Condemns Sales Tax and National Administration's Deficit

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

More than 2,000 Iowa politicians met at the State Republican convention held Wednesday at the Coliseum here and elected the party's nominees for the three contested state offices on the first ballot. George W. Patterson of Burlington, for lieutenant-governor, received 1,883 1/2 votes to 421 of his sole opponent, J. A. Nelson of Decatur. The other candidates withdrew from the convention made the vote unanimous. Ole Naglestad of Sioux City, for attorney general, swept to victory by 1,332 votes. Robert J. Shaw of Sigourney ran a poor second. Fred Nelson of Nevada, for secretary of agriculture, was victorious by 1,503 1/2 votes; the runner-up William Campbell of Des Moines received 42 votes.

Polk County with its 180 votes solidly supported the three successful candidates which took less than two hours to elect. J. M. Grimes of Osceola, keynote speaker, was made permanent chairman at the start of the afternoon session.

Three Speakers

Senator L. J. Dickinson, Dan Turner, G. O. P. nominee for governor, and three other Iowa governors, John Hammill, W. L. Harding and B. F. Carroll addressed the convention.

The state G. O. P. convention adopted a 15 plank platform condemning the Democratic party, demanding a repeal of the sales tax, modification of the old age pension bill and flayed the extravagance of the state owned liquor stores.

Resolutions

Included in the platform were resolutions expressing alarm at the national Democrats' utter failure to redeem pre-election pledges to balance the federal budget, cutting of veterans' allowances, and the monetary policy. Assailing the farm legislation and decreased credit facilities the party favored a plan of work relief "rather than a dole," and to give labor the right to organize and bargain collectively. The party pledged to insure public school advancement and further school advantages.

Two Committee Changes

The state central committee underwent several changes the outstanding ones being the election of P. H. Frank of Waterloo, to chairman succeeding Homer S. Stephens, Clarinda, who was not a candidate for re-election. Mrs. Virginia Bedell, Spirit Lake, vice chairman, also not a candidate, was retired in favor of Mrs. June Prichard of Onawa.

Negroes In Attendance

Besides the large number of Negroes who were in attendance, the following representatives of Negro Republicans were delegates at the convention: Dr. L. B. Ferguson, Atty. M. F. Fields, Waterloo, Iowa; Rev. Hunt, Davenport; Thomas Lighth, Pershing; Mrs. B. Pertum Miller and Mrs. Rice Lintz of Ottumwa; Mrs. E. Hall, Mrs. Mary Miles, Walter Thompson, Al Smith, W. T. Jones, J. G. Brown, Baptist Association, headed the council of Des Moines.

Loss is Keenly Felt in Ranks

Resolution Regrets Loss and Lauds His Long and Distinguished Service as Editor of the Crisis

New York, July 20.—The board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. at its regular monthly meeting on July 9, accepted "with the deepest regret," the resignation of Dr. W. E. B. DuBois as editor of the Crisis, as a member of the board of directors, as director of publications and research, as a member of the board of the Crisis Publishing Company, and as a member of the Spingarn medal award committee. Its action followed the insistence of Dr. DuBois in a letter dated July 1, that his resignation proffered on June 11, be accepted. At its June meeting the board of directors had voted to withhold action.

The resolution voted by the board cites the long record of Dr. DuBois as one of the directors of the Association and as a distinguished teacher, scholar and man of letters, and hails his achievement as founder of the Crisis and as creator of a Negro intelligentsia. His fearlessness and independence are lauded and the board tenders him its "sincere thanks for the services he has rendered."

STREATOR FOLLOWS DUBOIS—QUITS CRISIS MAGAZINE

New York City (CNS)—In a letter to the board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. last week, George W. Streater, assistant manager of the Crisis, informed the board that elements in the performance of his newly assigned duties as co-managing editor of the Crisis discouraged his remaining with the organization, and submitted his resignation to become effective July 15.

Mr. Streater, who recently defended the former Crisis editor, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, against the opposition of N. A. A. C. P. officials declared in his letter that the actions in the "situation" were "defensive in character," and that the Crisis would not be maintained by a position of neutrality on the part of the active managing editor.

William Smith Ordained In the Baptist Ministry

First Burlington Negro to Receive Holy Order.

(Special to the Bystander)

Burlington, Iowa—William Smith, Drake University graduate, who was ordained to the Baptist ministry Wednesday evening at the Union Baptist church here, is probably the first Negro from Burlington to be invested with holy orders. Rev. Smith recently was elected pastor of the congregation and assumed his pulpit duties immediately following his ordination.

