MISS CLARA WEBB
"Holds High Position"

Miss Webb Elected To Directors Board

ONLY NEGRO IN HISTORY TO HOLD CENTRAL Y POSITION

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

The first Negro woman to be elected member-at-large of the Central Y. W. C. A. board of directors is the honor bestowed upon Miss Clara Webb of 1022 Pleasant street, at the January election. Heretofore, only colored members elected to the board, consisting of 30 leading women of the city, were those who were chairmen of the committee of management of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. Negro branch; their positions automatically placed them as members.

Case Worker

As far as it is known, Miss Webb is the only Negro woman on any central board in the United States.

She has been a case worker at the Polk County Emergency Relief offices for the past four years, is a member of the interracial commission, chairman of the race relations committee and business and industrial girls' club at the Blue Triangle branch.

West High

Miss Webb, who graduated from West High, received her bachelor of arts degree from Drake university and is now studying for her masters degree in social science work.

She is president of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority, member of Corinthian Baptist church and is one of the Des Moines' prominent social and civic leaders.

Russell Jackson Goes to Washinton

GETS GOVERNMENT POSITION AS VIRGINIA FIELD ENGINEER

Russell Jackson, 35, 1008 Day st., left Tuesday evening for Washington, D. C., to accept a position as field engineer, resettlement division of the U. S. government at Newport News, Virginia. He was member of the city engineering department in Des Moines since 1919 and was civil engineer for A. A. Alexander and Rebas Construction Company in 1931 and 1932.

Jackson, who was born and graduated from the public schools in Des Moines, attended the University of Iowa. He was active in local Republican organizations and was a member of the Young Men's Service Club, Young Negro Men's Civic Club, Committee of Eight, and attended St. Paul A. M. E. church.

Dr. J. A. Jefferson Is Defendant in Heart Balm Suit

MISS PIPER, WHITE NURSE, INSISTS ON FULL TRIAL

Efforts at a peaceful settlement in an attorney's office failed Saturday as Miss Alice V. Piper, nurse (white) insisted on a trial in the breach of promise damage suit filed in the district court Friday against Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson, Negro physician.

Miss Piper, former hospital nurse, who was working for a prominent family until this week, declares in her petition that they met in 1926 and "soon thereafter a friendly relation began to exist." Dr. Jefferson denied the accusations; "There isn't a word of truth in it," he says, "I'll tell it all at the trial and fight it to the end." Melvin Carl, Negro attorney, has been retained by Miss Piper.

The petition claims that the doctor assured Miss Piper that "whenever possible and at the proper time he would marry her and that the plaintiff meant everything to him." In 1935, however, she further charges that when she insisted he keep his promise, Dr. Jefferson ordered her out of his office, and told her "he wanted nothing more to do with her."

The white nurse says she suffered a nervous breakdown endangering her health and mind as result of her love for the colored doctor. It is reported that Dr. Jefferson is now engaged to a Tuskegee woman. His wife died last summer.

This suit makes the second legal setback for Dr. Jefferson this week as he is defendant for $15,000 damages filed Monday for an alleged autopsy on the body of the husband of Mrs. Orpha Johnson without her consent.

IOWA LEGION POSTS CLOSE IOWA CONFERENCE

Service Officer Spencer Elliston, Commander G. B. Tucker, and Adjutant John Munns, all of Lincoln post, No. 126, were among the hundreds of delegates attending the conference of the Iowa department of the American Legion which met Sunday and Monday.

Ray Murphy of Dubuque, national commander, addressed the banquet at the second evening's session. Other national celebrities attended. The bonus legislation made the convention a grand success, "best in history" declared Mr. Elliston.

150 Attend Large Banquet Honoring Dr. G. E. Haynes

PAGEANT OF 27 NATIONS IS EVENING'S ATTRACTION

In observance of Washington's Birthday was the Interracial Dinner, given under the auspices of the Des Moines Women's Interdenominational Missionary Council at the Central Y. W. C. A. Saturday, at which Dr. Geo. E. Haynes, executive secretary of the Race Relations of the Federal Council of Churches of New York City, was guest of honor.

