Leibowitz Retains Samuel Leibowitz Sole Counsel with All Power

Supreme Court Asked To Save Youths From Death Sentence

New York—(CPS)—The International Labor Defense and the communist party have been ousted from the Scottsboro case and Samuel S. Leibowitz is in full charge of the defense of the nine boys condemned to die on December 7th. The T. L. D. was retained from the case by Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, two of the doomed boys; Mrs. Ada Wright, mother of Andy and Roy Wright, two other of the youths, and Patterson's parents, Mrs. Janie Patterson and Claude Patterson, in letters and affidavits made public this week.

From their death cells in the Kilby prison in Montgomery letters and affidavits from Patterson and Norris reached here last week ousting the L. D. attorneys and retaining Leibowitz, who has bravely defended the boys at the second trial in Decatur. Last week Leibowitz announced that he would quit the case unless the communist party and the I. L. D. were barred after he learned of the arrest in Nashville of three men charged with attempting to bribe Victoria Price, who accused the boys of attack.

Order Fund Raising Stopped

In the affidavit signed by Mrs. Wright and Claude and Janie Patterson, the I. L. D. and its representatives are instructed to "take no further steps in either of the cases, trials or appeals in any court whatsoever" and also ordered the I. L. D. to stop all fund raising for the case. Mrs. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson gave Leibowitz the sole right to "prosecute, handle, proceed with and take all necessary steps" with the appeals and handling of the cases.

Three Times

Three times the Scottsboro boys have been sentenced to die. The death sentence was upheld for the third time by the Alabama supreme court last week and the date of execution set for December 7th. Little more than a month remains to save the boys from the electric chair, which has been staring them in the face for three years.

Officer's Command Halts Mob Party

ACTIVE SHERIFF

Beaumont, Texas, Oct. 19.—Sheriff V. Hightower proved the power of oratory over the passions of unlawful force when his words dispersed a mob bent on lynching a Negro suspect held for slaying J. J. Andress, who, of Devers, Texas, a farmer, was on Thursday.

As the lynchers approached the jail with a battering ram to seize Jack Johnson, the suspect, District Attorney Clyde E. Smith met them and appealed to their "honor" to let the law take its course. But when Sheriff Hightower gruffly informed them that "You're not going to bother this colored boy," the lynchers dispersed.

Handicaps in Welfare Work Cause Another Resignation

PUBLISHER LEAVES POST

Is Dissatisfied With Work, Pay and Prospects

HATES ROUTINE

MIAMI, Florida (TNS)—Captain James E. Scott, Editor and Publisher of TROPICAL DISPATCH, Founder of Tropical News Service Syndicate, Director of the Dade County Negro Welfare Federation, (former) Director of the Dade County FERA program for Negroes, and otherwise vitally and actively connected with the interests and activities of Dade County Negroes, announces his resignation as Director of the Dade County FERA program for Negroes, said resignation to become effective as soon as his successor is named.

The full and complete text of Captain Scott's letter to Mr. W. H. Green, FERA Administrator for activities in Dade and Broward Counties, is printed herewith. Captain Scott is silent on his plans for the future.

1230 Northwest Third Avenue
MIAMI, FLORIDA

October 6th, 1934
Mr. W. H. Green, Administrator,
F. E. R. A. Activities in Dade
and Broward Counties,
76 West Flagler Street,
Miami, Florida

My dear Mr. Green:
For a long time I have been laboring under great handicaps. I have been living on hope, yes, hope of a better day, better pay and a brighter prospect. I have been wishing something would happen that would bring my opportunity for expression through my resources. With my training, experience, health, character and ability, I should be in a position to do more for my people than to hand out government allowances. I truly believe that it is my duty to help the masses of my people to get enough light to find their own way out of their present situation.

Disillusionment with my work and prospects forced me to take my life once more into my own hands. I do not believe that there can be a higher aim than to serve one's country and one's people. I do not feel that I am placed in a position where I can do my greatest work for either my country or my people. Therefore, I have decided to give up my work with the F. E. R. A. I herewith tender my resignation as one of your assistants.

I am anxious to leave with the least possible inconvenience to your Colored "Set Up" or to the general program for Negroes in Dade County, but I would, I think be wise to accept my resignation now, to become effective immediately, so that I shall be free to work out plans for my future. I am a builder, and I am restless when I can't be doing things. Our work has drifted into routine work and can no longer hold my interest. Too much needs to be done to be frittering away my time. I see a way out for my people and I want to help them.

I hope you will understand, my dear Mr. Green, that I would permit nothing but the most imperative demands to force me to divorce myself from the work of the F. E. R. A. During my labors in the welfare field here, I have worked faithfully under heavy pressure of responsibilities. I have made so little progress recently, I feel certain that a change will be for the good of the service as we as my own good.

