Louis Gains New Fistic Triumphs Iowa's Best Stars Will Vie For Music Honors

FANS PAY MORE THAN $1,000,000 TO SEE PUGILISTIC 'BATTLE OF CENTURY'

By Al Monroe
(Chicago Sports Editor)

Yankee Stadium, New York City, Sept. 24—This historic stadium, where thousands have witnessed the rise and fall of athletic greats, groaned Tuesday under the weight of over one million dollars worth of fight fans who filled every available seat to witness the rebirth of really "big time" prize fighting which ended in fourth as was expected.

The fighters—Maxie Baer, once the pride of the far West and the other Joe Louis, the sensational brown fury of the East—represented the combination ideal from the standpoint of promotion, of popular appeal, and of masculine fitness.

Not since 25 years ago, in 1910 when Jack Johnson was in his prime, have followers of the leather pushers had an opportunity to witness such a titanic interracial brawl as transpired here Tuesday night.

For all the vaunted prowess of Dempsey who played a minor role in the busy corner of the California Adonia, Baer was undoubtedly a huge box office attraction for 90,000 souls.

His hard devastating wallop; his braggadocio and swagger which has its definite appeal to the masses. A playboy and love-lace who threw away a coveted title and lost prestige then changed his ways and returned to redeem himself—this was half the reason for the sell out.

The other half of the million dollar combine was the nonchalant taciturn, earnest but glamorous Joe Louis. A man whose pugilistic history reads like the tale of Cinderella. A man to him because it was won through hard work, sacrifice and overcoming of obstacles mountain high.

Wedding Ceremony By Iowa Minister

CLINTON PASTOR IS BROTHER OF BRIDE

When Joe Louis, the greatest fighter in the history of the ring, took unto himself a wife two hours before the mighty Baer destruction Tuesday evening, it was an Iowa minister who tied the knot. The Rev. Walter E. Trotter, Baptist minister at Clinton, Iowa, is the brother of the former Marva Trotter, pretty Chicago stenographer bride.

While Harlem shouted and waited in vain to see their idol, the Brown Bomber was saluting his bride at the conclusion of the marriage ceremony performed by the Rev. Trotter in a swanky New York apartment. The Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor of Corinthian Baptist church here, visited the Trotters while in New York at the recent National Baptist convention.

JOE LOUIS READY FOR JIMMY BRADDOCK ANY DAY, NOW

Joe Louis Victory Film At Strand on Saturday

For the thousands of Des Moines worshippers of Joe Louis, undisputed king of heavyweight title challengers, who screamed for joy about his slashing victory over Max Baer, the Livermore Larupper and former world's champion, at the Yankee Stadium in New York City Tuesday night, the Strand Theatre is bringing the blow by blow action pictures of the fight filmed at the ringside, round by round, beginning Saturday for a week's run.

The Brown Bomber's sensational rise to fistic fame is the household word today and his outstanding pugilistic superiority over Baer and other boxers, is history now but the battle will be remembered for many a day. Setting a precedent for speed and perfection and at a tremendous expense the management of the Strand takes pride in presenting authentic pictures taken at the "House that Ruth Built," "Wanderer of the Wasteland" Zane Gray tale of high adventure of Western beauty, is the companion picture.

Scottsboro Trials Slated for October

ALABAMA LAYING NEW PLANS TO RAILROAD BOYS, SAYS I. L. D.

New York.—"The intention of Lieutenant Governor Thomas E. Knight, special Scottsboro prosecutor, and of other Alabama officials, to begin in October the swift railroading of all nine Scottsboro boys to the electric chair, is evident from the steps taken within the last few days," this was the statement made today by Ana Damon, acting national secretary of the International Labor Defense, from the New York office of that organization.

"The Alabama press has carried stories to the effect that the new Scottsboro trials will be set in October, probably the first part of October," Miss Damon said. "Knight has announced his intention of trying all nine of the boys at the same time. Thus the state of Alabama will attempt to repeat the mass legal lynching which took place at Scottsboro in 1931.

Selassie Scores Italy Land Bid

MOSLEMS TO GIVE AID TO ETHIOPIANS

ADDIS-ABABA, Sept. 27.—After receiving reports from Geneva that Premier Mussolini demanded a great curving strip of Ethiopia linking Eritrea with the Italian Somaliland, Haile Selassie warns the world that his Empire will never agree to being sliced up. Ethiopia will not accept any peace settlement offered while guns and bayonets are trained against her.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Latest dispatches revealed that Mussolini was closeted Monday night for nearly an hour with the British Ambassador, Sir Eric Drummond. This has given rise to a rumor that Duce intends to ignore the League in his bid for direct negotiation with England.

