Mother of Ten Is Real Heroine

WOMAN FLAGS SUBWAY
TRAIN AND SAVES
WHITE MAN'S LIFE

New York.—Mrs. Rosina McKnight, 37, mother of 10 children, living on 111th avenue, Jamaica, Long Island, became a heroine last week when she flagged a subway train and saved the life of a white man. When seen at her home after the incident, she commented by saying the matter had been "powerfully exaggerated."

"There were two men waiting on a bench when my boy and I came down to the station," she said. "We weren't paying any attention to them until we heard some one shouting and saw that one of them had fallen on the tracks. The man with him yelled to me, 'What'll we do?' and I told him the only thing we could do was flag the train. So we both ran along the platform, shouting and waving our handkerchiefs to stop it. That's all there was to it."

James McKeon, white, 36, a laborer of Brooklyn, was the man that toppled off the platform of the Morgan avenue station of the B. M. T. Fourteenth street, Canarsie subway while Mrs. McKnight and her second oldest son, Benjamin, 16, were waiting for a train. The motorman of the train brought it to a stop and McKeon was assisted to the platform.

Secretary White Urges Strong Nationwide Effort

N. A. A. C. P. Asks Roosevelt to Insist on Bill in Next Congress and Declares Opponents of Costigan-Wagner Bill Have Stimulated Lynching Spirit

New York, July 27.—Calling upon President Roosevelt to insist on federal anti-lynching legislation in the next Congress, demanding of Governor Sennet Conner of Mississippi that he promptly punish the lynchers of James Sanders at Bolton, Miss., on July 16, and scoring Senator Herbert D. Stephens of Mississippi as having "helped stimulate the lynching spirit" by his "willful obstruction" of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill, Walter White, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., last week fired the opening gun in a new crusade for a federal bill.

In an impassioned appeal to the presidents of the association's 400 branches, Mr. White urged them to join in a mighty nation-wide effort to raise sufficient funds to wage a more effective struggle for the passage of the anti-lynching bill by the new Congress. They are asked during the summer to stage entertainments, picnics, and benefits so that an adequate war chest may be on hand when Congress again convenes. Reports from various sections of the country, according to Mr. White, reveal that colored people are seriously aroused by the startling increase in lynchings since June 8, when Congress adjourned without passing the Costigan-Wagner bill.

Montclair, N. J., the home of many of the country's wealthiest financiers, is a rich and beautiful suburb district of New York City of a population of 40,000 persons with Negroes comprising five or six thousand of the total number, according to James N. Williams, associate secretary of the Y. M. C. A. there. Mr. Williams and his family who are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Next year, upon retirement of the executive secretary, Mr. Bullock, 60, who has served there eighteen years, Mr. Williams will become chief official in charge of all the work. BILL LYGHTNER AWARDED
TRACK LAURELS

(Special to the Bystander)

New Haven, Conn.—William Lyghtner has been elected captain of the 1935 track squad of the New Haven high school and was the only member of the team to compete in the National A. A. U. championship meet in Milwaukee reaching the finals in the 200 meters there running against Ralph Metcalfe and Jesse Owens, placing fifth in a field of eight men.

On July 4th Lyghtner won the 100 meter race in the Recreation Meet being awarded a silver trophy presented to him by the Mayor of the city in behalf of the colored Elks Lodge. Critics say "Bill is one of the best athletes New Haven has had in some years and great things are expected of him in future competitions. . . ."

A Connecticut sports writer says, "That no performer in any of the six meets involving the cream of New England, New Jersey, and New York schools, showing the state's best track stars in record-breaking and startling performances, bettered the performance in the hundred yard dash turned in by Captain-elect Bill Lyghtner of Hillhouse."

An eastern newspaper had this to say of the former Des Moines boy: "Even with bad weather conditions a performance was turned in here that was unequalled anywhere in New England. In the morning trials at Yale Field, held in the rain, Lyghtner of Hillhouse, ran his trial heat in the 220 in 21 4-5 seconds being 20 yards ahead of his nearest foe and with so much of a lead that track officials waved him to slow down to save himself for the finals. Had Lyghtner kept his pace he might well have smashed the school-boy mark of 21.3 set by Bill McNulty of Hillhouse, a year ago."

