White Girl Is Put in Jail For Marrying Negro

MADDOX IS INDICTED FOR MURDER OF SCOTT

Chicago—George Maddox, prominent young Atlantan, is now a fugitive from justice here. Absolved of blame by a coroner's jury last January for the mysterious death of his brother-in-law, W. A. Scott, the publisher, Maddox was reported indicted late Monday afternoon by a Fulton county (Ga.) grand jury in Atlanta in connection with the crime.

The detective bureau has been asked by the Georgia police to arrest Maddox, and acting in the request, officials assigned Sergeants Oscar C. Ridley and Kinzie Blueitt, veteran of the force, to the task. Wabash avenue police, under command of Captain James A. Mooney, are co-operating with the bureau detail.

Names Slayer
It will be recalled that Scott, who controlled the Scott newspaper syndicate and published the Atlanta Daily World, was shot down near the garage at his home by an assassin.

On his deathbed he named Maddox as the slayer, but a coroner's jury released the accused, as Scott failed to designate whether he meant George Maddox, senior or junior.

Point Out Motives
The motive for the murder is alleged to hinge around Scott's habit of changing his wives with undue frequency. Secretly married to his fourth wife, pretty Agnes Maddox, sister of George, only three or four months, rumor declared that he was already tired of his newest marital chains and was planning to get rid of them and take to himself even another wife.

Financial Wizard
Investigation into the Scott mystery has been carried on relentlessly for the past twelve months by the family and interested friends. The youthful editor was known as one of the most outstanding publishers of the race, his feat in establishing the only daily Negro newspaper in the world being second only to the claim of papers which at the time of its peak numbered more than fifty.

He was called a wizard of finance and many persons believed that his mysterious slaying was due to the

Too Many Negroes on Your Team, Shenandoah High Tells Clarinda Five

MAJORITY OF TEAM MUST BE WHITE, SAY SHENANDOAH

Clarinda Refuses To Bar Negro Regulars
By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer
Clarinda, Iowa.—"At least a majority of the players used at any time must be white," says a clause in a basketball contract drawn up by Shenandoah High school to Clarinda High. No, this school is not in Georgia or Mississippi, but in the good tall corn state of Iowa. Clarinda, one of the finalists in the state tournament at Cedar Falls last winter, had Negro players in its lineup throughout the 1934 season. Bobby Franklin, forward, and Leroy Baker, guard, played nearly every game, and school authorities say that no team has ever before filed objections to their playing in the lineup.

Superintendent Dean McKee of Shenandoah schools verified reports that the two teams would not meet this year because of the differences in the racial makeup of the teams. "No Negro student is enrolled in the grade

METCALFE IS THIRD IN SULLIVAN AWARD POLL

New York.—(ANP)—Third among America's outstanding amateur athletes to be considered for the 1934 Sullivan award, given to the athlete who makes the greatest contribution to the cause of amateur athletics and sportsmanship, is Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette university sprinter and world record holder. He is the first Negro athlete to receive consideration in the final voting.

dislike in which he was held by the white business men of the city, who derided his editorial policy and envied his success. Both Scott and Maddox are former students at Morehouse college.

Nationwide Testimonial Is Planned for DePriest

Washington, D. C.—The local committee on arrangements for the Oscar DePriest nationwide testimonial is greatly encouraged by the enthusiastic responses which are pouring in from all parts of the country. Already a sponsor's committee of over one hundred persons have responded, covering the principal cities and practically every state in the Union.

Complete details as to time, place, price per plate for banquet, nature of testimonial or keep-sake to be given Mr. DePriest, will be announced later. Prospects are bright for a successful and brilliant affair worthy of the representative in recognition of whose distinguished services the function has been staged. Prof. Kelly Miller is chairman of a committee of distinguished citizens assisted by Dr. Emmet J. Scott, Miss Nannie Burroughs, J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler of Elks, and others.

OSCAR DE PRIEST will be honored by nationwide testimonial dinner for his services as representative in Congress.

or high schools in Shenandoah," is one of the reasons stated by the prejudiced official. The "Missouri attitude" of people is another, he says. Clarinda has refused to sign the contract on grounds that such an action would discriminate against local players who are scholastically eligible to compete.

The question of the personnel of the Clarinda quintet has been under discussion for several weeks. Last year Clarinda administered a 34 to 9 drubbing to Shenandoah, which went against the country folks' grain. At one stage of the game four Negroes were used in the lineup. "Our people felt that Clarinda, with a huge lead, was rubbing it in," McKee explained. "We did not object to the two Negro regulars, but we thought that it wasn't necessary for Clarinda to use four Negroes to trim our boys."

