New Low Wage Scale Imperils Southern Worker IDENTITY OF 3 NEAL LYNCH LEADERS KNOWN 30-Cents Hour Surrender Means Famine to Negroes

New York, Nov. 30.—Three of the alleged lynchers of Claude Neal, young Marianna, Florida, Negro who was tortured twelve hours on October 26th for the murder of a white girl before being finally murdered, are known by name.

One of the ringleaders is said to have arranged with friends in Pensacola to have word sent to him when Neal was removed from the jail there to the Brewton, Ala., jail. Another ringleader is prominent in local civic bodies. A clerk in a filling station who admittedly attended the lynching has identified the woman who rushed out of the Cannidy house and plunged a butcher knife into the heart of the Neal corpse when it was thrown by the mob into the Cannidy front yard.

The association submits that these leads will give operatives of the Bureau of Investigation clues as to where information sufficient to indict and convict the kidnapers may be secured. The two governors have been asked to use this information in whatever efforts they may put forth to apprehend and punish the kidnapers and lynchers.

CRIME CONFERENCE STILL SILENT ON LYNCHING

New York, Nov. 30.—Attorney General Homer S. Cummings continues to remain silent on whether lynching will be discussed at the National Conference on Crime, which meets in Washington from December 10 to 13. As far back as October 9th the N. A. A. C. P. inquired about it, only to be told by Cummings' assistant, Joseph B. Keenan, that no definite decision had been made.

INSULL'S FREEDOM RECALLS BENEFACTIONS TO NEGROES

Chicago.—(ANP)—Very few of the so-called "little fellows," even those who just money in the enterprises of Samuel Insull, seemed to be dissatisfied over the jury's verdict, freeing Insull and 15 co-defendants, who stood trial for seven weeks under a federal indictment charging them with the "insider" scandal.

Students Protest To Roosevelt

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—A document signed by 250 students, protesting the frame-up of the Scottsboro boys, and demanding a federal investigation of the lynching of Claude Neal at Marianna, Fla., was presented to President Roosevelt when he stopped on November 17th at Fisk university. Dr. T. E. Jones, president of Fisk, handed Roosevelt the protests and also a statement from the National Scottsboro-Herndon Action committee.

Later, as the presidential party was about to depart and the car containing Roosevelt reached the turn of the driveway, a large red banner was raised in full view. On it was inscribed: "Mr. President, save the lives of the Nine Scottsboro Boys."

RELIGIOUS GROUP ELECT NEGRO TO OFFICE

At the fourth annual meeting and election of officers at the First Baptist church Friday evening, the Des Moines Council of Churches took a step forward in the matter of recognition to members of the Negro group by advancing Atty. S. Joe Brown, one of the founders of the council and for more than thirty years an active worker in the Polk County Council of Religious Education, to the office of second vice president for the first time in history.

Atty. Brown, a former superintendent and for more than thirty years director of the department of religious education in the St. Paul A. M. E. church, had previously served ten years as a member of the executive committee of the Polk County Council of Religious Education, and since the federation of that organization with the Interracial commission and the Des Moines Ministerial association four years ago forming the Council of Churches of the Des Moines area. Mr. Brown had served three terms as director-in-charge of the combined organization.

Sports By Allen Ashby

It's all over now but the shouting and the all-star teams. Everybody knows that Archie Lucas made the all-city team and will likely make the all-state team. L. T. Johnson and Redrick of East made the second all-city team. These boys were all consistent performers all season and deserved recognition. Redrick had tough luck being a great end and turned in to a fair back to strengthen the team.

Big Ten

Over at Iowa City, Ozzie Simmons found himself again and made several good runs against Ohio State in the season's final. We have heard a lot about the team laying down on this boy. It is our belief that the people who never seen Iowa university were more jealous of Simmons than any teammate could possibly be. Business men and side line coaches everywhere were apparently glad that the boy got hurt and couldn't star. Too much publicity was bad for him, they said. Well, a young man named Grange got a lot of publicity a few years ago, so much in fact that he made pro-football what

Negro Big Ten Grid Stars Brilliant Even in Final Defeats of the Season

Simmons Runs 80 Yards To Score For Hawkeyes—Ward's Field Goals Only Michigan Points

Fighting desperately as though the Big Ten championship was at stake and the results depended on their efforts, Ozzie Simmons, halfback of Iowa, and Willis Ward, end of Michigan, proved heroes in the face of hopeless defeat in the final grid battles of the season. While the "thundering herd" of Norsemen from mighty Minnesota swept to an undisputed Western Conference championship by its victory Saturday over Wisconsin, piling up an overwhelming total of 270 points to opponents 38, Ohio State was drubbing Iowa 40-7 and Michigan was receiving its sixth straight loss from Northwestern, 13 to 6. The powerful Gophers included Iowa, 48-12, and Michigan, 34 to 0, in its relentless, crushing march to a national title.

Marked Man

Simmons, the wonder flash from Fort Worth, intercepted a Buckeye pass and streaked 80 yards through a broken field for Iowa's only touchdown. Later, intercepting another pass, he raced to the Ohio 17 yard line before he slipped to the ground. His open field tackling was the feature of the game, as well as his sparkling return of punts.

Color Question Injected in Refusal of Home Loan

New York.—The contention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that the Home Owners' Loan Corporation is making some unfair distinctions and discriminations in considering applications of colored people gained support this week when the N. A. A. C. P. came in to possession of a letter from John W. Childress, assistant to the chairman of the HOLC in Washington, to Congressman Joseph A. Cavanagh of New York.

The letter, which was in reply to a query relative to the loan application of Andrew Morton, 238 West 136th street, New York, carried the statement: "It seems that the applicant is a Negro and is 81 years of age, etc."

Mr. Morton has attempted since mid-July, with the assistance of the N. A. A. C. P. to secure a loan on his home. The first obstacle was the practice of the New York office in classifying homes of colored people in the Harlem section as rooming houses and dismissing wholesale applications of these home owners for relief on this ground. When the application was finally pushed through to Washington, the rooming house classification was again revived coupled, with the mention of Mr. Morton's race, his age and his alleged inability to pay.

PAUL YATES MAKES VICIOUS ATTACK ON VIRGIN ISLANDS GOVERNOR

New York.—At a meeting attend by more than 500 former residents of the Virgin Islands, Paul C. Yates, former executive assistant to Gov. Paul M. Pearson of the Virgin Islands, characterized New Deal experimentation in that island "So far only a series of explosions and a stench." Mr. Yates assailed Governor Pearson's administration, saying it had been characterized by "greed, incompetence, oppression and the exploitation of a helpless native populace." Governor Pearson, he continued, had gagged the press and destroyed all vestige of democracy in the islands.

Mr. Yates placed responsibility for conditions in the Virgin Islands largely upon Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Ickes, he said, "has been manoeuvred into the position of supporting with armed forces of the United States Navy and Coast Guard a regime, hateful and odious to the overwhelming majority of the people of the Virgin Islands." He said government funds were being squandered. Herbert D. Brown, former chief of the Bureau of Efficiency in Washington, who originally recommended Governor Pearson's appointment to President Hoover, also attacked Mr. Pearson and urged his removal.

Negro Congressman is Problem To Solons from Ole Southland

Washington.—(CNS)—Old guard Democrats are much exercised about the election of Arthur W. Mitchell, the new Negro Democrat Congressman as successor to Oscar DePriest in the House of Representatives from the First, Illinois district.

It is being whispered about that this phase of the New Deal is being cursed as well as discussed among the old Guard Democrats. Some of them have intimated strong objections. What they say is, that they don't mind having a Republican Negro around, but that a Democratic Negro congressman is different. Mitchell, they say, will be a member of their own crowd and party.

OLD GUARD DEMOCRATS IN QUANDARY AS TO MITCHELL

Just what they can or will do about it without causing the New Deal some trouble is what is "exercising" the men from the South. They know that Roosevelt and his Administration, deliberately courted Negro support. As one prominent columnist says: "Here is a phenomenon which means vastly more than the bare fact that in the next Congress, for the

A Sinister Symbol

Meanwhile in Chicago, some of the home folk are saying: "The election of Mitchell to Congress is a symbol of the sinister influences to which the colored person is victim politically in Chicago. Mitchell goes to Washington not as the choice of the colored people, but because he catered to the white political bosses who control a majority of the white and a minority of the colored voters of the district."

New York, Nov. 30.—Initiation of ruthless starvation and exploitation of nine million Negroes in the south will follow the announced abandonment by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and President Roosevelt to the demand of Governor Talmadge of Georgia and other southern officials for abolition of the 30-cent-an-hour relief wage scale. This charge was made today by the N. A. A. C. P. in a telegram to Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator at Washington.

"Their lot was bad enough with the FERA theoretically insisting upon minimum wage," the telegram asserts, "but now that final decision as well as administration has been turned over to local authorities, we predict that wage slavery and death will be the lot of the Negroes. Governor Talmadge from the beginning has fought minimum wage on ground it was higher than prevailing rate in Georgia, but real reason has always been that he does not want Negroes to receive even the miserable wage they have been getting under the FERA."

Washington sees in the defeat of a colored Republican Representative in Chicago, by a Democrat of his race, a political significance for transcending in importance the House of Representatives to the other.

