Two Iowans Sign Cafe Protest Petition

F. C. Gilchrist (R) and C. C. Dowell (R) were the Iowa representatives who signed the petition against discrimination in the public restaurant at the House.

WASHINGTON—(ANP)—Although Congressman Oscar DePriest won his fight to force an investigation of the authority for practicing discrimination in the public restaurant of the House of Representatives, an analysis of the vote discloses that he obtained support from only 24 of the 48 states. New York led with 27, Pennsylvania was second with 20 signers and Massachusetts was third with 13. The 145 signers were distributed as follows: 48 Democrats; 92 Republicans and five Farmer-Laborites.

Not only 11 of the states nominally regarded as southern stood mute, but 13 others, principally in the west, either had no representatives who felt favorably toward this issue of fundamental right, or had delegations which were 100 per cent opposed to it. Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Missouri, Delaware (has only one congressman), Oregon, Utah, New Hampshire, Nebraska, Nevada, Idaho, yielded but a single signature to the DePriest petition. However, the total of 147 signatures obtained by Mr. DePriest was nearly equal to the entire representation of the 24 silent states which have only 153 congressmen. From the 24 states whose congressmen signed the DePriest petition there are 282 representatives. Illinois was less than 50 per cent for it.

The House committee on rules, which had hitherto ignored the DePriest resolution, got together as soon as the petition had been perfected, cut the resolution down and voted to report it unfavorably. This means that the committee will have charge of the debate and that it will probably come up before April 9.

REV. GEORGE C. PARKER
EDITOR CHRISTIAN INDEX, DIES

He had been confined to his bed for four weeks. He was born in Dodge City, Kan. He had been editor 12 years.

Dr. Parker's mob violence editorial which advocated hot lead and steel jacketed bullets as the best curb for lynching "attracted national-wide attention and comment several months ago. He was one of the most prominently mentioned for the bishopric at the coming St. Louis General conference next month.

War Mother May Escape Prison

Los Angeles.—Aided by a group of leading citizens, Mrs. Anna Taylor, aged Gold Star mother who lost three sons overseas, won her first tilt toward freedom from prison last week when a writ of Probable Cause was filed in superior court and approved. The approval of this petition delays the removal of the aged woman from the city to San Quentin prison where she has been sentenced to from one to 10 years.

Mrs. Taylor was convicted March 20 of participation in a "slave ring." She was convicted along with Mrs. Pauline May LeRoy, white, who employed Mrs. Taylor as a maid. Mrs. LeRoy was found guilty of luring and holding prisoners in Bakersfield to young white girls.

The War mother pleaded that she knew nothing of what went on in the house and that she received only her room and board. The citizens who are fighting for Mrs. Taylor's release base their efforts on the fact that Mrs. Taylor through ignorance of the law found herself in a precarious situation.

Sports

Friday night closed the basketball season for local Y teams. In the carnival at West High, the Campus Coffee shop team, city champs, tackled the Big Five. Dennis, ex-Globe trotter, volunteered his services and of course the college boys watched him like a hawk. Bus Brown collared 13 points for high bonus on both teams. The Coffee boys won the ball game 38 to 34 after we muffed a chance to tie it up in the last 30 seconds. The Y stars lost a game to the West Des Moines Bears and the Panthers reinforced by George Robinson and Morton Graves, bounced on the East High Warriors, class B city junior champs.

In the boxing bouts Eddy Munday swinging over two gloves too many for Young Gater and Wayland Heath and Young Blank drew in a neat exhibition of boxing. Scotty Rowland knocked several shades of color from Paul Brewer and a couple of youngsters whose games we couldn't get up a line brawl.

Negroes Star at Iowa City
Last week North High boys led the way at Iowa City. One of the features of the meet was the 50 yard dash. George Robinson scampered home first followed by Jim Nance of Cedar Rapids and Bob Coffman of Ft. Dodge. A complete slam for our lads. Archie Lucas, "Nap" Morrow helped run away to set a new record in the two mile relay and Lucas and Robinson helped bring home the bacon in the two-thirds mile relay.

