Gov. Johnson Calls Militia; Bayonets Foil Lynchers

ABBEVILLE, S. C.—A company of State Militia hastily ordered out by Governor Johnson in answer to a request for help from Sheriff F. B. McLane of Abbeville County, bared their bayonets to drive back a mob that sought to lynch 11 colored men here Sunday. The troops, called for by the sheriff when he learned that a crowd was planning an assault on the jail, arrived barely an hour before the mob appeared in motor trucks.

The eleven prisoners were arrested after Jim Strickland, white, had been found badly beaten outside a colored church last week. Ranging in age from 20 to 45 they were arrested as their assailants three days later. Strickland is expected to recover.

Although the mob threatened to return in larger number, no further trouble is expected and the prisoners will be kept here until their trial next month.

CRACK NEGRO NINE TO MEET DEMONS IN EXHIBITION GAMES AT BALL PARK

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

When the Chicago American Giants, famous nine and for several years champions of the western division of the Negro National league, trot out on the field Tuesday and Wednesday nights, Des Moines fans will probably witness the fastest combination of ball tossers in baseball today. This major league aggregation will play the Des Moines Demons in two exhibition contests under the lights at the Western League ball park. Six of these players were seen in action at Chicago last Sunday when the all-star team from the west defeated the east, 11 to 8, in the third annual tilt at Comiskey park before 22,000 spectators.

Willie Foster, son of the late Rub Foster and ace hurler, and Trent, strikeout king, will do mound service for the Chicagoans; Larry Brown, the supreme catcher of both leagues, will receive. Willie Wells is said to be the greatest of present day shortstops, with a rifle arm, wide coverage and a healthy batting average. The hot corner will be guarded by Alex Radcliffe, snappy spread eagle third baseman.

Turkey Steas, colorful centerfielder, who was the sensation at the Denver Post tournament last year is the league's leading batter. A home run in the eleventh with two on from the bat of Mule Suttles, sensational left fielder, gave the margin of victory Sunday in the annual classic. Clayton, first base; Redus, right field, and Marshall, second base, may be the starting lineup, with Cornelius, Powell and Thomas, pitchers, and Bias, catcher, ready for duty.

The Demons will be represented by a strong team, which completed a road trip last week with sixteen wins out of seventeen starts. Hal Turpin, Ira Hutchinson or Claude Passo, strikeout artist, who was sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates, will oppose the colored boys. Augie Luther, home run hitting third sacker, and Leo Ogorkin, centerfielder, will provide thrills for the fans.

FUSS OVER JOE LOUIS, ETHIOPIA STARTS RIOT

Heavy Police Guard Quells Hostilities

ITALIANS, NEGROES FINED FOR FIGHTING

Jersey City, N. J. (UNP)—Three men were held without bail for action by the grand jury, an Italian and a colored man were held under $1000 bail on atrocious assault and battery charges, and two Italians and four colored men were held under $500 bail each as material witnesses by Judge John T. Sturniewicz, Monday morning in Second Criminal Court charged by police with being the ringleaders in the race riot which broke out Sunday afternoon because of arguments between colored and Italian over the victory of Joe Louis over Camera and Levinsky.

Police patrolled the boundary line between the colored and Italian section Monday and Tuesday after a night of uncertainty following Sunday's riot that brought injury to four, led to the arrest of 11 and for a time threatened to result fatally as knives, baseball bats, bottles and even a rifle were used in the conflict between 100 white and colored men. Tension gripped the area and a mild panic ensued when a white youth intentionally broke a window of a saloon in retaliation for the loss of his father's business.

Italians had been stopping colored youths who passed through the section asking them what they thought of Joe Louis. If they replied favorably, the colored youths were beaten up. A survey of the section Tuesday morning revealed it was more or less peaceful but it was still patrolled by police squads.

Bloody Record is Cited to Roosevelt

SUMMER LYNCHING RATE IS ONE EVERY SIX DAYS

New York, Aug. 16.—Citing a record of one lynching for every six days between June 22 and August 4, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People this week urged President Roosevelt to see that the Costigan-Wagner federal anti-lynching bill was called up for action in congress without delay.

