DICKERSON RETIRES AS BRIGADIER-GENERAL

Is Highest Negro Officer in Army

Chicago.—(ANP)—Retired with the rank of brigadier general, Spencer C. Dickerson, until December 1st colonel of the Eighth Illinois national guard regiment, holds the highest designation of any Negro officer in America. Relinquishing his post because he had reached the age limit, General Dickerson was succeeded by Lt. Col. Lewis E. Johnson, who will serve as acting commander until a new colonel is selected.

The retired officer took command of the famous Eighth regiment, following the removal of Col. Otis B. Duncan a few years ago. Brigadier General Dickerson joined the army in 1914, serving as a private in the medical detachment.

Born 1870
During the same year, 1870, that the Eighth regiment was first organized as the "Chicago Cadets," General Dickerson was born in Austin, Texas. His history shows him becoming a first lieutenant just before the regiment was sent to the Mexican border back in 1916.

Lieut. Dickerson's medical ability, while at the border, attracted favorable attention of every officer in the regiment and when the World War broke out, Lieut. Dickerson performed many capable feats both in medicine and in combat in the service of his country. He was discharged with the rank of captain in February, 1919.

Returns in 1920
Lure of soldiery worked its spell on the officer and in 1920, when the Eighth regiment was mustered into services as an attached Illinois national guard unit, Captain Dickerson joined the service again and again entered the medical detachments. He was promoted to the rank of major and placed in command of all the medical activities of the unit in 1927. He was again promoted in 1929, this time to the rank of colonel, the highest post obtainable in the regiment.

General Dickerson made an enviable reputation as head of the famous fighting unit. He instituted improvements and innovations which brought the regiment to the fore in competition with other units in the state. Under him three officers were sent to the Fort Benning (Ga.) training school, from whence they were all graduated with high honors.

Neal Women Not to be Returned to Marianna, Orders Governor Scholtz

No Charges Against Them—Being Held Because of Mob Fear

New York, Dec. 12.—In response to a telegram from the N. A. A. C. P., urging that the mother and aunt of Claude Neal be not returned to Marianna from Pensacola for trial in connection with the crime for which he was tortured and lynched on October 26th, the following message was received Friday from Governor David Scholtz of Florida:

"Regarding your telegram of the Fifth States Attorney John H. Carter, Jr., Marianna advises me that there are no charges against Annie Smith and Sallie Smith and accordingly they have no intention of bringing them back to Marianna. He advises also that to avoid any possible danger these women are being held in Pensacola temporarily, with their own consent, having no other means of support."

Negro Grid Stars Honored on North's All-State Football Team

Flowers of Waterloo on First Squad—Lucas Wins Third Award

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

William Flowers, sensational 185 pound Negro end, of East Waterloo, was named on the Des Moines Tribune all-state high school football team of 1934, selected by Jack North, sports writer. His work as outstanding lineman won him honors for two years. The versatile-colored star played end offensively and defensive tackle, establishing a record of blocking twenty punts in one season. Sometimes playing in the backfield because of his speed and drive, he was a good ground gainer, being used on several ends' round plays. "He is a fine blocker and great defensive player," said North, in his praise for the Negro athlete. Flowers was seen here when East Waterloo played Roosevelt High at the Western League ball park in a sea of mud, suffering their only setback, 6-0.

Lawrence Redrick, 1933 all-state end of East Des Moines, said by North to be one of the finest wingmen developed in the state in recent years, who wound up his grid career as halfback for the Scarlet and Black institution, is a great player, but was unable to secure all-state rating. Archie Lucas, 1934 all-city end of North Des Moines, was awarded third team honors. Fast, rugged and good pass receiver, the Negro star helped his school to win city championship in an upset battle. Leroy Baker of Clarinda, 165 pound colored halfback, was placed on third team. Last season his playing was spectacular, but was handicapped by injuries suffered early this year. "Baker is a fine player, fast, shifty, great ball carrier and a bear for taking passes," was North's comment.

Henry Jones, 175 pound halfback, of Eldora Training school, fifth honor rating, thrilled spectators with his 50 and 90 yards returns of punts for touchdowns. Left foot-kicker and left hand passer, Jones often outran his interference to score. He is a fierce and hard tackler. L. T. Johnson, halfback of North Des Moines, also received honorable mention as a fine performer. No doubt many other Negro players from the smaller schools would have been worthy of all-state awards had they been able to meet top-notch teams, thus gaining attention of leading sports writers, coaches and officials.

Allen Ashby, sports writer, will tell each week of the happenings of Negro athletes in the basketball world.

WHOLESALE WHIPPINGS IN FLORIDA. LETTERS REPORT

New York, Dec. 7.—Communications from Florida received by the N. A. A. C. P. reveal that mob terror and police brutality is rife in that state, following upon the unspeakable torture slaying of Claude Neal at Marianna on October 26th.

SHERIFF OTTO THEISEN, WHO GAVE PRISONER TO ST. JOSEPH MOB, DIES

St. Joseph, Mo.—Little more than a year after a mob stormed the Buchanan county jail here with tear gas, bricks and battering rams, and lynched Lloyd Warner on November 28, 1933, Sheriff Otto Theisen, who surrendered the Negro prisoner, is dead.

He succumbed Wednesday, December 5th, to the ravages of tear gas. Following the lynching of Warner, editorials from all over the nation bitterly assailed and criticized Theisen for his failure to protect his prisoner against the lynch-bent mob.

SIMMONS RECEIVES ALL-AMERICAN RATING

Skanes Now With Best Dry Cleaners

Paris Skanes, formerly of the Dyer Home Laundry, is now associated with the Best Laundry, at 1217 High street. The company recently installed a $6,000 dry cleaner plant.