Son 29, Meets His Father First Time

L. A. Piggee Has "Visitor" From Denver
By the Staff Writer
"Claude D. Piggee of Denver, Colorado, is visiting his father, L. A. Piggee, 2524 Forest drive, for a few days." A society item like that ordinarily would cause only a passing glance from the average reader. However, these lines represent a period of nearly thirty years' separation, as neither one was aware of the existence of the other until this week, when the son, now 29, accompanied by his wife, knocked at the door of the surprised Mr. Piggee's home and revealed his identity.

Visiting the Bystander office Tuesday afternoon, the happily reunited pair told the following story: During his youth in his home town at Horatio, Arkansas, Mr. Piggee fell in love with a young girl there. As time went on, the courtship became earnest and they decided that they were just meant for one another and made plans for an immediate marriage. This was in 1904, and in those days the parents had much more to say about such matters than they do now.

"No, I will not consent to your marriage. You are going to continue in school," Mrs. Piggee told her unhappy son, blasting a youthful happiness that was destined for happiness. It was promptly annulled by the parent, and L. A. Piggee was sent to a boarding school for two years. Meanwhile, the broken-hearted girl, now a mother, moved to Paris, Texas, where she was heard of no more until fate threw the two together in 1932. However, the fact that Mr. Piggee was the father of a grown son was still unknown by him.

Mr. Piggee came to Des Moines in 1913; he is married again and is now employed as a chauffeur for a prominent Des Moines family. Claude, the son, graduated from the high school in Paris, Texas, in 1923 with high honors as an all-around athlete, starring in football. Later moving to Denver, he joined the Scott M. E. church, under the Rev. S. M. Riley, Jr., now pastor of Burns church here. He is employed as fountain clerk at one of the drug stores, there and is prominent in civic and community organizations. "Several of the white drug stores there employ colored help and the Negroes in Denver are doing very well," Claude said. The Rev. H. L. Overton, his present pastor, is well liked by the people in Denver, he stated. Their first visit to Des Moines, they expect to return home next week.

TOM LEE, FAMOUS RIVER HERO, GETS ANNUAL REWARD

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 11.—Tom Lee, the Negro hero, ever since that dreary Friday night, May 8, 1925, when the U. S. steamer Norman sank off Coahoma, carrying all of its passengers to their watery graves, except thirty-two, who were rescued by this black hero, has been lauded by the Engineers club, and remembered every Christmas since that awful tragedy.

This Christmas was no exception to the rule, for he was gratefully given a full stock of fuel, clothing and household necessities. He resides at 923 Mansfield street.

Large Crowd at B.Y.P.U. Meeting

By Miss Evelyn Brooks
Rev. C. B. Wheeler, state president of the Iowa, South Dakota, Nebraska B. Y. P. U. convention, delivered a wonderful address Sunday afternoon at the young people's mass meeting at the Shiloh Baptist church. His subject was, "The Essentials of a B. Y. P. U." More than a hundred young people from Mt. Olive, Corinthian, Maple Street, Union and Shiloh churches participated. Miss Atrell Jett of Corinthian was mistress of ceremonies.

Song service was conducted by Mrs. Odella Daniels, of Shiloh, pianist. Evelyn Miller of Maple Street gave a piano selection, Dorothy and Catherine Brown of Mt. Olive; Harry Miller, Maple Street; Lorraine Johnson, Corinthian; Mrs. Pearl Gibson, Shiloh. Other state officers were present.

This is the first meeting ever held of its kind in the history of the Baptist convention. A similar meeting of this kind is to be held in Ottumwa, in which Rev. Wheeler is to give an address.

Complete Plans for Johnson Banquet

Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. Joe Brown, 1058 Fifth avenue, a meeting was held of the committee in charge of the plans for the testimonial banquet to be given in honor of Dr. Mordcai W. M. E. church, Twelfth and Crocker streets.

Scottsboro Case To be Reviewed

Washington, D. C., Jan. 11.—The United States supreme court will review the Scottsboro case. This decision was reached Monday when the United States high court reconvened after the holiday vacation. The cases to be heard are those of Clarence Norris and Heywood Patterson, who were convicted in Decatur early last year and sentenced by Judge C. C. Callahan. It was Patterson's third conviction on the charge of having attacked Ruby Bates and Victoria Price in 1931, and the second conviction for Norris.

