Rev. Alexander Closes Third Year of Service

ST. PAUL PASTOR INAUGURATED
CHURCH BUDGET SYSTEM

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

When the fifteenth annual session of the Northwestern A. M. E. conference meets here Wednesday, the Rev. J. A. Alexander will close his third successful year as pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church, largest in the Midwest. "I am enjoying my work in the city and have made many friends here," the minister declared.

He is a prominent candidate to the A. M. E. general conference, which will be held at New York City in May of 1936. Two ministers and two laymen will represent the Northwestern group.

Inaugurating the budget system in 1933, the only complete one of its kind in the conference, the Rev. Alexander has paid the majority of large current debts and a $1,100 payment was made on the church mortgage this past conference year. During his three years here, church attendance has increased 50 per cent and two hundred were added to the roll in 1934-35.

Family of Ministers

The Rev. Alexander who came from a family of ministers, was born in Kansas City, Mo., and received his early education there and Booneville, Mo. "My father, the Rev. W. M. Alexander, now has a charge in Missouri, and the late Rev. G. A. Alexander, my brother, was pastor at Albuquerque, N. Mex.," he recalled.

Receiving his A. B. degree from Western university, the Rev. Alexander attended Shaffer Theological seminary, both institutions in Kansas City, where he was conferred his B. D. and D. D. degrees. Last year he continued his graduate work at Drake university.

Built Kansas City Church

Serving the pastorate at Kansas City, he built a church there in 1923, remodelled the building at Hannibal, Mo., in 1927 and finally accepted a charge at the Ebenezer A. M. E. church at St. Joseph, Mo. Before coming to Des Moines in 1932, the Rev. Alexander was the pastor at St.

He was married to Miss Kathryn Bedell of Springfield, Mo., in 1916 at Kansas City, Kansas. Mrs. Alexander is now first vice president of the conference branch, Mite Missionary society of the Northwestern Annual Conference, president of Grant Mite Missionary society at St. Paul church and is delegate to the quadrennial session of the Women's Mite Missionary society of the A. M. E. church, which meets at Baltimore in October.

Alliance President

The Rev. and Mrs. Alexander are active in the social, community and religious life of Des Moines. President of the Ministerial Alliance, chairman of the committee on calendar of the Ministerial Association (organization of 150 white and colored ministers in Polk county) and first vice president of the Polk County school of Religious Education, are some of the civic offices the St. Paul minister now holds.

Rival Baptist Conventions Invade Capitol, Gotham

THOUSANDS AT N. Y. MEETING
COLISEUM, NEW YORK CITY.

Sept. 6.—With thousands of enthusiastic delegates and visitors from all parts of the country thronging the ever crowded thoroughfares and sidewalks in the "Heart of Harlem," the Baptists of America, Dr. L. K. Williams, president, Dr. Thomas S. Hart, host, opened the most colorful session in the history of the National Baptist Convention Sept. 4, at the Coliseum, E. 177th street, and the Abyssinian Baptist church.

Busy pastors, excited parishioners, interested laymen and curious spectators since early Monday morning have been pouring into the city via airplane, railroads, buses, and autos. Not since the golden jubilee when churchdom combined vacation with convention to attend the meeting at Chicago has such a deluge of delegates flooded the host city.

The Revs. G. W. Robinson, Iowa Moderator, J. L. Lucas and A. Ross Brent are the Des Moines ministers attending.

ENTRIES POUR IN FROM STATE NEGRO TALENT

Everyone in Iowa is Invited
To Compete; September 17
Last Day to Sign for Finals

Tin Pan Alley will get a break in Iowa this month. Entries are pouring in for the statewide Negro Talent Week which is being sponsored by the Iowa Bystander and supported by business and professional men and local leaders in the field of drama and music. Professional theatre careers, radio bookings and prizes will be awarded to the finalists who will compete at the Jewish Community Center, Monday, September 30, after a series of eliminations. The judges will be experts in each division of competition.