The affair was attended by one hundred fifty men and women including representatives of 27 nations, most of them in their native costumes, who marched in after the other guests were seated, each carrying the official flag of the nation and presented it to Miss Helene Beard, who was dressed to represent "Miss Columbia."

Assembled

The representatives were assembled by Miss Alice D. Stubbs, teacher of Americanization in Des Moines Public Schools.

World Powers Worried As Christians Attack Ethiopia

NEW CRISIS CAUSES FRENCH GOVERNMENT TO CALL EMERGENCY COUNCIL

Paris, France, Feb. 28—Looking upon the Ethiopian Egyptian, and the Syrian troubles as concerted attacks of white Christians against Moslems and all blacks, the natives of Algeria Morocco and Tunisia are stirred to frenzy. Native drums with their monotonous rhythmic beats have given their ominous signals for preparation for a holy war.

The French government has convened a high Mediterranean committee session in anticipation of possible trouble in France's African colonies. The governor general of Algeria and the French resident governors of Tunisia and Morocco are now in Paris working out plans to check the impending revolt and deport native leaders who are responsible for the present wave of dissatisfaction.

While military and colonial chiefs are meeting in Paris to devise ways and means of solving a very knotty colonial problem that has suddenly confronted the French government in North Africa, Egypt and Syria are pressing for their autonomy. Count Damien de Martel is kept at his post in Beirut by disturbances there.

Dr. Haynes Goes Into Third Week

Dr. George E. Haynes, executive secretary of the department of race relations of the Federal Council of Churches in New York City, who is one of the city forum leaders will go into the third week of lectures here. His program each week, which will be completed March 27, is illustrated by slides operated by Braddie Morris, Jr.

Dr. Haynes' schedule for next week on "South Africa" is as follows: Monday, Bird, Twenty-first and Woodland; Tuesday, Crocker, Sixth and School; Wednesday, Amos Hiatt, East Fifteenth and Garfield; Thursday, Washington Irving, Sixteenth and Forest; Friday, Smouse, Twenty-eighth and Center. His general theme is "Landholding and Social Problems." All meetings are at 8:00 to 9:15 p. m.

County Doctor Job Fight Now 3-Way Scramble

"OUR MAN OR NONE" SAY DEADLOCKED FACTIONS

No decision has been reached yet in the appointment of the Negro doctor as county physician by the Polk board of supervisors, because of the deadlock between supporters of Dr. C. R. Bradford and those of Dr. E. Thomas Scales. More meetings have been held but the matter is still a burning issue.

A "compromise" agreement drawn up by the Bradford faction consisting of the Rev. J. A. Alexander, Atty. J. B. Morris, J. G. Browne, Harry E. Wilson and other leaders was rejected Monday by the Scales group, headed by Atty. C. P. Howard, Spencer Elliston, Revs. J. W. Tutt and G. W. Robinson and other civic heads.

The situation was thrown further into a turmoil when Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson applied for the position Tuesday, making it a hot three cornered race. He cited his 24 years of practice, free baby clinic work, and medical school experience in his application.

A "third party" delegation of Negroes appeared before the board Tuesday. The board members had referred it to a committee as a whole and the subject was set aside.

E. church and president of the local NAACP, as he addressed the junior branch at its reorganization meeting at the Community Center Tuesday.

George Stewart was elected president with the following officers: Dorothy Wheeler, vice president; George Edmunds, secretary; Jean Morris, assistant secretary; Joe Danforth treasurer; and Melvin Madison, sergeant-at-arms.

The program consisted of a paper on the NAACP by Miss Ferné Southers; piano solo, by Miss George Edmunds; numbers by the Des Moines Four quartette, composed of Carl Robinson, C. C. Brown, George Robinson and Leland Johnson. A social was held after the meeting with Mrs. Lillian Edmunds, Junior NAACP advisor, in charge.

Lost Love Seen In Rhinelander Death

ALICE SAYS KIP DIED OF BROKEN HEART

New York, Feb. 26—(CNA)—Leonard Kip Rhinelander, whose marriage in 1924 to a colored girl shocked that high society that toll not, neither do they spin, died last Thursday at his father's Long Beach home.

