Decisively Battle to Stop Invaders is Few Days Off

EMPEROR LINES UP HIS LEGIONS FOR A MIGHTY COUNTER OFFENSIVE

Deassey, Ethiopia, Imperial Headquarters, Dec. 6.—Taking personal command of his troops since his arrival at Deassey, Emperor Haile Selassie massed 500,000 warriors in battle formation for the first consolidated Ethiopian offensive, which began in the wee hours of the morning.

Although strengthening their resistance on both the northern and the southern fronts, the operations seem to indicate that the native chieftains are concentrating their major assault on the north in the vicinity of Makale, where the Italians are reported to be strongly entrenched.

The emperor is in touch with Ras Seyoum and Ras Kassa, the military leaders of the north, whose armies have formed a Hindenburg line at Amba Alaji, south of Makale.

While in the south, near Dolo, the Italians, under the command of Gen. Rudolfo Graziani, are facing 70,000 Ethiopians, who are ready to leap upon their foe with the latest implements of war.

'Olympic Ideals' is Committee Slogan

NEGRO RUNNERS FAVOR GAMES

Chicago—"Preserve the Olympic Ideal" is the cry of the committee of Fair Play in Sports of New York City. Opposing the Americans' participating in Berlin Olympiad are various coaches and teachers. America forgets the Negro discrimination at the Olympic at Los Angeles in 1932. Jim Crowism and hatred was rampant in the good old U. S. A. from many of the southern runners.

President Avery Brundage, Chicago, of the American Olympic committee announced Monday night the committee's stand in favor of American participation in the 1936 Olympics at Berlin has received support of Eulace Peacock, Ralph Metcalfe and Jesse Owens—the three best known Negro sprinters in the United States. Metcalfe, in his letter to Brundage, said: "In 1933 I spent ten days in six German cities, including Berlin, with a group of American athletes. Never once was I or any member of the team mistreated in any way."

Joe Louis' Trainer Is Held for Murder

COUNSEL FOR J. BLACK- BURN MAPS DEFENSE

Chicago, Ill.—Jack Blackburn, veteran trainer for Joe Louis, charged with manslaughter in connection with the fatal shooting October 20th of Enoch Houser, 69 years old, is scheduled to go before Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in felony court December 5. Counsel for the "maker of champions" announced early this week that their defense had been perfected and that they felt sure Blackburn would be free without further delay.

Blackburn, John Bowman, 369 East Fifty-seventh street, William Parnell, 5355 Calumet avenue, friend of Blackburn, and Edward Ellis, nephew of Bowman, had taken part in what police claim was a free-for-all gun battle following differences between the trainer and Bowman on Sunday, October 20th, in the early evening.

Houser, returning to his home at 324 E. Fifty-seventh street, was caught in the cross-fire and fatally wounded. Also wounded by one of the bullets was nine year old Lucy Cannon, who was on her way home from a store. She is said to be recovering. Blackburn, Bowman, Parnell and Ellis were later taken into custody by Wabash Avenue police.

An inquest later held into the fatal shooting failed to produce evidence enough to hold any one, and under Deputy Coroner Benjamin A. Grant, the jury returned a verdict of "death at the hand of hands of persons unknown." The defendants, however, still face technical charges of manslaughter before felony court.

New Scotisboro Frameup Hinted

HINT PLAN TO GIVE ALABAMA BOYS LIFE IN PRISON

New York, Dec. 6.—While Ruby Bates, white heroine of the Scottsboro case, remains in the Harlem section here practically in hiding, sources close to the prosecution staff in the case insist that the jury in the approaching trial of whichever boy is selected will convict the defendant again, but will not ask for a death sentence. By not asking for a death sentence the guilty verdict cannot under Alabama law be appealed to the appellate courts, as it has been in previous trials.

If, despite the failure of the prosecution to ask for a death sentence, such a sentence is pronounced anyhow, it is understood that the governor of Alabama will commute the death sentence to life imprisonment.

If this procedure is followed, it means that the famous Scottsboro case will be disposed of right at its source and will not be carried from higher to higher courts, as in the past. It could not reach the U. S. supreme court again, because it would not be appealed up to the intervening courts.

Course, 1150 Thirteenth street, to hear them answered? There are eight texts in the Bible that refer to Sunday keeping, and there is an answer for each one.

A musical program and a short message of "Health" will also be given. Nursing class Tuesday, "What Happens to a Man When He Dies?" is the subject Wednesday, Thursday, Parents' Council. Do you believe in spirits? The air is full of them, but who are they? Are they the souls of dead men? Hear this subject discussed Friday. All lectures are illustrated on the screen.