The ordaining council includes ministers and deacons from the Baptist church of Burlington, Monmouth, Ft. Madison and Mt. Pleasant. Rev. G. W. Robinson D. D., State Moderator, of the Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota Baptist Association, headed the council and preached the ordination sermon.

Seek to Prohibit 'Outside' Lawyers

Bill Seen As Directed Against Attorneys in Scottsboro Cases

Birmingham, Ala. (CNS)—Aimed directly at the attorneys in the "Scottsboro" cases, a bill to prohibit attorneys not members of the Alabama bar from conducting cases in the state courts, will soon be introduced in the State Legislature. Eugene Conner recently nominated in the Democratic primary as representative from Jefferson County has announced his intention of sponsoring the legislation. Conner who is seeking to gain votes in the coming election on the strength of the prejudices of a large element of the State against the I.L.D. and its attorneys, says the bill to prohibit attorneys not members of the Alabama bar from conducting cases in the State courts was aimed directly at the attorneys in the "Scottsboro cases." He pointed out that some of the counsel retained by the International Labor Defense is a member of the Alabama bar.

The bill will be modeled after a similar statute now in operation in Ohio, under which out-of-state attorneys may sit at the counsel table, but are not permitted to conduct the actual proceedings, or to say anything to the court.

WHITE MAN GETS ANDERSON'S INTERNAL REVENUE JOB

New York City (CNS)—Harlem Democratic leaders are sorely pained. A white man has been selected to succeed Charles W. Anderson as Collector of Internal Revenue in the Third District of New York. Sigmund Solomon gets the plum that Henry W. Shield, James C. Thomas, Dr. Godfrey Nurse, and John M. Royall are striving for.

Charles W. Anderson, who is retiring from political office after more than forty years in federal and state service, was Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District under President Harding, Coolidge, Hoover, and F. D. Roosevelt. During the Harding Administration, G. O. P. leaders had the old Second District divided so as to provide a collectorship appointment for the active Negro leader.

Mr. Anderson was first named Collector of Internal Revenue by President Theodore Roosevelt at the request of Booker T. Washington, serving in charge of the Second District during the Administrations of Roosevelt, Taft, and Wilson for several months. His first political appointment was in the Second District in 1890. He had been in ill health since 1927. For months the administrative duties of the Third District have been carried on by subordinates.

3 Negroes Killed In Texas Dock War

Several Others Wounded As Truck Carrying 20 Is Fired on By Thugs

Houston, Tex.—To the tune of blazing guns, the waterfront here was converted into a virtual battlefield of guerrilla warfare Sunday, attaining almost to the breaking point, a situation that was already more than tense. Three Negroes were killed and several others wounded in one of the most serious outbreaks since the dock laborers went on strike weeks ago. The clash came as twenty Negro independent longshoremen were riding to work. A coupe, believed by the police to be carrying members and sympathizers of the International Longshoremen's Association, drew alongside and poured a stream of lead into the truck and the sedan following, from pistols and shotguns. One of the Negro independent drew a pistol and returned the fire, wounding C. O. Reeves, union longshoreman. The Negro's fire was cut short when he was quickly felled by a bullet.

Those killed were Frank Rowland and Jim Barnes, riding in the sedan, and George Hardy, who was struck. Joe Henry, another occupant of the truck, received probably fatal injuries. Reeves, taken to a hospital, was held on charges of murder and assault. S. P. Brown, colored, said to have been riding in the rumble seat of the coupe, and H. J. Freeman, white dock worker, surrendered to the police and were held on similar charges.

Founder of State Lincoln Memorial Association

Ottumwa, Iowa—J. Jordan, 55-year-old founder and president of the Iowa Lincoln Memorial Association, died Thursday, July 12, of heart attack, at the Avalon Apartments, where he was employed and made his home. The Lincoln Memorial Association, organized by Mr. Jordan about two years ago, has as its purpose the erection and maintenance of a memorial to Abraham Lincoln on the capitol grounds at Des Moines.

Through Mr. Jordan's efforts $8,000 of the needed $10,000 were raised. The association has been incorporated under the laws of the state and the headquarters established in Ottumwa. At the last session of the Iowa legislature an enabling act was passed allowing for the erection of it when such could be started. Mr. Jordan was an active church worker in the Second Baptist church and was prominent in the Masonic and Knights of Pythias lodges. He was organizer of the district No. 1105 in the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows.