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 27.—The Moslem masses, 3,000,000 strong, are stirred to the point of religious frenzy over the struggle of Ethiopia against Italian imperialism. From Assuan in Egypt to Kirkuk in Mesopotamia the cries have been echoing through the air, "Woven with Italy."

The desecration of the mosques, the burning of the holy Koran, the insults heaped at Mohammed and other inhuman acts committed against the natives by the Italians in an effort to suppress the rebellion in Tripoli are revived and featured daily by the Arab press.

Catholic Priest in Charge of Novena

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

More than 103,000 Negroes in Louisiana are of the Catholic faith, said the Rev. Francis G. Wade, S. V. D., of Lafayette, La., Tuesday. The Negro Catholic priest, who is conducting the September novena and mission in honor of the Little Flower at the St. Peter's church, East Eighth and Des Moines, was a visitor at the Bystander office, accompanied by W. J. Shepherd. Masses are held at 6:00 and 8:15 a. m. and public devotions at 3:30 and 7:45 p. m.

In the interview, Father Wade, former resident of Washington, D. C., told of his early education and theological work in the St. Augustin seminary at Bay St. Louis, Miss. In charge of the Immaculate Heart parish at Lafayette during the past year, he has been in the Catholic faith all his life. His members number 2,000, with four priests in charge. Another parish in this southern city has 4,000.

"The responses of both groups have been indeed gratifying and the attendance of the bishops and clergy is evidence of much interest," stated Father Wade. He was entertained Sunday by Father T. P. Murphy, pastor of St. Peter's, with whom he is house guest. The Right Rev. Gerald T. Bergeran and other church dignitaries were present. The Negro priest addressed the student body at Dowling college Wednesday afternoon.

Asked his opinion of the Italian-Ethiopian crisis, he merely smiled pleasantly, but declined to discuss it. In giving reasons for the large number of colored Catholics in Louisiana, he said: "The French and Spanish slave owners educated their slaves, as well as their own children, in the faith, and that is why most of the Negroes speak the French language." Father Wade has no immediate desires to go abroad, as his field work here keeps him busy. Following the closing meeting Sunday he will open a meeting at Leavenworth, Kans.

Baptists Plan for Regional Meet

REV. L. K. WILLIAMS TO SPEAK HERE

The first regional meeting of the National Baptist Convention for this conventional year will be held at the Corinthian Baptist church here December 3-5. The object of these regional meetings is to bring to the different sections of the country the program of the national meet. This will bring to Des Moines a host of the leaders of the denominations led by Dr. L. K. Williams of Chicago, president.

This region consists of Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri. The Rev. G. W. Robinson, Corinthian pastor and Iowa moderator, is the regional director in the refunding campaign. This gives to the Iowa leader an outstanding position in this country, as he is to direct the campaign in the above named states. It is expected that every church in the state will be represented by the pastor or a delegate, as all the departments of the church are included.

The following pastors attended the convention in New York City: Revs. Robinson, J. L. Lucas, A. Ross Brent, all of Des Moines; B. H. Hunter, Davenport; J. H. Patten, Sioux City; W. E. Trotter, Clinton; Wm. Bell and Jordan, both of Waterloo. One of the most outstanding events of the convention was the annexation of the Bafama Islands, numbering sixteen thousand members. The Rev. G. W. Robinson has been named as one of the twenty-five persons to visit these islands next year.

Monarchs Trim House of David

By the Staff Writer

During his brief stay on the mound for two innings, Satchel Paige, the elongated hurler, called the greatest pitcher in baseball, dazzled the batters with blinding speed, as the Kansas City Monarchs trimmed the House of David nine, 7 to 2, at the Western League ball park here Monday night. The great Paige thrilled the small crowd with his intricate twists. However, the Davids were ahead when he left the game, 1 to 0, he allowing three safe hits and fanned two.

The hewhiskered gents were no better off when Chet Brewer stepped on the hill in the third. The lengthy lad from Des Moines showed great form with his smoke balls and his rifle whips across the plate as he struck out six, allowing one run in the eighth. Thirteen safe blows were nicked by the Monarchs from the offerings of Ossie Orwoll, former Deimon portlander, while the red suited Davids garnered eight.

Snappy infield work of the Kansas City boys featured the game, similar to their four other appearances here. The Negro National Leaguers have never been defeated in Des Moines. The short work of Paige was due to his pitcher's battle Sunday with Willie Foster in Chicago, where the American Giants won, 7 to 1.

Through the efforts of the Des Moines Baseball association, headed by E. Lee Keyser, president, and C. E. Knight, secretary, local ball fans have been able to see the topnotchers in Negro leagues in action as well as the white major league stars. In the last few years Des Moines has really been put on the "big time" baseball map.