As an added attraction, a sport card is being arranged to give acrobatic, tumbling and jiu-jitsu exhibitions between the acts.

The churches will, by no means be in the background, as many have signified their intention of competing with choruses, choirs and quartets. Prominent ministers have approved of this community project as a great "step in civic culture and fine arts."

Honors of being first to enter goes to the Fant Brothers quartet, a group of east side youngsters who are well known in radio and church work. The Brown Buddies, popular singing, dancing and novelty trio, composed of "Sonny" Wilson, drummer, Jack Carrington, piano and vocalist, and "Step" Black, dancer and personality man, have signed up.

This group just returned from a three days' engagement at the Hotel Paxton in Omaha; Hotel Baltimore in Kansas City and Hotel Kirkwood here. The "We Three, girls" trio, Charles Washington, and his one man band of five pieces, George Brewer of W-H-O fame, and other radio artists and local celebrities are among some of the musicians who will try for top honors.

Amateurs and professionals in any line of music, single or groups, alike are eligible to enter any of the classifications: vocal, instrumental and dancing. These classes are grouped in subdivisions as shown in the entry blank. Choirs, choruses, quartets, solos, (voice, or instruments), tap, toe and ballroom dancers, or novelty and variety acts (monologues, comedy teams, musical saws, etc.) are accepted. Watch this paper for further announcements.

The entry blank found in the other part of the paper must be mailed before Tuesday, September 17, 1935, and live in Iowa. Those outside of Des Moines must hold their elimination groupings before September 17 and the results mailed to this office by Wednesday, September 18. Address all inquiries to the Negro Talent-Editor, Care Iowa Bystander, 207 7th St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Mending "Soles" For Many Years

By Senator Whitaker

Although he's not a preacher and has never passed the Sunday "collection" plate, Jack Carnell makes his living "mending" other people's "soles."

Carnell, proprietor of the Flat Iron Shoe Shop, 1201 1/2 Keosauqua St., has been repairing shoes for 18 years and began as apprentice under an Austrian German. His present shop is the second one operated and managed by himself. He operated his first shop in Topeka, Kansas.

He has repaired a total of 84,364 pairs of shoes while in business for himself and a total of 158,728 pairs while employed for others. If each pair of shoes repaired by Carnell during his eighteen years of service (averaging 18 inches to the pair and totalling 253,092 pairs) was linked shoe to shoe, the link would reach a distance of 72 miles, or the distance from Des Moines to Creston.

Klooze, Jefferson apartments, was the operator. The woman died soon afterwards at the Broadlawn General hospital. The body was sent to Shelby, N. C., where a daughter and son live, for burial.

Selassie's Strategy Fail; Oil Refused

POWERS DENY AID TO AFRICA

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, Sept. 6 (Special)—Unless some unforeseen aid comes to Ethiopia in its dilemma, this last independent African nation will have to bear its burden alone. That opinion was voiced this week by palace spokesmen who looked anxiously about them for some sign, for some avenue whereby war with Italy can be avoided at this late stage.

Like a house of cards, Emperor Haile Selassie's big ace, the granting of huge oil concessions to Anglo-American interests has come tumbling down, bringing with it last hopes of averting actual conflict with the beligerent Italian dictator.

Communications from the United States have reached here and the information that officials of the Standard Vacuum Oil company have announced their intentions of withdrawing from ownership of the vast concession of oil privileges in this country, is being weighed by the emperor.

THE FOOTBALL MEN MEET IN ATLANTA AGAIN

FOOTBALL VENDERS TO START AT ONCE

By RIC ROBERTS
ATLANTA, Ga.—THE CHRONOMETERS of the Naval Bureau in Washington, D.C., tell us that we have something like 15 days more of summer. Officially, they inform, the arrival of the equinox (when night and day is of the same length) does not occur until September 21 and that autumn begins on that day.

