New Hope Is Held For Anti-Lynch Bill Passage Georgia Supreme Court Upholds 18-Year Sentence Against Angelo Herndon Maple Street Baptist Church in Official Opening Sunday Afternoon

Insurrection Law Convicts Worker

Atlanta (CNS)—Angelo Herndon, young Negro organizer of Cincinnati, who was convicted of an attempt to incite insurrection here some months ago, must serve a sentence of 18 to 20 years in the state penitentiary, the Georgia state supreme court has ruled.

Herndon was convicted under a Georgia statute which provides capital punishment as the maximum sentence for any one who tries to overthrow the government of Georgia by force. In this case the jury recommended mercy.

The state charged that when Herndon was arrested in Atlanta he had an arsenal of literature and that one pamphlet advocated the creation of a Negro nation out of the Southern states and secession from the United States. Herndon also was charged with having attempted to foment strikes.

Herndon was known as a Communist organizer, and several white associates, including a young woman, await trial on similar charges.

EAST DES MOINES REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE OF SHERIFF

E. A. Stout, who lives at 1314 Ure street, and who some time ago announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination as sheriff of Polk county is making an active campaign for the place on a platform of "law enforcement and economy in operation of the office."

Mr. Stout declares he is confident he can perfect an organization in the sheriff's office and operate the business of the office at a saving of several thousands of dollars to the taxpayers each year.

Mr. Stout has been a business man in East Des Moines for more than 30 years, and has always taken an interest in public affairs. He was a candidate for sheriff two years ago at the primary election. Mr. Keeling ran independent. Of Mr. Keeling, Mr. Stout says "When Keeling was defeated for supervisor several years ago, he ran on an independent ticket, thus violating his party pledge. I have been a loyal republican at all times."

HARRY SWAN WILL RUN FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

Harry B. Swan, Atlantic, republican candidate for attorney general, is a native of Atlantic and has lived in Atlantic all his life, except for two years which he spent in the army.

He is a member of the law firm of Swan, Martin & Martin. He is a leader of the bar in southwestern Iowa and a member of all bar associations, including the American Iowa and Cass County associations.

The Valley Golf club of Des Moines walked away with honors in a meet with the Heart of America club of Kansas City, Mo., and the Swastika Golf club of Omaha, Neb., in a 36-hole medal play tournament at Grand View Wednesday.

The day's play was featured by the brilliant shooting of Jack Howard, Des Moines' juvenile star, who carried the veteran Charles P. Howard to extra holes for low medalist honors, winning the playoff, 1 up.

Other low cards were turned in by J. L. McGuire and L. Jones, of Des Moines; P. Murray and G. Watson of Omaha and E. Rummons and George Johnson of Kansas City.

EDITORIAL Why The Bystander Endorses Bob Colflesh

Monday, candidates will be nominated to carry respective party banners at the general election in November. It is at these primary elections where parties choose the standard bearer they want; it is at this time when partisans have an opportunity to have their say as to the best man for the nomination.

As to the democratic nomination there is little question that Gov. Herring will be nominated; the republican field provides the big battle. Heretofore the Bystander has discussed the governorship race for the republican nomination in but general terms. Here it will discuss the candidates in the order of their possibility of nomination.

Wallace Short has no chance for nomination and we shall pass at that. Clarence Knutson has a popular appeal: "Tax Free Homes and Farms," which everybody who thinks, knows we cannot have. He will no doubt poll a good vote but his only chance is for a convention deadlock and the desire of opposing forces to compromise.

Republicans want a nomination on Monday. The real battle is between Dan Turner and Bob Colflesh. Voters must realize that the theories of each individual on taxation and other state issues are individual; that in looking at them the question must inevitably be answered, "Which of these two candidates has a chance of getting his program adopted? Which is more closely tied to the constitution and the policies upon which the Republican party was founded?" These, every republican admits are sound.

Since minority groups must first determine which candidate passes muster on their individual problems we will discuss this question mainly. In order for public officials to do much for minority groups, they must have courage, a sense of justice to all and a will to do. No republican governor of Iowa has exhibited any courage on the Negro question for sixteen years. Herring displayed courage by giving Negroes as much as his republican predecessors. But why stop at that?

