Official Jailed for Anti-Lynch Poster

Birmingham, Ala., March 13—Dr. E. W. Taggart, resident of the Birmingham branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Pepole was arrested here this week under a Birmingham city ordinance regulating posters.

Dr. Taggart was arrested because the Birmingham branch issued a poster and distributed it about the city protesting against lynching and appealing for members to join the branch.

As illustrations on the poster there was a picture of the lynching of Ruin Stacy at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., July 19, 1935, and also a picture of the lynching of Bert Moore and Martin Dooley, who were killed July 15, 1935, at Columbus, Miss.

Dr. Taggart was arrested under section 5474 of the city code prohibiting the posting of alvertising matter on fences, buildings and telephone and telegraph poles. He was released on $50 bond.

Immediately upon receipt of a telegram telling of Dr. Taggart's arrest, the national office in New York wired him suggesting lawyers and pledging backing to the limit. A hearing was held Wednesday, March 4, and Dr. Taggart's case was dismissed.

WARM SPRINGS FOUNDATION 'REJECTS NEGRO CHILDREN

Coatsville, Pa., March 13—(CNA)—President Roosevelt's pet project, the Warm Springs, Georgia, Foundation for Infantile Paralytics, has "no facilites" for handling Negro children. This announcement was made by the director of the Foundation in a letter acknowledging receipt of a gift of $35.00 raised at a Negro Roosevelt Victory ball here on the president's birthday. The gift was retained.

Inquiry as to whether the Foundation accepted Negro children for treatment was made by Dr. Atkinson, Negro Democratic leader here, in remitting the money. In answer to his inquiry, he received the curt reply: "Our Foundation does not have any facilities for handling Negroes—and never has had these facilities."

Joe Louis' Trainer Absolved Of Blame For Fatal Gunplay

Chicago—When the state announced Monday that the grand jury would not be asked to return another true bill in the perjury case against Jack Blackburn, trainer for Joe Louis, the much publicized shooting case involving the veteran and three others was brought to a close.

Blackburn, indictel for assault with intent to kill, and for perjury was acquitted of the assault charge late last Friday by a jury in Judge Robert C. O'Connell's criminal court following arguments by Defense Attorneys Euclid Louis Taylor and William H. Temple.

A motion to quash the perjury count, which grew out of Blackburn's testimony that he had no gun at any time during the free-for-all shooting October 20th at Fifty-seventh street and South Parkway was made by the defense some time ago, but was held on call. The court had indicated he would quash the indictment, but permitted the charge to stand when the state promised to secure a faultless indictment.

Blackburn was not in court Monday when the court sustained the motion to quash the perjury indictment. By agreement of counsel he had been permitted to leave the city in order to be in John Henry Lewis' corner for his recent fight in St. Louis.

D.M. Negro Youth Endorses Favorite

HAS BROUCK FOR SAFETY CLUB BEING ORGANIZED

A group of outstanding young men met Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Crocker street branch and organized "The HasBrouck Supporters" club. Henry HasBrouck is a candidate for commissioner of public safety.

The temporary officers of The HasBrouck Supporters club are: Quentin Mease, president; Elbert Webb, vice president; Mack Wilson, secretary; Olonzo Monday, assistant secretary; and James Allen, treasurer; Everett Wadsworth, publicity agent.

The aim of the club is to secure as many supporters as possible for Henry HasBrouck. This is done in an effort to "express the appreciation the colored (6) 4480 Bystander ahf 3-12 people of this city have for Mr. HasBrouck who has done so much for the betterment and aiding of Negro boys and girls."

Already thirty-three supporters have become members of the club and have added their names to the HasBrouck list. It is their urgent request that everyone attend the meeting Sunday at 3:00 P. M. at the Crocker street branch Y. M. C. A. and give their staunch support to its cause.

Mrs. Conkling is War Vet Widow

MRS. WILBUR S. CONKLING

Mrs. Wilbur S. Conkling is a candidate for Finance Commissioner, a position which has been filled successfully by women in the past, and many citizens think now is the time to re-establish the precedent of having a women in charge of that office.

Mrs. Conkling is the widow of Dr. Wilbur S. Conkling who was in command of the 117th Sanitary Train, connected with the Rainbow Division in France. The mother of three children, Mrs. Conkling kept her home together until the family savings were exhausted, and then secured employment.

In the State Auditor's office here in Des Moines Mrs. Conkling gained experience that fits her admirably for the duties of Finance Commissioner. She was a member of the auditing and statistical division of the State Auditor's staff, and was able to gain a

GRAND PRIZES TO BE GIVEN DAILY

By the Staff Writer

Entertainment, prizes, exhibits, style shows await the opening of the Bystander's Third Annual Cooking School and Home Maker's Institute at the Billiken Hall, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Clara Johnson, domestic science expert, will conduct the sessions beginning each evening at eight o'clock. There will be one session on Thursday afternoon for the benefit of servants, butlers, housemaids and other domestic workers who have half holidays on that day.

"You cannot afford to miss these lessons which have been scientifically prepared for your benefit free of charge," Mrs. Johnson said. "And if actually followed will improve your cooking a thousand folds."

The program is as follows:

Wed.—Free hands cooking; Thurs—P. M. Tea, eats. Table Setting Contest, tea served; Thurs. evening—Dinner foods, supper dishes; Fri. — Pies; Bread making and cake making; club suppers.

Baskets of groceries will be given free daily to holders of the lucky numbers and a grand award will be given at the final session.

A modern electric range is to be installed by the Des Moines Electric Light Company. J. R. Gilman, representative of Cartan and Jeffrey Company, grocery brokers, has displayed much interest in this annual affair and has received many dealers of national brands for the school.

An added feature this year will be the display booth sponsored by A. I. Madden of the Federal Housing Administration who will give information and institution on home improvements in government financing.

Besides the K C Baking Powder and

Kyles Parsonage Freed of Taxes

CITY DROPS $157 ASSESSMENT AGAINST CONGREGATION

In answer to a petition filed by the Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor of Corinthian Baptist church, the city council gave its consent to the cancellation of the 1927 assessment and delinquent taxes of $157.69 against the Kyles A. M. E. Zion church parsonage at 701 S. E. Fifteenth street. The house was occupied by the Rev. O. R. Ellis, present pastor.