Chas. P. Howard Is Seriously Ill

Attorney Chas. P. Howard, 1136 Fourteenth street, is seriously ill at his home with typhoid fever. His condition is reported fair by the attending physician, Dr. E. Thomas Scales. Visitors are forbidden, however.

Mr. Howard had just completed his work as the director of the Negro white collar workers and relief survey under the FERA. Four court trials were in progress when he was taken ill.

It is believed that he contracted the disease from contaminated well water served at a public works banquet held at the Polk county poor farm recently. More than thirty cases are reported in the city now.

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

One hundred and twenty-eight pieces of photography, water color portraits, pen and pencil drawings, crayon sketches, embroidery work, quilts, spreads, beads, dresses, jackets, woodwork, culinary and countless other handicrafts are included in the eighth annual art exhibit which have been on display since Monday in the art gallery of the public library.

The art show, sponsored by the Dilettante club, will close Sunday afternoon with a tea in the library rotunda at three o'clock. Mrs. Pauline Wilson is president of the club. The prize will be awarded by the judges at that time, Mrs. Lillian Edmunds, director of Negro Community Center, said.

Tinted Photographs

"Happy Days" and other typical Negro subjects are the charcoal drawings shown by Charles Boston, talented junior of East High. Face Opposition, Williams Tells National Churchmen

By the Staff Writer

"Leaders must expect opposition. Don't worry about fighters, as they will destroy themselves," was the stirring statement issued in an address Thursday noon by Dr. L. K. Williams of Chicago, president of the National Baptist convention, at the northwest central regional meet, which began Wednesday at the Corinthian Baptist church for a three days' session. Colored people are easy to lead, contrary to the general belief, as many pastors' thirty or forty years' service will testify, he told the 150 delegates from Iowa, Oklahoma, Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin and Colorado.

The Rev. G. W. Robinson, Corinthian pastor, and moderator of the Iowa Baptist association, is the regional president. The Rev. J. L. Horace, convention reporter, who is pastor of the Monumental Baptist church in Chicago, said with enthusiasm: "This convention surpasses any we have ever had and the people of Des Moines and Corinthian church are certainly making our stay well worth while."

World Alliance
The Rev. Dr. Williams, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist church in Chicago and vice president of the World Baptist Alliance, stated in his broadcast speech Thursday afternoon over radio station KINT: "Galling experiences of slavery and religious worship made an impression in favor of Christianity on the slaves."

The first African Baptist church in America was founded in 1773 and by 1809 had multiplied to more than a million members, he states. The present membership is 3,600,000, operating through nine boards and several foreign stations in Africa.

Merger in 1898
The National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., was the result of a merger in 1895; Booker T. Washington and Dr. R. R. Moton were members at that time; Negroes represent one-tenth of America's population, forty per cent of the Baptists of the world, two-thirds Negro churches are Baptists, the Rev. Williams quoted.

The introductory sermon was delivered by the Rev. J. A. Moore of Kansas City on Wednesday. Other speakers were E. W. D. Isaac of Nashville and the Rev. J. H. Branham of Chicago. The Rev. W. P. Mitchell of Tulsa, Oklahoma, was the night speaker. The southwest regional meeting will be held at Hot Springs, Arkansas, in January and the southeast group meets at Columbia, S. C., in February.

Bond Issue

Thursday morning the attorney for the convention, Wm. H. Haynes, presented resolutions and plans for the $600,000 bond issue and their sale in the various states. These national convention bonds, which are well secured, are now legally sold in twenty-five states and the debt is being rapidly reduced by their sale. The executive board gave authority to enter the states of Colorado, South Carolina, Virginia, Missouri, Indiana and Mississippi for the sale of these bonds.

This board also reported that plans are complete for the home for aged ministers at Nashville, Tenn., under direction of the benefit board, of which Rev. F. W. Penick of Chicago

Sam Walker, program chairman of Lincoln post, No. 126, of the American Legion, presented Judge Ralph L. Powers at the regular meeting Tuesday. Dr. Clyde L. Bradford, another speaker, talked on the subject, "Typhoid Fever."

COLOR LINE REASON FOR DOCK STRIKE New York, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Discrimination against Negro longshoremen by the International Longshoremen's association has been given as the reason for the organization of two strong, independent longshoremen's unions in New Orleans, according to Robert C. Francis, writing in the December issue of The Crisis.

One of the independent unions is colored and the other white. Mr. Francis asserts that they handle ninety per cent of the longshore work in New Orleans, and that the International Longshoremen's association, affiliated with the A. F. of L., has called a strike of its few workers on the docks solely as an effort to break up the independent unions.