Odorless dry cleaning, laundry and wet wash are the Best features, Mr. Skanes said. Orders are called for and delivered with prompt service. A PLEA TO "USE IOWA COAL" The Iowa Miner is conducting a campaign to "Burn Iowa Coal," stating that Iowa coal can meet all your fuel requirements, whether for domestic or power purposes. Properly prepared Iowa coal will render the service required and result in a saving to the consumer.

Many Iowa coal miners and their families suffer directly owing to disloyalty practiced against Iowa coal. A three ton load represents one day's work for the average Iowa miner and he needs every day's work he possibly can secure if he is going to provide for those dependent upon him.

As winter advances many will be found wholly unprepared to meet its requirements; sickness will increase on account of improper heating facilities and lack of fuel, just as much as improper food or lack of food. These additional burdens to our local and state relief organizations can be met by increasing the use of Iowa coal, which will have a two-fold effect. The Iowa miner will secure much needed work and at the same time the needy will have their fuel needs supplied.

Morris Attacks Auto Test Board

Charging that the Des Moines Traffic Control Commission had failed to give Negroes due consideration in the employment of its personnel at the testing stations, Attorney James B. Morris appeared before the city council Dec. 6 and 10, in support of the effort made to abolish the committee and place the work directly under the city council.

Quoting from an editorial appearing in the Bystander Nov. 30, Atty. Morris said that experience had shown that most commissions and boards locked behind closed doors awarded Negroes nothing better than janitor and porter jobs. He called attention to the fact that Negro applicants who qualified as mechanics and in the other rules set up by the committee, did not get a look at such places.

J. C. Lewis, president of the Iowa Federation of Labor, also spoke in behalf of abolishing the board because it had been unfair to labor; quoting the editorial in the Bystander in support of his position boards and commissions: "No final decision has been reached as to the future of the project."

BAR WALTER WHITE AND ELMER CARTER FROM HOTEL AT NEW DEAL CONFERENCE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 14.—After a two-day conference on civil liberties under the New Deal, the American Civil Liberties Union adjourned last Sunday night after condemning a Washington hotel for refusing to house two colored delegates. It was transferred there after it was brought to the attention of the convention that the Arlington hotel had refused accommodations to Walter White, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., and Elmer Carter, editor of Opportunity Magazine.

Roger Baldwin, director of the Civil Liberties Union, said the action of the hotel was a violation of an early agreement. The conference condemned the practice of discrimination in Washington hotels. The conference endorsed the Wagner-Costigan anti-lynching bill, urging amendments to make lynching a federal offense in the case when a victim is taken from state officers and to fix the penalty at from twenty years to death.

Sixty NAACP Members Arrested As They Picket National Crime Conference

LYNCHING EVIL OMITTED FROM WASHINGTON PARLEY

Washington, D. C.—Inspired by the attack upon lynching by President Roosevelt in his nationwide radio address Monday night, sixty members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, bearing signs reading, "Follow the President, Outlaw Lynching," "Gangsters Get Years, Lynchers Get Cheers," and "Crime Conference Should Consider Lynching," appeared before the Constitutional hall Tuesday, where the crime conference called by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings was in session.

A small group of pickets were arrested Thursday as they were protesting the omission of lynching from the program of discussion by the conference. Ignoring two strong letters urging him to include lynching as a crime against society, Attorney Cummings did not choose to study more fully which has swept America. National peace officers are meeting this week to combat other "criminal elements."

CITIZENS PROTEST LIQUOR STORE

The following letter was received by the press this week: "The citizenship committee of mothers and daughters are circulating a pledge throughout the state of Iowa, opposing the opening of liquor stores in any community where the majority of citizens object to such an establishment.

"It is through this medium the representatives and senators learn the views of the people. Therefore every voter is asked to read, consider and sign one of these pledges. If some one does not call on you soon, get in touch with your minister, or P. T. A. president and ask for the privilege of signing this pledge."

Christmas Spirit

"In the spirit of Christmas good will, we pledge ourselves not only to this belief, but to the practice of it in our every day life. And we call upon all who believe in brotherhood and in Americanism to a like expression of their faith.

"The practice of brotherhood means equality of economic opportunity to people of the minority races; it means judging them not by race or color, but by individual merit; it means according to them equal rights in restaurants, hotels, theaters, schools and all public places.

Friendliness
"It means not only charity—but justice in every field of human relations; it means appreciation of and friendliness toward all our fellow citizens, of whatever race or creed or color they may be."

Goodwill Flyers Continue Journey
VIRGIN ISLANDS WAIT TO GREET DR. FORSYTHE AND ANDERSON

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.—(ANP)—Dr. Albert C. Forsythe and Captain Frank Felix of the Dominican aviation corps flew to Barrahona with the new engine parts which had been shipped from the United States. Repairs and replacements were made to the plane Friday.

Fortunately for the goodwill airman, the water was favorable. This is the rainy season and had the rains been falling, the birdmen may have been delayed several days longer. A great crowd met them when they descended near this city.

On the day of their enforced idleness the two aviators visited a Dominican fort, where they were received by Brigadier General Arthur Fiallo, chief of staff of the Dominican army, and other staff officers. Sunday, after the plane had been checked, the two flyers were scheduled to leave for San Juan, Porto Rico.

