Members Block Doors of Labor Convention With Placards, Signs Denouncing all Jim Crow Unions

BANNERS ASK FOR SMASHING OF COLOR LINE
San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Hundreds of labor delegates entering the convention hall of the American Federation of Labor last Friday were astounded to find the entrance picketed by members of the N. A. A. C. P. carrying huge placards denouncing the jim crow policies of organized labor. This dramatic action, unprecedented in the history of A. F. of L. conventions, aroused wide comment and became the topic of discussion inside and outside of the auditorium. The picketers, colored men and women connected with the San Francisco branch of the association and led by Attorney Leland S. Hawkins, the branch president, carried placards reading:

Smash Color Line in Labor; Why Does the A. F. of L. Sponsor Jim Crow Unions; Only 100,000 Negro Workers Organized Out of 5,000,000; Shame on A. F. of L.; Twenty-one International and National Labor Unions Exclude Negro Workers; What is the A. F. of L. Doing About 17, 1400 Negro Electricians; Why Does the Electrical Workers Union Bar Them? 6,000 Negro Plasterers; Less Than 100 in the Plasterers Union; Why? 3,500 Negro Plumbers and Steam Fitters; They Can't Get in the Union Because of Race Prejudice! 34,217 Negro Carpenters; Less Than 300 Union Members! Why, A. F. of L. You Bar Us From Unions; Then Denounce Us From Scabbard! Meanwhile Our Wives and Children Starve.

Interviewed by the press, Attorney Hawkins declared that the picketers were all volunteers and would continue the demonstration in front of the auditorium until the convention closed. The surprise move was directed from the national office of the N. A. A. C. P. in New York City and carried out in detail by the San Francisco branch.

Iowa Baptists in Centennial Meet

Rev. L. K. Williams of Chicago Slated To Speak
Dr. L. K. Williams of Chicago, president of the National Baptist Convention, will be one of the outstanding speakers at the centennial convention of the Iowa Baptists, to be held at Burlington on Monday, October 15th, to Sunday, October 21, according to Dr. Frank Anderson, executive secretary. He will speak at the Thursday evening session. The celebration will commemorate the founding of the first Baptist church in Iowa on October 29, 1834.

Dr. Williams, pastor of the Olivet Baptist church of Chicago, the largest in the world, with a membership of 15,000, and head of the convention of over two million Negro Baptists, was elected vice president of the World Baptist Alliance at its recent meeting in Berlin, Germany. He is prominent in politics and leader in the Republican ranks of Negro voters. Dr. Williams has visited in Des Moines several times as speaker at the Corinthian Baptist church. Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor, is a close friend of the Chicago minister. He was here in 1932, when he addressed a political meeting at East High school, campaigning for Herbert Hoover.

Unions was waged despite the organization committee's report on non-concurrence in the resolution. Frank Duffy, secretary of the International Carpenters' union, attempted to uphold the report with a recital of past resolutions adopted by the Federation.

A. F. OF L. ASKED TO OKEY ANTI-LYNCHING BILL
New York, Oct. 12.—Endorsement of a federal anti-lynching law by the convention of the American Federation of Labor was asked in a telegram to the convention in San Francisco on Friday by the N. A. A. C. P. Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, urged endorsement "to check mob murder which is a form of intimidation designed to continue the separation of white and black labor and the exploitation of both."

Rev. J.R. Ransom, Churchman, Dies

A. M. E. PASTOR WELL KNOWN THRUOUT NATION
Wichita.—The Rev. J. R. Ransom, one of the outstanding ministers in the country, and pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church here, died Sunday afternoon, October 7th, after a brief illness. The veteran churchman, 74 years old, was planning to attend his annual conference in Topeka this week, but a relative called Bishop John A. Gregg a few days ago, telling him the Rev. Mr. Ransom would be unable to attend the sessions. The well known divine served twice as pastor of First A. M. E. church, Kansas City, Kas., and the remodeling of that edifice was completed under his pastorate. He built the first A. M. E. church in Argentine, Kas., and worked at the packing house during his period there. He was pastor of churches in Council Grove and other points in Kansas.

Rev. D.H. Sims To Face Trial

CHARGES ARE FALSE A. M. E. PRELATE SAYS
Capetown, South Africa.—(ANP)—In an exclusive statement to the Associated Negro Press, the Right Reverend David Henry Sims, bishop of the A. M. E. church in charge of the Fifteenth Episcopal district, comprising South Africa, said that he was returning to America to face charges preferred against him by Mrs. Annie Mae Williams Sims, his former wife. During the airing of the case in the press since a recent session of the bishop's council of the church, held at Jackson, Miss., U. S. A., when Mrs. Sims accused the bishop of divorcing her and marrying another wife, Bishop Sims has maintained a dignified silence. He advised Associated Negro Press, however, that he was prepared to defend himself against critics and scouted the idea that he would remain in Africa and form a separate church.

George Robinson First Captain To Report

The annual Y. M. C. A. financial campaign was launched with a kick-off dinner held in the auditorium of the Central Y. M. C. A. building on Saturday evening, October 6th. Seven members of the Crocker Street branch committee of management and staff were present. F. O. Morrow, chairman of the Crocker Street division, was among those called upon to speak, and explained the nature of the campaign to be conducted by his team in the drive. Other speakers on the program: Judge Eskill Carlson, head of the general drive; George A. Peak, chairman of the executive committee; Dr. Willard Lampe, head of the School of Religion at the University of Iowa, and the commanders and team captains.

Prolonged applause was given the first report on Monday by George Robinson, in which all of the pledges turned in were payable in cash, also Wednesday's report by T. L. Howard of $102, which more than passed the halfway mark of the quota to be obtained. The drive will be closed with a final banquet on Friday evening, with success being assured with the splendid early reports that have been turned in.