Sports

By Allen Ashby

The Black Barons lost a thriller last Sunday, being the fourth loss in twelve starts. Since they reorganized the boys have been playing a good brand of ball and have been hitting pretty hard, judging from their scores. We would like to get some reports on the Capital City Giants. While we are about it, there are two Negro softball teams in the city worthy of mention: The Orange Kist team, formerly the Brown Buddies, and the Crocker Hat Cleaners. Both these teams have made good records against tough competition. The Shamrock Gardens, a white club, has a Negro battery composed of Dan Dennis of basketball fame and Hill, former member of the Whitney's Cleaners team from Sioux City.

LOCAL TENNIS SIBS LIGHTS

Chet Williamson, Bill Ashby and your Uncle Dudley have been working out in preparation for the Missouri Valley meet in Kansas City on August 2 to 6. Bill has been playing fine tennis lately and if he lives up to his reputation against outside competition, may go places. Chet and your great scribe have been in a bit of a slump lately, but a lot of hard work has apparently pulled us out of it. Chet is gradually regaining the form that made him a sensation in Kansas City and Omaha last year, while yours truly isn't playing such hot tennis, but having a lot of fun. Earl Newcomb went east and played in a couple of meets in Baltimore. Earl says they play tennis out there. Some desperate battles are being waged nightly at God's park as the boys prepare for our city meet. Chet Williamson is after his fifth straight crown and Bill Ashby has sworn to down the jug that this meet has on his mind. He, Earl Newcomb and Paul Van Woods should provide Williamson with his main opposition on his march to the title.

Every- one is waiting for Chuck Grant to Negro Y, with Kid Gater next week. The battle has been fought already at pool shops and pool halls, but the winner has been named.

YOUR DOG AN INTRICATE MECHANISM

That dog of yours—out there watching over the baby or playing ball with the youngsters—do you realize what a marvelously complicated machine he is? We are all inclined to marvel at the wonderful inventions evolved by man in his rise from savagery, yet when these are placed side by side with nature's inventions as worked out in living beings, they rather pale by comparison, states the Chapel Kennel Foundation, Rockford, Illinois. The dog's skeleton is many times more intricate than the steel framework building in New York City. His muscles, supplying the motive power for his body, are infinitely superior to the man-made gas engine. His heart, first driven by creatures in the sea countless ages ago, is a far more ingenious pump than man has yet seen side-by-side. His brain responds to your commands by means of a much more complicated system than a central tele. phone exchange. No steam shovel of our civilization operates quite as effectively as the dog's "forearm." The wheel is probably the one invention in which man has surpassed nature.

which the dog's legs are nothing but two spokes of a wheel, moving back and forth instead of around as they carry him forward. The dog as we know him today is the result of centuries of environmental influences, states the Foundation. He is changing before our very eyes, adopting such characteristics as will enable him to adjust himself to civilized living and keeping those that hamper him from fitting into the present-day world. Kindness kills most dogs. Out of a good heart folks feed their dogs too much or feed them the wrong kind of food. The chief element of a dog's diet must be meat. If you feed your dog a prepared well-balanced kennel ration with dog biscuits added twice a week for variety's sake, he will need nothing else except water. Be sure the wording "U. S. Inspected and Passed by Department of Agriculture" appears on the can label; it is your protection that what has gone into that can is as fresh and pure and clean as anything intended for your own use.

Houston Voters Take Court Action to Combat "Grandfather Resolution"

Houston—Negro citizens of Houston and Harris county have resorted to court action to challenge the "grandfather resolution" passed by the Harris County Democratic Executive committee in an attempt to bar Negroes from the Democratic primary election on Saturday, July 28.

Two civil law suits have been filed against Albert Townsend, white, Harris county clerk, for his failure to allow a group of Negro citizens to cast absentee ballots and an injunction suit has been filed against the Harris county Democratic committee seeking to set aside the resolution passed by that body which in effect denies Negro citizens the right of franchise.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME PLANNED

Tentative arrangements have been made for an exhibition game between St. Paul A. M. E. Negro church league champions, and the First Federated church team, white church league titleholders, to be played soon at the new Veterans' hospital.

Negroes and Whites Fight Police;

Several Arrested
Bridgeton, N. J. (CNS)—Tear gas bombs, water from fire hose, and policemen's clubs were necessary to put an end to clashes between deputy sheriffs and policemen and striking farm hands at the 4,000-acre Seabrook farm in Deerfield township on Monday, July 9.

Twelve colored men and women were arrested. They are: Ellen Roberts, Ardella Dent, Esther Jones, Lillian Jackson, Tom Crawford, Daniel Hart, William Brown, John Dent, Jesse Reeves, Ernest Johnson, Paul Rodock and Wallace Kenkins.