SEVENTEEN YEAR OLD HUSBAND SHOTS BRIDE OF SIX MONTHS; THEN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

LITTLE HOPE HELD FOR WOMAN

Another Man Dies as Wave of Violence Sweeps City

MANY WOUNDED

ATLANTA, Ga.—A suicide, murder and numerous shootings and cuttings kept Atlanta police on the jump Saturday and early Sunday.

Dependent over domestic affairs, 19-year old Warren Harrison shortly after ten o'clock Saturday morning, pumped two bullets into the body of his bride of six months, and then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a fatal bullet wound through the heart.

Mrs. Lillie Belle Harrison, who is also 19 years of age, was rushed to Grady hospital in a critical condition, where doctors discovered that she had been wounded in the right shoulder and left side—the bullet ranging downward to her abdomen.

Harrison was instantly killed. The shooting occurred at 253 Linden avenue, northeast, the home of the bride.

Police attempting to reconstruct the tragic occurrence found two witnesses, one a small boy, who told of hearing the couple quarrelling shortly before the gun was fired.

J. A. Childs, 11, who was in another room of the house, told Radio Patrolmen W. C. Patrick and H. L. Tuzzer, that he heard Harrison threaten his young wife and then heard the report of the gun.

Mrs. Harrison, wounded in the shoulder, ran in another room toward the back of the house, where Harrison, close behind in pursuit fired the second time, the bullet entering her side, the boy said.

Mrs. Harrison still attempt to dodge the gunfire, though critically wounded, pushed open the screen door leading to the back porch, where she fell.

Harrison then turned the weapon on himself and fired the child eyewitness said, and fell across the prostrate body of his young bride.

The youth, fatally wounded, got up and attempted to walk off the porch, according to young Childs, and stumbling, fell in the back yard.

Mrs. Harrison, the bullet in her abdomen, was given only a small chance of recovery. Doctors performed a hurried operation and were seeking donors of blood late last night for a transfusion.

Harrison's body was carried to the Ivy brothers funeral home, Coroner Donohoe will probably hold an inquest sometime Monday.

Detectives McGarrity and Tyne were assigned to investigate the case, as radio patrolmen were unable to find the gun Harrison had used.

That Harrison had threatened to slay his wife and then take his own life as early as Friday, was revealed last night by Mrs. Mary E. Harrison, invalid mother of the youth, who lives at 190 Port street northeast.

Mrs. Harrison told newspapermen that her son had been dependent for more than a week, since he and his young bride had become separated.

Already brooding over domestic troubles, Harrison became desperate Friday morning when he received a notice through mail of his wife's intentions to divorce him. The letter accompanying the notice, according to the dead youth's mother, warned him that his wife's lawyers would ask for temporary alimony pending the divorce proceedings.

After receiving the notice, Mrs. Harrison said, her son declared that he knew how to "get out of all this trouble."

The young couple had just been married six months, the result of a romance that blossomed in the classrooms of the David T. Howard Night school, the heart-breaker's mother revealed.

"My son was always a hard working boy," she said, "and had an uphill drive all the way. He had finished David T. Howard school and was anxious to get a high school education. That is why he was going to night school. He met Lillie Belle there.

Warren was always a brooding kind of a boy and he got dependent when Lillie Belle went back to her folks. That was a week ago. He had been worrying all week about it. After I heard that he had killed himself, I remembered that he told me he knew how to get out of all this trouble. I guess that is what he meant."

Fundamentalists Hold Gospel Feast With Judge Rutherford at Auditorium

Over 100 colored "Witnesses of Jehovah" stirred the long nights of stairs to the balcony of the City Auditorium to listen to their nationally famous orator and proselyter Judge Rutherford proclaim the message of salva-

Stone, Minus Sling Shot, Hits Woman

ATLANTA, Ga.—Miss Charlie Mae Worth, of 186 Spring street, must have incurred the anger of some "David" Sunday, she was carried to Grady hospital for emergency treatment at 1:30 Sunday afternoon with a severed temporal artery in the forehead, part of her head, caused by the impact of a rock.

It is more probable that a right hand cast stone, than it was projected at her with a sling shot, and it is not at all certain that the caster of it was named David, as her assailant's name was not divulged.

Judge Rutherford, one of the foremost exponents of prophetic and dynamic religion, stressed the point that the world was in its present deplorable plight because the legions of Satan had been zealously at work in the world. "The world, since the beginning of time, has been battleground," said the Judge. "Satan has dominated the church, the government, and the press, and in the unholy exercise of his powers, he has brought ruin to civilization."

The time has come, he argued, basing his assumptions upon interpretations of Holy Writ, when the Devil shall be defeated and driven from the earth, and when all those humans who are his slaves will be destroyed and those who advocated Christ's cause will be the beneficiaries of the balm of Gilead, and will enjoy the eternal lives of bliss, not attainable in heaven, but upon earth, in our own domain.

He specifically outlined those agencies that were under Satan's domination, existed in his cause in fomenting and continuing discord in the world, not excepting institutions like the Catholic and Protestant Churches and the newspaper, from his list of those which were diabolical in motive. "These institutions fight to keep the truth hidden," he said, "and in so doing they are directly assisting to the building of God's kingdom."

"It was in 1914 that the beginning of God's kingdom was manifested to man," said the Judge. "The World War consummated the prophecies and fulfilled the promises that were made thousands of years ago," he brought out. "At the same time that human forces were thrashing out their destiny upon bloody battlefields and amidst famine and pestilence, the supernatural forces, Christ and Satan, were waging a battle in the regions above."

Christ was victorious in overcoming the Devil and he cast him out of heaven to the earth below, where he has been carrying forward his work ever since. The witnesses of Jehovah will defeat him in the end however, and will obtain the long and hard sought vicinity that the scriptures promised them. "That victory is at hand," prognosticated the Judge, urging all that heard him to enlist in the struggle against Satan. At the conclusion of his speech Judge Rutherford asked all those who would attempt to bring God's word into fulfillment to stand and assert themselves. Over four-fifths of the assembled audience (and there were thousands of people there) rose and stretched their hands with a mighty shout of determination.

Witnesses Visit
Among the many hundreds of interested persons to journey to Atlanta and the city auditorium Sunday to be in attendance at the monster meeting staged by Jehovah's Witnesses and hear Pastor Rutherford, were the Crowder brothers, E. R. & J. H. prominent barbers of Nashville. They remained through visiting points of interest as guests of C. E. Harrison, Daily World linotype operator, who lives at 39 Young street.

MAN BEATEN IN CAFE

RACE FIGHT National Cafe Cashier Pounds Negro Waiter in Fray BOTH DRUNK

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—A heavy fight between a white man and a Negro in the National Cafe, 129 Beale avenue, by George W. Jackson, 24 year-old white cashier, was improving yesterday at General Hospital. The colored waiter is in a critical condition and is expected to be unable to leave his bed this week.

The white cashier is said to have attacked the waiter when he refused to leave the cafe. Both were intoxicated.

Jackson, who lives at 237 Venice, resisted efforts of officers to separate the combatants. The waiter was in a critical condition and is expected to be unable to leave his bed this week.

The white cashier is said to have attacked the waiter when he refused to leave the cafe. Both were intoxicated.

He said he was the first to get to the back of the house and saw Harrison when he fell in the yard. The police he said, was lying on the porch. But when police arrived the gun had mysteriously disappeared.

officers to subdue the white man with blackjacks. The cashier was carried to a hospital where a wound on his head and a bruised nose were treated. Later he was jailed and held on charges of being drunk, disorderly, using profanity and threatening breach of the peace.

A Sam Qualls ambulance carried Matthews to General Hospital. His wife, Mrs. Carrie Matthews, of 233 S. Second street, visited him early Saturday morning and found him still unconscious.

According to the manager of National Cafe, Matthews finished his day's work at 4 o'clock. He left but returned later in an intoxicated condition and asked Cashier Jackson for food.

"It was given a meal," the manager said, and when finished he returned to the cashier and asked for more. Jackson told him that he would have to pay for any thing else he wanted. The waiter continued to hang over the counter, disturbing other waiters.

"When he failed to leave, Jackson, who was drunk, came from behind the counter and attacked the Negro, beating him on the head, face and body. Matthews entered a fractured skull in the fray."

Dr. W. B. Huggins Publishes Fine Teacher Volume

NEW YORK, Nov. (AP)—The most important contribution to the study of African History is the book just off the press by Dr. Willis B. Huggins, professor of History in the Bushwick high school. A small volume in size, the book covers intensely the progress of the race from the very earliest times and gives valuable information on the collateral reading necessary to understand the history of the black people of the world.

The result of years of study in this particular field, the volume is not intended for ordinary reading, but is a handbook for teachers of history. Already the class conducted by James Weldon Johnson at New York University is using the book as a text book. Complete in its scope, the book gives interesting and valuable information, completely dispelling the myths just of the black races. Noted authors are quoted in the chapters, and references are given revealing the sources of information. Teachers and scholar alike will hold the book as the most unusual of its kind and one which no instructor of history can well be without.

The entire job was done by colored people from writing the book to the printing of the finished product.

Death Takes Mrs. Durham Old Citizen

Mrs. Bessie Durham, one of the oldest living A. M. E. church workers in this section, died about nine o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Pitts, 1222 Hunter road, N. W., after an illness of nearly two years.

Mrs. Durham, along with her husband, the late Sylvester Durham, lived on Marshall street in Decatur for more than 20 years. They were charter members of the Antioch A. M. E. church of Decatur and did much toward the building and present success of this church which is regarded as one of the choice A. M. E. churches in the state. Mr. Durham served on the steward board for many years while his wife was a veteran member of the steward board.

