Tribal Drums Roll Dirge for Haile Selassie's Predecessor

GOLDEN CAGE HIS PRISON SINCE 1936 REBELLION
Harrar, Ethiopia, Nov. 29—Tribal drums roll in Ethiopia's hills tonight. They toll out the song of death for Yassou, grandson of Menelik and deposed emperor of this ancient empire of freedom, is dead.

In a golden cage, secreted in the forbidding hills of the Mendebo and Gobi regions, attended night and day by royal assignees of Emperor Haile Selassie, Yassou passed away, according to word brought here by runner and drum dispatch.

His life was a bitter one and marks a turbulent page in Ethiopia's latter day history. When the illustrious King Menelik, who had ruled with an iron hand from 1889 to 1913, died, he appointed his grandson as his successor.

Vain and vacillating, Yassou listened to false gods and accepted the faith of the Mohammedans, which is against the religious concept of this nation of Ooptic Christians. Ases (princes) of the various provinces making up the imperial court were infuriated with this step by the new emperor. They finally got together and deposed Yassou in 1916.

In his place they elected Ras Tafari (Haile Selassie) as regent and heir to the throne. Haile Selassie then shared the throne with Queen Zauditi, daughter of Menelik, until she died in 1930. In the meantime the followers of Yassou took up arms in defense and a four year civil war followed.

ETHIOPIANS CLAIM TWO MAJOR WINS
Addis Ababa, Nov. 29—An official announcement confirmed the report that the Italian armies suffered a crushing defeat in two engagements on the northern sector.

Leading a battalion of as Seyoum's warriors, Dejazmatch Wores scattered the enemy forces in disorder, killing their commander and a number of soldiers. This engagement took place near Makale, where the Italians had entrenched themselves for several weeks.

The strongly fortified town of Gorahai, situated on the southern front, and considered one of the strategic points in the present maneuvers, has been recaptured after eight hours of severe fighting by the Ethiopians, in which the Italians sustained heavy losses and were in full retreat.

Negro Fighter is Clown in Match

SHARKEY AND WINSTON IN BAD AFTER RING FIASCO
Boston, Mass., Nov. 29—Jack Sharkey, ex-world's heavyweight champion, made a stormy comeback here last week at Boston Garden before 15,000 fans and against Edward (Unknown) Winston, of Hartford, Conn.

Sharkey, knocked out his opponent no less than two times in one of the most unique matches ever recorded. The first knockout came after one minute and a half of the first round and resulted in a threatening attitude of a large crowd which expected a bag contest from the start. Referee Massachusetts State Boxing Commission Johnny Martin and officials of the Massachusetts State Boxing Commission, led by Commissioner Dan Kelley, ordered the fight refought after receiving agreements from both Winston and Sharkey.

The Negro fighter lasted until two minutes of the second round and went down again from a right uppercut. Fistic circles are divided over the merits of the fight and Winston has lost countless friends for his poor exhibition.

ALABAMA PROSECUTOR RUSHES SCOTTSBORO TRIAL
Decatur, Ala.—(CNA)—Adequate time for preparation of the defense of the Scottsboro boys suffered another severe setback this week when it was learned that Lieut. Gov. Thomas E. Knight, Jr., special prosecutor in the case, intended to rush the dates of the arraignment and trial of the boys.

Following the reinstitution of the boys on November 13, Knight had announced that they would be arraigned in Decatur, Ala., on December 16 and would be held for trial on January 6. This had allowed but one brief month for legal preparations, a wholly inadequate period of time. Knight's latest intention, if carried out, will further hamper defense preparations.

Earlier in the week Knight made a sinister announcement to the effect that the two youngest of the Scottsboro boys, Eugene Williams and Roy Wright, will be taken out of the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and put on trial together with the older boys.

"They have now come of age and may be tried in the circuit court," he declared. Eugene and Roy, 13 and 14 years of age respectively at the time of their arrest, had reached their legal age during their five years of imprisonment.

The two boys were remanded to the juvenile court after a mistrial in the case of Roy Wright during the original Scottsboro trials, and reversal of the death sentence against Eugene Williams by the Alabama supreme court on an appeal by the International Labor Defense.

