First Half is 2 Less Than '34

All of the persons lynched were Negroes. The offenses charged were: wounding man in altercation, 1; rape, 1; murder, 2. The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Louisiana, 2, and Mississippi, 2. This information was forwarded by F. D. Patterson, president of the school.

COAST ENGAGEMENT
Cleveland, O., July 5—By a narrow margin, the Plain Dealer says, Jesse Owens, Ohio State university's greatest luminary of track and field, missed being named defendant in a breach of promise suit.

Owens promised to marry her, Miss Minnie Ruth Solomon of this city claims, and further states that Jesse applied for a marriage license in 1934. "Am going to file suit," her telegram to Owens read. She later declared that she would give the track star a chance to explain.

Miss Solomon got wind of a report that Owens planned matrimony with the daughter of a Los Angeles insurance executive and aired her intentions to sue.

"Don't believe it," Owens wired Miss Solomon. "It's a framed-up gag."

Elliston, Ad Manager, Mease, Y Secretary, Return from Tour of Twenty Eastern Cities

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

"The conditions of the colored people are much improved in business and professions throughout the country and the accommodations, treatment of the Negroes in railroads, steamships and buses throughout is liberal, especially in New England," was the consensus of opinion of Spencer Elliston, advertising manager of The Bystander, and Quentin R. Mease of the Crocker Y. M. C. A., who returned last week from an extensive tour of the eastern cities, after attending the International Conference of Social Workers, which met in Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

Boston, Concord, New Haven, Atlantic City, Cleveland, Indianapolis are some of the other well known cities visited by the Des Moines men.

Motor Industries
Toledo's 14,000 Negroes and $290,000 Y. M. C. A. are a credit to the race, Mr. Mease stated. Detroit's motor industries are thriving, especially the Chrysler and Ford plants, which employ thousands of Negroes. Four Negro weeklies are printed there. The Detroit Guardian, published by W. H. Casey, is the leading paper there.

Buffalo's two up-to-date hostilities, Vendome and Montgomery, owned by Negroes, seem to be the mecca for the white upper New York swank, they said. Deputy Sheriff Arthur Wilson, former Des Moines boy, and Shelton Brooks, Iowan, and composer of "Some of These Days," now night club owner, are the "big shots" from the Hawkeye state. The $320,000 Y. M. C. A. serves the 22,000 Negro population. Viewing Niagara Falls from Canadian and American side, the Des Moines men journeyed on to Toronto.

France Aligned With Mussolini

SYMPATHIES OF THE WORLD ARE WITH ETHIOPIA

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, July 5—Despite the fact that France has chosen to align herself with Fascist Italy in Mussolini's attempt to annex this country, the last remaining independent nation in Africa, the rest of the world seems sympathetic toward Ethiopia. This was noted here after conferences with foreign representatives.

The French, it was learned here, angered at the fact that England has effected a naval agreement with Germany, turned down efforts on the part of the British last week to get France's support in a League of Nations' coupe to halt Italian preparation for invasion of Ethiopia.

The English, in their anxiety to avert warfare, agreed to give Emperor Haile Selassie a slice of British territory which would give Ethiopia access to the Red sea. In return for

He plans to remain here for a week, outlining a program which will carry him over the state in an attempt to build circulation. The first week he will visit Keokuk, July 8, 9, 10; Fort Madison, July 11; Burlington, July 12; Mt. Pleasant, July 13, and Fairfield, July 14.

After two months' itinerary, Roddy will return to Des Moines and concentrate his energy on the local field. Roddy's father lives in Keokuk and it is there he attended high school.

NATIONAL SECRETARY SEES GROUP HEADED TOWARD DESPERATION

St. Louis, Mo., July 5—At the closing mass meeting of the twenty-sixth annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the municipal auditorium here Sunday, Walter White, the association's secretary, electrified the 2,600 persons present by warning that "unless justice is given the Negro, he may be driven by desperation to the use of force. But we pray God that this may never happen, as we know all weapons are in the hands of those who deny us a chance."

This solemnly dramatic statement coming at the conclusion of a brilliant address in which the speaker reviewed the work of the year, gave details of the spectacular anti-lynching bill fight and asked support for the militant program of the N. A. A. C. P., was followed by a prolonged ovation.

New Plan Adopted
Mr. White was preceded on the platform by Hon. Josephine Roche, assistant secretary of the treasury and noted Colorado liberal, who expressed sympathy with the plight of the Negro and called upon all citizens to support the national program for a better social order.

She declared that the goal of all Americans must be social and economic justice and pledged her aid in bettering the condition of the Negro. Prolonged applause greeted her remarks.

The delegates who came from twenty-six states and the District of Columbia adopted the much discussed new plan and program of the association, which is a radical departure from the previous policy.

Baltimore, 1936
Baltimore, Md., was selected as the city for the twenty-seventh annual conference of the N. A. A. C. P. next year, after a hot fight with Columbus, Ohio, and Omaha, Neb. The St. Louis conference, which closed Sunday, was one of the most successful ever held by the organization.