Born in Athens, Georgia, many years ago, just how many she could not recall, Mrs. Durham moved to Atlanta eight years ago upon the death of her husband and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Pitts, head of the Carrie Street Dispensary, and well known social, civic and religious leader. A fall several years ago following an attack that left her blind resulted in a broken arm and other complications from which she never recovered. While in Atlanta she was under the watch and care of the First Congregational church, attending services whenever possible.

Besides Mrs. Pitts she is survived by another child, a son, Mr. M. T. Thomas, Sr., of this city.

Included among the grand children are Dr. Mark Thomas, II, who has just returned to Atlanta to resume his practice following a term spent at Alto, Ga., as a member of the staff of the Georgia State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Harold Thomas, high official of the National Alliance of Postal Employees, Miss Charlotte Thomas, Attorney Leigh Maxwell of New York City, a graduate of Atlanta University, Columbia University and New York University, who is successfully combining his training as an accountant with his practice of the legal profession; Mrs. A. C. Williams of Detroit, Mich., wife of the pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist church of Detroit, Mich.; and Mrs. C. R. Yates, a registered pharmacist and wife of one of the owners of the Yates and Mill Drug Stores.

Four great granddaughters, Clayton Yates, II, Clara Yates, Mark Thomas, III, of Atlanta, and Theodore Williams II, of Detroit, also survive.

Funeral services were held at one o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, 1221 Hunter road, with David T. Howard funeral home in charge.

World Office Host to Noted Journalists

ATLANTA, Ga.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Franklin, owners of the Kansas City Call, Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. (Fay) Young, moved into the city Monday night for a two day stay visiting relatives and friends and points of interest. The ladies of the party were kept on the go Tuesday paying calls, particularly Mrs. Franklin, the former Miss Ada Crogman, of this city and nationally known electionist who spent much time with friends of other days and reminiscing.

Mr. Young, managing editor of the Missouri paper, and Mr. Franklin spent considerable time at the office of The Atlanta Daily World, visiting all departments of the institution and fraternizing with officials. Last night they were the guests of the Daily World's 100 Per Cent Wagon club at an informal smoker given at the residence of Dr. E. H. Martin on McDonough Boulevard.

Equally as interested a visitor at The World office yesterday was Mr. Calvin McKissack, noted designer and builder, a member of the firm of McKissack and McKissack of Nashville, Tenn. McKissack spent considerable time while here in conference with housing project officials and W. H. Aiken whose guest he was during his stay. Prof. B. T. Harvey, nationally known sports authority, also visited the office with the newspapermen.

Newsman Enters Motion Picture Casting Field

LOS ANGELES (WS)—Jimmie Smith formerly connected with the New York Amsterdam News in a managerial capacity, covered his connection with the California Eagle last week and will be succeeded by Phil Prowd, formerly chief of that paper. Prowd has been head of the California News, another weekly paper since he left the Eagle.

Smith will enter the motion picture casting business, according to rumors if he remains on the staff. There is a possibility that he will return to New York, but it is considered to be remote.

The New York newspaperman was interested in motion picture casting prior to his first trip to New York City. Many of his friends of that period have been successful in motion picture casting since he arrived in this city. While not committing himself on the matter, Smith has reportedly been making contacts which will benefit him in this work.

Mrs. Daniels Says Germs Respect No Race or Group

FRANK SPEECH

MIAMI, Fla. (TNS)—On Friday and Saturday mornings in a meeting called by the FEPA, held at the Regional Headquarters here 73 W. Flagler street, Mrs. Eddie G. Daniels, Casework Supervisor of Dade County represented her people in a most frank way. Caseworkers from Broward, Collier and Dade Counties were present. During the Friday sessions Mrs. Daniels was the only Negro Casework Supervisor in this District. On Saturday morning at a session where all the Caseworkers and Case Aids from the entire Dade County were present Mrs. Daniels was called upon to speak on "The Health and Economic

How bad housing affects health status of the Negro in Dade county. Conditions in the community were very clearly put before the members of the session. The very high percentage of T. B. and other communicable diseases was cited; and it was at this period that she told her listeners that "Germs were no respecter of persons or localities" and that they travel "beyond the railroad tracks" (White Town). She pleaded for more nurses in order that the disease might be checked and properly handled for the protection of the lives of hundreds of school children and thousands of inhabitants of Miami and neighboring towns within the County. She again cited a very deplorable situation in the colored district—Lack of playgrounds. She pictured the channels of danger in which the children played, during their recesses at school and in the afternoons. Exposure to traffic of every kind. She requested the local Administration to expand its program to the extent that the Negro children would be given supervised playgrounds.

The literary classes will begin in the Colored Section as soon as the teachers are okayed. Vocational classes were asked for in conjunction with the other classes.

The speaker accused her spell-bound listeners of branding the Negroes as being anti-social without delving beyond the surface to find out why—if such condition exists. She attributed this condition in many instances to a lack of proper educational facilities and to a lack of our white neighbors to try to understand the Negro. She cited the lack of spiritual peace on the lack of our own group due to the fact that the white man did little to help him keep up his moral and self respect. She touched on the general exploitation of the Negro so far as wages etc., were concerned and many other problems very subtle in the Community life in the city of Miami and asked her listeners to do all that they could to help the Negro retain his self-respect and to make him feel that he has a definite place in the scheme of things. Mr. W. H. Green, Region 4 Dir., and other officials of the FEPA warmly commended Mrs. Daniels on her progress since her appointment here a year ago.

CYCLES OF LIFE

LUTHER'S CORNER
Serial 1—Article 2
Before beginning to outline this system with the various descriptions, I must call your attention to the following important points: It must be kept in mind that the cosmic effect upon the soul consciousness of each person does not always manifest itself in the outer objective nature of an individual. The inner personality of persons we meet may be very different from the outer individuality or character. In many cases only intimate, friendly relationship over a long period of time will reveal to us the true inner nature of a person whom we think we have understood very thoroughly.

As each of our faces reacts in the same manner to the same cause. For instance, joy brings the lifting of the face and a smile. Grief, a drooping of the face and tears. Fear, a relaxing of the muscles and a popping forward of the eyes. A constantly irritable and ill-tempered person will develop a face that even when active will cause a feeling of repulsion, constant repetition of the same expression as a result of exercise of the emotion or mental attitude that causes the expression leaves a permanent mark on the face, whereas only the present existing emotion or attitude can be read in the face that is in motion. The sum total of the usual emotional and mental under different conditions can be read in the face while passive. The passive face to the close observer will tell of a person's mental and emotional traits that have been active in the past and are sure to again be active in the future. Revelations XIV, 9, says: "And received his mark (God's) on his (face) forehead or in his hand."

As most of us have about three hundred and ten-muscles on each side of our body and one-fourth of all our muscles are in our neck and face, the human face can light up or cloud up or over because its muscles are attuned for complex action. The outer, objective mind and character of a man or woman may clothe him or her with certain tendencies, habits, expressions and mannerisms, which they may have assumed or acquired, or even affected for various reasons, and which may not be truly consistent with the inner self, the various systems of character reading, such as palmistry, physiognomy, phrenology, handwriting, etc., may be a fair index to the characteristics of the outer self, with occasional points relating to the inner self, but all of these systems fail in giving us a true picture of the inherent, deep-seated soul personality.

I mean by this that no person who professes to be a character reader can do so successfully and use only one system. This, however, does not apply to so-called fortune tellers, as this page has nothing to do with fortune telling as understood by the casual reader. Many of my friends call me a fortune teller both behind my back and in my presence. If, however, they understood my work and knew it to be a psychic analytical and scientific system of beneficial character reading, I am sure they would think twice before they would attack the age old prefix to all who happen to have a knowledge of Palmistry or cards, be it large or small, myself or anyone else.

In sad remembrance of the passing of George (Toady) Jackson, our friend and pal, who passed away November 26, 1933, and was laid to rest November 29, 1933.
Although you're gone, oceans of water cannot wash away our memories of you.
Mother and Friends.

After Thursday the sun of the 1934 gridiron season will set, closing one of the most successful seasons in history of football. Eight hectic weeks of ups and downs, thrills and unexpected brilliance completed the schedules of the local schools, with the inspired North High team emerging as city champions. In the choosing of the annual all-city high school eleven by Frank Brody of the Evening Tribune, Archie Lucas, Negro end, was one of the four Polar Bears placed on the first squad. The stellar wingman played a glancing defensive game and was adept at snagging passes on dead runs or gaining ground on trick laterals. Brody said of the fleet star: "Lucas is a standout for the Polar Bears and very little yardage was gained around his position."
Lawrence Redrick, colored 1933 all-state end, and all around East High athletic ace, was placed at halfback on the second team. Playing on a highly overrated team, with a tough schedule, desperately trying to live up to its reputation, Redrick was shifted from end to backfield, where he performed well as a fine tackler, hard blocker and deadly pass receiver. Lee township shared with Roosevelt and Catholic Academy in placing two on the first honor team. Lincoln placed one on the all star squad.
L. T. Johnson, Negro halfback for North, was awarded a berth on the second eleven. His open field running was the feature of many Pink and Green victories. "Johnson played steady football all season and was the shiftest runner in local circles," commented the sports writer.