It is generally admitted that Negro representation at the state house is woefully lacking and we know the governor is responsible. If he has the courage to make outstanding appointments, others will do likewise. We believe Bob Colflesh has that courage. We believe he is fitted for the job and will not hesitate to do something worthwhile for the Negro.

Bob Colflesh has been closely identified with ex-service men in Iowa and everybody knows that Negro ex-service men have received more and fairer consideration at the hands of ex-service men than any other mixed organization in the state.

As director of the census in this district Colflesh did not hesitate to give Negroes work in the enumeration of the census. The Negro legion men know he is a square shooter and can be depended upon to see that minority groups are adequately represented.

After all with minority groups it is a question of whether public officials have the courage to help them earn money as well as spend it. This we believe Bob has more than we will find in the race. We believe he will not be satisfied with the measly pittance we have had in the past, but will have the courage to do more.

The Bystander endorses him without reservation and believes that the race, the state and republican party will profit by nominating and electing him governor. Bob is a young man, qualified, courageous and a square shooter.

Cafe Jim Crow Issue Under Way

HOUSE COMMITTEE HEARS PROS AND CONS OF SEGREGATION
Washington (ANP)—Condemning the flagrant policy of segregation now in practice at the public restaurant of the House of Representatives in the Capitol building here, Morris Lewis, secretary to Congressman Oscar DePriest, appeared last Thursday morning before a committee investigating the right of Representative Lindsey Warren, chairman of the house committee on accounts, to order any such discrimination.

Lewis, in absence of Congressman DePriest, gave a brief account of the history of the present controversy, informing committee members that he had been allowed to eat in the so-called "public" restaurant without challenge for several years, until Warren issued the order that colored persons should be excluded unless they come as guests of Mr. DePriest.

Speaking for Mr. DePriest, Lewis asked that the committee not only report on the question of authority for the accounts committee to establish any rule discriminating against any person in the matter of service in the public restaurant of the house because of race of color, but also that it recommend that any order barring any person from service in the restaurant because of race or color be forthwith rescinded.

CATHOLICS DIRECT ACTION TO WIPE PREJUDICE

New York (ANP)—A student-student appeal was made recently, challenging the Catholic man to become articulate in the cause of justice for the Negro.

This call was issued in the form of a joint report of the inter-racial committee of the Brooklyn Catholic Action Council and a committee of Catholic college graduates and undergraduates. All of the 162 Catholic colleges of the country were circled, the plea being sent out as a printed leaflet entitled, "All Men Are Equal, A Brief for the Black Man."

The Maple Street Baptist Church will open its doors in a grand celebration Sunday, June 3, at East 16th and Maple streets. In the afternoon, the Rev. G. W. Robinson of Corinthian Baptist Church and Moderator of Iowa Baptist Convention, will preside and the Rev. D. A. Holmes of Kansas City, Mo., will be the main speaker. Everybody is invited to attend and dinner will be served in church dining room, according to an announcement by Rev. A. Ross Brent, pastor.

Greetings will be extended by the following persons representing the Council of Churches, Mrs. Decie Dunckley; Baptist churches, Rev. J. A. Alexander; civic and fraternal organizations, Atty. S. Joe Brown, public presentation, Editor J. B. Morris, H. Dudley, chairman of holding committee will tell of struggles and achievements of churches in the building program. Maple street church is one of the oldest and largest congregations in the city.

Colflesh Meeting at Union Park Sunday

There will be a "Colflesh for Governor" homecoming celebration at the Union Park tourist camp, Des Moines, Saturday evening, June 2, from six o'clock on. There will be music and entertainment, and food will be served barbecue style, furnished by friends of the candidate, Bob Colflesh. The speeches will be broadcast, and chairs and benches will be available to seat everyone.

Several caravans from other Iowa towns will come to Des Moines for this occasion. The world's champion American Legion Junior Drum and Bugle Corps will play. It is expected that at least five thousand people will attend this celebration as this is the first time Des Moines has had a Republican candidate for Governor for many years.