His father, Major Philip Rhinelander, and the doctors who attended Kip said lobar pneumonia killed him. But Alice Jones Rhinelander, the cab driver's daughter who was forced by his family to divorce, declared "Kip died of a broken heart."

Alice, a little heavier than she appeared during the celebrated divorce hearings which provided many thrills for the erotic, hinted strongly of a recent rendezvous at Atlantic City with her ex-husband. "Only last month I was at the Ritz-Carlton hotel in Atlantic City," she said. "My mother was with me. Kip was there, too."

Mrs. Rhinelander is still living at 763 Pelham road, New Rochelle, an address once a lover's precinct to Kip. It was there that she learned from reporters that her ex-husband had died at 6:30 Thursday morning.

Seek Indictment For Ozie Powell

ALABAMA STRIKES ANEW AT SCOTTSBORO BOYS AND DEFENSE

Decatur, Ala., Feb. 26—(CNA)—Alabama officials last week tried to cover up their murderous attack on the life of Ozie Powell, Scottsboro boy, by submitting "evidence of an escape plot" to the Morgan county grand jury in a new attempt to frame two or more of the boys and their attorneys.

Sheriff J. Street Sandlin, who shot Powell in the head, indicated that indictments will be sought charging Powell and Roy Wright with assault with intent to murder. Making the additional ridiculous charge that the boys, their hands manacled, held under guard in an automobile which was being trailed by other automobiles, loaded with armed guards, had "attempted to escape" while being taken back to Birmingham from Decatur, the sheriff said that "white persons, smarter than those Negroes, planned the attempt to escape."

SERIES OF TOWN HALL MEETINGS TO BE HELD

"Town hall" meetings will be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Service League and affiliated political organizations, such as the Progressive Voters' League, Harrison Gould, president; and the Negro Republican Voters' League of Iowa, J. G. Browne, chairman.

KING, ALTHO WANTS RE-ELECTION, STICKS TO DIFFICULT STREETS JOB

When George King was asked when he was going to announce, he said that he was too busy trying to clean up the streets, removing the heavy snow, clear the traffic and attending to the task of relieving the coal famine to even think of politics.

Mr. King would rather perform the duties of his office in an efficient manner and let his record speak for itself than to drop important work now and get out and make a campaign. Such an attitude on the part of a public official is commendable.

University Head's Death Loss to Youth of Nation

NOTED TEACHER IS BURIED ON SCHOOL CAMPUS

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 28—(Special)—Dr. John Hope, 68, one of most outstanding educators of the race and president of Atlanta university, was buried Sunday afternoon while thousands of students and men and women from all walks of life stood with bowed heads on Morehouse college campus.

Dr. Hope died February 20th at home, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Morehouse students acted as active pallbearers at Sunday's rites.

The famous educator, whose entire life, with the exception of a few years during the world war, was devoted to education, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lugenia D. Burns Hope, and two sons, John, Jr., and Edward.

Dr. Hope was a native of Augusta and rose to national prominence on assuming the presidency of Morehouse college, then Atlanta Baptist college in 1906. In 1929 he reached the high point of his distinguished career upon being elected president of the newly organized Atlanta university, which included Morehouse, Spelman and Atlanta university. Dr. Samuel Howard Arches succeeded him as president of Morehouse college.

He was actively associated with many nationally known organizations and foundations interested in Negro youth.

Brown in 1894

Dr. Hope was the son of James and Mary Frances Hope of Augusta and following his education in the Augusta public schools he matriculated at Worcester Academy in Massachusetts, and thence to Brown university where he was awarded his bachelor's degree in 1894.

He spent the summers of 1897 and 1898 studying at the University of Chicago. At the time he was a member of the faculty of Roger Williams college in Nashville, Tenn.

He became a member of the faculty of Morehouse college, in the capacity of teacher of Greek and philosophy, in 1898 and assumed the presidency of the institution in 1906, simultaneously holding the chair in ethics.

Honor Degrees

In 1907, Brown university, his alma mater, conferred an honorary master's degree on him. This was followed by Howard university, Washington, D. C.; Bucknell university, Lewisburg, Pa.; and McMaster university of Toronto, Canada, awarding him—with the degree of LL. D. in 1920, 1923 and 1929 respectively.