Then there were Black of Ottumwa, Ashby of Davenport who placed in their events, hurdles and broad jump. We hope to see all these boys and some more in the Drake Relays at the end of this month.

Negro Champions
It just occurred to us that not everybody knows that Al Brown, is still the bantam weight boxing champion and Kid Chocolate is also our feather weight title holder. Both these boys have been champs a long time and their upset wouldn't surprise us any.

"Anti-Lynch Bill Legal"—Tuttle

Cites Legal Cases Supporting Right of Federal Government to Act

Washington, D. C., April 6.—A comprehensive 28-page brief setting forth the constitutionality of the O'Strigan-Wagner federal anti-lynching bill was filed last week with the Senate subcommittee of the judiciary by Charles H. Tuttle, former U. S. district attorney for New York. The brief declares that lynching has become a national menace and that the lynchings of white and colored men last year "have been eloquent proof that this form of primitive savagery is not on the decline, and that both in its manifestation and in its consequence it is not only of grave concern to the individual states, but an imminent peril to the nation as a whole."

Colored Youth Convicted of Slaying White Man Is Paroled

JURY SIGNS CLEMENCY PETITION
By Everett Wadsworth, Staff Writer
In the presence of a crowded courtroom of eager curiosity seekers, anxious friends and state officials of law and order, a "new deal" in justice at the bar for the Negro originated in the capital city of the tall corn state when Thomas Rowland, 20, Negro, convicted of manslaughter was paroled Saturday by District Judge Frank S. Shankland in which the courageous jurist upheld the rights of Negroes to participate in all the rights and privileges of the government.

In granting clemency, the judge said: "I don't believe you intended to kill anyone. I'm taking the jury's verdict that you are guilty, but I am not saying what my belief is. . . . I can well understand the provocation you must have had when someone called you a black son of a . . . I think I know who you intended to hit with that brick but I don't believe you intended to kill anyone."

Never before in the annals of American courts has it been recalled that a Negro ever was paroled from the bench for slaying a white man. The state was represented by Carl A. Burkman, county attorney and C. Edwin Moore, assistant county attorney. Charles P. Howard, Negro criminal lawyer, was defense attorney.

Called Vile Name
As Rowland approached the door, John Garner, white, stepped in front shouting "Not another black son of a . . . will enter this building ahead of me!" emphasizing his anger by tripping the Negro. Rowland went to the basement and returned with four other boys. He struck Garner, knocking him down; in the melee, Mrs. Bertha Wieland, white, was struck. Seeing this white woman hit, Fisher started swearing and rushed to his car presumably for a gun. Rowland and the boys then went away. Fisher returned, brandishing a pick ax handle, agreeing to take on all Negroes. Suddenly, out of the darkness a brick was thrown striking Fisher in the stomach, causing his death a few minutes later.

MORE EVEN JUSTICE
Attorney Howard said to the judge in behalf of Rowland: "The boy has never been in trouble before. He is the sole support of his father, mother and sisters. I don't know how they will survive without him. Knowing

Fowler and Son funeral directors.

Nashville Doctor On City Council

BALLOT BOX STOLEN
Nashville.—(ANP)—Negro voters in the fourteenth ward Thursday elected Dr. H. H. Walker, a colored physician, to represent the ward in the city council. Thursday, a special election was held. Dr. Walker, the colored candidate, received 214 votes. Thomas King, white druggist, polled 97 votes, and D. I. Barfield, a white huckster, was given 93. After the votes had been counted and certified, the lights suddenly were thrown off in the polling place Thursday night and the ballot box was stolen.

Asked what he was going to do about the theft, the chairman of the county election commission, W. M. Carr, said the theft did not make any difference because none of the candidates had filed expense accounts in the time specified by law and that therefore no candidate was qualified. Thus, although Dr. Walker won, he will be denied the fruits of victory on a technicality, unless his attorney can find some better "law." He is the first Negro to be elected to the council in more than 20 years.