Alabama Hears Scottsboro Case

STATE SUPREME TRIBUNAL LISTENS TO ARGUMENTS THAT HIT JURY SYSTEM
Montgomery, Ala. (ANP)—Once again the supreme court of Alabama was required to listen to an appeal in the famous Scottsboro case. Two years ago, the high court, by a vote of six to one, affirmed death sentences for seven of the boys originally convicted at Scottsboro of an attack on two white girls. The United States supreme court set the verdicts aside.

The Alabama court which listened to arguments Friday is the one exception, Thomas Knight Sr., father of the attorney general of the state who prosecuted the Scottsboro boys, is not on the high court. Osmond K. Fraenkel, who represented the boys before the United States Supreme court, and Samuel Leibowitz (who defended them in both trials at Decatur, presented arguments before the supreme court here Friday.

Both Mr. Fraenkel and Mr. Leibowitz centered their attack on the selective jury system in Alabama which they charge systematically excludes Negroes in violation of the federal constitution. They also attacked the method by which the Morgan county jury lists were altered to include the names of Negroes and charged that they were crude forgeries.

HANSON IS MAKING RACE

Frank M. Hanson, republican candidate for state auditor, is making a real race for nomination, his friends declare. He is qualified by years of banking and business experience. He was assistant budget director for five years, and has had years of practical executive experience. Elimination of politics from state offices and administration on a business basis is promised by Mr. Hanson.

Friends Seek Agreement To Limit Debate to Speed Action at This Session

Senators Costigan and Wagner Confer with President Roosevelt

Washington, D. C., June 1.—There is still some hope for a vote on the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill at this session. If negotiations now in progress are successful, debate will be limited and a vote taken prior to adjournment. Senators Costigan and Wagner conferred yesterday with President Roosevelt, but no word on the anti-lynching measure was given out although it is known they discussed it thoroughly with the Chief Executive. They were accompanied by the White House by Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, but Mr. White did not share in their conference with the President.

"Over His Dead Body"

Among the remarks going the rounds is one said to have been made by Senator Hubert D. Stephens of Mississippi to the effect that the anti-lynching bill would be passed only "over my dead body." Senator Walter George of Georgia, is known as an open foe of the bill, but he is not as violent as Senator Stephens. Senator Robinson, senate leader, is cool, but not openly hostile. Meanwhile it is still most necessary, Secretary White declared, for all organizations and individuals who want this bill passed, to keep writing or telegraphing President Roosevelt urging him to have the bill brought up for a vote at this session.

WHITE TEXAS WOMAN'S CLUB BACKS ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

El Paso, Tex., June 1.—The Women's City Government club of this city through its president, Mrs. C. Robert Townsend, has announced that it is asking the two Texas senators to support the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill.

Representative Dowell Seeking Reelection From Sixth District

Hon. C. C. Dowell, present representative of the Sixth congressional district, is a candidate for renomination on the republican ticket.

Owing to the large amount of work required in the present session of congress, Mr. Dowell has not been able to return to Iowa in order to make a personal campaign. Rather he has felt it his duty to his constituents to remain in Washington in order that the district might be properly represented.

Recognizing this high sense of public duty, Mr. Dowell's host of friends have made a quiet but effective campaign in his behalf, knowing that at all times the district has a representative of value.

Mr. Dowell's friends desire to emphasize the fact that the record shows that he has voted favorably on every bill and resolution coming up during his terms in office involving the rights and the interest of the Negro. He has stood with Representative DePriest not only in his fight on the exclusion of Negroes from the House restaurant, but also for Howard University; he has supported the anti-lynching bill. His record deserves the support of the voters of this district.

Asks Support

CORONER'S RACE

Dr. William Carpenter, present Polk county coroner, should receive the unqualified support of every voter at the primaries on Monday, June 4, 1934. The reason—because of his personal fitness, as a man, as a physician and the experience he has had in the past in successfully and economically handling the affairs of the coroner's office. This is no time for experiments—so for safety sake you should support Dr. William Carpenter at the polls.

New Deal Seen for Young Negro, Says Local Colored Democrat

NEGRO YOUTH AND DEMOCRACY

By Luther Henry Smith, Sr.

