War Clouds Darken in Ethiopia

All Peace Efforts Fail As Nations Await Battle-Cry

Hostilities Expected Any Minute As Emperor Turns To Japan
Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, July 12—(Special)—With the suddenness of a tropical thunderstorm news broke here Wednesday that Japan has no intention of standing idly by and allowing Mussolini to rape and plunder Ethiopia, that is if he were able to. At any moment now, war will break out with all its force and fury. Tensed for the fighting signal, both the Italian and Ethiopian armies are lined up facing each other on both the Somali and Eritrean borders. Emperor Haile Selassie has not wavered in his intentions of personally leading his forces into battle.

"Japan could not be neutral in the event of an Italo-Ethiopian conflict," declared General Katsuhige Ugaik, member of the Japanese supreme war council and one of the far eastern empire's most famous international statesmen. His declaration was received here on the eve of impending hostilities between Ethiopia and Italy by a cabled dispatch from a correspondent of the Allgemeine Neerlandisch Press Bureau, located in Tokyo.

Soldiers Mass
Breakdown of conciliatory efforts at the international peace palace in the Hague, in Holland, this week, where the unprecedented behavior of Mussolini's two arbiters stalemated the conference, left nearly 700,000 Ethiopian soldiers lined up in battle array on two fronts as Mussolini rushed reinforcements to Italian Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

Mussolini has concentrated powerful troops, tank and airplane forces along the Eritrean border. Not many kilometers away, awaiting the sound of the battle tocsin, are hundreds of thousands of the most daring, courageous fighters in the world.

Diplomatic efforts of wily Emperor Haile Selassie spread over a period dating from December 5, in which every world power has been contacted and sounded out, now reveal the fact that the Ethiopian ruler has had a secret understanding with the Japanese for a long time.

Refuse Arms
With the white world, with the possible exception of Great Britain, lined up against him in sympathy, if not in arms, Emperor Selassie spoke confidently this week that he will be able to get all the arms and munitions he will need for war.

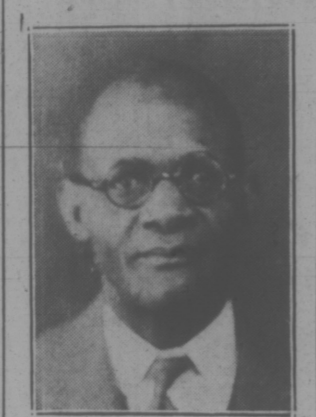

Czechoslovakia, France, Belgium and Hungary have refused to fulfill orders for cartridges, guns and airplanes, although Ethiopia is able to pay cash for them. This need may come from Japan, Turkey and Egypt. Russia has not said she will refuse munitions to Ethiopia. The United States plans to bar munitions shipments to both countries, it was learned.

HULL "HOPES" FOR PEACE
N. A. A. C. P. Protests Italian Aggression

Washington, D. C.—President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Cordell Hull were asked by the N. A. A. C. P. on Friday to voice publicly for the United States their disapproval of the Italian government's action in Ethiopia. Resolutions adopted at the twenty-eighth annual conference and telegrams citing the state department's action on Japanese aggression in Manchuria as a precedent for opposing similar encroachment by Italy in Ethiopia were also sent to the two officials.

Following a conference with President Roosevelt, Secretary of State Cordell Hull replied to Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia that he trusted both sides would abide by their treaty obligations and "hoped" peace would be established. Although neither Ethiopia nor Italy are purchasing munitions from this country, the United States appeared to have definitely decided not to sell arms to either warring nation.

'Bandanna Days' Tuesday Evening

By Bráddie Morris
"Bandanna Days," musical comedy, to be given Tuesday at the Jewish Community Center at 8 p. m., will include in the cast several high spots, the comedy team of Arnold Wiley and Richard Parsons, Louis Taylor, eccentric dancer, and ensemble of twenty beautiful girls, who will feature popular song hits.

The jazz numbers will be nothing short of terrific, Mrs. Gertrude North, director, said, and "slow, dreamy and soothing melodies will haunt you for days." No seats are reserved and it is rumored that there will be a complete sell out.

This affair is worthy of whole-hearted support, as its purpose is to send the Des Moines delegates to the national convention of Junior Federated Clubs, which meets in Cleveland, Ohio, this year.

'Peace', 'Peace' Cries Passengers

Father Divine's Followers Stop Here

By S. Ernst-Whitaker
"Peace!" "Peace!" "Peace!" was the pass-word of 22 mixed passengers of Father Divine's Mission transport bus, outside the Alt Food Market, 8th and Pleasant, who arrived here Thursday, July 11, at 1:30 from New York, where they had been to see "God." The 22 followers of the Rev. M. J. Divine, New York, whom they call "God," stopped at the market to get Keokuk, Iowa—The forty-eighth annual convention of the United Grand Masonic lodge, Prince Hall affiliation, for Iowa and jurisdiction, closed Thursday evening, after a four days' session, conducted by Henry A. Martin of Dubuque, grand master, and F. S. Johnson of Keokuk, who is grand secretary. The first day's meeting was opened with school of instruction by Horace Spencer of Mason City.

Grand Master Martin addressed Tuesday morning's session, followed by the presentation of past grand masters, of which there were six: L. Brown of Marshalltown, A. G. Clarke of Oskaloosa, W. W. Gross of Keokuk, H. E. Williams of Ottumwa, Henry B. Smith of Davenport and S. Joe Brown of Des Moines. George L. Soter of Marshalltown, past grand secretary, was also present.

In the afternoon the visiting delegates toured the power house and Keokuk dam and were officially welcomed at a picnic in Rand park by Mayor Frank A. Willminger. Mrs. Orea Buice of Des Moines responded to the welcome of the women. Memorial services were held Wednesday evening at Bethel A. M. E. church. Maurice Kelly, master of North Star lodge of Des Moines, was speaker and Thomas Lightham of Des Moines, grand chaplain, pronounced the benediction at this program.