Last May, the dwelling was sold to a public bidder and was scheduled to become the property of the county this summer.

According to a city ordinance, property used for religious purposes, is exempt by law from taxation, but in 1927 a tax was declared because of a contract for purchase with Elizabeth D. Witmer.

Rev. Robinson said that this property has been used as a parsonage continuously since 1917. The church building and site located at E. Eighteenth and Scott streets was sold and remodeled into a meat packing plant in 1930 by the Bookey Packing Company, who is still operating business there.

Candidates Make Final Talks As Primaries Near

POLITICAL POT BOILS APLENTY THIS WEEK

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

The pre-season rainfall failed to dampen the ardor of the 50 candidates for city council and municipal court offices Tuesday night, just seven days before the primaries which split the contestants in half; Political rallies at St. Paul A. M. E. church, Twelfth and Crocker streets, sponsored by the Young Men's Civic league and at the Billiken hall, Twelfth and Center, sponsored by Herschel Hubbard and James McGee, drew capacity crowds with meetings exactly one block apart.

"A minister has a right to enter politics or any other agency for the upbuilding of society and for the betterment of the community and his fellowman," the Rev. J. A. Alexander, pastor at St. Paul church, said in his speech commending the Civic league. Clarence Adams, chairman, and J. G. Browne, forum leader, presided. Harry Wilson, veteran east side leader, was speaker for George King, streets commissioner.

HasBrouck

Henry HasBrouck, genial candidate for public safety, was given the loudest ovation as "the people's choice," at both meetings. HasBrouck's strength, which has gained daily, was demonstrated as he outlined his policies for the office of public safety "not only as law enforcement but as educational agency."

C. Edwin Moore, the "Beau Brummel" candidate for municipal judge who is well known to Negro voters and numbers many colored people among his friends, stated that his policies of fair play, impartial treatment and strict enforcement of civil rights laws would be continued on the bench as well as before the bar.

E. Lee Keyser, running for parks commissioner who removed Jim Crow signs from his baseball parks, will conduct his office "fearlessly, honestly and as a friend to all," allowing no discrimination in any public property. Roy C. Welch, reelection aspirant for finance commissioner, asked that the colored voters support him in return for his hiring of six Negroes in his office.

Jim Crow Bill

James E. O'Brien, C. C. Putman, Jr., Harry Grund, candidates for judges' bench stressed the needs for better enforcement of the laws. E. A. Elliott, veteran politician, candidate for mayor, told of his early fight for the rights of colored people," as did Joseph Allen who "fought the Jim Crow bill while he was on the hill.' Mass solidarity was asked by Ira Meade, Communist candidate. Several others were given their alloted five minutes to explain their platforms.

Entertainment for dancing at the Billiken was furnished by Boots Jackson's jazz band and refreshments were served free.

I FOUND OUT THAT . . .

Propagandists say that Bailiff E. L. Brookins, who asks re-election, has thrown away his cork leg and is back on his crutches again—for campaign sympathy.

They also say that Bailiff Aspirant Jim Reese's eye path is phoney, too, You know how Dame Rumor is. Both are ex-service men and both were wounded and cited for bravery in France.

The Billiken audience was slightly shocked, and discontented rumbles swept through the crowd as many misunderstood the speaker to have said "nigger." He is a fast talker, and had said "Negro" several times, seemingly as though he wasn't used to saying it. The writer would suggest to this municipal judge candidate that he learn how to articulate properly before colored groups—lest he loses several thousand sepia votes.

G. B. Tucker, speaking for Powell for Safety, concluded his speech dramatically, "and vote on APRIL 17 for this man!" and sat down amid loud laughter and guffaws. The stentorian voice of HasBrouck, his rival, boomed from the back of the room, retorting "That's a good time to vote for him!"

Bob Webb and Mabel Mann, Negroes, are employed at Henry HasBrouck's west side headquarters at 511 Fifth street.

This colorless campaign is a great year for athletes, especially baseball enthusiasts, with Henry HasBrouck, former major league player and umpire; E. Lee Keyser, well known magnate, and C. Edwin Moore, the all-city shortstop from Phillips in the days of grade school ball back in '19.

Chairman Clarence Adams was addressed as "Major Bowes" by Henry HasBrouck at St. Paul church. A large Sunday school bell, resembling a gong, rested on the desk to time the speakers.

The bills said Boots Jackson's jazz band was playing. The signs on the band stand said "C-R!"

(With apologies to Walda goes 'round and 'round.)

Borah Fast Losing Favor With Race

New York March 6—The characterization of the Negro press as "'cowardly and unfair" by Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., in a speech in the house of representatives February 17th was rebuked this week by Walter White, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., who wrote Senator Fish:

"You do neither Senator Borah nor yourself a service when you impugn the integrity and motives of the more than 200 Negro newspapers of the country for their criticisms of Mr. Borah's attitude. They have been among the most valued fighters against lynching in all of its forms."

"BEAT BORAH" CAMPAIGN STARTED IN OHIO

Cleveland, O., March 13—Under the leadership of Dr. George P. Craig of the Cleveland branch of the N. A. A. C. P., a state-wide campaign against Senator William E. Borah is going forward under the slogan, "Beat Borah."

Youth Will Get Life Imprisonment

JAMES HALL IS FOUND GUILTY OF BURGLARY

Receiving the case late Wednesday, a jury returned a verdict of guilty Thursday morning against James E. Hall, jr., 24, who was charged with burglary with aggravation. The trial began Monday in Judge John Holloran's district court. Assistant County Attorney Al Adams prosecuted the case. Charles P. Howard, prominent criminal lawyer, was the attorney for the defense. The sentence carries a term of life imprisonment, the date is set for Saturday, March 21.

Hall was arrested Nov. 8, 1935, on charges of breaking and entering the home of Mrs. Marie Jacque, 1404 E. Seventeenth street, and assaulted her. On the witness stand Tuesday, Hall denied the attack and said that he was in bed when it occurred.

His testimony was corroborated by Mrs. Ollie Hall, his mother, Helen Hall, his sister, and her friend, Henry Kitchen. They said that he arrived home before midnight. The burglary and assault took place about one or two o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Jacque testified. Detectives Emrich and Clarkson said that Hall claimed he was drunk and didn't know what had happened.