Rapes Girl; Ordered To Leave State

Little Rock, Ark., April 6.—Dr. J. S. Pierce, white physician, who was convicted of "contributory delinquency" in connection with his raping of a 12-year-old schoolgirl, has been ordered to leave the state of Arkansas and never return.

This decision was reached recently when the Pulaski circuit court, presided over by Judge Abner McGehee, heard Dr. Pierce plead guilty after appealing the verdict of a lower court, which had sentenced him to 60 days in jail and a $300 fine. Although the doctor had been taken in his office with the little girl only after police had broken down his door, he fought the charges in the lower court, and after sentence, defiantly filed notice of appeal.

Citizens Demand Justice
In the meantime Negro citizens, working with a handful of white people who believe in justice, were demanding that this white rapist be given the same treatment that would be meted out to any other person guilty of the crime of criminally attacking a 12-year-old girl. They did not demand a lynching, although it was freely expressed that had the person despoiled been a white girl and the guilty person not white, there would surely have been a lynching in Little Rock. All that was demanded in this case was that the laws be enforced—laws which are specific with reference to this sort of crime.

Police in the questioning of witnesses at the house, said they were unable to find any motive for the shooting. People living at the house are Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Newton, Sherman, Jr., and Lawrence Banks. Hayes came to the house at 7 a. m. to go groundhog hunting with Banks. He knocked on the door and was told to come in.

Negro Play to Be Given April 23

COMMUNITY CENTER PRESENTS
"IN ABRAHAM'S BOSOM"
"In Abraham's Bosom" Negro folk drama which is to be presented Monday, April 23, at the Jewish Community Center under the auspices of the Negro Community Center, is the most frank, truest and one of the most beautiful Negro plays ever to be done here.

Painted against the background of dark bodies sweating and straining out an existence under the hot Carolina sun, Abraham, a young Negro idealist reaches out his hand toward the stars to raise his people out of sin and ignorance. In the seven scenes he struggles toward his goal, feared and hated by the whites, misunderstood and forsaken by his own people, until in the end fate snuffs out his life while he still hopes and looks forward to a better day.

The play won the Pulitzer prize for its author, Paul Green and served as a starring vehicle for Rose McClendon and Frank W. Wilson during its Broadway run. Its local premiere is under the direction of Jack Smith, formerly of the Gilpin Repertory Players, Cleveland, Ohio, the original production of Charles Sidney Gilpin's "The Emperor Jones" and more recently both the Goodman Theatre and the Chicago Tributary theatre, Chicago.

Burkman, county attorney and C. Edwin Moore, assistant county attorney; Charles P. Howard, Negro criminal lawyer, was defense attorney.

Guilty of Manslaughter After a trial which lasted eight days, Rowland, who was indicted for murder, was found guilty of manslaughter Saturday, March 24, of hurling a brick which struck Ira A. Fisher, 34, white, in a fight occurring at the Roadside settlement house. On that night, a crowd of white people were outside awaiting admittance to a dance which was to begin at eight o'clock. Several Negro boys came up and the locked doors were opened admitting them to the recreation and club rooms. The white people becoming impatient and highly incensed because Negroes were being allowed to enter first, began to swear and make threats.

Called Vile Name As Rowland approached the door, John Garner, white, stepped in front shouting "Not another black son of a . . . will enter this building ahead of me!" emphasizing his anger by tripping the Negro. Rowland went to the basement and returned with four other boys. He struck Garner, knocking him down; in the melee, Mrs. Bertha Wieland, white, was struck. MOKE EVEN JUSTICE Attorney Howard said to the judge in behalf of Rowland: "The boy has never been in trouble before. He is the sole support of his father, mother and sisters. I don't know how they will survive without him. Knowing this boy as I do and viewing this case in its entirety, I still have an abiding faith in his innocence. Considering it all I believe a more even justice can be given by paroling him." After sentencing Rowland to a term not exceeding eight years at Anamosa, the reformatory, Judge Shankland said:

250 People Petition "Regarding a parole, it is true I have received a petition asking for clemency signed by more than 250 persons. I have before me a similar petition signed by members of the jury. The foreman was the first member of the jury to come and see me and has been in to see me at least ten times since.