Mr. Green, I shall always cherish as one of the greatest honors of my career, your implicit confidence and friendship. It was a real pleasure to play the small part had to play on your team. I shall never forget the opportunity you have so generously given me to help you with your very present duties under the F. E. R. A. I take great pleasure in informing you that, I have gained much inspiration and encouragement from you and shall always recall the pleasant relations always existed between us during my work under your supervision. I am leaving with the highest esteem for you and for your splendid co-workers. It was a pleasure to serve under you and your staff.

May you continue to do your duty unflinchingly and trust GOD to give the seeds you are now so carefully sowing, a chance to grow. You may always feel free to call upon me at any time you may be in need of unprejudiced judgment on situations. In our session of the City of Miami, I shall always stand ready to help you and to cooperate with you and your work.

Potentialities of SO. GEORGIA CONFERENCE CLOSES

Inter-Racial Lynchings

Committee Reports and Bishop's Speech Highlights BEST SESSION

ATLANTA, Ga.—JESSE O. THOMAS According to a recent dispatch, Sheriff A. S. Powell, of Darlan Georgia, is reported to have lynched a Negro by the name of Curtis James, whose home was at Jones, Georgia. The Negro was supposed to have been lynched by twelve white men and two Negroes.

According to the sheriff, James was indicted for stealing turpentine and selling it in Jacksonville. He was tried for larceny and was acquitted by the McIntosh Superior Court in this court, the lawyers were white, the judge was white.

Evidently there was no educational information discovered as to be easy for this information to have been brought to the attention of the court. Notwithstanding this acquittal, he was arrested the second time and was released on bond. During the trial he implicated white men as leaders in the turpentine bootlegging ring.

The sheriff is accredited with having stated to newspapermen that both James and his wife pleaded with the mob to kill him at home so they could have a respectable funeral, to which the mob replied, "This is one body of the undertaker won't get." According to the sheriff, it was one of the Negro members of the mob who reassured Mrs. James that the undertaker would not get the body of her husband.

The report does not show that James implicated any other Negroes in the racket. Since the turpentine undoubtedly didn't belong to Negroes, in view of the fact that Negroes had no stock in the Company, there is a broken link in the story that fails to show why these two Negroes should be aggrieved.

According to the morning's paper, the two Negroes have been arrested. The twelve white men are still at large. It will be interesting to see what happens to these two Negroes. It will be more important to see how far they will be able to go forward identifying their twelve compatriots in this case. If they should identify the twelve white men it will be significant to observe whether the undertaker will get their bodies or not.

Since a Negro is to be lynched, I suppose it doesn't make any difference whether he is lynched by white men or by white men and colored men. If we really must have a lynching in order to punish Negroes for reflecting on the integrity of white people, by imitating them in the, their, ring, what difference does it make who the participants are, so far as the victim is concerned?

Taking a long distance look at it, it may be a good thing for Negroes to mix with white. We can never stop lynching until we approach, convict and punish lynchers. Since the officers of the law nor the white citizens in communities where lynchings occur are never able to identify or apprehend the perpetrators, maybe by mixing in a few Negroes the identity of the mob may be more easily established.

If mixed mobs can lynch a Negro with impunity over a period they may work up to where they will lynch a white person.

Who knows but if we ever get to the point of social equality conflict in crime, the backbone of this damnable institution may save in.

White Man To Pay $25 For Insult

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—

An award of $25 was given Ruth Green of 673 S. Orleans, Thursday, by Judge Joe Hammes of Third Circuit Court, against Henry Hainshon, jewelry store operator at Main and Gayoso.

The woman charged that Hainshon had her arrested when she went to his place to sell a ring. Hainshon believed she stole the object.

"We have, in Georgia today," he went on, "more big churches than we have big men" to pastor them. My brethren, how can you hold a bigger church when you are failing to hold the charges you have? I fear that the people have paid us well for our services rendered.

Morris Brown college will celebrate its 50th anniversary this year and the Book of 250,000 Names will form a conspicuous part in this anniversary celebration.

By Rev. C. A. Wingfield VALDOSTA, Ga. Oct. 11.—(Special)—Still smarting under the heavy lashing given them by Bishop W. A. Fountain in his annual address Wednesday morning, the Southern Conference of the A. M. E. church resumed its work of the second day's services Thursday with Bishop W. A. Fountain, presiding. Bishop R. A. Grant of Alabama associated.

Major reports consumed the portion of the time, it being the order of the day. Drs. A. R. Easton of the Moultrie district, Drs. Glass, Davis, Moman, Lowery and Dunn, all made splendid showing on behalf of their respective presiding elder districts.