Food supplies before continuing their journey homeward on the West coast. Ross Humble, driver of the bus and leader of the Father Divine Mission band, spoke emphatically and with pious gestures when asked questions regarding the group. He said each of the 22 mission members had received some physical restoration from the Negro man whom he says is not a Negro or man, but "God."

Despite their occasional shouts of "peace," "peace," and all attempting at once to tell of their help received at the hands of Father Divine, I was able to get a few testimonials. A stout grey haired Negro woman, who said she was 80 years old, had been cured of a tumor, stroke and continual pains in her side, she said. Although she hasn't worked in seven years she still depends on Father Divine to provide for her. A white woman, who looked to be about 30 years old, said she had been cured of blindness, a cancer and paralysis. "I had been given up to die," when my mother in California wrote Father to help me. I believed in him and he healed me of all of my troubles, she said.

Another woman about 60 then stepped up and told me to put my finger on a scar on her face. As I did so she said, "a cancer was once there, but all you see is a scar now. Peace, Peace." Father Divine is said to have 22 million followers in the world who believe he is God. They believe so because of his power to heal and cure physical imperfections. Although he is a Negro by race, his followers, comprised of people from all races and creeds, believe in him strongly. Father Divine's followers say he never sleeps.

The Rev. T. James McMillan of Middleboro, Ky., is conducting a series of meetings, beginning Sunday evening, at Kyles A. M. E. Zion church, assisting the new pastor, Rev. O. R. Ellis, formerly of Flint, Mich.

Rev. McMillan, former resident of Des Moines twenty years ago, was "taken for a ride" in January by a Kentucky mob in Lynch, Ky., who accused him of stealing an overcoat. The narration of this harrowing incident was related Wednesday during the visit of the minister to the Bystander office.

AIN'T SAFE EVEN IN BED

Stray Bullet Strikes Man While Asleep

(Special to the Bystander)
Waterloo, Iowa—As he lay in bed at home early Sunday, Roy Williams, Negro, was struck by a bullet, which crashed through his window. He suffered a slight side wound.

The bullet apparently had been fired from a distance, as its force was nearly spent when it hit Williams.

where he was kept until dark, when he was removed and spirited away in an auto to the county line. Rev. McMillan was just recovering from an accident and had been recently released from the hospital, he said.

Five lynchers, including the deputy constable and chief of police, tortured the minister to force a confession. "You know too much for a damn nigger," they said. "We'll show you how to be a good nigger." The minister protested his innocence, but the mob prepared to lynch him, disregarding his pleas. He was hoisted in the air. Just then another car drove up with an officer. Rev. McMillan was slugged, threatened with a pistol, spit on and beaten by officers. After a conference they decided not to lynch him, but continued to torture him, he stated.

Lost Everything

"I lost thirteen suits of clothes, my automobile and personal belongings in the fracas," said the minister. The mobbers finally gave up the lynch party and took him back to jail for seven days without a hearing.

He left Kentucky on May 18, although he was threatened several times for teaching "niggers not to respect a white man."

PEACOCK IS VICTOR OVER OWENS AGAIN

New York, July 12—Eulace Peacock, proving that his recent victory over Jesse Owens in the century was no fluke, was home first in a dash between the pair Tuesday night at Ohio field here before a large crowd of rain-soaked fans. Peacock took advantage of his faster break and moved to the front as the runners reached the first ten yard stripe and then gamely fought off Owens' attempt to overtake him near the finish line.

The Temple star completed the 100 yards in :09.7, three-tenths of a second slower than his performance of last week and the same distance from the world's record. The field was rain-soaked, prohibiting the athletes from strutting in their best colors. Owens, who was also beaten by Peacock in the broad jump two weeks ago, came back and captured this event to even matters for the night. Owens' leap covered a distance of 23 feet, 9 inches; Peacock, second, jumped 23 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

10,000 Fans See Acipco Slug Out 12-1 Victory over Stockham

Acipco Batsmen Have Big Day With Sticks

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 8.—Approximately 10,000 persons saw Acipco clout three Stockham pitchers for a 12-1 victory Saturday at Sloss Field. An error in the fourth inning after two were out paved the way for a five run rally. The Acipco team batted around in the fourth and fifth innings. Calhoun limited the Stockham outfit to five hits while his team mates socked Burton, Boys and Young for 16 hits. Pigrom hit a homer in the fourth inning uprisings with two on base. Moseley was the batting star with four hits out of five trips to the plate.

A hit by Moseley, a hit batsman, Pigrom's sacrifice and Steel's single produced the first run of the game. The Acipco team seemed to have got angry in the fourth inning because Stockham had been boasting of their super team, and tried to sock the cover off the old apple. Big "Dizzy" Pigrom, the man mountain from Bessemer and Coach of Dunbar High school; blasted a circuit drive to left field with two on. Six runs were scored in this inning.

Acipco continued this vicious attack in the fifth by driving Burton from the mound. Boyd, who relieved Burton, could not locate the plate the batters passed the ball to plate the batters pated the ball to all corners of the field. Young, the one-winged south paw came to Boyd's aid and silenced the big guns of Acipco. Stockham's lone score came in the sixth.

Acipco's 33 piece band, under the direction of W. C. Handy, kept the fans entertained between innings. The members of the band wore uniforms of white shirts and black striped white pants with black ties and black caps. The band has been assembled for 8 months.

J.S. Allen Co., Cave Big Cup To Golf Meet

ATLANTA, Ga.—For many years amateur golfers have been rather reluctant about entering open tournaments. They have always felt that with the professional getting such an attractive purse their prizes should be larger and more expensive. Realizing this fact, the tournament committee went out for some beautiful trophies for the Fourth Annual Southern Open and Amateur tournament slated to get under way over the Lincoln Country Club course, July 2, 3, and 4th.

John S. Allen Realty Co., Inc., Donates Championship Cup.
To secure the trophies desired the committee appealed to the generosity of Atlanta business enterprises and in this effort met with great success. The amateur championship trophy, a large beautifully designed silver loving cup was donated by the John S. Allen Realty Co., Inc., one of Atlanta's leading and most successful real estate establishments.