The twelfth lynching of the year occurred August 4, in Pittsboro, Miss., when Bodie Bates was hanged by a mob because a white waitress claimed he had looked through her bedroom window and called to her to admit him. The Pittsboro lynching was unquestionably a frame-up in the opinion of every one familiar with procedure in such cases. There is grave doubt as to whether the lynched man was trying to get into the house.

Of the total of twelve lynchings, Mississippi has staged 7, Louisiana

NEW TRIAL ASKED FOR CLAY

(Special to the Bystander) Iowa City, Iowa—The Iowa supreme court was asked Wednesday to review a Johnson county conviction which sent Louis Clay to the Fort Madison penitentiary for a life term on a first degree murder charge. Clay was accused of slaying George J. Folsom, Johnson county pioneer, a bachelor who lived alone in the suburbs in 1932.

Several trial court errors were named in Clay's appeal; no evidence was offered to prove his choking of Folsom actually caused the man's death; Mabel Davis, his white wife of six months, was allowed to testify against him.

N.Y. Oppression Cause of Unrest

"HARLEM UPRISING" BLAMED ON POLICE—AND DANGER STILL EXISTS

New York City—(CNS)—"A smoldering Harlem hostility arising from the public belief that the police were lawless oppressors who stopped at no brutality or at the taking of human life," is given as the cause of the uprising in Harlem, March 19. As a result of the outbreak one person was killed and $200,000 loss to storekeepers.

The report filed with Mayor F. H. LaGuardia on August 9th by a subcommittee of a committee of conditions in Harlem, states that the false report of the uprising in Harlem, March 19, H. Kress & Co. served as the tinder to ignite the smoldering embers of hostility.

Resentment of the manner in which the police had dealt with the Negro populace for many years, the committee found, was not the only factor in producing the highly emotional situation which found expression in violence on the night of March 19. The strain of years of unemployment and insecurity figured as forcefully as a contributing cause of Negroes' indignation.

JOHN M. STEWART Died Saturday After Long Illness

Stewart Death is Loss to Negroes

FORMER COUNTY OFFICIAL AIDED MANY UNFORTUNATES

The death of John M. Stewart, 75, former Polk county supervisor, which occurred Saturday at his home at 2432 Walnut street, was a distinct loss to local Negro citizens. During his nineteen years as supervisor, until 1934, Mr. Stewart is said to have known no color, creed or religion in his assistance.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Hamilton Funeral Home, which was attended by hundreds of white and colored citizens. The body lay in state at the county court house, where he had spent many laborious years. In tribute to Mr. Stewart the following poem was penned by Alta Davis, 415 S. E. Fifteenth street court.

John Stewart is at Rest— He was my friend and I thought much of him, But he is at rest, 'tis a Godsend As good a friend as he was to poor. The angels are smiling in heaven, I'm sure.

No more shall we see him on earth with his deeds, No more will we find him helping folks to succeed, But he is at rest, 'tis a much needed one. All I can say is his work was well done.

"I am always open to requests," Miss McKay said. Heavy fan-mail makes it difficult to promise selections immediately, as the waiting list grows daily.

"Jig Time," an all colored talent revue, is sponsored by Reggie Martin, studio program director, on Monday night at 8:15 over the Iowa network. Featuring Miss McKay in novelty numbers; Kenneth Palmer, pianist, and the Harlem Hotshots were also heard.

The cheering and ovation continued more than the hour Louis remained in the ballroom.

BUCKWHEAT REPLACES 'STYMIE' IN GANG COMEDIES

IOWA BYSTANDER, DES MOINES, IOWA

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1935

Youngster Acts With 'Spanky'

HOLLYWOOD—(By Jacob Anderson for ANP)—What becomes of the juvenile stars of the "Our Gang" films? Many queries pour into the Hal Roach studios here where the gang produces its pictures and many more questions pass from one theater goer to another as the fans of these popular movie features gaze at the faces of their favorites.

The answer of course is easy. They simply grow up and move on to new fields. Sometimes, as in the case of Farina and Sunshine Sammy they become vaudeville actors transferring their activities from the screen to personal appearances in theaters throughout the country. Others just disappear for after all the "Our Gang" group is strictly juvenile and none of them have found the secret of eternal childhood, that is unless it is the laugh provoking "Spanky" the fat curly little white boy whose body remains about the same size because he grows slowly and is a tiny bit dwarfed.