The teams selected by Brody are as follows: FIRST TEAM—Archie Lucas (North), E; Ted Applegate (Roosevelt), E; Allen Dillon (Roosevelt), T; Frank Coppola (North), T; Burr Hohl (East), G; Joe Hart (Catholic), G; James Ahern (North, capt.), C; Robert Keefer (Lincoln), Q; Frank Gustafson (East), H. B.; Joe Zundel (Catholic), H. B.; Charles Davey (North), F. B. SECOND TEAM—Bob Huston (Roosevelt), E; Milton Fry (East), E; Richard Locke (Lincoln), T; Harold Nelson (East), T; Wayne Sonderleiter (North), G; Walter Malone (Cath.), C; Capt. Julius Bellomo (North), Q; Max Shelton (Lincoln), C; Lawrence Redrick (East), H; L. T. Johnson (North), H; Harmon Boyd (Roosevelt), F.

RECEIVED BY PRESIDENT VINCENT IN GOLD ROUTE Storm Forces Plane Down En Route to Santo Domingo
Port Au Prince, Haiti—Spec. to A. N.P.—General excitement and a holiday atmosphere prevailed in this city and its environs Thursday afternoon, Friday, Saturday and a part of Sunday due to the arrival, stay and departure of the American goodwill aviators, Dr. Albert E. Forsythe and C. Alfred Anderson, who reached here from Kingston, Jamaica, late Thursday afternoon, Nov. in their monoplane, Booker T. Washington.
Friday, Dr. Forsythe and Mr. Anderson were greeted at the presidential palace by President Stenio Vincent and all the members of his cabinet where conversations were held in the famous gold room. In the evening the aviators were the guests of the United States minister, Norman Armour.
Saturday afternoon, the mayor and other officials of the city of Port au Prince greeted the flyers at the city hall and in the evening they were the guests of Haitian newspapermen at an elaborate banquet.
Friday evening, the two flyers took time off to make a radio address and to address an audience in one of the local theatres. Saturday afternoon, the birdmen gave an exhibition demonstration of flying for the benefit of President Vincent, his staff, and the populace, during which they were roundly cheered.
They were elaborately entertained at Nassau, Havana and Kingston. At Nassau, the largest crowd in the history of the island assembled to meet them and they were subjected to a continual round of entertainment from Governor Clifford, relatives of Dr. Forsythe living there and old Tuskegee friends of Dr. Forsythe, who now make their home in Nassau.

COP HEAPS ABUSE UPON NEGRO CITIZEN

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 23 (Special)—Iowa, state of the tall corn, and pigs, this week comes disgracefully into the limelight because of a prejudiced chief of police of this city, who, according to a complaint of A. W. Fitz, has sought to transplant Alabama to northern soil. Mr. Fitz, who, at one time was president of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P., declared he was grossly insulted by the police Chief, George L. Bennett, and threatened with incarceration if he displayed any dislike for the abuse heaped upon him.

Mr. Fitz said he was called on the telephone by an attorney, Andy J. Neilson and asked to come to the police station for a conference regarding the arrest of one David Davis. At the station Fitz said he found out that Attorney Neilson had gone away on an errand and that when Chief Bennett appeared on the scene the official asked Fitz what his business was at the station. Bennett immediately became abusive, Fitz charged.

In part the statements said to have been made by the police official are given here. Certain words and phrases, too indecent to print have been deleted. "If you came to intercede for this nigger, you are of the same stripe as he. This (a vile name is used here) has been insulting white women. We burn niggers in Alabama for insulting white women. It's too bad we don't do it up here."
"If you came up here to try to help this (xuganafat) you're out of luck. Don't talk back to me. If you don't like what I say get the hell out of here. I'm chief of police here and I say what I damn please to do here and I say what I keep talking back to me I'll throw you in where that other (word deleted) is." When Fitz asked the policeman if it was the privilege of a citizen to request the consideration of any matter from a city official, Bennett is quoted as replying, "Go to hell."

BIRMINGHAM WOMAN ADMITS NEGRO RAPE STORY WAS LIE

Girmingham, Ala., Nov. 23.—Good police work by skeptical officers has scotched another one of those "A Negro raped me" stories. Mrs. Mabel Roy, 18 year old white woman, who told police two weeks ago that she was hit over the head by a Negro intruder who held her captive for four hours, admitted last week, after prolonged police questioning, that no Negro had "done her wrong."
"She went on a party," she told the officers, and "didn't remember who hit her on the head." When she sobered up, she explained, she placed her clothes under her pillow and then notified the police that she had been attacked by a Negro intruder.

TIBBETT SAYS ST. LOUIS BLUES IS A "CLASSIC"

New York, Nov. 23.—Lawrence Tibbett sang "St. Louis Blues" on the Packard program via the NBC network recently and explained to his radio audience that Duke Ellington played the number before an audience of serious music lovers at the Salle Pleyel in Paris and that they loved it.
"I personally believe the 'St. Louis Blues' belongs to the school of thorough American music," he said. Mr. Tibbett previously has placed many Ellington compositions, such as "Mood Indigo" and "Black and Tan Fantasy," in the same category.

APPEALS TO U. S. SUPREME COURT PROCEED

New York, N. Y., (I.L.D.)—A stay of the date of execution for Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, Scottsboro boys, to February 8, 1935, was granted by the Alabama supreme court Friday upon application made by Osmond K. Fraenkel, attorney in charge of the appeals to the U. S. supreme court, retained by the International Labor Defense. The application was made to give the U. S. supreme court the opportunity to pass upon the application for review of the cases.

Within a few days application for a writ of certiorari in these cases will be filed with the U. S. supreme court, together with the accompanying briefs, by Mr. Fraenkel. These papers have been prepared with the assistance of Mr. Walter H. Pollak, noted constitutional attorney, who has been retained with Mr. Fraenkel in these cases by the International Labor Defense.
At the same time that this announcement was made, the International Labor Defense made public new retainers obtained from Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris to refute the statements made by Attorney Samuel S. Leibowitz that he is in charge of the cases. Mr. Leibowitz has not been connected with the Scottsboro defense since October 4th, when he withdrew when notified that Fraenkel and Pollak, constitutional attorneys, had been retained by the I. L. D. to take the appeals to the U. S. supreme court.

party stepped upon the platform erected on the Fisk university campus near historic old Jubilee hall Saturday, November 17. The student bodies of Fisk, Meharry and Tennessee State A. and I College turned out en masse to greet the president who remained in their midst for 15 minutes listening to spirituals sung by the Fisk university choir.

After the presentation of Presidents Jones of Fisk, W. J. Hale of State college, and Mullooney of Meharry to the President by S. L. Smith of the Rosenwald fund, and many flowers to Mrs. Roosevelt the Fisk singers, resplendent in their vestments, began their rendition of spirituals and a number from Palestine. Immediately followed a spiritual by the entire State college student body. As the Negro national anthem resounded to the skies from the throats of thousands, the Presidential party wound its way back out of the campus on its way to the station to close the President's visit to Nashville.

POWERFUL FORCE TO BE HURLED AGAINST U. S. MOB MURDERS

Chicago.—According to a letter sent by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, to A. Philip Randolph, national president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, the A. F. of L., one of the most powerful organizations in America, is throwing its whole weight back at the Costigan-Wagner Federal Anti-Lynching Bill in order to secure its passage through the coming 74th Congress.
"This is the first time that the white workers and black workers in America have joined hands to fight the national evil and disgrace of mob and lynch law," said Mr. Randolph. "Since white workers under the spell and influence of a frenzied and usually whipped into a frenzy by an Anti-Negro press, church and other pagandistic agencies, to lynch Negroes, the most fundamental step which can be made to abolish lynching in America is to unite the black and white workers against this social menace."

BETWEEN YEAR OLD HUSBAND SHOOT BRIDE OF SIX MONTHS; THEN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

LITTLE HOPE HELD FOR WOMAN

Another Man Dies as Wave of Violence Sweeps City

MANY WOUNDED

ATLANTA, Ga.—A suicide, murder and numerous shootings and cuttings kept Atlanta police on the jump Saturday and early Sunday.

Dependent over domestic affairs, 19-year old Warren Harrison shortly after ten o'clock Saturday morning, pumped two bullets into the body of his bride of six months, and then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a fatal bullet wound through the heart.

Mrs. Lillie Belle Harrison, who is also 19 years of age, was rushed to Grady hospital in a critical condition, where doctors discovered that she had been wounded in the right shoulder and left side, the bullet ranging downward to her abdomen.

Harrison was instantly killed. The shooting occurred at 253 Linden avenue, northeast, the home of the bride.

Police attempting to reconstruct the tragic occurrence found two witnesses, one a small boy, who told of hearing the couple quarrelling shortly before the gun was fired.

J. A. Childs, 11, who was in another room of the house, told Radio Patrolmen W. C. Patrick and H. L. Turner, that he heard Harrison threaten his young wife and then heard the report of the gun. Mrs. Harrison, wounded in the shoulder, ran in another room toward the back of the house, where Harrison, close behind in pursuit fired the second time, the bullet entering her side, the boy said.

Mrs. Harrison still attempt to dodge the gunfire, though critically wounded, pushed open the screen door leading to the back porch, where she fell.

Harrison then turned the weapon on himself and fired, the child eyewitness said, and fell across the prostrate body of his young bride.

The youth, fatally wounded, got up and attempted to walk off the porch, according to young Childs, and stumbling, fell in the backyard.