This institution, the only incorporated realty firm operated by Negroes in the city was founded twelve years ago by John S. Allen, after the merger of the Great Southern Fire Insurance Company, of which he was an organizer and official with the Banker's Fire Ins. Co. Mr. Allen was formerly a postal clerk and is at present the secretary of the National Alliance of Postal Employees. He resigned from the Railway Mail service to go into business and as a result has built up a successful business. Through his business Mr. Allen has been instrumental in keeping many people from losing their homes and in providing jobs for many carpenters, plumbers and painters.

The John S. Allen Realty Co., Inc. now offers the citizens of Atlanta any type of service that may be desired in the line of real estate, whether buying, selling or renting. Mr. Allen has not confined his time solely to his business but has devoted much of it to the church. He is a trustee of Big Bethel Church and is a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Among the other trophies is a very beautiful one donated by James "Pie" Martin, himself a golfer and a member of Lincoln Country Club. This trophy has been named "The Martin Trophy" and will be in competition three years. Donors of other trophies and prizes are: Paris Chambers, Inc., Atlanta Golf Shop and Low Medal Trophy through courtesy of Mr. Roy Jones.

The members of the tournament committee are grateful to these donors and will thank them in a more formal manner later.

Three Rookies Bulwark of Yankee Strength Meet The Ace

These three young pitchers have proven a bulwark of strength for the New York Yankees and kept them in the running despite mediocre hitting by their teammates. Johnny Broaca, left; Vito Tamulis, center, and Johnnie Murphy, each of them rookies, have accounted for a large number of the Yankee wins by their crack pitching. Broaca and Murphy are right handers, Tamulis is a lefty.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A request that ice water be placed in the office for the entry clerks in the files building of the Postoffice Division, was turned down and the workers will have to continue to hike 500 feet to an adjoining building for a cold drink. R. F. Martin in denying the petition stated "The ice water is supplied to the garage by Agriculture Department it is believed that your employees could save a few minutes mornings and afternoons to go down there for a drink of water."

RED SOX IN EASY WINS AT MARTINS

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The Black Lookouts from Chattanooga proved a soft bunch for the Memphis Red Sox July 4 at the local park. The Memphis bled their way to a double win, taking the first 2 to 0, and coping the second 3 to 0.

A holiday crowd of nearly 1,200 witnessed the contests which at times were repetitive with raggedness.

Preceding the initial tilt, "Kid" Walker and Ted Moore, both of Orange Mount, waged an interesting boxing match which went to a draw. Tiger-Lewis was the third man in the ring.

In the first inning Longley banged out a homer to score two men.

The Sox departed last week for Iowa and are expected to be in that territory several weeks.

First Game:
Chattanooga 001 113 000—6
Memphis 050 305 413—20
Hensley and Hampton; Roe and Rivers and Fields.

Second Game:
Chattanooga 005 061 0—6
Memphis 372 990 2—12
Moore, Martin Fitch and Lunslow; Ligon and Smith and Jones.

Red Sox Invade Iowa; Try Mason

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Memphis Red Sox of the Southern League left the Bluff City late last week for Iowa. The Red Sox were slated to meet the Mason City, Iowa, team last Sunday at Mason City. Dr. E. B. Martin, manager, said the Memphis will be out of town three or four weeks.

a double header from the celebrated Cuban Stars, taking the first 6 to 4, and winning the nightcap, 7 to 0.

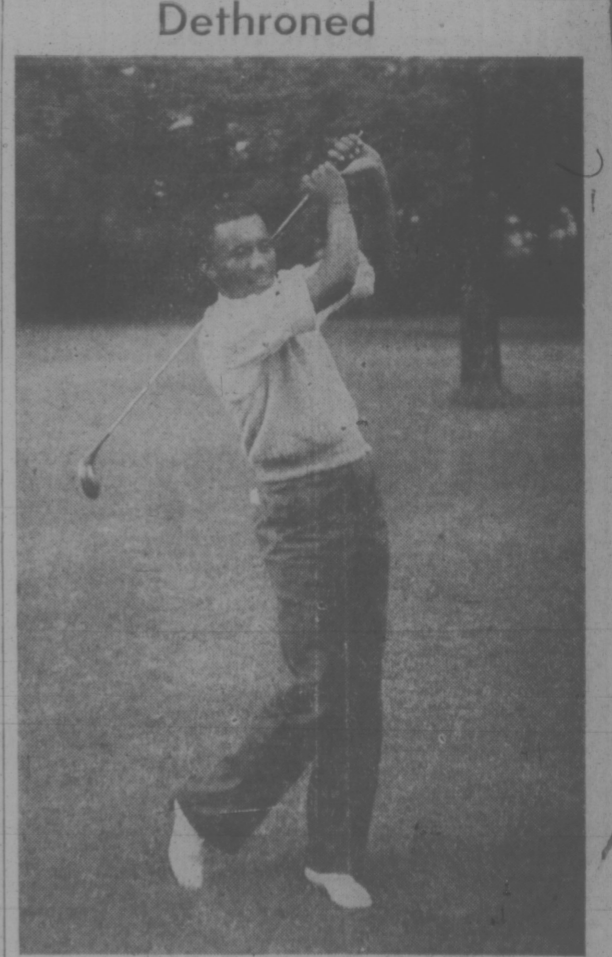

Geddie Donald twirled for the victors in the initial contest while "Lefty" Moran worked the mound for the Cubans. Tate, Wilson, Ray and Saylor starred at bat for the hard-hitting Charbrooks.

Teddy Smith, Tiger's speedster, went the limits against the invading Cubans in the night cap. "Grey Hound" Saylor banged out a triple to unload the bases.

The Tigers left shortly after the victories over the Cubans and invaded St. Louis.

