Forces School To Admit Negro

Baltimore, June 28.—The University of Maryland cannot bar Donald Gaines Murray, Amherst college graduate, from its law school because of his color, according to a decision handed down in the Baltimore city court last Tuesday by Judge Eugene O'Dunne.

Lawyers of the N. A. A. C. P., led by Charles H. Houston, its special counsel, presented Mr. Murray's plea for a writ of mandamus, requiring the university to accept and pass upon his qualifications. He had been turned down by the authorities of this tax-supported institution when it was discovered that he was a colored man. The N. A. A. C. P. lawyers proved that the state's scholarship aid is inadequate and that no facilities equal to those available at the university are furnished to colored students. There is no separate college in the state offering law training and other professional courses.

This is the first case in the association's recently accelerated campaign to force open tax supported higher educational institutions to colored students through legal action. It is thus of far-reaching significance, since a practice that is illegal in the tax supported educational institutions of one state is doubtless illegal elsewhere. Assisting Attorney Houston in the Maryland university case was Attorney Thurgood Marshall of Baltimore.

Jesse Owens is Still Runnin' Wild

BUCKEYE PURLOINS

FOUR TITLES

Berkeley, Calif., June 28.—Pounding feet and fleeting legs of brown tumbling records, plaudits of the multitude and still driving that lithe, bronzed body of his toward the dizzy heights of trackdom—that's Jesse Owens, the "Buckeye Bullet," the "Ohio Ambassador of Racial Amity," who here on Friday and Saturday climaxed an already amazing season's performance with an almost unreal exhibition of ability, courage and gameness by taking four events in the National Collegiate A. A. S. championship track and field meet.

500 Dixie Farmers Murder Youth -- "Unknown Parties Formed Mob"

MISSISSIPPI'S SUMMER LYNCH SEASON IS OPEN

Wiggins, Miss., June 29.—Dormant for a few months, Mississippi's lynching spirit returned on Saturday, and a howling, cursing mob of 500 brutal whites murdered a 25 year old man on what they claimed was a confessed attack on an 11 year old white girl.

Not satisfied with stringing R. D. McGee, the lynched man, to a tree and drizzling his body with bullets, the hoodlums seized the first Negro they saw Saturday morning, charged him with insulting a white woman, and using this pretext, rushed him into the woods, where he was subjected to a severe and brutal whipping.

Momentarily the mob, which had Stone county in a turmoil, grew in size and for a while the safety of other Negro residents of this town was threatened. Upon the arrival of Sheriff J. A. Simpson and the coroner, however, the crowd, reluctantly dispersed. The sheriff cut the youth's body down from the tree.

"R. D. McGee came to his death at the hands of unknown parties," the coroner's impromptu jury summoned for the inquest, declared, and thus the case was closed. The man who was beaten was unidentified.

The white girl in the case was the 11 year old daughter of a dairy farmer. She had not been raped, although the mob claimed she had. Physicians examined her and found this to be untrue.

The girl had been beaten to unconsciousness when she was seized near her home. Some one struck her with a shovel. It is believed that she never saw her alleged attacker.

Echoes of an admiration crazed throng of 18,000 still resound here. Owens' performance saw him taking the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the 220 yard low hurdles and the broad jump, capturing forty of the 40 1-5 points Ohio State garnered in winning second place in the meet. The University of Southern California won the 1935 title with 75 1-30 points, while Stanford was tied at third with the University of California with 20 points.

Dr. H. H. London Taken to Clarinda

After several years of nervous disorders, Dr. H. H. London, 1058 16th street, was taken to the state hospital at Clarinda, Tuesday, following his attempt to "shoot up" the neighborhood near 17th and School street, Tuesday afternoon.

Threatening to kill Dr. J. A. Jefferson, physician, who was treating a patient in the neighborhood, he also tried to attack his mother, Mrs. W. H. London at her home with a pistol. Panic-stricken neighbors called the police who finally subdued the maddened doctor and took him to the station for observation.

Racial Marriage Fight Dismissed

JUDGE THROWS OUT NEWTON CASE

Chicago, June 28.—(A. N. P.)—The case against Herbert Newton, nationally exploited communist, in which he and his white wife, Jane, were evicted from the premises at 615 Oakwood boulevard, was declared a non-suit in the court of Judge Cecil Corbett Smith here last Monday, thus bringing to an end a long-drawn-out affair which the Hearst press made much of.