Speaking at the Thursday evening, John P. Davis, secretary of the joint committee on national recovery, scored the New Deal as "worsening the lot of the masses of American people" and charged that "the experiments are conceived, so far as Negroes are concerned, in terms of

Morehouse College Halls Will Be Modernized

ATLANTA, Ga.— Work of renovating and modernizing the buildings of Morehouse College will begin immediately with the view of having the halls completely in readiness for use by the beginning of the college year in September, President S. H. Archer announced yesterday.

Both the exterior and interior of the four classroom and dormitory buildings, as well as the President's residence will be done over completely, he stated. The program of improvement calls for the laying of new floors, virtually rebuilding of the stairways, painting and redecorating of the interiors, pointing up the brickwork, and painting the exteriors, repair of roofs and drains, and installation of new plumbing. Work will get under way actively by the first of July, and is to be completed by September 1, well in advance of the opening of college.

Buildings to be renovated will include the Science Hall, Sales Hall, the classroom and chapel building, Robert Hall, the upper classroom dormitory, Graves Hall, the freshman-sophomore dormitory, and the President's residence.

Of this group Graves Hall is the oldest, having been built in 1889 as a memorial to Dr. Samuel Graves, its second president. In 1910 Sales Hall was opened as a classroom and chapel, and named in honor of Dr. George Sale, third president of the college. Robert Hall, named for the first head of grain, Mount Zion was built in 1916 and 1921, respectively.

Highland Stars Routed, 11-3 By Remount

By SAM MCKIBBEN
The Remount Tigers were in a ferocious mood Sunday afternoon on the old MBU Field and their perfect record, 11 won out of 11, played in yet to be marred. The Tigers came here, highly touted and they were as sensational as the advance dope had stated, routing Highland Stars 11 to 3.

The Stars drew first blood, pushing two across the first frame. The game rolled merrily along until the inevitable murders row came to bat in the third set. The game had developed into a pitching duel and the boys were setting the batters down three in a row. Oakland Stars took, had weakened and was nicked for eight safeties and six runs. He gave up another hit that was converted into a run when a man was hit and another was walked.

The Stars were checked effectively by Jimmie Hood, Oakland fanned the next two batters and made the third pop weakly to Goodie at second. The stars tied and loaded the bases with one out, but "Red" Moore fanned as did the indomitable Dick Frazier. The Tigers expressed their appreciation these more tallies. The Stars did nothing in the next frame and the game was over.

The Remount Tigers have successfully defended their clean slate, blasting the heretofore undefeated Highland Stars out of the picture. The Stars have not fared so badly at that as they have engaged in four tilts, won three in a row, losing one.

Highland Stars Play Jefferson

minister The Rev. Mr. Foster, a progressive young clergyman, is a senior at Gammon Theological Seminary and the son of one of the outstanding ministers in the state.

Since coming to Wheat Street Church a little less than five years ago, the Rev. Mr. Henderson has made himself felt as a "power" in Atlanta and as a tireless community worker. In addition to his "outside" work, his congregation has not been neglected and he has achieved the enviable record of seeing paid off a heavy debt that pioneer Atlantans had often predicted would never be paid off and laid preliminary plans for the completion of the mammoth structure.

A graduate of Virginia Union (A.B. and Oberlin College (B.D.), the Rev. Mr. Henderson, although he is forced to do so from his own means, plans to further prepare himself for his chosen work. The 37-year-old minister is to study for his master of sacred theology degree at one of the best schools in the country during the coming school year.

Leaving Atlanta on August 1st, he will go to Toronto, Canada, where, at the Gospel Center, he will, for an entire month deliver

Man Can Talk With God Says Noted Psychologist
A new and revolutionary religious teaching based entirely on the misunderstood sayings of the Galilean Carpenter, and designed to show how we may find, understand and use the same identical power which Jesus used in performing His so-called Miracles, is attracting world wide attention to its founder, Dr. Frank B. Robinson, noted psychologist, author and lecturer.

"Psychiana," this new psychological religion, believes and teaches that it is today possible for every normal human being, understanding spiritual law as Christ understood it, to duplicate what the Galilean Carpenter of Galilee ever did — it believes and teaches that when He said, "the things that I do shall ye do also." He meant what He said and meant it literally to all mankind, through all the ages.

Dr. Robinson has prepared a 6000 word treatise on "Psychiana," in which he tells about his long search for the Truth, how he finally came to the full realization of an Unseen Power to force so dynamic in itself that all other powers and forces fade into insignificance beside it—how he learned to commune directly with the Living God, using this mighty, never-failing power to demonstrate health, happiness and financial success, and how any normal being may find and use it as Jesus did. He is now offering this treatise free to every reader of this paper who writes him.

If you want to read this highly interesting, revolutionary and fascinating great Truth, just send your name and address to Dr. Frank B. Robinson, 252-6th St., Moscow, Idaho. It will be sent free and postpaid without cost or obligation. Write the Doctor today—Copyright 1933, Dr. Frank B. Robinson—Advertisement.

minister The Rev. Mr. Foster, a progressive young clergyman, is a senior at Gammon Theological Seminary and the son of one of the outstanding ministers in the state.

Since coming to Wheat Street Church a little less than five years ago, the Rev. Mr. Henderson has made himself felt as a "power" in Atlanta and as a tireless community worker. In addition to his "outside" work, his congregation has not been neglected and he has achieved the enviable record of seeing paid off a heavy debt that pioneer Atlantans had often predicted would never be paid off and laid preliminary plans for the completion of the mammoth structure.