The strike is counted the major NRA event so far as Negro farmers are concerned in that township. The strike grew out of what the strikers claim was a breach of contract on the part of the Seabrook Farm corporation.

WHITE MAN GETS ANDERSON'S

INTERNAL REVENUE JOB
New York City (CNS)—Harlem's Democratic leaders are sorely peeved. A white man has been selected to succeed Charles W. Anderson as Collector of Internal Revenue in the Third District of New York. Sigmund Solomon gets the plum that Henri W. Shield, James C. Thomas, Dr. Godfrey Nurse, and John M. Royall were striving for.

Charles W. Anderson, who is retiring from political office after more than forty years in federal and state service, was Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District under President Harding, Coolidge, Hoover, and F. D. Roosevelt. During the Harding Administration, G. O. P. leaders

had the old Second District divided so as to provide collectorship appointment for the astute Negro leader.

Mr. Anderson was first named Collector of Internal Revenue by President Theodore Roosevelt at the request of Booker T. Washington, serving in charge of the Second District during the Administrations of Roosevelt, Taft, and Wilson for several months. His first political appointment was gauged in the Second District in 1890. He had been in ill health since 1927. For months the administrative duties of the Third District have been carried on by subordinates.

Several Others Wounded As Truck

Carrying 20 Is Fired on By Thugs
Houston, Tex.—To the tune of blazing guns, the waterfront here was converted into a virtual battlefield of guerrilla warfare Sunday, attaining almost to the breaking point, a situation that was already more than tense. Three Negroes were killed and several others wounded in one of the most serious outbreaks since the dock laborers went on strike weeks ago.

The clash came as twenty Negro independent longshoremen were riding to work. A coupe, believed by the police to be carrying members and sympathizers of the International Longshoremen's Association, drew alongside and poured a stream of lead into the truck and the sedan following, from pistols and shotguns. One of the Negro independents drew a pistol and returned the fire, wounding C. O. Reeves, union longshoreman. The Negro's fire was cut short when he was quickly felled by a bullet.

Those killed were Frank Rowland and Jim Barnes, riding in the sedan, and George Hardy, who was struck. Joe Henry, another occupant of the truck, received probably fatal injuries. Reeves, taken to a hospital, was held on charges of murder and assault. S. P. Brown, colored, said to have been riding in the rumble seat of the coupe, and H. J. Freeman, white dock worker, surrendered to the police and were held on similar charges.

FINE RESPONSE

The editor of the Bystander visited Marshalltown this week calling upon our old subscribers and looking up others. In spite of conditions the response to the paper was never better.

Expressions of satisfaction with the paper, appreciation of its stand on issues of the day and a desire to support Negro enterprises of its character were heard on every hand. Favorable responses like this help to compensate for the difficult task we have to keep our paper going.

The Bystander has found more favorable sentiment in Des Moines recently than for several years. We appreciate it and will do our part in maintaining it.

NO PROFIT

When Dillinger was shot down in Chicago Sunday, he had $7.70 in his pocket. Clyde Barrows had a few hundred dollars in his pocket when he was killed, and while these desperadoes don't carry all their money on their person the net profits from their operations have been found to be small.

Evidently money is not the moving cause for their operations, but simply pays the ordinary expenses incident to the life they live.

MONEY PLENTIFUL?

It is said often that people can find money at all times to buy the things out of which they get pleasure. One of the best illustrations of this fact is the large number of beer parlors everywhere and the further fact that most of them seem to be doing good business.

Where the money comes from is hard to tell and yet the number of men out of work is as great as ever. Possibly most of them have been drinking all the time—in speakies—but now that beer is out in the open we notice it more.

Condems Sales Tax and National Administration's Deficit

More than 2,000 Iowa politicians met at the State Republican convention held Wednesday at the Coliseum here and elected the party's nominees for the three contested state offices on the first ballot. George W. Patterson of Burt, for lieutenant-governor, received 1,883 1/2 votes to 421 of his sole opponent, J. A. Nelson, of Decatur. The other candidates withdrew, then the convention made the vote unanimous. Ole Naglestad of Sioux City, for attorney general, swept to victory by 1,322 votes. Robert J. Shaw of Sigourney ran a poor second. Fred Nelson of Nevada, for secretary of agriculture, was victorious by 1,563 1/2 votes; the runner-up William Campbell of Jessup received 442 votes.