Much comment was made upon the splendid sermon preached by Dr. R. C. Hatcher, presiding elder of the Ozark district of the Southern Alabama Conference from the subject, "God's Four Hundred" which was delivered Wednesday night before a capacity audience. Bishop R. A. Grant, presiding in charge of the state in which this progressive young minister is a leader, presided over the Wednesday night services and presented a stirring address on live church issues.

Bishop Fountain's annual address before the conference was truly a masterpiece.

"The American people" the noted bishop said, "are paying 12 billion dollars every year for the prevention of crime yet, despite that fact the church is growing to the tune of 12,000 accessions every week and thus the church is growing by leaps and bounds.

Fisk and Howard Students Win TB Essay Contest Prizes

EVENT HELD YEAR

chieved in Exceeded tations MADE

NEW (ANP)—An essay on Tuberculosis in a Southern Community won for Charles G. Gomillion, of Johnston, E. C., a graduate student in social science at Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., the $25 first prize in the essay contest conducted by the Committee on Tuberculosis Among Negroes, of the National Tuberculosis Association, it was announced here today.

Miss Calarie Justiss, a student at Howard University, Washington, D. C., won the $15 second prize with an analysis of conditions in her home city of Toledo, Ohio, and Miss Edith Lockley, a graduate student at Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., won the $5 third prize.

The judging committee conducted by Dr. Charles S. Johnson, professor of sociology, Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., Dr. M. F. Hayeswood, Superintendent of the state sanatorium, Alto, Ga., and Dr. C. Howard Marcy, medical director of the Pittsburgh Tuberculosis League.

In announcing the awards Dr. Johnson said, "It was noted with considerable interest that the essays revealed a striking similarity in the beliefs existing in northern industrial communities and in southern rural areas. Through many of the essays ran the thread of belief that tuberculosis is inherited and that nothing can be done to combat it. This misconception is one of the greatest obstacles to scientific progress in controlling and preventing tuberculosis and can only be overcome through a consistent program of education."

The Committee on Tuberculosis Among Negroes, besides the contest judges, consists of Dr. H. R. M. Landis, director of Henry Phipps Institute, Philadelphia, chairman; Dr. Franklin C. MacLean, Chicago, Dr. Kendall Emerson, managing director of the National Tuberculosis Association, N. Y., Dr. M. O. Bousfield, first vice president and medical director of Life Insurance Company, Chicago, and a past president of the National Medical Association, and Harvey Dee Brown, executive secretary of Philadelphia Tuberculosis Institute. The work of the Committee is directed by the National Tuberculosis Association with financial assistance from the Rosenwald Fund.

To Expand Next Year Dr. Landis said in summing up the committee's opinion of the contest, "As the work of our committee progressed it became increasingly evident to us that among the Negro university students of today would be found many of the future leaders of the race. Since it was our object to improve conditions in the future it was desirable to arouse in these students an awareness of the tuberculosis problem and to stimulate them to learn at first hand the conditions that must be changed before substantial progress can be made. The contest was held with two objectives in mind; first that it would reveal information of value to the committee in formulating a program for the control of tuberculosis among Negroes, and second, that contestants would have a much better appreciation of the menace which tuberculosis constitutes to their race.

ESSAY WINS

CHARLES G. GOMILLION—Graduate student of Fisk University who wrote the prize winning essay in the contest sponsored by the Committee on Tuberculosis among Negroes of the National Tuberculosis Association and open to students of Negro universities.

Johnson Hits Plan of Marcus Garvey In Address

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Back to Africa plans and the Garvey Movement are charged by Dr. Charles S. Johnson of Fisk University as fantastic attempts of the Negro race to compensate for its social position in America. The statement was made in an informal address to Knoxville, College students at the chapel exercises on Wednesday morning, Oct. 10.

Dr. Johnson, noted Negro sociologist, author, and member of the Fisk University faculty, was in Knoxville to address a meeting of the American Tuberculosis Association and made the college his headquarters while in the city.

In his remarks at Knoxville College, Dr. Johnson indicated that the law of compensation serves to offset disadvantages in many instances, citing as examples Theodore Roosevelt, Bobby Jones, and Michael Angelo. These men possessed certain weaknesses at one time, yet the law of compensation made one a big game hunter, one a golf champion, and one a master artist.

The speaker continued by asking, "What has happened in the case of the Negro group which is socially handicapped?" Compensation is a large factor in Negro life, but many of the attempts have been ill-advised. It was here that the speaker attacked plans for returning Negroes to Africa. Dr. Johnson believes more recent efforts are more practical.