"The responsibility is on me" Citing incidents proving that the police officers are partial, and with scathing denunciations, Judge Shankland struck a forceful blow at race prejudice and the Negro injustice. He told Rowland in conclusion: "I have a number of letters from prominent city residents asking for you a parole. In arriving at this decision whether or not I should parole you, I must take into consideration, the record in the case, your future and the effect my decision will have upon society. The responsibility rests on me. I am going to give you another chance; don't humiliate these persons who have signed this petition, your friends who have written these letters, your lawyer and me by violating your parole."

Nashville Doctor On City Council

BALLOT BOX STOLEN

Nashville.—(ANP)—Negro voters in the fourteenth ward Thursday elected Dr. H. H. Walker, a colored physician, to represent the ward in the city council. Thursday, a special election was held. Dr. Walker, the colored candidate, received 214 votes. Thomas King, white druggist, polled 97 votes, and D. L. Barfield, a white huckster, was given 93. After the votes had been counted and certified, the lights suddenly were thrown off in the polling place Thursday night and the ballot box was stolen.

Asked what he was going to do about the theft, the chairman of the county election commission, W. M. Carr, said the theft did not make any difference because none of the candidates had filed expense accounts in the time specified by law and that therefore no candidate was qualified. Thus, although Dr. Walker won, he will be denied the fruits of victory on a technicality, unless his attorney can find some better "law." He is the first Negro to be elected to the council in more than 20 years.

Rapes Girl; Ordered To Leave State

Little Rock, Ark., April 6.—Dr. J. S. Pierce, white physician, who was convicted of "contributory delinquency" in connection with his raping of a 12-year-old schoolgirl, has been ordered to leave the state of Arkansas and never return.

This decision was reached recently when the Pulaski circuit court, presided over by Judge Abner McGhee, heard Dr. Pierce plead guilty after appealing the verdict of a lower court which had sentenced him to 60 days in jail and a $500 fine. Although the doctor had been taken in his office with the little girl only after police had broken down his door, he fought the charges in the lower court, and after sentence, defiantly filed notice of appeal.

Negro Play to Be Given April 23

COMMUNITY CENTER PRESENTS "IN ABRAHAM'S BOSOM" "In Abraham's Bosom," Negro folk drama which is to be presented Monday, April 23, at the Jewish Community Center under the auspices of the Negro Community Center, is the most frank, truest and one of the most beautiful Negro plays ever to be done here.

Painted against the background of dark bodies sweating and straining out an existence under the hot Carolina sun, Abraham, a young Negro idealist reaches out his hand toward the stars to raise his people out of sin and ignorance. In the seven scenes he struggles toward his goal; feared and hated by the whites, misunderstood and forsaken by his own people, until in the end fate snuffs out his life while he still hopes and looks forward to a better day.

The play won the Pulitzer prize for its author, Paul Green and served as a starring vehicle for Rose McClendon and Frank W. Wilson during its Broadway run. Its local premiere is under the direction of Jack Smith, formerly of the Gilpin Repertory Players, Cleveland, Ohio, the original production of Charles Sidney Gilpin's "The Emperor Jones" and more recently both the Goodman Theatre and the Chicago Tributary theatre, Chicago.

"JOTA" COOK DENIES RIFT IN MARRIAGE TO HERBERT MILLS

Bar "Brownskin Models"

Petite Dancer Riled at Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—(By Biron "Speed" O'Reilly for the ANP)—We are not separated now and never have been.

The speaker was Miss Louise "Jota" Cook, vivacious New York dancer, the hot report answered a question in regard to press reports from the East claiming that Miss Cook and her husband, Herbert Mills, of the famous Mills Brothers, had come to the parting of the ways.