The writer asserts that the Negro longshoremen in New Orleans have had a disappointing experience in the past with the I. L. A., and prefer to organize independently. At the time when the I. L. A. was strongest in New Orleans, with both black and white members, the Negro members were said to have received so many "raw deals" that they, with independent white longshoremen, withdrew and took over practically all the work on the river front. The I. L. A. is now accusing these independent men of "strike breakers."

Simmons on Three All-Star Elevens "Simmons of Iowa has no peer at fullback. Like Berwanger, he has everything, including high courage, and is one of the most elusive ball carriers of the day. He rounds out a backfield that has everything great—passing, beautiful kicking, splendid running, bucking strength, and the speed, fight and ability to make a great defensive unit," says Gus Dorais, coach of Detroit university, in choosing Ozzie Simmons, stellar halfback of Iowa, on the first all-midwestern eleven this week.

The Hawkeye flash had been selected on three all-star teams this week. He was honored on both the United Press and Associated Press selections for All-Big Ten.

THE RIGHT ATTITUDE

When the National Conference of Social Workers closed its 1935 meeting at Montreal last spring, Washington, D. C., was chosen as the 1936 meeting place. At the time no very definite agreement was had with the Washington hotel men's association with regard to accommodation of Negro delegates and a committee of three, one of whom was a Negro, Mr. T. Arnold Hill of the Urban League, was appointed to review with the general secretary tentative arrangements. The representatives of the hotels agreed that there would be no discrimination of any kind at meetings of the Conference, but would give no assurance on the question of housing Negro delegates and the acceptance of their patronage in public dining rooms.

This of course was unacceptable to the committee and that finding was so reported to the executive committee.

At a meeting of the executive committee, Atlantic City was chosen and the following resolution adopted:

"That a committee of three consisting of the President, the General Secretary and one other member of the Executive Committee (Mr. Stanley P. Davies) be empowered to select the meeting place for the 1936 annual meeting. This action is taken on the assumption that a sound rule for the National Conference of Social Work in the selection of a Conference city is that all hotels in which meetings of the Conference and of Associate Groups are scheduled or which are listed officially by the Conference or by the local committee on arrangements will guarantee the National Conference of Social Work that all delegates without any discrimination shall have equal opportunities to secure lodging, meals, meeting places and other necessary privileges."

Thus the National Conference of Social Workers has stood pat on the question of equality for minority groups and demonstrates what can be done in dealing with the race question if those in authority have the courage and backbone to stand up for what is right and just.

TALK WHICH COUNTS

Governor Harry W. Nice of Maryland spoke before a Negro group in Chicago last week. Besides calling attention to the fact that he was the third Republican governor ever elected in his state, he pointed out the number of jobs he had given Negroes which they never had before, and the increase in appropriations made at his insistence to Negro institutions of higher learning in his state.

The point is that Governor Nice has done something definite to raise the economic status of Negroes.

Before many weeks we shall have office holders appearing before Negro groups telling how efficiently and economically they have run their office, all of which is very fine. But the important thing with us is what have you done about the economic status of the Negro? or "how many Negroes do you have in your department?"

If their answers are not satisfactory along these lines, all

ENGAGING THE DOCTOR

As soon as a woman thinks she may be pregnant she should choose her doctor and go to him at once for a complete physical examination on, and for advice as to the hygiene of pregnancy.

At this first examination, the doctor will ask her many questions about her medical history—what diseases and operations she has had, whether she has been pregnant before, etc. A complete physical examination usually includes an external abdominal examination and an internal pelvic examination and measurements of the pelvis, a bony framework to determine if the mother is capable of delivering the offspring.

During this time a careful examination of the teeth, tonsils, throat, thyroid, heart, lungs, kidneys, and digestive organs, taking of blood pressure should be made.

This examination is most important for the mother's well-being and should be insisted upon with each pregnancy.

ALABAMA PROSECUTOR RUSHES SCOTTSBORO TRIAL

Two Boys To Lose Minor Status

Decatur, Ala.—(CNA)—Adequate time for preparation of the defense of the Scottsboro boys suffered another severe setback this week when it was learned that Lieut. Gov. Thomas E. Knight, Jr., special prosecutor in the case, intended to rush the dates of the arraignment and trial of the boys.

Following the indictment of the boys on November 13, Knight had announced that they would be arraigned in Decatur, Ala., on December 16 and would be held for trial on January 6. This had allowed but one brief month for legal preparations, a wholly inadequate period of time.

Knight's latest intention, if carried out, will further hamper defense preparations.