Beet Farm Strike Comes to an End

Negroes and Whites Fight Police; Several Arrested

Bridgeton, N. J. (CNS)—Tear gas bombs, water from fire hose, and policemen's clubs were necessary to put an end to clashes between deputy sheriffs and policemen and striking farm hands at the 4,000-acre Seabrook farm in Deerfield township on Monday, July 9.

Twelve colored men and women were arrested. They are: Ellen Roberts, Ardella Dent, Esther Jones, Lillian Jackson, Tom Crawford, Daniel Hart, William Brown, John Dent, Jesse Reeves, Ernest Johnson, Paul Rodock and Wallace Kenkins.

The strike is counted the major N.R.A. event so far as Negro farmers are concerned in that township. The strike grew out of what the strikers claim was a breach of contract on the part of the Seabrook Farm corporation.

Prelate Was Founder of Negro College in Liberia

Here 8 Years

Word was received this week by Attorney S. Joe Brown, here by telegram stating of the death of Bishop W. Sampson Brooks, 69, at San Antonio, Texas, Sunday, July 15. Funeral services were held in San Antonio on Tuesday, St. Louis on Thursday and in Baltimore on Sunday, according to Mrs. Brooks, his widow, who survived him. Burial will be Monday at New Bedford, Mass.

Bishop Brooks was well known to old residents of Des Moines as he pastored St. Paul's A. M. E. church here from 1907 to 1909, after which he was transferred to St. Paul church in St. Louis. Later he pastored Bethel church in Baltimore where he was located when he was elected to the bishopric in May of 1920 by a general conference held in his former pastorate at St. Louis. He was the 44th prelate of the Methodist church.

Erected College in Liberia

Bishop Brooks further endeared himself to local citizens when on the first Sunday following his consecration as bishop, he returned to Des Moines and spoke at St. Paul church, announcing his intention of erecting a college in Liberia, Africa, where he had been assigned.

Mrs. S. Joe Brown headed the subscription list with the first fifty dollars and out of appreciation he made her one of its trustees when the college was finally completed at Monrovia.

Eight Years Service

Bishop Brooks was the first bishop of the A. M. E. Church to serve eight consecutive years under the torrid sun of Liberia, West Africa, which service greatly impaired his health; but in 1928 was transferred to Texas, where he served ever since. He was graduated from Morgan college. He had been in the ministry for 40 years and was considered one of the ablest preachers in the A. M. E. church.

Old Friends of the Browns

By a strange coincidence, the message from Mrs. Brooks, came when Mrs. Brown was in Louisville, Ky., attending the sectional meeting of the National Association of Colored Women where in 1910, Mrs. Brooks, then Miss Elizabeth Carter, as president of the national association gave Mrs. Brown her first appointment, that of member of the national ways and means committee.

Houston Voters Take Court Action to Combat "Grandfather Resolution"

Houston—Negro citizens of Houston and Harris county have resorted to court action to challenge the "grandfather resolution" passed by the Harris County Democratic Executive committee in an attempt to bar Negroes from the Democratic primary election on Saturday, July 28.

Two civil law suits have been filed against Albert Townsend, white, Harris county clerk, for his failure to allow a group of Negro citizens to cast absentee ballots and an injunction suit has been filed against the Harris county Democratic committee seeking to set aside the resolution passed by that body which in effect denies Negro citizens the right of franchise.

MARIE DRESSLER'S MAID CON-STANTLY AT BEDSIDE

Santa Barbara (CNS)—Marie Dressler, the popular actress and movie star, who is critically ill in the home of C. K. G. Billings, has one attendant at her bedside, who pushes aside the expert kitchen staff of the estate and prepares the food she knows the distinguished patient likes.

This constant attendant is Mamie Cox, Negro personal maid of the actress for the past 25 years. The maid also gives special attention to the bed on which the actress awaits the end. It has been so arranged that she can look over a pond of graceful water lilies to the hazy blue of the Pacific ocean and the distant channel islands.

Miss Dressler's bravery has never wavered during the long and hopeless fight. The actress has felt no pain from the time about three weeks ago, when her sickness took a more serious turn.

Probe Killing of Prisoner by Tennessee Sheriff

INVESTIGATE KILLING OF PRISONER

Killing of Handcuffed Man By Lake County Sheriff Will Be Probed

SHERIFF IS CENSURED

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 19.—Only two men could tell how Melvin Randolph, 23, of Tiptonville, really met his death. Randolph, of course, can not bear witness for himself because his tongue is forever stilled. Sheriff W. C. Haynes, of Lake County, could tell, too, for it was he who shot Randolph to death in a car on Jefferson Davis Highway near Fraser, Sunday night.