SPEND MEMPHIS OFFICER FOR HITTING NEGRO

TERRY GIVEN SENTENCE ON PLEA

Claims Fuss Started Over Price of Half Pint of Liquor

VICTIM IS DEAD

TAMPA, Fla.—Richard Terry, who was arrested early Sunday morning, June 15th, a few minutes after he had alleged, by slaying W. Robbins in an argument over the price of a half pint of whiskey, pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter before Judge Peterway of the Criminal court, Monday, Dec. 22nd and was given the comparatively light sentence of four years for his crime.

According to the story told police by Terry at the time of his arrest, he was sitting on the corner of Buffalo avenue and 29th street about 3:00 A. M. on the day of the killing, when he was approached by Clifford Murry and another man who inquired whether Terry wanted a drink. Murry suggested that the three go to the home of Robbins and purchase the whiskey. Terry's story continued to the effect that the men went to the home of Robbins, in spite of the fact that the three had only ten cents between them.

It is alleged that the men obtained the whiskey and drank it. When Robbins demanded his money, the trio told him that they had none. An argument began when they offered Robbins a nickel with the understanding that the would pay him later.

Terry and Robbins came to blows about the affair, and, during the fight, Terry is alleged to have drawn a knife and to have stabbed Robbins. Robbins died about fifteen minutes after he had been rushed to the Tampa Negro hospital for treatment.

TEETH and HEALTH

WHAT FOODS DO FOR TEETH

It is important for your child to brush his teeth to keep them clean and free from decay. But, it is even more important for him to eat the right foods. This is especially true before the teeth have come through the gums, because that is when the teeth are being built.

The teeth, like other parts of the body, are made from the food we eat. To build strong, healthy teeth that can resist and fight decay, the child must eat the right food—some to help strong teeth, others to help passing the gums and clean the teeth.

These Foods Build Strong Teeth. Foods that help to build strong, hard teeth contain lime (calcium, phosphorus) and that substance, vitamin D. The vitamin D enables the body to take up the lime and phosphorus in the diet and to deposit them in the teeth and bones.

The foods that supply vitamin "D" in large amounts are cod-liver oil and similar preparations. Children should also receive plenty of sunshine because the ultra-violet rays of sunshine, falling on the skin, form vitamin D in the body. The smoke and heat of the city streets, out the windows, ordinary window glass does, too. So when giving the child a sun-bath, remove as much of the clothing as possible.

Foods Rich In Lime. The foods which supply the largest amounts of lime are milk and some of its products. Cereals, eggs, vegetables, and fruits also contain some lime.

It is almost impossible to plan a satisfactory diet that contains enough lime without including milk. Milk is the greatest known source of this mineral which helps to build strong teeth and bones. See that your child has a quart of milk a day. The smoke and heat of the city streets, out the windows, ordinary window glass does, too. So when giving the child a sun-bath, remove as much of the clothing as possible.

Tangier a Mecca for Gamblers?

Tangier street scene.

Dying a slow, economic death without commerce, industry or resources to keep it alive other than its potential tourist trade, the international city of Tangier, Morocco, may be transformed into a mecca for gamblers to rival Monte-Carlo. In a recent vote of representatives of nations controlling the former German-controlled city, all favored the gambling question except Spain. An unanimous vote by the committee of control is needed to legalize gambling.

Nathan, of Atlanta university, who spent several months in Europe studying at the university of Moscow this summer, gave such an interesting discussion on "Russia in Retrospect" before the Young Peoples Forum at the St. Paul Episcopal Church, Sunday evening, that he was asked to repeat his lecture before a larger group some time in the near future.

SUSPENDED FOR ATTACK ON NEGRO

Commissioner Davis Expected to Make Final Ruling BEFORE BOARD

LATE FLASHES!

W. I. Poore, patrolman for 14 years, was discharged yesterday by Commissioner Davis after a trial board had found him guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Patrolman W. I. Poore, charged with attacking a Negro last week and not following up with an arrest, remained on the suspended list, Wednesday. Commissioner Cliff Davis who was scheduled to make an official ruling Monday had not taken part in the matter up to Wednesday night.

Following the terrific beating Young received at the hands of Patrolman Poore, the Negro reported the affair to Chief Lee. Poore was given a hearing before an examining board composed of Capt. Clegg, Richards, Cpt. J. P. Cross and Sgt. Ernest Wattam. The patrolman was indefinitely suspended and will remain so until Commissioner Cliff Davis makes a further ruling.

According to reports both Robert Young and the colored hobo were standing in the Grand Central station near the Negro exit doors. The patrolman and his associate questioned the two men during an early morning hour. Later they returned and began beating the two colored men.

Robert Young was kicked on all parts of his body and was stomped on his head by Patrolman Poore. The hobo escaped shortly after the patrolman made his vicious attack.

Poore told the police examining board that he hit at the Negro, but missed him. He also claimed that Robert Young ran into a post while running from him.

"He was loitering in the station and I ordered him away," Poore added. "I had been told that he had hit an older Negro," the policeman continued.

From reliable sources it was learned that Robert Young slapped a colored man several weeks ago and that the patrolman had been asked to give Young good beating whenever he had the chance.

Japan Army Grows in Strength

At Manchurian campaign.

Japan's attempts to end treaties restricting her naval strength are in contrast to her growing army, which has found no need to ask permission for expansion. In Japan, the army has long been the backbone of the feudalistic mode of living, which was changed only partly by westernization of the island empire. A Nipponese schoolboy receives military training virtually from the cradle, and throughout his life vows fanatic loyalty to the mikado. The Nippon army training is the most strenuous in the world, and hundreds have perished through sheer exhaustion during peaceful maneuvers.

Rt. Rev. Petersen is the Only Negro Bishop in the American Catholic Church. This column is non-sectarian, and will be devoted to a discussion of Topics that affect or may affect the Spiritual Life of anyone.