Meanwhile he had been called back to his alma mater in 1919 and elected to Phi Beta Kappa fraternity "for achievements since graduation."

During the world war he spent the year of 1918-1919 in France doing Y. M. C. A. work among the Negro troops.

Dr. Hope was the first Negro to become president of Morehouse college, and the first colored president of Atlanta university, and the first president of the Atlanta university system.

LAUNCHES FIGHT FOR FULL EQUALITY

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 26—A gigantic and inspiring step toward unity in the struggle for equal rights for the Negro people was taken here by the delegates, representing more than three million Negroes, to the National Negro Congress. The sessions of the Congress, held in the Eighth regiment armory on February 14, 15 and 16, were attended by more than 900 delegates from all parts of the country and hundreds of local visitors.

The Congress endorsed the united defense for the Scottsboro boys and Angelo Herndon and joined labor and liberal forces throughout the country in calling for the freedom of Tom Mooney and Warren Billings, framed labor leaders serving life sentences in California. It called for support of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill with amendments, supported the heroic struggles of share croppers and tenant farmers in the south, opposed all gag laws and fascist reaction, demanded enforcement of the 14th and 15th amendments and exclusion from congress of representatives of states where Negroes are denied the franchise.

The columnist did "C" street—and a few of the others, too, to see what she could shake down for this article—Yours truly found the following to be true:

But, my dear public, if you don't happen to see Mr. Johnson, I'll put you wise; he's still in circulation.

A couple more Flashes—Mr. Julian Mason, former member of Cecil Brewton's orchestra, has just returned to town—He is still inquiring about a certain young lady who lives on the East Side whose name can be found in the song "Sweet Rosie O'Grady."

All out of flashes—so the rest will be straight news—Chauncey Bailey still seems to be interested in Donna Graham, according to what was orbbed on "C" street the other evening—The Misses Betty Barquette, of Oskaloosa, Geneva Morrow, and Annabelle Payne, had "rhythm in their nursery rhymes" as they sang at the Drake all-school party last Friday at the Savory restaurant to the tunes of Bob Throckmorton's orchestra with their capable (I don't know of what) and handsome escorts, the Messrs. The manager plan, in my opinion, would work a hardship on all the people of Des Moines and especially the laboring class. The history of the manager cities has been lower wages and longer working hours. I could not conscientiously approve such an attempt. Mr. Morris, I have been a member of the Des Moines Typographical union for twenty-two years, although I haven't worked at the trade for about twelve years, and I couldn't be for any such plan of government.

In some of the cities where managers hold sway, such as Miami, Fla., and Norfolk, Va., the pay for common laborers are only around 25 cents an hour, and surely I as a union man who has been fighting for union principles all my life wouldn't favor such a form of government.

I would be pleased, Mr. Morris, if you would correct that impression by stating that "Harry Grund is bitterly opposed to the movement of changing our commission form to one of a city manager form of government."

HARRY GRUND BITTERLY OPPOSES CITY MANAGER PLAN
Feb. 22, 1936.

Mr. J. B. Morris, Editor, The Bystander, Des Moines, Iowa
My Dear Mr. Morris:
In last week's Bystander you wrote a story headed, "Harry Grund Fights For Old Age Pension," and at the bottom of the article you state: "He is a strong advocate of the city manager plan for the Des Moines government."

I am sorry that this mistake has been made, as many of the laboring people of Des Moines come from the Negro race, and as I have always fought for better working conditions and better or an American standard of wages, I have been fighting the attempt to bring a city manager in Des Moines.

The manager plan, in my opinion, would work a hardship on all the people of Des Moines and especially the laboring class. The history of the manager cities has been lower wages and longer working hours. I could not conscientiously approve such an attempt. Mr. Morris, I have been a member of the Des Moines Typographical union for twenty-two years, although I haven't worked at the trade for about twelve years, and I couldn't be for any such plan of government.