TIGERS IN TWIN WIN; OUTSLUG CUBANS

CLAYBROOK, Ark.—Before a cheering crowd of nearly 2,000 John C. Charbrooks' Tigers capped

John Dendy, Morehouse student who was the Southern Champion in 1934, but had to be content with a lesser post this year as the sensational "Honey" Smith pulled away from the field to cap the honor. Dendy is a native of Asheville, N. C.

Mc Neil Turns Scribe And Reviews Golf Tourney And Golf Situation

ATLANTA, Ga.—Joe Louis, a new dark menace to white supremacy in the prize ring!! F-I-a-s-h! Jesse Owens, Ralph Metcalfe and Eulace Peacock monopolize the greatest track and field tourneys in America! F-I-a-s-h!! Now comes another menace from the darker brothers—the Lincoln Country Club sponsored, this past week, an open golf tourney, patterned along the lines of the best white tournament efforts at golf presentation.

A natural beauty spot, situated in the outskirts of this great southern city, Atlanta, was selected for the event which furnished some of the flashiest, some of the steadiest, and some of the finest golfing exhibitions to be visualized. All this from the colored brethren. This was not the first effort of its kind made by Negroes but it surely was the best, the most colorful, the best attended ever to be presented in the south anywhere. Scores of fine golfers— young men, clean cut and neat with all the attributes of clean sportsmen and hard-fighters. There were little men, big men, young and old out there with not only a determination to destroy old man-par but also a dream of greater golf exploits for their race. Paramount News "The Ears and Eyes of the World" was there to receive these impressions and preserve them longer in celluloid.

Young men and old men, young women and older women, resplendent in sports attire; and there with the more than usual wish to be seen in social gatherings. This time they were there to search out and investigate this new game which had so taken the Negro populace at first then intently. Their eyes were probing quizzically at first then intently when this bag of golf had gripped them. Others of them, those more acquainted with the intricacies of the game, were there applauding the good shots fired from the clubs of seeming masters and noting the various manners and methods by which each shot was made, to later attempt to incorporate just that shot and just that method into their own game and thus benefit from it.

Golf A Compelling Game— Leaders, there is really a golf bug, and when once it has bitten you, you just stay bitten and find a great enjoyment in nursing the cure. Tennis players who take up golf late invariably find themselves neglecting their tennis for this ancient Scottish game. No one is invulnerable to the bite of the golf bug. At present the golfing public of Atlanta's Negro population probably amounts to approximately 300. Every day sees many more of the bitten awaiting their lot with those already there. A conservative prediction would place the number around 800 before the close of the current golf season. With this comes also the statement that the writer hopes the number may exceed the predicted 800, for surely the efforts of the club here to give to the Negro population of Atlanta the share of pleasures and glories of golf should be highly appreciated.

Our White Pals Groan

BY RIC ROBERTS
WHAT takes place in the souls of 12,000,000 Negroes when we turn amazed eyes toward the sport sheets and eager ears to the radio to further acquaint ourselves with the newer escapades of our present horde of athletes, only we can know, but to Nordic America it is the most bitter dose imaginable. It is anathema to the white public to have their young sons know that the greatest athletes living are colored gentlemen instead of white gentlemen. Next summer when the American Olympic team embarks for Berlin the American white fans may die. It will be a Negro team for the most part. Metcalfe, Owens, Peacock, Bob Johnson, Lu Valle and Cornelius Johnson are Negroes and figure to dominate these events—100 Meters, 200 Meters, 400 Meters Running High Jump, Running Broad Jump and the relay because you simply could not beat a relay team composed of Metcalfe, Owens, Peacock and Johnson. Not one white sprinter that I know at this time can hope to "make" the dash events over the Negro gentlemen listed hereon.

We are living so close to Jesse Owens, Ralph Metcalfe, Eulace Peacock, and Joe Louis that it is hard to realize the magnitude of their triumphs. A few years ago we were looking at what sports writers choose to call the "Golden Age of Sport" with its Tilden, Dempsey, Ruth, Bobby Jones and Charlie Paddock. Several years before then we Negro fans were gloating about Jack Johnson, Paul Robeson, Sam Langford and Howard Drew. I grew up and looked back at these fellows, they were fading when I was growing toward adulthood.

FTEN I stood and wondered about the sudden decline of Negro super stars among the white boys. During 1920-1931 we had only Gourdin of Harvard, Tolan of Michigan and Hubbard of Michigan along with Dave Myers of New York University to talk about in track and football arguments. Harry Wills, George Godfrey, Kid Chocolate, Jack Thompson, Tigers Flowers and Al Brown were our boxing representatives and made a grand showing but they began fading in 1926 and nothing new seemed in sight.

Look at us today. The greatest athletes of 1935 to date are Jesse Owens, Eulace Peacock, Glenn Cunningham, Hank Greenberg, Cy Blanton, Schumacher, Helen Wills Moody, Barney Ross and Joe Louis. We are again near the top. Jesse Owens has established himself as the standout track star of all history. Joe Louis has established himself as the greatest 21-year-old boxing machine that ever lived. 30,000,000 white males in this country cannot produce one man to match either of them. It is impressive to note that these two matchless marvels are the by-products of a total of a mere 12,000,000 young Negro men. Here we are outnumbered by 28,700,000 and still producing the best athletes on earth.

OUR southern papers are not printing photos of these great boys and many white fans do not even know how they look. I was afraid of that—the syndicates and things always play up names like Jesse and Joe have made for themselves and keep the mails cluttered up with mats and releases (editors like that sort of thing, you know) but the Owens-Louis series are not doing any to well down south.

FIREMAN DROPS DEAD AT WORK

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Jesse Cooper, fireman for the Bannock Coal and Ice Co., was found dead in a pile of coal Thursday night. Officials believe the man was overcome by heat while firing the furnace. Funeral services were held Sunday from the residence, 596 North Seventh, with the Rev. W. E. Mack officiating. J. C. Oates and Sons were in charge of the funeral.