It is becoming evident that the new deal in politics and the young Negro together will do away with much of the professional politicians traffic in colored votes. People have become more politically minded since the last Presidential election and an increasing number of the thinking class of citizens have been aroused to take an active part in the administrative affairs of their communities. The youth is ever frank and critical and his mind is not steeped in misty traditional lore. To convince him he must be shown. The young Negroes do not know Lincoln but have been told that he was dead, and they observe nothing in the attitude of the Republican party of today to deserve their undying support. What they do see is a Roosevelt in the White House who is striving with might and main to bring peace and prosperity to a nation that has been all but engulfed in the World's greatest depression. He does not question the unusual procedure of the President to obtain a mass movement in the right direction, for he realizes that something different has to be done to start any stalled car. The young Negro not blinded by political buncombe observes in the Roosevelts, both the President and his wife the purest democracy he has ever seen. For the first time in history the laboring man feels that he has a champion in the nation's head and he takes heart. For the first time in history he observes Negroes selected from here and there and yonder, according to their ability and fitness, to serve as aids to the Government in administering the affairs of their people. And so the black youth takes heart.

In Iowa we have a democratic governor, the first in many years. Naturally the dyed-in-the-wool Negro Republicans did not help him into office. There was much fear and trembling as to what the new man would do to the few petty jobs held by colored men. After a year of Democratic administration we observe that there was some shifting of jobs as was to be expected but there are the same number of Negroes employed over at the State House under Governor Clyde Herring that there was under his Republican predecessors who went in on the support of Negro ballots. Some persons have learned that there are good and bad men in both parties and their political affiliations have nothing to do with their attitude toward colored people. Mr. Herring before he was Governor, and the late E. T. Meredith, another democrat, probably employed more Negroes in their business and homes and paid them more money, than any Republican we can name in the city. Lying politicians seeking office with a big grin on their faces and self-appointed leaders will find it increasingly more difficult to deliver the Negro vote. The young wide awake Negro must be shown. If political activity is worth good jobs for the white it will have to be the same coin for the Negro.

NEGROES GETTING FOOT HOLD ON TENNESSEE VALLEY PROJECT

Knoxville, Tenn. (ANP)—Claim is made that Negro men are being hired in the Norris Dam section of the Tennessee Valley Authority project. B. B. Smith, editor of the Flashlight Herald, and a number of young men including Attorney C. A. Cowan, Dr. E. M. Carter, J. H. Davis and Raymond Stephens have contacted the TVA for the employment of Negro men with some evidence of success.

Atlanta Medic Must Pay Wife $125 Monthly Alimony

ORDERED TO PAY $125 MONTHLY

Jury Gives Him Partial Divorce But Denies Right to Remarry

OFFICE GIRL TESTIFIES

By CLIFF MACKAY

ATLANTA, Ga.—Delivering a stinging rebuke to Dr. H. M. Holmes, prominent local physician, for his allegedly "more than professional interest" in Miss Mel Moye, his slender brownskin office assistant, a jury in Judge E. E. Pomeroy's court Thursday ruled that he must pay his graduate-nurse wife, Pattie, a total of $125 monthly as permanent alimony, $50 of which was to go toward the support of his 15-year old daughter, Alice Carey.

The amount was only $25 under that asked by A. T. Walden, who represented the socially-prominent and by bitter and invective accusations hurled at each other by Dr. and Mrs. Holmes.

In her petition Mrs. Holmes asked that she be awarded permanent alimony for supporting herself and minor children, and for the custody of Alice Carey, Holmes' and Alfred Fountain Holmes' daughter. Dr. Holmes filed a cross bill in which he sought a total divorce from his wife on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, charging that she had "harassed, annoyed, persecuted and oppressed" him so that his "health had failed" and his "nerves were shattered."

Taking the stand as first witness, Dr. Holmes declared that the whole trouble had arisen when his wife refused to leave their $22,000 mansion home on North Blvd. after his practice and collections had dwindled to the point that he was unable to keep up the place.

"She told me that the only way she would leave would be as a corpse," Dr. Holmes told the jury. "After this she wouldn't speak to me for months. Dr. Holmes said 'but insisted on sleeping with me and living in the same room with me although there were 14 other rooms in the house.'"

"Why there wasn't a word spoken between us in that big house for five weeks."

"One morning when I came down to breakfast, she told me that she wasn't serving anything but cat codon, so after that I started fixing my own meals the best way I could."