Let us allow that every man born in this world is endowed with what we call character; we allow this simply because it is fair to him in the sense that he is not to be tested according to the feeble standards set up by men as a criterion. This thing called character, is a Greek word and means a stamp on coins, seals etc. It is the Hall Mark of one's dealings and relationship to "created things. There are several standards of character, the civilization of the East has its own, as well as that of the West, but both are based fundamentally upon true human behaviorism. Sometimes the more civilized races look upon the less civilized as destructive to the fundamentals of character. These criticisms are sometimes unfair because the character of a race or a people is shaped after customs, and habits formed over centuries of cultural experiments. Let us in this essay examine our study to the accepted formula of character. Character is the greatest possession we have; it is far beyond reputation, position, or fame; we seek to protect it even in the face of great obstacles sometimes bordering on death. Character is one's Pass

NAPIER RECEIVES LETTER FROM WHITE HOUSE

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The accompanying letter was received by Mr. J. C. Napier on the 27th instant. While it shows great appreciation on the part of President Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt of the great reception tendered them by Fisk University, Meharry Medical College, State Agricultural and Industrial College and the citizens of Nashville on Saturday, November 17th, Mr. Napier wishes to state that the flowers mentioned were presented by Patricia Johnson and Gwendolyn Hale. He simply stood near and helped these children to the running board of the car when they handed the flowers to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

(COPY)
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
November 22, 1934

My dear Mr. Napier: The President and Mrs. Roosevelt have asked me to convey their sincere thanks to you for the beautiful flowers which you presented to them recently at Nashville on behalf of Fisk University, Meharry Medical College and the State Agricultural and Industrial Normal School. They warmly appreciate this token of esteem, and want you and all concerned to know that they are very grateful for the friendly spirit which prompted this thought of them.

Very sincerely yours, lived at home with his parents. The wedding anniversary of his parents was announced and many guests were invited. That evening as the concourse of guests began to file in the whispering began as to whether W. would have the effrontery to be present. The question had no sooner been asked than the tall slim figure of W. appeared descending the stairway, dressed fully, and ready to prostitute society with his association. Immediately the guests began making excuses and left the reception. The host realized that the society had then and there, decided that the character of W. was unfit for the actor of W. Men can usually tell by the sort of reception they get from society whether their characters are good or bad. The greatest judge of character on earth, is society. King Carol is by no means a man lacking in earthly goods; honour is showered on him every minute of his life. He exercises rule over millions of people; his influence is great and far-reaching, yet King George of England refused even in the face of much pleading by his mother, Queen Marie to permit him to attend the wedding of the Duke of Kent last week. It was the cold unalterable decision of King Carol that the character of King Carol of Rumania was unfit for association with the royal guests. We can sometimes tell the kind of character that a boy or girl might have when he or she comes to maturity by their conduct while at school. Make a visit to our local high school and observe the conduct of each child of fourteen years of age and over. In particular, notice general conduct, and make your decision as to the kind of character the human family will have in the next fifty years. This visit might demonstrate that high motives of pride, and fundamental customs of provocation and tried standards have been relegated to the scrap heap. Far be it from us to condemn all the youth of today, but father away should be the idea of winking our eyes to the many violation of character standards by our rising generation. The thief who is proven as such, deplores being called a thief; the woman who plies her common and indecent trade, becomes exasperated if she is called a prostitute.

FIRST QUARTER HELD AT BETHEL

ALBANY, Ga.—(Special)—The first quarterly conference held at the Bethel A. M. E. church of this city was a great success. Dr. F. M. Johnson exhibited great skill as an executive and presiding elder as he presided with the dignity of a king. After reciting some of his old experiences as a local preacher at Bethel, pastor at Bethel, and then as presiding elder of the section in which Bethel is located, he delivered two soul-stirring sermons that will long be remembered. Dr. Allen R. Cooper, Bethel's new orator, preacher, writer and pastor, paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Johnson, saying "The Great A. M. E. church will become greater if the General Conference will elect men like Dr. Johnson, who emphasize soul-saving more than dollar-getting."

Prompt Relief From Itching Eczema

It's wonderful the way soothing, cooling Zemo brings prompt relief to itching, burning skin, even in severe cases. Itching stops the moment Zemo touches the tender and inflamed skin because of its rare ingredients. To clear away Rashes, Eruptions, Eczema, Ringworm and restore the skin to normal, always use clean, soothing Zemo. Insist on genuine Zemo; it's worth the price, because it brings relief. 35c, 50c and $1. All druggists.

Birmingham, Ala.—(CNA)—The homes of three Negroes in North Birmingham were invaded, and two women were stripped and lashed, late on the night of Nov. 24, by hooded Klansmen and police. In these raids, the police openly joined hands with the Klan in a new reign of terror. The three workers are Dolphus Frazier, John Simmons, a man of sixty and F. Byers. At 7:30 on the evening of the 24th, three police thugs in uniform burst in on J. Henderson, a worker living in the section. They searched the place, threatened Henderson and left.

The police then met with neighborhood Klansmen. The entire group, including the police, then donned hoods, and proceeded to the home of Simmons, whom they beat mercilessly. They then moved on to the house of Byers, three blocks away. Breaking down the door, they threatened the men present, then stripped the two Brown daughters to the waist and lashed them. After this they went to Frazier's home and made many threats.

CYCLES OF LIFE

LUTHER'S CORNER
Now that the party season is here, when conversation lags. It is up to the hostess to keep up interest among her guests. There is always one sure way of putting life into the party and that is to start a conversation about this and that reader, be they spiritualist, palmist or astrologer.