Newton was evicted from the place where he and his wife roomed with a white family on a distinctly racial issue which Dr. Mitchell, white, owner of the premises, tried to camouflage as an action based on the fact that Newton was a known "red" agitator. Newton's wife was put in jail and her character raked in the daily press.

Non-suit was declared after Dr. Mitchell, who came back to Chicago from Florida to prosecute the case, couldn't muster enough evidence to make a case.

Many former champions of the ring bowed prior to the main event, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney and Jack Johnson, former rulers of the heavyweight division, were introduced and each one received a tremendous hand. Mickey Walker, former welterweight and middleweight champion, also took a bow.

"Women in History" at St. Paul Church, July 11

Pageant To Depict Progress

By the Staff Writer
What promises to be a most unusual affair of July 11 is the staging of a pageant, entitled "Women in History," a production in five acts, participated in by fifty representative women of this city and other sections at the St. Paul A. M. E. church, Twelfth and Crocker streets.

This pageant will depict the most outstanding achievements of the Negro woman from Phyllis Wheatley, the first poetess in 1775, to the recent awarding of the 1935 Spingarn medal to Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune. In portraying the progress of the Negro women, many of the most prominent white women will appear, representing such characters as Mrs. John Wheatley, the benefactress of Phyllis Wheatley; Harriet Beecher Stowe, Susan B. Anthony, Katherine Gardner, Mary White Ovington and others who have played an important part.

The tickets are in charge of a special committee, namely: Mesdames J. C. Lovelady of Valley Junction, Margaret M. Patten, Elbert R. Hall, Gertrude Brown, Frank Jett and Miss Nettie Bourland of this city. Mrs. S. Joe Brown, the promoter of the affair, is urging every one to purchase tickets early.

In one of the most sensational finishes in heavyweight history, before a crowd of approximately 60,000 wild fans, Joe Louis of Detroit tonight registered a technical knockout over Primo Carnera, Italian ring giant, in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen round battle. The time was two minutes and thirty-two seconds of the sixth session when Referee Arthur Donovan of New York stopped the battle to prevent the Italian from further slaughter.

Louis cut the Goliath of the ring to shreds and with the first right hand shot to the face in the first round Carnera started bleeding.

One Sided Contest
The young thunder socker from the Motor City floored Carnera four times before the referee stopped the one-sided bout. Primo was "out" on his feet, staggering around the ring like a ship without a rudder.

Joe captured the first five rounds by a large margin. To be exact, Carnera did not land one clean blow during the contest.

Amadee in Corner

Julian Black of Chicago co-manager of Louis; Jack Blackburn of Philadelphia, Louis' trainer, and Larry Amadee of Chicago were in the victor's corner, while in the Italian's corner were his co-managers, Bill Duffy and Louis Soreni, and Doc Bagley, one time manager of Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion of the world.

Bidding or Bout Begun

Immediately following Louis' victory, promoters from all over the country started bidding for a match between Louis and Max Baer. Nate Lewis of Chicago declared he was seeking such a fight, while Floyd Fitzsimmons of Detroit was also bidding for a match between the Detroit ring idol and the former heavyweight champion.

Mike Jacobs, however, who gave Louis his chance in the most important battle of his meteoric career, appeared to have the inside track on a match between Louis and Baer, and rumors were around that he would stage such a battle in the Yankee stadium late in September.

Former Champions

Many former champions of the ring bowed prior to the main event, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney and Jack Johnson, former rulers of the heavyweight division, were introduced and each one received a tremendous hand. Mickey Walker, former welterweight and middleweight champion, also took a bow.

Ellington's Band is Great as Ever

Thrills Crowd in Fourth Appearance Here

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

Duke Ellington and his fourteen piece Cotton Club band of New York City were heard in a dance engagement at the Riverview Park ballroom Tuesday night as nearly six thousand listeners and dancers were thrilled in his fourth appearance here. More than three hours late, due to a train wreck, the noted pianist, composer and director was heard over radio station KSO in a brief interview with Reggie Martin, local announcer, in which the noted musician told of some of his masterpieces. The broadcast was closed by his rendition of "Sentimental Mood," a new number and "Solitude."

Edward Kennedy (Duke Ellington to you) was born over thirty-six years ago in Richmond Virginia. He was given piano lessons by his parents until he was 14 years of age. Studying music under Professor Grant of Howard university in Washington, D. C., he first entered "big time" in New York with a five-piece orchestra in 1923. "Sonny" Greer, Barney Bigard and Arthur Wetzel are still with him.