"As I didn't know how to cook, the only thing I got to eat unless I went to a restaurant was some corn flakes and milk," the witness testified.

"Did she tell whether or not you Joe Berman, who represented the doctor, asked."

"She never did talk about love any more after that," Dr. Holmes replied. "She just stayed mad and mean all the time. She had the house filled with her high society friends, but would never entertain my friends. This treatment kept up until, if I had not been in a healthy condition, I would have gone crazy."

HE MUST PAY!

DR. H. M. HOLMES, SR., nationally known medic who was ordered to pay his wife, Mrs. Pattie Holmes, $125 monthly permanent alimony in Judge Pomeroy's court, Thursday.

As salary to his assistant, $30 a month for medical supplies, $35 a month for gasoline and oil, and $20 a month for board besides the $90 a month I have to pay to my wife for alimony."

Attorney Walden began cross-examination of the witness, and asked her to state that she had been living there now and was a doctor's office.

"Yes, I pay her $20 a month rent."

"When did you sell it to her?" "I believe it was in July, 1932."

"Who paid the taxes on it for the year 1932?" "Well, I paid the taxes," Dr. Holmes admitted, "but she gave me the money back."

"Where did she get the money to pay you $500 for a nine-room modern house, furnish it and keep up the expenses and taxes?" "Her father died and left her $4000."

"You have a personal servant who also stays in the house, haven't you?" "Oh, he's just a caretaker, the doctor explained. "I only pay him $1.50 a week."

"How does she keep up her expenses on the $2500 mortgage?" "She hasn't been keeping up her notes. She's just been able to pay the interest."

"How much is that?" "Let's see, that's about $100 every six months," the doctor responded.

en in rooms and did her own house work during that period and even after Dr. Holmes had insisted on moving into the $22,000 mansion on North Boulevard.

"Crucial testimony," he said, and laughed. "It getting up at six o'clock in the morning and sending my boys off to school while Dr. Holmes came downstairs from his bed three hours later in cruel treatment, then I was angry."

"Mrs. Holmes, in high complexioned, almost white, woman of slight build, kept rubbing her hands together as if undergoing a nervous tension."

"She was dressed in a tan skirt and low-necked, blue-floored blouse. Strands of silver were beginning to show in her brown hair."

"I made the rat poison statement but it was all in fun," she said. "I was not talking to Dr. Holmes, either, but to some boarders who were staying in the house at the time and were merely overheard."

"She denied ever saying anything to her children in an effort to turn them against their father."

"He turned them against him, his own self," she said. "How was that?" Attorney Walden asked.

"Why he stopped giving them money and took a car that he had given the boys away from them and gave it to his office girl, Mel."

"And she brought the car and parked it right in the same garage where the boys had been keeping their cars. She said that it was his office girl, but said that it was this naturally would make them angry," she said.

"Did you say anything to him about that?" "No," Mrs. Holmes replied. "I said as little as possible to him about any of his women."

"He boasted to me on another occasion," she said. "On one occasion, $35 a month would give me over a $100 a month alimony and that would put me and my children in the street anytime he wanted to."

testified to her weakened condition. Mrs. Mel Moye was then called to the stand. Dressed in a light-colored dress, a white knitted cap and wearing a white swag coat, she was plainly nervous as she took the witness chair.

She said that she had been Dr. Holmes' office girl since 1929. Her testimony practically corroborated that of Dr. Holmes.

Questioned about the Chicago trip, she said that she had gone there on her vacation, and Dr. Holmes came later.

"Did you meet up with Dr. Holmes in Chicago by appointment or by accident?" Walden asked.

"Neither," she said. "Well, how?" Walden persisted. "He told me he was coming," she replied.

Mrs. Holmes was called back to the witness stand and related to her husband on one occasion told her that he was "going to keep Mel Moye in the office and the children starts to die and go to hell."

Dr. Holmes in rebuttal, declared that his wife had suddenly acquired a mania for money and charged that she had sent his own car to take his life in an effort to collect $25,000 insurance money he was carrying.

"She has only one good quality," he said in ending, "and that's morality, but there are a whole lot of vices that are much worse."

The verdict returned by the jury after 107 minutes' deliberation gave Dr. Holmes a partial divorce to be terminated in Georgia as a "bed and board" divorce and awarded his wife the alimony.