N. A. A. C. P. DIRECTORS HIT BERLIN OLYMPIC GAMES

New York, Nov. 29—A resolution opposing participation of American athletes in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin was adopted at the November meeting of the board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. The Crisis, official organ of the association, came out editorially several months ago urging that American athletes be kept at home because the games are being held in a country whose government is founded officially upon suppression of religious, political and social liberty, and upon terror and brutality.

Jack Smith, Actor, in Recital Here Dec. 17

DRAMATIC STAR TO PORTRAY WELL KNOWN ROLES
By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer
Jack Smith, Negro actor, will be heard in a dramatic recital at the Jewish Community Center on Tuesday evening, December 17th. The affair will be sponsored by the Tuxedo club. He will portray several roles for which he is well known. Graduating from West High, Smith has become a star of the radio, stage and concert throughout the country. His stage career began in 1924, when he appeared in "The Hand of Jehovah," religious pageant, at the state fair grounds. Chalmers Brooks Fithian, director, offered him a contract to Hollywood, which Smith was forced to reject because of his youth. He played supporting lead with Ralph Bellamy in "White Cargo" and "Rain" at the old Princess in 1927. "Congo" was in the making when Bellamy went to Hollywood.

In 1928 Smith was chosen to represent the Negro race in the Carnival of Nations, held in Cleveland that year. At that time he was a student of Elizabeth Werblosky, dancing teacher here. He remained there eighteen months, attending Western Reserve college and appearing with the Gilpin players at the Gilpin theatre and Cleveland playhouse under Frederic McConnell.

Smith later went to Chicago, where he played in the Goodman theatre, Jewish playhouse, and University of Chicago Little Theatre group. "The Last Mile," "Emperor Jones," "Criminal Code," "Golem," "We, the People," "No Count Boy," and the "Dreamy Kid" were some of the important plays in which he was featured.

World's Fair During the World's Fair in 1933 he was Negro male lead dancer in Ruth Page's "La Gablesse," West Indian ballet, which played for seven weeks there and was repeated for eight more weeks at downtown theatres with other leading productions and artists of the nation. Smith's radio work included eight weeks over the NBC, WBBM's Negro radio show, with Mundy's choir, and the title role in the "Uncle Remus" stories over WGN.

Attending Drake university, he took the title role of "Emperor Jones" under Professor James L. Fiderick in 1931, and was also heard over radio stations WHO and KSO in "Dusky Twilight" and "Singing the Blues." Smith was seen in several plays at the Sylvan theatre and the Kendall Community House under Gregory Foley for the past seasons.

Answers to Attack of Walter White of NAACP

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29—"President Borah vetoed anti-lynch bill" in foot high type across the top of the leading papers of the nation was envisioned by Idaho's veteran senator, William E. Borah, as he answered this week a letter written him seeking his reaction to an anti-lynching legislation as a candidate for the presidency of the United States.

12,000,000 Citizens
The letter written by Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, on behalf of 12,000,000 Negro citizens, evidently struck the grizzled opponent of two attempted assaults on the American institution of lynching in a vulnerable spot.

In his reply he stated that "should the unexpected and great honor come to me of being president of the United States and such a bill should reach me, under my oath and in the light of my convictions, I would unhesitatingly veto it." Mr. Borah admitted himself attacked in a vulnerable spot by the issue raised in the N. A. A. C. P.'s letter by branding Mr. White's query as "corrupt and shameless."

Candidate
Although Senator Borah has made no announcement of his candidacy, his willingness to assume the position to answer Mr. White's letter has been interpreted as signifying that he is open to proposals which would result in his challenging President Roosevelt for the position.

Mr. Borah was questioned by the N. A. A. C. P. "because of the numerous current newspaper reports of the possibility of your becoming a Republican candidate for president in 1936, and because you have not yet denied that the offer of the nomination will be acceptable to you."