Only one colored actor is at present appearing in the "Our Gang" pictures. He is William Thomas, better known as "Buckwheat." William O. "Buckwheat" was born in Los Angeles, March 12, 1922. He is three feet tall, weighs 21 pounds and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas of 1162 E. 51st street.

William was brought to the studio by his mother last October. He impressed studio officials immediately and was given a part in a picture being made. William was shy and frightened at first, however, and cried when anyone talked to him. He was given another trial and made good.

They really like "Buckwheat" at the studio. I watched him and "Spanky" do a scene at the studio the other day. "Buckwheat" and "Spanky" were on a fishing trip. A little black boy and little white boy, struggling with a fishing line. They became frightened at a baitfish. Starting to run, they became tangled up in the fishing line. It was so funny that I shook with laughter. So did the Director Gus Meigs, his assistant Gordon Douglas, the camera man and for that matter the thirty or forty assistants, electricians, and clerks of various kinds. They appeared to be enjoying it as much as Etta Moten and I who sat with Mrs. Thomas. William's mother in one corner of the great set. The illusion was perfect, the green grass, the trees, the little lake. I suspect the boys thought they were fishing.

Rudy Smith Thumps 'Em at Ship Grill

NEW YORK—(By Ted Yates for ANP)—Rudy Smith, the celebrated pianist who holds the record for setting the best jobs in the best places has relocated from the grill room of the Hotel President to the Ship Grill at Sutton Place and 57th Street in less than three weeks.

Playing his own compositions many of which have been bought by ranking music publishers (Robbins Music Company, and Mills) Smith cannot and will not remain at a nice club where white musicians go to repeat. A repeat is the age old racket of hiring a colored musician until the white one learn his numbers and create his style.

Such artist as Fats Waller, Putney Dandridge, Paul Bass et al have been subject to such stunts as the repeat. When appearing at the Hotel President, Smith played his unique arrangement of his own composition, "Manhattan Melodrama" by request. The number had asked about the number had previously heard Smith play it when he was Mills signed a contract with Reginald Forster, brilliant colored composer of "Serenade to a Wealthy Widow" and other hits, to represent him and his band for all their European bookings and for the publication of all of Forster's future compositions.

Bobby Evans Does 'Single' To Score Hit

NEW YORK—(By Ted Yates for ANP)—He's fast, has class and can dance—Bobby Evans! Originally a member of the famous Lucky Seven Trio, this boy with his winning ways, lends his dynamic personality to the colorful revue presented nightly at the Ubel club.

It was while he was host at Harlem's intimate, hot spot, the Hot Chat Restaurant, that Evans proved his real worth to the Dawn Patrol. A unique and clever tap dancer (and he can sing quite well) this young man is tops in his class.

HOWARD THEATRE REOPENS

WASHINGTON (CNS)—Howard Theatre will reopen Friday August 23 after an 8 weeks closed period for repairs and renovation. Louis Armstrong will star at the "grande opening" in his first American appearance in three years. He will head a grand revue, and one of the latest five star morning pictures will fill out the bill.

TOPICAL TYPES

By FAY M. JACKSON (For ANP)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—We never know what the movies are going to do next. After the Purdy campaign, they turned to opera. Following a seige of cracked voiced sopranos yelping the crowns of their heads off, we noticed a screen-side of animal characters, bogey men, and witches that set a new high for blood thirstiness among the adolescents.

Now, for heagen's sake, Samuel Goldwyn has added three former Yale classmates to his executive staff. These "talented" hail from Dr. George Baker's "Drama 47 Workshop." Some rival studio will probably hook in a trio of Vassar girls and make the film family complete!

Contrary to erroneous reports circulated by a local hawk, Theresa Harris did not replace Jeni LeGon in Metro's "Broadway Melody." Miss Harris, probably the best Negro actress in filmland, is not a dancer. LeGon, probably the best colored female hooper on Hollywood, is not appearing in "Broadway Melody" because Metro wants a bigger hit for her in a forthcoming college musical.

Sept screen players are exceedingly tanner, when pseudo news writers pit them, one against the other, for the sole purpose of venting their own spleen. Its cheap and trashy tactics, traceable to one source, that reflects discredit on West Coast journalism. One more crack, and I'll call this birds name.