And don't think for a minute that there is not hundreds of colored people in the city of Des Moines who do not visit such places. During my thirty years or more in Des Moines I have been visited by some of my people on an average of about one a month, but you just start a conversation and see for yourself how many there are in your party that does not have some actual experience with a fortune teller somewhere and at some time.

As I have stated before, my system as presented here has no relationship with the postulations and principles and art of astrology. If the soul entering each human body at birth is an essential part of the cosmic energy or cosmic vitality and if this energy or vitality reaches the earth's surface in rhythmic pulsations of various combinations of notes and resulting tendencies, then a person born at any rhythmic period of the year should have natural tendencies different from those possessed by a person born during a different rhythmic period. It is not my intention to explain why this is so.

Those who wish to devote their time and study to a deep investigation of the principles involved may do so, and will find in the work much knowledge and happiness.

It must be borne in mind that the solar year begins on March 22nd, when we have that distinct astro-phenomenon known as the spring equinox.

In all foreign countries the birth of the year occurs on or about March 22nd. The establishment of January 1st as the beginning of a new year is a purely arbitrary thing, and has no foundation in natural law. Therefore we begin the solar cycle on March 22nd and divide it into periods of fifty-two days. Each of these periods has actual polarity, and we find that the first half of each period produces a slightly different effect than the last half of the period. Therefore we have seven periods, each having two natures, and producing a total of fourteen distinct natures, combinations and conditions.

It avails us very little to become thoroughly acquainted with the outer character and nature of any person. So far as any benefit being derived from a knowledge of the outer nature of person is concerned, it is just as safe and serves just as much purpose to take persons as we find them outwardly and casually. Very few persons are capable of concealing their true outward natures.

An acquaintanceship with any one for twenty-four hours which would include casual conversation in business or home life will tell as much about their outer habits and outer characteristics as are involved in any system that has ever been devised. I mean, of course, that to the student of human nature and to the analytical mind this would be so.

Knowing the habits of a person does not in any considerable way give us an advantage, a benefit or a protection.

I have been asked many times why I must trust such and such a person. The answer is plain. The man who is a thief outwardly and in all of his habits cannot conceal that from the careful observer. It is the man who is inwardly a thief, a cheat and a deceiver, while outwardly posing as honest and reliable, that must be guarded against, and from whom we must be protected and warned in society and in business.

Philadelphia, Pa. (CNA)—Manuel Heaterly, 38-year-old unemployed Negro worker, was shot down and killed in his home here on November 27, when he defended his brother and himself from eviction. The brother, Samuel, 27, was brutally beaten by police and constables, arrested, and held without bail on charges of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery, threat to do bodily harm, and accessory after the fact. The home which Heaterly was trying to save is at 1011 Callow Hill street, it was occupied by Heaterly, his brother, his brother's wife and their four small children.

Two deputies from the office of Constable Jacob Gilman, 1125 Girard avenue, and a squad of cops from the Tenth and Buttonwood Station, broke into the Heaterly home. Neighbors massed before the house and struggled with the police to stop the eviction. From the roofs of adjoining houses, neighbors rained milk bottles and other missiles on the police as they attempted to batter down the door of the house.

The police then called reserves, who broke through the masses of workers, smashed down the door, and cornered Heaterly in his house. Then bullets from the gun of Policeman Joseph Anderson murdered Manuel Heaterly. And then, as Manuel lay dying on the floor, police seized his brother, Samuel, beat him about the head and face, and dragged him away. His whereabouts were kept secret from his family, and it was only from the late afternoon papers that they learned that he was in Hahnemann Hospital. Anderson was held on a technical charge of manslaughter. With the head of the family dead, the police proceeded to ransack the house and throw all belongings into the street.

A copy of Schneider's last will and testament, setting forth that King should become heir to his estate, was admitted for probate last Monday by Probate Judge Holtcamp.

OLD TIMERS VS. YOUNGSTERS
Since the advent of our I. D. K. football team, we have had several debates with older brother who was some footballer himself as to whether our team would defeat a team of former Bulldogs. It is one of those endless debates never to be settled since most of the key men of the best Bulldog teams have hung up the moccasins for good and one of the greatest of them all has passed on. But it makes a keen discussion and stirs us to take this last thing in football. Here are two teams of local Negro athletes from our high school, one is composed of players who have played since 1924 and one of the players who played before that time back to 1915. See if you can decide which is the better club:
Before 1924 Since 1924
Joe Brown (N)—E. L. Redrick (E)
L. Anderson (E)—Bob Webb (N)
J. Hunter (N)—T. J. Allen (N)
G. Bourland (E)—T. E. Hall (E)
J. W. Clark (W)—G. P. Thomas (E)
Bus Davis (E)—G. C. Tillman (E)
Wright (N)—C. L. Thomas (E)
L. Ashby (E)—H. W. Thompson (E)
C. Morton (N)—H. O. Johnson (N)
J. Fredricks (N)—H. S. Rowland (N)
C. Howard (E)—H. H. Brewer (E)
T. Stone (E)—F. B. L. Johnson (N)

High School Sports
Seem queer to see our high school basketball open up and our boys so conspicuous by their absence. In the opening games only are Redrick of East, took part. Here's hoping to see some of our boys in action before long or Wotnink will have me to write about.

Negroes Honored by All-American Football Board
Ward of Michigan, McCreary of Michigan State and Ozzie Simmons of Iowa, received cards of merit from the All-American football board in recognition of their work during the season.