Polk County with its 180 votes solidly supported the three successful candidates which took less than two hours to elect. J. M. Grimes of Osceola, key

About Dentistry by Dr. Dean

Perhaps the most widely asked question is, "Why do my teeth decay?" Although it is asked in a few simple words the answer could be written endlessly. The following have been and will continue to be contributing factors so it is wise to improve on your present condition of each.

Listing number one as mouth uncleanness is a good start. An unclean mouth permits food to lodge in and around the teeth and this food draws bacteria to form cavities. The best way to eliminate this possibility is constant and thorough brushing. The most important time to brush is after dinner, however, after each meal is advisable.

Another cause of cavities is due to improper food and diet. In some instances of children, dentists have stopped the decay by having the child follow a set diet, one must have enough milk, eggs, green foods and fruits, or their equivalent in cod liver oil along with plenty of sunshine. The above are most important in the expectant mother, and in the growing child because their teeth will be hard and strong for later life.

Also included in the causes is the faulty position as overlapping and the opposite or wide separation of teeth. The first condition of overlapping makes it very difficult for the patient to properly brush the teeth resulting in collections of food, and subsequent decay. Therefore, in cases of this type the ones so affected should see their dentist quite often in order for him to prevent this decay by his carefully cleaning and polishing in and around those teeth. The spaced teeth often permits damage to the gum because the food passes in this area.

Q. I have a full set of plates and have had for a year or so. How the bottom plate is hurting and jumps up all the time and the top plate is alright. I am wondering what is the best thing for me to do?—C. F.

A. If possible, you should tell the dentist who did the work, about your troubles. If not, then see what seems to cause the lower plate to move as laughing, moving the tongue, etc., also remember the soreness may be due to having the plates made too soon after extracting the teeth. My advice to you is see an ethical reputable dentist and he can correct your plate.

note speaker, was made permanent chairman at the start of the afternoon session.

Three Speakers
 Senator L. J. Dickinson, Dan Turner, G. O. P. nominee for governor, and three other former Iowa governors, John Hammill, W. L. Harding and B. F. Carroll addressed the convention.

The state G. O. P. convention adopted a 15 plank platform condemning the Democratic party, demanding a repeal of the sales tax, modification of the old age pension bill and flayed the extravagance of the state owned liquor stores.

Resolutions
 Included in the platform were resolutions expressing alarm at the national Democrats' utter failure to redeem pre-election pledges to balance the federal budget, cutting of veterans' allowance, and the monetary policy. Assailing the farm legislation and decreased credit facilities the party favored a plan of work relief "rather than a dole," and to give labor the right to organize and bargain collectively. The party pledged to insure public school advancement and further school advantages.

Two Committee Changes
 The state central committee underwent several changes the outstanding ones being the election of P. H. Frank of Waterloo, to chairman succeeding Homer S. Stephens, Clarinda, who was not a candidate for re-election. Mrs. Virginia Bedell, Spirit Lake, vice chairman, also not a candidate, was retired in favor of Mrs. June Pritchard of Onawa.

Negroes In Attendance
 Besides the large number of Negroes who were in attendance, the following representatives of Negro Republicans were delegates at the convention: Dr. L. B. Ferguson, Atty. M. F. Fields, Waterloo, Iowa; Rev. Hunt, Davenport; Thomas Lighons, Pershing; Mrs. B. Pertum Miller and Mrs. Rice Lintz of Ottumwa; Mrs. E. Hall, Mrs. Mary Miles, Walter Thompson, Al Smith, W. T. Jones, J. G. Browne, all of Des Moines.

Bill Seen As Directed Against Attorneys in Scottsboro Cases

Birmingham, Ala. (CNS)—Aimed directly at the attorneys in the "Scottsboro" cases, a bill to prohibit attorneys from members of the Alabama bar from conducting cases in the state courts, will soon be introduced in the State Legislature. Eugene Conner recently nominated in the Democratic primary as representative from Jefferson County has announced his intention of sponsoring the legislation.

Conner, who is seeking to gain votes in the coming election on the strength of the prejudices of a large element of the State against the L.L.D. and its attorneys, says the bill to prohibit attorneys not members of the Alabama bar from conducting cases in the State courts was aimed directly at the attorneys in the "Scottsboro cases." He pointed out that none of the counsel retained by the International Labor Defense is a member of the Alabama bar.

The bill will be modeled after a similar statute now in operation in Ohio, under which out-of-state attorneys may sit at the counsel table, but are not permitted to conduct the actual proceedings, or to say anything to the court.

The Bystander will be pleased to print your news. Phone or mail it to the office.