Mrs. Harrison, the bullet in her abdomen, was given only a small chance of recovery. Doctors performed a hurried operation and were seeking signs of blood late last night for a transfusion.

Harrison's body was carried to the Ivy brothers funeral home. Coroner Domech will probably hold an inquest sometime Monday.

Detectives McGrath and Ty... were assigned to investigate the case, as radio patrolmen were unable to find the gun Harrison had used.

That Harrison had threatened to slay his wife and then take his own life, was early on Friday, was revealed last night by Mrs. Mary E. Harrison, invalid mother of the youth, who lives at 1505 Fort street northeast.

Mrs. Harrison told newspapermen that her son had been dependent for more than a week, since he and his young bride had become separated.

Already brooding over domestic troubles, Harrison became desperate Friday morning when he received a notice through mail of his wife's intentions to divorce him. The letter accompanying the notice, according to the dead youth's mother, warned him that his wife's lawyers would ask for temporary alimony pending the divorce proceedings.

After receiving the notice, Mrs. Harrison said, her son declared that he knew how to "get out of all this trouble."

The young couple had just been married six months, the result of a romance that budded in the classrooms of the David T. Howard night school, the heart-broken mother revealed.

"My son was always a hard working boy," she said, "and had an uphill drive all the way. He had finished David T. Howard school and was anxious to get a high school education."

"He was going to that school. It is my Lillie Belle there."

"Warren was always a brooding kind of a boy and he got dependent when Lillie Belle went back to her folks. That was a week ago. He had been worrying all week long. After I heard that he had killed himself, I remembered that he told me he knew how to get out of all this trouble. I guess that is what he meant."

He told me goodbye this morn-

Fundamentalists Hold Gospel Feast With Judge Rutherford at Auditorium

Atlanta, Ga.—The colorful "Witnesses of Jehovah" climbed the long flights of stairs to the balcony of the City Auditorium to listen to their nationally famous orator and proselyter, Judge Rutherford, proclaim the message of salvation.

Stone, Minus Sling Shot, Hits Woman

ATLANTA, Ga.—Miss Charlie Mae Worth, of 186 Spring street, must have incurred the anger of some "David" Sunday, she was carried to Grady hospital for emergency treatment at 1:30 Sunday afternoon with a severed temporal artery in the fore part of her head, caused by the impact of a rock.

It is more probable that a right hand cast the stone, than it was projected at her with a sling-shot and it is not at all certain that the castor of it was named David, as her assailant's name was not divulged.

Judge Rutherford, one of the foremost exponents of prophetic and dynamic religion, stressed the point that the world, was in its present deplorable plight because the legions of Satan had been zealously at work in the world. "The world, since the beginning of time, has been battleground," said the Judge. "Satan has dominated the church, the government and the press, and in the unholy exercise of his powers, he has brought ruin to civilization."

"The time has come, he argued, when the Devil shall be defeated and driven from the earth, and when all those humans who are his slaves will be destroyed and those who advocate Christ's cause will be the beneficiaries of the balm of Gilead, and will enjoy the eternal lives of bliss, not after death in heaven, but upon earth, in our own domain."

He specifically outlined those agencies that were under Satan's domination, existed in his cause in fomenting and continuing dis-

cord in the world, not excepting institutions like the Catholic and Protestant Churches and the newspaper from his list of those which were diabolical in motive. "These institutions fight to keep the truth hidden," he said, "and in so doing they are directly antithetical to the building of God's kingdom."

"It was in 1914 that the beginning of God's kingdom was manifested to man," said the Judge. "The World War consummated the scriptures and fulfilled the prophecies that were made thousands of years ago," he brought out. At the same time that human forces were thrashing out their destiny upon bloody battlefields and amidst famine and pestilence, the supernatural forces, Christ and Satan, were waging a battle in the regions above.

Christ was victorious in overcoming the Devil and He cast him out of heaven to the earth below, where he has been carrying forward his work ever since. The witnesses of Jehovah will defeat him in the end, however, and will obtain the long and hard sought

FRANK SPEECH

MIAMI, Fla. (TNS)—On Friday and Saturday mornings in a meeting called the 8th Regional District of the FERA, held at the Regional Headquarters here 73 W. Flagler Street, Mrs. Eddie G. Daniels, Casework Supervisor of Dade County represented her people in a most frank way. Caseworkers from Broward, Collier and Dade Counties were present. During the Friday sessions Mrs. Daniels was the only Negro present, being the only Negro Casework Supervisor in this District. On Saturday morning at a session where all the Caseworkers and Case-Aids from the entire setups throughout the County were present, Mrs. Daniels was called upon to speak on "The Health and Economic

How bad housing affects health Status of the Negro in Dade County. Conditions in the community were very clearly put before the members of the session. The very high percentage of T. B. and other communicable diseases was cited; and it was at this period that she told her listeners that "Germs respect no respect of persons or localities."

As they travel "beyond the railroad tracks" (White Towns), she pleaded for more nurses in order that the disease might be checked and properly handled for the protection of the lives of hundreds of school children and thousands of inhabitants of Miami and neighboring towns within the County. She again cited a very deplorable situation in the colored district—Lack of playgrounds. She pictured the channels of danger in which the children played, during their recesses at school and in the afternoons. Exposure to traffic of every kind. She requested the local Administration to expand its program to the extent that the Negro children would be given supervised playgrounds.

The literacy classes will begin in the Colored Section as soon as the teachers are "cleared." Vocational classes were asked for in conjunction with the other classes. The speaker accused her spell-bound listeners of branning the Negroes as being anti-social without delving beyond the surface to find out why if such condition exists. She attributed this condition in many instances to a lack of proper educational facilities and to a lack of our white neighbors to try to understand the Negro. She cited the lack of spiritual noise on the lack of our own group due to the fact that the white man did little to help him keep up his moral and self-respect she touched on the general exploitation of the Negro so far as wages, etc. were concerned and many other problems very evident in the Community life in the city of Miami and asked her listeners to do all that they could to help the Negro retain his self-respect and to make him feel that he has a definite place in the scheme of things. Mr. W. H. Green, Regional Dir. and other officials of the FERA Setup congratulated Mrs. Daniels on her progress since her appointment here a year ago.

Only One House, Several Chimneys.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Only one house and a few brick chimneys remain in the area which has been selected for the Atlanta University Housing Project. By steady work, wrecking contractors and workmen have almost completely razed the section leaving only the debris as last problem before the awarding of contracts to construct the country's first Housing Project inauguration here some weeks ago by Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, in person.

being carefully planned and must be completed before bids can be asked for from contractors. In accordance with the plans of the directing heads the homes are to be completed in every detail, with the most modern in sanitary and convenient construction, giving those who purchase them, for a homes the benefit of comforts that have been long needed and wanted by the mediocre and sub-mediocre classes of the Negro group, but denied them because of the initial expense attached to their acquisition.

It is estimated that the actual construction work will be started shortly after the first of the new year as by that time the clearing away of the debris will have been completed and all plans completed and contracts let.

Two-Month Old Tot Fatally Burned

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—While playing with matches, on Monday afternoon, three children under the age of six, set fire to a bed, burning to death a two-month old baby, Quinton Lester, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucy Lester, of 716 Marble street, was occupying the cradle which caught on fire. The lot was buried Tuesday afternoon in Mt. Carmel cemetery. Final rites were held Tuesday from the parlors of Hayes and Langston funeral company.

SOVIET NEW LINK IN CHAIN AROUND GERMANY

Statement of French official that "Russia has a solid, well equipped army which she offers us in case of conflict between Germany and us" sharpens European fears of a new major war. Position of Soviet in Franco-German difficulties has never before been made public. Shaded portions show the countries known to be sympathetic to the French program of confining Hitler's ambitions to the Reich proper.

RACE FIGHT

National Cafe Cashier Pounds Negro Waiter in Fray BOTH DRUNK

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Hubert Matthews, 38, beaten into an unconscious state Friday night at the National Cafe, 126 Peck, was made and taken to the hospital by George W. Jackson, 34-year-old white cashier, was in a fight with Matthews, who was in a critical condition and is expected to be able to leave his bed late this week.

The white cashier is said to have attacked the waiter when he refused to leave the cafe, both were intoxicated.

Jackson, who lives at 356 Vance, resisted officers when they were made and upon arriving at the police station, the cat was tempted to wage fierce combat. It was necessary for arresting officers, but I never thought anything unusual about it. I haven't seen him since," the elderly, thin-faced, brown-skinned man said.

I. B. Childs, of 253 Linden avenue, told police that he was standing in front of the house talking when he heard the shots fired.

He said he was the first to get to the back of the house and saw Harrison when he fell in the yard. The girl he said, was lying on the porch. But when police arrived the gun had mysteriously disappeared.

Dr. W. B. Huggins Publishes Fine Teacher Volume

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The most important contribution to the study of African history is the book just off the press by Dr. Willis B. Huggins, Professor of History in the Bushwick high school. A small volume in size, the book covers intensely the progress of the race from the very earliest times and gives valuable information on the collateral reading necessary to understand the history of the black peoples of the world.

The result of years of study in this particular field, the volume is not intended for ordinary reading, but is a handbook for teachers of history. Already the class conducted by James Weldon Johnson at New York University is using the book as a text book. Complete in its scope, the book gives interesting and valuable information completely dispelling the hazy notions of the black races. Noted authors are quoted in the chapters and references are given revealing the sources of information. Teachers and scholar alike will find the book as the most unusual of its kind and one which no instructor of history can well be without.