The all state high school football teams was not dotted with Negroes as much as it has been in the past. Flowers, a big boy from East Waterloo, made the first team at end. Archie Lucas, all city choice at North, made the third team and other boys including Baker of Clarinda and Jones of State Training school were spread out over the other teams. Six being chosen. Redricks of East and L. T. Johnson of North were on the favorable mention list.

FUNERAL RITES HELD IN MACON

SAVANNAH, Ga., (Special)—The first funeral services for the late Dr. J. A. Martin, editor of Sunday school literature and periodicals of the C. M. E. Church who died here about noon Sunday following an illness of slightly more than a week, were held Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. at the C. M. E. Church. He first pastored shortly after his marriage and in which he made his last of a large number of speeches.

The final funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon in Macon, Ga., from the church in which he pastored for nearly 15 years, while making his residence in Macon.

Dr. Martin, noted as one of the most brilliant and fearless speakers of the day, regardless of denomination, arrived here Wednesday, November 23, to attend the sessions of the Central Georgia conference of the C. M. E. church. Although he was quite ill at the time, he continued his battle for better leadership on the part of Negro churchmen.

"In the days when such men as Hitler, and others are taking over the church and attempting to silence the voice of the prophets," the fiery speaker told those at the opening sessions, as he urged that Negroes create their own literature and give to the world a peculiar message while we change our social order, "men of the church must, as the few in Germany, rise to the level of the fold-time prophets and keep the fires of liberty burning."

"This is especially true of Negro leaders whose people suffer more from common brutalities at the hands of the so-called officers of the law than any other group," while we do not believe in the combination of church and state, we do believe in the church helping to furnish the moral basis for the ends set up of society, this giving men to the state who work with straight and honorable conscience, realizing that the earth is the Lord's and that those handling His things must have clean hands."

This was indicative of his general fearless stand on many important and practical questions.

Following his address, Dr. Martin, who was carrying out a very extensive program since the last general conference at St. Louis, Mo., during the past summer when his duties were made more extensive, succumbed to his illness after the consultation with his relatives, Prof. and Mrs. Young, of 474 Anderson Avenue, both well-known veteran school teachers in this city. Dr. Martin was taken to the Charity Hospital where he was admitted. Dr. Martin was attended by Drs. Wyckle and McDougall. The end came Saturday at noon.

Mrs. Martin, who left Atlanta Thursday, arrived here at eight Friday morning in time to be at the bedside before the end came.

Born in Greenville, Ga., Dr. Martin attended Paine College. He was united in marriage many years ago to Miss Eugenia A. Collier, of Atlanta, Ga., a graduate of Spelman College.

In addition to pastoring at Macon for a number of years, he has pastored at Waycross, Valdosta and Rome, leaving Macon several years ago to become a graduate of the C. M. E. Quarterly in addition to his other duties as editor of the Sunday School Periodicals and Literature of the C. M. E. church.

The Martins returned to Atlanta several years ago where they made their home at 1028 Westmore Drive.

Early this year, Dr. Martin was boomed for the bishopric and, at the time of the convening of the general conference of the C. M. E. church in St. Louis, Mo., during the past summer, he was regarded as one of the leading candidates for one of the several vacancies then existing.

However, his efforts to make the religious education of the youth include more than a theoretical study of the Bible, were met with a singular reward, even on the practical study of the ed Dr. Martin, as too outspoken and authority and his title changed to General Secretary of Religious Education of the C. M. E. church.

Dr. Martin, at the time of his death, was just getting his program of making religious education for the youth of the C. M. E. church placed on a practical basis.

Having spoken at a number of International Sunday School meetings, Dr. Martin was nationally known as a speaker and Sunday school meetings.

It was his firm stand on interracial matters that brought Dr. Martin a large following as well as much criticism, but large of size and speaking with determination, he never let anything interfere with his belief in the inalienable right of the freedom of speech.

During the funeral services for the blind man slain in Atlanta, when protests were being planned and the Ku Klux Klan picketing the meeting and the police turned away white spectators, Dr. Martin, got down on his knees and prayed his message regarding the shooting down of a blind man by the police. At the same meeting, the Rev. A. Raymond Henderson, aggressive pastor of the Wheat Street Baptist Church, who, with the Rev. Mr. Martin, was regarded as the two race leaders in Atlanta's willing to go all of the way for their race, refused to speak if he had to speak with a bribe on his words.

It was only recently that Dr. Martin's residence in Atlanta was raided by authorities in connection with the recent raids on persons suspected of being guilty of Red or Communist activities, but no evidence was found against him as in the case of the raid on the Atlanta Urban League headquarters.

In addition to his widow and relatives in Savannah, Dr. Martin leaves a brother in Greenville, Ga., several brothers, who have not been located as yet, and the following relatives in Atlanta: Mrs. F. E. Caison, James A. Collier, J. T. Collier and Virgil Collier.

TO RECONSIDER GREEN SUSPENDS KP LEADERS IN THREE STATES

DR. R. R. MOTON

New Orleans, La., (ANP)—Due to their failure to transmit per capita funds prescribed in enactments in 1917 and 1923, S. W. Green, supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythians, has suspended the grand lodge officers of Ga., Va., and Penn.

The 1917 tax called for a ten cent assessment on each member, and that of 1923, for one of 25c to be applied to the benefit of the Pythian Sanatorium department.

In the proclamation of suspension issued by Supreme Chancellor Green he made it known that he had demanded in October that the officers in question complete their accounting with the Supreme lodge.

The Pennsylvania grand lodge had failed to submit a roster of its officers to the supreme chancellor, but B. G. Collier is named as grand chancellor. In Virginia the officers are Thomas E. Reid, J. G. Ridley, senior and Thomas W. Newell.