Corinthian Church Membership Is 755

An increase of 127 members in 1934, making a total of 755, was announced by Mrs. Sarah Jett, church clerk, at the annual board report meeting held Thursday at the Corinthian Baptist church. The Rev. G. W. Robinson is now beginning his eighteenth year as pastor.

Redraft Stronger Anti-Lynch Bill

Washington, D. C., Jan. 11.—Added strength was given the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill here after a day spent in redrafting certain portions of it in accordance with suggestions and criticisms of eminent lawyers and law school instructors. Ever since last June, when the bill died in the senate, the N. A. A. C. P. has been seeking the further advice of leading experts in legislation and constitutional law in order to make the bill still more effective.

Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, conferred here Thursday on the bill and a newly amended draft was introduced late today by Senators Costigan and Wagner. One of the principal changes was made to prevent the bill being used against workers in industrial disputes. Symptomatic of organized labor had expressed the fear last year that break players might utilize the bill to break up labor demonstrations. All danger of that is removed in the revised bill.

It is the plan now to stage hearings on the bill before the senate judiciary committee perhaps late in January, so as to have it acted upon early in the present session.

Chicago N. A. A. C. P. Wins Long Extradition Fight

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—Tennessee, which sought to extradite Leander McCline from Chicago on a charge of murder, lost its battle here when the United States circuit court of appeals handed down a decision ordering McCline to be discharged. The long extradition fight begun by the branch in 1933 was carried through under the direction of Attorney Irving C. Mollison, of the branch's legal committee, and president of the Illinois state conference of N. A. A. C. P. branches.

McCline's attorneys made much of the fact that Maury county, Tenn., was the county in which Cordie Cheek had been lynched in December, 1933, after a grand jury had failed to indict him.

Sioux City, Iowa.—"I don't care if my own race doesn't like it—I love him; it is my life," exclaimed Doris Chase, 17, white, who was jailed by Mrs. Florence Chase, her mother, Wednesday for her marriage to Hartwell C. Bonner, 21, Negro. Proclaiming her love for her husband, she declared that the interracial marriage would last and that this "race prejudice is all bunk."

Bonner and his witness, William Payne, Negro, were arrested Thursday on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, filed by the girl's mother. Mrs. Chase, beer garden employe, who is divorced from her own husband, is frantically seeking to annul the marriage and wants Doris sent to the training school at Mitchellville.

BEHIND the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL Copyright, 1935. King Features Syndicate, Inc. HOLLYWOOD—Despite strict French regulations on American pictures, Katharine Hepburn is the current film queen of Paris.

Next to the whimsical Katharine, the French actor rates Claudette Colbert, Joan Crawford, the former hostess of Paris, has suffered in popularity, he says, because the exhibitors over there have been changing all the dialogue of her pictures into French.

Boyer, who has been having a belated honeymoon with Pat O'Brien, will stay in Hollywood at least six months this time. Walter Wanger has him signed to contract.

The horse, with the "reservoir" name, La Fille, is a jumper and has won several Steeplechase events.

One of the better paid actors reports Crozier Jones was squelched so beautifully the other day.

Most of Hollywood contributes generously to the Community Chest but this particular actor, although he could well afford it, began making excuses.

This is a story of two extras who came through as winners in the recent elimination contest.

What actress who is making a big bid for sympathy since the breakup of her romance with a famous idol star, really has nothing to squawk about, because she brought it on herself.

Most of the guests at Joan Crawford's Christmas party missed the really exciting part. At 3:30 a. m., when only a few close friends remained, Joan asked Franchot Tone to come out in the garage and help her open a box that had just come.

Chair Given Slayer Of 2 White Girls

FINCASTLE, Va., Jan. 5 (Special)—A half hour after the case had been given to it, a jury sitting in judgment on Phillip Jones, 25 year old Negro, found him guilty of murdering two young white girls.

At the outset of the trial, defense attorneys had argued that new evidence had been revealed to the effect that a white man was the actual slayer of the girls according to latest statements and facts.

Support to the insanity plea was given in the testimony of Jones' father and three sisters. Members of the family asserted that they had considered the youth "out of his head" ever since he was two years old.

Troopers guarded the trial of the youth and kept down threats of violence. The convicted man, who was arrested in Clifton Forge last November, repudiated charges made by officers, admitting his guilt of the crime. He was also charged with criminally assaulting the girls in addition to murdering them.

'BABY LILY' STABS FOE

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Jimmy Horn and Sam Taylor played with love last week and today both are nursing wounds. The former was shot in his head by Robert Lee Carl, 16 year old youth of 254 East Virginia, and the latter was stabbed in the left side of his neck by "Baby Lily", 15 year old girl who resides on Davis street.