A graduate of Virginia Union (A.B. and Oberlin College (B.D.), the Rev. Mr. Henderson, although he is forced to do so from his own means, plans to further prepare himself for his chosen work. The 37-year-old minister is to study for his master of sacred theology degree at one of the best schools in the country during the coming school year.

A new and revolutionary religious teaching based entirely on the misunderstood sayings of the Galilean Carpenter, and designed to show how we may find, understand and use the same identical power which Jesus used in performing His so-called Miracles, is attracting world wide attention to its founder, Dr. Frank B. Robinson, noted psychologist, author and lecturer.

"Psychiana," this new psychological religion, believes and teaches that it is today possible for every normal human being, understanding spiritual law as Christ understood it, to duplicate what the Galilean Carpenter of Galilee ever did — it believes and teaches that when He said, "the things that I do shall ye do also." He meant what He said and meant it literally to all mankind, through all the ages.

Dr. Robinson has prepared a 6000 word treatise on "Psychiana," in which he tells about his long search for the Truth, how he finally came to the full realization of an Unseen Power to force so dynamic in itself that all other powers and forces fade into insignificance beside it—how he learned to commune directly with the Living God, using this mighty, never-failing power to demonstrate health, happiness and financial success, and how any normal being may find and use it as Jesus did. He is now offering this treatise free to every reader of this paper who writes him.

Rosenwald Contest Arousing Interest

The Rosenwald offer of one thousand dollars for "work stories of living Negroes" is exciting wide interest and has already brought in a large number of stories, according to the Commission on Inter-racial Cooperation, which is conducting the contest. The closing date for entry of stories will be October first, by which time it is expected that hundreds of interesting life histories will be awaiting the attention of the judges.

The stories already submitted come from all parts of the country and cover a wide range of activities. Some tell of success; some of struggle and failure; others of heroic effort still in progress. A boy just entering college recounts his long struggle through elementary and high school; an undercracker tells how he beat the depression; a farmer recounts his successful efforts to buy land; a preacher tells of his work and his ideals. There are stories of a successful real estate operator, a cook and laundress who is also a community leader, a teacher working for a graduate degree, a woman undertaker, an aviator, a blind man who tells trees, cut cordwood, and bottoms chairs, and so on through a most interesting cross section of economic struggle.

The Commission points out that there is still ample time to prepare and submit stories and will send full information to anyone writing to its headquarters, 703 Standard Building, Atlanta.

News of Iowa Towns

Around Council Bluffs

With Manson L. James

Greetings: And are the faces of they who discriminate "Red." The local branch of the N. A. C. P. is determined that whatever the cost, all Negroes shall be free from insult, mental or physical when they seek to enjoy the facilities of bathing beaches or restaurants or other public places of amusement or service in southwestern Iowa. Having had Council Bluffs of all surface discrimination. Thanks to Mayor Hugh P. Finerty and the branch president. The organization is now seeking through enlightened public sentiment to eliminate the cause. Heard at Allen Christian Endeavor Sunday, "If all subversive movements - Ku Kluxism, Lily Whittam, Ocho-cracy and Lynching" were attacked with the vigor of the Hearst attack on communism, there would be no need for exponents of radical doctrines, says I. "Amen." Pathetic figures: The gentleman who advocated a segregated swimming pool for Negroes realizing elections just around the corner. Our neighbor who has 3 feet of water standing where he planted corn. The traitor who laid it on Carnera 6 to 5. Republican politicians looking for something to promise in '34. Demo. ditto looking for something he has not promised. Beulah Baptist church, Rev. J. H. Reynolds in charge had as speaker on June 27, the moderator of the Iowa, Neb., So. Dakota Association Rev. G. W. Robinson of Des Moines with whom we were well pleased. Council Bluffs, was well represented at the A. M. E. conference held at Keokuk by Mr. Sanford Harvey of Bethel A. M. E. church.

JUDGE THROWS OUT NEWTON CASE

Chicago, June 28—(A. N. P.)—The case against Herbert Newton, nationally exploited communist, in which he and his white wife, Jane, were evicted from the premises at 615 Oakwood boulevard, was declared a non-suit in the court of Judge Cecil Corbett Smith here last Monday, thus bringing to an end a long-drawn-out affair which the Hearst press made much of.

Newton was evicted from the place where he and his wife roomed with a white family on a distinctly racial issue which Dr. Mitchell, white, owner of the premises, tried to camouflage as an action based on the fact that Newton was a known "red" agitator. Newton's wife was put in jail and her character raked in the daily press.

Non-suit was declared after Dr. Mitchell, who came back to Chicago from Florida to prosecute the case, couldn't muster enough evidence to make a case.

200 DELEGATES FROM TWENTY-THREE STATES AT N. A. C. P. CONFERENCE

St. Louis, June 28.—More than 200 delegates from thirty-eight branches in twenty-one states are attending the twenty-sixth annual conference of the N. A. C. P., which opened here Tuesday evening, June 25, and will continue until June 30.

The delegates are coming from Alabama, District of Columbia, California, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and Texas.