The action of Mr Green in suspending the officers, since he is moved by the tribunal of Supreme lodge officers and the suspended officers have the right to appeal to the next session of the Supreme lodge if they file notice with the supreme chancellor within 30 days of the confirmation of the suspension.

M. L.—Do I have any relatives living, and how can I get in touch with them if I have?

Ans: I believe that you have an uncle in Harrisburg, Pa., and your half brother is still living in Cincinnati, Ohio. You can write to him at the same address he lives if they file notice with the supreme chancellor within 30 days of the confirmation of the suspension.

P. E.—Can you tell me what makes me have spells sometimes?

Ans: You don't have spells, but when you were in that automobile wreck last summer, your head was injured more seriously than you thought. I suggest that you see a good surgeon and have an operation if it proves to be necessary.

C. H. J.—Will I ever get my health back and be able to do what I have planned to do?

Ans: Why don't you go ahead and move to the West now? I believe you would recover faster there, and your sister would be glad to help you get on your feet again. She is still living in Arizona. She is still living in Arizona, and she will be glad to hear from you.

M. F. E.—Did my mother treat me fair, and what can I do now?

Ans: Your mother had a good reason for disapproving of your marriage, but she went a little too far. I don't have space in this column

VOTERS VERY LAX ABOUT VOTING

Both Blackshear and Dr. Sherrard Win In Home Ward!

PLAN ACTIVITY

ATLANTA, Ga.—Making a splendid showing in their home ward and leading their democratic opponents in their respective sections, Dr. B. M. Sherrard and Maceo Blackshear, to whom must be given credit for being the first Negroes to run for local city offices in many a year, are more than pleased with the results achieved in their initial venture.

With a total of 1,067 votes cast throughout the whole city in his favor as compared with the 109 votes given to Maceo Blackshear, district manager of the Afro-American Life Insurance company, the Independent candidate, Albertman Guy Coleman, present incumbent, retained his seat in the city council. Mr. Blackshear, however, in the home ward, the first ward, received 65 votes as compared with the 27 votes received by his white opponent.

Dr. B. M. Sherrard, prominent local physician who opposed J. H. Landers, the present board of education member from the first ward for his seat, was also victorious in his home ward, tallying 95 votes to Mr. Landers' 26. Mr. Landers, however, won the seat by netting 1,106 votes from all of the precincts in the city as compared with Dr. Sherrard's total of 108 votes.

Following its initial appearance in the local political arena, the Colored Voters' League of Atlanta and Fulton County is preparing to launch a movement that will make itself a strong organization by the time the next election is staged in Atlanta. All are impatient over the results shown.

President J. T. Carlton, head of the league, is calling a meeting of all citizens, as well as committee members to be held at 1:00 this afternoon at the league headquarters, 809 1-2 West Hunter street. At this time plans for the future activity of the organization will be considered and methods of procedure, especially along the lines of a "politically conscious" educational program outlined.

In the meantime, Dr. B. M. Sherrard, who ran for the post of board of education member from the first ward and Maceo Blackshear, from the same section, expressed themselves as pleased over the fact that they were able to take the colored citizens of Atlanta into the first step forward in bringing political activity and that they believed that the next election will find the colored citizens of Atlanta going to the polls in large numbers to take part in the affairs of their government.

SAYS COLORED FOLK CAN'T TAKE IT

NEW YORK (ANP)—Neal O'Hara, columnist, reports from statistics in hand that Negroes cannot take it. He writes: "A curious phenomenon of recent years is that the nation's largest life insurance company reports that no insurance there has been no insurance in deaths from alcoholism among its white policyholders, but among its insured Negroes the death rate has doubled to date."

YOUNGEST MENTALIST ON THE AMERICAN STAGE

E. N. S.—If my boy friend loves me, what makes him act the way he does?

Ans: Your boy friend will be nervous just as long as you make him come to your home to see you. He knows your husband and he also knows what will happen to him if your husband catches him with you. If you must see him, then go somewhere else; don't stay at home.

J. J. D.—Please tell me why I am having so much trouble this year and what can I do about it?

Ans: If you expect to keep on with your school work you will have to stop wasting your time on that woman. She is not going to leave her husband for you; she's only playing with you to amuse herself while her husband is out of town.

M. L.—Do I have any relatives living, and how can I get in touch with them if I have?

Ans: I believe that you have an uncle in Harrisburg, Pa., and your half brother is still living in Cincinnati, Ohio. You can write to him at the same address he gone for good and I don't believe you will be able to get HER back. She was a good bird dog, and she was picked up by a hunter who knew a good dog when he saw one. He will take better care of the dog than you did, and she will be better off hunting birds than she was lying around with you.

L. M.—When am I going to get the money that I have been trying to get?

Ans: I am sorry to say that I don't believe your luck is going to change, so if you really need money why don't you stop wasting what little money you have playing the numbers. You can't beat that game so stop playing so much.

H. S. D.—Which of the girls I am going with really thinks the most of me?

Ans: It seems to me that M. C. J. is very fond of you but in my opinion she isn't the kind of a girl you would consider marrying. Either of the girls you are asking about would make you a good wife, but you will have to drop M. C. J. if you expect to win either one of the other.

C. H. J.—Will I ever get my health back and be able to do what I have planned to do?

Ans: Why don't you go ahead and move to the West now? I believe you would recover faster there, and your sister would be glad to help you get on your feet again. She is still living in Arizona. She is still living in Arizona, and she will be glad to hear from you.