Stevadore Trouble Is Now Explained

COLOR LINE REASON FOR DOCK STRIFE
New York, N. Y., Nov. 29—Discrimination against Negro longshoremen by the International Longshoremen's association has been given as the reason for the organization of two strong, independent longshoremen's unions in New Orleans, according to Robert C. Francis, writing in the December issue of The Crisis. One of the independent unions is colored and the other white. Mr. Francis asserts that they handle ninety per cent of the longshore work in New Orleans, and that the International Longshoremen's association, affiliated with the A. F. of L., has called a strike of its few workers on the docks solely as an effort to break up the independent unions.

The writer asserts that the Negro longshoremen in New Orleans have had a disappointing experience in the past with the I. L. A., and prefer to organize independently. At the time when the I. L. A. was strongest in New Orleans, with both black and white members, the Negro members were said to have received so many "raw deals" that they, with independent white longshoremen, withdrew and took over practically all the work on the river front. The I. L. A. is now accusing these independent of being "strike breakers."

BOYCOTT OF STORES Won in Atlanta
TO CONSIDER EMPLOYMENT FOR RACE IN DIXIE CITY
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 29—Negro citizens here—calm, persistent and determined—went methodically about their task of forcing the managers of A. & P. stores in strictly Negro communities to hire clerks from the neighborhood, as somber-faced police officers with sawed-off shotguns waving in the breeze lurked significantly about the premises. The neighborhood of Ashby and Hunter streets, northwest, has the appearance of an armed camp, but so far there has been no violence.

The committee here, directing the boycott, composed of Reginald A. Johnson, head of the Urban league here, is prepared to answer the claims of managers of local stores that it is against the policy of the A. & P. stores to hire Negro clerks, pointing out that in many cities, principally Chicago, scores of Negro persons—women and men—are engaged by the company, some in managerial positions.

Negro Flash is Midwest Choice
SIMMONS ON THREE ALL-STAR ELEVEN
"Simmons of Iowa has no peer at fullback. Like Berwanger, he has everything, including high court, and is one of the most elusive ball carriers of the day. He rounds out a backfield that has everything great—passing, beautiful kicking, splendid running, bucking strength, and the speed, fight and ability to make a great defensive unit," says Gus Dorais, coach of Detroit university, in choosing Ozzie Simmons, stellar halfback of Iowa, on the first all-midwestern eleven this week.

The Hawkeye flash had been selected on three all-star teams this month. He was honored on both the United Press and Associated Press selections for All-Big Ten.

Brown Represents Colored Citizens

In response to the demand of the Committee of Eight, composed of prominent Negro citizens and of the Des Moines Interracial Commission, Atty. S. Joe Brown has been named as Negro representative upon the case work council, recently created by the Polk county emergency relief committee, to hear and adjust grievances by relief clients against the relief committee.

JAMES WELDON JOHNSON ON AUTHORS LEAGUE COUNCIL

New York, Nov. 22—James Weldon Johnson, professor of Fisk university, visiting lecturer at New York university, author and former secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., was notified this week that he had been elected on November 7th to the Council of the Authors League of America. The president of the Council is Marc Connelly, author of "The Green Pastures." Among the famous authors on the Council are: Ellis Parker Butler, Owen Davis, Oliver H. P. Garrett, Rupert Hughes, Will Irwin, Alice Duer Miller, Elmer Rice, Sigmond Romberg and Rita Weiman.

New York, Nov. 22—Senator Tom Connally of Texas, who wrote the N. A. A. C. P. last December that he did not intend to support the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill because he believed the states could and would stop lynching, was asked this week by the N. A. A. C. P. to advise it of what steps the state of Texas was taking to punish the lynchers of Benjie Mitchell, 15, and Ernest Collins, 16, who were hung November 12th by a mob at Columbus, Texas. The N. A. A. C. P. telegram stated in part: "We call your attention to statement of County Attorney Moore describing lynchings as 'expression of will of people' and to statement of County Attorney Hahn, who violates every principle of judicial behavior by calling dead boys guilty when no trial had been had to establish their guilt. Texas has supplied country with seventeenth and eighteenth lynchings of 1935, thirteen of which have occurred since filibuster, proving states cannot or will not act. Please advise if you in coming session of congress will support federal legislation." The association also telegraphed a protest to President Roosevelt on the tw olynchings in Texas and the lynching of a white CCC worker in West Virginia.