Those participating in the Crocker Street division are: F. O. Morrow, chairman; A. P. Trotter, Spencer E. Ellison, G. B. Tucker, Harrison Guild, Otis James, T. M. Kelley, Dr. C. R. Bradford, W. C. Red Cross Roll Call Begins Wednesday

Plans are proceeding rapidly for the eighteenth annual roll call of the Des Moines and Polk county chapter of the American Red Cross, under the direction of B. B. Vorse, roll call director. Nine civic organizations are to attempt to obtain 20,000 memberships during the period from October 24th to November 3rd, inclusive, which will enable the local chapter to carry on its work of relief and service.

Roll call headquarters at 318 Seventh street were opened Monday by Miss Ruth B. Green, executive secretary of the chapter, and are to remain open until the campaign is completed. Miss Green emphasized that persons who are not contacted by the team workers, particularly housewives, may obtain their membership buttons by calling at the headquarters.

New York Lawyer Is Angered at Communists

WALTER POLLACK RETAINED FOR BOYS

New York City.—(CNA)—Samuel S. Liebowitz, noted trial attorney, has deserted the fight to free the Scottsboro boys, says a dispatch this week from an I. L. D. news release. Accompanying the announcement of his withdrawal from the case, Liebowitz issued an attack on the International Labor Defense, who has been fighting to free the boys after three years, stating that he will have nothing to do with the fight until the I. L. D. or "The communists are removed from the case."

Liebowitz' statement of withdrawal was issued two days after he had been notified by the I. L. D. that it had retained Walter H. Pollack, considered the ablest constitutional attorney in the country, to carry the Scottsboro appeal to the supreme court. It was Pollack who on April 9, 1932, backed by thousands of Negro and white workers throughout the world, led by the International Labor Defense, forced the highest court in the land to reverse the decision of the Alabama court.

"Best Lawyer," I. L. D. The reason given by the I. L. D. for the change from Liebowitz to Pollack was that although the former was an able trial lawyer, he is far inferior to Walter H. Pollack as a constitutional attorney, the type of lawyer needed to argue the case before the supreme court. At all times, the I. L. D. stated, the best and ablest lawyer in the different legal fields will be retained to fight the different steps of the case in the courts.

Liebowitz Will Help

Mr. Liebowitz said in part: "The communists have raised huge sums of money by the exploitation of this case through paid admission mass meetings throughout the country and kindred forms of lucrative ballyhoo. I gave my services free. Until all secret maneuverings, ballyhoo, mass pressure, and communist methods are removed from the case, I can no longer continue. I am not deserting the Scottsboro boys. I have given of my best and am prepared to continue to do so to the end that the Scottsboro boys shall not die."

No Hope Now

The arrest in Birmingham of two white men, charged with an attempt to bribe Victoria Price, chief state witness in the Scottsboro case, was cited by Liebowitz as a prime motive for his action.

This action of the state high court leaves only executive clemency from the governor of Alabama or the United States supreme court to save the boys from the electric chair. No hope is entertained that the governor will intervene in behalf of the boys.

Dr. Carver Rejects $175,000 Position

DR. G. W. CARVER Offered Job With Edison Foundation

SCIENTIFIC WIZARD OF TUSKEGEE REFUSES POSITION WITH EDISON FIRM

Tuskegee Institute.—(CPS)—Dr. George W. Carver, eminent scientific "wizard," who has produced in the neighborhood of 285 by-products from the peanut and more than 200 useful articles from the sweet potato and soy bean, admitted reluctantly, last week, that he had been offered some time ago a salary in "six figures" by the Edison Foundation to carry on his experiments. At the same time, Dr. Carver also admitted that the Russian government also offered him "a vast sum" which he could not accept.

According to Ollie Stewart, writing in the current issue of the Southern Workman, Dr. Carver was offered $175,000 per year by the Edison Foundation. "He has refused every offer," the writer states, "though it is reported that a bank which failed during the recent crisis held on deposit a large part of his savings." The scientist has made no attempt to commercialize any of his discoveries.

The Drake Bulldogs, tied once and defeated twice in their first three games, are the "underdogs" as they travel east to West Point, N. Y., to tangle with the powerful Army eleven Saturday.

The Bulldogs virtually lost out in their conquest for the 1934 Missouri Valley title when they went down to a 7 to 0 defeat at the hands of the fast and powerful 1933 champions, the Oklahoma Aggies.

Angelo Herndon Trial Is Denied A Rehearing

GEORGIA COURT SPIKES NEW ATTEMPT TO REOPEN CASE

New York City.—(CNA)—A rehearing in the case of Angelo Herndon, young revolutionary leader, has been denied by the state supreme court of Georgia, it was announced Wednesday. The International Labor Defense, when they received this, immediately stated that the case would be prepared for the United States supreme court. The information was received from John H. Geer, associate with Ben Davis, Jr., editor of the Liberator, on this case.

Herndon, released from Fulton Tower jail, on $15,000 bail raised by the I. L. D. through popular subscription, is at present on a tour of thirty-three cities throughout the United States, accompanied by Mrs. Norris, the mother of Clarence Norris, one of the Scottsboro boys under death sentence in Kilby prison, Alabama, and Richard B. Moore of the International Labor Defense.

TEACHING TOLERANCE

Speaking before the Interracial Commission in Des Moines this week, J. E. Stonecipher, principal of Roosevelt High School said that in order to teach methods of building a tolerant attitude of race the teacher himself must be tolerant. The Bystander endorses this view, goes further and states that teachers applying for positions in our public schools should be required to state their views on the question of tolerance toward races.

Altogether too many teachers who think otherwise are in our schools and while these same teachers may be especially fitted to teach the subject to which they are assigned, the fact that these intolerant attitudes bob up all through the school work, that portion of the student body who are Negroes or whites who are tolerant themselves are handicapped by such teachers.

While the public school should be broad, its teachings should not tolerate ideas which are fundamentally wrong even though some of the teachers may have honest beliefs to the contrary.

A teacher told one of our high school pupils that the reason Negroes did not vote in the South was due to the fact that they usually lost their registration certificates before election day. Even a southerner does not offer such an alibi as this. But the incident illustrates how much theory and how little practical knowledge some people have about the Negro and his problem.