"Only our work has kept us a part white in Los Angeles," Miss Cook said. She just closed a successful engagement at Burbank theater.

The statement was corroborated by Mrs. John Mills, pretty wife of the oldest of the brothers, who, before her marriage was Alice Gross of Cincinnati. Both girls claimed that they had not the slightest idea where the rumor came from and Miss Cook informed the writer that she had wired the Eastern paper, demanding a retraction of the false statement. From my point of view, the young couple is very much in love and it was impossible for me to miss seeing how attentive is the 21 years old baby.

LONE STAR

PAULINE BRYANT, theatrical pride of Fort Worth, is now appearing with McKinney's Cotton Pickers, Miss Bryant made her debut at the age of five with the Lafayette players.

Miami Passes Law Against Miller's Show

MIAMI, Fla.—"The Brownskin Models Revue" was presented in the Harlem theatre, N. W. Third avenue, and 14th street, before a colored audience following an "understanding" between city officials and officers of the Lyric Operating company, who agreed not to offer race performances before white audiences.

Theatre officials, who had obtained an injunction from Judge Uly G. Thompson of circuit court restraining Miami police from interfering with the show, decided to abandon their plan of entering to white patrons after the city commission had passed on first reading an ordinance which would prohibit such performances and E. A. Westra, fire chief, had ordered the theatre closed as a fire hazard.

Frank G. Roche, labor leader, urged the commission to take action to stop the proposed performance before white audiences, pointing out that such shows were likely to cause "friction."

AMOS TO AMOS

Radio News

BY CHARLES ISAAC BROWN (For ANP.)

CHICAGO—Thomas "Fats" Waller, popular entertainer, whose talent is equally divided between composing, piano and organ recital, and vocalizing, made his debut on the Columbus network last Wednesday morning, and will be heard on the network every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings.

Something unusual for an artist, also, is that he will do his own announcing.

"We can proudly boast of having 'wowed 'em in' at night clubs and theatres in New York, Berlin, Vienna, London, Monte Carlo and Paris. He has written such tunes as 'Ain't My Behavin' Now' and 'Out of Mischief Now' and many others as well known—Waller, large, good-natured, with an infectious smile, and pleasing personality, was born in New York.

The Mills Brothers will appear in a movie with Ted Floto and Dick Powell titled "Rhythm in the Air" and Duke Ellington and his famous band has been designated to do a Headliner short for RKO Radio, the idea being written entirely around the band.

Ole Cab Calloway, now across the pond, is getting special attention on Gramercy Radio, his arrival at Southampton.

CBS studios were swamped with telegrams and letters asking why the Mills Brothers were not on the program with Bing Crosby last Monday night. The reason is that the quartet's contract for the season was only renewed because they have only a few days to finish the pictures they've contracted for and make the steamer for Europe. They will probably double the length of their stay in England, according to the radio news received from their agency last week. The present contract calls for a split between the Radioland and Alhambra, with after stage doubling into the Mayfair night club. Their extended stay in England is due to Bing Crosby's delay here in Paris, for eight months at the least to finish pictures and personal appearances whose contract has previously been drawn.

Billy Rose, his attorney and CBS are having it out over the former's song, "Frosted Chocolate," when the lyrics are sung over the network because it might be interpreted as prejudicial to the Negroes. Rose's side of the argument is that "Bill" Robinson introduced the dirty act in the casting of the song. THE KING AND "YIP" GREEN, pictured above, members of the "Brownskin Models" show, couldn't appear before a white audience dressed like this under a new law in Miami (Fla.) city council. The law says they display their "face, neck, hands and arms."

Scribe Raves Over "Bojangles"

(ANP)—Where do you get it to make their "feels"?" said the scribe, referring to the dancing American, "Bill Robinson" who makes them look easier they are. "Most tap-dancers do not only themselves but their audiences perspire. We sat over watching them, and each time when some 'chill' creaser ran down their faces, we felt it on our own."