Jimmy Horn, 26, 261 East Virginia, apparently was paying attention to Ruby May Carl, 18, 244 East Virginia. He was chased away from the girl's home last Friday night by Robert Carl who later fired a bullet in the direction of Horn's head. The wound is not serious.

In the case of Sam Taylor, 26, 2423 Dexter, he was stabbed late Friday night at the corner of Tullahoma and Chelsea shortly after he and "Baby Lily" argued over love affairs.

Large Audience Greeted Noted Tenor

By RANDALL J. ALFORD DETROIT, Mich.— Paul A. Smith, tenor of the New York Ancestral Opera Co., was greeted by a large audience of approximately one hundred and fifty persons at the YWCA Thursday Dec. 27th.

Detroit's lovers of cultured music came out to hear this noted tenor in his concert recital. Mr. Smith was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Copeland of Ferndale, Michigan; Talmage L. Turner acted as master of ceremonies and gave a brief talk on how Mr. Smith achieved success. "Paul was inspired by his brother, Oscar's singing and he worked hard to overcome the obstacles that must be overcome by those that achieve success. Parents must learn not to stifle a child's talent but direct it. Paul's talent was directed and we are all proud of him" said Mr. Turner.

JOE LOUIS

We have been amused at the various reactions of the fight fans when the name of Joe Louis, of Detroit, our latest heavyweight sensation, is mentioned. The boys swallow rather hard, blink and say he is a good boy; but he won't last. Then they go back into history and bring up other great Negro boxers who, according to them, flopped. Well, sir, when Louis lambasted the daylight out of Patsy Perrone of Boston, Mass., last week, he just about knocked all his critics speechless. The boy is young, 20 years old, and an A. A. U. and Golden Gloves champion, so you see he must have something. All the leading sports writers agree that he is fast, a hard punch, game and tough.

He has simply stuck himself into the heavyweight picture by knocking out or decisively beating several boys who were regarded as good. He has what the game likes and needs, colorful personality, according to reports, and a knockout punch which he has used unsparringly and without regard for his opponents' records. Unlike most Negro heavyweights, Louis didn't take on a few of the lesser lights and get the worst passed around that he might be tough and let the good boys pass him up. He simply lit right in the middle of the top rank and let a trail of headaches before the warning could be spread. Now the only way he can be refused a chance is for some boy to knock his block off, and it seems that Mr. Louis might have something to say about that. He is the center of interest right now and recognized as a real contender who will have to be beaten by the champion himself. Here is luck, Joe. Don't forget to duck.

IS OUR FACE RED?

In last week's column we predicted that L. T. Johnson of North would be the leading Negro track star in 1935. George Robinson grabbed our Uncle Dudley and informed us that L. T. Johnson graduates from North in mid-year. George then predicted for Archie Lucas what we had said about Johnson. Thanks, George.

Exclusive Women's School To Let Down Color Barriers

New York Jan. 4.—The last of the northern famous American women's colleges, Vassar, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has announced that it will let down the color bar and admit Negro students, according to official word from a delegation from Hampton Institute, in Hampton, Va., last week.

Members of the New York Hampton club, numbering almost 100 in attendance, were present at the reception at the Y. W. C. A., 137th St. and 7th Ave., on Monday night to meet the news.

During their stay there they attended classes, discussion groups, teas and dinners. They also played games, saw their first ice skating and became acquainted with many students.

Miss Estelle Thomas, assistant dean, spoke at a class on labor problems and the social order and again at a Saturday afternoon, at which for the first time at Vassar, according to reports, several representative Negro citizens of Poughkeepsie were guests.

At this function several students asked the college officials present if it would not be a good thing to have a Negro student at Vassar and Dr. Henry Novie McCracken, president, publicly said that he thought it would be a very fine thing, and that Vassar is now "ready."

"Dr. McCracken made known that during the past twenty years only two colored applicants have tried to enter Vassar," Miss Thomas related, "and that they were not admitted purely on scholastic grounds."

35 Years Ago

About thirty-five years ago a Negro girl was graduated, but it was not known she was a Negro until a day or two before commencement. Since then it is not known that any other Negro students have attended Vassar was founded in 1861; tuition and residence costs $1,200 a year and the enrollment is limited to 1,150.

