First Negro Legislator Asks for Assistance to Colored Schools

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 14.—A bill introduced by Representative Charles W. Anderson, the first colored legislator in the history of Kentucky, which provides for the payment of tuition for colored students who have to go outside of the state for higher education, was passed by the lower house this week by a vote of 88 to 0. The bill now goes to the senate.

The bill provides that the state will pay the tuition of qualified students who desire courses offered at the University of Kentucky or other state-supported institutions which are denied to Negro students on account of the provisions of the Kentucky constitution governing separate education. The maximum amount to be paid in the case of any student is $175.00 per academic year, and an appropriation of $5,000 is made for 1937 and a similar appropriation for 1938.

Neutrality Measure Is Aid to Italians

Colored People Urged To Flood Congress With Protests on Exemption of Aggressor and Ethiopia

Washington, Feb. 14.—There is a big "joker" in the neutrality bill amendment which is being proposed by Representative Tinkham of Massachusetts that would aid Italy and hurt Ethiopia in the present war, it was revealed here today. Representative Tinkham proposes that both Italy and Ethiopia shall be omitted from the provisions of the neutrality bill. This means that Italy would reap the benefit of war trade from the United States, whereas Ethiopia would not. It would mean that Italy could buy all the oil and other war materials needed.

The farce of having a neutrality bill which will exempt the only two nations openly at war in the world today is one of the most brazen tricks that has been suggested in Washington in many years. Italian-American citizens in the northeast, a part of the United States are leading their congressmen with messages urging the passage of the Tinkham amendment, knowing that it will aid Italy.

Protests have been sent to Speaker Joseph Byrns in the house office building by some branches of the N. A. A. C. P. Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell is fighting against the amendment in the house. All persons who are against the aggression of Italy upon Ethiopia and who want to see the United States take a fair position are urged to telegraph Speaker Byrns and Vice President John N. Garner.

A.M.E. Prelate Served Fifty Years in Ministry

Oakland, Calif., Feb. 14.—(Special)—Funeral services for the Rt. Rev. H. Blanton Parks, senior bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal church were held here Wednesday afternoon at Parks Chapel. It was the largest funeral ever held here and the esteem in which the late bishop was held by Oakland citizenry and his thousands of friends throughout the nation was evidenced by the floral offerings, telegrams and letters of condolence sent to the family.

Was 76 Years Old
Bishop Parks, who was 76 years of age, died at his home Saturday. He had been in ill health since he suffered a fall in his home two years ago. The remains were buried at Atlanta, Ga. A widow survives.

With the passing of Bishop Parks, who had served the church fifty years, there are two vacancies for the bishopric in the A. M. E. church. The first occurring with the death of Bishop W. Sampson Brooks of Texas.

Two Bishops
The vacancies will be filled this summer when the General Conference of the A. M. E. church convenes in New York City. With the death of Bishop Parks, Bishop J. S. Flipper of the Eleventh Episcopal district (Florida) was elevated to that of senior prelate.

The Fourth Episcopal district, which includes the states of Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota, will be divided among other bishops. The assignments to be made at the council session.

Born in Atlanta
Born in Atlanta, Ga., July 4, 1860, Bishop Parks entered the ministry some fifty-six years ago. In 1896, while pastor of Allen Chapel, Kansas City, Mo., he was made secretary of bishops with offices in New York City.

He held this office for twelve years. In 1908 he was elected bishop at the general conference which met in Norfolk, Va. Of the five elected at that time, only two survive—Bishop J. S. Flipper and Bishop W. H. Heard, now presiding over the First district of New York, Philadelphia and New England.

In 1924
It was at the death of Bishop Levi Jenkins Coppins in 1924 that Bishop Parks became the senior prelate of the A. M. E. church.

Bishop Parks came to the Fourth Episcopal district after the death of Bishop Archibald J. Carey. He was returned to the Chicago district over which he presided when the general conference met in Cleveland, Ohio.

At the Northwestern annual conference, which met in Des Moines in 1931 and 1935 at the St. Paul A. M. E. church, Bishop Parks was the presiding officer. However, at the session here last September the ill prelate was assisted by Bishop Monroe H. Davis of Baltimore, Md. The return of Bishop Parks to the district for another year was requested by the conference.

