Negro Delegates Determined To Carry Fight to Convention

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 18.—The annual address of President William Green and a 150-page report of the executive council featured the opening of the American Federation of Labor's fifty-fifth convention at the Hotel Chelsea recently, but Negro delegates and visitors listened in vain for any mention of union discrimination against Negro workers.

Instead, the council's report and the message of Mr. Green dealt with the Italian-Ethiopian conflict and labor's attitude, with the proposals of left-wing groups to endorse a labor party in 1936, and with expulsion of A. F. of L. affiliates of all communists and communist sympathizers.

Responsibility for action against Jim-Crow in unions was thereupon transferred to the floor of the convention, where Delegate A. Philip Randolph and Milton Webster of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and Maids sat waiting for a chance to renew the attack made by Randolph at last year's convention in San Francisco.

Vivian L. Jones Returns to City

VIVIAN L. JONES
In Los Angeles, Calif., Since 1930
NOW MANAGER OF WILSON
FUNERAL HOME
By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

After an absence of five years, Vivian L. Jones, former Des Moines funeral director, returned last week from Los Angeles, California, to assume the management of the Wilson Funeral Home, 811 Fourteenth street, here. Mrs. Lena S. Wilson is the owner of the establishment.

Mr. Jones is well known in the business and professional circles of Iowa. He passed the state board after his graduation from the Barnes School of Embalming and Dermatology as a funeral director in Chicago thirty years ago. He came to Des Moines in 1909, where he practiced his profession at 519 E. Court avenue until the war.

War Veteran
Advancing to the rank of second lieutenant, Mr. Jones served eighteen months overseas with Company A, 92nd division of the 366th infantry, popular Negro unit. Among the many Des Moines soldiers with him were: Attorneys Jas. B. Morris and Chas. P. Howard, Spencer Elliston, advertising manager of the Bystander; Jas. B. Mitchell of the Community Pharmacy, and Dr. A. J. Booker, now of Los Angeles, Calif.

Upon his discharge from the army in 1919, Mr. Jones resumed his business, operating at 1210 Center street. With the late Tug W. Wilson, he formed a partnership and moved to the present location, which bears the name of the latter. In 1929 Mr. Jones sold the entire interests of the firm. Mr. Wilson died October 26, 1934, of injuries received in an auto accident near Colfax.

Meets Friends
"It gives me much pleasure to be back in Des Moines and meet so many of my old friends. I will be glad to have all of them and my former associates to drop in and see me at any time," he stated, in the interview at the Bystander office Tuesday.

Mr. Jones expressed great surprise at the rapid growth and development in the city, especially among the Negroes here. While in Los Angeles, Mr. Jones was married to Mary O. Brooks, a former Des Moines girl. She will rejoin her husband the first of the year.

The same high quality workmanship, reverent care, dignified attention and courtesy which marked Jones' service in former years will be maintained, the pioneer funeral director said. Walter Johnson of Los Angeles, California, graduate of Jordan high school, accompanied Mr. Jones to Des Moines to be his assistant.

Nat'l Baptists Lose Prominent Leader

DEATH TAKES DR. HURSE OF KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 18.—(Special)—The Rev. John W. Hurse, pastor of St. Stephens Baptist church here and former president of the National Baptist Convention of America, died at his home, 2308 Brooklyn avenue, early Monday morning. He had been ill for some time.

Dr. Hurse was perhaps the most widely known leader in the National Baptist Convention. He had served as first vice president for a number of years and upon the death of the late Rev. J. E. Wood in 1929, Dr. Hurse filled the unexpired term as president. He was three times elected to serve as head, but was defeated in September, 1933, by the present president, the Rev. Greene L. Prince of Galveston, Texas.

Negro Star On Radio Network

PAUL ROBESON TO BE HEARD
—ON NBC HOOKUP SUNDAY

New York, Oct. 18.—The third program in the current series of radio concerts will be presented on Sunday night, October 20, with Erno Rapee conducting. Paul Robeson, great baritone, will be the guest artist. A coast-to-coast network of 66 NBC-WEAF stations will broadcast the concert between 10 and 11 p. m., eastern standard time. It was announced Monday that station KGU in Honolulu, Hawaii, has been added to the hookup for these programs.

In the first part of the program Robeson will sing "Light," by Sinding; "Homeland Mine," by Gretchenhoff, and the popular "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen," in a new arrangement by Lawrence Brown. Following the intermission, he will be heard singing "Deep River," "Water Boy" and "Short'nin' Bread"—all songs which this great baritone finds he must include in his concerts wherever he goes.

Critics consider Paul Robeson one of the most versatile stars of the American theatre and concert stage. He has established this reputation because of his stirring performances in Debussy Heyward's "Porgy" and Ziegfeld's "Show Boat" on the stage; on the screen in the motion picture version of Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones"; in London in Shakespeare's "Othello," and in innumerable concerts throughout the world.

Joe Louis Spurns June Title Bout

OFFER CALLS FOR BRADDOCK MATCH IN NEW YORK JUNE 9

Detroit.—When Joe Louis crawls through the ropes to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world the Brown Bomber will have proven himself to be the best man beneath the champion. That much was established early this week when the Louis' managers, Julian Black and John Roxborough flatly refused an offer to have their man meet James J. Braddock for the title early next June and shove Max Schmeling for the time being at least.

When the offer came for the match with Braddock, signed by Jimmy Johnston and Madison Square Garden, Black and Roxborough advised them that they would have to see Mike Jacobs.

GOP Leaders Eye Iowa '36 Campaign

REPUBLICANS GIRD FOR STATE BATTLE

Iowa Republicans have inaugurated their 12 month campaign to capture Iowa in the 1936 election. A united and militant organization is being formed in each of the 2,149 precincts of the state. Activities are being carried on under the title of the "Republican Volunteers of Iowa" with Judge Horace M. Townner of Corning as president, George Lloyd of Dallas Center as secretary, and Senator W. J. Goodwin of Des Moines as treasurer.