City Education Forum Leader Has Busy Schedule Outlined

DR. HAYNES WILL GIVE SERMONS AT ST. PAUL AND CORINTHIAN

Dr. George E. Haynes, executive secretary of race relations of the Federal Council of Churches in New York City, who is one of the city forum leaders, will deliver a lay sermon at the St. Paul A. M. E. church, Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m., the Rev. J. A. Alexander, pastor, announced this week. He will fill the pulpit at 11:00 a. m. services at the Corinthian Baptist church, the Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor, said.

Dr. Haynes addressed the student body of North High School Wednesday. His subject was "Race Relations in the U. S." "Out of the slave system came a race problem which baffled the wisest statesman and most conscientious Christian," he said in his lecture as he traced the growth of the Southern land system from the early English settlement until after the Civil War.

The city forum series begins next week on the subject "Southern United States" as follows: Monday, Bird, Twenty-first and Woodland; Tuesday, Crocker, Sixth and School; Wednesday, Amos Hiatt, East Fifteenth and Garfield; Thursday, Washington Irving, Sixteenth and Forest; Friday, Smouse, Twenty-eighth and Center. All meetings are at 8:00 to 9:15 p.m.

INTERRACIAL MASS MEETING AT WESLEY M. E. CHURCH

The annual city-wide interracial mass meeting sponsored by the interracial department of the Des Moines Council of Churches, will be held at the Wesley M. E. church, E. Eleventh and Des Moines Sts., Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The Rev. R. M. Shipman, president of the council, is pastor. The Rev. Paul E. Becker, chairman of the interracial commission, will preside.

A Negro double quartette under the direction of Mrs. Joburness Kelso will sing a group of spirituals and the interracial message will be delivered by Dr. Geo. E. Haynes, race relations secretary of the Federal Council of Churches, of New York City, who is spending a six weeks' period in Des Moines as lecturer on the Adult Education forum.

An institute will be held at the Central Y.W.C.A., 9th and High sts., Mondayb eginning at 10 a. m., closing with a dinner meeting at 5:30 p. m.

DR. HAYNES HEARD AT KEOKUK MEETING

Keokuk, Iowa (Special)—In an address at the First Baptist church Sunday, Dr. E. Haynes, race relations executive of New York City who is conducting the city forum at Des Moines this month, gave the history of the Negro of American and certain elements necessary for a better understanding between races.

The Rev. Louis McGee, pastor of Bethel A.M.E. church, presided and a special man's chorus under the direction of eLonard Berry, presented a concert of sacred hymns. Mrs. Maceo Bird gave a vocal selection. The Rev. J. L. Pickett, pastor of the Baptist church, introduced Dr. Haynes.

"Negro must not blame the whites for making these discriminations between races," he said in part. "The present system of discrimination must be alleviated before any material understanding may be adjudicated."

Dixie Farmers Go To Regional Meet

Memphis, Tenn., March 13—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace held a farmers' conference at Peabody hotel here March 5, 6 and 7 for the purpose of explaining and discussing the new soil conservation and domestic allotment act recently passed by congress.

This new act includes the preservation and improvement of soil fertility, promotion of land anl diminution of exploitation and wasteful and unscientific use of national soil resources.

This is the first instance where any administration has given such recognition to the race to represent and speak for the 906,000 race farmers who come from every state.

Carnival Dance Plans Are Ready

ANNA MAE WINBURN AT PLA-LAN MONDAY NIGHT

By popular demand, Miss Anna Mae Winburn, lovely debutante, who is director of the Cotton Club Boys of Omaha, Nebraska, will play a return engagement at the gala dance carnival at the Pla-Lan, Seventh and Grand Monday night, T. L. (Speck) Howard, dance proomter, announced.

Horns, balloons, confetti, serpentines, noise makers, and a hot time floor show will be the feature and a large crowd will await Miss Winburn's return. They want to see "Red" Rivers do some more of them "blow me down" steps!

C. EDWIN MOORE CITES RECORD AS ATTORNEY

C. Edwin Moore, who is asking the support of the voters of Des Moines to place him on the judge's bench at the primaries March 17th, cites his record as a lawyer and the results of his office as assistant county attorney with the "muni" court assignment.

Mr. Moore says he has probably had more actual experience in his ten years' of practice as a trial lawyer and a prosecutor than the average lawyer would have to twenty to forty years of law office and court practice.

Mr. Moore has established beyond question, his legal ability to successfully handle the various legal problems that would come to him for solution as a judge.

In criminal court he has to his credit: The defense of four men accused of murder, trials resulting in three acquitals and one conviction. As a prosecutor he has even a better record in similar cases—securing six convictions of seven murder trials.

In civil rights cases he has demonstrated fairness where Negroes are involved and has vigorously prosecuted persistent offenders.

WHY GEORGE KING SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT OF STRETS

The street department, under George King's direction, has prepared and submitted to the Works Progress Administration applications for sixty-nine civic improvements. Twenty-two of these improvements are now under way, the remainder can be started as soon as weather and other conditions permit.

Thirty-three hundred men are now employed on these projects. Additional employment can be furnished for 2,000 more men as the remaining jobs are started. Daily WPA payroll on street department projects now exceeds $10,000.

The streets department has operated within its budget and is now working at full capacity patching the many holes in asphalt pavements due to the worst winter in history. One hundred miles of streets are to be graveled under this employment program, supervised by the street department, without assessment against the owners of abutting property.

LESLIE O. ROSS OF SIDNEY ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

Leslie O. Ross is a candidate for the democratic nomination for secretary of state at the June, 1936, primary election. In 1926 he was elected clerk of the district court later relelected, and has been actively identived with county agricultural activities. "Well remembering the farmers' situation in 1932, I have thoroughly endorsed that which has been done for them by the present democratic administration," he said.

"If elected to the office of secretary of state, it will be conducted with the same efficiency and breadth of vision which has characterized the regime of the present democratic incumbent," he concluded.

EX-Q-IN IS OLD ESTABLISHED REMEDY FOR ALL AILMENTS

"Have you wondered, what is EX-Q-IN?" It is common knowledge that wonderful results are being obtained, through the use of minerals, to produce health.