Since your topical typist received credentials from the Will Hays organization of Motion Picture Producers and Directors Association, as the accredited representative of the Associated Negro Press, Hollywood news and courtesies extended to world-wide syndicates pile high on the copy desk. This means one thing, that Negro Newspapers are now a recognized factor in motion picture news service. M.P.D.A. believes you are just as interested in their work, in general, as you are in the progress of Negro plays in particular.

Some of these days, when dark fans have made many great stars in pictures and those great stars lead interesting lives, you may see some dark boys and girls plunking out copy in studio publicity rooms.

Harper Says She Has 'Possibilities'

HAS MAKING

—Muriel Rahn, brown-skinned youngster now at the Club Ubel, who gets an A.No. 1 rating from no less a personage than Leonard Harper, Harper plans to cast her in the leading role in a proposed musical comedy this fall.

Dancing Team Takes 'Truck' Step to Paris

NEW YORK—(ANP)—One of the leading acts in the entertainment field, Winters and Merano, sailed on Saturday aboard the Ile de France for an extensive tour of the continent. The team that was a sensation at Harlem's famous Ubel club, winners of the colored "million" dance a few summers ago, are scheduled to play the Paladium Theatre in London, England, and the Folies Bergere in Paris.

Recently the couple who are in private life Mr. and Mrs. Percy Merano, entertained for the Governor of New Jersey at the Governor's Cottage, Sea Girt, New Jersey.

(By ALLAN McMILLAN for ANP)

NEW YORK CITY—Leonard Harper, the "Ziegfeld of Harlem," whose popularity has increased by leaps and bounds during the past two years, has his eyes on the lookout for new material around which to build a new musical comedy for a Broadway showing in the early fall. Knowing Harper as I do, it is usually an easy matter for me to get him in good conversation.

First, it takes a good strong cigar, with a dash of nutmeg, followed by a favorite dish—Country Fried Chicken with corn fritters, to get the talented producer in a talking mood. Then, keep him interested in theatrical doings (that's what he likes to talk about most of all) until he finishes his dinner and the trouble is all over. He'll talk then for hours and hours, sometimes his apt to run far into the night—if you have that much time to spare.

Working on New Revue

The other night at the Ubel Club, where Harper has just premiered his new floor show, we sat together and I put the works on him. At first he was a little reluctant about gabbing, but finally cut loose in some new revelations.

Right now he wants to put on a new show for Broadway and he wants to have it ready for production by early September. "What I want to do," confided Leonard—making figures on the tablecloth, "is to produce the best show of my career." Something that will make the main stem sit up and take notice. I have (he said) a grand musical comedy. I have a prospective angel who will back me and I have my eyes on some very fine talent."

Then we got to talking about principals until we brought up the names of Muriel Rahn and Rosa Savage, both of whom have fine voices, good looks, and great future possibilities. Of course, Harper didn't know Miss Savage because she hails from Jefferson City, Missouri, and hasn't yet made her theatrical debut in the East. But my favorite producer did know Miss Rahn and that's why we discussed all evening.

Muriel is Qualified

Harper told me that he was sure that Muriel Rahn had the makings of a great musical comedy star. "Oh, I'll take a little time to be sure," Leonard calculated. "To bring the young lady around to the point where she can be started, but I think Miss Rahn has more possibilities than any of the young singers—especially the prima donna type."

A look into the files concerning the record of this exotic personality reveals that she made her professional debut about 1929 as a singer with Eva Jessy's "Dixie Jubilee Singers." A few months later she became a part of Lew Leslie's "Blackbirds of 1929" as an understudy for the female leads; and as a foil for the comedians in some of their sketches.

In 1930 Muriel found herself cast in "Connie's Hot Chocolate" with many other present day featured entertainers including Cab Calloway, Edith Wilson, Ronald Holder, Five Crackerjacks and Billy Higgins. She sang the hits "Ain't Misbehavin'" with our good friend Calloway, who is now one of the most amazing personalities in the theatre.

Appeared in Paris

True enough, Miss Rahn has not been published to my great extent, but Park and Fifth Avenue, Manhattan have heard that big, melodious voice in some of New York's swankier supper clubs. Among which are programed from the Epicure Simpson and the Napoleon.

Among her other appearances are the "Chez Les Du Barry" in Paris (1932), where she won the acclaim of the Parisian critics; the Broadway play "Come Of Age" with Judith Anderson, and the last edition of "Hot Chocolate" at Connie's Inn on Broadway. She is a graduate of Tuskegee and the Music School of the University of Nebraska.