FORSYTHE AND ANDERSON UNDAUNTED DESPITE CRASH IN TRINIDAD

New York (ANP)—The Goodwill flyers, Dr. Albert Forsythe and C. Alfred Anderson, arrived here Thursday morning at nine o'clock. They returned to the United States on the steamer Western World, which docked at pier 15 at the foot of Montague street, Brooklyn.

Their plane, the "Booker T. Washington," which crashed in Trinidad, will be shipped to the United States. The more delicate parts of the aviators brought with them.

Although they face a colossal deficit because of accidents and the loss of their plane, the flyers are undaunted and they feel the progress in goodwill made in southern countries has fully repaid for the rigors of the trip.

Predicts Future of Negro is Aligned With the Eastern World

London—(Special to ANP)—"I am unquestionably leaving England," declared Paul Robeson, the famous actor and singer, in an address Friday night before the League of Colored People in London.

"I refuse to live under the sword of Damocles all my life," continued Mr. Robeson, who through the versatility of his talents has achieved distinction scholastically, athletically and artistically in both the American and European continents. "Insisting that the opportunity for naturalness and self expression were all important, Robeson said further:

Replaced by Stewart

New York, Jan. 4.—Rex Stewart, nationally known comedian, who closed a lengthy contract with Radio City, is en route to Chicago to join Duke Ellington's band, which opened at the Oriental theatre on Friday.

Before leaving for Chicago, Stewart signed contracts exclusively with Brunswick Recording Company. Duke Ellington says Freddie Jenkins, trumpeter, who has been sick and who is now in the Harlem hospital, will re-sign for his organization.

Beauty Hints

(Copyright, 1935, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
 You ladies of the beauty chorus, listen to this—keep your muscles limber and elastic or the appalling day may come when you find that you don't skip lightly down the street. No, you lo-comote. Or you just shove off and keep on going. Mayhap you'll waddle. Distressing thought.

There is no reason why a woman 80 years old, who has had good health and who has taken care of herself, should not forge ahead with light step and graceful carriage. It is a matter of sticking to good posture until it becomes a habit, giving all the muscles not just a chosen few sufficient work to keep them strong.

The time will come when physical education will start in youth, be continued all through life. Beauty shops will vanish from the land because youth will be perennial, go right on. When a woman disregards the need of keeping muscles vitalized she takes on the middle-aged shape, looks old. Often the figure will age more quickly than the human portrait. It is not essential that this tragic change should take place.

Even a beautiful figure is no hopeless. "Ah," says Mrs. "Fifty" "but I know it is not safe at my age to tear through gymnastic stunts. Strain on the heart." A sweet alibi, that's all. No need of being strenuous. Take 'em easy.

Exercise For Agility's Sake

Here is an exerciser that is suitable for all ages, won't harm anybody. It is a natural movement. Practically all babies practice it before they begin to walk.

It is the animal act. Get down on all fours; walk on the palms of the hands keep the knees rigid. You couldn't possibly find a form of play more amusing. Get the family to join in. Have a circus parade.

The trick is to learn to run on all fours.

The trick is to learn to run on all fours. Easy for the young fry. We don't mean loping but running. Kick off your shoes. Heels are a hindrance. When you get tired, flop on the floor flat on your back, breath deeply and slowly until you are refreshed.

One fine result of this exercise is the tightening up of abdominal muscles. Many women need that—even girls in the twenties, even the thirties who through the habit of pushing hips forward and slumping the chest, have weakened the natural curve. Mama Nature gave them a profitable business to have a favorite exercise, some amusing little stunt, and a regular time for it. By becoming a rapid faddist, you accomplish gratifying results.

Train the mind to the idea that activity is the law of life. Without activity the blood streams slow up the various avenues of elimination are not likely to function, as they should. Through muscle play, the complexion, cultivated good color, eyes brighten, everything is directed to the good.

MISS IDA L. JACKSON TO HEAD AKA'S

Seventeenth Annual Boule In New York Is Outstanding

NBC BROADCAST

NEW YORK (ANP)—With one of the largest audiences in the history of Alpha Kappa Alpha Boule, Four Hundred and Fifty seven, registering, and with the New York chapter and the North Eastern Regional officials providing lavish entertainment of a type which threatened to consume all of the time and energy available, the A.K.A.'s will manage to conduct an annual session which was constructive and business like.

The Seventeenth Boule held its sessions at the Emma Reston House, which was taxed to capacity in caring for as many of the delegates as could be packed within that commodious YM.