A. P. Trotter, president of the Des Moines branch, is the only local representative at this meeting.

MISSISSIPPI'S SUMMER LYNCH SEASON IS OPEN

Wiggins, Miss., June 28.—Dormant for a few months, Mississippi's lynching spirit returned on Saturday, and a howling, cursing mob of 500 brutal whites murdered a 25 year old man on what they claimed was a confessed attack on an 11 year old white girl.

Not satisfied with stringing R. D. McGee, the lynched man, to a tree and drizzling his body with bullets, the hoodlums seized the first Negro they saw Saturday morning, charged him with insulting a white woman.

Family Habits Handed Down

Hundreds of family habits are handed down not by physical or mental heredity but by "social heredity," notes a writer in the Detroit News.

Ability to swim or play games usually well is largely due to physical heredity but all healthy people play games passably well because of talkative and eating with one's knife or fork, loud in depots and on trains or gossiping about neighbors runs in some families but fortunately is not inborn.

Marginal Land Defined

The National Land Use Planning committee defined marginal land as "land where the agricultural output just balances input, including a proper allowance for depreciation and interest on capital other than land and labor of the operator and his family. Submarginal land is that where output falls below the balance and supermarginal land, that where output rises above."

The Granby Token

The Granby token (1787) was a private copper coinage issued by John Higley of Granby, Conn., where there were copper mines, afterward used as Tory coppers and workshops. The obverse was a deer, with the legend, "Value Me As You Please"; Roman numerals III and crescent. The reverse was three hammers on a triangular field, each surmounted by a crown, and with the legend, "I Am Good Copper."

Rifles of Civil War Days

In the American Civil War troops of both the North and South were armed with rifles, shooting elongated bullets rounder at the nose rather than the old round bullets of the long rifle. Most of the rifles of that period were muzzle-loaders, though as the war progressed breechloading rifles were introduced from time to time.

Copper and Lead

Sheet copper and lead are the metals most commonly used in roofing. Repairs and replacement of roof and chimney flashing can more safely be done with these metals than with cheaper materials which will rust out in a few years. The same is true for the gutters and rain spouts.

and using this pretext, rushed him into the woods, where he was subjected to a severe and brutal whipping.

Viola Has Part All Its Own in Orchestra Work

The viola is exactly like the violin, except that it is one-fifth larger and has heavier strings, notes a writer in the Washington Post. It is tuned a fifth below the violin, its strings thus giving G, D and A, the deepest tones being an octave below middle C on the piano.

The viola is played in a manner similar to that used for the violin, except for the greater stretches in fingering, due to the greater length of the strings.

The dull, mournful tone of the viola comes from the fact that its strings are thicker. The extra depth is attained by increasing the thickness of the strings, which always makes the tone less brilliant. Thus, the viola gets a tone color of brooding melancholy.

The viola plays the third part in the string quartet, which consists of a first and second violin, a viola, and a violoncello. This does not mean that it is always below the two violins in pitch, for the string quartet depends upon interest and variety in the leading of its four parts, and sometimes the viola may be playing the highest note of a chord.

In orchestral work the viola has much the same duty. It is often called upon for its special tones color, but usually it is found playing in four-part harmony with the other strings, the violins and violoncellos. In the Eighteenth century its role was more humble, and it was often compelled to follow the bass viol.

Poplar Tree Is Beaver's Favorite Along Streams

Beavers are as easy to raise as sheep or pigs. They are more profitable and give less trouble. The beaver flourishes wherever the poplar grows, and was once very much at home all over the continent from the Mexican border north, excepting only the deserts of the south and the sub-arctic barrens. For the native it was an important source of food and warm clothing, and the value of its pelts was responsible for attracting the advance guard of civilization. For a century the beaver skin was the standard of value among the dwellers of the frontier.

As engineers their architectural ingenuity is sufficient to enable them to withstand their natural enemies, the bear, the wolf, the bob-cat, the wolverine and the otter. But they are not nearly so intelligent as it is generally supposed. In fact they are so easily trapped as to be the most difficult animals to protect.

In their wild condition they are friendly and sociable among themselves, but regard other beavers and all other living things as enemies.

Alloys Compete With Steel

Light alloys of non-ferrous metals that have a strength comparable with steel are strong competitors of metals. These substances have long been associated with pipe stems, lunch trays, bracelets, and other novelties, but now they are being made into castings for heavy manufacturing equipment with success. Used with asbestos fillers, resins can be molded into pieces of almost any size. The resulting "castings" are much lighter than similar alloys of iron.

THE IOWA BYSTANDER

and using this pretext, rushed him into the woods, where he was subjected to a severe and brutal whipping.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant.

Either because of stomach disturbance, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive body odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Hairs fermentation and putrefaction, a major source of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Journey's End
Frank T. Layton, former Wilberforce athlete, is in charge of the transient relief center at Columbus, Ohio. Fifty per cent of the staff is colored, and whites and Negroes alike are under his supervision. Nimrod Allen, Elliston's schoolmate, now head of the Urban League, and Halie Q. Brown of Wilberforce were visited.

Chicago, the journey's end to Elliston and Mease, "globe trotters," was viewed with tired eyes from the familiar South Parkway, Washington park, Chicago Defender office and the White Sox ball park. The "golden dome" of Iowa's capital was a welcome sight to these weary travelers and their thumbs seemed to be slightly numb.