The sociologist believes that the experience of the Jewish people offers a peculiarly appropriate example for the Negro race. The Jews have been socially handicapped and otherwise encumbered, but have found means of compensating for their position. Einstein is a notable example.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—With a student enrollment that eclipsed all previous records in its phenomenal expansion Tennessee A. and I. State College began its fall quarter. At the first chapel exercise nearly one thousand students filled the chapel overflowing to hear the welcome address of President W. J. Hale and to witness the formal presentation of the teaching staff by Director C. W. Gore, Jr.

Classes began in all departments on October 2. Practically every available classroom space was pressed into service to house the various courses. Additional class sections and the division of sections were made necessary in all freshman courses. The freshman class figure as stated by the registrar's office is 435, an increase of 60 per cent over last year's first-year class. Each of the three advanced classes has been increased over last year's figure by the return of former students and by transfer students.

J. E. WILSON MADE MAJOR AT HAMPTON

Impressive Ceremony Marks Promotion of Battalion Leader IMPORTANT POST

HAMPTON, INSTITUTE.—Recently in the presence of the staff officers, President Arthur Howe formerly issued a new commission to Captain James E. Wilson, and raised him to the rank of major in the institute battalion.

Major Wilson's new duties will be those of commandant of the battalion, in charge of all details of its drill and management. He holds his rank and will exercise his authority under Major Walter R. Brown, the present commandant and dean of men. Major Brown's tasks in the oversight of the men and on a large number of scholastic and administrative committees have become too numerous for discharge by one person. Major Wilson will relieve him of direct supervision of the battalion.

The promotion and granting of commission took place in the president's office and followed a talk by President Howe in which he outlined the purpose and objects of the military organization at Hampton Institute. In reviewing the history of military drill at Hampton, established by General Samuel C. Armstrong, he showed its relation to service to the nation, and pointed out the benefits sought under the system. The flag, the cadets and drill to church on Sundays pointed to unity, devotion to country and to God. The uniform, making it possible for the poorest young man to dress as well as any other, created an atmosphere of democracy. The drill and inspections gave correct posture, pride in appearance, punctuality, and obedience to law. It is hoped that by reason of the military establishment a Hampton young man would stand out in any crowd.

Under new arrangements, students who drill two years, satisfactorily, are to be excused from further regular drills. At the conclusion of the installation, Major Wilson and student Major Hatcher pledged full cooperation in the new plan.

SCHOLARSHIP AT SHAW IS RISING

Honor Roll Reveals More Students Get On Coveted List

TWO RATE "A'S"

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 11.—A report regarding scholarship at Shaw University reveals that two students earned an average grade of "B" or higher last semester and were included on the honor roll for that period. Two of these students, Miss Thelma R. Brett, a senior, and Miss Undean Wiggins, freshman, both of the Water's Training School, Winton, North Carolina, earned "A's" in all subjects for the semester.

In spite of her participation in extra-curricular activities, having been a member of the Dramatic Club, French Club, Sophomore debating team, the Y. W. C. A. and other organizations she has made during her six semesters at Shaw a record consisting of all "A" grades except two, these two grades being "B's".

LE MOYNE IN NEW STUDY

Cooperate with White College in Search of Negro History

In conjunction with Peabody College at Nashville a study is to be made through LeMoyné by Messrs. Gerard, Hawkins and Glover of text books in English Literature, now used in the Public Schools of Tennessee with reference to the content dealing with the Negro. At outlined by Professor Leavell of Peabody, who is in charge of the study in its many ramifications, LeMoyné, through its English Department will make an analysis of the content of basal text books, teachers' manuals and supplementary texts (in the field of English, and Literature in the intermediate grades and the high schools) to determine the following factors: (1) The amount and type of content dealing with the Negro in American life; (2) The obvious omissions of materials that are available; (3) The points at which materials might be included and this enrich the content; and (4) misrepresentations or prejudicial implications.

DES MOINES RAILWAY CO.

RAILWAYS GAIN A BIG TAX LOAD

Total of $265,000,000 Paid Annually to States, Counties and Cities.

WASHINGTON.—The Bureau of Railway Economics, which is the statistical agency for all of the railroads, has just compiled figures showing how much in taxes the various states receive annually from the country's railroads. Taxing on railway property and on rail earnings yielded a total of about $265,000,000 to the states, counties and cities in 1932, the last year for which complete and official figures are available. In addition, the railroads paid something more than twelve million to the federal government in income tax in the same year.

The figures are regarded as significant at this time because of the reported consideration being given in federal government circles to a program for purchase of the railroads by the government. It is plain that acquisition of the rail lines will mean heavily in revenue if the rail properties become non-taxable through federal purchase. Administrative authorities realize that such a prospect would arouse a storm of antagonism and it has been hinted that no attempt would be made by the Government to avoid local taxation, but all federal precedent is to the contrary and no taxing body could safely rely upon such a change of national policy.