NOW THE SHOE BURNS

Senator Murphy complains bitterly because Senator Dickinson opposed the New Deal from the beginning and has not hesitated to say so in and out of congress. A lot of others, even Republicans have done likewise. They contend that patriotism requires that we get behind the president and help him defeat the depression.

That same plea of patriotism was not heard when Hoover was president. Everybody knows that no president since Lincoln got more unjustifiable abuse than President Hoover.

But even this is contrary to our theory of having a majority and minority party—the latter serving as a check upon the other. President Roosevelt himself has voluntarily abandoned some of his ideas about the NRA, ideas which Senator Dickinson and others of his critics have opposed. It is too easy for a person to go on making mistakes unless some one else who can see the other side checks him. Bring on the fireworks.

Postmaster General Farley got a big jolt when Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania decided to back Senator Reed of that state for re-election. In fact the governor is accused of doing a political somersault. Well, somersaults are alright when the person falls in Mr. Farley's net but if he falls in that of someone else—well it's just too bad.

The Des Moines Y. M. C. A. is conducting a drive this week for funds with which to operate another year. Our Crocker Street branch is in the movement and has been relatively successful. PROTRUDING TEETH

One of the most noticeable conditions of the upper front teeth is the often found protruding ones. This may exist in one or two teeth but generally is true of six or more of the anteriors. Along with these protrusions there is usually some that are twisted out of position plus an overlapping of one or two. Then in a few instances the cuspid teeth more commonly called the "eye teeth" or "cutting teeth" because they are longer and more pointed than the others will be found protruding from higher up in the gum tissue.

The causes of the above mentioned cases is as varied as the different cases. The most frequent cause is begun in the young child by the too early extraction of the baby teeth. On the other keeping the first teeth too long will cause the permanent ones to erupt out of place resulting in misplaced and overlapped teeth. However the habits of the baby from one year to perhaps twelve or more can influence the position of the teeth. Thumb sucking results in a protrusion of five or six upper teeth. Breathing through the mouth will also cause the same effects as thumb sucking, therefore parents should watch the breathing and sleeping position of the child. Of course continued chewing of pencils or the tongue or lip will have the same above mentioned results. In some instances there seems to be a hereditary tendency to this protrusion and there is no definite proof otherwise.

The correction and straightening of the protruding teeth is possible if done by a dentist especially qualified to are not solicited in the white group by the white solicitors, the Crocker Street men are a grand success.

But in spite of how little a family can give, we ought to be interested in the Y at this time of the year as well as at camp time. The program of the Y should be fifty-two weeks in the year, the interest of the people the same.

The Bystander believes that the Y cannot be helped by standing outside, cussing those inside and doing nothing tangible toward its support. But it can be helped by using that same energy to help it be what it is not. The Bystander agrees that the Y has some serious faults—faults that its name should not be forced to carry, but it feels free to speak of them when it chooses and to whom it chooses believing that it can do this best by doing its part toward the work.

Dear Dr. Dean:
Does it make any difference what kind of tooth-brush I use?
Mrs. M. S., Des Moines, Ia.

A. The kind of a toothbrush does have a great deal to do with the success that you have in cleaning your teeth. The cheaper brushes generally have bristles very easy and these lodge in between the teeth. But the main point in selecting a toothbrush is the shape because not all brushes can reach every area in and around the teeth. The best policy is to use two brushes, one rather oval for the inside of the upper and lower teeth and another with a tuft or pointed end to keep the back teeth clean or free from food.

Health Talks

Dr. H. H. London

TUBERCULOSIS

Tuberculosis occupies a place among diseases of first importance because it is one of the most prevalent and because it is one of the most difficult to cure. It is a disease which affects old and young alike and one whose incidence is in direct proportion to the resistance and general health of those who take it. This disease does not manifest itself in the healthy constitution because it cannot gain a foothold where the defensive powers of the body are co-operating at a normal level of efficiency. There are factors which act to prevent the onset of this disease as well as the onset of other diseases and next to those above mentioned that of first importance is the disease preventing vitamin, a normal amount of which will undoubtedly act to prevent the entrance of any disease of infective origin into the body. This vitamin is called "A" and is contained in greater amount in milk.

Many people do not get nearly enough of this vitamin and consequently become victims to Tuberculosis and other infectious diseases. From childhood and all through life a sufficient amount of this vitamin should be ingested to insure a normal amount of protective vitamin in the body. By so doing the weight, appetite excretions and all functions will be optimum to insure health and adequate protection against invading organisms. The germ of Tuberculosis is everywhere, is ubiquitous and the only way to guard against it is to keep the general health at its highest level and by being sure that the diet contains enough of the disease-preventing vitamin "A".

The necessary treatment. Moving the teeth into their proper place will require usually a year or more but the appearance is greatly improved as is also the ability to chew the food properly.

The Liquor Commission
While personally I am opposed to the legalized liquor traffic, I never thought that I would live long enough to see a day when the State Legislature would force me to become a liquor dealer; but that is exactly what they did, when they passed the hard liquor control bill; for it provides that all hard liquor legally sold in Iowa shall be sold by the "State of Iowa"; and "the State of Iowa" is only the composite term which means you and me and every other citizen of the State.

The Sales Tax
In addition to putting us all into the hard liquor business, the Democratic Governor and Legislature increased the tax burden of the poor man by levying a tax on each purchase of a penny per unit of one percent upon each and every fifteen cent purchase, no matter whether it be a meal for himself or milk for his baby, while the wealthier class of citizen who does not make fifteen cent purchases pays only two cents upon each dollar's worth he purchases.

Old Age Tax
Not satisfied with having increased our tax burden by placing a one cent tax upon each fifteen cent purchase, this Democratic Governor and Legislature under the guise of pensioning old paupers over sixty-five years of age, placed an additional burden upon each and all of us by levying an Old Age resistance poll tax of two dollars per year, which two dollar poll tax applies especially to the indigent by providing that they shall not be eligible to receive any "Old Age Assistance" until they have resided in Iowa ten years and not even then, should they be in arrears in the payment of this two dollar poll tax for a period of three years.