FORTY BIG TIME ACTS WILL BE PRESENTED

Well, folks, it won't be long now. With the completion of vocal eliminations Thursday night, the stage is now set for the extravaganza of potential stage, screen and radio stars at the grand finals of the Iowa Negro Talent Week, Monday night at the Jewish Community Center, Eighth and Forest Ave. Music will come in for its full share before the footlights and some unknown will emerge winner of countless honors. A capacity crowd is expected and ticket sales are increasing daily.

The Bystander, Iowa's only Negro newspaper, is sponsoring its first "talent hunt" in an effort to open an opportunity to the best singers, players, and dancers in the state for the theatre bookings, radio contracts, stage career and prizes. Assisted by the leaders in music and drama, the professional and business world is co-operating with this project.

The following will be among the judges: Craig Lawrence, manager at KSO radio station; S. A. Brown of the Tri States Theatres Corporation; H. A. Cavanaugh, manager Orpheum Theatre; Alonzo Leach, of Leach Music Co.; W. R. Beckley, manager Paramount Theatre; Harry Hersteiner, manager Family Theatre; Hal Sheridan formerly of the Des Moines Theatre; and J. E. Bragg, veteran theatrical booker.

Miss Lois Bumgardner, instructor of dancing at the Hilland Studio, 3138 7th street, will act as one of the judges. Miss Bumgardner, graduate of North High, is a Drake student and is well known in the fine arts and terpsichorean circles of Iowa and the middlewest. Besides studying in New York, she appeared at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1933.

Other critics will include: Miss Zola Palmer, former orchestra director on the Orpheum circuit, now of the music department at Youkers; Miss Wilma Shean, local musician, and Mrs. Jobourness Kelo, director St. Paul A. M. E. church choir and prominent vocalist. Roberta Maupin, Drake graduate and former music supervisor of schools at Columbia, Mo., is accompanist for many of the contestants.

TUNE IN KSO SATURDAY

Several stars will broadcast Saturday afternoon at 4 P. M. to 4:15 over radio station KSO, as an advance showing for the Iowa Negro Talent Week.

More than 20 acts will be presented at the finals Monday night at the Jewish Community Center.

Earl E. May Seed Co. and LaVere Braught Floral company are donating some of the prizes and awards.

Report at 7:00 O'clock

On the night of the finals all contestants will be expected to report to Toussaint (Speck) Howard, general chairman, or Spencer Elliston, director, for instructions at the Jewish Community Center at 7:00 p. m. This is very important, because of the large number competing. Each act will be timed and "the show must go on" regardless! In order to give the finalists an even "break" and "fair chance, limited numbers of minutes will be given for each act. The judges' decisions will be final.

Tickets are on sale at Leach Music Co., 805 1/2 Locust street; Wilkinson Music company, 718 Grand avenue; Bob's Lunch, 620 Mulberry street, and at the Bystander office, 201 Seventh street, third floor. Contestants are selling tickets. All who do not have tickets are asked to secure them at the office immediately. Boost your favorite to the top by being there to applaud for him!

Former Pastor is Sought by Members

FACTION DENIED

WRIT OF MANDAMUS

A faction attempting to halt their former pastor, the Rev. Arthur Brewer, from occupying the pulpit was denied a temporary writ of mandamus Wednesday. The case for hearing is set for the November term of court, said District Judge Frank S. Shankland. Members supporting the Rev. Mr. Brewer are holding services at his home, 1237 McCormick street.

Elder D. H. Cranshaw, state overseer, who is said to have led the protest, charged that the minister's resignation was submitted and accepted, but that he had occupied the pulpit "forcibly and without the consent of the organization" September 8. Mrs. Cranshaw is pastor, assisted by Richard Turner, as results of Elder Cranshaw's appointment.

MIGRAINE (Sick Headache)

This is a disease in which we find women more often than men. It is a severe type of headache that occurs periodically and is associated with visual (eye) and gastric (stomach) disturbances lasting from one hour to one or more days. The individual who suffers from this disease is usually made aware of the approach of an attack by several days of feeling tired, accompanied sometimes by diarrhea and abdominal pain; occasionally the attack comes on suddenly, with excruciating pains, causing the patient to take his or her bed.

The attack usually comes on in the morning and increases as the day grows older. The visual disturbances that frequently accompany the attack may be of the nature of flashes of light, or of wriggling threads of light that pass across the field of vision, or a definite loss of acute vision. The pain is throbbing in character and is sometimes accompanied with nausea and vomiting, pallor of the face and ringing in the ears. Migraine usually appears in the early decades of life and tends to diminish in frequency and severity, and often disappears entirely, as old age approaches. Sufferers should confine themselves to a dark, quiet room and the use of cold compresses. An attempt should be made to discover the cause.