Taxes Paid to States.
Railway taxes according to the several states, including of course the amounts paid to the counties and cities in 1932, were as follows:

Alabama	2,043,637
Arizona	3,252,241
Arkansas	10,255,410
California	2,494,851
Colorado	2,954,056
Connecticut	182,253
Delaware	2,018,288
Florida	2,918,288
Georgia	2,125,150
Idaho	2,125,150
Illinois	2,018,288
Indiana	2,018,288
Iowa	2,018,288
Kansas	2,018,288
Kentucky	4,234,562
Louisiana	4,401,594
Maine	1,899,732
Maryland	2,125,150
Massachusetts	2,297,539
Michigan	2,425,406
Minnesota	2,518,459
Mississippi	3,728,974
Missouri	2,875,948
Montana	6,407,814
Nebraska	2,125,150
Nevada	2,125,150
New Jersey	21,096,481
New Mexico	2,125,150
New York	27,564,236
North Carolina	4,337,711
North Dakota	2,125,150
Ohio	16,887,946
Oklahoma	6,739,848
Oregon	2,125,150
Pennsylvania	9,501,520
Rhode Island	708,174
South Carolina	2,539,250
South Dakota	2,398,153
Tennessee	2,425,406
Texas	6,407,814
Vermont	2,125,150
Virginia	2,875,948
Washington	2,125,150
West Virginia	2,125,150
Wisconsin	2,125,150
Wyoming	2,125,150
District of Columbia	136,115

There are no figures available to show what percentage the above bears to the total taxes received by each state or local government, but the size of the payments shown, for each state makes the railway tax obviously important to the budgets of the various governments. The portion is so large in some cases that it convinces many authorities that the state and local governments need the railroads for revenue purposes quite as much as the people of those states need efficiently operated transportation services of the kind they have been receiving.

Where Will Taxes Come From?
A very strong statement was recently made by G. W. Dyer, Professor of the Department of Economics at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. "The taxpayers are becoming as much interested in the railroads' problem of paying approximately a million dollars a day taxes as are the railroad people, but they approach the subject from a different angle. Railroad people are asking the question 'Where are we going to get the money to pay this million dollars a day?' The taxpayers are asking 'Where are we going to raise this money to keep up our schools and public expenses in general if the railroads fall down?' Serious as the railroad problem may seem, there is this bright side to it—this is the first time in the history of railroads that they have had an opportunity to form an alliance with the taxpayers of this country and work together for the common interest of both."

Railway managements have long stressed the fact that railway taxes are promptly paid. Interstate Commerce Commission reports make it appear that during the depression period the rail corporations in many localities were the only important taxpayers who did not delay in remitting their taxes to the treasuries when they were due.

Several members of Congress lately received letters from officials in their respective states "highlighting" alarm over the reduction in revenue of local governments if the federal government continues to expand its ownership of what has heretofore been private business. In one instance, a state official asked point blank what would happen to the state or local treasuries if the federal government took over the railroads and he added that if the expansion of government ownership continues "there will be nothing left for us to tax except farm lands now being blown away by hot winds." A declaration by the Government that it proposes to emphasize the continuation of private ownership is one means of re-establishing public confidence.

The Negro Democratic Forum

Sponsored by the Negro Democrats of Iowa

These articles are the views of the writers and not necessarily the views of this paper.

Civic organizations, taxpayers' leagues or strong political groups are essential under our present form of government to insure the individual proper protection of his interests and person. One thousand, seven went on strike because a few Negro hundred school children in Chicago were admitted to the school. The parents of these children, and they are probably the instigators, appealed to the mayor to do something about it. In spite of the fact that we shout and sing of our democracy and the protection under the star spangled banner, there will be much general sympathy with the white children who must attend school with colored children in that particular district. We predict there won't be very much done about it, because in Chicago the Negroes are organized in various civic and political groups and are experienced in fighting for their rights. Otherwise it would be a different story.

In Des Moines not long ago during a state convention of women, four colored ladies, delegates and residents of this city, were refused service in the F. W. Grand store on Walnut street. They selected this cheap priced store to avoid the very thing they experienced. The management declined to serve them at the tables, but invited them to sit at a counter. In New York that act would have cost the management $100, in Chicago and other centers it would have been unhealthy to thus discriminate, but Des Moines! Oh! well, maybe when more of the so-called leaders die out and make room for the youth with some spine in their back, this thing will cease also in Des Moines.