Sheriff Haynes says Randolph, whom he was taking to Tiptonville for trial on charges of having attacked a 15-year-old girl of that town, struck him across the face with his unmanacled hands, and that he had to shoot his lone handcuffed prisoner to preserve his own safety.

Deputy-Sheriff Stratton Barbero has been assigned to investigate the killing, as it was in Shelby county.

The Press-Scimitar, local white daily, had the following to say editorially concerning Randolph's unwitnessed death:

Killing His Prisoner
When an officer of the law attempts to arrest an armed criminal who is at large, and that criminal resists, menacing the life of the public's protector, the public will not only approve, but applaud if the officer beats the criminal to the draw.

But the Lake County sheriff's own story of his killing of Melvin Randolph, a Negro who was his prisoner, shows that the sheriff is to blame.

The sheriff was taking the Negro in his automobile from the Shelby County jail, where he was held for safe keeping for three months, to Lake County for trial. The sheriff says that the prisoner, the handcuffed, menaced him and he shot him to save his own life.

Most people will think that the sheriff exaggerates his own danger. But if the sheriff was in danger it was the result of his failure to do what common sense called for. Here was a prisoner who had been removed for safe keeping from the county in which he was accused. The obvious thing for the sheriff to do was to have at least one deputy with him, to guard the prisoner or to drive the car. But the sheriff chose to go alone. This was a decision which subjects the sheriff to serious criticism.

It is important to the public safety that the animals be convicted and punished. In the long run it is just as important to the public safety that the dignity of the law be upheld. The sheriff of Lake County by pursuing a course which led to the killing of a handcuffed prisoner who had not been tried did not uphold the dignity of the law.

ALL WHITES WIN POINT IN COURT

Church Faction's Demurrer Overruled By Court In Nashville

MUST ANSWER MONDAY

NASHVILLE—The McCall lily white forces seemed to have won a point in their battle to have their petition seeking a new Republican primary board established in Shelby county when Tuesday a demurrer made by the Church faction was overruled and the defense was given until Monday to file answers to the allegations in the petition.

Defendants are Howard Shofner and other members of the Republican state executive committee, which acting in its capacity as Republican state primary board refused to file at its last meeting on June 4 to appoint a pro McCall board for arguing for the petition, James C. R. McCall, Jr., a cousin of the candidate, said that the statutes specifically require the state board to meet every two years and select county boards. These, he declared, must be made up of members of the party's county executive committee and must be nominated by the executive committees.

McCall charged that the board "willfully and illegally" failed to comply with requirements when it adjourned its June 4 meeting without naming the five men nominated by the McCall faction. He added that the incumbent board members are no longer on the Shelby executive committee and hence are not qualified for the primary board.

Replying for the defense, Thomas G. Watkins said that the statutes provide that officials hold office until their successors are selected and qualified and that being the case, a board exists to conduct the primary in Shelby and the state committee's duty has been performed.

Presbyterian Meet Clerk Declares Charges Unfair

PHILADELPHIA — (ANP) — The Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., in a statement issued from his office in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Thursday, said: "The discussion of the fact that a meeting of Presbyterian women in Cleveland refused to pass resolutions on the Scottsboro case has overshadowed the far more significant fact that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, which is the official governing body of the denomination, went on record as standing for the least administration of law regardless of race and color."

TWO CHARGE RIVAL TOOK AUTO

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Three Memphis youths, two of them of good families and well known in the younger set, were arrested in Benton, Mo., Friday on charges of having stolen an automobile from a resident of this city.

Brought here by arresting officers the three youths were turned over to Squire Louis Morris-on a warrant charging larceny of an automobile.

Those arrested are: O. G. Sledge, 20 453 Sledge; Earl Byas, 19, 358 Beale and James Blockman, 19, Montgomery.

Sledge, who until recently was a checker at the I. C. Yards, is especially well known in the city, as he has, as a side line, sold automobiles.

Byas is the son of a prominent local woman who runs a beauty parlor on Beale street.

Byas claims that he and Sledge left Memphis in search of work in Osceola, Ark., and that while on their way back to Memphis they met Blockman, who was driving what later turned out to be a stolen car. The youths asked Blockman if he would let them ride to Memphis with him, and Blockman is supposed to have agreed providing the two boys bought five gallons of gasoline.

This was done and shortly afterward they were arrested at Benton, Mo., on charges of car theft. It was not explained what the trio was doing at Benton, Mo.

Police theorize that the boys were really transporting a stolen car back to Memphis. It was hinted that a certain large auto sales company was in some manner involved. Investigations in this direction were begun immediately after the arrest of the boys.