The lack of minerals in the body are very often responsible for such diseases as rheumatism, sinus, miners asthma, hay fever, stomach and general nervous rundown conditions. When the right amount of minerals are balanced in the system the health is good.

This is the service of EX-Q-IN. It is not a laxative. It is a food in liquid form. EX-Q-IN restores that which disease, abuse and worry have wrecked. For sale in quarts or gallons at 1217 Grand. For further information call 4-8702.

What Others Say

BROWN COMPARES MAYORALITY CANDIDATES RECORDS

Editor Bystander:

At a recent public meeting I introduced Senator Joe H. Allen to a group of Des Moines Negro voters by reciting the fact that he had helped to kill the Jim Crow Marriage Bill that was introduced in the Iowa Legislature back in 1913; and in that same address I referred to the fact that a certain other candidate for Mayor of Des Moines, who is soliciting the support the support of Negro voters had helped to pass a similar measure through the lower House of our State Legislature just a few years ago.

Having been asked to make my latter statement more specific, I am writing now to state that the candidate referred to as having supported the pernicious Jim Crow legislation is Rev. E. A. Elliott, who was in 1925 a member of the lower House of the 41st General Assembly, which actually passed a Jim Crow Marriage Bill, which was officially known as House File No. 92 by Long.

Any one who will take the trouble to consult the House Journal of the 41st General Assembly will find on page 329 of that Journal that on Feb. 16th, 1925, the Long Bill or House File No. 92, was recommended by the Committee for indefinite postponement but, the recommendation of the committee was voted down and the Bill put upon its passage and that it was actually passed by the House, the Rev. E. A. Elliott voting "Aye".

Very respectfully yours,
S. Joe Brown.

Editor Bystander:

Having been asked by a number of my friends what particular service Joe H. Allen had rendered to our racial group that entitles him to their united support for the office of Mayor which he now seeks, I desire to cite just one instance of the many of which I have personal knowledge, during the forty-two years that I have known him.

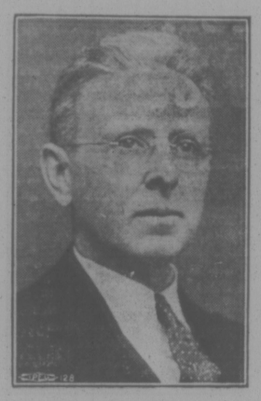

Those who have been in Iowa long enough and are old enough will remember that the first "Jim Crow" legislation ever proposed in our State Legislature in recent years, was the pernicious "Jim Crow Marriage Bill" introduced into the Legislature of 1913 by Representative Chas. Miller of Bremer county known as House File No. 8 of the 35th General Assembly.

This Bill actually passed the House of Representatives but was recommended for indefinite postponement by the Senate of which Senator Joe H. Allen, then of Pocahontas County, was a member.

The Senate Journal of that session at page 1017 shows that on March 18th, 1913, the senate had before it the recommendation of the Committee to indefinitely postpone or to kill this pernicious Bill and that upon the calling of the roll the first name called was that of Senator Joe H. Allen and that without waiting to find out what other senators might do Senator Allen voted to kill the Bill and was followed by twenty-six other resulting in the deafeat of this pernicious measure by a vote of twenty-seven to sixteen, which to my mind should have endeared him to every Negro in Iowa, for at this time he was representing a district that contained practically no Negro voters and was under no obligations to us as a race; but merely voted the sentiment of his heart which has always been in sympathy with the poor and the oppressed.

S. Joe Brown.

Yours for Allen for Mayor,

M. G. WILKINSON
of Adel, Dallas County, seeks nomination as Republican Candidate for Congress from the Sixth iDstrict of Iowa. The Rev. Wilkinson has spent 20 years as pastor there. He will not be a "rubber stamp" congressman.

NEGRO IN HISTORY TO BE SHOWN IN PAGEANT

The group who will present the pageant, "The Negro in History," arranged by Mrs. S. Joe Brown at the offices of Atty. S. Joe Brown on Wednesday evening, at which time most of the characters were assigned.

Another meeting will be held there on Thursday evening of next week. The pageant is to be presented at St. Paul church on Thursday, April 2nd.

SOLEMN PUBLIC NOVENA TO BE HELD IN HONOR OF THE LITTLE FLOWER

The March solemn public novena in honor of the Little Flower and the Crucified Redeemer will begin at the Little Flower Shrine in St. Peter's church, East Eighteenth and Des Moines streets, Saturday, March 14 and close Sunday, March 22.

The first six days the hours of devotion will be at 6:30 in the morning. The last three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 20, 21 and 22 the hours of devotion will be at 6:30 in the morning and 7:45 in the evening. Every one is invited the last three days in the evening.

This is the holy season of Lent, a time of sacrifice and penance. This is the time we commemorate the sufferings and death of Our Divine Lord. This is the object of the March Novena. The sermons the last three evenings will be on the Passion of Our Lord.

"Elephant-Bear's" Bones in U. S. National Museum

Bones of a great beast that looked like a bear, had feet rather like an elephant's, but was not very nearly related to either animal, are on display in the Smithsonian institution in Washington. The fossils were found in the Big Horn Basin region in Wyoming. The skeleton was embedded in a matrix of stone, says Science Service.

The creature, known to scientists as Coryphodon, was heavy-bodied like a tapir and not quite so high at the shoulder as an ox. It probably was pretty much "boss" in its day, some sixty million years ago, for its great bulk was reinforced by a pair of formidable 8-inch tusks in its jaws.

Coryphodon's foot bones are what especially intrigue scientists. The animal neither walked flat-footed like a bear nor up on the ends of its thick toes like a modern elephant. It seems to have been progressing in the latter direction, however, especially in its forefeet which bore the greater part of its weight. Its gait probably was a slow shuffle, like that of the modern elephant.

In the same region where the elephant-bear flourished there lived also the earlier types of horses. The latter line has survived, while the bigger, more dominant brute has perished. The horse-ancestors made up for their lesser bulk and fighting ability by greater agility and brain capacity, and therefore greater adaptability. The elephant-bear, a massive, stubborn conservative, was beaten by a changing world which it could neither understand nor get used to.