Mr. Cooper was the husband of Mrs. Tillie Cooper, and the father of Miss Geneva Cooper and Mrs. Maude Gibson, Paris, Tenn. The body was buried at Mt. Carmel cemetery.

THE northern boys have built up a halo of sensationalism around Joe Louis which exceeds any ballyhoo ever connected with Babe Ruth or Jack Dempsey. The Babe, Sultan of Swat, Bambino, Colossus of Clout, Cyclopic Cloutier, and Bambusting Babe; or Dempsey's gifts of: Manassas Mauler or Jack the Killer, pale when compared to the Joe Louis line which includes: Brown Bomber, Sepia Cyclone, Dark Dynamiter, Brown Blaster, Detroit Devastator, Jarring Joey, Larruping Licorice Stick, Dark Angel, Detroit Destroyer, Devastating Destroyer, Brown Butcherer, Killer Louis, Black Menace, Sepia Salvator, Black Bomber, Mongoloid Mauler, Pan Face or Basher Joe from Bashed Bezer Boulevard, Dempsey's Carpentier fight was called the "Battle of the Century," the Firpo show, "The Battle of the Brutes," and his Tunney difference, the "Battle of the Age." The boys have gone all those one better. They say if Baer will retire to the mountains and come back ready and strong, the Louis-Baer battle would be termed the "Battle of the Adjective Inadequate." Given the chance there is no telling what we Twilight Americans may do.

THE FIRST CONGRESS
The first national congress convened on March 4, 1789. The day was ushered in by the firing of cannon and the ringing of bells in New York, and this ceremony was repeated at noon and at sunset, but in Federal hall only eight senators and thirteen representatives made their appearance—not enough to form a quorum of either house. A whole week passed, and no more senators arriving, those present sent out a circular letter to their colleagues urging them to hasten their coming. A second circular letter followed, a week later, but nearly a month had elapsed before either house could muster a quorum. The house was able to organize on March 30, but the senate not until April 6.

They Had a Word for It
In ancient Greece an asylum was a place of refuge to which any and all might flee for protection. At one time all Greek temples and altars were inviolable, that is to say, it was a religious crime to remove anyone from them by force. But the temple asylums became limited in number because of abuse of privileges. In modern times this name has come to mean a home (or refuge) for the afflicted, more particularly the insane.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Snowy Owl Great Hunter
Unlike most other owls, the snowy owl hunts both day and night. It is keen of sight and unusually wary. Living as it does, in an open country, it is wary of approach. It is usually seen perched on a hummock, fence post, haystack, or even suspended building, and cannot be confused with any other bird. When it comes to great numbers it is likely to take a heavy toll of both song and game birds, as well as fish.

WHAT'S THE MAT- TER WITH OWENS?

Everybody is wondering why Jesse Owens has been running a consistent second to Eulace Peacock of Temple in their recent dash series. Several theories have been advanced, including the one that Jesse had his mind on his affairs of the heart and couldn't concentrate. But one must bear in mind that Peacock was one of the boys who helped stage that four man sprint last winter and there never was more than a yard between Peacock, Owens, Metcalf and Ben Johnson in any of their races. When one thinks of this, it is not surprising that Owens must come in for his share of second places, as everybody else in the quartet has done. Peacock's broad jump at Lincoln, Nebraska, was simply a case of a good man having his day. Owens, it must be remembered, also surpassed the old world's record and has cleared twenty-five feet oftener than any man in track history, so he still rates as the peer of our distance jumpers.

LOCAL PICKUPS
Our boys were holding their own in the city playground tennis meet staged at Blandin Drive this week. Earl Newcomb and Paul Woods won the men's doubles title and Eddie Clark at this writing was in the semifinals of the junior boys' singles.

Chet Williamson and yours truly were entered in the men's doubles, but through a slip on the part of the officials in charge of the park meet at Good park, we were given the wrong playing hour and arrived on the scene of battle three hours late, only to find we had lost for a forfeit. However, so long as the title went to our group, our loss wasn't so hard to take.

Bill Ashby has left for New Jersey, where he plans to play in the Eastern Grass Court Tennis tournament and then expects to enter the Pennsylvania state meet. He also plans to enter the national meet before he returns home. Luck to you, Bill, and may you play your best tennis.

By GAMBWELL VALENTINE

Echoes from Joe Louis' pugilistic victory over fighter Primo Carnera are still heard. This department falls in line by joining with the mob, though prize fighting fails to interest the writer less so than football. Very seldom do you hear of one fighter killing another, but they often break a jaw bone, knock out teeth, break a few ribs and blacken the eyes of their opponents. On the football team, all sorts of bruises, dislocation of joints, and several students have gone to death by the collegiate opposition. Of all the brutal sports, none appeal to my savage instincts as bull fighting. The never having seen an actual torreador in action, cinema showings of fights have given me a thrill. Years ago when Rudolph Valentino was the ladies screen Romeo, "Blood and Sand" a picture in which Valentino starred, gave me such entertainment that I attended its showing three times within the same month. "Blood and Sand" was a good story; the other characters such as the bandit whose philosophy of life gave added balance.

But returning to Joe Louis, he has many things that will inspire youth. First his own youth, (Louis is 21) his handsome appearance which has not been the case with any fighters, particularly Negro fighters; his large sums of cash—Louis collected $44,600 for his fight with Carnera, and no telling how much on the side; his reported clean life, and refraining from much talk.

Musicians and singers will remember the song for soprano, "A Birthday" (R. Huntington Woodman). Mr. Woodman is still living, and is 74 years old, active organist of the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, N. Y. Last week he told the delegates of the American Guild of Organists in their New York convention that "Modern music is going crazy. There is too much jazz, and jazz means dissonance. We organists must deal with the influx of jazz." I don't know just how his audience received this attack, but I bet it laughed heartily and good naturally at the 74 year old organist-composer who was, correct, but fixed in his opinions and tastes. An open minded 74-year old is rarer than hen's teeth. Modern music does seem to be going crazy. It will exhaust its own self very soon, so adverse criticism is unnecessary.