250 COUNTY TEACHERS TO WORK

U. S. Marines to be Hustled Out of Haiti

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—With cotton chopping over and the prospects for the cotton harvest some weeks away, 250 county teachers went to work in widely separated county schools yesterday according to Miss Sue Powell, county superintendent of schools.

Many of the teachers are from Memphis, and others live in the county, Miss Powell said. Perhaps 100 of the total number of teachers are from Memphis proper it was estimated. All have state teacher certificates.

County schools closed some months ago when the demand for the labor of large numbers of students on their home farms became too great, as is usual during the apple planting and chopping season. Miss Powell said the unusual school terms were caused because large numbers of children dropped out when required at home to aid with the crops.

Announcement W. O. U. HOTEL, BATH HOUSE

Continues Open for Vacation and Health Seekers

The erroneous information being circulated among the visiting public that comes to Hot Springs Nat'l Park, Arkansas for the health restoring thermal baths and recreation, that the W. O. U. Hotel, Bath House and Hospital had ceased its activities is being rebutted by this statement:

The W. O. U. Hotel, Bath House and Hospital are still open and doing business. Contrary to all reports, this organization has never ceased functioning in any of its capacities since the reinsurance of its insurance business.

Its officers take pleasure in announcing to the general public that the W. O. U. Hotel and Bath House under the management of Mr. Warren Shelton, well known hotel and bathhouse manager of Hot Springs, is open for the reception of visitors and assures them that the same family-like hospitality obtains. We take this opportunity to thank those who have remained loyal in their patronage to a bath house which has remained opened twelve (12) months in the year regardless of the depression and offered to the Negro Public the privilege of visiting Hot Springs Nat'l Park, Arkansas and securing hotel and bath house accommodation as respectable citizens and not as paupers.

He picked up the dog and walked leisurely to the door (believing everything was OK and that some neighbor was trying to be funny) when someone in the street said "The woman in that car's been shot."

"What woman? In my car?" queried Mr. Warrick.

Running to the car he saw his wife slumped on the seat, a hole in her eye and blood oozing from her breast.

His niece sitting on "Aunt Ada's" lap, was screaming at the top of her voice as she held to her aunt's arm.

Mr. Warrick rushed his wife to St. Francis hospital where they pronounced his wife dead.

After notifying police, he immediately called her brother, Ben, who named William "Bill" Wright, a former suitor of Mrs. Warrick's and an inmate of the Ohio Penitentiary.

IMPRESSIVE RITES HELD FOR YOUNG S. CAROLINIAN

The funeral program was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Mims, who was assisted by Reverends J. B. Smith, H. Y. Kennedy, L. F. Rhodes and J. C. Letman. U. S. Marines to be Hustled Out of Haiti

INCUMBENTS REMAIN IN CHARGE

WASHINGTON, (ANP) — Although the executive agreement between the Presidents of the United States and Haiti does not require that American marines now in Haiti should leave before October of this year, Secretary of the Navy Swanwick announced Wednesday that by August 15 all American marines will be out of Haiti.

The National Guards of Haiti is to be completely Nationalized by August 1 and evacuation of the 47 officers and 517 marines now in Haiti is to follow shortly.

Instructions have been issued to the Commander in Chief of the United States fleet to place all the necessary available vessels at the disposal of the marines for their transportation to Quantico, Va.

The departure of the marines from Haiti will remove the most odious form of stigma imposed upon the black republic by American intervention in 1915. Thousands of Haitians lost their lives at the hands of these marines who were both a military and economic burden upon the country.

American supervision of Haiti formerly covered five services. Removal of the marines reduces that number to one, the Haitian customs. Arrangements have been made to lift that control in the near future.

James O'Connor is Named Receiver for N' Orleans

K. of P. Temple

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Judge Walter D. Gibson, Civil district court, division D named James O'Connor, Jr., receiver for the endowment department for the Knights of Pythias here Monday.

Incumbents to Continue
The present incumbents will continue to function in their respective positions as of yore, but under the administration of the receiver. The naming of the receiver was the final outcome of a suit filed some months ago by the attorney-general, stating that mismanagement on the part of the directors, made the appointment of a receiver imperative. Below, however, is a financial statement issued by Supreme Chancellor Greene, giving an explanatory and satisfactory reason as to the condition of the Pythians and their impossibility to do the thing expected in view of adverse circumstances.