THE N.A.A.C.P. AND SENATOR BORAH

The N.A.A.C.P. has stirred up Senator Borah of Idaho over the question of federal anti-lynching legislation. Senator Borah says in reply to a query addressed to him by the Association that he would veto the present anti-lynching bill if it came before him as president for signature upon the ground that the proposed law is unconstitutional. Senator Borah is a strange man—one who, during all of his career, has been a strong advocate of state rights regardless of whether it won him favor or not. And while his reply is based on a purely legal argument, he leaves the door open by insisting that the matter should be taken care of by constitutional amendment. This is of course hard to accomplish and so will it be hard to elect Borah president.

When Senator Smith of South Carolina and a group of southern senators conducted a filibuster against the Costigan-Wagner bill last spring, Senator Borah gave them aid in their "successful" fight. At the time he argued that the bill was unconstitutional; however, he added, that it was in the same class from a legal point of view as the NRA and AAA. The NRA has been knocked out by the United States Supreme Court; the AAA is before the court now and if it is knocked out too, we may be forced to go along with the Senator on his legal argument.

But Senator Borah realizes full well that the federal government has stepped over state lines in their war on certain things—kidnapping being the most recent. Senator Borah raises no howl against that. Of course, rich people are kidnapped while the victims of mobs are poor people. And while the senator insists on placing human rights above property rights he seems to go along with this piece of legislation in spite of the fact that it does just that.

Fortunately we know Senator Borah's position—he is fair in this respect. The Bystander does not believe we shall need to worry whether he is willing to sign such a bill or not. The chance won't come. However, he will continue to use a legal argument in opposition to the bill when as a matter of fact we doubt if Senator Borah is right on the Negro question generally.

The Observer

Senator Borah, in reply to a letter from Walter White, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, inquiring of the Senator's attitude on a federal anti-lynching bill, answered, in effect, that if he were president and the Congress passed an anti-lynching bill, he would veto it on the ground that it is unconstitutional. Some reports quoted him as saying he would hold it unconstitutional even though the Supreme Court of the United States held it constitutional.

Now, gentlemen, that is a plain bid on the part of the Senator for Southern support. It also is an attack upon the Supreme Court of the United States, which aligns Borah as an Ultra New Dealer. If he were president, he takes the position that he would use his high office to nullify the action of the Supreme Court. Of course if he would do it in this particular instance, he always could be depended upon to do it in other situations.

TRAINER OF LOUIS FACES COURT DECEMBER 5TH

Assault To Kill Charges Dismissed
Chicago—Assault to kill charges were nolle prossed against Jack Blackburn, 52, trainer of Joe Louis, and John Bowman, 24, Tuesday in felony court and the state instituted counts of manslaughter against Blackburn and William Parnell and then had both taken into custody on bonds of $10,000 each.

This was the latest step in efforts to find the slayer of Enoch Houser, 59 year old Tuskegee graduate, who was shot down October 20th during a gun battle between four men in front of 357 E. Fifty-seventh street. All the cases were continued until December 5th.

Blackburn, Parnell, Bowman and "Red" Ellis were released on November 2 at the inquest conducted into the killing when the coroner's jury at the county morgue said Houser came to his death at the hands "of a person or persons unknown to this jury."

REPORT 2,000 ETHIOPIANS DIE IN AIR RAID

Asmara, Eritrea, Nov. 22—Italian aerial squadron under Gen. Almone fought a two hour battle with a strong Ethiopian land force, resulting in the killing, it is reported, of 2,000 Ethiopians. The bombing was executed by twenty planes which had scouted an Ethiopian force estimated between 15,000 and 20,000 concentrating in the narrow valley of Mai Mesic, south of Buia, the most advanced point of the main Italian forces on the northern front. The planes swooped down to within 100 feet of the ground, dropping four and one-half pound bombs. The bombers were constantly under severe rifle and anti-aircraft shell fire.