"The public be damn'd" is an expression attributed to a famous railroad magnate many years ago when he was asked what did he think of the public's rights. Times have changed since then, but the attitude of vested powers and politicians toward the public is still the same, and the above quotation would still be descriptive of their sentiments. We are robbed and exploited, cheated of our just dues and are supposed to like it. Negro voters who have never had a consideration are petted and praised at each election, asked to listen to a lot of oratory about the loyalty of the colored race to a political party who nearly three score years and ten set them free, and the bravado of the colored soldiers and other things calculated to tickle their fancy, and put them to sleep. And after the colored voter goes off in a trance under the soothing influence of super charged eloquence, the voter is led again to the slaughter. He votes what little privileges he might have had back to the ruling element. It might have continued indefinitely if Franklin Delano Roosevelt had not been placed in the presidency of the United States government. He brought to the country a New Deal and it is a new day for the colored voter.

Every intelligent Negro knows that the only serious gesture that he can make toward economic independence and social justice is organization for that purpose. His enemies are so fearful that he will do this that psychology has been used to defeat the menace. The ruling class has propagated a thought that the Negro will never unite in anything that leads toward his emancipation from a lowly estate. This has been so successfully taught that many otherwise enlightened persons will argue that it is true the Negro just won't get together. Why, he does not know, but he will tell you that is the truth. Rebellion has broken loose in Des Moines and hundreds of Negro voters have had all the empty Republican promises they intend to take. They realize there is nothing to lose and everything to gain by supporting 100 per cent the Roosevelt program, and they are uniting to do so.

Modern industry has a marked peculiarity in so far as the Negro is concerned. The Republican industrialist fastened a cast system on the Negro race that is almost as compelling as chattel slavery. Your place in modern society is largely governed by economic security, therefore our place in this scheme is attendant by our position in the market of trade.

Negro suffrage being largely monopolized by the Republican party, it seems ill taste, to say the least, that the alliance must continue. In the early 70's and 80's America started on its industrial expansion and industrial expansion began to feel manpower shortage. In the south there was a band of loyal and alert labor, the Negro, which would have bulked American industry from the "isms" of European immigration. No, but the chieftains of modern industry thought otherwise and immigration from continental Europe was encouraged and the result is that we will have social problems that confront the nation for some decades.

If the reverse position had been taken a wholesale precedent would have resulted and the Negro position in American life would have been one of great benefits to the nation. America should not be plagued by an underprivileged minority, as such a condition corrodes and destroys civilization, but every civilization of the past has committed that error.

The Roosevelt administration's conception of industrial economy broadens the average man's opportunities to such an extent that laggards of either race would be scorn of their allies. The old order cannot extricate itself, because its thinking and methods will not permit it.—By Henry A. Mease, Iowa Negro Democratic League.

"HAS IT HELPED?"
One of the main issues for years in election after election found relief under the Democratic administration with the ONLY Square Deal in this situation. This tax revision act of 1934 imposed a sales tax, an individties, and the attitude of the Negro Republicans and their accomplishments.

The Negro of Iowa has given for over forty years slave-like service to the Republican party. Today we have as much patronage in recognition of 17 per cent of the Negro vote as has ever been given by the Republicans for 100 per cent. I feel sure that the Negro received benefits when our governor declared a moratorium on foreclosure, although he did not say "Foreclosure on Negroes."

As a race we are weak economically, and any benefits derived by the mass rather than class must benefit us. It is not a threat to say that if the Republicans gain control of state affairs the New Deal will be hampered. It is a mere fact of judging the Republican leopard by his spots.

In all affairs since the days of Mark Hanna, where a great fund was placed at the disposal of the Republican party, the great snake of graft has coiled himself and struck his bitter venom to the core. The people of the state and nation are demanding honor and integrity in the management of their affairs. The Democratic party, which is being so viciously assailed by Republicans, was so considerate as to give a hearing to the Negro leaders who represented themselves as the distributors of patronage for both the Republican and Democratic organization and had glowing words of glory for them; newspaper columns may fierce in condemnation of our stand and a glorified rank of militant Negroes stand behind us, fighting on, to keep in power the party which has, after two years of ineptness, forced the "Ol' Guard" Republican party to promise consideration to the Negro. We are not only with the party that is administering the New Deal, but is making the Republican promise a New Deal also. We compliment the New Negro upon his loyal and enthusiastic support and we renew the pledge of the Democratic party of a Square Deal to all and SPECIAL PRIVILEGE TO NONE.—Stand by us and the victory of Democracy and fair dealing will win.—By Theo. E. Martin, state chairman.

INDUSTRIAL SETUP
Modern industry has a marked peculiarity in so far as the Negro is concerned. The Republican industrialist fastened a cast system on the Negro race that is almost as compelling as chattel slavery. Your place in modern society is largely governed by economic security, therefore our place in this scheme is attendant by our position in the market of trade.