These are only a few of the features of the "New Deal" as administered by a Democratic Governor and Democratic State Legislature here in Iowa; and regardless of what we may think of President Roosevelt and his New Dealers down in Washington, the question that the voters of Iowa are Administration Gave the Negro "Raw Deal" Says Iowa G.O.P.

THE CAMPAIGN OF FEAR
(From the Iowa Bystander, Oct. 12, 1934)
Why has the Democratic Party in Iowa conducted its campaign with arguments of National Issues? If you have heard a democratic candidate talking to the voters, you have heard him expound the virtues of President Roosevelt, but little or nothing about his qualifications for the office that he seeks. In reading and hearing these speeches, I am, sometimes, confused myself, and wonder if Mr. Roosevelt is up for re-election now or whether this is only a bi-election involving state officers.

The voter is told that only with Democrats in charge of affairs can Iowa get federal relief. Do they mean by that, that it is the plan of the Democratic party to starve out all Republicans? If that is the implication of their argument wouldn't it be better and less painful to "Hitlerize" the state and take all Democratic opposition before a firing squad? The good Democrats proclaim loudly that they are the great humanitarians, then surely the latter procedure would be the more human thing to do.

Let me suggest however that there are several states in the Union that are controlled by Republicans and I have not heard (nor have you) that they have been denied the benefits of Federal Relief Laws.

Are the citizens of Iowa going to be forced to vote a certain way by threats and coercion? Is there any fundamental difference between economic threats of Huey Long and the physical threats of Herring and the New Dealers?

The younger Negro should especially give this election serious consideration as the "New Deal" voters will be the one that will face the future reckoning resulting from the lavish expenditures of today. He has had the advantage of public school training and should not be easily confused by "just words" or "reason." If this is not true, then there has been a lamentable waste of public funds.

Truly, this is one time when the Negro voter can use his emotions as well as his commitments for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his "New Dealers" down at Washington, I have looked in vain for any record of anything which the Iowa Democrats have done for these Iowa Negro Democrats themselves; and therefore, take advantage of this opportunity to call the attention of the Iowa Negro voters, to the very important fact that the campaign this year is strictly a state campaign and that the Iowa Democrats have attempted to dodge the issue by devoting all their time to eulogizing President Roosevelt and his New Dealers down at Washington, the chief fact is that the question that we shall be called upon to decide when we go into our booths on November 6th, next, will be not whether or not we shall retain President Roosevelt and his "New Deal" train "frustrated" in Washington, but rather whether we shall retain Governor Clyde L. Herring, his Liquor Control Commission, his Retail Sales Tax Commission, his Old Age Pension Commission and his "Free Beer" Commission over at the State House here in Iowa.

As for the "New Deal" as administered by a Democratic Governor and Democratic State Legislature here in Iowa; and regardless of what we may think of President Roosevelt and his New Dealers down in Washington, the question that the voters of Iowa are called upon to answer when they go into their booths on Tuesday, November 6th, next, is whether they desire to continue this kind of deal here in Iowa for another two years.

A Raw Deal
As for myself, permit me to say that I consider that the Iowa "New Dealers" have given us a rather "raw deal," as a protest against which I intend to vote to return to the State House "Honest Dan Turner" and a complete Republican administration.

PART OF REP. DE PRIESTS SPEECH ON HOUSE RESOLUTION EXCLUSION
(From the Iowa Bystander, March 30, 1934)

Mr. DePRIEST. Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee, I came to Washington as a Representative to Congress on the 10th of April, 1929. Up until the 23d day of last January I never heard this question raised which has now been raised by the Chairman of the Committee on Accounts before the grill room downstairs was told, by Mr. Johnson that by the orders of the Chairman of the Committee on Accounts he could not be served in that restaurant.

I read in the newspapers an interview where the Chairman of the Committee on Accounts said that no Negro had been served there and would not while he was here. I hope he was not quoted correctly.

I want to say that if the chairman was quoted correctly in that article "that Negroes had not been served there before" he was mistaken. I have seen them there in the grill room several times. In the last 5 years I think I have seen them 50 times.

I want to say further, after talking with some members of the Committee on Accounts, that this question has never been raised in the committee before, and never was raised officially in the committee, if I am correctly informed.

It seems to be an arbitrary ruling on that question.

The restaurant of the Capitol is run for the benefit of the American people and every American, whether he be black or white, Jew or Gentile, Protestant or Catholic, under our constitutional form of Government, is entitled to equal opportunities.

If we allow segregation and the denial of constitutional rights under the dome of the Capitol, where in God's name will we get them? And I say further, ladies and gentlemen of the Congress, that America never will be what it was intended to be until every citizen in America has his just rights under the Constitution. (Applause.) I would not have filed this petition if I could have gotten a hearing before the Committee on Rules. I asked for it. I was not even given the courtesy of a hearing before that committee.

I do not claim the Negro race is any better than anybody else. I know we have our criminal element, just like you have your criminal element. None of us are perfect, but it behooves all of us to do the best we can and respect the rights of the other fellow in America. Whether they be large or small, rich or poor, it makes no difference.

(Speech delivered by Hon. Oscar De Priest in House of Representatives following the successful efforts of a Democratic controlled committee and house to exclude Negroes from the House of Representatives Cafe.)

WHERE DOES YOUR MONEY GO? As former generations struggled for the preservation of our nation, we today are struggling for the stabilizing of the economic problem that each and every one is interested in. Stop wasteful extravagance, replace with economical practices. See publicity bulletin No. 16 on reduction of government expense. See how Polk county treasurer's office cost more to operate than the three next largest county treasurer's offices, with 88,500 population more and 1456 more square miles than Polk county. Where does your money go? Claude B. Kyner, Democratic candidate for county treasurer.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP A THREAT TO NATION

Taking Over Railroads Would Increase National Debt $12,500,000,000.

WASHINGTON.—In the midst of all of the other uncertainties for business, a new attempt to bring about public ownership of all railroads is peeping above the federal government's horizon. Depression conditions have made the time opportune, many government ownership advocates believe. They are prepared to start an intensive drive, and they have in mind a definite proposal under which the railroads might be acquired.