The planes of Brune and Vittorio, Mussolini's two sons, were hit nine times. Two planes were forced down. Each plane of the twenty had ten or fifteen bullet holes.

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, Nov. 22—Emperor Haile Selassie boarded the imperial plane piloted by John Robinson, formerly of Chicago, in a hurried dash to Desaye, the chief war base in the north. The emperor will direct all operations of the armies under Ras Siyoum, Ras Kassa and Ras Mulu Geta. He will move incognito among his troops so as to avoid being bombed or captured by the Italians. It was announced officially that for an indefinite period no one will be allowed to report his majesty's movements.

Rome, Italy, Nov. 22—The failure of the 69 year old General Emilio de Bono to bring Ethiopia to her knees has resulted in his dismissal from the Italian colonial army in East Africa. The military plans that were mapped out by Mussolini's war council anticipated a quick, substantial victory that would force the adamant emperor of Ethiopia to sue for peace before the application of the League's sanctions became a fact.

Four Pages Only

Except for a few issues during the holiday season, The Bystander will consist of four pages only. This has been made necessary because of changes in our connections from which we have received some of our material. Just as soon as conditions can be adjusted properly, our regular six page schedule will prevail.

Senator Borah, in reply to a letter from Walter White, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, inquiring of the Senator's attitude on a federal anti-lynching bill, answered, in effect, that if he were president and the Congress passed an anti-lynching bill, he would veto it on the ground that it is unconstitutional. Some reports quoted him as saying he would hold it unconstitutional even though the Supreme Court of the United States held it constitutional.

Now, gentlemen, that is a plain bid on the part of the Senator for Southern support. It also is an attack upon the Supreme Court of the United States, which aligns Borah as an Ultra New Dealer. If he were president, he takes the position that he would use his high office to nullify the action of the Supreme Court. Of course if he would do it in this particular instance, he always could be depended upon to do it in other situations.

Throughout the Senator's long career he has always been just a little shy of true greatness, the type of greatness that would prevent a man in a superior position from taking advantage of the man in an inferior position. Such a man is not a man with the courage of his convictions but an opportunist.

However, the Senator forgets history. One Judge Parker is now not residing on the Supreme Court bench of the United States because he took advantage of people in a disadvantageous position. Herbert Hoover, in an effort to play to the gallery just as Borah is doing, can trace the reason for his present residence at Palo Alto, Calif., instead of Washington, D. C., as being due as much to his Parker blunder as to any other item he might choose.

The powers that be may force Senator Borah upon us as a nominee, but as far as the Negroes of the State of Iowa are concerned I can guarantee him that he will not get our vote. Now, I realize that that is not a particularly forceful position, but if the powers that be in the State of Iowa force Senator Borah upon us from this State, we will patiently abide our time and take reprisals upon him if it amounts to cutting our throats.

Hand us Borah if you want to; we cannot keep you from handing him to us, but we surely will pay you. I not only speak for the Negroes of Iowa in this statement, but during the month of February in Chicago, Illinois, there will be held a national Negro Congress. Negroes from all over the United States will be there. The only thing I am concerned about in going to Chicago is to get through a resolution damning Borah and offering my life in opposition to him. If Borah offered any kind of a substitute for the position he takes, or gave the faintest indication of anything other than just playing to the Southern gallery, Negroes would not be so bitter about it.

You can take my word for it, this brother is going to pay for that remark!

HAUPTMANN APPEAL TO HIGH COURT BASED ON N. A. A. C. P. CASE

New York, Nov. 22—Lawyers for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted of kidnaping and killing the Lindbergh baby, are basing their appeal to the United States supreme court on the decision in a case fought and won by the N. A. A. C. P. The case is known legally as Moore vs. Dempsey, 26 U. S. A. 86, and was the principal case in the sharecropper fight in Phillips county, Arkansas, made by the N. A. A. C. P. in 1919. The decision of the high court was that a trial in a court dominated by mob sentiment was not due process of law and was therefore unconstitutional.