In 1929 "the Duke" composed the well known "Black and Tan Fantasy," which swept the country. It was inspired by a triangle love affair as portrayed in the movie short made at that time, he told the interviewer. Since then "Mood Indigo," "Creole Love Song," "Sophisticated Lady," "Solitude" and others have made this Negro pianist internationally famous. "Check and Double Check" "Hells of the Nineties" and "Murder At the Vanities" were screen successes which also made the band the "top" in the profession today.

In 1931 the writer heard and interviewed the genial, ever-smiling band leader at the Paramount theatre and again in 1933 at the Orpheum. He also played at Riverview in 1932. Flashy, tricky, deep and mellow, the New York outfit has for its rhythm: piano, guitar and two bass fiddles, one doubling on horn. The reed section has four men doubling clarinet, alto, tenor, baritone and bass. The brass doesn't double, but the three trumpets and three trombones use notes and durbies to perfection.

U. S. CALLS FOR RECRUITS

421 Colored Youths Wanted in Arizona

Fort Huachuca, Arizona—On July 1 the 25th United States infantry, stationed at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, will begin the enlistment of 421 colored youths to fill vacancies which will exist on that date by reason of the recent increase in the enlisted strength of the army. In the procurement of young men to fill these vacancies only the most desirable types of young colored men between the ages of 18 and 35 years of age who are physically and morally fit, who have completed at least a grammar school education, are sought.

To our colored men it is believed that army service, with its many advantages for bettering their conditions, and prospects of adequate remuneration upon retirement on completion of thirty years' service, which would guarantee an independent income in declining years, is in itself an incentive to those who are intelligent and ambitious. All eligibles who are interested may write to this recruiting office and the necessary application blanks will be furnished.

I. I. D. WINS STAY FOR HERNDON

Washington, D. C.—A stay of execution of the sentence against Angelo Herndon, young Negro communist sentenced to eighteen to twenty years on the Georgia chain-gang under an insurrection law of 1896, until the United States supreme court passes on the application for a rehearing of his appeal there, has been granted by Justice Owen J. Roberts.

The stay was granted on application of Whitney North Seymour, retained by the International Labor Defense to conduct the appeals in the Herndon case. Mr. Seymour Tuesday filed application for a rehearing of the appeal by the United States court of appeals, which on May 20 had refused to consider the merits of the case, on jurisdictional grounds, by a six to three decision. Justices Benjamin N. Cardozo, Louis Brandeis and Harlan dissenting.

Herndon was convicted in 1933, following his arrest a year before in Atlanta, Ga., for organizing a demonstration in which both white and Negro took part, to demand relief for the unemployed of the city. The demonstration was successful in forcing the county authorities to appropriate $6,000 for relief purposes. He was charged with "inciting to insurrection" on the basis of his possession of literature advocating social, economic and political equality for Negroes. The present stay is effective until ten days after disposition by the court of the application for a rehearing. The court reconvenes October 1.

Are You Listening, Mr. Braddock?

Well sir, the boy came through. They had him on a spot that few big time competitors have been on. Built up so highly that the slightest let down meant a dismal defeat. Joe Louis proved himself to be all that the critics said he was and may be a little more. Too highly was he rated that now that he has proved himself the class of the heavyweights there was nothing left for fight critics to do but continue to rave.

It is being speculated that our boy will not get a chance at the crown but take it from us that kid planted himself squarely into the hearts of millions of fight fans last Tuesday night. Clean cut, modest and an efficient workman the boy simply set fight fans dingy by his cutting down of the giant Carnera as easily as he did. So, dear reader, you have the answer. Louis is the biggest gate drawer attraction in the ring today as well as the best fighter. People want to see him go and they will pay. No boxing corporation whose members could pass any sort of mental test is going to turn down a million dollar gate, for that is what Louis would draw in a championship battle. Would your writer pass up a free feed?

It isn't necessary to go into details as everyone is familiar with the story of the battle by now. Your Uncle Dupey was a bit worried about the possibility of a knockout, but we didn't think the vast Venetian would hurt our boy much. Now it remains for our champion and leading heavyweight to see what they can do about it. That cracking sound you hear in the distance is those boys going through the brush to keep from meeting Louis. Will they be successful? We don't see how they can dodge him but time will tell and we won't bet that they don't.