I arose Monday morning and glanced at the calendar. September is here and, to me, that means the passing of good old summer time. The autumnal touch is already in the air and in a few days the halfbacks and linemen will be back with us.

Football practice begins next week and when I hear that announcement being made I know summer is history. Yes, the football picture will become current again this week-end. In Atlanta the Southern Conference Intercollegiate leaders and officials will convene to name officials for 1935 and to review the major alterations in the game—and, also, to map out plans for the proper administration of another intercollegiate sports calendar.

Just Another Year
A few days later the football men of the Southeastern Atlantic Conference are to meet at Columbia, S.C., and there brush up on the new phases of the game; and still a few days later the Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Association and the Southwestern Conference are to follow suit.

Morris Brown College champions in 1934 for the South may find herself hard put if she is to defend her new crown successfully in 1935. In the first place, the purple is no stronger—if as strong—as of last November; while Florida will be stronger and fiercer and Alabama more confident. Tuskegee, of course figures to be the team to whip as of the past decade because Major Abbott and his able aides have a veteran team to send after the boys in the coming season. It will, as usual, be the best disciplined and best trained team in the loop. The big five of 1934 were Morris Brown, Tuskegee, Alabama, South Carolina and Florida. Last fall the champion purples were able to defeat only one of her chief "four" rivals and Tuskegee could whip but one likewise. The reason why Morris Brown is champ this day is because neither of the big five was able to defeat the Billy Nickers while Tuskegee bowed to two of them—Alabama and South Carolina. Alabama was able to take only one of the big five (Tuskegee) and Florida had a duplicate record of one victory and two defeats. So it sums up to a ringer situation when we remember that each of the big five of a year ago was able to whip no more than one of the quintet in every case and that Morris Brown was because she kept any of them from defeating her. The other four were all defeated within the circle.

The Purple Record
Thus we reach the point of discovery—that Morris Brown won her laurels by virtue of defensive excellence rather than top offensive greatness.

Grey Sox Win In Tilt With B'ham Barons

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—Before a scant crowd that braved the threatening rain, the Grey Sox of Birmingham defeated the Black Barons of Montgomery 4 to 1 in a pitching duel between Atkins "Yak" Collins and Joe Turner of the Grey Sox. The fourth inning proved too much for Collins as Johnson who was on first as the result of a walk advanced to third and scored on Lloyd's single left-field. C. Threats relieving Collins was greeted by a beautiful single by Rogers. Turner added to his wonderful game of pitching by driving in the second-run of the game. With the bases drunk Johnson hit to S.S. and as the result of some perfect base running Turner scored as the play was made at first for Johnson. The seventh, eighth and ninth innings all opened with the mighty Turner, in a hole, each time he exhibited his ocean breeze cooler. Pacific Ocean calmness. Big League control ash collectively and superbly submerged the only victorious chances of the boys from Shady Mts. Strange as it seems, a double chase started by a throw from first to second and brought the grandstand to its feet, ended in a put out and a run for Montgomery, the man on 3rd was out and Johnson scored from 2nd. CHUNN LOOKS AT PURPLE CLAN AND PREDICTS STRONG OUTFIT FOR COMING GRIDIRON MELEES

ATLANTA, Ga.—Several hundred football fans and Alumni of Morris Brown College that romped last fall to its first football championship, continue to write and ask me what to expect from the Wolverines of 1935. It is impossible to predict at this time of the year what a football team may or may not do and I have personally dodged the issue repeatedly of prognosticating on any individual school at this time. However, there are some definite points to be considered and explained.

In the first place, they say Morris Brown will be weaker on defense, or at least the average fan and writer will think so, but I fail to see that point after all, they only lose Honey Smith and Stanfield, stellar linemen who could be depended upon for an hour of rough going. Berry played sparingly last year and also Jim Reid. These four men are lost thru graduation and regulation of the rules, but I don't think it will make such a dent in the teams defense this fall. Of course, experience will be missing a bit. Smith was of All-American caliber and so was Stanfield, but there are some good reserves waiting with plenty football sense under their belts to take their place.