J. H. L.—Where is my wife? Why did she do what she did?

Ans—When your wife caught you running around with your new girl friend, she took all those clothes that she had bought for you and went to live with her aunt. If you want her to come back, you will have to promise to give up your girl friend, because that wife of yours won't have you fooling around with other women.

M. H. J.—I want to know if you will please help me with my problem?

Ans—Little girl, you are much too young to be feeling so sorry for yourself. You are still a child and shouldn't be spending so much of your time thinking about the boys. Put your mind on your school work and the boy friends will come later.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

Recently, major political parties in Iowa filed with the Secretary of State reports of receipts and expenditures during the last campaign. Sunday a list of contributors to the Democratic and Republican funds was published. In the Republican lists were the names of several Negroes.

Prior to 1932, no effort was made to solicit any funds among Negroes. Undoubtedly two reasons may have guided the management in so doing: first, ample funds were available without it; second, the representation secured both in the campaign management and the jobs to be dispensed was so small that they did not have the courage to do so.

Fortunately for the Negro this situation arises; fortunately Negroes have long concluded that the fellow who pays has some voice even in politics and if their leaders measured up they must do the same thing other leaders do even though in a lesser degree.

This was a good thing for the party; a good thing for the Negroes. It must go on in an even larger degree in years to come.

WORTHWHILE SENTIMENT

This week the Interracial Commission of Des Moines issued a "Proclamation of Good-Will," calling upon the people of the community to accord Negroes equal treatment and favorable understanding in civil, economic and social activities.

Most important is the urge to practice the things which the commission calls according to Negroes equality. Generally, most people say they are fair, want to be and are as long as it comes to lip service, but in the practical application they fall flat. This is why Negroes suffer in communities which apparently harbor good feeling toward them.

These proclamations are fine; the spirit is right; they prepare the people—educate them—in their duty along racial equality. But after all some definite forces must be put into motion to tackle the practical side of the question. Who should do it is a question but it is axiomatic that he who would be free must strike the first blow.

CONSTIPATION CAUSED BY TEETH

In discussing this topic of constipation and the teeth, I might add that the lack of teeth is more often the cause than the presence of diseased teeth. The teeth are the beginners for the process of digestion because they tear and crush the food thus allowing the saliva to start its action upon the foods. Of course if there are no teeth or all insufficient member especially of molars or posterior teeth then the food cannot be chewed properly. The lack of this grinding sends lumps of meat, potatoes, vegetables, etc., into the stomach resulting in a slowing of the action of the stomach juices and a subsequent passing into the intestines of improperly digested pieces. These lumps cause a clogging of the intestines and prevent the normal bowel movement. I know some people say they can chew their food or rather "gum it" when they are without teeth, but they must know that they are only fooling themselves. Why even those with all of their teeth often fail to chew their food enough so how can you when you cannot even crush bread, let alone meat. This continued "gumming food," not only aids constipation but in time even the gums will wear down and especially the lower jaw where the gum will practically flatten out leaving no ridge.

Pyorrhea, devitalized teeth or those without a live nerve, and abscessed conditions and their part in constipation will be written about at a later date. Yet, remember the physician should be consulted in cases of constipation as there are many causes, other than the lack of sufficient or diseased teeth.

Questions and Comments

Dear Dr. Dean:
The fillings in my daughter's teeth have turned black and I don't think the dentist should have done that because I haven't seen anybody else that color. Will you tell me what's wrong?—Mrs. S. M., Marshalltown, Iowa.

Ans.: The fillings turned black due to the copper amalgam used and it is the best material for children's teeth as it aids in the prevention of future decay. In fact, you should thank your dentist for that type of amalgam as he is giving you what he knows is best. Now when the child gets older then, if it is a permanent much feeling in communities and warned that no longer was it a sectional question.

These things have been said before by other presidents; the trouble has been that invariably they have quit after making the speech.

An anti-lynching bill is going to be introduced in the next Congress. As yet we don't know whether Mr. Roosevelt is going to make any effort to see that it is passed, or not. We do know that such men as Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the floor leader in the Senate during the last Congress and a strong administration supporter, helped block the bill before; that he will be in the Senate during this session and that other administration leaders are opposed to this legislation.

Undoubtedly, the legislation can be passed if President Roosevelt wants it. And while it is encouraging that apparently he recognizes the seriousness of the problem, it is too early to predict whether he will insist on this humane legislation as against his supporters in other parts of his legislative program.

Many thousands of men and women have the same idea. Why not try Listerine Tooth Paste yourself? You will be delighted with it. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co.

DIPHTHERIA

Diphtheria is an infection of the throat occurring mostly in the young but occurring occasionally in adults after the age of maturity. It is almost unknown in middle life and old age, it may be said not to occur at all. In infants there is a period of immunity during which time a child will not contract or take the disease even though it comes in contact with a person so infected or afflicted. The prophylaxis of the disease is best taken care of in youth and in the immune period when if the child comes in contact with the disease, he will be able to ward off infection without developing any of the major symptoms of the disease. Diphtheria is not of the throat only but may occur in wounds when it is called wound diphtheria. The prophylaxis of diphtheria is most important. It may be administered in one or three doses. Every child should be given this immunity because of the contagiousness of diphtheria. It is a very contagious disease and if a child is not immunized a contact with a carrier may initiate the disease in the child which has not been immunized. Diphtheria is not of the throat only and must be treated immediately in order to effect a cure. The cure is so efficient that if given immediately a cure is almost invariably the rule but if a throat is neglected in the belief that a diphtheria does not exist the convalescence may be prolonged and some anxiety may be felt as to the outcome.

tooth the black filling can be removed and silver colored amalgam or gold put in its place.