Hauptmann attorneys are attempting to show the U. S. supreme court that his trial was dominated by mob sentiment. Prior to the winning of the Arkansas case by the N. A. A. C. P., there was no such ruling in American law. Leo Frank's lawyers made a similar appeal from his conviction in Georgia, but the court refused to make such a ruling. Several years later the N. A. A. C. P. took the Arkansas cases up on appeal and won.

M. D.—Did a friend really write me that letter?

Ans.: The person who wrote you this letter was certainly no friend of yours. It is for the best however, that you take their advice, as not to do so started in the big city.

N. G. J.—Please tell me when I will be able to see my mother?

Ans.: Before SPRING. I see you with your mother before the warm weather is here. She will welcome a visit from you as it will do her old heart good to see you again. My advice is to let nothing come between you and this intended journey.

C. L. S.—Does this roomer of mine intend to pay his old bill or what are his intentions?

Ans.: His intentions are to FORGET about the old BILL. He is one of these kind of guys that can't appreciate a "Break" when they get one. You kept him up last winter when he had no one else to turn to, so see to it that he PAYS HIS BILL. He can afford to pay more on this old bill than he has to date.

G. W. R.—Will I be successful with the song I just sent away?

Ans.: You will receive a small settlement in return for this SPIRITUAL SONG that you turned out. I am afraid that its not quite as good as you hoped it might be and the reception will make a GOLD HEARTED ENEMY out of this so-called friend who wrote the letter. She can cause you much unpleasantness unless you take her advice.

N. X. O.—Will I be successful in getting work this year?

Ans.: I am afraid it will be necessary for you to try your hand at some other line of work than you have been accustomed to doing. Concentration reveals to me that you will succeed in getting work OTHER THAN THE KIND that you are used to. Try to land a job in some other field—you will be successful.

W. E. S.—Please tell me what to do and where should I go to try my luck?

Ans.: If the opportunity presents itself for you to JOIN THE NAVY,

The Iowa Bystander

Sports By Allen Ashby

SWAN SONG

Well, folks, we hate to admit it, but when you read this we will have been in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, about five days. The A. and M. College there has given a chance to add our bit to their athletic prestige and records, and we grabbed it quick before they changed their minds.

We shall miss the old gang, the friendly enemies and the good true friends. It's no easy job to pull up by the roots after spending 18 years in one town and go away even for a matter of months. There will be the Big Five which we like to think we organized and named and had such a hard time steering clear of the rough spots. Then there is tennis with its heartaches and bitter disappointments, yet the greatest, cleanest fun a man ever enjoyed and the thing that kept us young in mind and body so that when our chance came we were in condition to take it. Football another contribution to take help us see through the eyes of youth and playing beside youngsters, full of their youthful vigor and pride; how could a man get old?

We shall miss our double partner and pal Chet Williamson, a true friend, Bill Ashby, the clowning brother and the staff writer with us. Then we shall miss our battles we used to fight each winter in the interest of clean sports and lives. We were lined up side by side with Quentin Mease, Y secretary and as staunch a friend as any man ever had, Spencer Elliston, whose advice is so typical of modern athletics "know where you want to go and go there with all you have."

We think those of you who have taken time to read our silly chatter as we ground it out and pretended to like it. We also wish to say here and now that we ask forgiveness for any injustices or hurts we may have wrought and any and all of you who rubbed our fur the wrong way are granted by us the same forgiveness. So long fellahs. Maybe we'll see you soon.

Holley the opportunity to travel with the other amateur hour winners, to correct an injustice to Miss Holley, but in order that he may not "destroy or mar the esteem in which many Negroes and white people hold you, nor to alienate many Negro users of the products of the Chase & Sanborn company."

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it softens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

COULD NOT DO HER HOUSEWORK
WHEN everything you attempt is a burden to you, when you are nervous and irritable—at your wife's end—try this medicine. It may be just what you need for extra energy. Mrs. Charles L. TOOK OFF 17 LBS. OF UGLY FAT
HEEDED DOCTOR'S ADVICE
Mrs. Robert Hickey, Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they would help burn up the fat. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."
Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to the gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?
Get a jar of Kruschen-to-day (lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle). Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning. All druggists.