The defendants, Ed Brown, Henry Shields and Yank Ellington, were convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of the white man and the state supreme court affirmed the sentence of the lower court. Counsel for the defense filed before the supreme court a petition for a writ of certiorari asking the U. S. supreme court to review the case on the ground that the defendants were denied their

STATES WILL NOT CHECK LYNCHINGS, ROOSEVELT TOLD

New York, Sept. 27.—In a telegram to President Roosevelt yesterday, following the thirteenth lynching of the year at Oxford, Miss., and the eighth during the year within Mississippi, the N. A. A. C. P. asserted that the senators who filibustered against the Costigan-Wagner federal anti-lynching bill last spring "lied and knew they were lying when they claimed the states could and would prevent lynchings and punish lynchings."

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA CASE BEFORE N. A. A. C. P.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 27.—With the announcement today by the University of Virginia board of visitors that the application of Miss Alice C. Jackson of this city for admission to its graduate school will be denied, it became known that Miss Jackson and her family have placed the whole matter before the N. A. A. C. P. through the Richmond branch, and have asked the association for advice and assistance.

Miss Jackson is the daughter of a druggist here. She is a graduate of Virginia Union university of this city and has done graduate work in French at Smith college, Northampton, Mass. She desires to pursue further graduate work in French and made application to the University of Virginia, since the state of Virginia does not provide graduate and professional training for Negro students. There is a state college for Negroes at Petersburg, but it has no graduate or professional schools.

Sports

By Allen Ashby

Why not keep in constant touch with the sports world and athletic affairs by reading "SPORTS" each week by Allen Ashby, sports editor of the Bystander. Mr. Ashby, a high school graduate, former Grinnell football and track star, and state wrestling champion in 1922, is well known authority on the subject of "brownie" and "black" sports.

After holding the Iowa mat title three years, Ashby retired undefeated.

THE SHOUTING

Well, sir, the heavens opened and the smoke descended on Max Baer. There is no doubt as to who is the best heavy weight in the game now. Answering all the critics who said he couldn't hurt Baer and that Maxie would make him jump out of the ring, Joe Louis, the newly christened

"Brown Embalmer," jumped all right, but he jumped all over the California butcher boy.

Grantland Rice

Every one has either heard or read all the details of the battle which stamped our boy as being everything the critics said he was. We take off our hat to Grantland Rice. Rice never stopped praising Louis to the skies from the first time he saw him in action which is more than some of the other boys can truthfully say.

You'll pardon us a little bomb here, but we claim we were the original Joe Louis boosters around these hazy parts. We climbed on the wagon early and went for a ride, and were riding with our boy financially when he turned the Baer into a cub.

"Couldn't Take It"

We can't remember when we wanted a man to win any sort of sporting event as badly as we wanted Louis to win that fight. There has been so much talk of the boy being yellow and not being able "to take it" that it got in our hair. We wisely refrained from

What Good Is a Pup?

A pup is cute... and mischievous. But you can't tell just by looking at him now what services he will perform for his master when he grows up. He may be as useful as Barry, the St. Bernard of the Alps, who saved 40 lives.

When the telephone was a baby in 1876, few people could foresee how serviceable it would become. Now it saves life and property every day. Millions of times a day it brings folks together.

Telephone service, as we know it, has been developed by the Bell System, which for more than 50 years has had the same form of organization. There are 24 Associated Companies, like this company, each serving a part of the United States.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, parent company of the Bell System, coordinates the operations of the Associated Companies, furnishes them a general staff service and operates the long distance lines, connecting them into a nation-wide network. The Bell Telephone Laboratories contribute research and engineering. The Western Electric Company does the manufacturing and purchasing.

any verbal comment on the battle and so intense was out bitterness that the narrow minded ignoramuses that it was difficult to write anything about the fight without letting our bitterness show in print. But thank goodness, the boy came through and satisfied even his severest critics.

Clean Living

And another thing, if Max Baer had won that scrap, all the rules of clean living and careful training would have been refuted and meant nothing. The premium for a clean life would have meant nothing and millions of youngsters would have ruined their athletic careers and maybe their lives trying to compete without a lick of training because a guy who didn't live right beat one who did.

Yes, it was a great day for us and our theories of clean living. It was a great day for Joe Louis if anyone should ask you!

Corrector

In last week's report of the Northwestern Mite Missionary society meeting in Des Moines a linotype line was lost from the item, reading, "Finance raised for all missionary work will be held in Waterloo, with the Rev. H. J. Parker, pastor."

The statement should have said, "Finance raised for all missionary purposes were $1,045.06. Next year's meeting will be held in Waterloo, with the Rev. H. J. Parker, pastor." The Bystander regrets the error.