The driver charged that he was refused transportation on one of the Hudson buses after he had bought his ticket and is suing to recover $500 damages under section 41 of the Civil Rights acts, which deals with racial discrimination.

Blodose purchased his passenger ticket on a train to his farm while he was going to his farm in Roxbury, N.Y. He also brought assault charges against the driver of the bus who, Blodose declared, belabored him with a piece of iron pipe when he insisted on boarding the vehicle. Four stars were turned in and firemen narrowly escaped injury when the south wall of the building was blown out. The house carried a vaudeville and picture policy for the "show me town" people.

The Grand Terrace Cafe opens in Chi next week with Earl Hines, playing the trombone as usual. It hasn't been made clear yet if Hines' band will carry the broadcast. CBS had it last year. We tuned in last to get the concluding numbers of Teddy Hill's unit on NBC last Saturday afternoon. CBS is featuring twice weekly over the top of the late evening Louis Armstrong band. It is to be a broadcast of Louis Armstrong, the vocalist position in a very manner of Louis and the trumpet player blares away in true Armstrong fashion. Even the songs played on the program are the L.A. type especially the ones that he has made overwhelmingly popular on recordings. To top it off the announcer in all seriousness states that Prima is bringing a new kind of vocalizing to the radio.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Drawing back, she let go with a teeny weeny slap. This did not go so good with the director and she was asked to do it again. This time she hit against this did not suit. Then she lifted one from the floor and that soon was ruined when she became, soliciting about the welfare of Broomfield. After many apologies she finally got a good smack in and Broomfield must have been glad when that scene was over—in spite of the fact that he told her repeatedly that it did not hurt. You see he and Greeley do all kinds of dances and boy how they threw each other around.

THIS GAY WAY

Louise Beavers came to Central Avenue in a spiffy new automobile and seemed to enjoy the fruits of her trip East after completing that role in "Imitation of Life"—The dashing Earl Robinson seems to be holding down the corner at 42nd and Central Avenue. That reminds me of Margaret Wilson. Once upon a time she hawled me out about that drug store and everything I write about it I remember her. Suffice it to say Margaret that Dr. Ed, actor Price and Garner (Bud) Grazdon have been especially pleasant to the press I wonder if you remember or if you read this column anymore?

The Nicholas Brothers will be at the Paramount Theater by the time you read this. They will share the spotlight with Eddie Cantor and Parkyakarkas of radio fame—Out at Hal Roach studios they have written a new song to be used as a theme by "Our Gang." Boy! But that will be a scream when Styxie Spanky, and the rest of the gang starting singing in off key—Do you know that slicker Harrison big wig of the colored extras at MGM has a son who is a born entertainer. He worked with William Powell at one time and boy he is a scream—Don't be surprised if you see a kid named Spencer Coleman in the limelight soon. He is the son of James H. Coleman, managing editor of the New Age Dispatch (which at one time used these notations) and has been placed under the tutelage of Lauretta Butler.

Libby Taylor has about recovered from that accident in which she almost lost her life. She and two youngsters were at the Lincoln Theater, the other night to see Mrs. West's latest picture—Les Hite has arrived from the middle west and is now back at the Cotton Club. He fears that he will be forced to make another trip home because his father is grieving so much about the death of Mrs. Hite.

Eugene Henry Huffman (Now I'm civilized author) dropped by the Y and tried to interest me in a magazine named "The New Negro Theater." Would like to have had one because it did have some interesting titles there. But perhaps I will have the price later—Will that fond hope and a hope that I can buy many other magazines as dabbler signs off.

Treatment"

Owner of the Ellis Cash Grocery and Bakery.
Here's what Mr. Shepherd says

"One thing I particularly like about the New Utica clerks are never inclined to show any impatience when I go in for the purpose to price some article. Being in business myself, I always like to compare prices and some stores seem to think that a Negro should buy the first thing that is shown to him. Many firms try to be insulting and sarcastic if he doesn't purchase something he doesn't want. I have never had this experience in the New Utica. I also like their attitude in employing colored help, returning some of the money we spend with them. The New Utica shows its appreciation by advertising in the Iowa Bystander, Iowa's only Negro newspaper."