NEWSPAPER MAN AVERTS LYNCHING OF KENTUCKY BOY

Munfordville, Ky., June 21—Persistent pleas by a white newspaper man from Louisville saved a 19 year old Negro boy, Raymond Curry, from being lynched last week by a mob of thirty white men.

The boy had already been forced to stand on the top of a five foot stead and the rope had been tossed over a rafter in the barn of Henry Jolly, father-in-law of Mrs. Esther Jolly, 18 year old white girl, victim of a supposed attack, when Dr. Maher Speevack prevailed upon the would-be lynchers, asking them to be sure they had the right man.

Town Marshal Burt Hodges also joined in to help save the boy, arguing that the woman had not made a positive identification. Curry has been lodged in the Hardin county jail for safekeeping, after having been spirited out of the local prison in a change of clothing.

MISSING THE POINT

Several writers have criticized the part played by Negroes at the recent Republican "grass roots" Conference in Springfield, Ill., basing their argument on the fact that the resolutions did not contain a long statement about the Negro.

The Bystander does not agree with this in the least for already we have had entirely too much talk from presidents, Republican and Democratic, which meant nothing and which they made no effort to put into execution once in power. We have had too many resolutions about the Negro placed there by men who felt that this paid the Negro for his vote in a campaign.

Fortunately Negroes served on some of the most important committees in the conference, notably resolutions. They were taken in on plans for the future. After all the success of the Negro is going to depend upon his work locally and an opportunity to share with all other groups in the general benefits asked for the whole country.

THERE IS A REASON

Arthur Brisbane, famous columnist, writes an interesting editorial in the New York Daily Mirror which we reprint on this page. The Bystander can not help but agree with his conclusions that Joe Louis will make more money as a prize fighter than he would have made as a violinist and that the public has not left the stage where it likes to see blood flow.

But it is the sporting public, which has come to regard a man on the basis of his ability and not his color and will pay a big price to see a performance. The people who love music have not seen fit to do this and thus a Negro violinist makes little headway—and few whites for that matter.

Of course public sentiment overcome the color line and forced white champions to fight Negroes. Negro musicians are overcoming the same handicap on the stage.

WHEN HE KNOCKS ANOTHER COLD

In ancient Roman days gladiators were brought from all parts of the world to Rome where, in the arena, before a howling mob, a usually sultry Emperor, listening to the screams of the "aristocratic ladies," turning thumbs up or thumbs down to vote death or mercy, the gladiators fought each other and fought wild beasts.

Fair-haired Saxon youths from England, broad-shouldered powerful men of the Germanic tribes, Scandinavian "Norsemen," captured by Roman galleys, as they came south in their small war boats, fighting men of all races, all colors were equals in the gladiatorial combats. The fighter was the equal of any man, if he could kill the man facing him, or make a good, however hopeless, fight against the lion, tiger, or wild bull, sent against him.

You see a sample of the African race, chosen for our prize fighting arena, to fight the white giant, Carnera. In the ring, your color doesn't matter if you can FIGHT. The days when John L. Sullivan "drew the color line" are gone. According to experts, this young Joe Louis CAN FIGHT.

Dental Health Education Hints

By Dr. Millard K. Dean

ELECTRICITY IN THE TEETH

All of us are aware of the fact that there is electricity in the hair of some people and in a darkened room combing will produce sparks. However, the electricity in the teeth can not be seen, but it is felt and results in varying degrees of shock to those so affected.

The electrical shock present in the teeth is only when there are different types of filling materials in the mouth especially gold and amalgam. The latter more commonly called silver fillings and in a mixture of mercury with silver and a few other metals as in copper and tin. The electricity is generated only when the saliva conducts a current from the gold filling or crown to the silver filling. Sometimes the pain necessitates the removal of the amalgam filling but in other cases the shock only lasts a few days and then diminishes. However, current will disintegrate the silver filling by drawing the mercury out and the filling crumbles and is lost.

The electrical current is more easily felt when there is gold and silver in opposite teeth on the same side of the mouth thereby causing the shock on closing the teeth. Yet if silver is placed in a tooth touching a gold filling there is sometimes trouble. Those with gold and amalgam filling in their mouths having had no pain need not worry as it is evident that their saliva is not a conductor of electricity.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dear Dr. Dean:
Can a patient have a large porcelain or enamel filling in the mouth instead of gold and why is it more people have gold in their mouths.