Bishop Manning, also speaking to the convention of organists, said "there is a disastrous lack of congregational singing in the U. S. A." Among colored churches, congregational singing is a thing of the past. Last month I visited two churches in Atlanta, one M. E., the other A. M. E. and the choir of all of the singing at each church. Some of the reasons are: no hymnals are available or bulletins that carry the words. Churches should furnish enough hymnals for their respective audiences, or publish bulletins in which are printed the words of hymns to be used at each service.

On my return to Atlanta in 1930 at which time Rev. Dawson was pastoring Big Bethel A. M. E. church, the congregational singing of this church was splendid and very much out of the ordinary of any church. This was done through the publishing of a weekly church bulletin which carried each Sunday the hymns to be sung, and a morning's service of Big Bethel was spiritually brightened by the singing together of practically every person attending. In earlier days before Negro churches inaugurated choirs the pastor would line the hymns, that is he would recite a line, after which the congregation would sing; then the next line until the entire hymn was sung. The singing at that time was far superior to the congregational chirping of today. Many of the so called "little churches" that do not fall in the "high brow" class have a few old fashioned congregational singing. Their preachers still line their hymns. Church leaders claim that when hymnals are placed in the pews, members and visitors carry the hymnals home. I know this to be true, but why should they carry them home, if they are not going to sing them? Why should they carry them home, if they are not going to sing them? Why should they carry them home, if they are not going to sing them?

Do Atlanta colored folk know that the radio station located in the Butler Street YMCA is for use of programs to broadcast by musicians, clubs, organizations and that like that it is there for business firms to use as an advertising medium? At least one program should be broadcast from this station each day in the week, and as time goes on, several programs daily should come from colored Atlanta. A great big opportunity is offered to Atlanta, but we (I am an Atlantian, too) are dead asleep as may be expected. Life is competition. White folk use the radio to give expression to their lives, sentiments, to touch and contact citizens concerning business and various professions for public use. Negroes must use the same medium as other folk use to spread information about themselves and what they have to sell. That is the radio is indispensable in what our newspapers are doing, not only reaching local citizens, but the U. S. A. The owners of

Father Rogers Is Speaker to 90 Boys at Y

ATLANTA, Ga.—Eighty-seven boys heard a fine talk upon "The Light House" Saturday morning at the Butler Street YMCA by Father W. O. Rogers, well known Episcopal minister and leader who founded and still leads the St. Matthias School. The boys gave the speaker an ovation as he was introduced by Joseph D. Winston, of the Physical Department, by singing "Howdy, Father Rogers, howdy do."

Father Rogers was greatly touched by the fine spirit, and gro districts, which was started by Earl Johnson, colored, and a tavern owner. He has encouraged other race members to do likewise, that is, to set up emporiums for the dispensing of liquor, open Nite Clubs, or in other words, since we must have these establishments for amusements—let Negroes own them in Negro districts. Keeping money in the family is a great thing whether it applies to the tavern owner or liquor dispenser.

evidently surprised to see such a large boy audience present, which according to those who have been around the Y from its beginning, is the largest number of boys ever to be served at any one time. The speaker, after having the boys describe a lighthouse and its purpose, compared the YMCA as a lighthouse for the boys of Atlanta.

During the course of the service, C. N. Cornell, professor at Booker Washington High School, and a well known leader of boys in Atlanta, came in. Professor Cornell was called upon to say a word, and he, too, was given a hearty greeting by the boys. He said that the spirit and fine things taught could not be endorsed too highly. After the speakers had finished, the boys conducted their own customary jubilation, meeting singing songs and giving cheers.

Today at 2 P. M. the second Quiet Sunday will be observed at the Y for boys lasting until 4 o'clock.

Today ended the fourth week of the summer program and the attendance has increased. 100 per cent. We started out with around 42 boys; we now have an attendance of from 75 to 90. The present staff of the association is wondering if the community at large is interested in the boys?

Canning Units Radio Manager Of WLAC Put A. & I. On Air

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—TERA fruit and vegetable canning was begun Friday at Booker T. Washington, Hill Top and Magnolia schools. Walter L. Brown, county administrator, is in charge of the canning groups.

Families who have raised vegetables and fruits may take them to the school canning plants where the TERA will furnish the cans and the equipment in return for one of each three cans put up. The family preserving this food will keep two cans for its own use and one can will go to the TERA for general distribution next winter.

A trained supervisor and a helper from the relief rolls will be in charge of each canning unit. Canning centers are to be set up today at Lincoln, Hyde Park and Lester schools. Units will be organized either tomorrow or Thursday at Park Avenue, Florida St. and Manassas schools.

By HERMAN J. D. CARTER (For SNS)

NASHVILLE, Tenn. July 6.—P. C. Sowell, Jr., radio announcer and manager of radio station WLAC, Nashville, Tennessee, in an interview related the task of bringing to the Continent of North America the seven week rendition of the Famous A and I Concert Singers under the direction of Marie J. Brooks, head of the college's music department, to SNS reporter today.

"I had heard the singers sing, and liked them very much. When we decided to put on 'Song Time in Tennessee,' we wrote CBS and told them just what we had, and they granted us a one night engagement. That one engagement was given at a late hour, and the program went over so effectively that they gave us an earlier hour to reach the masses of the people. We were successful in securing the 8 o'clock period, a time when most people are in and listening to their radio, either getting ready to go out, or resting at home. Requests came from far and near for different renditions as well as thousands of letters praising the group of Negro singers. I am proud that I could be of some little assistance in giving these famous singers under your talented director the radio break they deserved. When I think of the group and the leaders, I don't know which has the better voice, I say they are all good." He paid special tribute to Miss Brooks for her thoroughness in training them, stating: "One night one of her leaders came about a half minute late, an aide wouldn't let him come in and broadcast." When asked if they would again be featured, he did not say definitely, but he did say that "The last note has not been heard over the air from these A and I singers."