"Unusual upturn in business has caused our Company to decide to remain open all the year 'round; the first time in the history of our firm. Advertising in the Bystander seems to be the most productive medium we have ever used to stimulate trade.

Evidently the people must read the Bystander, judging by their responses. We intend to continue advertising in and out of season. We find the paper satisfactory in every way and consider advertising in the Bystander a good investment.

HEARING IS SET
FOR GENERAL CONFERENCE
Kansas City, Kans., Aug. 2—(By Davis Lee for ANP)—Attempted rape, forcing girl employes and students to submit to his base desires, and betraying Western university in-
to the hands of Kansas politicians,
included a splendid swimming pool, 35x
100 feet, a modern up-to-date first aid building, two new scout leaders' cabins and two new scout leader family cabins, a new Q. M. building, an improved camp road, a new lighting plant, a new well, many nature trails, etc.

According to the records of Judge
Tucker's court here, a matron, a music teacher, and several other women left the school rather than submit to Bishop Vernon's continued advances.
One of the young ladies brought the charge of attempted rape against the bishop. Because of the alleged weakness of the prelate for young women, several mothers are said to have stopped their daughters from attending
the school.

Charges and counter charges ament
the betrayal of Western university
into the hands of Kansas politicians goes back several years, the A. M. E. leaders say. According to them, the university was built by the A. M. E.
church. Some years after the school had been built Bishop Vernon succeeded in getting the state of Kansas and the church to form a partnership in its operation. The bill assigned to have been written by Bishop Vernon.

However, after his suspension at the last general conference for allegedly taking $17,500 of the church's money, Bishop Vernon is alleged to have engineered a break between the church and state to the extent that the church was forced to close Western university, and according to the leaders of the church, the state has assumed complete control over
the school.

South Pole Once Warmer;
Various Places Now Cold
There is evidence that while the giant dinosaurs of 150,000,000 years ago were wallowing in swamps where Rocky mountain peaks now pierce the sky the South pole was humid and subtropical. It is even seen as possible that under the great Antarctic ice cap
may lie the fossilized bones of giant reptiles which once grazed the lush vegetation then growing where there is now nothing but ice, observes a correspondent in Pathfinder Magazine.

ELKS OF THE WORLD IN THE
"CONVENTION OF CENTURY"
Washington—(CNS)—The "Convention of the Century" is the way in which the coming thirty-six annual grand lodge convention of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks of the World, here in the capital of the nation, August 25-31, is heralded throughout the country. A delegation of "high Elks," headed by Grand Exalted Ruler J.
Finley Wilson, called at the white house Wednesday, July 31, to invite President Roosevelt to review the grand parade August 27th and attend the oratorical contest. The chief executive of the nation informed the committee that if possible he would accept the invitation. He expressed interest in the health, educational and civil liberties programs of the order and gave the delegation one of the heartiest greetings ever extended to any group in a visit to the white house.

The president "was shot" in a dozen or more different poses with members of the committee group. The delegation, in addition to J. Finley
Wilson, grand exalted ruler, and Dr.
Charles B. Fisher, general chairman of the convention committee, were:
Attorney Roy S. Bond, grand royal knight; William C. Heston, commissioner of education; John H. Rhines, commissioner of athletics; Dr. William J. Thompkins, commissioner of health;
Captain Arthur Newman, grand marshal of the parade, and Robert H.
Orle, grand secretary of the convention committee.

They Had a Word for It
In ancient Greece an asylum was a place of refuge to which any and all might flee for protection. At one time in Greek temples and altars were inscribed that in fear, it was a religious duty to remove anyone from them by force. But the temple asylums became limited in number because of abuse of privileges. In modern times this name has come to mean a home (or refuge) for the afflicted,
more particularly the insane.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Snowy Owl Great Hunter
Unlike most other owls, the snowy owl hunts both day and night. It is keen of sight and unusually wary.
Living as it does, in an open country,
it is wary of approach. It is usually seen perched on a hummock, fence post, haystack, or even deserted building, and cannot be confused with any other bird. When it comes in great numbers it is likely to take a heavy toll of both song and game birds, as well as fish.

England's Oldest
The Guildhall, Exeter, with its overhanging facade, is said to be the oldest municipal building in Great Britain.
Here the wealthy merchants of the city transacted their business in the time of Queen Elizabeth, when Exeter was noted for the manufacture of woollens.
It was also during Elizabeth's reign
that the Exeter ship canal was built,
the first canal in England to connect sea-going vessels to reach an inland port.