Baltimore, June 28.—The University of Maryland cannot bar Donald Gaines Murray, Amherst college graduate, from its law school because of his color, according to a decision handed down in the Baltimore city court last Tuesday by Judge Eugene O'Duane.

Lawyers of the N. A. A. C. P., led by Charles H. Houston, its special counsel, presented Mr. Murray's plea for a writ of mandamus, requiring the university to accept and pass upon his qualifications. He had been turned down by the authorities of this tax-supported institution when it was discovered that he was a colored man. The N. A. A. C. P. lawyers proved that the state's scholarship aid is inadequate and that no facilities equal to those available at the university are furnished to col-

MORE LOUIS

The big fight is history and now we can look at it with a little calmer judgment. There can be no questioning on denying Joe Louis place as probably the best heavyweight in the country today. But Gene Tunney struck a warning note when he said that Louis needed to fight often during the next few years. Too many boys have reached Joe's position in their game and went into semi-retirement waiting for big money shots which are few and far between for anyone. The Detroit dynamiter will have plenty of battles if he wants to fight for small money. Every palooka in the country will jump at a chance to earn a reputation by staying from two rounds on hoping to catch Joe missing and stay the limit. When one is as well versed on fundamentals in any game as Joe Louis is in boxing he may have had days, but even his bad days may be too good for him and eggheads. Take em all on Joe and become a real fighter as Tunney says you can.

PICKING UP LOOSE ENDS

While we were joining the big parade to the fight noise we overlooked a lot of hot local news story with Jesse Owens continuing his match of four firsts to a meet beating the best on the coast and Willis Ward led the boys at finish of five events in the all-around championship. "But the meet consisted of ten events and Ward finally finished fourth. Still the critics said he may be our next Olympic champion.

The Capitol City Monarchs must have thought the league season ended with eight games for after winning that many they have lost three in a row. "Hey, the race is still on, boys."

Chet Williamson and yours truly got in the district tennis meet last week. Our luck on the draw wasn't so hot, so we left the meet in the early rounds, still we had a lot of fun and will be in the Missouri Valley and state meets later on.

This is the first case in the association's recently accelerated campaign to force open tax supported higher educational institutions to colored students through legal action. It is thus of far-reaching significance, since a practice that is illegal in the tax supported educational institutions of one state is doubtless illegal elsewhere. Assisting Attorney Houston in the Maryland university case was Attorney Thurgood Marshall of Baltimore.

Berkley, Calif., June 28.—Pounding feet and fleeting legs of brown-tumbling records, plaudits of the multitude and still driving that lithe, bronzed body of his toward the highest heights of trackdom—that's Jesse Owens, the "Buckeye Bullet," the "Ohio Ambassador of Racial Amity," who here on Friday and Saturday climaxed an already amazing season's performance with an almost unreal exhibition of ability, courage and gameness by taking four events in the National Collegiate A. A.'s championship track and field meet. Stanford was tied at third with the University of California with 20 points.

Adult Counselor
College trained women experienced in camp activities compose the program staff. An adult counselor lives in each cabin with the girls. There will be five trained lifeguards, a registered nurse and a foreign guest counselor.

The camp dining room serves balanced, plentiful and well prepared meals suited to growing and active girls. The water supply is approved by the state board of health. Each camper is required to pass a health inspection not more than four days before camp opens.

August 12-19
The dates are August 12-19. The fee is $6.50, including transportation for all girls who register on or before August 5. A deposit of $1.00 or more is required for a registration. An additional 25 cents will be charged for registrations made after August 5.

The publicity committee is sponsoring a Camp Poster Contest, open to all girls. Prizes will be awarded. Posters must be in by July 8. Naomi Gilmore, Hulbert Gater, Maxine Carson and Flora Mae Carter have already begun work. Girls who wish to earn a part of their camp fee may do so by calling the Y. W. C. A. for information.

Danforth, Hill, Cranston, Demery Star In Tennis Meet

Danforth, McGill, Blake

BY RIC ROBERTS

It has been quite a spell since that last day of 1932 when I, in company with the late founder of this sheet—W. A. Scott, II, was rambling around in Cuba on a holiday trip and our guides carried us to the outposts of Havana to a beer garden. It was at that lovely spot with its tropic scenery and iced beer that I saw a man leaning over a zaguan barrier. I took one big look and then went up and put the question: "Say, aren't you Mr. Danforth... Ed Danforth, the sports chief of the Georgian in Atlanta?" The astounded man looked up and said, "Yeah, and who are you?" And I said, "I am Ric Roberts of The Atlanta Daily World in Atlanta." He smiled surprisedly and returned amiably, "Imagine staying in Atlanta for years and never meeting you. Imagine finally meeting you here. Come around the place. The Georgia Tech team is here and Ralph McGill and Coach Alexander; come over here and meet them." W. A. Scott, always hesitant in such instances, told me to go and meet them, that he, himself, would not blow himself to that privilege.

Well, I went on among the throng of American tourists and met Coach Alexander and Sir Ralph McGill and the last of the Bertrons. We had the same boat back to the States where I have never seen either of them since. They made singular and definite impressions upon my mind, impressions which I filed away long ago with no expectation of needing them ever. The recent Joe Louis intrusion has had me change my mind.