N. Y. Cage Team Downs Local Five

By Quentin R. Mease

In their first local appearance, the Renaissance A. C. of New York demonstrated to a fair sized crowd of basketball enthusiasts at the Armory Friday night the ability that has given them undisputed top ranking in the professional cage sphere. Due, partly to the brief billing given the game and the subnormal temperature, only a few hundred loyal fans were in attendance to see this perfect working machine perform, in handily subduing the Guardsmen by a 50 to 39 score.

Faced by the six foot seven inch Smith, at center, and the fleet Fats Jenkins, 37 year old whirlwind of the hardwood court, the famous Rens exuded class in every department of the game and completely outclassed the home town products, who were exceedingly hot from far out on the floor and thus kept in striking distance during a major portion of the contest. The superior height of the Harlem quintet, three of the players being over six foot five, combined with their rapid fire passing, fast cutting, and all around brilliant floor play, were more than the Guardsmen could cope with.

Of the various pro aggregations that have shown in Des Moines in recent years, none have exhibited the polished offense or defensive maneuvers of the team from Gotham. The Globe Trotters have drawn well because of their clowning tactics and fancy ball handling, but have lost several engagements, and crowded closely on others. A game between these two outfits would be a delight to see, and force the promoters to hang out the old S. R. O. sign.

Josephine Baker Divorced, Rumor

DANCER SMILES AT STORY OF TROUBLE

Paris, France, Feb. 14.—Count Pe. tito Abatino, Italian husband of Mme. Josephine Baker, who arrived here last week, admitted to the local press that things were not "that way" between his famous wife and himself any more. The count also admitted that divorce proceedings would likely be started any day now.

The count came home unexpectedly since it was generally believed and expected that he would remain in the states as long as his wife was over there. He explained his sudden return by the discussion of "troubles" and the admission that his wife was soon to start a divorce, perhaps in the French courts.

Miss Baker on Broadway
In the meantime Miss Baker is appearing in the Follies, the production which attracted her to the states. She opened in Boston with the show and returned to New York prepared to fill the same role on Broadway.

Asked when and if his wife would return to Paris, the count admitted that he did not know. "I do not have any information beyond the fact that she will remain in the cast of the Follies indefinitely," the count told newspaper reporters.

Van Nuy Sponsors 3-Point Resolutions

MANY TELEGRAMS ASK FOR LYNCHING PROBE

Washington, Feb. 14.—Telegrams and letters requesting a senate committee to make an investigation of the lynchings of 1935 which occurred following the filibuster in the United States senate last April are being received here by Senators Robert P. Wagner, Edward P. Costigan and Henry Ashurst, chairman of the senate judiciary committee.

Many individuals as well as branches of the N. A. A. C. P. have telegraphed Washington urging definite action on anti-lynching legislation at this session of congress.

The resolution urging a senate committee to investigate the lynchings in 1935 was introduced by Senator Frederik Van Nuys of Indiana. It would authorize a sub-committee to investigate: (1) The facts and circumstances surrounding the lynchings which have occurred in the United States since May 1, 1935.

(2) The relation of such lynchings to other crimes and to the maintenance of law and order, and (3) The action, if any, taken by the responsible public authorities to prevent such lynchings and to punish the persons guilty of committing such crimes.

O. G. VILLARD SCORES
RAILROAD FOR JIM CROW

New York, Feb. 14.—Following up a protest of the N. A. A. C. P. to the Pennsylvania railroad on its treatment of fifteen colored excursionists from Richmond, Va., to New York on January 2, Oswald Garrison Villard, famed editor of The Nation and a stockholder in the Pennsylvania railroad, has written the general passenger agent, scoring the railroad for its treatment of the colored passengers. The railroad ran an excursion from New York to Richmond on the weekend of January 11-12, leaving Richmond the night of January 12th.

Only two cars were assigned to colored people and there were no seats for fifteen colored passengers. They went into the next car ahead, which was a "white" coach, which had only about twelve or fifteen white people in it. The white people did not object to their presence, but the brake man called state troopers at Fredericksburg, Va., and the latter drove the colored people back into the Jim Crow car as a double stand up all the way to Washington.

The Child Reader

by MARJORIE BARROWS
Editor, Child Life Magazine.