Line Better Than '34
Don't laugh when I tell you that Morris Brown's defense will be stronger—but you will see. There is no school in the South that can offer more in the way of backfield material than the Wolverines. Perhaps in the absence of Head Coach Nicks, Coach Lockhart, who will have everything in charge, will stress the point of offensive play and that will be to out-score their opponents. They will have two sets of backs, who can run and kick and do everything in general. Last fall the backfield never found itself until the curtains were falling to close the season. Those who watched them can truthfully verify my statement. The same goes for the big Brown line of last fall. Most every school in the conference forced upon them, but the backfield by some strange fate pulled them out. It was far from being the line that Coach Nicks developed in '33. If any team had directed its attack on the Wolverine flanks and kept it there they would have suffered several defeats perhaps, but this year's flanks will be almost impregnable. Dan Comer, who was hurt, says he never felt finer in his life and will be in there this fall. L. Johnson, who really started at the pivot last season and rescued Berry, time after time, was far the better pivot man last year. This fall he will be right, so you see Berry won't be missed so much. Pete Meredith, will most likely be called back as Johnson's reserve or there will be a hot battle between the two for the regular post.

Wheeler Is Third; Ala. Man Victor In Tourney

By LUCIUS JONES
NEW YORK (S.S.)—Dixie golfers showed their brothers up the country that they knew something about golfing as they walked away with most of the honors in the National Open Golf Tournament which closed Friday on the beautiful Lake Mohonk course.

They also showed their northern fellow sportsmen that they knew something about politics as A. L. Miller, long years president of the Lincoln Golf and Country club was elected vice president of the association.

To Solomon Hughes, Gadsden, Ala., player who hit the coveted cup and the $75 cash award for first honors. Hughes finished top place with a total of 314 strokes.

Closely following the Alabama flash was James McCoy, New York professional with a 315 and Howard Wheeler of Atlanta, Ga., with a 317 to his credit.

John Deady, the Morehouse college student from the mountains of Asheville, North Carolina, wound up in fourth place with a fine 321 while, fifth honors were split by Healy Smith, Morris Brown's sterling athlete and Robert (Pat) Ball, Chicago, Ill., the defending champion. Zeke Hartfield, another Atlanta entry, finished with a total of 328 strokes.

Leading the amateurs was Roy Jones, of Atlanta, who won a medal for runner-up honors in the consolation flight.

Hartfield, who started out nicely also won a medal for low score on the opening day. Young Hartfield shot a brilliant 77 on the first day in spite of a downpour of rain. At the annual meeting, Leonard Kennedy of New York, was named president, A. L. Miller, Atlanta, vice president; August Tankley, Philadelphia, Pa., treasurer; and J. M. Stephens, Detroit, sec.

Mr. Miller, who was nominated for the presidency, tied his opponent on the first ballot. He declined in favor of Mr. Kennedy and was chosen vice president.

The group named Philadelphia as the site of the 1936 golf tournament.

WILEY TO START AT FOOTBALL PROGRAM

By SPEEDY MASON
MAINTAINING, Tex.—The Wiley Wildcats will hold their initial football practice, Tuesday, September 10, the date set by the Southwestern conference that members can start football practice. At least thirty-five hopefuls are expected to report to Coach Fred and Harry Long, who will be facing the tough problem of bringing the Wildcats from the cellar of the Southwestern Conference back to the place in the sun enjoyed by the Wildcats for the past ten or twelve years.

The locals will have a great nucleus around which to build a strong forward wall in the persons of Captain-elect Chris Hibbler, a 200 pound guard from Gary, "Chuck" Jackson, center, and George Taylor, tackle. Supporting these fine linemen will be Byrd, Thomas and McIntosh, ends; Elston Grant and Tracy, tackles; Carrier and Wideman, guards; and Moore and Wise, centers; in addition to the large number of high school stars that will be on hand.