The "Republican Volunteers of Iowa" was perfected as an organization through the efforts of National Committeeman Harrison E. Spangler of Cedar Rapids, National Committeewoman Miss Martha McClure of Mt. Pleasant, State Chairman Pressey H. Frank of Waterloo, Vice-Chairman Jane Prichard of Onawa and Treasurer Stanley R. Smith of Osage, in cooperation with the Mid-West Republican Committee, the Iowa Republican Editorial Association, Republican Service League of Iowa, and the Young Republicans of Iowa.

Judge Townner was at one time professor of Constitutional law at the State University of Iowa, later a District Judge, member of Congress for 10 years and Governor of Porto Rico for 7 years. Senator Goodwin has long been prominent in Republican party circles. He has served as Polk County Republican Chairman, as President of the Albert B. Cummins for President Club and as a member of the State Senate from Polk County.

MODERNISTIC CLUB VISITS GIRLS' TRAINING SCHOOL

AT MITCHELLVILLE

At the suggestion of Mrs. Helen Beshears, program chairman, fourteen members of the Modernistic club motored to Mitchellville on Tuesday afternoon to visit the girls' training school. The group was received at the office by Miss Anna Lyman, who conducted a tour of the sewing room, hospital, laundry, art room, dormitories and the colored girls' dormitory, of which Miss Miller is the matron, assisted by Mrs. Hastings. Of the fifteen colored girls there, ten are from Des Moines.

Mrs. Agnes Mathews, club president, extended greetings from the group. The girls entertained with songs, readings and their favorite pastime, the square dance, after which Miss Roberta Maupin gave vocal and instrumental selections and Mrs. Mary Hardaway a reading. Tea, home-made cookies and sandwiches were served.

Remarkable culinary skill and beautiful handwork were exhibited by the inmates. Miss Lyman expressed her appreciation to Mrs. Beshears for bringing the group to the school and announced that visitors are always welcome any day except Sunday or holidays.

Modernistic members are formulating plans for further contacts and assistance as part of the social service project of the club. Those who made the trip were: Misses Maupin and Della Chapman, Mesdames Keynetta Miller, Willa Belle Morrow, Mary Riech, Mary Baker, Meredith Carl, Mary Hardaway, Matthews, Lillian Seales, Onal Fraction, Muriel DeSloef, Ocle Parkey and Beshears.

SUPREME COURT DENIES ANGELO HERNDON A REHEARING
Washington, D. C.—The United States Supreme Court on Monday refused to grant a rehearing in the Angelo Herndon case, automatically dooming the young Negro Communist leader to serve his sentence of from 15 to 20 years on a chain gang in Georgia.

On May 20, of this year, the Supreme Court by a 6 to 3 decision, refused to interfere with the conviction on technical grounds, and on Monday it refused to grant a rehearing, thus ending a dramatic case which, conducted by the International Labor Defense, resulted in the filling of more than a half-million signatures to a petition which will be presented to Governor Talmadge before Herndon is surrendered on October 24.

At the present time Herndon is at liberty under $15,000 bail, but now that the case had been decided against him he will be surrendered to Georgia authorities next week to begin serving his sentence.

BY EVERETT WADSWORTH
Staff Writer

The importance of the Angelo Herndon case cannot be too strongly emphasized, was the parting message issued by Norman E. Thomas, Socialist party leader and presidential 1932 candidate, in an interview Thursday morning at the Kirkwood hotel. The press conference was made possible through the courtesy of the local branch of the organization. Mr. Thomas was heard in an address at East High school Thursday night. Attorney Jas. B. Morris was a member of the forum panel. Mrs. Thomas, who owns a farm near White Plains, N. Y., accompanied him on the western tour.

Continued he: "It is of the utmost importance that Americans by the millions should sign the petition to Governor Talmadge of Georgia for the pardon of Angelo Herndon. Mr. Herndon was convicted under an old and barbarous slave insurrection law in Georgia, and was guilty of absolutely nothing except that he tried to get better relief conditions. There is no twenty years in the hell of a Georgia chain-gang. Lynching is another blot on the honor of America which centuries cannot erase. Federal law must stop it!"

Brilliant Philosophy
A giant, robust individual, Mr. Thomas bubbles over with spontaneous wit and brilliant philosophy and answers his attackers with ease and spicy sarcasm. "The main difference between communism and us is that we don't change our line," he answered. "Am I running or president, again? My forthcoming debate with Heywood Brown in New York City will answer that question."

His summary of opposing parties are: Communism is thought in terms of masses, too dictatorial, fair or foul means to win, but courageous spirit particularly in Scottsboro and Herndon cases. Fascism in local form developing rapidly and its danger to America is great. Republicans offer no constructive program but to "cuss out Roosevelt." No two Republicans offer two alike programs. Their formula is "What Thomas said about Roosevelt in 1932."

Present Administration
Mr. Thomas thinks that the present administration has done fairly well under the circumstances. "Wallace's program, although sincere, is the blindest ever known in agricultural history. It doesn't face the problem, but gives the land owner all the protection," exclaimed the leader. "The AAA program is 'phony', doing the sharecropper and tenant plenty of harm, especially the southern Negro." He related the cruelty and atrocity of the Dixie landlords and expressed elation over the victory of the union of 15,000 members in the recent cotton strike, which netted a dollar a hundred from the lowly twenty cents.

In the Democratic administration, he revealed, the hope of success lies with the solid south. "Nothing beneficial to the Negro or poor farm hand can come from those brutal industrialists and crooked landlord bosses down there," remarked Mr. Thomas. "Of course, they know about these conditions there in Washington, but they are afraid of offending those leaders until 'we see how we stand.'"

Labor Unions
After some discussion, the Socialist head declared: "Huey Long raised Louisiana from a backward state to a progressive leader in civilization. Sure, any demagogue can do good, even Hitler and Mussolini. Huey can be thankful for one thing. He saw Iowa before he died and that's something." Labor unions, he asserted, are too full of intrigue, race preference and hate; his party stands for a "united front."

"The U. S. neutrality act is 'phony', just like the League of Nations," he concluded. "No, Roosevelt is not consciously acting non-committal on the war question until after the election. He doesn't know which way to jump. F. R. thinks too much of his nappy to stay out of war," he added, significantly. Mussolini, whose popularity was waning this spring, had worked Italy up into a war fever pitch and desire to crush little Ethiopia is uppermost in the minds of his people. The Duce wants to be styled as a 'champion and savior' of his people, Mr. Thomas explained, citing history to prove his point.