Des Moines, Iowa.
Ans. Synthetic porcelain or enamel fillings can be made for practically any size cavity and almost a perfect match color with the natural teeth produced. But this synthetic material is only temporary at best even though it looks nice and doesn't show. The saliva dissolves the substance in most people in a few years while in all cases the synthetic enamel lacks edge strength and will break or chip easily whereas the gold is permanent.

Mr. Dan Parker, who, in addition to being a philosopher and brilliant writer, is recognized as the ablest "Sporting Editor," in New York, says it would be difficult to exaggerate the possibilities locked up in the two fists that this young Negro carries with him.

And here you moralize, Joe Louis' proud Mother wanted him to be a violinist," bought him a fiddle. But if he had been a MARVELOUSLY good violinist, the world would have heard of him. And however much he might have made as a violinist, he would have made less in a lifetime than he might make, simply by sending his fist, doubled up inside a glove, to the "chin point" of some well-known white man.

If that doubled fist causes some white champion to "double up" and know nothing more for the following ten seconds, every newspaper in the world will print this young man's picture, his name and his praises. His Mother will be able to ride around

A. E. D.—Will you please tell me how I can improve my domestic affairs?
Ans. As long as you are in the house with your AUNT there is going to be some kind of family quarrel. I advise you to move in a house of your own while you are on good terms with her. You can get along lots better if you are separated.

M. J. R.—I would like to know how I can make a little extra money?
Ans. There are not many ways for you to make extra money since you haven't much spare time to make it in. What time you do have seems to be spent writing poetry. Why don't you try to sell some of these poems? You could make a steady income by sending these poems to various NEWS-PAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

G. A. B.—I want to know if I will be able to hold my friend without any trouble?
Ans. Your friend J. R. S. appears to be very fickle, and he will be hard to hold. If you don't watch your step, you're liable to lose him, for the certain young lady you know is going to cause you a lot of confusion. You're going to have a lot of competition to contend with.

A. W.—Does my husband make any more money than he says, and what does he do with it?
Ans. I get the impression that your husband makes more than he says, but only a few dollars. To save embarrassment for both you and he, I suggest that you see note attached to this column and write to me for a PRIVATE REPLY, concerning what he with his money.

G. T. M.—I am so worried and I want you to tell me what to do?
Ans. The treatment you got from your husband appears to be brought about to your neglect to him. It is quite right for you to look after your baby, and it does take up a lot of your time, but surely you can find time to be with your husband. Don't leave him. He loves you and the baby, and you both need him. If you would do it, he would be more than glad to spend his time with you.

E. S.—I am in love with a girl and I want to know if she will make me a happy wife and should I marry her?
Ans. The girl you are in love with seems to love you more than you realize, but you have one fault that she doesn't like. A girl as attractive as she is, is always sought after, and you shouldn't let her know you are so jealous of the boy that is trying to come between you. Finish your course at the boarding school and then ask her to become your wife again and you will get a different answer.

G. E. R.—I want to know if I will have to go to the hospital.

V. S.—I would like for you to tell me how I can get the money that was promised to me?

Ans. If you expect to collect the rest of your husband's insurance you had better not let them keep putting you off—you had no trouble collecting EIGHT HUNDRED of it when your husband died and through a good lawyer you won't have any trouble securing the balance of it.