"HAS IT HELPED?"
One of the main issues for years in election after election found relief under the Democratic administration with the ONLY Square Deal in this situation. This tax revision act of 1934 imposed a sales tax, an individual net income tax and a corporation income tax, through which the tax bill of Iowa property owners will be reduced about 20 million dollars a year. Immediately after the Tax Revision Act was passed the politicians that had been accustomed to making promises on election years started the propaganda that that new act wouldn't work. From the discussion of some, you would think that the Sales Tax was all of the new Tax Revision Act, but considering the whole act, it is the best proportionate tax that Iowa has ever had.

"Suppose 'B' represents the average Iowa laborer, and earns about $700 per year, and spends 60 per cent of this income for taxable goods, the 2 per cent on this amount, which goes in the category of sales tax would be a little over $8.00. This is all he pays in taxes if he is a married man. Now suppose 'D' earns 10' thousand dollars per year and spends 40 per cent of this for taxable goods, the 2 per cent which goes as sales tax would be about 80 dollars per year. In 1935 'D' will pay the state nearly $400 for individual income taxes and the federal government over $400 for income taxes. In other words 'D' pays over 8 per cent for taxes and 'B' a little over one per cent. How is this for proportion on ability to pay?"

"Already the property owners have felt the effect of the sales tax by having a half year's taxes refunded or cancelled from their assessment. Those who advocate repeal of the sales tax are asking the property owners of Iowa to continue to carry the burden alone while the non-property owners play parasite as usual. Why shouldn't the Iowans with incomes assume their rightful part of the government expense? A person could earn several thousands of dollars under the old tax law and still pay no tax to the state if he didn't own property. But under the new law every one pays according to his ability to pay. If this isn't a fair basis of taxation, before you criticize, offer a better substitute.—W. Lawrence Oliver. (To be continued).

DES MOINES RAILWAY CO.

Several members of Congress lately received letters from officials in their respective states "highlighting" alarm over the reduction in revenue of local governments if the federal government continues to expand its ownership of what has heretofore been private business. In one instance, a state official asked point blank what would happen to the state or local treasuries if the federal government took over the railroads and he added that if the expansion of government ownership continues "there will be nothing left for us to tax except farm lands now being blown away by hot winds." A declaration by the Government that it proposes to emphasize the continuation of private ownership is one means of re-establishing public confidence.

These articles are the views of the writers and not necessarily the views of this paper.

Civic organizations, taxpayers' leagues or strong political groups are essential under our present form of government to insure the individual proper protection of his interests and person. One thousand, seven went on strike because a few Negro hundred school children in Chicago were admitted to the school. The parents of these children, and they are probably the instigators, appealed to the mayor to do something about it. In spite of the fact that we shout and sing of our democracy and the protection under the star spangled banner, there will be much general sympathy with the white children who must attend school with colored children in that particular district. We predict there won't be very much done about it, because in Chicago the Negroes are organized in various civic and political groups and are experienced in fighting for their rights. Otherwise it would be a different story.

In Des Moines not long ago during a state convention of women, four colored ladies, delegates and residents of this city, were refused service in the F. W. Grand store on Walnut street. They selected this cheap priced store to avoid the very thing they experienced. The management declined to serve them at the tables, but invited them to sit at a counter. In New York that act would have cost the management $100, in Chicago and other centers it would have been unhealthy to thus discriminate, but Des Moines! Oh! well, maybe when more of the so-called leaders die out and make room for the youth with some spine in their back, this thing will cease also in Des Moines.

Sports By Allen Ashby

The scuffling is getting rougher and tougher for our boy, Ozzie Simmons, at Iowa, Nebraska, warned by his performance against Northwest-ern, got ready for him. He didn't steal the show, as Iowa lost, but he was a major attraction during the game. Nebraska is rated as the toughest team on individual stars in the country. Well, they hung out the beware sign on Ozzie, something they haven't done up there for any star, not even the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame or Red Grange. Who is the better, Crayne or Simmons? Well, Crayne is allowed to do more things with the ball than Ozzie does and leads the interference when Simmons carries the ball. Crayne is a very valuable man, but we'd like to see that Iowa backfield without the constant threat that Simmons provides.

Willis Ward, playing at half, ran into difficulties against Chicago. We really feel sorry that this boy, a great end, is going the way so many great players in losing ball clubs.

Langston Parks, former Council Bluffs high star athlete, has turned up in the backfield at Parsons college.

In the High Schools At North, Archie Lucas, end, led the valiant defensive battle waged by North against Ottumwa, rating one of the stars of the battle. L. T. Johnson was in there, but the cry was for vicious tacklers, which L. T. doesn't happen to be. After every game Johnson excuses himself from the Tuesday scrimmage because of injuries. Is that really so? You can't learn anything by not practicing, youngster. Even Simmons of Iowa has to drill.