Many Miles of Chewing Gum Consumed Annually

Over 100,000 miles of chewing gum are sold every year, the major portion being consumed in the United States, states the Montreal Herald.

Chewing gum in its raw state is the juice of a tree known as the sapote, which grows in various parts of Central America.

The sapote is a graceful tree, with a straight trunk some forty feet high. It is tapped very much after the manner of a rubber tree, spiral cuts being made in the bark, through which the juice runs down the trunk to jars placed at the foot.

The sap, or "chicle," as it is called, looks like milk when it first enters the jar, but on exposure the color changes to a dull yellow, and thickens until it is almost like sirup.

The gum is taken out of the jars and boiled down in huge pots, after which it is kneaded and excess moisture is squeezed out. It is then molded into large loaves, cooled, and wrapped in canvas for exportation to the chewing gum factory.

In the factory it is mixed and boiled in copper vats to the desired thickness, and sugar is added with flavoring essences.

Occupation of Cyprus

On June 4, 1878, Great Britain, by treaty with the sultan of Turkey, took over the occupation and administration of Cyprus. The Turks remained nominal sovereigns, and received an annual "tribute" of £92,800. At the outbreak of the war with Turkey, November 5, 1914, Cyprus was formally annexed to the British crown and became an integral part of the empire. At that time it was announced that every Ottoman subject residing on the island would become a British subject, unless he stated in writing his desire to retain his Ottoman nationality. With very few exceptions, the Greek residents accepted with enthusiasm and the Turks without demur. However the so-called "Turkish tribute" is still paid, borne by the revenues of the island.

Many Uses for Cacti

Cacti are put to many uses. They furnish fruit known as Indian figs. Some cactus plant pulps of the texture of melon rind are made into conserves like orange or citron peel and sold or made into candy. From other cacti drugs used medicinally, or deadly poisons, are extracted. The lophophoras yields peyote that temporarily turn its addicts into irresponsible madmen. Some sturdy cactaceous structures serve as fence posts, timbers for mines, or even as material for Indian huts. Cacti use really ranges from seeds ground into flour for food to living plants set thickly for impenetrable fences.—Los Angeles Times.

The Gaelic Word "Baile"

The Gaelic word "Baile" (pronounced "Bail-ya"), meaning a town, was formerly used to denote any group of dwellings or settlements larger than a mere village and the name of the local chief was added, says Pearson's Weekly. Thus we have Bally-martin, Bally-honan, etc. Where there was no local lord or chief of sufficient importance to be thus honored, the town was distinguished by some peculiarity of the surrounding neighborhood, e.g., Bail-na-hinch—or Ballynahinch—"the town-of-the-islands."

The Maidu Indians

The Maidu Indians is a group of small tribes in California, belonging to the Pen-Utian linguistic family, and formerly located on the Sacramento river. Of the three divisions—valley, foothill and mountain tribes—the valley Indians were the most prosperous and culturally developed. Originally numbering between 8,000 and 10,000, there are less than 1,000, living chiefly at the Round Valley reservation, California.

Negro voters will recognize in these organizations, groups which have given their young people absolutely fair and impartial consideration in their program. If elected to office she will carry to it that fair and impartial consideration of all that has characterized her public life. She believes that Negroes are entitled to fair representation in our government and will be guided by this principle in the administration of the office.

A good record is the best recommendation of future performances. Elliott has that record.

This is no time for experiments, that it is a time to put men in public office that have been a success.

Mr. Elliott does not lose sight of the fact that the employment problem hits the Negro harder than any other group. His record has been fair on this question and he promises that the same principles of fairness and adequate representation will not be overlooked in the administration of his office.

THE HOME INSTITUTE

The object of any business institution is to make money. Along with this privilege goes a corresponding duty on the part of business to give back to the community a service growing out of support which its constituents give. The Bystander had this in mind when it conducted its first cooking school; it has this in mind in putting on the enlarged Home Institute and Cooking School next week.

At this affair men, women and children will be taught how to keep better homes on an economical basis with modern methods by people who know from experience.

The best possible products demonstrated by the best equipped people has been kept in mind in the selection of personnel, foods and equipment. The Institute is absolutely free to everyone.

The Bystander knows by past attendance records and the interest shown by the people that its efforts in this and other community projects have been appreciated. It has asked and received constructive suggestions from the public. When given they have and will be followed wherever and whenever possible with the idea of giving wholesome community service to the public.

VOTE TUESDAY

The citizens of Des Moines go to the polls Tuesday to nominate candidates for city offices. Most of those to be voted on have appeared before audiences where their platforms have been explained; all have lived in the community and their records can be checked; all have backers from whom conclusions may be drawn as to the company they keep; all have made promises of some kind.

Of course, The Bystander is interested that every citizen uses his franchise; it is interested in electing qualified persons to office. However, the first question is his attitude and what he proposes to do for the Negro.

Unlike county, state and national elections there is no party vote. Generally a candidate is elected on his own strength or the weakness of his opponent. Consequently those people only who offer definite adequate representation to the Negro voters should be supported.

It is obvious that no city administration is giving the Negro adequate representation; some are doing absolutely nothing. Keep these things in mind when you cast your vote Tuesday.

WE HAVE NO RACE

If the question was put to a vote in any nation today whether it should or should not go to war the decision could be foretold in advance; NO. Yet the citizens of every European nation and even Americans are nervous lest their leaders thrust them in a position where they will be forced to fight one of these "wars for the defense of their country."

Unfortunately for some countries, the people have allowed a group of leaders to head their government who harbor selfish ambitions. In their desperation to maintain their selfish leadership they thrust their countries into positions from which it is hard to retreat with grace and national honor and then trouble arises.

The Bystander believes in peace. It believes in the maintenance of institutions tending to promote peace between nations and races. However, it recognizes that men have not gone far enough toward civilization to maintain peace by mutual agreement and understanding.

Too many leaders sign solemn treaties and break them whenever the occasion demands and the other signers through fear or secret alliances refuse to insist on their enforcement. On many occasion The Bystander has stated that a court without a sheriff to enforce its decrees is no court at all; the same principle prevails with regard to any organization set up to maintain peace between nations.