The jury also found that Dr. Holmes was guilty of adultery with his office girl, Mel Moye, and awarded her $1000 in damages.

Negroes Star in City High School Meet

Well, sir, our boys certainly cleaned up in the city high school meet last week. George Robinson won his two dashes in faster time than he did in the state meet and Lawrence Redrick stamped himself as being one of the most versatile Negro track athletes seen in the city in at least fifteen years. He won the high jump, broad jump and shotput besides running on relay teams. That three-quarter mile half mile relay team of North high ran away with that race, and Fred Morrow showed his ability by running on the winning mile relay team and getting third in the 440. L. T. Johnson placed in the hurdle races and ran on the half mile relay team for North. George Manuel placed in the hurdle races also and ran on a relay team for East. Buddy Glass was one of the gang that tied for first in the pole vault. In all Negroes won or helped to win points in eleven out of sixteen events for a total of forty-eight points, enough to win the meet if they had all been running for the same school. George Robinson, L. T. Johnson, Archie Lucas and Fred Morrow will go to Kansas City this week to compete in the Central States high school meet. East high is sending Redrick. Redrick jumped six feet in the city meet last week. George Manuel, dash man, and Tommy Frazier, dash man, Elmer Evans and Herman Wadsworth, high jumpers, were the other colored track men from East high, who competed in the city meet.

Apologies, To Bob Coffman This department owes Bob Coffman of Fort Dodge an apology; owing to a typographical error, Coffman was said to have finished fourth in the 440 in the state high school meet. Our article should have read Coffman finished fourth in the 100 yard dash and finished second in the 440. We're sorry, Bob.

If nominated and elected he can be depended upon to give unselfish service as state senator.

THE TEST

Eugene Kinckle Jones, secretary of the Urban League and now on leave as adviser on Negro affairs of the Department of Commerce, writes most instructive article "The Negro in Industry and in Urban Life" in the May Opportunity magazine.

The acid test, the unerring barometer of affective political, social and economic philosophies and practices in America is the Negro.

Negroes constitute 9.7 per cent of the population. They are 43.7 per cent urban. Of all urban Negroes 70.4 per cent live in metropolitan areas; 55.5 per cent of all metropolitan area Negroes are in nine northern such areas—2,033,203. There are seven cities with more than 100,000 Negroes; New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New Orleans, and Detroit, ranking the order named.

Negroes are 11.3 per cent of all workers, although 9.7 per cent of all the inhabitants. In transportation and mining his proportion of workers is being maintained only in unskilled and semi-skilled occupations, however. He is over-concentrated in agriculture and personal and domestic service. His professional group—teachers, physicians, nurses, dentists, lawyers, and clergymen—has increased—only his physicians at a less rapid rate than his population.

One of the most fortunate phases of the whole industrial picture so far as Negro workers are concerned is the attitude of organized labor in matters interracial. There are nineteen national and international labor organizations which forbid Negro membership either through their constitutions or through rituals. There are under normal conditions approximately 90,000 Negro members of labor organizations. According to their proportion of workers in fields already organized, the number should be 300,000. One-sixth of the Negro members are in independent Negro locals—separate because of the refusal of white locals to have mixed membership. This situation warrants close watching as the federal authorities insist in the adoption of codes of fair competition and the rights of workers to bargain collectively with their employers in the matter of wages and hours.

This was due in large measure to lack of organization among Negroes and also to the fact that leading Negroes were not selected as members of planning or policy-making boards and committees. The local authorities selected to administer the programs often were ignorant of the Negroes' plight, were not interested in Negroes, or were prejudiced against them. Organized labor, which has been recognized as never before by the NRA units fight for a fair wage and reasonable hours has proverbially been neglectful of the rights of Negro workers. This situation possibly is the greatest menace to the ultimate participation of Negroes in the fruits of the recovery program, for without the Negro being welcome to the rights of organized labor his chance to advance in the occupational scale is lost.

Mr. Jones argues that the test of the success of the new deal is whether it can be elevated to the status of giving all groups and classes the full benefits it proposes to attain. This depends upon the Negro himself, those in charge of administering the new deal, and the American Federation of Labor.