Marjorie Barrows

One afternoon many years ago a Franciscan friar wandered into the Oakland Public Library. There, opening a bound volume of a children's magazine, he stumbled upon a story. It was a story about a boy like himself—a runaway, a gang leader of wharf rats, who had certain semi-practical adventures, but who, after a hard lesson, learned of better ways of living his life.

Making of Jack London. The dramatic, exciting story awoke in the young reader the uneasy consciousness of his own wrong actions. He walked out of that library resolving to lead just as adventurous a life but one that carried with it a clear conscience. So he joined the Fish Patrol, cruised about the bay, fought poachers, and before long began to write stories about his adventures. That boy was Jack London. The experience of this famous writer occurs, in a rather less dramatic fashion, in the life of every boy or girl. Careful investigators have discovered that next to persons, nothing has more influence on children than what they read. If a hero they admire acts under certain circumstances as they themselves would like to act, they'll remember it.

And when the time comes, they'll unconsciously be influenced by that hero's action and try to do likewise. The heroine's kindness, ambition, steadfastness, loyalty, the hero's resourcefulness, quick-wittedness, painstaking qualities, courage, magnanimity, modesty—all these examples "sink in" and are emulated both now and later. One story with hidden character-building values is worth a dozen sermons from parents or teachers.

Let us try to see that this sort of a story, full of plenty of adventure for the boy, full of interesting plots and characters for the girl, is convenient

Most Famous Book of Jokes
The most famous book of jokes in all history was the "Chapbook of Till Eulenspiegel," a renowned German clown and jester who lived in the fourteenth century. For more than 400 years this book was published in many languages, among them being Dutch, French, English, Latin, Danish, Swedish and Polish. There have been more than 20 French editions, and reprints of it appeared in London as late as 1890—Collier's Weekly.

Take No Chances on Bulls
In the Basque village of Hendaya in the south of France, the natives believe that discretion is the better part of valor, says the Detroit News. Once every year the local Carmens gather on the balconies to cheer the Hendaya version of the bullfight. Several young bulls are let loose on the street while everybody closes shop, and safely enclosed in barrels, the young matadors waggle red handkerchiefs at them.

Sun Dangerous to Eyes
While sunshine is remarkably beneficial with its untold healing powers it can be a dreadful strain on the delicate optical organs, making the eyes dull, tired and wrinkled. Daily exercise and bathing of the eyes is advocated as a beauty and eye-health measure.

Suicide by Will-Power
Certain iguana lizards of the West Indies seem to be able to commit suicide simply by willing to do so, it was reported by Dr. Paul Hartsch, biologist of the Smithsonian Institution. These creatures, when captured alive and unharmed, often die within a few minutes and without any trace of injury.

Despite the storm of last week, thousands of people ventured out to enjoy this superb picturization of Lloyd C. Parker, a graduate and former athlete of Englewood high school, Chicago, Parker, who is a native of Birmingham, Alabama, was a member of the Englewood 1932 track team and was in the sixty meter event. He may specialize in physical education and education. Mrs. Jessie Smith Smith was ill, but is improved. Mrs. Ismael Phillips gave birth to a son at Iowa hospital. There is a large attendance at the Negro institute courses at the McKinley high school every Tuesday, under the direction of Ortha Taylor. This week's study was on the life and works of Abraham Lincoln and Fredrick Douglass.

WASHINGTON NEWS

H. R. Crayton who has been in the Washington County hospital for the past ten days for treatments, was operated on Friday. The annual union services scheduled for Sunday evening at the U. B. church for the benefit of the A. M. E. church was postponed on account of the bad weather. The pastor, Rev. W. F. Ogelton presided at Sunday School. There was no church services. Rev. W. F. Ogelton was in Washington Friday on business and to visit Mr. Crayton at the hospital. On account of bad roads it has been almost impossible for the children to attend school. Cecil Ballew returned to the University Hospital at Iowa City.

Addis Ababa, Feb. 7—A new drive suddenly launched and with characteristic swiftness and fury of the Ethiopian army wiped out the famous Black Shirt division and decimated Gen. Diamanti.