E. O.—What kind of business do you think would be best for me to enter?

CRAX STAMPEDE MIAMI GIANTS BY 16-4 SCORE

Miamians Take It On Chin From Black Crax

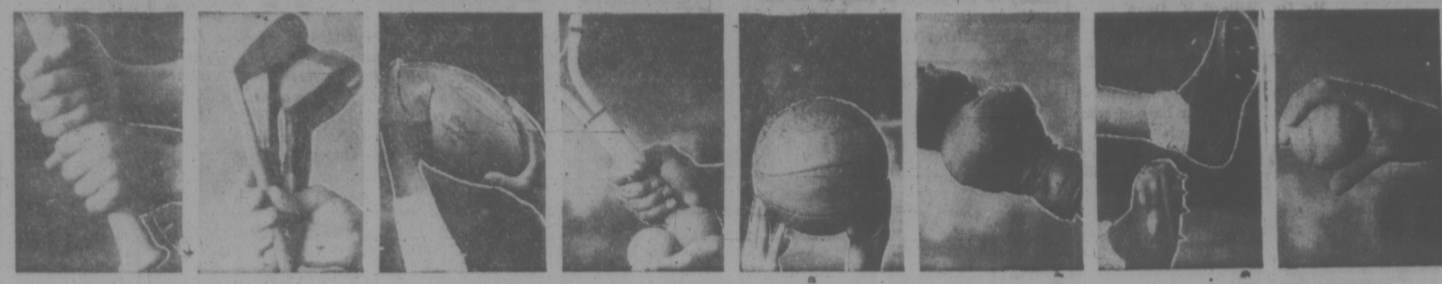

MIAMI, Fla.—The barnstorming Black Crackers from Atlanta stormed the Miami Giants, with a 16 to 4 trouncing here before a Sunday turnout of 2,000. The Atlanta team took charge of the game after the third inning and sent four Miami Giant pitchers to the showers by hard and regular hitting.

Led by the big bats of Green, Reeves, Moore and Glenn, the Atlanta visitors were socking pitches to all corners while their star pitcher, Cross, was coasting on to easy victory.

The big moment in an offensive way for the Black Crackers came in the fourth inning. Holliday singled over right sack and took third on Moore's single to the same spot. Donald Reeves then sent both runners around with a home run to the right field esplanade. Green followed with a double and Galloway, left the mound for Miami. Rhoady went in for him and Glenn greeted him with a triple to right field scoring Green. Humphrey struck out but Robinson singled a line single to right and Glenn scored. Kemp dumped a double along the third base foul line and Robinson tallied. Cross fanned but Holliday

WHITE MAN GETS TWENTY YEARS FOR KILLING NEGRO

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(AP)—Bob Hale white, was sentenced to serve 20 years in prison here Tuesday when he was found guilty of murder in the second degree in connection with the killing of Charlie Jones. The white man claimed self-defense.

WILMINGTON POLICE WARE ON "POLICY"

WILMINGTON, N. C.—(AP)—More than a score of owners and collectors for various "policy wheels" being operated here were arrested Tuesday in the campaign against lottery by police. According to the officers, whites own the "wheels" and Negroes do the dangerous work.

Find Prison of Kidnaped Boy

Immediately after his abduction, George Weyerhaeuser, scion of the lumber king, was hidden in the pit shown above which was dug by his kidnapers near Tacoma, Wash., to conceal their victim until he was spirited away to Spokane.

Eddie Huggins Plans Big Golfing Return!

In order to swell the number of amateur entries and make it possible for all Atlanta amateurs to participate in the Fourth Annual Southern Open and Amateur championship tournament committee will permit the amateurs whose work might otherwise keep them from playing in the tournament to qualify Sunday of this week.

The new daylight saving time will make possible for many working golfers to play their matches in the afternoon after working hours. The golfers who qualify Sunday will not have to play their first round match until Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning. The entrants who qualify in the championship flight will have to play their first match Tuesday afternoon, in order to have a 36 holes finals.

Amateurs who fail to enter this tournament will be passing up the greatest opportunity of a life time to win some large beautiful trophies. Never before has the tournament committee been able to secure such worthwhile prizes.

As the time for the tournament draws near the grounds and green committee is working overtime in an effort to get the course in the pink of condition. Practically all of this work is going forth with the club president, A. L. Miller, handing down the directions, and when July 2 arrives the course will be ready for the strong bombardment of birds, ies and eagles.

Eddie Huggins to Attempt Comeback
Eddie Huggins, 1932 amateur champion will attempt to stage a comeback and will offer Teddy Grimes a plenty of competition. For his crown, Dan Gifford, 1933

Hayes, Lillian Ewalt, Eddie Tolan, Ralph Metcalfe, Booker T. Washington, R. E. Moton, W. E. B. DuBois, Kelly Miller, Jesse Owens, Willis Ward, and other outstanding Negroes is failing to do it today. And, a safe guess is that, even in the next generations, there will be little or no change or modification of this condition.

THE ATTITUDE of these Southern white papers has been just the way pictured for untold years, despite the fact that a respectable percentage of their patronage (and, consequently, their support) has come and still is coming from the Negro population. Unless Negroes learn to turn a cold shoulder on institutions that fatten on them but give nothing in return, they will for an interminable period be required to tolerate the daily and consistent prejudice to which they are subjected on every turn. If for no other reason than that a Joe Louis victory would put these Southern white papers "on the spot" that are disposed not to run his photo, we are pulling for him to mangle the big, awe-inspiring Cyclops of Fisticuffs.