Miss Ida L. Jackson of Berkeley, California, was reelected Supreme Basileus. Other officers named were Lucille R. Wilkins, Chicago, first anti-basileus, Ruth A. Martin, New York, second anti-basileus, Ruth A. Hanks, New York, supreme grammarians, succeeding Margaret Davis Bowen of Cincinnati, who had served her allotted time, Letitia V. May, Cincinnati, anti grammarians, Irene C. Baxter, Philadelphia, supreme epistolera, and Alberta M. Simmons, Chicago, editor of the Ivy Leaf.

Regional directors of the organization are: Lois E. Davis, Galveston, Texas, South-Western; Edith Jones, Pasadena, Far Western; Helen Finley, Wichita, Kansas, Mid-Western; Beulah Whitby, Detroit, Great Lakes; Edner Over Gray, Baltimore, North Atlantic; Mrs. C. Russell Hartley, Nashville, Southern; Alice McBee, St. Louis, Southern and Alpha E. Rogers, Ettrick, Va., South Atlantic.

Eight regional scholarships are to be given this year to help undergraduates belonging to the sorority. Mrs. V. K. Taylor of Kansas City, Mo., at present a teacher in the junior college at Houston, Texas, was named for the foreign scholarship awarded this year.

The anti-lynching bill was endorsed, changes effected in the scholarship arrangement and the address voted to purchase their jewelry from a colored jeweler.

Six former heads of the organization were present, Miss Kellie Quander of Washington, the first president, Papine S. Puryear of Newark, N. J., Pearl Mitchell of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Maudie Bluff of Chicago, Miss Bobbie B. Scott of Washington, D. C., and Miss Maud E. Brown of Louisville, Ky.

Social affairs began Wednesday evening of Christmas week, with the Sigma party, while the Zetas gave a breakfast dance following Thursday night there was a joint affair with the Delta Sigma Theta at Radio City, when the A.K.A.'s broadcast a brilliant program over 53 stations on a coast to coast N.B.C. hookup. Hundreds of thousands of people are estimated to have heard the program which occupied half of the time normally allotted to the Southernaire's Quartet.

With Miss Melva L. Price of New York, serving as a narrator whose diction was so perfect as to excite interest in many sections, a group of actors gave three dramatic sketches which described the history of the body. Miss Ida L. Jackson recounted the achievements of the sorority and musical numbers were rendered by Senonia Talley, pianist, Miss Anne Wiggins Brown, soprano and Miss Etta Moten.

The next meeting of the sorority will be held at Richmond, Virginia, December 1935.

PERSONAL HEALTH

NURSING A SICK CHILD

By THELMA M. MACKAY, R. N.
 IN NURSING a sick child the nurse should remember the first thing to do is to gain the child's confidence.

A child should not be frightened, excited or alarmed in any way. The greater gentleness is necessary, not only for a child but adults as well.

A nurse should have the greatest of sympathy for a child and extreme tact, to enable her to get along with them with any sort of success.

I have been learned by experienced physicians that the very best time for an examination on a child is when it is asleep, so that it may not observe the character of respiration and pulse. It is also the nurse's duty in helping the doctor out to hold the child in a favorable position by arranging its clothes and by giving him other assistance she can.

Certain symptoms are peculiar to child at the beginning of a disease. The nurse should be familiar with these symptoms and be able to make an intelligent report on them on the arrival of the physician.

Women Seek Data On Education In Dixie

NEW YORK (ANP)—Members of the National Council of Women, meeting here at the Vanderbilt hotel last week, resolved to investigate the distribution of educational facilities in the South. The organization also agreed to advise its 35 constituent member organizations to consider the Cottigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill. The Council was addressed by Dr. Mary P. Waring, president of the National Association of Colored Women's clubs.

Miss Bowles Was Not Fired Says Cincy Report

CHICAGO (ANP)—New Year's greetings from Miss Eva D. Bowles, executive secretary of the Cincinnati branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, that she had been discharged or fired in the form of a gentle rebuke to the effect that she had not been discharged by the committee of management of the local association.

Whether Miss Bowles intended for the Associated Negro Press to correct the erroneous impression that she had been discharged or to charge that the press organization had released the untrue story, was assumed by the always reliable New York Age.

Nevertheless, reports to the contrary, notwithstanding, Miss Bowles is still on the job in Cincinnati, carrying on heroically in the work to which she has devoted her life.

At a recent meeting of the committee of management of the YWCA, of which Miss Bowles is executive secretary, keen remarks were expressed that any of its actions might have been misinterpreted to cast an unjust reflection on Miss Bowles. The committee voted its approval of Miss Bowles' "valuable service," requested her to continue and agreed that a letter should be written the Associated Negro Press refuting the erroneous report.