Olivers Victors In Bridge Match

Amassing a total of 2,900 points, the team of W. Lawrence ("I Told You So") Oliver and wife ("Let's Beat 'Em") Hazel decisively trimmed the Chas. P. ("I'll Show You) Howard and E. Thomas ("You Tell 'Em") Seales aggregation in the challenge contest bridge match of twenty-five rubbers at the Community Center this week.

The "battle of the pasteboards" was a culmination of the challenge issued by Howard-Seales combination to stop the "perpetual bragging" of the Olivers about their bridge prowess. The next step of the defeated crew is undecided.

The Oliver couple overcame a lead of 1,300 points to win the tournament, which was attended by large crowds the past two weeks. The referee was Mathew Johnson, and Mrs. Lillian Edmunds was hostess.

Prof. George F. South Georgia A.M.E.'s Close Annual Conference; Many Pastoral Changes Made

By Rev. C. A. Wingfield

MOULTREE, Ga.—(Special)—At an early hour Sunday the closing day of the 23rd annual session of the South Georgia Conference, which has been in session here since Tuesday, closed with a large crowd of A. M. E.'s and their friends were found wending their way to Grant Chapel A. M. E. church here to worship and listen to the assignments of presiding elders and pastors of the A. M. E. Church in the district.

The conference Sunday school was opened on time by the conference superintendent, the large number of classes making record-breaking financial reports. The lesson "The Story of Jeremiah," was excellently taught and reviewed. President W. A. Fountain, Jr. of Morris Brown college, spoke a few words relative to the work being accomplished at Morris Brown college, disclosing the fact that Morris Brown has the largest enrollment of college students in its history.

The highlight of the eleven o'clock service was the ordination of deacons and elders by the bishop following a special sermon delivered to them full of thought and inspiration, gripping the massive audience.

Seven deacons were ordained, namely Reverends Robert Alexander, Joseph McDonald, George Alfred, John Brown and Eugene Burs and Henry Smith.

The following elders were ordained: Reverends John Bailey, Gaff, Mitchell Weston, John McMiller, Harman, Mosley, Virgil Bryan, Elijah Walker and John Simon Dixon.

Dollar money collected in this conference amounted to $36,333.05 making a total of $14,100 over last year's report. There were 839 conversions with 449 conversions.

Quite a few changes were made with all presiding elders changed. Rev. A. W. White, the presiding pastor was appointed presiding elder of the Bainbridge district.

The following are the appointments for the year:

Two of the bishops of the C. M. E. denomination reside here—Bishops R. A. Carter and J. A. Bray, who preside respectively over the third and eighth episcopal districts. Bishop Bray who succeeded Bishop J. A. Hamlett of Kansas City as secretary of the College of Bishops, reports increased interest and activity in all sections of the church. Information obtained from his Chicago office indicates a large increase in membership and finance in several of the conferences and episcopal districts.

Heretofore, there has been keen rivalry and competition between the second, third and fifth episcopal districts presided over by Bishops C. H. Phillips, R. A. Carter and J. A. Hamlett, respectively. This year, the seventh episcopal district presided over by Bishop H. P. Porter, has been the surprise of the group and has maintained a lead for several months. The second district over which Bishop Phillips presides, has led many years in the percent of the allocation of general funds raised, while the fifth presided over by Bishop Hamlett, has out-distanced all episcopal districts in the grand total raised for General Church Funds, followed by the third district, supervised by Bishop R. A. Carter of this district.

The True Church

By Elder J. B. Curtis, Sr.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—

At this writing War is raging in Ethiopia. Who can forecast the results of this beginning in this much despised Nation? You remember that King Selsie of Ethiopia has boasted that he was the outstanding offspring of Judah the conquering King, nevertheless if you'll read your Bible the 2nd Chronicles 14th Chapter, beginning at the 9th verse, you'll see that Asa, when he became King of Judah, destroyed all idols in the dominion. He was so determined that he put his Mother out of the right to worship idols. You will also see that Zerab, the King of Ethiopia at that time came up with a mighty host of thousands of men against Judah, when Judah was few in number and discouraged from many losses in battle. But Asa was a man of God and he petitioned God for help to defeat the mighty host of Ethiopia. I am using Ethiopia, today as a subject to show the reader that God is no respecter of persons. If you live true to God he will deliver you regardless of race or condition. I personally hope Ethiopia will win, and I also hope every individual will win over his enemies, but you can't do it by yourself. You read further in the next chapter, God sent one of his prophets to Asa, after he had put to flight the great hordes of Ethiopia. The prophet told Asa in plain words that God was with him in that battle and would continue with him as long as he served the Lord. That same message that was delivered to Asa at the conclusion of that famous battle in the Zephath Valley, at Mereshah appeals to us today.

The Need of Real Christian Education In The Changing Social Order Of Today

By REV. R. W. COLEMAN
OF New Orleans, La.
Before The National Baptist Convention

Editor's Note: This address by Rev. Coleman was considered by many to be a masterpiece, therefore, we deem it well to give our readers the benefit of this great address. Accordingly, we are presenting the last installment.

PART III

"Before we can successfully carry out the program of Jesus for the Church and meet these dangerous oppositions, false doctrines, and overcome the semi-scientific and scientific materialism, there must be a change in the ministry. The Church needs today a regenerated, consecrated, faithful and trained pulpit. Too often the church is humiliated by a limp, lung and lifeless gospel. There is a demand for intelligent preaching. The Church is God's key organization and the minister is God's key man; the entire Church must be guarded against false teaching. The Minister is the head and director of the teaching department of the church therefore he must necessarily be a trained person.

"We must have Christian Institutions and Theological Schools, supported by the Churches and other Christian organizations. This having been done, the churches and organizations can demand an educated Christian leadership. An ignorant man in the pulpit is the most dangerous character to lead, teach and guide the people in the community; an embarrassing liability, and is compelled by the forces of circumstances to play the part of a hypocrite. Millions of young lives are daily falling into the cruel clutches of errors and wrecked by the reefs of fatalism, drinking the black waters of spiritual stagnation, listening to the siren voices of false hopes and successfully wooed by cold, intellectual arguments, because of an unprepared ministry.