Attention Swimmers

The swimming season is on, and with it, unfortunately, the drowning season.

Most drownings like most traffic accidents, follow recklessness or carelessness. The careless individual who "rocks the boat" is closely akin to the reckless individual who dives in shallow places or ventures too far from shore.

The Red Cross, ever-mindful of "safety first," issues 15 cautious "don'ts" for swimmers. They should be posted at every bathing place, kept in mind by every person who goes into the water, fresh or salt.

1. Don't swim on full stomach. Wait at least two hours after eating.
2. Don't swim if overheated or tired.
3. Don't swim until exhausted. Rest on your back and then swim ashore.
4. Don't swim if you have heart trouble.
5. Don't dive without actual knowledge of the depth of the water.
6. Don't struggle if caught in a swift current of undertow. The force of the current will bring you to surface. Then you can work toward shore.
7. Don't wade into the water with your arms above your head. You will not be ready to stroke if you step into a hole.
8. Don't lean backward when wading into the water. Always be ready to fall forward.
9. Don't go swimming alone.
10. Don't go for long swims without being accompanied by a boat.
11. Don't swim in unsupervised places.
12. Don't accept dares.
13. Don't engage in horse-play.
14. Don't cry for help in fun. You may some time need help and not get it.
15. Better be safe than sorry. Better be careful than a corpse.

$606 Swapped For Paper

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The well known "big" was dropped on Mrs. Mattie Eads, 1471 Thomas street Friday, and before she realized she was a victim of the time-worn game, she had given to two men $606 in exchange for a purse containing nothing but waste paper.

Mrs. Eads reported to police that two colored men approached her, claiming to have found a purse with a large amount of money and offering to divide with her. After she put up "wastepaper" money, the pair indignantly divided the money and gave Mrs. Eads her share in the purse. She found the money was "wastepaper" money.

Assailant Remains Under Cover As Mail Man Suffers

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—I. T. Stirling, letter carrier of 270 south Orleans street, found unconscious in his front yard early Thursday morning had shown very little improvement up to Sunday night, Miss A. M. Ware, Collier's Chapel Hospital nurse, said. Mr. Stirling was still unconscious.

Mr. Stirling's wife learned when her husband failed to put in his appearance at midnight and upon opening the door of I. T. in Thursday, she was startled to see his motionless form stretched across the steps of the front porch.

He was covered with dried blood.

Mrs. Stirling said her husband left home early Wednesday night to attend the letter carrier's band practice at Clifton Park Auditorium.

Negroes have proved their claim to superiority in the most ruthless sort of fashion from time to time, sometimes doing things bordering on the miraculous or superhuman, but none of these things have been sufficiently impressive and momentous enough to lead a Southern white daily paper to so much as a gesture of fairness.

The feats of Jack Johnson, Bert Williams, Howard Drew, Erits Pollard, and other immortals failed to do it in the other era. The prowess of Roland

Southern Prejudice

JOE LOUIS, the bombarding "Brown Bomber" of Detroit, is good enough to "rate six columns" spreads" on the front and sports pages of such universally known dailies as the Chicago DAILY TRIBUNE, all the Michigan and Ohio papers, and most of the big Eastern sheets, none of which has allowed the mere matter of color to rob them of some of the best "hot copy" in the fight game in years. Action photos of Louis in some characteristic boxing pose appear almost daily in these journals, and the same is true of many of the big Western dailies.

But such is not the case here in "good ole Dixie." Not by a long shot. There seems a conscientious effort to avoid running photos or "shots" of the colored youth, whereas, almost daily, there have been pictures of Primo Carnera, the giant Italian.

BELIEVING THAT many mats of Joe Louis have been forwarded to the local and other Southern white dailies by news services of which they are consolidated members, we have been writing anxiously to see if any of these Dixie sheets would actually run any of these pictures. But, to date, we have yet to see so many as one, while virtually all mats of Carnera that have been sent have been used.

In the Sunday WORLD, a mat of Joe Louis and Primo Carnera was run which, although syndicated to hundreds of Southern white newspapers, has not run a single one of several dozens upon which we have checked carefully, while, in the same way we have noted six different Eastern and Midwestern metropolitan daily papers that have already used the same mat.