ALL sorts of squawks smote my ears last week when subscribers to the white daily papers here became jaundiced about the type of reasoning and manipulations the white sports chroniclers were employing in their treatment of our new hero, Joe Louis. I took the specified columns into custody and gave them a thorough digest and saw nothing to become alarmed about. Remembering, first of all, that the white papers must cater to a white clientele and that the wishes and pet peeves of this clientele must be stationed above all else... I could imagine nothing more for the local sport hackers to do. Sirs Danforth and Blake have never seen Louis and so it is entirely possible for the former to find it difficult to become steamed up about a man whom he has never seen. The Baer-Braddock thing was a cure for such haste and Danforth has been around long enough to be a cagey article.

I hasten to advise all and sundry that The Morgan Blake column of Wednesday has given me food upon which I expect to dine until late fall. The McGill treatises were hurried things and found our Joe Louis styled an insuperable in one breath when the author was actually staggering beneath the sheer imprint of the Bomber, and then a near-great when the author had become himself again; when the aura and excitement had retired in favor of mature deliberation.

BE that as it may, I am looking around. The Blake assertion of a Baer-Louis party with 100,000 fans looking on is indeed a pip and the papers were full of it yesterday. Baer and Schmeling are ready and willing to take on our Joe. Schmeling will face Joe in September in what should gross around $500,000. This will give us the old build-up for a Baer-Louis show that should shake the foundations provided Louis can get past the boy from Sarau. If, as the Blake logic suggests, Baer can tie himself to some rural spot and really get in the shape that brought him from California to Madison Square Garden and the championship... we are in for interesting things, but not peace.

THE news that Baer and Schmeling, among other engagements between now and November, are to take on Joe Louis in the immediate vicinities of Chicago and New York, will, I am sure, give a great impetus to the fight game. The game is beginning to boom in the metropolitan centers, due to the arrival of sensational Joe "Brown Bomber" Louis; the most alarming over-night arrival the sport has ever known. I am only worried that my logical white contemporary writers have not made sufficient survey of this Louis person. They do not seem to grasp the circumstance that Joe Louis, whether he is flattened by Schmeling or Baer, has brought boxing back to a public, to a fandom, that was fast swarming to wrestling and baseball and other forms. The picture of this mad, bad boy from Detroit throwing lefts and rights like they have never been thrown since the Jack Dempsey of 1921 was throwing them, has started a stampede which only his downfall can terminate. Without Louis, where would boxing be today with only Baer Schmeling Braddock and Hamas around? Every one of them have been hashed decisively—Louis is UNDEFEATED.

Claybrook Tigers In July 4 Double Header With Cuban Stars

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Claybrook Tigers and the formidable Cuban Stars will pop the baseball fireworks Thursday afternoon in the Tigers' park at Claybrook, Ark., just a few miles west of Memphis.

In the last few weeks, John C. Claybrook's hard-hitting diamond has been packing 'em in, never falling under the figure of 2,000. The July 4 exhibition is expected to attract a crowd of 5,000 or more.

Mr. Claybrook is planning a mammoth celebration for this occasion. A Memphis orchestra will be on hand to render scintillating music between innings and for the after-game dance.

The Claybrooks who have established themselves in the minds of Mexico and Texas fans this summer are given a slight chance to trounce the invading Cubans.

The July 4 baseball exhibition at Claybrook will consist of a double-header. Probable lineup:

Softball Set For A Really Tough Finish

ATLANTA, Ga.—Interest mounted high in softball circles during the past week when team managers met in a spirited meeting at the YMCA Wednesday evening to decide upon the schedule for the third and fourth rounds of softball play which are to determine league winners at the conclusion of play in September.

Morris Brown emerged as winner for the first two rounds of play which were completed during the week. Throughout the season interest has run unusually high and some very close play has been witnessed at the various games which have been played on the Old Morris Brown grounds.

With the opening of the third round of play on Monday, July 1, team competition promises to swing into the last lap and spectators will be amply repaid for their treks to the grounds.

ATA Sends In Correction Of Tournery Date

NEW YORK (Special)—From the executive secretary, Gerald Norman of the American Tennis Association, comes the word that a new event will be added to the National Championships. This year at Institute, Va., during the week of August 19 to 24, the new event, girls' singles, will be played. The executive committee felt that the game would be given an added stimulus, to provide for the younger women players, and providing a nucleus for the women's play in a few years.

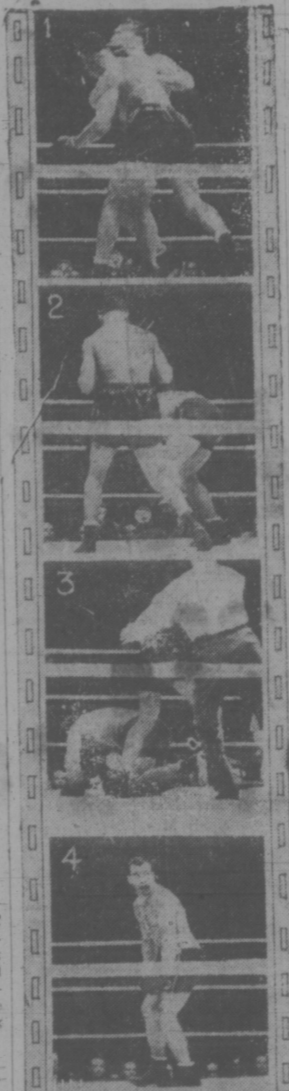

Not a few, but many copious tears have been shed by some of the veterans of the game, when in the same announcement, it had been decided to eliminate from the national championship play, East Orange, N. J.