"The Baptist Churches and Denominational Leaders, must raise the standard for the pulpit and demand that men come to this standard if we are to serve this generation by helping them solve their problems. Not only must we know the scriptures, but we must also know the ethical teachings of Jesus that we may be able to apply them to these problems; therefore, the ministry must study. Paul sent word to Timothy to come to him and bring his cloak, but be sure to bring The Book. To preach the gospel to every creature and teach them to observe all things, means intelligence. To go into all the world, means we must be able to face all men with a gospel message for them, their day and conditions.

"Jesus was a teaching Jesus. He opened His mouth and taught them. He held a Chateau on the Mount of Beautiful. He taught by parable and miracles, precepts and example. He taught and warned all men everywhere against the Pharisees. He taught on the streets, on the Sea Shore, in the largest share of them will find at length that without the Bible knowledge he has not lasting profession. Death will make an end of all his attainments and after death they will do him no good at all.

I came across this poem a few days ago, "My Bible and I" John 8:21, 32.

We've traveled together, My Bible and I,
Thro' all kinds of weather with smile or sigh
In sorrow or sunshine, in tempest or calm
Thy friendship unchanging, my lamp and my psalm

We've traveled together, My Bible and I
When life had grown weary and death 'em was nigh
But all through the darkness of mist or of wrong
I found there a solace, a prayer, or a song.

So now who shall part us, My Bible and I
Shall "isms or sehisms, or "new lights" who try?
Shall shadow for substance, or stone for good bread
Supplant thy sound wisdom, give folly instead.

Ah no! my dear Bible, exponent of light
Thou sword of the spirit, put error to flight;
And still thro' Life's journey, un-til my last sigh,
We'll travel together My Bible and I.

Some Pertinent Facts About The Church

Baptist Historian

THE BYPU BOARD was organized in 1839 at Nashville, Tenn. This Board promotes the Religious and Denominational training of the young people in our churches, and assists in the development of Christian leadership. This is largely done, by the distribution of its own literature which is up to standard as the organization, education methods, etc. Prof. E. W. D. Isaac, was headquarter at Nashville, Tenn. is secretary.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY CONVENTION was organized in 1900 at Richmond, Va. as an auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention. As the name implies

G. B. Haman, B. M. Parker, A. L. Brewster, D. W. Stephens, W. Stephens, L. A. Townsley and others.

The annual sermon by Rev. R. T. Matthews of Valdosta was well delivered. The "Missionary sermon" was preached by the Rev. W. L. Griffin in an instructive manner. President W. A. Fountain, Dean Chas. L. Hill and others on the Educational program, Educational night, presented the cause of the Broyan college and Christian Education to the satisfaction of the capacity audience, while Saturday night was known as Morris Brown Alumni and Undergraduate Night. An excellent program was rendered.

Reverends: I. G. Glass, G. H. Dunn, H. E. Davis, E. Lowry, A. R. Easter and D. W. Moman the staff of presiding elders heading this conference rendered much assistance to the Bishop in handling the affairs of the conference. Rev. J. E. Reese is to be congratulated for the splendid institutes conducted daily.

The conference was very enthusiastic over the manner Bishop Fountain conducted the conference and passed unanimous resolutions, instructing its newly elected delegates to work for the return of the bishop to serve another quinquennial. The delegates are Reverends: I. G. Glass, H. E. Dunn, G. H. Dunn, A. W. White, H. W. White, W. W. Grant, S. A. Laing and J. E. Reese.

The next conference convenes in Renna Vista next Wednesday. Bishop Fountain has grown into the hearts of the ministers of Georgia until he is almost idolized, due to the great program he is sponsoring in Georgia.

An Hour With The Bible

By MRS. H. KATE WHITE

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily whether those things were so. Acts II:11.

For the past week Bible lovers throughout the world have been celebrating the 40th anniversary of the English Bible I Friday, Nov. 3, 1535 Miles Goodale gave to us the entire Bible translated from Hebrew into English. The thirty-nine books were written in Hebrew language. There were fourteen other books and some of these were written in Chaldee. But the Jews did not accept these books. The books of the new Testament were originally written in Greek. And for centuries only the Jews and the learned could read the Bible. But today the king, the peasant, the blind, the heathens are without excuse. Rom. 10:13, 21: How is this for a celebration? Wanted—at once 147,000 persons that will pledge to read the Bible daily. Pleasant work and good pay to the right persons. Apply H. Tim. 2:13, 16. Those that read and live the teachings of the Bible will agree with me that it is different from any other book.

First let us consider its advantages. It is an armor of heavenly weapons, a laboratory of infallible medicine, a mine of everlasting wealth, it is the guide book for every road, a chart for every sea, a medicine for every malady, a bath for every wound. Rob us of our Bible, and our sky has lost its sun, and the best of other books we have naught but the glimmer of twinkling stars. It is the wealth of the poor, blessing poverty with the contentment which makes it rich. Second: The life-giving effect. Chemistry never silenced a guilty conscience. Mathematics never healed a broken heart. All the science in the world never smoothed down a dying pillow. No earthly philosophy ever supplied hope in death. No natural thelogy ever gave peace in prospect of meeting a holy God. All these things are of the earth, earthly, and can never raise a man above the earth's level. They may enable a man to strut and fret his little sense here below with a more dignified gait than his fellow mortals, but they can never give him wings and enable him to soar toward heaven. He that has the

HAILE MAY SEEK LIFE OF GUGSA

Addis Ababa (SNS)—Altho he still asserts that he knows nothing of the desertion to Italy of Degale Haile Selassie Gugsa, Emperor Haile Selassie will meet out a traitor's death to his son-in-law in the event the rumors are found to be true.

Emperor Haile Selassie, recognized as a master diplomat, gave his favorite daughter in marriage to Gugsa, the powerful Tigrean chief, in an effort to win his support. The Gugsa's family has always coveted the Ethiopian throne and his loyalty was instantly doubted when the war broke out.

There is still much suspicion centered around his activity in spite of the fact that when his wife died the Tigrean leader pledged undying loyalty in an impressive ceremony at Addis Ababa.