Bill Robinson is the most popular dancer in the world, and he employed an unusual phrase to describe his dancing. He said that he "throws away" important steps, just as a finished actor "throws away" important lines. He is usually to emphasize them by a degree of understatement.

Extras Get Heavy Pay Envelopes

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—With the pay roll for dance atmosphere players in the current motion pictures running to $700 last Saturday, the heavy needed income for March has already headed for a new high record by the end of the month, January, February and March, so far have been better for Negro employment than for the past four years.

In January 761 men, women and children received $4,197.50. In February 523 received $4,027.52. So far in March 456 have worked, but with the total in wages not available until the end of the month, this is but 85 per cent of the colored players working, the balance being higher salaries than the regular extras and their employment handled personally by through agents.

Central Casting is handling the hard through Charles Butler to keep the race in the movies, rather than players of black alien race or whites made up dark.

ALONG AMUSEMENT ALLEY

By THE SCRIBE

"BEST DRESSED" — Adelaide Hall, star of the current Harlem Cotton club floor show, boasts that she is America's best dressed sopia. Says Variety "Miss Hall's first gown, was pink satin with a long mantle, hanging from the shoulders of pale blue satin. The skirt was girdled with orchids. A cream colored brocade had cascades of brown mulline on the shoulders. It's one of five dresses Adelaide models during the show."

REUBEN REEVES — Not the same youth whom Erskine Tate brought to fill the spot left vacant by Louis Armstrong at the old Vendome theatre in 1926. Reuben Reeves brought his hand to town last week with the Butterbeans and Susie show. He's lost some of his flash, but not his corn-playing ability. Instead of the green kid, he's become a sophisticated professional.

WALTER BARNES — Heading the best band of his varied career, Walter Barnes passed through Atlanta this week. Some smart booker some day will see his opportunity and sign Walter for the big time. In the hey-day of prosperity and racketeering, Walter held down the spot at Ralph Capone's (Al's brother) Cotton club in Chicago just outside of Chicago, but things have been going adversely lately. He's making a game comeback.

STEPIN'S SPEECH — When 500 white women assembled at the swank Woman's Breakfast Club, Los Angeles, guess who was introduced as the principal speaker. Note other than our old friend, Stepin Fetchit. The speech was recorded for a newsreel. Purpose of the address: to raise contributions for the "National Rest Association," which Step is alleged to be sponsoring.

Butterbeans and Susie In "Moves On"

HOLLYWOOD (WS)—Steppin Fetchit, the man who came back in Hollywood and who seems to be destined to be better than he was before his departure, has been added to the new "The Moves On." It is a picture which shows a passage of time and various generations in one family, it is to have as a time boundary the Colonial period to the Civil War. Jesse Graves and Reuben Hall have completed a number of sentences in this picture, and Step will be used in another part of the story. He will be cast as a soldier while Graves and Jones were servants.

The picture is being directed by John Ford and has its stars Madeline Carroll and Francklyn Ross. It marks the dual comeback of the former, who has appeared in "Carolina," David Harris' other picture made by Hollywood studios since his return.

DUNBAR PLAYERS

Washington, D. C.—(ANP)—On Saturday evening, at Garnet Patterson addition, Washington, D. C., the Dunbar Community Center presented the Dunbar Players in "Early Frost," by Henry Blaylock Stevens, "The Greek Vase," by Maurice Baring and "The Flattering Word," by George Edward Kelley.

FOUR SAINTS TO REOPEN IN N. Y.

NEW YORK (ANP)—"Four Saints in Three Acts," the opera by Gertrude Stein and Virgil Thomson, employing an all-colored cast, will open for a return engagement at the Empire theatre, April 2. It is closed a four-week run March 17 and there has been a large demand for the return of the production.

BISHOP FULLER RETURNS FROM VIRGIN ISLANDS

Bishop W. E. Fuller arrived in Atlanta Friday following an enjoyable stay in the Virgin Islands. His second annual meeting was held at St. Thomas on March 16 and it was quite a success, according to the bishop. One new church in Jamaica, British West Indies has been added to the roll.