Report of Chancellor
Total Reduction per member $5.50
9th. The assets of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of Louisiana as of March 31, 1933, were as follows:

A community chorus of sixty voices, under the direction of Mrs. Mae Wood, will sing at Cedar Falls on July 26th. The Modernist club met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. A. SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUES

The Sunday school baseball league has just about folded up. A permanent league appears to have sprung up on the baseball diamond during the past two weeks and your illustrious scribbler has proven to be the only one able to play in it. St. Paul has the title won regardless, being unbeaten. The games will be delayed until further notice.

Bunny Wilson, local athlete, has gone away with the Black Spiders, traveling Negro baseball club. The Rabbit will play outfield for them and may develop into quite a bunter with good training. Bunny has promise of being a better than ordinary southpaw.

PLAYGROUND TENNIS MEET

The playground tennis meet held this week brings us results. Several of our boys were entered, but the casualties were heavy in the opening round. Broken rackets and borrowed rackets are too much of a handicap in tournaments. Paul Williams, swinging a borrowed racket almost as heavy as he, lost in the junior boys' singles. Eddie Clark, with a broken racket, reminded one of a violinist with a one string violin, lost in his match. Also Everett Newcomb and Paul Woods defaulted their first round match in the men's doubles. However, Octavia-Rome and Lena Walden paired to bring off a championship in the women's doubles. We believe they are the first Negro women to win a crown, although Miss Rome was a finalist at least two other times. Our tournament will probably start early in August.

Montgomery, Ala.

The Alabama supreme court granted a stay of execution Monday to Heywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, two of the nine defendants under death sentence in the Scottsboro case, upon receipt of application for a rehearing in their appeal. The two youths were sentenced to die in the electric chair August 31. The supreme court on June 28 affirmed the death sentences imposed by a circuit court jury last December. The court does not convene in regular session until October 1. Should the court reaffirm the death sentence the case will be appealed to the United States supreme court, a statement with the application said.

Two Candidates

On Monday evening a degree team from St. John's Lodge, No. 5, at Waterloo, in charge of George Davis, acting worshipful master, conferred the third degree upon two candidates in a manner that was said by some of the oldest past grand masters present never to have been excelled in the history of the grand lodge. A public reception was given Tuesday for the delegates. Dwight N. Lewis, of Des Moines, and a thirty-second degree Mason, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city. Other welcomes were extended by T. M. Kelley on behalf of the Master Masons, and by Mrs. Mary Green of the O. E. S.

Got a COLD? At the first sign of a cold or sore throat, gargle with full strength Listerine. These ailments are caused by germs, and Listerine kills germs in 15 seconds.

New York, July 13.—Mrs. Addie Exum, 40, of Port Richmond, L. J., who spent ten months in the shadow of the electric chair at Sing Sing for the murder of her husband in concert with the handsome Fisk student and athletic star, Lovell Landers, was freed on Monday last when Judge Thomas F. Cosgrove dismissed a first degree murder indictment against her.

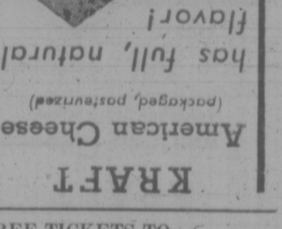

The action of the court in freeing Mrs. Exum may result in the freeing of Landers who is awaiting execution for the killing of Mr. Exum's husband in an insurance plot last year. He is scheduled to die July 30 unless Gov. Lehman intervenes.

An Italian girl who had been Landers' sweetheart testified that Landers had confessed his part of the killing to her and that he received $400 for the job. The defense contends that the girl made up the story out of revenge for Landers throwing her over for a Negro girl.

According to the records compiled at Tuskegee Institute in the Department of Records and Research during the first six months of 1934 there were six lynchings. This is less than the number 8 for the first six months of 1933; and 1 more than the number 5 for the first six months of 1932. All of the persons lynched were Negroes. The Child Reader

MARJORIE BARROWS Editor, Child Life Magazine.

One afternoon many years ago a wharf rat on San Francisco Bay wandered into the Oakland Public Library. There, opening a bound volume of a children's magazine, he stumbled upon a story. It was a story about a boy like himself—a runaway—a gang leader of wharf rats, who had certain non-piratical adventures, but who, after a hard lesson, learned of better ways of living his life.

Making of Jack London. The dramatic, exciting story awoke in the young reader the uneasy consciousness of his own wrong actions. He walked out of that library resolving to lead just as adventurous a life but one that carried with it a clear conscience. So he joined the Fish Patrol, cruised about the bay, fought poachers, and before long began to write stories about his adventures. That boy was Jack London. The experience of this famous writer occurs, in a rather less dramatic fashion, in the life of every boy or girl. Careful investigators have discovered that next to persons, nothing has more influence on children than what they read. If a hero they admire acts under certain circumstances as they themselves would like to act, they'll remember it.