The Ethiopian and the Italian arm-Italian reinforcements commanded by elite locked horns in a desperate struggle for possession of the seventy-five mile road between Makale and Adowa, in northern Ethiopia. Mussolini's men will be forced to recapitulate under the sporadic attacks of native roving bands.

This large scale engagement begun forty-eight hours ago is still raging with Ras Desta Demtu attacking the Adowa road from the south, Ras Kaassa from the east, while Ras Mulughetta's army stationed around Seket, and acting as a reserve, can be thrown into action as emergency requires.

According to an official communique issued by Ethiopian general staff, 3,000 Italians have been killed and 5,000 wounded. In this battle near Tembien eighteen tanks, thirty-three field guns, 175 machine guns, and field guns, 175 machine guns, and 1,600 rifles have been captured by Ethiopian warriors.

N. A. A. C. P. BRINGS COURT ACTION TO GAIN ADMISSION TO LAW SCHOOL FOR NEGRO STUDENT

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7—The N. A. A. C. P. last Friday launched its second great legal attack against the educational color bar when it acted to force the University of Missouri to admit Lloyd L. Gaines, 24 year old St. Louis youth, to the university's school of law. First victory in the campaign being carried on against unequal educational opportunities was won by the N. A. A. C. P. on January 15th when the court of appeals, in Maryland upheld a decision of the lower court ordering the University of Maryland to admit Donald-Gaines Murray, a Negro graduate of Amherst college, to the university law school.

The first gun in the new battle for equal rights was the filing of a petition of mandamus on January 24th with Judge Walter Morris Dinwiddie of the 34th judicial district at Columbia by Attorneys Sidney R. Redmond, Charles H. Houston and Henry D. Espy of the N. A. A. C. P. legal staff for the petitioner against S. W. Canada, registrar of the University of Missouri, Frederick A. Middlebush, its president, and the curators of the university to show cause why he should not be admitted to the school of law. There is no publicly supported law school for Negroes here, although there is a separate school system presumed to be equal in educational opportunities. The petition cites that the University of Missouri is owned, maintained, governed and operated by "The Curators of the University of Missouri," a corporate body existing by legislative fiat, and administrative agency of the state performing an essential governmental function with funds largely derived from the treasury of Missouri under appropriations by the state legislature from taxes collected from the citizens at large, including the petitioner.

INFANT OF FOODS GETS BETTER CARE THAN MOST BABIES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The most cared-for food in the world is margarine, the baby of the foodstuff family. Not only do rigid laws govern every step taken in its manufacture and sale, but inspector-nursesmaids both those of the government and of the manufacturers, guard it from contamination as not one human infant in a million is guarded. From the farm and coconut groves to the housewife's door, the loving care of scores of persons is given to every pound.

"Government attention to the purity and wholesomeness of margarine begins in the great packing plants with an inspection of the beef and hogs from which the wholesome fats contained in the product are obtained and continues through the various phases of processing and handling until it has reached the stage where the label is applied to the container and the margarine is ready for shipment." It is disclosed in a bulletin of the Institute of Margarine Manufacturers, just made public here.

"The government sees to it that the milk used in every pound of margarine is produced and handled under the most sanitary conditions and finally pasteurized; Uncle Sam knows to a pound the amounts of vegetable oils, meat fats, milk, and salt which go into its composition. Even the water content is strictly specified, as is the information that shall go on the label of the finished product."

Red tape shrouds the making of margarine like a baby's blanket. The Bureau of Animal Industry watches over it. So does the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Bureau of Chemistry. And on top of it all the manufacturer-parents of the product keep a keen parental eye open and watchful twenty-four hours a day.

The coal shortage this year has centered attention upon the fact that the public as well as coal miners and operators should have a part in drafting contracts by which the industry is governed. And it seems that as much as the government has stuck its finger into disputes between miners and operators, some provision should have been made to protect the public.

C. A. Crosse, secretary of the Des Moines Bureau of Municipal Research, arguing indirectly for the city manager plan, criticises our political campaigns and the type of officials elected to office.

The Bystander believes that the electorate ought to have a chance to select or retire its public officials. On the other hand we don't pay public officials enough money to induce many men with ability to seek the job.