E. Harold Hopper is chairman of the publicity committee, and his address is 46 Ninth Avenue, New York City. The present champions in this event were Mrs. Charles H. Leonard of New York City and Dr. Clarence O. Hilton of Newark, N. J. They won the title at Hampton in 1933 and defended it successfully at Lincoln in 1934.

From the spectators viewpoint, and to the added interest of the players, the local committee in charge of this year's national championships has started a school for the training of ball boys. It is felt that with a competent corps of ball boys, the play will be speeded and facilitated.

To eliminate the possibility of questionable decisions, the officials of the A. T. A. are compiling a list of competent and accredited officials, who will not only officiate in the nationals, but will be available to clubs conducting tournaments.

TOURNEY TENNIS A BOON FOR OUR FOLK

By Ric Roberts
ATLANTA, Ga.—The most pretensions all women tennis tournaments ever to be perpetrated in the southland, and certainly one of the classic events of its kind to be shown anywhere, was completed Saturday afternoon at the Atlanta Ladies Tennis Club premises adjacent the Abby theatre on Hunter road. Before the prying eyes of nearly 1,000 fans, the soothing figures of shapely females describing arcs with white pellets and evoking occasional outbursts of handclappings from the galleries—a pioneer event transpired.

Lula Ballard, destined to rank at the top of the list in this land in things tennis, gave the fans the thrill of a life time with her brilliant "goals" and sparkling exhibitions of a mastery in an in-exhaustive repertoire of shots. Not far behind was the fetching Mrs. Myrtle Cranson of Ft. Benning, who, with her role of "stylist" provoked considerable comment from acclaiming galleries.

The smart dohills team of Demery and Hill, former Clark University ace, was the big moment of the affair for Atlanta folk since the two lasses brought to the city the only laurels of the tournament to be left in the city. Behind all the three day session of pure excitement and suspense rests the president figure of Mrs. Magnolia Childs. A tireless and a brilliant manipulator of the tennis fragments which she has had access to, this young woman has about won herself the honor of premier woman tennis builder of America. The big tournament here is a child of her mind and she struggled with determination to make it what it turned out to be—the grandest expression of tennis among Negro women that this country has ever known in this country. She was awarded a cup by the club members in recognition of her successful efforts.

- Ladies Singles Cup
- Presented by Atlanta Ladies Tennis Club; won by Miss Lula Ballard, Tuskegee, 6-1, 6-1.
- Runner Up
- Presented by the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Co.; won by Mrs. Myrtle Cranson, Ft. Benning.
- Ladies Doubles Cup
- Presented by Atlanta Ladies Tennis Club; won by Misses Lantigua and Almeta Hill, Atlanta, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3.
- Junior Singles Cup
- Presented by Atlanta Ladies Tennis Club; won by Miss Isabelle Campfield, Tuskegee, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.
- Runner Up
- Presented by Mr. B. T. Harvey; won by Miss Edith Arnold, Atlanta.
- Junior Doubles Cup
- Presented by Dr. J. H. Moore; won by Misses Campfield and Carter, Tuskegee, 4-6, 6-3, 4-2.
- Cup to Mrs. Magnolia Childs
- All presentations were made by Coach Abbott of Tuskegee, first vice president of the American Tennis Association, tournament official. Due to the late hour at which the regular events were finally brought to a close, the Long-Penrose exhibition was postponed. The two men will meet this morning at eight o'clock at the same location.

Chunn Appraises Lincoln In Light Of Members, New Ideas

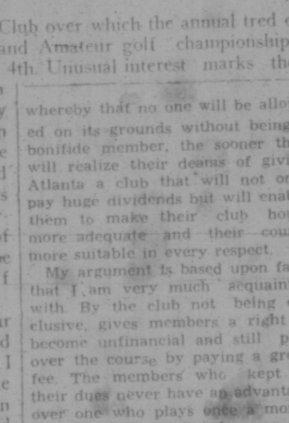

By J. C. CHUNN

ATLANTA, Ga.—Golfers' eyes are turning toward the Lincoln Country Club over which the annual tired of Southern golfers will tread in pursuit of the Southern Open and Amateur golf championships, July 2, 3, and 4. Unusual interest marks the fifth annual Open Championship this year as John Henry Smith, better known to all as "Honey" Smith, sterling Morris Brown athlete will turn professional in full and will be fighting for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. This would be of course during his college career affected his amateur standing to accept the cash prizes offered the winners, runner-up and third place men of the meet, but our guess says that Smith, will be in the money at the end of the 72-hole play-off Thursday afternoon.