The entire job was done by colored people from writing the book to the printing of the finished product.

Death Takes Mrs. Durham, Old Citizen

Mrs. Sallie Durham, one of the oldest living A. M. E. church workers in this section, died about nine o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Pitts, 1223 Hunter road, N. W., after an illness of nearly two years.

Mrs. Durham, along with her husband, lived on Marshall street in Decatur for more than 50 years. They were charter members of the Antioch A. M. E. church of Decatur and did much toward the building and present success of this church which is regarded as one of the choice A. M. E. churches in the state. Mr. Durham served on the steward board for many years while his wife was a veteran member of the stewardess board.

Born in Athens, Georgia, many years ago, just how many she could not recall, Mrs. Durham moved to Atlanta eight years ago upon the death of her husband and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Pitts, head of the Carrie Steele Orphanage and well known social, civic and religious leader. A fall several years ago following an attack that left her blind resulted in a broken arm and other complications from which she never recovered. While in Atlanta she was under the watch and care of the First Congregational church, attending services whenever possible.

Besides Mrs. Pitts she is survived by another child, a son, Mr. M. T. Thomas, Sr., of this city.

Included among the grand children are Dr. Mark Thomas, U. who has just returned to Atlanta to resume his practice following a term spent at Alg., Ga., as a member of the staff of the Georgia State Tuberculosis Sanatorium. Harold Thomas, high official of the National Alliance of Postal Employees, Miss Charlotte Thomas, Attorney Leigh Maxwell of New York City, a graduate of Atlanta university, Columbia university, and New York university, who is successfully combining his training as an accountant with his practice of the legal profession; Mrs. A. C. Williams of Detroit, Mich., wife of the pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist church of Detroit, Mich.; and Mrs. C. B. Yates, a registered pharmacist, and wife of one of the owners of the Yates and Milton drug stores.

Four great-grandchildren, Clayton Yates, II, Clara Yates, Mark Thomas, III, of Atlanta, and Theodore Williams II, of Detroit, also survive.

Funeral services were held at one o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, 1221 Hunter road, with David T. Howard funeral home in charge.

CYCLES OF LIFE

LUTHER'S CORNER

Serial 1—Article 2

Before beginning to outline this system with the various descriptions, I must call your attention to the following important points: It must be kept in mind that the cosmic effect upon the soul consciousness of each person does not always manifest itself in the outer objective nature of an individual. The inner personality of persons we meet may be very different from the outer individuality or character. In many cases only intimate, friendly relationship over a long period of time will reveal to us the true inner nature of a person whom we think we have understood very thoroughly.

As each of our faces reacts in the same manner to the same cause.—For instance, joy brings the lifting of the face and a smile. Grief, a drooping of the face and tears. Fear, a relaxation of the muscles and a popping forward of the eyes. A constantly irritable and ill-tempered or secretive and suspicious nature will develop a face that even when active will cause a feeling of repulsion, constant repetition of the same expression as a result of exercise of the emotion or mental attitude that causes the expression leaves a permanent mark on the face, whereas only the present existing emotion or attitude can be read in the face that is in motion. The sum total of the usual emotional and mental under different conditions can be read in the face while passive. The passive face to the close observer will tell of a person's mental and emotional traits that have been active in the past and are sure to again be active in the future. Revelations XIV, 9, says: "And received his mark (God's) on his (face) forehead or in his hand.

As most of us have about three hundred and ten muscles on each side of our body and one-fourth of all our muscles are in our neck and face, the human face can light up or cloud up or over because its muscles are actuated for complex action. The outer, objective mind and character of a man or woman may clothe him or her with certain tendencies, habits, expressions and mannerisms, which they may have assumed or acquired, or even affected for various reasons, and which may not be truly consistent with the inner self, the various systems of character reading, such as palmistry, physiognomy, phrenology, handwriting, etc., may be a fair index to the characteristics of the outer self, with occasional points relating to the inner self, but all of these systems fail in giving us a true picture of the inherent, deep-seated soul personality.

I mean by this that no person who professes to be a character reader can do so successfully and use only one system. This, however, does not apply to so-called fortune tellers, as this page has nothing to do with fortune telling as understood by the casual reader. Many of my friends call me a fortune teller both behind my back and in my presence. If, however, they understood my work and knew it to be a psychic analytical and scientific system of beneficial character reading, I am sure they would think twice before they would attach the age old prefix to all who happen to have a knowledge of Palmistry or cards, be it large or small, myself or anyone else.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad remembrance of the passing of George (Toady) Jackson, our friend and pal, who passed away November 26, 1933, and was laid to rest November 29, 1933.

Although you're gone, oceans of water cannot wash away our memories of you.
Mother and Friends.

After Thursday the sun of the 1934 gridiron season will set, closing one of the most successful seasons in history of football. Eight hectic weeks of upsets, thrills and unexpected brilliance completed the schedules of the local schools, with the inspired North High team emerging as city champions. In the choosing of the annual all-city high school eleven by Frank Brody of the Evening Tribune, Archie Lucas, Negro end, was one of the four Polar Bears placed on the first squad. The stellar wingman played a slashing defensive game and was adept at snagging passes on down runs or gaining ground on trick laterals. Brody said of the feet star: "Lucas is a standout for the Polar Bears and very little yardage was gained around his position."
Lawrence Redrick, colored 1933 all-state end, and all around East High athlete ace, was placed at halfback on the second team. Playing on a highly overrated team, with a tough schedule, desperately trying to live up to its reputation, Redrick was shifted from end to backfield, where he performed well as a fine tackler, hard blocker and deadly pass receiver. Lee township shared with Roosevelt and Catholic Academy in placing two on the first honor team. Lincoln placed one on the all star squad. L. T. Johnson, Negro halfback for North, was awarded a berth on the second eleven. His open field running was the feature of many Pink and Green victories. "Johnson played steady football all season and was the shiftest runner in local circles," commented the sports writer.

The teams selected by Brody are as follows: FIRST TEAM—Archie Lucas (North), E; Ted Applegate (Roosevelt), E; Allen Dillon (Roosevelt), T; Frank Coppola (North), T; Burr Hohl (East), G; Joe Hart (Catholic), G; James Ahern (North, cap.), C; Robert Keefer (Lincoln), Q; Frank Gustafson (East), H. B.; Joe Zundel (Catholic), H. B.; Charles Davey (North), F. B. SECOND TEAM—Bob Huston (Roosevelt), E; Milton Fry (East), E; Richard Locke (Lincoln), T; Harold Nelson (East), T; Wayne Sonderleiter (North), G; Walter Malone (Cath.), C; Capt. Julius Bellomo (North), Q; Max Shelton (Lincoln), C; Lawrence Redrick (East), H; L. T. Johnson (North), H; Harmon Boyd (Roosevelt), F.

Storm Forces Plane Down En Route to Santo Domingo
Port Au Prince, Haiti—Spec. to A (NP)—General excitement and a holiday atmosphere prevailed in this city and its environs Thursday afternoon, Friday, Saturday and a part of Sunday, due to the arrival, stay and departure of the American goodwill aviators, Dr. Albert E. Forsythe and C. Alfred Anderson, who reached here from Kingston, Jamaica, late Thursday afternoon, Nov., in their monoplane, Booker T. Washington.
Friday, Dr. Forsythe and Mr. Anderson were greeted at the presidential palace by President Stenio Vincent and all the members of his cabinet where conversations were held in the famous gold room. In the evening, the aviators were the guests of the United States minister, Norman Armour.
Saturday afternoon, the mayor and other officials of the city of Port au Prince greeted the flyers at the city hill and in the evening they were the guests of Haitian newspapermen at an elaborate banquet.
Friday evening, the two flyers took time off to make a radio address and to address an audience in one of the local theatres. Saturday afternoon, the birdmen gave an exhibition demonstration of flying for the benefit of President Vincent, his staff, and the populace, during which they were roundly cheered.
They were elaborately entertained at Nassau, Havana and Kingston. At Nassau, the largest crowd in the history of the island assembled to meet them and they were subjected to a continual round of entertainment from Governor Clifford, relatives of Dr. Forsythe living there and old Tuskegee friends of Dr. Forsythe who now make their home in Nassau.

COP HEAPS ABUSE UPON NEGRO CITIZEN

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 23 (Special)—Iowa, state of the tall corn, and pigs, this week comes disgracefully into the limelight because of a prejudiced chief of police of this city, who, according to a complaint of A. W. Fitz, has sought to transplant Alabama to northern soil. Mr. Fitz, who, at one time was president of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P., declared he was grossly insulted by the police Chief, George L. Bennett, and threatened with incarceration if he displayed any dislike for the abuse heaped upon him.
Mr. Fitz said he was called on the telephone by an attorney, Andy J. Neilson and asked to come to the police station for a conference regarding the arrest of one David Davis. At the station Fitz said he found out that Attorney Neilson had gone away on an errand and that when Chief Bennett appeared on the scene the official asked Fitz what his business was at the station. Bennett immediately became abusive, Fitz charged.
In part the statements said to have been made by the police official are given here. Certain words and phrases, too indecent to print have been deleted. "If you came to intercede for this nigger, you are in the same stripe as he. This (a vile name is used here) has been insulting white women. We burn niggers in Alabama for insulting white women. It's too bad we don't do it up here."
"If you came up here to try to help this (xuganafat) you're out of luck. Don't talk back to me. If you don't like what I say get the hell out of here. I'm chief of police here and I say what I damn please to niggers. If you keep talking back to me I'll throw you in where that other (word deleted) is." When Fitz asked the policeman is it the privilege of a citizen to request the consideration of any matter from a city official, Bennett is quoted as replying, "Go to hell."