At East, Lawrence Redrick, playing for his injured teammate, Tillman, who has a broken collarbone, was a large part of his team's success over at Davenport. He scored seven points and played his usual back-up defensive game. They report that he did boot one for Davenport late in the game. However, Lawrence, you do your kicking for your own team from now on.

SCIENTIFIC WIZARD OF TUSKEGEE REFUSES POSITION WITH EDISON FIRM

Tuskegee Institute.—(CPS)—Dr. George W. Carver, eminent scientific "wizard," who has produced in the neighborhood of 285 by-products from the peanut and more than 200 useful articles from the sweet potato and soy bean, admitted reluctantly, last week, that he had been offered some time ago a salary in "six figures" by the Edison Foundation to carry on his experiments. At the same time, Dr. Carver also admitted that the Russian government also offered him "a vast sum" which he could not accept.

According to Ollie Stewart, writing in the current issue of the Southern Workman, Dr. Carver was offered $175,000 per year by the Edison Foundation. "He has refused every offer," the writer states, "though it is reported that a bank which failed during the recent crisis held on deposit a large part of his savings." The scientist has made no attempt to commercialize any of his discoveries.

GEORGIA COURT SPIKES NEW ATTEMPT TO REOPEN CASE

New York City.—(CNA)—A hearing in the case of Angelo Herndon, young revolutionary leader, has been denied by the state supreme court of Georgia, it was announced Wednesday. The International Labor Defense, when they received this, immediately stated that the case would be prepared for the United States supreme court. The information was received from John H. Geer, associate with Ben Davis, Jr., editor of the Liberator, on this case.

Herndon, released from Fulton Tower jail, on $15,000 bail raised by the I. L. D. through popular subscription, is at present on a tour of thirty-three cities throughout the United States, accompanied by Mrs. Norris, the mother of Clarence Norris, one of the Scottsboro boys under death sentence in Kilby prison, Alabama, and Richard B. Moore of the International Labor Defense.

A. P. RANDOLPH MAKES FIGHT ON COLOR BAR

San Francisco.—Led by A. Phillip Randolph, national president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, a resolution demanding the elimination of the color clause ensued up on the floor at the American Federation of Labor convention in session here last week.

The fight on the color bar in trade unions was waged despite the organization committee's report on non-concurrence in the resolution. Frank Duffy, secretary of the International Carpenters' union, attempted to uphold the report with a recital of past resolutions adopted by the Federation.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP A THREAT TO NATION

Taking Over Railroads Would Increase National Debt $12,500,000,000.

WASHINGTON.—In the midst of all of the other uncertainties for business, a new attempt to bring about public ownership of all railroads is peeping above the federal government's horizon. Depression conditions have made the time opportune, many government ownership advocates believe. They are prepared to start an intensive drive, and they have in mind a definite proposal under which the railroads might be acquired.

Their program, of course, is incomplete but the understanding in Washington is that a draft already has been made. Its sponsors chiefly are among the President's advisors. While much secrecy surrounds the program and the whole scheme probably will be held confidential for some weeks, it is nevertheless an established fact that some of the brain trusters now hope they can push the question of government acquisition of the railroads into the hands of the next congress.

As far as is known in Washington, it is not generally expected even by the ardent advocates of government ownership that legislation can be put through in the session that convenes next January. That fact, however, is said not to have deterred them in their efforts at all. If they can develop strength in the next congress, they propose then to put on pressure looking to success in the succeeding session.

The shareholders' prospects. Of course, as stated above, the present movement has not taken shape at this writing to permit definite statements on the character of the plan still largely in the minds of some of the brain trusters. It can be set down as a fact, nevertheless, that basic considerations thus far receiving attention from the government ownership advocates contemplate virtual destruction of the rights of shareholders in many of the country's railroads. This, according to the latest Interstate Commerce Commission figures, means that more than 910,000 individuals would see their certificates of stock converted into nothing more than beautifully engraved pieces of paper; there would be no value left.

CHARGES ARE FALSE

A. M. E. PRELATE SAYS Capetown, South Africa.—(ANP)—In an exclusive statement to the Associated Negro Press, the Right Reverend David Henry Sims, bishop of the A. M. E. church in charge of the Fifteenth Episcopal district, comprising South Africa, said that he was returning to America to face charges preferred against him by Mrs. Annie Mae Williams Sims, his former wife.

During the airing of the case in the press since a recent session of the bishop's council of the church, held at Jackson, Miss., U. S. A., when Mrs. Sims accused the bishop of divorcing her and marrying another wife, Bishop Sims has maintained a dignified silence. He advises Associated Negro Press, however, that he was prepared to defend himself against critics and scouted the idea that he would remain in Africa and form a separate church.