Sterilization is Film Theme

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—(By Fay M. Jackson, for ANP.)—Of all the strange things that happen out in Hollywood, the strangest, perhaps, is that a wave of sterilization has hit the town like nobody's business.

Civic groups are hearing Sunday afternoon lectures on the subject by doctors from the Human Betterment Foundation. Ladies Aid Societies have caused their hanging of local pharmacies for dispensing contraceptives and new motion pictures have taken up the matter in wholesale fashion to stir the unsuspecting public just why and how the process of preventing the birth of criminals and idiots and other "menaces to society" is carried out.

Wallace Thurman, one of the leaders of the so-called Negro Renaissance, author, editor and staff member of MacCaulay's "Boyz n' the City," has been engaged by Bryant Fox of the many little Eggs of vaudeville fame to Independent Producers of Extraordinary Pictures, to do the story.

Thurman arrived in the film city two weeks ago and started work immediately. He is the first Negro to be engaged by a motion picture firm to write a film story not dealing with racial issues.

So well is the work progressing according to Fox, that after the first week of shooting, producers decided to do the film on a larger scale, spend more money on it, engage more actors and make "Sterilization" a more sensational flicker than "Elysia," the nudist picture produced by the same firm. Thurman's contract was extended from three months to three years and his original salary of $250 per week raised to a staggering figure of $10,000 a week.

"I'm just having a grand time," Thurman said this week. "Hollywood is as crazy as ever. The studio is a mad-house workshop. I write on the 'hot' and the picture is shot and a couple of days off for lunch and start all over again. And that's Hollywood. But, seriously, the idea of sterilizing incompetents takes on amazing proportions. It reaches into the most intricate patterns of our social life."

Buck Clayton Finally Gets Off to China

HOLLYWOOD (WS)—When Buck Clayton and his Harlem Gentlemen did not embark for the Orient on the Tatsu Maru in Los Angeles last Monday, they were called to the MGM studio for work on the current picture "The Thin Man." This will have William Powell and Maureen O'Sullivan in the leading roles.

Clayton completed his sequences and left here last Thursday night for San Francisco where they were to board the steamer. The reported reason for not embarking here was the matter of accommodations. They were supposed to travel second class but when the boat was to leave from Los Angeles, they were told that the reservations were all taken and the only vacancies were third class. They refused to travel third class and were to call on April 2nd. After some telephone messages they were advised to embark for San Francisco and take the boat from that city.

Oscar Smith Starts 910th Picture Role

HOLLYWOOD (WS)—Oscar Smith, who has made a name for himself in a number of pictures, has started his 910th picture here last week when he was signed for "The Wilding Hour." He has been in pictures for the last 16 years and in the old days of the silent pictures frequently did bits in several productions each day.

Oscar was at one time Wallace Kelly's valet and his first break in pictures was given to him by the late star. At the present time, he operates a concession and shoe shine stand at the main gate on the Paramount lot. From his get-up in pictures and revenue from his concession, Oscar is one of the best paid silent actors in Hollywood.

About the members of the brain trust he says: "To lump them all together and assert that they have an organized purpose and are directing the administration is absurd. In fact the real criticism to be made of the brain trust is that it has no common brain and that the program which its members have helped to formulate is a mixture of conflicting policies."

If ever there was a group most people thought were together, it is the financial wizards of our country, and yet they have and continue to run this country.

So when those people contend that Negroes are not together, there is but one answer: "They are together as much so as any other group." The charges are made to confuse the Negro himself.

AMERICAN LEGION LOBBY
Congress passed the veterans bill over President Roosevelt's veto. Many so-called humanitarians are criticizing the American Legion who insisted that the bill become a law; they charge that the American Legion lobby in Washington is a dangerous group.

Well, if caring for the disabled veteran is dangerous, then the American Legion is willing to be called dangerous. The only difference in the Legion and its critics is that these critics promised everything to the veteran if he won the war. The critics have changed fronts. The veteran won the war; now seeks that justice be done.
