were Pat Dyer's anti-lynch bills because there were never enough Republican votes to put the bill over.

Under the past administration, the props supporting our government had mostly become rotten and crumbly, but now we have been brought face to face with a new day and a new social order, and above all, a "New Deal." Mr. DePriest, you can reasonably expect a square deal, and what fore long?

you have failed to do, Mr. King, when elected, will do.

Sports By Allen Ashby
In the high schools our boys didn't do so hot. Heywood Brover of East turns in a nice game each week whether his team wins or not. We were a bit surprised that George Robinson didn't break into North High's starting lineup. In the Y leagues things continued to pop. The Y aces took the lead in the junior league and in the senior league; the Spiders dusted the I. D. K.'s in a wild scuffle. Corinthian ran over the Harlem A. C. and only St. Paul's greater experience pulled them out ahead of the Trojans by a three point margin. In the inter-league Moore heads Wilson's Famous Five, is the leader. The Fellowship continues to have their jinx over the Panthers and with Red Fulton being a stand-out brought home the bacon. The Panthers are so eager to beat the East side boys that they over try. At West high Wednesday night the Spiders tromped on the Y Stars, 28-18. Flannelfoot Weston was hot and had such a big night that we fear for his cap the rest of the winter. Our big give downed the Stillwell Brothers from Valley Junction, 26-16. Bunny Wilson, Allen and Brown were the damage doers, while Overton registered for the first time this year. Al Webb and Earl Miller played good floor games. Our reserves continue to show class and some of them could graduate from the reserve class before long.

WILL ROGERS SPEAKS FOR CALIFORNIA WOMEN

Will Rogers, comedian and writer, was in Des Moines last week. Asked by a Des Moines Register reporter what he had to say, he immediately launched upon a discussion of Gov. Rolph of California, whose unstatesmanlike stand on lynching he not only approved but predicted that the Governor would be re-elected; that the women of California would see to that.

Misery likes company. Gov. Rolph got himself into hot water over his stand on lynching and Rogers with Negroes and fair-minded white people who disapprove his insulting remarks about Negroes over the radio a few weeks ago.

But the remarkable thing about Rogers' statement is his attempt to predict that the women of California would reject Rolph because they approved his course. The Bystander is convinced that he is wrong; that he misrepresents the women of that state.

Southern white women have organized against lynching, passed resolutions condemning it, are arousing sentiment against it and have put their sentiments in the form of petitions to President Roosevelt and their governors urging that immediate steps be taken to blot out this crime. Since most lynchings occur in the south it is reasonable to assume that if southern women are against it, those in communities where this form of barbarism seldom occurs would be against it also.

Will Rogers may speak for Gov. Rolph on the question of lynching but we don't believe he speaks for the women when he implies that they approve it.

SOUND REPUBLICANS ARE NEEDED

The Republicans of Iowa are sponsoring a state wide rally in Des Moines February 12, Lincoln's birthday. The day was chosen no doubt to restate the policies of the party on the birthday of one of its great leaders that it may recedicate itself to the original principles which actuated the founding of the party.

The idea is a good one because we have too many Republicans who run on the ticket and upon election throw the principles overboard; who feel that their election has made them bigger than the party; who refuse to cooperate with the very people who put them in office; whose so-called progressive principles actually misfit them for Republican office holders.

At the last election, the Republicans were swept out. Frankly, the Bystander was glad to see some of them go; we go further and say it will be our program to prevent some of them from returning. And we may get beat in the attempt, but these Republicans who refused to give Negroes proper recognition—although they promised with tears in their eyes that they would—will know that they cannot still get their primary vote.

The last administration did absolutely nothing for the Negro. Few of them did the Republican party any good. They should not be permitted to carry the party banners this fall.

DISEASES OF THE FEET

Aside from the discomfort caused by any local condition of any portion of the feet, there are some which indicate conditions on other portions of the system, which, if untreated, become uncontrollable and incurable. Conditions which sometimes give great unequitude, but which are not necessarily serious are: corns; bunions; cracks between the toes; callous formations on the under surface of the feet; blisters from the rubbing of shoes, on unusually sensitive skin; the fallen arch, with which everyone is acquainted; enlarged balls on the forward portion of the foot; and Athlete's Foot. The latter, under certain circumstances, including neglect, becomes a very serious condition and one that is, for a time, very difficult to cure. A disturbance in this portion, which never ends fatally, but which becomes excruciatingly painful, is due to pressure on a nerve by a bony prominence, and is called Morton's Disease, having been discovered by a physician bearing that name.

These things above mentioned are purely local, as would be a burn, a stone bruise, or a break in the skin from injury. "Rat bite" toe, which is gangrene of the toe resulting from the bite of a rodent, while purely a local condition, sometimes becomes so serious that it calls for amputation of the toe. Conditions occurring in the feet which are serious and indicative of some systematic condition, are: gangrene, resulting from some disease of the arteries; pus formations, showing intractable healing, and due to diabetes; erythromelalgia, also due to some arterial disease; and Raynaud's Disease, so named for its discoverer, due to arterial disease and resulting in some gangrene of the parts. From this enumeration it can be clearly discerned that any disturbance of the feet should lead the one so affected to inquire about his general bodily state, whether or not there be associated pain.

THE DEPRESSION HAS TAUGHT

The depression has taught people many lessons; has forced many to change vocations or to wish for different ones; it has taught that we know too little about the things around us. Many will take advantage of this opportunity. The Bystander urges the Negro boys and girls men and women take advantage of the fine opportunity offered, many of whom having never been fortunate enough to do so before.