Such an organization may envolve the nations in a great war in the future. But it is bound to come if nations are to ever learn that their agreements to keep peace mean what they say.

N. A. A. C. P. WILL CONTINUE TO PRESS HOLLINS CASE

New York, March 6—The fight for the freedom of Jess Hollins, convicted a third time in Oklahoma on a charge of criminal assault, will be continued by Oklahoma attorneys acting for the N. A. A. C. P., it was announced here today. The legal battle will be continued despite the fact that Hollins has signed a sworn statement saying that he is content to serve a life sentence because he fears that a new trial might result in the death verdict.

Cecil E. F. Robertson of Muskogee, Okla., the colored attorney who was associated with two white attorneys in defending Hollins, has written the national office here that the verdict of life imprisonment is unconstitutional under Oklahoma law, because of the assumption by the jury of powers which it does not have under the constitution.

NEGRO PRESIDENT OF CHRISTIAN YOUTH COUNCIL SCORES Lynchings and Wars

Rochester, N. Y., March 5—(CNA) Martin L. Harvey, the young Negro president of the Christian Youth Council of North America told the fifty white delegates to the Youth Conference in session here this week that the youth must lead the struggle for a new and better society.

"Christians have prattled too long about brotherhood, but have failed to be specified," he stated. "They are complacent about preparations for future mass murder and are unconcerned about child labor, lynching, racial segregation and the liquor traffic."

Mr. Harvey addressed several mass meetings in Des Moines last July.

SENATE LYNCHING PROBE DEADLOCKED IN COMMITTEE

Washington, March 6—The resolution providing for a senate investigation of the lynchings in 1935, which took place after May 1, is held in the senate committee on audit by a deadlock vote, it became known here this week. The resolution already has been reported favorably by the judiciary committee, which recommended that the sum of $7,500 be allotted for the investigation. The audit committee has to approve this amount.

There is a strong undercurrent in Washington trying to discourage all controversial subjects in this election year, so as to permit early adjournment of congress and no embarrassment during the campaign.

MOREHOUSE STUDENTS PAY IMPRESSIVE TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT JOHN HOPE

Atlanta, Georgia, March 6—(Special)—At a simple morning service in the chapel where successive generations of college men had listened to his teachings, the students of Morehouse college February 26th paid tribute to Dr. John Hope, who for thirty-eight years worked for the upbuilding of the institution. Gathered with the Morehouse men were the students of Spelman college and Atlanta university and the family of the president.

At the close of the service the gathering filed to the grave of Dr. Hope on the nearby Atlanta university campus, where a wreath was laid and a pledge taken by the men of Morehouse to hold sacred and dear the ideals of the college as conceived and taught by ther beloved leader.

The memorial exercises, arranged and conducted entirely by students, are to be repeated each year on the 20th of February, the anniversary of President Hope's death. To the end that this custom shall be perpetuated, the president of the student body charged the present junior class to carry on the ceremony next year ond to pass the charge along to succeeding classes.

ICKES, SPEAKING AT HOWARD, HITS RED-BAITING OF SCHOOLS

Washington, March 13—(CNA)—Hearstian red-baiting of colleges and universities was assailed by Secretary Ickes in an address to Howard university students last Monday.

The interior secretary declared that "the sinister purposes of those who would establish a Fascist state on our free American soil are clear from the very nature of this bold assault upon our institutions of higher learning."

B. S. G.—Please tell me do you think I should make a change of residence under the remaining conditions?

Ans.: Yes—For it seems to me that the LANDLORD is not the least bit interested in keeping the property fixed up and you could live in a much nicer place than what you have for the same money.

M. W.—Would it benefit me to follow out my plans concerning a career?

Ans.: You have reached the age in life where it is very essential for you to choose a CAREER and it is my impression that the one you have in mind is your best talent. Confide your ideas to your mother and she will guide you successfully.

W. C. B.—Will my former girl friend and me ever make up again or is it useless for me to continue to hang around her? I really love her and can't seem to forget her.

Ans.: You have made a NUISANCE of yourself . . . when she told you that she did not care for your company you should have left her alone instead of hanging around her. I do not see her as ever changing her mind . . . but it does seem to me that another young lady will take her place in your heart this year.

S. M. C.—I am looking for employment and wonder if I will get the job that I applied for?

Ans.: I contact your working in a very exclusive TEA ROOM. you will enjoy the work and will remain there for a long time. Keep after this job.

W. E. F.—Did I do the right thing by not admitting the person who called at my home several nights ago?

Ans.: You did . . . for his excuse alone was not logical. This party did not know you nor did he know anyone in your community. He was out to see what he could get . . . he won't return.

D. M.—My friend claims that he wants to marry me and I want to know if I should take him seriously? I don't think I should.

Ans.: If he really wanted to marry you he wouldn't make so many excuses when the time came for the CEREMONY to be performed. He is stringing you along and the quicker you make up your mind to quit seeing him the quicker you will find happiness with someone else.

FREE ADMISSION, FREE BASKETS TO EVERYONE

Everything is FREE at the Bystander Cooking School which will be at Billiken Hall March 18, 19 and 20. Instructive information will be given and receipes and dishes will be prepared in full view of the audience by Mrs. Clara Johnson, culinary expert. Four sessions will be conducted showing a full course dinner.

Booth exhibits in home craft will be shown, souvenir samples of the national brands of foods will be given, style show, and home improvement and health talks are some of the other improvements planned.

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Food Stores, Peter Pan Stores, Clark's Fish Market, Tones Bros, coffee and spice importers are cooperating in advertising and display. Several out-of-town people will attend the school this year. Plans are made to accomodate large crowds.

SEVEN NEGRO LEADERS TO PREPARE LONE STAR EXHIBIT

Dallas, Texas—Eugene Kinckle Jones, adviser on Negro affairs, Washington, D. C., has been appointed advisory committee chairman on Negro affairs at the Texas Centennial Exposition, World's Fair of 1936, opening in Dallas on June 6th and closing November 29th. The appointment was made by Dr. John W. Studebaker, United States commissioner of education, Washington.

W. R. Banks, principal of the Prairie View State college of Prairie View, Texas, was named by Dr. Studebaker as the Texas member of the commitee of seven Negro national lealers.