Bishop Grace Holds Parade In Carolina

COLUMBIA, S. C. —(ANP)—"Bishop" Grace swept through Columbia Sunday afternoon, staging one of the largest parades which Columbia has seen. Starting at his headquarters here, "The House of Prayer," the "bishop" who leaders of other denominations denounce for using the title, led a parade two miles in length. The paraders were headed by a motorcycle escort and had several bands in line. Thousands of people, white and colored gathered along the line of march to watch the procession.

One of the attractive units was a female drum corps "The Grace Drum and Bugle Corps of Charlotte." Delegations had come from various parts of South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia and many of them had brought decorative floats which added to the gayety and color of the parade. Prior to the procession a baptising had been held in Gill's Creek near here.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome
Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.
But now science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.
This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. It kills fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.
Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

LEADER OF CROPPERS UNION DIES ON ALABAMA PRISON FARM

New York—A death which, officials of the International Labor Defense charge, has all the earmarks of the deliberate murder of a Negro sharecropper imprisoned for union activity, has come to light here with the receipt, by the I. L. D., of a letter announcing the death of Alf White at Atmore Prison Farm, Alabama. White was one of the five Negroes sentenced to long prison terms for defending themselves at Reeltown in lack by deputies. The four other December, 1932, against an armed at-croppers are still in jail.

That White came to his death by "accidentally falling into a well" is the strange contention made by C. S. Kelly, warden of the prison farm. R. W. Brooks, notary public an ex-officio justice of the peace, signed a document addressed to Mr. Kelly, stating that in his opinion it was not necessary to summon a coroner's jury to render a verdict in the case. The warden ordered immediate burial, without permitting relatives to see the body, stating that "its condition was such that demanded interment at once."

LOUIS REEUSES TO PLAY CRAPS

Detroit, Oct. 11.—Proof that Joe Louis has no fair for the commonplace and is averse to cheap notoriety was strikingly exemplified last Wednesday afternoon when he gave an emphatic "no" to the invitation of Al Schacht, baseball clown, and George Raft, movie star, to participate with them in a fake crap game in a stunt around the pitcher's mound before the initial game of the world's series at Navin field here.

Henry Ford, automobile magnate, who sponsored the broadcast of the series, was seated in a box near Mr. and Mrs. Louis. Though the manufacturer is worth millions and draws a crowd everywhere he goes, no one thought of proposing that he indulge in such a public exhibition. By his refusal to engage in the game, Louis definitely established a fact heretofore mooted that the Brown Bomber is able to do his own thinking. Neither Blackburn nor Roxborough was near at the time to advise Joe.

Besides being a great fighter, Joe by this little incident, proves he is a man of culture and refinement.

HERNDON CASE BRIEF FILED BY N. A. A. C. P.

New York, Oct. 11.—A brief as amici curiae (friends of the court interested in the cause) in the Angelo Herndon case has been filed by the N. A. A. C. P. and others in the United States supreme court. The brief is in support of a motion for a rehearing by the highest court which has been made by Herndon's attorneys of record. Last May the supreme court declined to review the Herndon appeal, holding that his lawyers had not raised the federal question properly. His lawyers have appealed from this technical ruling and asked the court to reconsider the case. The motion for rehearing is expected to be heard within the next six weeks. Herndon meanwhile, was granted a stay from beginning service of his sentence of eighteen to twenty years on a hein gain until the supreme court acts upon the new petition. He was convicted in Atlanta, Ga., of "insurrection" because he led a demonstration for better relief.

NEGRO SEATED ON GRAND JURY IN MISSISSIPPI

Clarksdale, Miss.—For the first time in the memory of its oldest citizens a Negro was seated on a Mississippi county grand jury here Saturday. He was H. C. Armstrong, elderly school teacher, and one of twenty residents of Coahoma county selected to consider for the second time the case of two St. Louis Negroes, Roosevelt Moon and Pedro Pearson, charged with the robbery and slaying of James C. Parker, a merchant.

BALTIMORE COUNTY CITIZENS ASK FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

Baltimore, Oct. 11.—In a second assault upon unequal school facilities in Maryland, colored citizens of Baltimore county are carrying forward a campaign to secure high school facilities for the hundreds of colored children in the county who are now forced to go to the city of Baltimore for high school work. Baltimore county has five white high schools, but not a single Negro high school. In the fight for high schools a much larger section of the population is directly affected. Negroes have for years petitioned the authorities of Baltimore county for a Negro high school, but their petitions have been ignored as impractical. Instead the county pays the tuition for a selected few Negro students in the Baltimore city high school. However, there is never enough tuition money to provide for all the Negro children graduating from the county graded schools. In fact the usual practice in the county of Negroes only a certain number of Negroes to pass the examination to go to Baltimore to school.

As a preliminary move to force upon the whole question of high school inequality, two colored children made application to one of the white high schools in the county and were denied admission by the principal. Thurgood Marshall, an attorney acting for the N. A. A. C. P. in Maryland, has announced that unless high school facilities are afforded Negroes in Baltimore county he will file a suit to compel the Maryland county board of education to receive colored pupils into the white high school.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 11.—(Special)—Major N. Clark Smith, band director, composer and one of America's most colorful characters, lost in his fight against death here on Tuesday morning, when he passed away at the home of his wife, Mrs. Laura Smith, of 2313 Tracy avenue. He had been ill several months. Major Smith's reputation as a musician and composer was nationwide. He was an accomplished musician himself and had won many honors as a composer and song writer. His composition of the West Indian stevedores won the Wanmaker prize award in 1930.

Major Smith was perhaps best known for his work at Tuskegee Institute, where he was band director for many years.

Ethiopian Women Spur Their Men on to Deeds of Glory

Beauty Hints

By HELEN JAMESON (Mme. Qui Vive)
(Copyright, 1935, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
Carting 'round more pounds than are needed for a pleasing silhouette is laborious business. The woman who has a will of her own and wills to use it won't do it. Because some hare-brained women have followed fad-diet rules and ruined their health is no reason why sensible women should not keep themselves in form. Excess fat is not only a disfigurement, but also shows up the functioning powers of the inner organs. It's not just on the surface, it is packed in everywhere.

How to Acquire The Slim Figure

CARTING 'ROUND MORE POUNDS THAN ARE NEEDED FOR A PLEASING SILHOUETTE IS LABORIOUS BUSINESS.