Earlier in the week Knight made a sinister announcement to the effect that the two youngest of the Scottsboro boys, Eugene Williams and Roy Wright, will be taken out of the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and put on trial together with the older boys.

"They have now come of age and may be tried in the circuit court," he declared. Eugene and Roy, 13 and 14 years of age respectively at the time of their arrest, had reached

DISTURBERS WITHIN REPUBLICAN RANKS

We are hearing a lot of talk about the progressive and the conservative element in the Republican party. It narrows down to the question of whether men like Senators Borah of Idaho and Johnson of California, former Senator Brookhart of Iowa and others of their following shall lead the organization or men of the type of Chairman Fletcher of the National Committee.

Frankly, The Bystander has little confidence in the former group nor the program they represent. Fundamentally they are not Republicans in principle but carry the label for the sake of convenience. They are trouble makers for any group which attempts to deal with them and are not dependable in the least.

Eventually, the Republican party must decide to walk over them leaving them to go where they will even though defeat follows, for as long as they hang on there will be trouble within the ranks.

Four Pages Only

Except for a few issues during the holiday season, The Bystander will consist of four pages only. This has been made necessary because of changes in our connections from which we have received some of our material. Just as soon as conditions can be adjusted properly, our regular six page schedule will prevail.

The Observer

By Atty. Chas. P. Howard

If you are worried about Italy's conquering Ethiopia, forget it!

This is a broad prediction, but one made with absolute confidence. Uncle Sam spent many months and hundreds of thousands of dollars training Negroes in the strategy of warfare. Ask any one of them to sit down and explain to you who he thinks will be the ultimate victor in this war. What he will tell you will be consistent with what every adviser of Mussolini in his official war family told him, that had the courage to tell him.

They are reported to have told him that the conquering of Ethiopia within his lifetime is an absolute impossibility, on a practical basis. In the first place, the topography of the country in addition to its torrid heat by day makes day time activities almost impossible for other than a native. The torrential rains make travel, except for a very short period every year, in many numbers an impossibility.

This means that the lines of Italian troops will have to move forward in columns rather than by a frontal attack. This also means that small numbers must move forward in a perpendicular line with very little protection from the flanks. The greatest danger, facing an invading army is that of being enveloped. All conditions in Ethiopia compel attacks to be carried on in such a manner that the invader is forever open to an enveloping attack. Now if the invader is of smaller numbers, the farther in that they go, the more dangerous becomes their position. The Italian army is getting farther and farther in.

The highest estimate of the Italian invading army is 600,000. Haile Selassie is reported as having a million warriors available. The longer the war lasts the better equipped Ethiopia will become.

Italy's perpendicular line as it stretches out gets thinner and thinner and farther and farther from its base. To hold its front, it must build up reinforcements and concentrate them at the front. This makes their being gotten behind and enveloped easier and easier.

Haile Selassie recognized this. So did Mussolini's advisers.

Airplanes are the eyes of a modern army. It is too hot for the Ethiopians to travel by day. Nobody as yet has invented anything that will enable an invader to penetrate the darkness. Therefore, the only value of Italian airplanes in Ethiopia is that of bombing civilian villages. It just happens that the Ethiopian population, not being up to modern civilization, does not concentrate by the hundreds of thousands in large cities, but scatters itself out in the hills in small tribes.

Half-civilized Ethiopians are beginning to teach Mussolini that his bulldozing era is nearly at an end. Add to the above physical barriers the further proposition that the morale of an army must be maintained at a high pitch, if the invader would be successful. There is every conceivable element present in Africa to wreck the morale of the Italian army. To begin with, the Italians are knee-deep in mud. They are thousands of miles away from home. The application of sanctions is soon going to bring home to the leaders the impossibility of keeping the army's stomach full. Napoleon once said, "An army travels on its stomach." The Italian army in Ethiopia does not even have water.

On the other hand, news travels slowly in Ethiopia; first, because of the lack of modern methods of communication, and second, because all the tribes speak different languages. This makes the bombing of cities have little demoralizing effect upon the army itself, because they do not even hear about it.

their legal age during their five years of imprisonment.

The two boys were remanded to the juvenile court after a mistrial in the case of Roy Wright during the original Scottsboro trials, and reversal of the death sentence against Eugene Williams by the Alabama supreme court on an appeal by the International Labor Defense.

Ans.: During the Christmas Holidays, it is my impression that your mother will get to take a trip that she has been looking forward to for a long time. This journey will be to see her daughter in CHICAGO, and her son in INDIANA.

W. W.—Please tell me why my husband doesn't explain himself to me?

Ans.: Your husband doesn't want you to know too much about his affairs, especially about his BUSINESS. He knows that if you find out too much about him, it will be too easy for you to check up on him when he goes out WITH OTHER WOMEN.