The federal government has appropriated $100,000 toward the exhibit, half of which has been set aside for the building and the other $50,000 to be spent in assembling the exhibit. The Negro exhibit is being prepared in Washington. It will depict the progress made by the race, both educationally and industrially.

N. Y. COTTON CLUB CLOSES FOR SEASON

New York, Feb. 28—The famous Cotton Club, known through radio and press as "The Aristocrat of Harlem," closed its doors last Saturday, marking the first time the place has been shut since its opening years ago. Starks, manager of the place, says the closing is only temporary and adds that "the club will open in April a bigger and better Cotton club."

Speculation has been along the rialto for some time that the place would have to shut down, but up until the day of closing the management denied this.

The Ubangi, owned by the same people who run the Cotton club, has been doing all the big time business in Harlem, while Connie's Inn on Broadway has kept the big shots from Broadway from coming to Harlem in search of amusement by Negro performers.

Lewis, McAvoy Meet in Title Go

John Henry Lewis, world's light-heavyweight champion, will climax a busy winter season, when he meets Jock McAvoy, the English middle and light-heavyweight titleholder in a 15-round championship match in Madison Square Garden tonight. Lewis has been one of the busiest fighters in the game during the past year, engaging in 16 bouts during 1935, and has met 8 title claimants since lifting the crown from the brow of Bob Olin last October.

The champ has been pronounced in perfect condition by ring experts, having just spent two weeks at the Pompton Lakes camp where Joe Louis trained for the Carnera and Baer fights. McAvoy in compiling an impressive record, both in this country and abroad, has proved a hard hitting and willing mixer and is favored by some to take our boy in this encounter. In any event, it should be a honey of a fight, one of the best of the year, with both boys conceded an even chance. With Jack Blackburn in his corner, our coin goes on the champ.

Two Negro boys won titles in the finals of the Annual Golden Gloves bouts held in Chicago last Friday. Milton Shivers, 160 pounder of Detroit, walked off with the middleweight title, while Jackie Wilson of Cleveland annexed the flyweight crown. Shivers, a former pal of Joe Louis, won the middleweight diadem by scoring a second round knockout over another Negro lad, Al Wardlow of Dayton, O. Shivers and Wilson are assured trips to the Olympics this summer with the champions of other divisions, to participate in the international bouts in Berlin.

Rens Lose to Celtics

The New York Renaissance dropped a hard fought 36 to 31 game with the New York Celtics in Chicago last Friday night for the world's professional basketball title. In a torrid game, enlivened by several displays of fisticuffs, the Rens could not cope with the scoring punch provided the Celtics by two newcomers, Burch and Hickey, although Fats Jenkins sank three buckets from difficult angles and Tarzan Cooper and Saitch were standouts at their positions. The two clubs will meet in New York later in the season.

Alabama State Teachers defeated the pick of southern colleges in winning the third annual Southern Conference basketball tournament held at Tuskegee last week. The teachers disposed of Morehouse College in the final game by a score of 37 to 29.

The Erl-Kings started off with a rush in their new equipment, handing the Reeds Ice Cream team a 57 to 37 shellacking last Wednesday night. Bunny Wilson led the assault on the losers chalking up 21 points for high point honors of the evening, closely followed by Bert Moore who tallied 16 points. Jamo Moore was all over the floor playing his usual good defensive game, besides snagging five baskets and a charity toss. Paul Woods joined in the spirit of the occasion and turned in his best performance of the season and registered seven markers. The strong Carlisle Standard team will provide the opposition this week, with the strong Marshalltown Independents coming to town a week hence.

The Spiders dropped another close game, this time to the West Siders, by a 28 to 26 count. Bill Lyghtner, playing his Connecticut brand of basketball, was the scoring threat for the Spiders sinking three of his one-handed specialties, while Clarence Weston grabbed three baskets in his rambles over the floor.

Burns M. E. provided the upset of the league season by downing the loop leading St. Paul A.M.E. aggregation 30 to 24 in the feature game last Friday. The Saints, playing without the services of Bunny Wilson and Bus Brown ,could not cope with the inspired Burns crew, who smelled blood and were not to be denied. This defeat dropped St. Paul into a virtual tie with the Raiders, who won a disputed game from the Spiders by a 31 to 19 margin. Corinthian Baptist and the "Y" Stars hooked up into an interesting tussle, both teams using improvised lineups, were not as strong as usual, but the Baptist contingent finally pulled the game out of the fire to win 20 to 16. A bunch of east side youngsters comprising the Hawkeye club, are setting the pace in the junior league by virtue of a 28 to 25 victory over the Blackhawks in a bang-up before them in drubbing the Bombers in a 20 to 5 victory among the preps.

Trotters vs. Drake

The Original Harlem Globe Trotters, the outfit featuring "Dan" Dennis, "Killer" Johnson, and "Rabbi" McDonald are scheduled to meet the Drake Collegians, a team composed of former Drake players of this and other years, at the fieldhouse Tuesday night. This aggregation of Trotters are the favorites of local cage fans, and having appeared only once before in the city this season, a large crowd is certain to be on hand to watch them perform their usually entertaining act of basketball magic.

Lawrence Redrick and George Robinson aided Drake in winning another Missouri Valley indoor track crown. The former placed second in the high jump and the latter was lead-off man for the winning Blue and White mile relay team.

Sylvia Sidney, Fred MacMurray, Henry Fonda, and in fact the entire marvelous cast in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" do such powerful dramatic work that the audience almost forgets to fully enjoy the all-color beauty of the outdoor backgrounds.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," a veritable symphony of nature's own exquisite browns and greens, with glorious flashes of the blue of mountain lakes and the brilliant red of fire is at the Des Moines and Roosevelt theatres this week, as those audiences experience for the first time th thrill of watching an outdoor drama in the new perfected technicolor process. Sylvia Sidney, Fred MacMurray, Henry Fonda, Fred Stone, Spankie McFarland, Beulah Bondi and Fuzzy Knight are the stars.

Paramount

The companion picture with "Exclusive Story" playing at the Paramount theatre through Monday nighb is "Three Live Ghosts," an interesting dramatic comedy of three war veterons and their problems.