LISTER, STREETS CANDIDATE, DEPLORES STREET CONDITIONS

George Lister, candidate for superintendent of streets at the coming election, is calling all voters and taxpayers to witness the deplorable condition of the streets. Mr. Lister says: "I do not blame the present incumbent waste, for I realize he had but little to do with it, but I do blame John MacVicar and some of his predecessors. The sad part of all this is the taxpayer and the property owners have been taxed to pay for it all, and have been gypped and fleeced and their hides hung on the asphalt plian fence to dry."

The Lister plan which I will propose if you elect me to this post of superintendent of streets, will take care of this paving improvement without imposing an additional tax burden on the voter. It will also create a new field for labor and material which will bring in thousands of dollars into the legitimate trade channels of Des Moines, but I want it understood here and now that I will not recommend asphalt and composite mixtures, but will use brick and cement, which have proven to be the only long wearing and satisfactory paving material for all street surfacing.

STEBBINS, 43, SEEKS PARKS COMMISSIONER

Edward J. Stebbins, 43 of 3500 S. W. Twelfth street, forty-three years a resident of Des Moines, announces his candidacy for commissioner of parks. He is married and has three children. Stebbins is a member of Baldwin-Patterson American Legion post and the Pioneer Masonic lodge. For several years he has been a troop committee in Boy Scout work and has served as committee.

building, during which time he has always stood for fair play and equal rights to all, whether in the interest of a group or an individual, regardless of religion, nationality or station in life. This attitude has won unanimous endorsement. He has been a home owner and taxpayer at 1909 Jefferson for twenty years and is a member of the Masonic lodge, Hapac Grotto, M. O. V. P. E. R., Eastern Stars, Boy Scout work and is a member of the official board of Capitol Hill Church of Christ.

His record, his platform and his strict adherence to his campaign motto are gaining for him many supporters and friends.

time colored employees in his employ.

E. L. KEYSER, PARKS ASPIRANT, IS FAIR TO ALL RACES

Well known to every man, woman and child of Des Moines is the name of E. Lee Keyser, owner of the Des Moines Ball club, who is running for parks commissioner. Lee Keyser has more friends among the colored population in the city of Des Moines than perhaps any one person. He has never drawn any distinction as to regard to creed or color at the local ball park or at Kansas City, where he controls another club. When he was in charge in Kansas City, he removed the sign which said, "This section reserved for colored people." If Lee Keyser is a member of the city council, the colored people will know that they have a friend at the council table.

SEEKING A GOOD OUT

Recently it became necessary to suggest a Negro for a political job. While those in authority claimed to recognize the justice of the request, the substantial objection was that a Negro would not work well in the place; that at times it would be embarrassing to him and the public in the performance of the duties involved.

Admitting that the Negro applicant is competent there is no job where this superficial objection should stop an appointment. Experience has taught that where suitable Negroes have been appointed not only have they served well, but generally they have been especially popular with the white employees. And generally in those cases where this is not the case as much responsibility for the failure can be traced to the unfair attitude of the head of the institution as to the short comings of the employee.

The Bystander insists that if the authorities have the courage to grant the opportunity, in most cases the Negro applicant will make good. It is no answer that the races won't work together.

THE Y. W. C. A. RINGS TRUE

Heretofore it has been the custom that the chairman of the committee of management of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. should be a member of the Central Y. W. C. A. board. This year the rule was changed and a Negro woman was placed in nomination to be voted on as a member of the central board for a three-year term and was elected.

The Y. W. C. A. is to be congratulated upon this forward step for not only is it in line with the theory for which the organization is supposed to stand but also gives the Negro intelligent recognition. The Blue Triangle Branch Y. W. C. A. has made a fine record since its organization and will do more under a continued policy of this kind.

The Y. M. C. A. ought to take note of this program of fair play. The Bystander insists that the Crocker Street branch will never make any headway until there is a change of policy patterned along these lines.

BE PREPARED

Russell Jackson has gone to Newport News, Virginia, as field engineer with the U. S. Government Resettlement Division. While in school he studied engineering and has worked at it most of the time since having been employed in the city engineering department when this opportunity came.

The point is Russell Jackson prepared himself and stuck by the job for which he trained although at times it was not especially pleasant to do so. As a result of his preparation and later experience an unusual opportunity came and he was prepared for it.