THE SAME SITUATION existed during the 1932 Olympics out in Los Angeles. The Eastern, Northwestern, and Far West papers carried reams of copy and many striking photos of the Springing Eddie Tolan, Ralph Metcalfe, and Jimmy Johnson, and also carried cuts that showed such stepa stars as Cornelius Johnson and Edward Gordon. But the Southern white papers were "hands off" when it came to running a picture of one of the universally acclaimed Negro wizards.

This Shows more clearly than probably anything else the backwardness and prejudice of the Far South. It will take generations for the idea to penetrate through the collective skulls of these narrow and embittered denizens of Dixie that this practice is one of the most retarding of all. It lays the Southland open for censure from the rest of the whole civilized world.

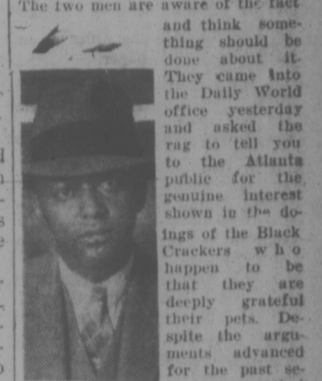

NONE THE LESS noticeable than the failure to run pictures of Joe Louis with the same degree of spontaneity that they do "shots" of Carnera is the persistence of the Southern white papers to use the offensive small letter in referring to the nationality of Louis. Whereas most of the big metropolitan dailies have awakened to the knowledge that the word Negro is a proper noun, therefore commands a capital "N," the Southern white paper persist in calling Louis "the Detroit negro," or "the like."

Negroes have proved their claim to superiority in the most ruthless sort of fashion from time to time, sometimes doing things bordering on the miraculous or superhuman, but none of these things have been sufficiently impressive and momentous enough to lead a Southern white daily paper to so much as a gesture of fairness.

The feats of Jack Johnson, Bert Williams, Howard Drew, Erits Pollard, and other immortals failed to do it in the other era. The prowess of Roland

CRAX MEN GRATEFUL FOR YOUR RALLYING

THE Webster Baker-Percy Williams interests are in fine fettle. The two men are aware of the fact and think something should be done about it. The came into the Daily World office yesterday and asked the rag to tell you to the Atlanta public for the routine interest shown in the doings of the Black Crackers who happen to be that they are deeply grateful their pets. Despite the arguments advanced for the past several years that baseball was no go here, the Black Crackers have become a paying proposition. The town has become Black Cracker conscious and the office phone rings often with questions about the where and when on the team. The two owners are wearing gardenias today and smiling right out loud; and they should because the resurrection of the dead is time enough for such manifestations.

Southernmost Florida

The Black Crackers are opening up in Miami this afternoon where not less than 4,000 fans are awaiting them. Miami is a baseball town for true and will pay to see real clubs battle. "Chin" Evans, clever cutter on the Black Crax staff will handle today's game and if he is in form the Floridians may find themselves engulfed in a fog during the nine innings of his tenure.

In the meantime the local management is not asleep. A sturdy pitcher who can start or relieve is the need and a power hitter to play left field is also another need.

It is just as well that you know that "Jew Baby" Bennett, the last of the trio of "trial horse" managers of the Black Crackers, has been rusticated. He broke some cardinal training codes the night before the team left for Florida and Mr. Williams told him to stay here. A subsequent suspension and heavy fine was imposed and in disgust Mr. Bennett retired to his spacious and pretentious Chicago home. There to bask in luxury and ease while his ex-mates belabored themselves in Florida to win ball games. Bennett may not return to the team, his conduct being what it is. He is well heeled financially and is still smiling.

"Geek" Jennings the fireball king looks like the pitcher the Crackers need and he may be signed. Talk of "Bo" Brigrigg, terrific hitter of Monroe, Ga., is in the air and the locals may make a deal for him pronto.

AU and Clark Grad Is Given Alcorn Post

ATLANTA, Ga.—News has just reached the office of the Atlanta Daily World that H. Webster Norris has been appointed burser and professor of business administration at Alcorn college, Alcorn, Mississippi.

After graduation with the degree of bachelor of arts from Clark, he enrolled as a graduate student at Atlanta university where he did outstanding work. He was graduated from that institution in June of 1935 with the degree of master of arts in economics.

At Atlanta university, Mr. Norris' major work was done under the direction of Professors Milton and Blaxton. His thesis was written in the field of college and university accounting under the immediate supervision of Professor J. B. Blayton.