Their program, of course, is incomplete but the understanding in Washington is that a draft already has been made. Its sponsors chiefly are among the President's advisors. While much secrecy surrounds the program and the whole scheme probably will be held confidential for some weeks, it is nevertheless an established fact that some of the brain trusters now hope they can push the question of government acquisition of the railroads into the hands of the next congress.

As far as is known in Washington, it is not generally expected even by the ardent advocates of government ownership that legislation can be put through in the session that convenes next January. That fact, however, is said not to have deterred them in their efforts at all. If they can develop strength in the next congress, they propose then to put on pressure looking to success in the succeeding session.

The Shareholders' Prospects. Of course, as stated above, the present movement has not taken shape at this writing to permit definite statements on the character of the plan still largely in the minds of some of the brain trusters. It can be set down as a fact, nevertheless, that basic considerations thus far receiving attention from the government ownership leaders contemplate virtual destruction of the rights of shareholders in many of the country's railroads. This, according to the latest Interstate Commerce Commission figures, means that more than 810,000 individuals would see their certificates of stock converted into nothing more than beautifully engraved pieces of paper; there would be no value left.

Fad for Streamlines Finally Hits Trolley Cars

The new, modern, streamlined model. "Walking car" used in New Orleans.

Similar to all other forms of conveyances, the street car or trolley, finally has been smitten by the streamline bug. The above layout shows a modern street car, built by Professor F. H. Hirschfeld, construction engineer, at a cost of $1,000,000.

By WORTH L. CHENEY
CLEVELAND.—(I. I. N.)—For convenience and comfort, it is a far cry from the old one-horse shay to the modern automobile. By the same token, there's quite a difference between the street cars of yesterday and the trolleys you will be able to ride tomorrow.

Like everything else in the line of transportation, street cars are going streamline. Besides that, the new models will be faster, more luxuriously equipped, and what's more important, easier riding. Remember, easier riding.

Computers who depend on the trolley to take them to and from work day after day will appreciate the efforts of the trolley companies to provide better accommodations. But the real appreciation will be with those persons who can remember way back when the street transportation system came into existence.

The first street car operated before electricity was placed into practical use. The horse provided most of the motive power for short haul transportation in those days and so it was a quite natural thing that horse cars would be devised it difficult to be skeptical about the new model trolleys. Nearly 1,000,000 have been spent to devise and construct a modernist type of car, which recently was given its first public demonstration in Cleveland.

Seating accommodations are provided for 50 passengers, the seats being upholstered in leather and having deep, comfortable cushions. For those failing to get on in time to get a seat, there's hand grips, stanchions and rails. They are so situated that any passenger in any location in the car can reach a convenient hand-hold without moving as much as a single step.

The new car is fitted with forced ventilation, combined with a heating system which is designed for temperature comfort. A new-type indirect, illuminating system is used, the lamp bulbs being concealed in, covers along the ceiling so that glare is entirely eliminated.

Good news for many car riders is that the trucks of the new car are so designed as to reduce further the amount of vibration. This is achieved by using rubber springs instead of the steel springs used in the conventional street cars.

th and 7th avenues, south, commonly termed by some people as "Black Bottom," will be used as the site for the apartments that are to be built for members of our group.

Nothing definite can be said at this time, however, present plans being subject to change.

The first slum clearance project that effected members of our group was started last Saturday in Atlanta. According to The Atlanta Daily World, thousands witnessed the demolition of the first of more than 200 shacks. Secretary of the Interior, Harold I. Ickes, was present and dedicated the project. Many prominent members of our group appeared on the inauguration program, including Dr. John Hope, Bishop W. A. C. C. A. T. A. E. Walden and Prof. Kemper Harrell.

OUTSTANDING COLUMBUS BUSINESS MAN BURIED WITH HONORS TUESDAY

Native of Chillicothe Who Came Here 43 Years Ago Rose From Obscurity To High Position in the Community

WAS QUITE WEALTHY

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—James A. Jackson, one of Columbus's most outstanding business men, was buried Tuesday, October 2, at Greenlawn Cemetery, after an Episcopal service at Mrs. D. A. Whitaker & Sons Funeral Parlor.

Immediate relatives surviving him were: Mrs. Theresa Jackson, wife; Mrs. Ferdona Farrow, sister; Charles Jackson and George Jackson, brothers; Theresa Jackson, daughter; Sanford Smith, brother-in-law, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Edward A. Shaw, Mathew Estice, Cooner Smith, Ben Turner, Charles Holmes and Saxon McRae served as pallbearers; while Dr. Ernest Jackson, Dr. W. A. Method, Carl Anderson, of Dayton, Dr. L. C. Jones, C. W. Bryant, C. W. Bryant, I. S. Reason, Waldo Tyler, C. G. Valentine, James Estice, Ernest Estice, Richard Steward, Dr. Harmon Wilson, James Penn, George Cohen, Chas. Patterson and Marshall Lucas were named honorary pallbearers.

In 1891, James A. Jackson came to Columbus from Chillicothe, as a poor farm boy. Two years later, at the age of eighteen, he was operating his first business enterprise on East Long Street in the form of a feed, coal and transfer company. He was also at this time holding the only job he ever held in Columbus, which was in the circulation department of the Columbus Dispatch.

Later in 1905, "Uncle Al" Jackson, as he is more commonly known, started on the southwest corner of Long and Garfield streets what is now the Ritz poolroom and Holmes Barber Shop.

The expansion of the Jackson interests after 1925 is well known to every Negro in Ohio. But perhaps one of the most representative accomplishments, pointing to the progressiveness of Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Rubie R. Williams, is the Empress Theatre and the Crystal Slipper private party home.

"The best is none too good for my people," was Mr. Jackson's ruling code for conducting his many business enterprises that had made of East Long Street a model of Negro progress. He was a director and treasurer of the Alpha Publishing Co., publishers of the Columbus Advocate.

With all the cares that must have attended the work of Mr. Jackson, his great heartedness and racial philosophy was inspiration to young and old.