Water Flows Uphill
Owing to marked variations in atmospheric pressure, the surface of Lake Geneva, Switzerland, is not infrequently 5 or 6 feet higher on one side of the lake than on the other. The phenomenon is known as "the spiche,"
and it causes the lake to swing back and forth for periods upwards of an hour.

Big Waterfall Found
Boundary commissioners who discovered the great waterfall on the borders of British Guiana and Brazil describe it as resembling the Horseshoe fall at Niagara.

Oleomargarine Known as Margarine and Butterine

Oleomargarine is known also as margarine and butterine. It is an artificial substitute for butter, first manufactured in 1870, in France, by its inventor Mege-Mouries. It is made from oil obtained from beef fat, neutral lard,
and cottonseed oil, with a little butter,
cream, or milk added during the churling. In preparing the oil, the fat cut from beef cattle at the time of slaughter is washed, chilled, and steamed to purify it and separate the membrane.
The steaming is allowed to crystallize
out, and the oil is separated from it by pressing. Several grades of oil are made, depending on the source of the fat, and the treatment. Neutral lard, or neutral, as it is called, is made from the leaf and back fat of pigs.

In the production of oleomargarine, says the Indianapolis News, the oil and neutral are melted and mixed in definite proportions, the cottonseed oil being added to the mixture, the poorer grades containing larger amounts of milk or buttermilk (rarely melted butter or cream) is added to the mixture, which is then churned, salted, and worked.
Stringent laws in the United States
forbid the addition of coloring matter
unless a heavy tax is paid on the product; but means have been found of erasing the law by adding a fat which imparts the desired color. When properly made, oleomargarine is a wholesome and nutritious product.

PARTIALLY OUR FAULT

During the period of PWA and CWA, we complained and still do because we felt that we had not been dealt with fairly; that the Negroes didn't get even what President Roosevelt and Secretary Ickes desired that they have. The Negro press complained in its news and editorial columns and while some results followed, they were not what they might have been.

The reason is partially the Negroes' own fault. There are so many people looking for jobs today—and efficient people, too—that the authorities give their attention to those only who bear down the hardest for what they want.

Women and men ought to make applications for work NOW. Jobs will be available soon—not enough for all, however, so it is essential that the application be in.

BE PREPARED

Last week a call came to the Bystander office for a domestic science teacher for a high school in one of the border states. The job paid well to begin; the requirements were rigid but not unreasonable.

Where to look was a question, for even though many college graduates were available, none had specialized to the extent that they qualified for the job.

The point is that here was, and still is, an opportunity for a job but nobody we knew could qualify.

KEEP DOWN QUARREL

Disturbance and riots have been reported in some sections between Negroes and Italians over Joe Louis' defeat of Primo Carnera and King Levinsky and also the Ethiopian-Italian differences. It is unfortunate that this should happen and yet such disturbances happen between other races and the world goes on just the same. The Bystander is not disturbed in the least by such stunts.

However, the Bystander does feel that intelligent Italians and Negroes can do much to keep down trouble of this kind. Among both races—as in any other races—are those who like a disturbance and imagine they are smart to keep them up. Such people must not be allowed to "wag the tail" of these respective races, each of which can do much to prevent it.

WHY SPLIT AMERICA?

It is reported that the farmers of the middlewest are planning to take steps to test the constitutionality of the tariff laws. Of course, the courts are open to American citizens to test their rights under the law, but it looks as if someone is trying to drive a wedge between the industrial and farming elements in America. Frankly, it does not sound well at all.

Dental Health Education Hints

By Dr. Millard R. Dean

TIME FOR RE-EXAMINATION

Approximately one year ago this column was started for the purpose of enlightening people about the ill effects of bad teeth and the benefits of good sound teeth. Those of you who have had your mouth checked over by your dentist in the past year can certainly vouch for that safeguard. Now, the others who neglected this precaution are again reminded of the personal gain in knowing the condition of the teeth and gums before they reach an injurious stage.

Each one feels that his teeth are in good shape, therefore foregoes the visit to the dentist but the mirrored examinations that the patient makes are not very satisfactory. The small decayed areas and the slightly swollen gum are noticed by your dentist at this annual, or better, semi-annual, check-up and the smaller the infection the easier to remedy and the surest way to prevent pain in the future.