The slender woman with strong muscles has more resistance to disease than the plump lady. Her circulation is more normal, her lungs are better because she exercises and breathing is deeper. She has more ambition, doesn't tire easily. It is an advantage to be of normal weight, have pleasing outlines. Many a heavyweight is a light eater, but practically everything she takes is a fat builder. She must of course have a balanced diet, but by cutting down on fats, sweets and starches she will gradually absorb the excess fat on her body, and will feel all the better for it. She should not lose more than two pounds a week. It is best for her to make haste slowly.

Columbia Hospital Proud of Initial Colored Group

THEY'RE 'NURSE'

COLUMBIA, S. C.—(ANP)—The first class of colored nurses to be capped at Columbia Hospital was carried in the current history of Southern Hospital, the official publication for hospitals of this region. In an article which described this innovation of using colored nurses, the publication points out editorially that the experiment has been a success. The new fire-proof Negro unit of Columbia Hospital has 90 beds. The first patient was admitted to it January 1934, while the first class of Negro nurses entered last April. The "capping" signified that they had completed their probationary work and an impressive candle light service accompanied with the taking of the Florence Nightingale oath was held. It was pointed out that the nurses have the same instructions and meet the same scholarship requirements as do the white nurses. The nurses were the Misses Sumter, Cooke, Spiry, Haligier and Kyzzer.

Amusingly the publication avoided using the prefix "Miss" before the colored nurse's name. It explained this breach by saying, "Negro nurses generally stick to the Florence Nightingale tradition that 'Nurse' is a more appropriate name prefix than 'Miss.'" In Great Britain they also say Nurse Jones or Nurse Smith, rather than Miss Jones or Miss Smith. American white nurses have gotten away from this tradition in recent years. Ordinarily there is nothing traditional about Southern Hospital, but it sticks to tradition this time. Anyway they had an attractive picture of the girls if they would not grant them the chivalry of calling them "Miss."

Miss Mildred Board Is Chosen 'Miss Bethune Cookman'

DAYTONA BEACH—Miss Mildred Board, of Apopka, was elected "Miss Bethune-Cookman" last week by a narrow plurality over four other candidates in a spirited election by the student body under the direction of the Student Council. Miss Board is a sophomore in the department of teacher-training. She has one of the longest attendance records to be found in the student body, having taken her attendance in the elementary school department. She is a charter member of the Zeniths, a semi-secret social club for women; she is also a veteran on the college "Boys' Squad." She serves as student assistant to the librarian. Her popularity with the student body is attested by last week's election.

Other candidates in the race, restricted by the rules of the game to the sophomore class, were Emma Louise Williams, of Orlando; Helen Theodora Barley, of Jacksonville; Emma Catherine Robinson of Port Orange; and Leona Gertrude Styles of Jacksonville. Miss Williams was a close runner-up to the winner.

CHATTING with Arden H. Duane

"I want to create more professional Negro beauticians... I want to uplift this profession... I want to help develop beauticians we all really have." Thus spoke Madame Carlotta E. Lamay, New York's own. Her dark and clear eyes sparkling and a quick friendly smile flashed across her earnest face. I waited a few minutes while she talked softly and pleasantly to a very busy group of operators. I looked around her office. Beautifully curled and marcelled heads everywhere. At once I thought—Here is a woman who can work magic with any head of hair. "Sorry to have kept you waiting," she said with a warm smile as she drew her chair nearer to mine. "I have always loved this work," she continued, "and I love it more and more every day. My aim now is to improve my profession. I want to help other professionals if I can."

"This magazine is another idea of mine," she said. "I fondly have dreamed, planned and thought about 'The National Beautician'—She swayed toward me with confidence and eagerness in her eyes. "I want to see the already professional beauticians continue studying and improving. I want them to see how necessary it is to keep abreast of times. I want other beauticians all over to continue development. And so there will be articles for the professional beautician in this magazine at home in this new magazine. I think that this is the psychological hour to get this magazine and hope others will agree with me."

Woman Undertaker Injured In Crash During Funeral

CHICAGO, (ANP)—Mrs. Anna J. Thompson, well known Chicago undertaker is in the Washington Boulevard hospital in a serious condition as a result of a crash which occurred at Warren Avenue and Oakley Boulevard on the West side as she was leading the funeral cortege of Mrs. Annette Kelly, of Metropolitan Baptist Church, Mrs. Thompson was driving her private car at the head of the procession when an automobile driven by a white man struck her vehicle while going at high speed. The driver's name was not obtained. The funeral arrangements were completed despite the accident.

Boston Has But One Colored Teacher In High School

BOSTON, Mass., (ANP)—The Parent Teachers' Association of Boston is engaged in a campaign to remove from use in the public schools a large number of text books which contain matter considered reflective upon the Negro race. It is also interestingly in obtaining additional Negro teachers in the Boston public schools. There is one colored high school teacher in Boston. She is Miss Edith Brown.

BAY STATE CLUB WOMEN HOLD MEETING

JOE LOUIS BUYS BUILDING FOR MRS. LOUIS

CHICAGO, (ANP)—Joe Louis Barrow, "next world's heavyweight champion," this week presented his bride, the former Miss Marva Trotter of Chicago, a six apartment building, according to records in the office of County Recorder Edward J. Kalaid. The purchase was made from Nathan K. McGill, former general manager of The Chicago Defender. The building is located at 4320-22 Michigan Avenue. The reported price was $12,500, according to revenue stamps attached to the deed filed for record. Louis bought the property four days after he whipped Max Baer in New York, September 24.

WOMEN ARE HELPFUL TO MEN

'Queen of Queens' Is Real Leader of Her Ethiopian Women

MANY AT FRONT

ADDIS ABABA (ANP)—If the women of the warring nations, Ethiopia and Italy, can be taken as a basis of judgment, then Haile Selassie's countrywomen will more than offset much of the advantage Mussolini has in the way of ammunition and equipment. The contrast begins properly with Signora Mussolini and Empress Walatru of Ethiopia, wife of Selassie. The wife of Il Duce is never thought of when the Emperor of Italy is mentioned. She has pursued her husband's theory that woman's place is in the home and there she has remained. During the first seven years of Il Duce's power he kept his spouse and children at their modest villa in Fiume. Neither she nor any other Italian woman enjoys any kind of place in the political life of Italy.