They imitate the hero. And when the time comes, they'll unconsciously be influenced by that hero's action and try to do likewise. The heroine's kindness, ambition, steadfastness, loyalty, the hero's resourcefulness, quick-wittedness, pain-taking qualities, courage, magnanimity, modesty—all these examples "sink in" and are emulated both now and later. One story with hidden character-building values is worth a dozen sermons from parents or teachers.

Let us try to see that this sort of a story, full of plenty of adventure for the boy, full of interesting plots and characters for the girl, is convenient for them to pick up. Jack London isn't the only one to be tremendously influenced by the printed word.

ROUND THE TOWN

By ALICE McCraney

"The good things which belong to prosperity are to be wished, but the good things that belong to adversity are to be admired."

This quotation written by Bacon over 300 years ago can be applied to many courageous people today who have had the will to try when no way appeared. It reminds one of a family of four, father, mother and two boys, who came to Des Moines three years ago after having lost their savings and the father his job in an eastern city. Que, of course, to the depression. Today this family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gates, lives primarily on what they produce on one and a quarter acres of land and within three blocks of a car line in a suburb of Des Moines, called Chesterfield, after landing in Des Moines.

Their first and biggest problem was to find and get into possession of a suitable, reasonable place with enough ground for a garden and chickens for both home use and the market. They found a place, settled down and went to work. Last October their house was burned to the ground. The loss was only partly covered by insurance, that is, they were given a roof by the insurance company providing they would replace the house. A small, neat cottage replaced the one destroyed. Brooder houses were built and work went on the same as usual.

This year they have bought and raised 1,250 day old chicks and expect to put 500 more in their brooders August 1st. They buy all of their chicks from Robert Miller of the Red Bird Hatchery.

Weeds grow fast and the garden has to be tended. The chickens require lots of care. Shade shelters are provided for hot days and brooder houses are cleaned every day and runs are sprinkled every half hour on hot days to keep down temperatures.

But this story is about a courageous family. They are brimful of enthusiasm. They work hard and enjoy it.

"Our ambition," said Mrs. Gates, "is to supply our customers with chickens the year around for every occasion. Broilers, fryers, hens and eggs." This summer already they have sold over 500 fryers. Of course three years of hard work and sacrifice are usually rewarded by some measure of success, but, if like this family, one has the will to win in the face of adversity, almost anything can happen.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

It is quite interesting to read what the Pacific coast papers say about the cause of the San Francisco general strike. They are unanimous in their charge that a small group of radicals is back of all the troubles.

The Bystander does not favor the course pursued by the leaders of the strike, but it cannot agree that a small band of radicals caused all the trouble. Before these unions struck, a ballot was taken on the proposition and in each instance a majority favored the strike. Then we must accuse a majority of the union workers rather than few agitators for all the trouble.

Maybe these papers were trying to save the face of the A. F. of L. to which no doubt, they are friendly. If so, alright, but they should not try to fool the public on a proposition so big as this.

GENERAL JOHNSON'S TROUBLES

General Hugh S. Johnson, N. R. A. administrator spoke at Waterloo a few days ago. He said some things about the ruthless murder of several people in Germany by the Hitler regime. Amusing to say, the German ambassador jumped on Secretary of State Hull about General Johnson's remarks demanding an apology. After going into a huddle over the stinging rebuke, the state department came forth with an apology and stated further that these were the general's own views, unofficial and that the United States was not responsible for them.

Well, General Johnson was riding in a government airplane, is on regular government salary and according to news dispatches his secretary made one long distance telephone call after another which undoubtedly will be paid for by Uncle Sam.

The Bystander quotes this one interesting paragraph from the general's speech:

"A few days ago in Germany events occurred which shocked the world. I don't know how they have affected you, but they have made me sick—not figuratively but physically and very actively sick. The idea that adult, responsible men can be taken from their homes, stood up against a wall, backs to the rifles and shot to death is beyond expression. I have seen something of that sort in Mexico during the Villa ravages and among semi-civilized people or savages half drunk on sotol and marijuana, but that such a thing should happen in a country of some supposed culture passes comprehension."

Note this part of the paragraph if you please: "... but that such a thing should happen in a country of some supposed culture passes comprehension."