Boys and girls, this is a splendid lesson. Be prepared for the opportunity may come when you are not expecting it—and may be it won't wait for you to get ready. Congratulations, Russell.

Burke, Metcalfe Win A.A.U. Titles
Six Negro track artists figured prominently in the record smashing performances of the recent National A.A.U. indoor track and field championships held in the Madison Square Garden Saturday night. A new high jumping sensation was uncovered as Edward Burke, Marquette University freshman won the jumpoff with Cornelius Johnson for first place medal, after both had set a new world's record at 6 feet 8 1/2 inches. Al Thredgill of Temple tied for third place honors with height of 6 feet 6 inches, which ties the present Olympic record.

Ralph Metcalfe, former Marquette sprint luminary, displayed Ben Johnson of Columbia as 60 meter titlist winning in the fast time of :06.7. Eulace Peacock wound up in third place. Ed Gordon, formerly of Iowa U. placed second in the broad jump with 22 feet 11 1/8 inches.

Morehouse College drew two notches closer to the Southern Conference cage championship by defeating two conference opponents, Morris Brown and Clark colleges, in games during the past week by scores of 24-19 and 32-25 respectively.—The rumored split between Joe Louis and Jack Blackburn, his trainer, has been denied by no other than Jack, himself.—Allen Ashby, the daddy of this column, is not only doing big things with his basketball proteges, having won 20 out of 23 contests, but is also coaching the wrestling and tennis squads at Arkansas State College—Leonard Brown, former North High student of this city, now attending Arkansas State College, is trainer of the athletic squads—The New York Renaissance, who appeared locally two weeks ago, defeated the Duffy Floral team in Chicago 35-23 for the right to meet the Celtics for the world's title.

Health Talk

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

ADVANTAGES OF BREAST FEEDING

Nature has provided an ideal food for the infant, and try as we may, there is yet much to learn about a r t i f i c i a l feeding. Many mothers prefer to rear their infants on the bottle. I think this is due to the extensive literature on bottle feeding. Ninety per cent of mothers, if in good health, can nurse their infants.

There are numerous advantages to breast feeding, namely:

1. The milk of the mother is adapted by nature to the peculiar needs of the infant, just as the milk of other mammals is adapted to their offspring.

2. It contains all the elements necessary to the growth of the various organs and tissues of the body during the first nine months of life. The milk of other mammals is not so well adapted to the digestion of the human infant.

3. Breast milk is received by the infant in its natural state, unchanged by cooling, or heating or the separation of its various elements.

4. Under normal conditions it is a sterile food.

5. When it enters the stomach it is already for the action of the digestive secretions.

6. Breast milk contains certain vitamins necessary to the infant's normal growth. In the bottle-fed they are impaired or destroyed.

7. Breast milk contains certain protective elements or anti-bodies that transmit a degree of immunity to the infant.

It should be remembered, however, the breast feeding is an advantage only when the mother is in good general health and her diet well balanced.

W. E.—Will you please tell me what to do in the case of the two boys I am entangled with?
Ans.: Just end the whole affair and call it quits. If they were sincere it would be worth while to try to straighten this mess out, but they are more interested in this money you are going to get than they are you. You'll receive this money before the month of MAY.

C. L. Y.—I would like to know if I should profit me to make a garden here?
Ans.: It would be a waste of time and money for you to begin this undertaking where you are now, for you will not remain there but a very short while—Wait until you go HOME or to your old place before you start your planting.

W. M. B. P.—I would like to know what kind of medicine I would have to get to cure my feet?
Ans.: The large joints in your feet were brought about by wearing shoes that didn't fit you properly, and in order to remove them you will have to start wearing health shoes for this particular trouble—Medicine will do your feet no good.

B. R.—I want to know if I will regret it if I be nice to this girl?
Ans.: It always pays to be nice to people even though you know you won't gain anything from it. This girl will never be very close to you, however, you will always have the satisfaction of knowing you were a gentleman in her presence and treated her with respect.

A. D. H.—My father doesn't seem to take much interest in me. Do you think I will get to go to school?
Ans.: Your father appears to be very poor and because he feels that he is unable to send you to school, he had rather pretend he isn't interested in your education rather than tell you the disappointing news—However,