This article was requested by a very dear friend who takes his golf seriously. His heart and all is wrapped up in the Lincoln country Club. I feel him to be one of its best members as well as boosters. He asked the writer a very touching question, one that is vital in every respect. Knowing my love for the game and all, he asked me to answer him but give a story on what I thought the Lincoln Country Club needed most to make it a paying proposition as well as a high class place to which whole Atlanta, and the South could look to with pride. My answer—to this important question is based entirely on my opinion and doesn't by any means reflect upon the administration at all. I do say, however, that several changes in the personnel of the club would be for its good, as well as the community in which it serves.

The trouble I would say mostly lies in the governing body of the club itself, naturally the governing body is where, if there is any trouble, should be responsible for it. First, there is no more loyal member of the Lincoln Club, than its president, Arthur Miller. He has CLUSIVENESS is the main cause of the clubs failure to pay dividends untiringly toward the clubs welfare and has spent his personal funds in trying to keep the club in pace with the times. I would say in short that EXCLUSIVENESS is the main cause of the clubs failure to pay dividends untiringly toward the clubs welfare and has spent his personal funds in trying to keep the club in pace with the times. I would say in short that EXCLUSIVENESS is the main cause of the clubs failure to pay dividends untiringly toward the clubs welfare and has spent his personal funds in trying to keep the club in pace with the times.

REDDIES WIN TWO

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The Memphis Red Sox soaked the Claybrook Tigers two in a row Sunday at the local ball park to even matters after more than four weeks of baseballing. The Memphisians triumphed, 3 to 1, in the opener and 1 to 0 in the nightcap.

A gathering of nearly 1,000 viewed the Sabbath tilt. The two victories Sunday put the Sox and Tigers on equal rating, both having won three during their seven games this summer. One of the games ended in a draw.

In the third inning of the initial contest the Sox struck the first, the longest hit of the day.

The boy Howard struck out three men in the first battle and Adams who hurried for the Sox in the nightcap, sat down three.

Calhoun, who struck the first one, the Tigers struck out three men and T. Smith, nightcap hurler, "killed" two.

THE CITY MANAGER PLAN

A program seems to be going forward to change the form of the Des Moines government to the city manager plan. In fact the proposed change has been talked about for a long time; arguments have been made for and against it in the public press and on the platform for years but not until recently have the leaders for its adoption gone to the extent of circulating a petition calling for a special election to vote on the question.

The proposal is important to every citizen in Des Moines and for that reason the Bystander hopes that the issues will be debated thoroughly and intelligently that the people may know just what they are voting for or against.

Undoubtedly meritorious arguments are to be found on both sides of the question. But by all means let there be no submerged issues. Let us have the whole story.

THE URBAN LEAGUE IS RIGHT

The Urban League has called upon the administration in Washington to appoint a Negro assistant to the works administrator who is to have charge of spending the five billion dollars recently appropriated by congress to put over three million people to work. The league does not desire the procedure stopped here but is seeking the appointment of Negro assistants to state administrators as well.

While President Roosevelt has stated that persons are not to be discriminated against on the basis of race, religion or politics our experience under the PWA and CWA demonstrated that it takes more than well meaning declarations to make these things come true.

The idea is that if Negroes are placed in administrative capacities they will be in a position to watch for unfair practices and prevent them; then, too, the very presence of Negroes in the organization will keep the officials on guard that too much discrimination will not creep in.

The Bystander agrees that this is just the thing to do. It is reminded that here in Iowa, in spite of our proposed fairness, we have been deprived of much we ought to have had simply because no one was present when jobs were being dealt out. Now is the time to look after this problem. The Urban League should be supported in this program and Negroes of every state should seek to carry out their suggestion that Negro administrators be placed with each state set-up.

Dental Health Education Hints

GREEN FRUIT STAINED TEETH

Out of the various colored stains found on the teeth the greenish color is the most prevalent in the child. This condition is noticed more often in the rural districts where there is an abundance of fruit.

The child's teeth are more susceptible to the green fruit stain up to and around the age of fourteen to sixteen. This susceptibility diminishes then because the teeth are more fully formed and have just about reached their most solid state.

The complete development prevents the colors from being absorbed into the enamel of the tooth and therefore are easier to remove than late in life. However, parents should see that the child has the teeth cleaned often from the ages of four or six years to stop the stains from penetrating too deep into the enamel of the tooth. The dentist is the only one capable of removing the discolorations as no tooth pastes or tooth powders that can be purchased by the patient are abrasive enough. Once the greenish taint is polished off only constant care and attention can prevent its return.

QUESTIONS AND COMMENT

Dear Dr. Dean: I have heard that you know how to stop bleeding after pulling a tooth so I wish you would tell me.

Mrs. M. B. Des Moines, Iowa.
Ans. The bleeding that you have following an extraction is due to a lack of certain necessary elements in the blood stream can be remedied by using the prescription which I will mail to you under separate cover if you desire it. Yet some excessive bleeding is due to too much disturbance by too frequent mouth washing and picking at the empty or blood-clotted socket.

Dear Dr. Dean: Will you please reprint the exact time when a child gets the first tooth and also when all of the baby teeth are in.

Council Bluffs, Ia.
Mrs. J. G. M.
Ans. There is no exact time when the teeth erupt but the average age is around six months and the average age when all the baby or deciduous teeth are present is about two years old.