BIRMINGHAM WOMAN ADMITS NEGRO RAPE STORY WAS LIE
Girlington, Ala., Nov. 23.—Good police work by skeptical officers has scotched another one of those "A Negro raped me" stories. Mrs. Mabel Roy, 18 year old white woman, who told police two weeks ago that she was hit over the head by a Negro intruder who held her captive for four hours, admitted last week, after prolonged police questioning, that no Negro had done her wrong.
She "went on a party," she told the officers, and "didn't remember who hit her on the head." When she sobered up, she explained, she placed her clothes under her pillow and then notified the police that she had been attacked by a Negro intruder.

TIBBETT SAYS ST. LOUIS BLUES IS A "CLASSIC"
New York, Nov. 23.—Lawrence Tibbett sang "St. Louis Blues" on the Packard program via the NBC network recently and explained to his radio audience that Duke Ellington played the number before an audience of serious music lovers at the Salle Pleyel in Paris and that they loved it.
"I personally believe the 'St. Louis Blues' belongs to the school of thorough American music," he said. Mr. Tibbett previously has placed many Ellington compositions, such as "Mood Indigo" and "Black and Tan Fantasy," in the same category.

APPEALS TO U. S. SUPREME COURT PROCEED
New York, N. R., (LD)—A stay of the date of execution for Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris; Scottsboro boys, to February 8, 1935, was granted by the Alabama supreme court Friday upon application made by Osmond K. Fraenkel, attorney in charge of the appeals to the U. S. supreme court, retained by the International Labor Defense. The application was made to give the U. S. supreme court the opportunity to pass upon the application for review of the cases.
Within a few days application for a writ of certiorari in these cases will be filed with the U. S. supreme court, together with the accompanying briefs, by Mr. Fraenkel. These papers have been prepared with the assistance of Mr. Walter H. Pollak, noted constitutional attorney, who has been retained with Mr. Fraenkel in those cases by the International Labor Defense.
At the same time that this announcement was made, the International Labor Defense made public new retainers obtained from Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris to refute the statements made by Attorney Samuel S. Leibowitz that he is in charge of the cases. Mr. Leibowitz has not been connected with the Scottsboro defense since October 4th, when he withdrew when notified that Fraenkel and Pollak, constitutional attorneys, had been retained by the I. L. D. to take the appeals to the U. S. supreme court.

party stepped upon the platform erected on the Elk university campus near historic Jubilee hall Saturday, November 17. The student bodies of Fisk, Meharry and Tennessee State A. and I College turned out en masse to greet the president who remained in their midst for 15 minutes listening to spirituals sung by the Fisk university choir.

After the presentation of Presidents Jones of Fisk, W. J. Hale of State college, and Malloway of Meharry to the President by S. L. Smith of the Rosenwald fund, and many flowers to Mrs. Roosevelt the Fisk singers, resplendent in their vestments, began their rendition of spirituals and a number from Palestine. Immediately followed a spiritual by the entire State college student body. As the Negro national anthem resounded to the skies from the throats of thousands, the Presidential party found its way back out of the campus on its way to the station to close the President's visit to Nashville.

POWERFUL FORCE TO BE HURLED AGAINST U. S. MOB MURDERS

Chicago.—According to a letter sent by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, to A. Philip Randolph, national president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, the A. F. of L., one of the most powerful organizations in America, is throwing its whole weight back at the Costigan-Wagner Federal Anti-Lynch Bill in order to secure its passage through the coming 74th Congress.
"This is the first time that the white workers and black workers in America have joined hands to fight the national evil and disgrace of mob and lynch law," said Mr. Randolph. "Since white workers under the spell and vicious passion of race hate are usually whipped into a frenzy by an Anti-Negro press, church and other pagandistic agencies, to lynch Negroes, the most fundamental step which can be made to abolish lynching in America is to unite the black and white workers against this social menace."

PAN AMERICAN FLYERS ARE GIVEN OVATION

Crackup Makes More Money Needed for Repairs to Plane FLYERS FETED

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — (By Mary J. Washington for ANP)—Swooping down in what is described as the most magnificent landing ever witnessed in Nassau, B. W. I., Dr. Albert E. Forsythe of Atlantic City and C. Alfred Anderson of Bryn Mawr flew straight into the hearts of Bahamians when they completed their first water jump in the history of the Pan-American Goodwill Flight Monday evening, November 12. Never in the history of international Nassau, according to the Nassau Daily Tribune had such tension gripped a crowd on that island. Despite the efforts of police, and the fact that Dr. Forsythe had taken to the air to avoid injury to members of the crowd in his initial attempt to land, when the plane was finally grounded the citizens broke the protecting line, shoved the Governor's representative, the U. S. Consul and the official committee and crowded the planes to give the fliers a demonstration of real Bahamian hospitality.

Among those who greeted the aviators were, Hon. John P. Hurley, U. S. Consul, Hon. Charles Bethel, I. S. O., Hon. H. R. Moore, M. E. C., and Hon. C. O. Anderson, M. L. C. After a forced landing in a remote section of South Carolina, Forsythe and Anderson proceeded to Miami where they cut short their stay in order that they might keep faith with the people of Nassau, who from the beginning of the flight arrangements, have been most eager to lend their support. Pan-American Airways officials were so loathe to have them undertake the hop late in the day that they offered to keep their airport in Miami lighted all night and to send out searching planes immediately if they did not hear of a safe landing within a reasonable time. His Excellency, Sir Pede Hugh Clifford, Governor of the island, personally informed the Air Company of the safe arrival of the fliers. Both he and the Hon. Lady Clifford were deeply interested in the plans outlined by the men and showed them every possible courtesy.

Met Forsythe's Dad
The overnight stay here, marked by virtually an all-night round of affairs in honor of the guests, which included the rather serious business of presenting a handsome parchment scroll to the Governor from the sponsor of the flight, the presentation of an autographed photograph of Atlantic City from the genial Mayor Harry Bacharach, a letter from the President of the United States and other documents showing that the aviators bear the goodwill and commendation of the outstanding people of our country.

Leaving Nassau, they set out for Havana where they were received by Colonel Batista who provided every courtesy and military protection for them and facilitated arrangements for their aerial entry to Santiago, their next stop. A few hours later they were circling the air field at Port Antonio, Jamaica, the home of Dr. Forsythe's father, en route to Kingston, the next scheduled stop. Here they were met by high officials and members of the Forsythe family. In Kingston they were received at Government House by His Excellency Sir Edward Denham and Lady Denham. The audience with the Governor lasted about an hour during which time His Excellency is said to have asked many questions relative to the extensive flight program. Receptions marked the high spots of the festivities on the island of Jamaica.

H. A. Forsythe father of Dr. Forsythe is an outstanding citizen of Port Antonio. He is well known throughout the island as a civil engineer, architect and builder. A brother, Roger Forsythe has just returned to the island after several years in the States. He is a chemist and is entering the manufacturing business. A younger brother, Lorenzo, is one of the youngest pilots on the island. Newspapers devoted a great deal of space to the visit of the distinguished guests, long columns and several pictures appearing in the Kingston Observer and

The Nassau Daily Tribune. The former, in an editorial says, "There is no reason why the American Negro should not do this, although it is possible that he may be beaten in point of time by the Brazilian Negro. Brazil was one of the pioneer countries in aviation and the Brazilians are understood to be greatly 'air-minded.' The preceding sentence is, in part, later on we may hear of other (Negro aviators) who will attempt one of those daring and death-defying flights which are the wonder of the world today and will rank in the record of all endeavors to conquer the air."

Plane Cracks Up
The flight proceeded successfully to Haiti but on Sunday, November 18, enroute from Port au Prince to Santo Domingo, Republic of Dominica, the landing birdmen made a forced landing in the province of Parahoua, damaging the plane to the extent that they cannot proceed until repairs are made. A radio message received in Atlantic City about 6:30 on Sunday evening announced that they were several hours overdue in Santo Domingo and that Government planes sent out to look for them had been forced back by bad weather. Carrying no radio, the Booker T. Washington is out of contact with the rest of the world when in the air. The men have no parachutes. Their faith being staked on Navy life preservers. As soon as repairs can be made they will proceed to San Juan, Porto Rico. Mail will reach the fliers at No. 6 Water Street, Georgetown, British Guiana, care of Mr. Collins.

Great relief was felt here in all quarters when the Associated Press announced the forced landing with slight damage to the plane. Slight damage, however meant that the men must wait for parts to be sent from this country at an initial expense of one hundred and fifty dollars to say nothing of the cost of the plane.

transportation, installation, customs etc. It is believed that the motor to the ship is intact. Emergencies of this nature explain the great need for funds which many people have been slow to understand. These men are making an epoch-making flight in a small plane, poorly equipped to prove that our race can and will dare and do if given half a chance. The public will never know all that has gone into this flight in the way of human sacrifice from those who believe in the program—the hours of map-making, chart construction, writing, activities apart from the flight itself, that would aggregate more than fifteen hundred dollars. If the sponsors had been in position to pay for these indispensable services...