L. P.—Kindly tell me if you think I should try to find another job?

Ans.: No. It is my impression that your work will pick up during the next month so you'll be able to make a living. Now that you've got a job, you should hold on to it.

E. K. B.—Will I find a nice girl friend soon that I can love?

Ans.: You seem to be just a little bit too hard to please, and it won't be too easy for you to find a nice girl that you can love. You'll meet a very opposing participation of American athletes in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin was adopted at the November meeting of the board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. The Crisis, official organ of the association, came out editorially several months ago urging that American athletes be kept at home "because the games are being held in a country whose government is founded officially upon suppression of religious, political and social liberty, and upon terror and brutality."

GOLDEN CAGE HIS PRISON
SINCE 1936 REBELLION
Harrar, Ethiopia, Nov. 29—Tribal drums roll in Ethiopia's hills tonight. They toll out the song of death for nice girl during the latter part of this year, but you'll only be friends. The real romance of your life will take place a little later on.

C. L. M.—What is wrong with me and my boy friend that we can't seem to agree very much?

Ans.: You appear to be several years older than your boy friend, and that makes quite a difference in opinions. You and C. H. will never be able to get along very agreeably together so don't take him seriously.

H. L. Y.—Please tell me why I can't stay alone any more at night?

Ans.: It is your nervousness that will cause you to be afraid to stay alone since someone tried to break in your home. You should have some one to stay with you until you get over this SHOCK.

Yassou, grandson of Menelik and deposed emperor of this ancient empire of freedom, is dead.

In a golden cage, secreted in the forbidding hills of the Mendoba and Goba regions, attended night and day by royal assignees of Emperor Haile Selassie, Yassou passed away, according to word brought here by runner and drum dispatch.

His life was a bitter one and marks a turbulent page in Ethiopia's latter day history. When the illustrious King Menelik, who had ruled with an iron hand from 1889 to 1913, died, he appointed his grandson as his successor.

Vain and vacillating, Yassou listened to false gods and accepted the faith of the Mohammedans, which is against the religious concept of this nation of "Coptic Christians, aces (princes) of the various provinces making up the imperial court were infuriated with this step by the new emperor. They finally got together and deposed Yassou in 1916.

In his place they elected Ras Tafari (Haile Selassie) as regent and heir to the throne. Haile Selassie then shared the throne with Queen Zauditu, daughter of Menelik, until she died in 1930. In the meantime the followers of Yassou took up arms in defense and a four year civil war followed.

Quentin R. Mease

Mr. Mease, physical director and executive secretary of the Crocker street branch Y. M. C. A. has consented to write the column left vacant by Allen Ashby's departure to Pine Bluff, Ark., an assistant athletic director of the Arkansas A. M. & N. College.

We must admit a feeling of inadequacy in attempting to fulfill the difficult assignment of editing this column since the departure of its creator, Allen Ashby. As a participant, official, and follower of sporting events during the past fifteen years or more, well versed in the fundamentals, sciences and mechanics of athletics, a student of journalism and counselor to many young aspiring athletes, Ashby was peculiarly well fitted for this role and was adjudged an authority by all who knew him. Having been associated with him during this time, we are confident that he will enjoy the fullest success in his new venture. And while we were reluctant to see him go, we do not begrudge this opportunity to capitalize on the ability he has so freely given to others.

BASKETBALL

The homebred simon-pures will swing into intensive practice next week for the league season, which will get under way about the first of January. A large number have been turning out on Monday nights for preliminary loosening-up and in an effort to regain their basket eyes. These sessions have been limited to adults, but next week all three groups will swing into action.

Grid Gleanings

The football curtain has all but dropped on a big season, only a few games yet remaining to be played in the south and out on the coast. Ozzie Simmons has been placed on several more All Big Ten and All Western teams, but the in and out performance of the Hawkeys causes some doubts of his being placed on the more All-American recognized selections.

St. Paul, Minn.—Newell Guy, son of Rev. W. E. Guy, former pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church of this city, was placed at guard on the All-City first team by one St. Paul, Minn., paper, and at the same position on the second team by another paper. Dwight Reed, regular end on the championship Minnesota U. team, is also a product of the St. Paul schools.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome
Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and throat surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Listerine Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

TOOK OFF 17 LBS. OF UGLY FAT
HEDED DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Mrs. Robert Hickey, Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to crooners who said there was no safe way to reduce. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?

Get a jar of Kruschen to-day (takes 4 weeks and costs but a trifle). Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning. All druggists.