B. T. Harvey's Work Praised By Harlemites

NEW YORK, N. Y.—(Special)—New York, N. Y. (Special)—The work of B. T. Harvey has been widely praised in fact, Mr. Harvey has been so closely identified with spots, he has been called the "Father of Football" in Southern Schools.

The great work he has done with football has completely overshadowed his research work in his chosen field, chemistry.

But through all the years that he has worked at football, Mr. Harvey has significantly applied himself to the teaching of chemistry and now is working for a doctorate degree in Chemistry doing research work at Columbia University, where he completed his residence requirements last summer.

So successful have been his experiments, officials of the University including the head of the Chemistry Department, begged Mr. Harvey to remain and complete the highly valuable work he had just begun.

Wharfmen Name Bridges As President

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The election of Harry Bridges as president of the Wharfmen's Association stands as definite evidence that the rank and file of those men approve of his action in throwing open the doors of Negro longshoremen who stood shoulder-to-shoulder during the Coastwise maritime strike recently.

In talking with representatives of the press, Bridges stated, "If anything we lean over backward in favor of the colored workers." He explained that the Union realized that before the strike the Negro longshoremen had little to do on the docks and for that reason more colored were allowed to join than whites.

At present there are more than 200 on the strike list and that number includes all other. There is no discrimination and the men are given jobs in rotation. At present there is a list of 4000 men and about 2000 can do all the work necessary. Thus they have a rotate the work in order that every body can get some of the work to do.

By Dr. Boyd, who after paying tribute to his hosts and speaking fervently of his devotion to the cause he represents which was so nobly fostered by his father the late Dr. H. Boyd, launched interestingly into a masterful address on "Advantages and Accomplishments." Emphatically right is the claim, Christian leader-business man held his audience spellbound for nearly an hour.

After a round of business-conferences the session closed, acclaiming the most successful in the history of the association. Dr. Boyd and his secretary left last night for Nashville.

The closing session Friday night was featured by an address on "The Task of the Minister For a New Age" by Dean C. D. Hubert of Morehouse college. Dean Hubert spoke in the absence of President S. H. Archer of Morehouse college who was unable to be present. The ministerial sermon was preached by Rev. A. G. Davis, pastor of the Boniah Baptist church

THE CROSS ROADS

Governments are created to protect the weaker element of society from the more rugged individualistic forces. Political parties express the philosophy of each group. At the turn in the world's affairs, mankind has evolved a new responsibility of governmental obligations. The Negro race when it looked at the disturbed state of his governmental forces contrasted with like conditions in other parts of the world, it is virtually at cross roads in its choice of political creeds.

The race must turn its back on old affiliations which brought it near the brink of disaster. Political parties have an economic origin and the party in ascendancy reflect the trends of that order. Negro voters in almost slave like fidelity have supported the Republican party since its inception. Students of political economy recognize that kind of loyalty as a disservice to the nation as a whole.

Let us look at the record of the Republican party. The party at Lincoln's time was the party of emancipation. The present day philosophy of the party is as different as the philosophy of the Messiah and Satan. Frederick Douglass, the great Negro abolitionist, sensed the change of the party—respect towards the race as early as Andrew Johnson regime. Douglass states so in his biography. The work of Loyalists, Garrison, Harriet Beecher Stowe and himself was being pushed back. He was also conscious of the fact that the race was to be used as a pawn both politically and industrially. "The Republican party was the ship of state and all else was the sea," was a historic statement of Douglass, but was said with misgivings. The Negro race had already given 200 years of free labor, but the party had no qualms as it was delivering its soul to Hamiltonian obligations.

The Republican party through its carpetbagger operators drew a wedge into that sympathetic relations that would have existed between former slaves and masters. After that political blunder, the party withdrew its influence and left the Negro to his fate. Gen. Logan's wife in her memoirs stated that she could see that wrong was done the newly enfranchised with no political or economic background, and the antipathy developed by the former ruling class having to submit to such a situation. If the Republican party had high ethical and moral standards, it could have healed the situation there, as in Brazil, Spain, Portugal, West Indies, where no racial tension exists today.

After making these blunders, Republicans sought to appease the southern Democracy by nullifying his influence (Negro's) in the party. Pres. Taft stated that no political appointments would be made that could be offensive. Many responsible positions in the south were lost to the race. Pres. Harding in his Birmingham speech reiterated the same policy. Pres. Hoover after his victory won some southern states temporarily to the Republican column through religious bigotry, sought to make a lily white organization. Through his assistant, Atty. Gen. Mabel Willebrandt, Hoover sought to remove all Negro national committeemen from the Republican party. All were removed with the exception of Robt. Church. Walter Cohen, collector of the port of New Orleans, was removed, as well as other distinguished Negro officials. No appointment of Negroes were made to these vacancies.

Therefore the Negro citizen must turn his back on the cold, unsympathetic philosophy of human relations to one of warm and understanding reactions of the New Deal. Join and assist the intelligent men and women about this new order.—Henry U. Mense.

THE TAX QUESTION

Sometimes such a maneuver is valuable, but for every case of its legitimate use there are a score of examples of its misuse. What with sanitary districts, park districts, school districts, mosquito districts, and various others, citizens of Chicago in 1930 were supporting over 500 separate governmental units. New York state supports 2,400 such improvement districts besides 9,400 rural districts, 59 cities and 529 villages as separate units inside its 57 counties. A report by D. C. Shilling of Western State Teachers college, Kalamazoo, showed that Michigan in 1934 has 83 counties and 1,268 townships, each of which is required by the constitution and statutes to maintain a practically uniform governmental organization, regardless of population. The 1,728 taxpayers in rural Oscoda county must maintain the same officers as the 1,888,946 taxpayers in metropolitan Wayne county. Los Angeles county, California, according to the state Chamber of Commerce, maintained in 1930 "between 1,800 and 1,900 different governmental units for which taxes are levied."