Many persons and organizations have signified their intention to give to the project after the men were off. It is hoped that they will be quick to realize that there is no better time than now.

MENTAL PROBLEMS

Solved by PROFESSOR ALBERT
Ask Questions Within the Scope of Logical Reasoning for no supernatural Powers Are Claimed.

S. G.—Will I have any good luck soon?
Ans.—If finding a job is good luck, you will. It shouldn't be a bit of trouble for you to land a job. This month so—BEGIN HUSTLING.

P. W.—Has my brother been duped and will he pull through?
Ans.—What your brother needs is a rest and plenty of it. I can only diagnose this case just as your doctor will—A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN. I predict no serious trouble and urge your brother to follow the doctor's instructions to the "T". Your brother will be over this in no time.

X. X.—Will I receive a letter soon?
Ans.—The postman will deliver a letter to you from a party bearing the initials of B. T.—but not soon. It's a little too close to Christmas for this young man to get serious for he has no intention of spending any of his Xmas money on you. I see you together again but not until NEXT SUMMER.

C. C.—Was all this true that was told to me about my husband?
Ans.—In every community there lives a person who is more interested in other people's business than their own. Such a person carried this tale concerning your husband to you last summer. I would advise you to take this story with a grain of salt. I connect many truths with the truth.

A. M. C.—I want to know when my husband will get his pay?
Ans.—It is my opinion that your husband will get his GOVERNMENT MONEY either this month or next. I see you receiving a sum of money that will come in mighty handy around Christmas time.

C. B.—Please tell me why my hair doesn't grow and what shall I use on it?
Ans.—If you will read the advertisement in this paper you will find an advertised an excellent remedy for this condition. You can not neglect your hair or scalp like some people, for if you do you can never hope to have long, beautiful, luxurious hair.

A. M. P.—Will I be able to dress well next summer and be as attractive and popular as the rest of the girls?
Ans.—You bet—just such popularity checks money. If you expect to dress well next summer, you must FIRST YOURSELF A JOB. My crystal reveals happy times for you in 1935.

A. B.—The man I am going with is very sweet and kind to me. Does the future say how long I will be going with him?
Ans.—Better than that, the stars reveal you as this man's HAPPY BRIDE. Your happy romance with this man will be crowned with a HAPPY MARRIAGE.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS WON'T PLAY FAIR

The Bystander has opposed the city manager plan of government and the delegation by legislative bodies the work of hiring their employees. It has done so because the system places responsibility too far from the people; makes the boards autocratic and far less amenable to the will of the electorate.

Recently the city council created a safety council which has worked out a system of automobile inspection. A building was erected, equipment installed and the help hired.

Mindful that it requires careful work to secure representation in the employment in such cases, a group of Negroes contacted the members and had a competent Negro mechanic make application. However, in spite of the fact that the commission assured them that they would be fair because the Negroes' contention was fair, when the list was published, one Negro—a porter—was hired. This same experience was had with the Iowa Liquor Control Commission.

The Bystander feels that it is expressing the sentiment of the Negroes in Des Moines when it makes a vigorous protest to Mayor Lewis, Commissioner Bane and the safety council. They have failed the Negro miserably in this instance.

Porter and janitor jobs are alright as far as they go but it is unjust and unfair to saddle all of them on the Negro group without allowing any more.

Of course the fundamental mistake was made when the council did not appoint a Negro member of this board. The Bystander was suspicious from the beginning because experience has taught that when most of these boards and commissions get behind closed doors they leave the Negro out of the picture or give him the crumbs from the table and nobody even knows how the job is done.

The Bystander understands that five more mechanics may be hired later. If this commission has any courage and fairness at all, they ought to recognize Negroes in other means than by the mop and broom.

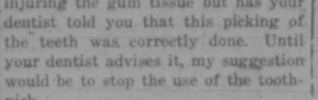

IOWA DELEGATION ON ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

Congress will convene early in January and one of the first pieces of legislation introduced will be an anti-lynching bill. During the last session the Des Moines branch of the N. A. A. C. P. interviewed the Iowa delegation in Congress with regards to their attitude on the question. Senator Dickinson wrote that he would vote for the bill; Senator Murphy was non-committal, preferring to duck the question by asking another. Three representatives favored the bill while six gave evasive answers.

Dental Health Education Hints

THE TOOTHPICK AND THE TEETH

The ever presence of the toothpick in the house and in the restaurant makes us believe that it is to be used after each meal. The using of this apparently harmless looking piece of material is the forerunner of numerous mouth diseases and pains. Of course, you say that you use the toothpick properly thus not injuring the gum tissue but has your dentist told you that this picking of the teeth was correctly done. Until your dentist advises it, my suggestion would be to stop the use of the toothpick.

For some reason one appears to enjoy the forcing of the toothpick between the teeth because the sensation produced seems to hurt is good. And it is truly hurting the gums because they are pushed away from the neck of the roots of the teeth leaving a deep pocket, where more food can lodge, thereby causing pain and pus. This ache is produced when pressure is applied to the teeth and often at other times for no apparent reason. The pocket present always leads to easy decay and there cavities get quite large before they are noticed. Then, too, some like to wedge the toothpick between the teeth and around the roots not realizing that the pleasant feeling produced will soon turn into an unpleasant toothache. Again I say clean your teeth with the toothbrush and mouth washes only unless instructed otherwise by your dentist.

Questions and Answers

Dear Dr. Dean:
An article of yours a couple of months ago said not to use hot water bottles on the face but I got the pain stopped by that and only a swelling resulted. Why should I have used cold towels when they felt painful when I first tried to use them.

Answer:—The use of ice bag or cold towels would have prevented the swelling and relieved the pain if applied long enough. At first the applications may have increased the pain slightly but that would have stopped. Cold is preferred to hot because the heat causes the swelling by expanding the gas and pus present also infection grows faster in warm tissue.

Word has been received by the press of the apparent "lynching" of Marcus Lewis, 24, former Des Moines boy, in the county jail at St. Joseph, Mich., early in November. Reports of Lewis committing suicide, which came to local authorities, are unfounded, according to a telegram received here Monday from Rev. E. B. Williams, pastor of the A. M. E. church at Benton Harbor, Mich. Lewis, who attended Warren Harding Junior and North High schools in Des Moines, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, and a brother, Harold, all of 1123 First street, here.

The wire was addressed to A. P. Trotter, president of the local branch N. A. A. C. P., in an appeal for local authorities to investigate the affair. The details of the alleged murder could not be obtained. However, it was reported by friends that the body of Lewis was cut, torn and mutilated almost beyond recognition. Mr. Lewis, the boy's father, is desirous of pressing a thorough probe of the "jail lynching." The reason of his incarceration is unknown.

The telegram was received as follows:
Des Moines, Iowa—Marcus Lewis, 24 years old Race boy, apparently lynched in county jail here—stop—investigation in process—stop—Possessed two medals, one bearing inscription Drake Relays first prize Des Moines Junior high shuttle relay 1929; other Drake Relays third prize Des Moines Junior high 440 yard relay 1930—stop—Has police record there. Inquire Sheriff Keeling—stop—Must locate his relatives immediately. Please find out and answer.

Next year the same senators represent Iowa; Rep. Dowell, who favored the bill was replaced by Judge Utterback who favors the bill. Gillette and Gilchrist favor the bill; Otha D. Wearin, Lloyd Thurston, Edward E. Eicher, Jacobson, Bierman and Welford are in doubt; Gwyner, the new representative from the third district has not been contacted but since he has been active in the Waterloo branch of the N. A. A. C. P. it is reasonable to count him in fa-

HEART DISEASE

Hearts may be affected at all ages from the time of birth to any age in life. Before birth there may be a defect in any portion of the heart which may be observed at the time of birth. If the defect is not too widespread and does not take in too much of the heart substance it is quite probable that the child may overcome it or that in growth and development the heart may attain a normalcy in time. In cases of congenital heart disease the heart must be watched and treatment directed toward the defect present with the idea of restoring it to perfect function. A heart lesion may be more serious at birth than the symptoms indicate so that a mother who has a child with a heart lesion must take the Doctor's advice to the letter and not omit any detail of the instructions given in the whole treatment routine, and above all do not stop the treatment too soon before there has been time for anatomical repair.

In grown-ups—a heart lesion once discovered, ought to be observed periodically to determine if it is improving, remaining stationary or becoming any worse. If remaining stationary it is quite probable that something may be done to aid the function of the heart. If it is becoming worse it is almost always possible by treatment and rest to improve its function. If it is improving then the patient will know that the course he is taking is the one to continue.

White Man Reveals Most Ghastly Details in All History of Lynching; Bestiality Unbelievable

New York, Nov. 23.—Unbelievable, ghastly, grisly, nauseating bestiality, probably unequalled in all the history of lynching, accompanied the murder of Claude Neal by a mob at Marianna, Fla., on October 26th, it was revealed today by a report in the hands of the N. A. A. C. P. An alleged secret interracial romance between the victim of the mob and Lola Cannidy, the white girl he is accused of murdering, also stands revealed as the direct cause of the lynching.

Determined to secure the "name" of the Marianna affair, the N. A. A. C. P. employed a young southern white man who is "right" on the race question to go to Marianna and make an investigation before the situation cooled down. The N. A. A. C. P. is appealing for funds to print his entire report, a document of 5,000 words, so that it can be distributed to aid in the fight against lynching.