FINANCING PENSION ORGANIZATIONS

The Bystander has been called upon on several occasions to advise people who have been solicited for donations for or memberships in organizations seeking to force pension legislation through Congress. On each occasion it has advised that to do so would be throwing away money which might be put to a better use.

Undoubtedly most states are going to have a pension for people past the ages of sixty or sixty-five and also for unemployed. Modern civilization has forced us to it. But there is absolutely no reason why anyone should contribute to any organization in order that he can be assured of getting that pension.

Unfortunately, the people are more pension conscious than ever before, but organizations seeking to make jobs for a few people ought not to mulct the unfortunate out of their hard earned pennies for something they are going to get anyway.

Literature seeking the collection of funds for such purposes should find its way to the waste basket without much ceremony.

TABOO GOV. TALMADGE

Gov. Talmadge of Georgia spoke at a Lincoln Day celebration in Springfield, Ill., Tuesday night. A sharp critic of the New Deal, he is aligned with a group of southerners who are out to get President Roosevelt's scalp. No doubt the organization sponsoring the meeting had this in mind when they invited him to speak.

If anybody thinks Gov. Talmadge is going to overthrow the Democratic party in the south he has another thought coming; and if anybody thinks that the Republican party can be helped by headlining Gov. Talmadge he has another thought coming. Gov. Talmadge is as much a critic of the Negro as he is of the New Deal and Negroes are going to oppose any combination with men of his type.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Springfield protested his appearance there; branches characterized by hoarseness and painful swallowing. It usually appears rather suddenly with a dryness and tickling in the throat. There are usually two conspicuous symptoms—hoarseness and cough, the hoarseness sometimes progressing to an almost complete loss of the voice. The cough is dry often times causing vomiting, breathing is usually difficult with a slightly elevated temperature.

LARYNGITIS

This is an acute inflammation of the larynx (which is situated in the throat)

Rest of body and voice are the most essential elements in treatment. The patient should remain in an evenly heated room where the air is moist. Inhalations of steam frequently is very efficacious along with ample treatment for the cough.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 7.—When Senator William E. Borah of Idaho spoke here Tuesday night, January 28, opening his campaign for nomination for president, he was greeted by fifty pickets who carried signs criticizing his stand on the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill. The pickets, who were members of the Brooklyn junior branch of N. A. A. C. P., the Harlem branch, the Youth Council of Abyssinian Baptist church, and the Rev. T. S. Harten's Holy Trinity Baptist church, braved a biting wind in the below freezing temperature in order to let the senator and the Republican party know how colored people felt about Mr. Borah's views on lynching. Also assisting in the picketing were a few members of a Young Socialist group in Brooklyn. Prominent among the pickets was Ben Johnson, famous Columbia sprint star.

Some of the signs were designed by Aaron Douglas, famous artist and mural painter, and by Romare Bearden, well known young cartoonist. Among the legends on the placards were: "Borah Talks While Lynchers Lynch," "How About Lynching, Senator Borah?" "94 Women Lynched, Yet Borah Opposes Federal Law," "The States Have Not Stopped Lynching," "Stop Lynch Terror, Remember Scottsboro."

The placards designed by Mr. Douglas showed a Negro being lynched, with the legend, "Borah Opposes a Federal Law To Stop This." The pickets also distributed 2,500 leaflets, which stated briefly the facts about lynching and quoted the 14th amendment to the constitution: "No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law." Arrangements to picket the meeting were made by the national office of the N. A. A. C. P. and were in charge of Miss Juanita E. Jackson, who recruited the pickets and attended to all details. There were 100 more volunteers for picketing than could be used, especial eagerness being shown by young colored people.

EXPECT WHITEWASH OF PRISON TRUCK TRAGEDY

Scottsboro, Ala., Feb. 7.—(Special)—They died like rats! They were never given a chance! Locked in a steel cage, twenty convicts, all Negroes, were burned to death here Friday afternoon in a prison truck when a thirty-five gallon drum of gasoline exploded. At the last minute two other convicts fell from the door which had been burned open by the blazing inferno, but their condition is so serious they will die before the week is out. They are Paul Dawson of Demopolis, Ala., and John Stokes of Birmingham, Ala.

For hours, in the immediate vicinity of the flame, the air was charged and surcharged with the odor of human flesh. While the mercury was five below zero and snow was falling lightly, even this did not prevent crowds from jamming the highway to find out if it was true that the Scottsboro boys had been burned up as they had heard.