By DAVID KANE

NEW YORK CITY, July—THE WINNERS! Joe Louis by a technical knockout. That is what the announcer said here last Tuesday night at 70,000 rabid fight fans stood and cheered for the Brown Bomber of Detroit who had completely outfought one Primo Carnera. There were no disorderlies as Mr. Pegler would have had us believe. It was a purely and simple, an intelligent gathering of Sport fans assembled from all parts of the U. S. A. to see the best man win. That "best man" proved to be Joe Louis and following the fight at the Yankee Stadium, 30,000 Afro-Americans paraded up and down Seventh Avenue, blocking traffic for at least 10 city blocks, pandemonium reigned supreme, the Lord God had been fit to answer 300,000 prayers.

It was the triumph of the Harlemites. Had Carnera been the winner it would have been the same demonstration over on the East Side in "Little Italy". People danced on the streets until the wee hours of the morning, 1000 policemen were on duty, just in case, but they were not needed. With exception to an occasional boisterous or helpless man belabored with too much of the rare vintage, all was safe on the Harlem front. They were only shouting for joy—nothing more—Joe Louis had won.

Perhaps no actor of Negro blood has achieved as much distinction, and has won for himself as much popularity, especially with London audiences, as Paul Robeson. We have long heralded him as an important cog in the development of art among our people. Years ago when I first heard him sing "Water Boy" there was something so indelibly stamped on my mind about this actor, singer and scholar, that I have always wanted to see him reach the heights of stardom such as no thespian has ever done. By all means go to see "Sanders of the River" starring Mr. Robeson. It is the tale of a strange romance and never will you forget the glorious voice of Robeson as he leads his frenzied warriors into battle.

Interesting news here for Negro Insurance Companies. Seaborn T. Whaley, vice-president of Aetna Life Insurance Company, Hartford, will in 1936 head a committee to promote "Life Insurance Week". As a means of creating further interest among the larger insurance companies. The campaign is carried out in cooperation with the National Association of Life Underwriters. Newspapers will be chief medium and the plans call for an expenditure of $200,000 in advertising alone. 40,000 sheets of publicity will be used also in this massive campaign to encourage white people to buy insurance from white companies. Negro insurance companies may well take a tip from this and prepare a campaign to encourage Negro prospects to buy their insurance from Negro companies.

We are told that in Philadelphia there is a move on foot to boycott the Italian owned taverns in Ne-

FEW advertisers, far too few, but among them many of the wisest and shrewdest, realize the tremendous and steadily mounting purchasing power of the American Negro. Others erroneously visualize him as a negligible, illiterate, unimportant consumer. It's time for truths and facts about this great but inadequately exploited market which can be reached only through the NEGRO PRESS.

TREMENDOUS PURCHASING POWER

"A TWO BILLION DOLLAR NEGRO MARKET"—says the United States Department of Commerce. (Photostatic copy of this government report available upon request.) But just how big is $2,000,000,000.00? In money value it is equivalent to 92.5% of the combined total United States Exports to all countries in the world. It is larger by one-third of a billion than the entire imports of Germany, exceeds the total imports of France by one-half billion, tops the combined U. S. Exports to Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Central America, the West Indies and Bermuda by nearly one and one-quarter billions and leaves the individual world imports of such countries, as Japan, Holland, Belgium, Italy, Canada and British India trailing anywhere from a billion and a quarter to a billion and one-half behind!

and one-half million of its sons and daughters gainfully employed right now.

Does the Negro Spend and What does he Buy? A Negro's pay-day releases a flood of dollars immediately. He pays cash. In proportion to his earnings he buys goods of better quality than the white man. Yet the Negro also saves. Over 75% of his income is devoted to life insurance and similar cashable investments. A slave less than 70 years ago he is now an able citizen, owning 700,000 farms selling $664,000,000.00 worth of crops, and selling $101,000,000.00 worth of goods at retail to his fellow Negroes. His story is one of advancement only in the United States can understand or believe possible.

What does the Negro read? He is 100% Negro in mentality and feeling. White media are not for him and are often belligerently against him. Their influence upon him is almost negligible. But he does read and believe and act upon the contents of the newspapers owned, written and edited by and for his Race. Consistently he pays more for his newspaper than does the white man—from 5¢ to 10¢ per copy, an evidence of true reader interest not duplicated in this or any other country. And these newspapers are National in Character, not the organs of political groups, not confined to petty local issues, but devoted to the interests and news of the Negro Race. To an almost unbelievable extent the Negro saves and reads; his newspaper and passes it on to other readers. As an Advertising medium it approaches a magazine in productiveness—brings in inquiries, influences or creates sales, weeks and months after its date of issue.

NOT NEW, WITH DEMOCRATS

David Lawrence and other writers of national note have called attention to the dangerous practice indulged in by President Roosevelt of securing the passage of legislation known to be unconstitutional leaving the Supreme Court the task of declaring it void. In this way the sponsors hope to be able to go before the people and argue that they wanted to do certain things but the Supreme Court blocked them—passing the buck.

Maybe this is new to Mr. Roosevelt but it is not new to the Southern leaders in Congress. They are past masters in the art. They have seen their state legislatures pass law after law aimed to disfranchise, segregate and embarrass the Negro which they knew were unconstitutional. Practically all of these laws which have been carried to the Supreme Court have been declared unconstitutional. The southern politician has deemed his campaign pledge with the voters because he blames the Supreme Court for frustrating his plans.

The Negro has complained of the system of attempting to nullify the constitution of the United States for many years. Now he has a lot of company who complain about nullification, company which should, but have not given him sufficient help fighting it that they should. Now let's fight it altogether.

STANDING BY OUR TREATIES

Emperor Haile Selassie of Abyssinia put Uncle Sam on the spot when he called upon the United States government to take some steps under authority of the Kellogg-Briand pact to bring about a peaceful solution of his country's trouble with Italy. Italy, Abyssinia and the United States along with several other nations signed the treaty. It was sponsored by and named for Hon. Frank Kellogg, who was secretary of state at that time the treaty was signed. In other words it's our baby.