With such conditions, entrenched behind formidable local political machines, and further safeguarded by decades of public indifference, clever politicians can make economy a greater burden to the voters than high taxes, and this has been done on a nationwide scale. The favorite method has been to cut down the tax-supported welfare activities. These functions are costly, and their community value is indirect; the trained workers in them are generally not subject to political influence. They are apt to be the net civic interests of the Women's clubs, the Rotary clubs, the clergy and other social and ethical leaders of the community. By attacking such services in the name of economy, the politician kills many birds with one stone. He apparently falls in with the tax association's plans. At the same time he is abolishing jobs that are a nuisance to him anyway, while he is setting the influential social elements of the community at loggerheads with the tax reductionists. While these are fighting it out, he can reorganize the government along his own lines, all in the name of efficiency and economy.

The sales tax is a replacement tax. Much confusion of thought is engendered by the opposition because the average voter does not clearly understand the true purpose of tax and how the law functions. Much to the chagrin of the Republicans, the sales tax to the amount of $3,000,000 has been collected as per schedule and counties all over the state are receiving their share to relieve the burden of welfare and unemployment agencies. We, in Polk county, will be slow in benefitting because Polk county is under Republican officeholders and it is their business apparently to defeat any legislation that comes from the Democratic state administration, no matter how beneficial it may be to the taxpayer.

The law provides that the first three million dollars collected shall be used as a state emergency relief fund. We need that money for relief purposes. It had to be raised from some source. The overburdened counties had exhausted their welfare and relief funds raised through taxation. Three million dollars falls for a three mill tax levy. If spread evenly throughout the state on the basis of the old valuations. Is there a property owner anywhere who would prefer a three mill property tax levy for relief purposes to the certainty that $3,000,000 raised by the sales tax will prevent his county being forced to place an added levy on property for welfare purposes? There is no argument on this point.

CANDIDATES SPEAK
Dan McEniry, popular candidate for sheriff on the county Democratic ticket, addressed the meeting of the Roosevelt Negro Democratic club at the Negro Community Center Tuesday, September 25th. The Rev. Joseph Hanson, candidate for clerk of the district court on the same ticket, was another speaker. A feature of this meeting was the appearance of Mrs. George W. Richter, county Democratic chairwoman, who spoke of the new reporter plan as issued by the federal government at Washington. It was urged that the Negro women of the county set up their own active organization for civic betterment. Mrs. Ardella Watkins and Mrs. Gertrude North were among those present. There is a rumor of a Negro Democratic headquarters to be established in the loop district. That listens good. Start now to the municipal building and register as a Democrat, if you have not already did so. You will be surprised to know how many of your friends are doing the same. Don't forget we must back the president by supporting both state and county tickets this fall. Announcement is made for a big mass meeting and state convention of the Iowa Negro Democratic League at East High school auditorium Monday, October 29th. Governor Horning will make the address of welcome, responded to by Mr. Horace Spencer, state organizer of Mason City. One of the Roosevelt New Deal Negro cabinet members will be on the program, with former Judge Hubert Utterback, candidate from the Sixth district for congress. The Roosevelt Negro Democratic club of Polk county will be the hosts for the occasion.

Sports

By Allen Ashby

Well, sir, the boys who were anxious to see Ozzie Simmons go against Northwestern certainly had their wish. He went, and how! There really isn't much need of over-elaborating on his deeds, as the local daily papers have told everything there was to say about him, including the color of his necktie. This is the first real high class Negro back to show in the Big Ten and whenever Iowa plays Simmons will pack 'em in. Our weekly prayers will be that nothing happens to him, for the boys will shoot at him as they do any other star. Don't expect all-American honors from the boy, though he may be qualified for it is our belief that there are too many first class senior backs in the country. But it would be a pleasant surprise! Willis Ward of Michigan hit a snag in his campaign for recognition. It looks like Michigan will not have as strong a team as they usually do and Ward will really have to shine to beat out some ends on winning teams who probably will be as good as he is. Jim McCreary of Michigan State did his bit in this team's surprise win over Michigan. Maybe we'll see them both on some all-star teams at the end of the season.

Our boys over at East have run into difficulties. They had to bustle to keep from losing to Oskaloosa, getting a draw. Redrick turned in a nice all round game and Tillman looked good in the line. Tillman had tough luck, injuring his collarbone in scrimmage, and may be out for the season.

At North, L. T. Johnson stole the show when the Polar Bears lit on Lincoln. He scored twice and must have thought his name was Simmons as he galloped madly around the Lincoln ends and through their tackles. Archie Lucas kept up his fight for an all-city end berth by giving a nice exhibition.

The Negro DEMOCRATIC FORUM

Sponsored by the Negro Democrats of Iowa

These articles are the views of the writers and not necessarily the views of this paper.

THE CROSS ROADS

Governments are created to protect the weaker element of society from the more rugged individualistic forces. Political parties express the philosophy of each group. At the turn in the world's affairs, mankind has evolved a new responsibility of governmental obligations. The Negro race when it looked at the disturbed state of his governmental forces contrasted with like conditions in other parts of the world, it is virtually at cross roads in its choice of political creeds.

The race must turn its back on old affiliations which brought it near the brink of disaster. Political parties have an economic origin and the party in ascendancy reflect the trends of that order. Negro voters in almost slave like fidelity have supported the Republican party since its inception. Students of political economy recognize that kind of loyalty as a disservice to the nation as a whole.

Let us look at the record of the Republican party. The party at Lincoln's time was the party of emancipation. The present day philosophy of the party is as different as the philosophy of the Messiah and Satan. Frederick Douglass, the great Negro abolitionist, sensed the change of the party respect towards the race as early as Andrew Johnson regime. Douglass states so in his biography. The work of Lovejoy, Garrison, Harriet Beecher Stowe and himself was being pushed back. He was also conscious of the fact that the race was to be used as a pawn both politically and industrially. "The Republican party was the ship of state and all else was the sea," was a historic statement of Douglass, but was said with misgivings. The Negro race had already given 200 years of free labor, but the party had no qualms as it was delivering its soul to Hamiltonian obligations.