When Gov. Bibbs Graves ordered an investigation into the explosion and death of the convicts, W. B. Rogers, president of the administration board, clared it a mistake; the gasoline in charge of Alabama prisons, de-should have been placed in another truck.

Within the Squared Circle

Although Jimmy Braddock is still sitting on the heavyweight throne, the menacing figure of Joe Louis has given badly bent white promoters a weak but lucrative excuse for staging "White Hope" tournaments in every township. Locally, Dave Fidler, who hasn't staged a money making card since the grunt and groan boys captured the public's fancy, is trying to replete an almost extinct bank account, by promoting one of Jack Dempsey's elimination tournaments.

Ex-football heroes, farm boys, laborers and unemployed huskies are all responding to the cry to maintain white supremacy. But, to our knowledge no white hope in the past has succeeded in becoming a serious challenger and nothing indicates it happening now. About the only persons standing a chance to win are the boys at the gate.

Home Boys

During the past decade, the popularity of the fight game in our little old town has been aided to little by our own Negro boys. Some of these, whose ring fame covered not only the state, but over the middle west, have retired while others don the gloves for occasional engagements. Among these ring veterans are: George Bourland, Pep Webster, Emil Morrow, Happy Shade, Kid Lawson, Carl Scales, Teddy Harris, Carrol Heath and a long list of others who sought fame and fortune in the squared circle.

Morehouse University continues its rush to the top in the Southern College Conference to annex second place, by virtue of a pair of victories over South Carolina State and Clark University on last Saturday and Wednesday respectively. The Maroons defeated South Carolina by a 36 to 19 score, and took the measure of Clark by a 28 to 17 count. Alabama still retains first place in the conference, having won 8 and lost 1 followed closely by Morehouse who have chalked up 7 victories, meanwhile dropping two contests.

Pivots and Dribbles

It was "All Quiet" on the league basketball front last week. Junior and Senior games were postponed due to the Renaissance engagement at the Army. The Big Five, with an improvised lineup, drubbed the West Enders 35 to 23, on Wednesday night with Clarence Weston and Jamo Allen scoring 14 to 13 points respectively. The Raiders met a tartar in the Nelson Drug team dropping a closely contested game by a 29 to 20 decision. Arnold Wiley, who by the way, is the most improved player of the year, tallied 8 of the Raiders points. All teams were idle Wednesday of this week due to the school being closed.

J. E. M.—Will I ever be relieved of this dissatisfied feeling I have?

Ans.: You'll get over this feeling before long. The way for you to go about it is to try to become friends with some of your neighbors, for companionship and friends will chase your blues away.

B. M.—Do you think I will receive some money? Or will I have to go to the town where I think it is at?

Ans.: It will do you no good whatsoever to go to this city to try to get your money. The most sensible thing for you to do is to let a LAWYER collect it for you. You'll secure some other money this year which will be your BONUS.

E. T.—I would like to know which of these medicines to take? Will I ever get well?

Ans.: Certainly you'll get well—But, you'll have to take the medicine your doctor gave you and do as he tells you if you desire immediate improvement. The medicine you sent off for isn't nearly as reliable as what your physician prescribed.

E. B.—Do you think I will get what I want for Easter?

Ans.: Not exactly—However, you'll get a dress for Easter that will be practically the same kind as you saw on a Movie Star in Hollywood, but it won't be the same dress.

M. A. W.—What must I do with my brother? I can't make him do right?

Ans.: It is absolutely useless for you to try any more to get your brother to go to school, for he has made up his mind not to and you can't change it.—The only thing left for you to do is to encourage him to secure training in some particular line of work that he may be interested in at present.

M. A. G.—My land is about to be foreclosed. Do you think I will lose it?

Ans.: You'll save your land but by THE SKIN OF YOUR TEETH. You'll lease this land for oil just before it is foreclosed.

E. B. E.—Is this boy trying to quit me? If not what is the trouble?

Ans.: You know your boy friend better than to think he is trying to give you up, for he is too much in love with you to do that. HIS MOTHER knows this affair is getting serious, and wants you to give him up—Don't pay any attention to what she says.