On the other hand, Empress Walatru has been constantly photographed, has issued innumerable statements on the conflict, and is one of our husband's most trusted advisers. A descendant of Cleopatra and the Queen of Sheba, she sometimes in her own person not only the queen but also the force and brilliance of her famous ancestors. The "Queen of Queens" has backed her husband staunchly in his decision to defy Mussolini. Recently she addressed an appeal to the women of the world to pray for peace. She has been married to the Negus 23 years during which time they are said never to have had a quarrel. He is her fourth husband and she his only wife. They have six children incidentally.

The Empress has often stated her desire to march with her husband into battle. Princesses of the royal family have aided in every way possible the Ethiopian fighting men. All this indicates that if it is true that "the female of the species is more deadly than the male" then the Italians have attempted more than they realize, for the soldier of this kingdom is himself one of the world's fiercest fighting men.

In some of the tribes women fight along with their men and deem it a disgrace not to march in battle against the foe. Still others follow their husbands from camp to camp, cooking for them and providing the necessities of life. Walatru, Abelaith, Charkose, one of the wealthiest women in this land and a titled lady, has been granted permission from Selassie to personally lead her army of 10,000 well-equipped troops into battle. This is typical of Ethiopian sentiment at the other extreme of the human scale, at-home attitude of Italian mothers, wives, daughters and sweethearts.

Camp Director Accepts Post At Fancee

DAYTONA BEACH—Mrs. Marie T. Scott left early this week for her new field of labor, having resigned her position as director of the Recreation Camp for Girls to accept an appointment to the faculty of Florida A. and M. college. She has been succeeded as camp director by Miss Josie W. Roberts, of Daytona Beach. Mrs. Scott is an experienced director, having served in that capacity for a number of years in the summer camps for children in Ohio. The Girls' Camp at Daytona Beach was officially inspected last Thursday by Messrs. Roberts and Seruges of Jacksonville, state auditors for the WPA, and by Mrs. Heberta Leonard, acting director of adult education under the WPA for the state of Florida. All commended in terms of highest praise the set-up established by Mrs. Scott and her

Can you make pastry that literally flies away in the wind for sheer lightness and delicacy? 'Fly-away' is the name the French give to one of their glorified pastry-shells. It means "fly away in the wind" and really describes all the showcase pastries of the French, particularly the patty cases, "rissoles" and "bouchees."

In speaking of pastry, never let it be said that a French woman can do anything less than an American woman can't. Yet they make this deliciously light, airy pastry easily and deftly, and it's a grace worth our cultivating. The pastry shell is like the velvet background in the jeweler's display it sets off and enhances the entire or dessert in which it figures. It may be filled, of course, with either a hot creamed mixture such as chicken a la king, or with fresh fruits and whipped cream.

Delicate little 'pastry' cases for your hot creamed mixture will give the simplest, impromptu supper the air of a carefully-worked-out bridge luncheon. And the beauty of the puff paste which is the foundation of these airy pastries is that it may be stored in your refrigerator well ahead of time, and is actually lighter and flakier after 12 to twenty-four hours' chilling in the refrigerator than when it was freshly made. Patty shells may be formed by taking an inverted muffin tin. They are usually made ahead of time, and thoroughly reheated in a moderate oven before filling.

Puff paste is richer than pie dough, the usual proportions being a pound of flour to a pound of shortening. The method of putting ingredients together is similar, except in the way the shortening is introduced to puff paste. Only two tablespoons of the washed butter or shortening called for is blended into the flour by cutting with knives or working with the finger tips. The rest is placed in the refrigerator. Flour mixture is being divided and rolled out into thin sheets. The remaining shortening is taken from the refrigerator and rolled out in a similar sheet. It is placed between the two sheets of dough and rolled with a chilled rolling pin, allowing the fat to break through. When this paste has been rolled once or twice more, it is put in the refrigerator for about 15 minutes then removed and rolled out again, then returned to the refrigerator, until the rolling and chilling process has been repeated about four times. The paste is then ready to be made into shells or a vol-au-vent, or steered in the refrigerator for later use.

Chilling, of course, plays such an important part in pastry-making, not only puff-paste, but flaky pie-crust, that housewives purchasing an electric refrigerator more and more often consider the space needed for 'refrigerator baking' as well as food storage space required; and the leading-refrigerator manufacturer provides a china pastry set in super deluxe refrigerator models, including a deep covered bowl and a hollow rolling pin which may be filled with ice water.

Pie Pastry
1-2 cups flour 1-2 cup shortening
1-4 cup of cold water 1-2 teaspoon salt

Sift flour, measure, and sift with salt. Cut in shortening with two spatulas until mixture is coarse and granular. Work water in lightly with a spatula until little balls of dough just hang together in one large ball. Turn 1-2 the pastry into lightly floured board. Roll in sheet 1-8 inch thick. Shape pastry to fit pie pan. Roll remainder for top crust.

Hot Water Pie Crust
1-2 cups flour 1-4 cup boiling water
1-2 cup shortening 1-2 teaspoon baking powder

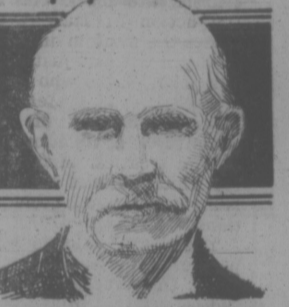

1-2 cup shortening 1-2 teaspoon baking powder
Pour boiling water over shortening and beat until creamy. Sift in the flour, salt and baking powder. Stir and roll out. This will make two crusts. Be sure to prick all over the bottom of the crust with a fork. This prevents blistering or bulging.

Puff Paste
2 cups sifted flour 1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lard ice water
7-8 cup butter

Chill all ingredients and utensils thoroughly in refrigerator. Cut the lard into the flour, then add just enough ice water to hold the dough together. Place the dough on a slightly floured board and roll out. Do with small pieces of butter, fold the two sides to the center, then fold at the center, so that there are four layers, then roll out. Dot with butter again and fold, and continue in this way until all the butter has been used. Chill in refrigerator for 24 hours.