Instead of offering a friendly gesture as has been done in the past by Secretary of State Simpson, Secretary Hull, head of the state department answered that he was sure the parties involved would iron out their differences peacefully.

The Bystander can not see why a nation will enter into a treaty which it does not propose to observe; it sees no reason for remaining a party to a treaty if it does not propose to live up to its obligations. It is no answer that other officials have had unpleasant experiences trying to live up to this treaty. We are still a part to it and ought to do our part.

Paul Mallon suggests that Secretary Hull and the administration have an eye on 1936 and that to do this duty might antagonize some large centers which they must carry in order to win. Well, if that is the reason—and we are inclined to agree with him—then other centers may have some votes to cast also. But if Secretary Hull or any other administration is

CARNERA'S MOUTHPIECE

The recent Joe Louis-Carnera prize fight demonstrates the important part that the teeth have in causing split bleeding lips. All of us remember that in the first round of this battle Carnera received a blow in the mouth and this started a continuous flow of blood. The presence of the blood not only on the Italian's face but also on the challengers gloves and all over most of the ring hastened the stopping of the fight. Generally, a blow in the mouth of a prize-fighter doesn't result in a split lip so early in a battle because the lips are protected by a rubber mouthpiece inserted between the teeth and he lips. However, Primo Carnera's seconds forgot to put this mouthpiece in place therefore when Louis' first hit Carnera's mouth the bleeding commenced. Generally the rubber prevents the teeth from cutting the lips but without that protection the lips are forced too suddenly and in his case too hard against the teeth and the bleeding followed.

This mouthpiece is a sponge shaped rubber affair that it bitten into to hold in place and covers the upper and lower teeth.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dear Dr. Dean:
Long ago you wrote about a sweet-tooth or something like that but anyway the eating of candy etc., caused a sudden sharp pain. Personally, I have that trouble and would like to know how to stop the pain right away and yes I know the tooth should be filled.

Mr. D. R.

Des Moines, Iowa.
Ans. I agree with you that filling is the best way to stop the pains caused by eating sweets. Yet in some teeth the cavity is too large to be filled and maybe crowned or even extracted if decay has progressed that far, you can place cotton in the cavity in hopes of keeping out the candy but whenever the pain starts just rinse out the mouth with water and dilutes the sweets and washes it out.

NATIONAL SECRETARY SEES GROUP HEADED TOWARD DESPERATION

St. Louis, Mo., July 5—At the closing annual meeting of the twenty-sixth annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the municipal auditorium here Sunday, Walter White, the association's secretary, electrified the 2,600 persons present by warning that "unless justice is given the Negro, he may be driven by desperation to the use of force. But we pray God that this may never happen, as we know all weapons are in the hands of those who deny us a chance."

This solemnly dramatic statement coming at the conclusion of a brilliant address in which the speaker reviewed the work of the year, gave details of the spectacular anti-lynch bill fight and asked support for the militant program of the N. A. A. C. P., was followed by a prolonged ovation.

New Plan Adopted

Mr. White was preceded on the platform by Hon. Josephine Beale, assistant secretary of the treasury and noted Colorado liberal, who expressed sympathy with the plight of the Negro and called upon all citizens to support the national program for a better social order.

She declared that the goal of all Americans must be social and economic justice and pledged her aid in bettering the condition of the Negro. Prolonged applause greeted her remarks.

The delegates who came from twenty-six states and the District of Columbia, adopted the much discussed new plan and program of the association, which is a radical departure from the previous policy.

year, after a hot fight with Columbus, Ohio, and Omaha, Neb. The St. Louis conference, which closed Sunday, was one of the most successful ever held by the organization.

Speaking at the Thursday evening, John P. Davis, secretary of the Joint committee on national recovery, scored the New Deal as "worsening the lot of the masses of American people" and charged that "the experiments are conceived, so far as Negroes are concerned, in terms of keeping the Negro in an inferior status."

D. E. W.—What became of my mother-in-law's ring?

Ans. I vision this ring being removed from the finger of your mother-in-law as she lay DEAD IN HER COFFIN. It is my opinion that the ring was taken from her finger the night before her funeral. This appears to be an inside job—the work of a RELATIVE, not an outsider.

F. H. C.—Do you think this man will ever become my husband?

Ans. I certainly don't. You should know by this time that the man you love by no means sure to marry—for he will never love any woman. He has a weakness for his own sex that he will never outgrow. It is useless for you to continue on with him.

H. B. P.—I am poor, disgusted and worried all the time. My husband is a poor manager, so look in your Crystal and see if there is any consolation to be given poor me?

Ans. The best thing I can prescribe for your case is a set of TWIN BEBBY TEN CHILDREN are enough troubles for any woman. While times are bad now, and you are having a tough time making a go of things it comes to me that your children will light up your future years with happiness.

B. M. C.—Please tell me who it was that left that message for me on a piece of cardboard?

Ans. An admirer—a MEMBER OF YOUR CHURCH who would like to know you better. He wants you to move up near him on the hill. You will learn more about this fellow by the writing for a private reply, sending 25¢ for one of my New Astrology

Readings.

C. M.—Will I have a successful year?
Ans. Very successful. I believe you will find the year a profitable one all around—for I see you being successful in LANDING THE JOB you are now struggling so hard to line-up for the Fall Season.

I. G. H.—Will my husband really quit me?

Ans. You can bet your last dollar that he will—if HE NEVER FINDS OUT ABOUT C. S. You should be a little more careful for there are several big ears, and lots of wagging tongues in your neighborhood who would like nothing better than to spill this dirt to your better half.

F. D.—Why is it that men do not like me?

Ans. They don't actually dislike you—but they do like a little more SEX APPEAL than you display. Pep yourself up a little bit and the boys who wear their hearts on their sleeves will begin to take notice of you. You must learn to overcome shyness for you really have a charming personality.