Brief Illness Fatal To Well Known Figure

DENVER, Colo. (By Fritz Chandler for ANP)—The entire city was plunged into deepest gloom on last Saturday when the news was flashed that the sudden illness of Mrs. Zipporah J. Parks had ended fatally at the Presbyterian hospital where she had been hurried from her office in the School Administration building, on last Wednesday morning. Apparently in the best of health, the end came with dramatic suddenness, and in spite of the ministrations of a corps of specialists who were summoned to the bedside, she never regained complete consciousness after being stricken.

The deceased was one of the best known women of the city where she had lived since her early girlhood. Her father, who was the distinguished Colonel Peter Joseph of New Orleans, came to Denver in 1860 and was a leading business man and civic worker until his death. Mrs. Parks attended school in Denver. She was a graduate of Mutual High School and had done considerable study in Denver and Chicago Universities. During the World War she served as secretary of the Chillicothe, Ohio, YWCA while her husband, Wm. Parks, was overseas with the YMCA. Mrs. Parks had also taught school in Kansas City and St. Louis. She was the organizer and served for five years as president of the Whitaker School Parent Teachers Association, and for the past two years had been in the attendance department of the schools as a social worker.

Mrs. Parks is survived by her husband who is superintendent of the roller department of the Day Climate Ink and Roller company where he has been employed for the past 21 years. He is also superintendent of the Shorter A. M. E. Sunday School, an officer in the Boy Scouts and a member of the Committee of Management of the Glenmar Branch of the Y.M.C.A. One daughter also survives, little Miss Zipporah. The deceased has five sisters, and one brother, Mr. George J. Glendy, of the Home Economics Department of Tuskegee in stillness hurried to Denver upon receipt of the news of her sister's illness. Another sister, Mrs. Martha Sprall, of Washington, D. C. wife of Dr. P. E. Sprall, Mrs. Mollie Smith, of Moonsville, is another sister living out of the city. Mrs. Ellender Johnson and Mrs. Odile Sprague of Denver are also surviving sisters.

GOVERNMENT IN EVERYTHING

The federal government is putting more than a hundred thousand dollars in Polk county each month for relief purposes and will decide just what setup will handle these funds. This is the gist of the fight which has been going on between the board of supervisors and the state and regional relief administrator.

Any sane official who takes an oath of office wants to fulfill the duties of that office and this has been the position of the board of supervisors. However like the fellow begging a meal who naturally is not in a position to say very much about what that meal shall be, Polk county's inability to pay its whole relief load finds itself powerless to dictate its own affairs. It is no reflection on Polk county for every county in the state has abdicated as far as directing their relief affairs is concerned.

More and more the federal government is handling our local affairs as a matter of expediency. How far it will go depends upon the duration of the depression. However, if it goes much further we will be leading the dictators in Europe a merry chase.

A BUSINESS ORGANIZATION NEEDED

Most of us admit that we are over organized for religious, fraternal and social purposes. And yet these organizations provide very little financial betterment or gain for the masses. On the other hand they consume a lot of energy and money that might well be spent for the up-building of our economic status which in the end would make these dependent organizations more self-supporting.

Of course these dependent organizations have their place but they should not be the whole show. In fact we could do without about fifty per cent of them and be better off.

Talk to most of our business men and women here and all will admit the necessity of a business organization but none seem willing to make the necessary step for its protection.

The Bystander would like to see something done about the matter this year. To the end that we may have some expression on the subject we plan to give such business people as will an opportunity to say publicly what they think of the matter with the hope that sentiment may crystallize into something tangible.

THOSE LIQUOR SEALS

The head of our Liquor Control Commission gave an acquaintance in Cedar Rapids two hundred State liquor seals that he might make the people who subsequently got some of this acquaintance's liquor make them believe that it was purchased legitimately from the Iowa Liquor Commission.

If there are no laws under our intoxicating liquor statutes available, there are other misdemeanors which are covered easily by these set of facts; it is a fraud upon the public; it is giving away the state's property—a thing no officer has a right to do without proper authority.

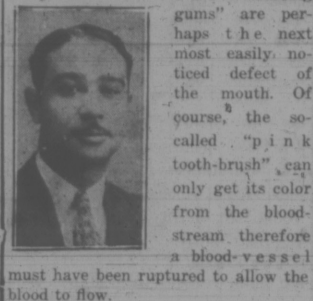

It is an unfortunate situation—there is no question about what he did. He ought to resign.