Supposing your examination shows the teeth to be in perfect condition, then isn't that knowledge enough satisfaction in itself than the hopeful thoughts that you will not be bothered with the toothache? Remember, that it is better and saving to prevent pain than it is to suffer for awhile and then have to seek immediate relief.

Questions and Answers

Dear Dr. Dean:
I have had a lower plate for only about a half year and it has never remained in place at all. The dentist who made it told me that my bottom teeth were out too long to give me a good place for the plate to stay. Now, I want some bottom teeth and wonder why he or somebody couldn't make some that will stay in place.—Mrs. L. A., Des Moines, Iowa.

Ans.: When the lower teeth have had to be removed because of extensive pyorrhea or when the lower teeth have not been replaced before having the first plates made then the lower ridge will have been absorbed away leaving almost a flat surface on the floor of the mouth. If this ridge has been worn away and practically completely disappeared, then I can not help you as my knowledge of dentistry as yet hasn't found any way to keep the plates in place in the absence of a lower ridge.

Ans.: At the present time I don't believe there is anyone who does want you for a wife—however, there is a marriage in store for you—I believe you will marry a WIDOWER who is NOW LIVING IN YOUR COMMUNITY.

M. J. J.—Does my husband ever give his friend woman anything?
Ans.: Yes, he does. You are right in suspecting him of paying money on the garment SHE BOUGHT LAST FALL. He has helped her on a number of occasions and I suggest that you let him know—THAT CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME.

H. K.—Who stole my brand new Diamond Ring?
Ans.: If you will pay a little visit

Health Talks

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

PTOMAINE POISONING

This being the out-of-door season, the season of picnics, excursions and camp-ments, and unfortunately the season of heat and humidity, particular care should be given to the source, preparation and kind of food we eat. Food poisoning may be caused by foods which are not in any way altered in appearance nor in taste unless putrefaction (decay) changes have taken place and then, of course, the food tastes badly and its appearance and odor may be changed.

The meats most often affected are pork, veal and beef. Lamb and mutton are seldom affected. Practically all kinds of fish can become poisoned. Poisoning from meats and fish may arise bacteria in the food or toxins (poisons) produced by the bacteria that develops.

The symptoms from food poisoning develop from three to thirty-six hours after ingestion of the contaminated foods. The patient complains of abdominal pains, straining, nausea and usually diarrhea, headaches, cold sweats, shivering and sometimes faintness or actual loss of consciousness. The abdomen is tender, the temperature may be two or three degrees above normal and in some cases below normal.

In all cases of food poisoning treatment must be very prompt and often very vigorous. The first thing to do is to induce free vomiting. This may be accomplished by drinking three or four glasses of hot water and then putting one's finger down the throat. Clean the bowels by giving a full hot enema and a cathartic of epsom salts or magnesia citrate. Apply heat if the patient is cold and immediately contact your family physician.

If cooked food is to be eaten it should be thoroughly cooked. The body should be kept in a perfect condition as possible, physically keep elimination normal, don't overeat, exercise plenty but moderately, get plenty of sleep, and even though you may eat food that is not in the best condition, your general health will help you to combat any bacterial infection.

TO WILLIAM AUSTIN.
You are hereby notified that on or before the 22nd day of July, 1935, the petition of the plaintiff in the above entitled cause will be filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Polk County, Iowa, claiming of you a divorce on the grounds of Johnson treatment.

MISSOURI VALLEY TENNIS MEET

Chet Williamson and you're truly made the trip to the Missouri Valley tennis meet at Kansas City last week and got back alive. The men's singles title was won by Richard Cohen of Denver who defeated the defending champion, Chas. W. Graham of Tulsa, Okla., Sunday in what was supposed to have been an upset though Cohen, playing as he did Sunday would cause trouble in any Negro meet in the country. He was a much improved player over last year when he lost to Graham in the semi-finals. In all fairness to Graham it must be said he was not at his best Sunday but even his best would be insufficient to stem Cohen's rifle shots into the corners.

What did we do? Williamson failed to get by the opening round for the first time since he began playing in this meet. Your uncle Dudley got Graham in the first round and played some of his finest tennis which wasn't enough, but still we felt good about it.