A GOOD MOVEMENT

Recently a call has been sent out for the formation of council of Negro organization to discuss ways and means of fostering the interest of the race.

BRISBANE WORRIED AS USUAL

Arthur Brisbane, noted columnist, writes an extended column explaining that the Ethiopians did not want the assistance of the American Negro because they themselves are Negroes.

There are millions of white people who feel the same way about the situation. Their attitude is not that of sympathy for Ethiopia because she is black but because of the wrong which is being done her.

THE A.F.L. AND THE NEGRO

Plans are being laid to bring before the American Federation of Labor now meeting in Atlantic City the question of Jim-Crow policy fostered by local organizations against the Negro.

The exclusion of Negroes from most of the unions represented in that organization is a big blot on the record of the A.F.L. and the fact that the federal government is making it the medium through which to deal with employers makes things doubly worse.

URGES NEGROES TO HIDE FEELINGS AGAINST ITALY

Washington, D. C.—While expressing his hostility to what he termed Italian "exploitation" in Africa, Representative Arthur W. Mitchell of Chicago, only Negro member of congress, urged members of the race not to demonstrate against Italians in this country because of the Italian situation.

Something more concrete must be done or the economic status of the victims of this pernicious rule will sink lower and lower each year.

DIABETES MELLITUS

This is a condition in which the body is unable to utilize or burn sugar above a certain amount, thereby causing an excess amount of sugar in the blood.

In the case of man this fuel is derived from the essential elements; i. e. carbohydrate, protein, and fat. Carbohydrates are taken into the body in the form of starchy foods, and sugar.

Normally the carbohydrates taken into the body are eventually absorbed into the blood, in a form called glucose which is carried to the liver and converted and stored for future body use in the form of glycogen.

The percentage of sugar normally in the blood varies from 0.08 to 0.15 per cent. This sugar level is maintained by a substance called insulin which is secreted by an organ of the body called the pancreas.

Insulin burns or destroys all excess sugar the body does not need. Any condition that causes impairment of the pancreas causes a rise in the blood sugar level causing a condition to exist we interpret as diabetes.

SCOTTSDALE ORDERS JURY BOXES REFILLED Birmingham, Ala.—The first formal move on the part of the Alabama officials to rush the nine Scottsboro boys, through a new trial has been made with an order by Judge A. E. Hawkins of Jackson county (Scottsboro) to the jury commission to meet and refill the county jury boxes.

THE REILLING OF THE JURY BOXES will be followed at once by selection of a new grand jury and a request from Lieutenant Governor Thomas E. Knight, special prosecutor of the Scottsboro boys, for a special grand jury session, according to statements made by Knight in Montgomery.

KNIGHT will ask the grand jury to indict all nine boys on new warrants sworn out by Victoria Price, claiming that the boys had raped her on a freight train in March, 1931.

RE-FILLING OF THE JURY BOXES was made necessary by decision of the U. S. Supreme Court reversing the death sentences against Haywood Patterson and Clarence Norris, the two oldest boys. The Supreme Court held that the indictments were illegal because Negroes had been systematically excluded from jury service in Jackson County.

the Italians in this country with any responsibility for it," he told newspaper men here Saturday. "I think demonstrations such as we have had in New York and Chicago are wholly unwarranted and are calculated to do my people harm."

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, Oct. 11—(Special)—Tuesday, Oct. 8—Exhausted by heat and overpowered by the Danakillas' vastly superior skill at wielding their swords, the Italians retreated as the sun rose behind the hills of Adowa to peep over 6,000 dead and 1,700 dying Fascist soldiers.

Meeting with unexpected resistance, the Italians hastily reversed their position and under a heavy barrage of artillery fire, preceded by 24 Caproni planes dropping 800 bombs, they marched into Adowa only to find that the Ethiopians had evacuated long before the advance.

It was never intended by the Ethiopian high military command to defend Adowa, for from the point of view of strategy, Adowa is unimportant.

It was planned, however, to harass the invaders as they passed through the mountain gorges and trackless paths leading to the spot of the former Italian defeat.

M. E. M.—Would it be wise for me to invest my money as I have had in mind for some time, or what do you think is best for me?

Ans.—Yes, it seems to me that you would be doing the wise thing if you were in business for yourself with the earnings that you have saved for several years. However, you should continue on working for the company until next summer before making this change.

E. H.—What is in store for me this year and next? Will I go to school?

Ans.—Financial conditions will not change for your parents this winter and unless you get a job after school, you won't be able to stay in school throughout the year. It is my belief that your father will get regular work around May of next year.

J. E. G.—Will my girl friend return to me and be the same?

Ans.—No, she has no intentions of coming back to you. What she wants out of life is a home, marriage and a family, and if you do not see things in the same light that she does, you may as well call it through. She is a mighty nice little girl to lose.

E. C. R.—Would you suggest that I return to my drinking husband?

Ans.—Yes, I think that you would be making a mistake not to return to him, for when he is sober he is as fine as any man in the world. Make it a point to leave your home when he goes on these sprees and he will make them further apart. If you

IOWA-COLGATE REMINDERS

The fur is sure to fly at Iowa City November 9, when Iowa with three of our boys meets Minnesota and Dwight Reed.

Simmons came into the limelight to merit all the nice things everyone has been saying about him. Observers tell us that the boy is a lot smarter about protecting him than he was last year. We hope so, for while Colgate played plenty hard they will seem as a mild breeze compared to the storm of abuse Simmons will find himself in against Minnesota and Indiana.

Don Simmons replaced Harris at end while Saturday and if things happened just right Iowa might have a pair of dusky wingmen in the game at the same time. The presence of Harris in the lineup with Simmons makes it better for both boys as they can look after each other.

THE YOUNG BOYS continued to show their wares on high school grids. At North Chet Simms was shifted from guard to fullback and proceeded to become a standout. Ozzie Lewis also did pretty well for dear old North, but they lost the ball game, 6 to 0.

Al Thomas of East encountered difficulties in East's tilt with Lincoln after scoring one touchdown and left the game injured. Lee Township won 19 to 13. Booker King was tough for Valley Junction and they say a boy named Floyd Swink is also tough over there. We are still compiling that list of Iowa high school boys for our own all state club.