The Republican party through its carpetbagger operators drove a wedge into what sympathetic relations that would have existed between former slaves and masters. After that political blunder, the party withdrew its influence and left the Negro to his fate. Gen. Logan's wife in her memoirs stated that she could see that wrong was done the newly enfranchised when they served as legislators with no political or economic background, and the antipathy developed by the former ruling class having to submit to such a situation. If the Republican party had high ethical and moral standards, it could have healed the situation there, as in Brazil, Spain, Portugal, West Indies, where no racial tension exists today.

After making these blunders, Republicans sought to appease the southern Democracy by nullifying his influence (Negro's) in the party. Pres. Taft stated that no political appointments would be made that could be offensive. Many responsible positions in the south were lost to the race. Pres. Harding in his Birmingham speech reiterated the same policy. Pres. Hoover after his victory won some southern states temporarily to the Republican column through religious bigotry, sought to make a fully white organization. Through his assistant, Atty. Gen. Mabel Willebrandt, Hoover sought to remove all Negro national committeemen from the Republican party. All were removed with the exception of Robt. Church, Walter Cohen, collector of the port of New Orleans, was removed, as well as other distinguished Negro officials. No appointment of Negroes were made to these vacancies.

Therefore the Negro citizen must turn his back on the cold, unempathetic philosophy of human relations to one of warm and understanding reactions of the New Deal. Join and assist the intelligent men and women about this new order.

Sometimes such a maneuver is valuable, but for every case of its legitimate use there are a score of exam-

What with sanitary districts, park districts, school districts, mosquito districts, and various others, citizens of Chicago in 1930 were supporting over 900 separate governmental units. New York state supports 2,400 such improvement districts besides 9,400 rural districts, 59 cities and 525 villages as separate units inside its 57 counties. A report by D. C. Shilling of Western State Teachers college, Kalamazoo, showed that Michigan in 1934 has 83 counties and 1,268 townships, each of which is required by the constitution and statutes to maintain a practically uniform governmental organization, regardless of population. The 1,728 taxpayers in rural Oceola county must maintain the same officers as the 1,888,946 taxpayers in metropolitan Wayne county. Los Angeles county, California, according to the state Chamber of Commerce, maintained in 1930 "between 1,800 and 1,900 different governmental units for which taxes are levied."

With such conditions, entrenched behind formidable local political machines, and further safeguarded by decades of public indifference, clever politicians can make economy a greater burden to the voters than high taxes, and this has been done on a nationwide scale. The favorite method has been to cut down the tax-supported welfare activities. These functions are costly, and their community value is indirect, the trained workers in them are generally not subject to political influence. They are apt to be the pet civic interests of the Women's clubs, the Rotary clubs, the clergy and other social and ethical leaders of the community. By attacking such services in the name of economy, the politician kills many birds with one stone. He apparently falls in with the tax association's plans. At the same time he is abolishing jobs that are a nuisance to him anyway, while he is setting the influential social elements of the community at loggerheads with the tax reductionists. While these are fighting it out, he can reorganize the government along his own lines, all in the name of efficiency and economy.

The sales tax is a replacement tax. Much confusion of thought is engendered by the opposition because the average voter does not clearly understand the true purpose of tax and how the law functions. Much to the chagrin of the Republicans, the sales tax to the amount of $3,000,000 has been collected as per schedule and counties all over the state are receiving their share to relieve the burden of welfare and unemployment agencies. We, in Polk county, will be slow in benefiting because Polk county is under Republican officeholders and it is their business apparently to defeat any legislation that comes from the Democratic state administration, no matter how beneficial it may be to the taxpayer.

The law provides that the first three million dollars collected shall be used as a state emergency relief fund. We needed that money for relief purposes. It had to be raised from some source. The overburdened counties had exhausted their welfare and relief fund raised through taxation. Three million dollars calls for a three mill tax levy. If spread evenly throughout the state on the basis of the old valuation, is there a property owner anywhere who would prefer a three mill property tax levy for relief purposes to the certainty that $3,000,000 raised by the sales tax will prevent his county being forced to place an added levy on property for welfare purposes? There is no argument on this point.

CANDIDATES SPEAK

Dan McEniry, popular candidate for sheriff on the county Democratic ticket, addressed the meeting of the Roosevelt Negro Democratic club at the Negro Community Center Tuesday, September 25th. The Rev. Joseph Hanson, candidate for clerk of the district court on the same ticket, was another speaker. A feature of this meeting was the appearance of Mrs. George W. Richter, county Democratic chairwoman, who spoke of the new reorganizer plan as issued by the federal government at Washington. It was urged that the Negro women of the county set up their own active organization for civic better-

By Allen Aashy

Well, sir, the boys who were anxious to see Ozzie Simmons go against Northwestern certainly had their wish. He went, and how! Three really isn't much need of over-elaborating on his deeds, as the local daily papers have told everything there was to say about him, including the color of his necktie. This is the first real high class Negro back to show in the Big Ten and whenever Iowa plays Simmons will pack 'em in. Our weekly prayers will be that nothing happens to him, for the boys will shoot at him as they do any other star. Don't expect all-American honors from the boy, though he may be qualified for it is our belief that there are too many first class senior backs in the country. But it would be a pleasant surprise!

Willis Ward of Michigan hit a snag in his campaign for recognition. It looks like Michigan will not have as strong a team as they usually do and Ward will really have to shine to beat out some ends on winning teams who probably will be as good as he is. Jim McCreary of Michigan State did his bit in this team's surprise win over Michigan. Maybe we'll see them both on some all-star teams at the end of the season.

Our boys over at East have run into difficulties. They had to bustle to keep from losing to Okaloosa, getting a draw. Redrick turned in a nice all round game and Tillman looked good in the line. Tillman had tough luck, injuring his collarbone in scrimmage, and may be out for the season.

At North, L. T. Johnson stole the show when the Polar Bears lit on Lincoln. He scored twice and must have thought his name was Simmons as he galloped madly around the Lincoln ends and through their tackles. Archie Lucas kept up his fight for an all-city end berth by giving a nice exhibition.