General Johnson is a lawyer, but unlike most lawyers he is not acquainted with the record of which he speaks. Does not the general know that in his own country of which he is an officer, six lynchings have occurred in his country and that this record is better than that of last year? Does he not know that some of these lynchings occurred next door to his home state and that none of the participants have been convicted? Does not the general know that these men were lynched without trial and in most cases for mere misdemeanors?

No, the trouble with General Johnson and most of the other

Health Talks

Dr. H. H. London

CANCER

Cancer arises as a result of irritation of short or long duration to any part. Cancers as a rule begin and occur in the breasts, on the lips and occasionally on the skin. Those which begin on the lip or within the breasts are observed in the beginning when a cure is possible if treatment is begun at once. If this treatment is delayed until portions of the growth have a chance to spread to nearby or distant tissues the cure becomes impossible. In the beginning of growths which are observable like those on the lip, breast or skin there is always a doubt as to their exact nature and the question arises as to whether or not there is cancer present or some other form of tumor growth and means must be employed to find out the definite structure so that removal may be employed to prevent spread to other structures.

Because of the not infrequent occurrence of cancer within the breast it is always necessary to have them examined to determine if there is or is not a cancerous growth starting there. The uterus because of its location away from the eye may harbor such a growth quite a while before any symptom or sign is present to let the person know that anything at all is abnormal or out of the ordinary. Because of this examinations of this structure should become more frequent after the age of forty. This procedure is the means of saving thousands of lives which would not be saved otherwise if examination was not done early enough or not at all.

Another purpose and the most recent one is the co-working of the dentist and the physician in the treatment of body disorders. This knowledge is very valuable where the teeth and mouth are acting as the entrance or continuation of the disease. The connection is more often found in the cases of rheumatism, sometimes developing into arthritis and other joint ailments; diseases of the stomach and intestines noticeably constipation and ulcers of those organs. Also forms of neuritis and headaches and sinus trouble along with diseases of the heart.

Why is there a space between my front teeth and what can be done for it? D. B. A. This space may be caused by proportionately small teeth in a large jaw or by a thickness of growth of the gums between the teeth and also by early loss or complete absence of some permanent tooth. If the patient is young enough the area can be often closed by a special type of treatment. Otherwise if space is large enough to annoy you and irritate the tongue, then gold or porcelain appliances can be made.

TELLS ISLAND EFFIZENS OF NEW PROGRAM

Cape Haitien, Haiti, July 13.—In his address last Thursday at the Union Club, to which he came ashore from the cruiser Houston which is taking him to the Pacific on his vacation, President Franklin D. Roosevelt spoke as follows, addressing his remarks mainly to President Vincent, who sat near him.

"Mr. President, I am very happy to come back to Cape Haitien. I shall always remember as long as I live the week I had the privilege of spending in the Republic of Haiti. I am glad to come back, especially at a time when the relationship between the Republic of Haiti and the United States will be restored to a basis of complete independence. Praises Vincent

"I am glad that as a result of the people who criticize Germany is that they themselves are guilty of the very thing about which they criticize others. Or they do not have the courage to oppose lynchings and other injustices heaped at the Negro primarily because it would involve friends and neighbors."

No, General Johnson proved in his speech that he either does not know or deliberately misquoted the record; that his responsibility does not go very far.

About Dentistry by Dr. Dean

This is to give you some idea of a few of the purposes of your dentist and why the frequent visit to him is necessary.

First among these purposes is the prevention and relief of pain and suffering. This pain is evident from the very small infant of about four months up to those living to a ripe old age. In the infant the trouble begins with the attempted erupting of the teeth or "teething process." These and similar pains are evident—sometimes as late as twenty-five and thirty years depending upon the time of the third molars or more often called "wisdom teeth." Then too, there are the aches resulting from large decayed areas and also those of extensive pyorrhea and allied ailments.

Another source of grief is the tender and sore spots found on the gums and tissues inside the mouth. The second purpose of the dentist is the prevention of further trouble by the methods of prophylaxis or cleaning the teeth; the placing of fillings either temporary or permanent, and the making of larger restorations such as crowns, bridges and plates. This branch of dentistry enables the patient to enjoy eating and more important, permits one to fully chew the particles. Also by these restorations one's appearance is greatly improved because of the filling of the empty spaces left when the teeth were removed.

Another purpose and the most recent one is the co-working of the dentist and the physician in the treatment of body disorders. This knowledge is very valuable where the teeth and mouth are acting as the entrance or continuation of the disease. The connection is more often found in the cases of rheumatism, sometimes developing into arthritis and other joint ailments; diseases of the stomach and intestines noticeably constipation and ulcers of those organs.