BLEEDING GUMS

Outside of the pains and swelling present in infected teeth and tissues, the "bleeding gums" are perhaps the next most easily noticed defect of the mouth. Of course, the so-called "pink tooth-brush" can only get its color from the blood-stream therefore a blood-vessel must have been ruptured to allow the blood to flow.

The cause of this injury to the blood stream is due to one or both of the following facts. One—the presence of tartar around the necks of the teeth and below the edge of the gum which also produces a slight enlargement of the gum margin. Second—the result of using a too stiff toothbrush or else brushing too hard and too long.

The remedy for the first conditions is very easily taken care of by visiting your dentist and having this tartar and calculus removed and a thorough prophylaxis.

The second fault can be modified by simply rinsing or dipping the brush in warm water before using it. They, too, take a careful notice of the vigor used in brushing as the gums can be torn by too much pressure of the brush limit the force used and the lengthy brushing and there is certain to be a marked change for the better. Instead of too hard pressure substitute the gum massage with the tip of the index finger as this will give the necessary stimulations to the tissue.

Questions and Answers

Dear Dr. Dean:

Is there anything that can be done for a tooth that has a gum boil that comes and goes.

Mrs. P. M.

Iowa City, Ia.

Ans. The persistent presence of the gum boil can and should be remedied by having the abscessed tooth extracted. The other methods of treatment to save the infected tooth are often not successful and may result in a worse condition even though a few patients may get relief for a period of time.

DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS MEMORIALIZE PRESIDENT ON LYNCHING

Governors, Mayors, College Presidents, Editors and Writers Urge Roosevelt To Place "Anti-Lynching Bill on 'Must' Program in Opening Address To Congress

New York, Jan. 4.—Nine governors, twenty-seven mayors, fifty-five bishops and noted churchmen, fifty-two college presidents and professors and ninety-two editors, writers, jurists and other distinguished citizens have joined in signing a memorial addressed to President Roosevelt urging him in his opening address to congress to "place the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill on your 'must' program." The memorial was transmitted to the president last week by the N. A. A. C. P.

Flemington, N. J., (UNP) Jan. 4.—A key to the "vital importance" to the Bruno Richard Hauptmann prosecution of the testimony of William J. Allen, Lindbergh baby finder, was available here Monday on the eve of the trial of the century.

The key is contained in hints by Bruno's defense counsel that they are not entirely convinced that the body of the infant found by Allen near Hopewell in 1932 has been positively identified as being the son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

THE WRONG WAY

Representative Mitchell says that former Representative DePriest was a carpet bagger. In other words he accused him of having spent too much time and energy fighting southern people and telling them how Negroes should be treated.

This sounds like a speech of some of those members of his party from the section where Mr. Mitchell was born or one made to court their favor.

The Bystander suggests that Representative Mitchell proceed to make his own record and stand on it rather than attempt to become great by attempting to belittle that of his predecessor.

of the infant found by Allen near Hopewell in 1932 has been positively identified as being the son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

Because defense counsel Edward J. Reilly and C. Lloyd Fisher are said to be determined to go into the investigation at length to see "if the colonel is correct," the counter testimony of Allen, who has been guarded for several months as a chief state witness, will reach major importance.

Found Baby in Weeds

Allen found the baby seven miles from the Lindbergh mansion in Hopewell after a fortune had been expended in world-wide search for the baby. He saw it lying in the thicket first—before the police or anyone connected with the search. He will never forget what the baby looked like. Because of the many photos of Lindbergh's son published he can doubtless say whether or not the body he found was Baby Lindy.

Two months ago when interviewed in the attorney general's office in Trenton, Hunterdon County Prosecutor Anthony M. Houck, Jr., told the United Negro press, exclusively, that "Allen will certainly be a witness in the Hauptmann trial—and an important one."

Venue

Although Allen's name has been carefully kept out of Hauptmann news dispatches and though many point out that establishing the "corpse delicti" will be placed mainly on Colonel Lindbergh himself, because it was he who saw the body in the undertaker's room at Trenton and stated it was that of his missing son, the state apparently ranks Allen's statement on this point almost equally important.

Photo Shows Spot

The widely familiar photo published after the baby was found and showing Allen kneeling in the thicket pointing to the exact spot where the body was found easily represents the chief evidence as to the geographical location of that important spot.

Recent treatment of Allen by state authorities proves his importance in the trial just opened. Allen was scheduled to arrive at the 100 year old Flemington court house Tuesday morning with scores of other state witnesses. He will be kept on hand throughout the trial, which is expected to last more than a month.