Returning Hits

The companion feature with "Collegiate" and playing through Monday niht at the Strand theatre is "Thunder in the Night," a tense dramatic story, with Edmund Lowe. Starting Tuesday, "Little America." The companion comedy is "It's a Great Life," featuring Chic Sales.

Downtown at the Garden theatre the week-end brings another return showing of "Mutiny on the Bounty," with Clark Gable and "Hop-a-long Cassiday," with William Boyd.

By "You Don't Know Who, Do You?"

"And now my friends, if you vote for this man, he will do.....for you.... Don't mind me my friends, that's just the political influence around me that has got me this way—Congrats to MMM for his excellent column last week—His colleague and pal would like to know who he hasn't made the Olympics yet—Say G. W. (standby), maybe its the feminine influence and night life that's got him.

Oh I found out that—besides Old Man Mose Being Dead that Willie Lightner, who appeared at basketball the other evening minus his flannel pants, that look like longies, was one of the very attentive spectators of "Follow the Fleet" Sunday with??? No names mentioned.

That this is just one of those things!!—A certain gentleman who resides in Highland Park gave his once "steady" of 12th street the run around for another Highland Park lassie who gave him the 'shut out' for an Ames guy. Quite a three-sided affair . . .

That a certain mellow East side chick has been paying marked attention to Sequoia Buford . . .

That Albert (Susabelle, Pollyann, Carmen, and Susie) Thomas of 1626 Buchanan street, who dared me to put his name in this column, can out cheat you in any and everything you play—including hearts—His girl friend "Max" certainly had some swelegeant pictures taken . . .

That most of the younger set, although unable to vote, are for Has Brouck . . .

That another popular maid on the East side whose boy friend is C. D. seems to sort of 'down and out' on Sundays. Wonder why? . . .

That eight femmes rocked over to the AKA sorority party Friday in a mellow chariot after being set up to ginger ale and gum. The donor was a modest young gentleman who lives on the "Dozens street"—Y'know 12th . . .

That L. J.'s friends are humming quite surreptitiously "There's Gonna Be a Wedding in June" around him.—But pals 'yknow you never can tell . .

That a certain friend of "Squawkie" Buford's believes in being generous with his public appearances.—He just dances for you any where. Yers truie noted him at the Community Center and at West giving Eddie Boone, a veteran, a few pointers.—Chalk him up a point, Braddie, cause I got his name . . .

That "ART", my old palsy-walsy, saw her Billsy-Willsy Sunday.

That V. Mann was noted rocking up Center toward 14th street the other Sunday . . .

That Arnold (Grandpop) Wiley says I never give the Cavaliers a break and put their names in the column.—Sorry Grandpop, I thought I was being impartial . . .

That this same guy who lives on 12th has also been paying a great deal of attention to the former Bystander society editor. . . .

That T. F. has been noted with a certain young lady who lives on that street between Buchanan and University—Now "T", Mama don't 'low none of that 'round here . . .

That I get the greatest of pleasures out of calling 3-5611.—This is a secret though—from out of nowhere . . .

That Friday the 13th means nothing to most of us—except another evening to go to basketball . . .

That Miss G. T. (Clara) has the cutest boy friend in the person of Paul W.

That I am anxiously and enthusiatically awaiting the time when I meet A. G. of Valley Junction . . . .

That Ruth Fulton rates with a certain Chicago boy who comes to see her quite often—Quite handsome he is too.

That Bob Brooks has aspirations of being an efficient mortician some day.

That I haven't seen Evelyn Hayes in a long time, so I'm wondering if she has gone into seclusion.

That little Jim Morrow is an awfully nice kid.

That George (Big-time and Hotstuff) Manuel thinks it is an insult to be in this column — but what's the diff, this won't be the first one . . .

That G. Smith thinks the column is N.G. and only fit for the waste container—So-o-o-o-o don't take off your flannels because we have a few 40 and 50 degrees days, there are still bound to be some 16 degrees days yet.

Yors,
WALDA.

P. S.—My boys have come thru at last. Larry Redwick and G. Warren Robinson, Jr., traveled to South Bend, Ind., Thursday with Drake's track team to enter the meet at Notre Dame. While there they will compete with nationally known track teams.

OBITUARY

Mable Higgins Washington was born in Randolph county, Missouri, August 7, 1893, and died in Iowa City March 7, 1936. She was married to Squire Higgins in 1912 who died in 1930, and later married to James H. Washington who died in 1933. She was a member of the Northern Methodist Church and later of the Seventh Day Adventist church. Three daughters and other relatives survive. Funeral service was held Wednesday at Seventh Day Adventist Church. Rev. R. T. Hudson officiated. Interment at Glendale cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank the friends for the kindness during illness and at the death of our loved one, Mrs. Mable Higgins Washington; donation of cars, beautiful floral display; to thank Rev. R. T. Hudson and Rev. A. J. Jordon for their inspiring remarks and L. Fowler & Son for their efficient service.—Miss Mary Higgins, Miss Orzealyea Higgins, and Miss Charlotte Higgins, daughters.

Mrs. Edmunds will be introduced by Mrs. Adah Johnson, first vice president of the State Federation who will be in charge of the program. Additional numbers on the program will be given by members of the Charmante club, who will be hostesses for the evening. Assisting hostesses will be from the W. C. T. U., Treble Leaf Art and Twentieth Century clubs.

The Federation is planning a gigantic carnival to be held soon.

The Virginia Picnic association will meet at the Community Center on Sunday at 5:00 o'clock, Harrison Gould, president, announced.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By "You Don't Know Who, Do You!"

"And now my friends, if you vote for this man, he will do.....for you.... Don't mind me my friends, that's just the political influence around me that has got me this way—Congrats to MMM for his excellent column last week—His colleague and pal would like to know who he hasn't made the Olympics yet—Say G. W. (standby), maybe its the feminine influence and night life that's got him.

Oh I found out that—besides Old Man Mose Being Dead that Willie Lyghtner, who appeared at basketball the other evening minus his flannel pants, that look like longies, was one of the very attentive spectators of "Follow the Fleet" Sunday with??? No names mentioned.

That this is just one of those things!!—A certain gentleman who resides in Highland Park gave his once "steady" of 12th street the run around for another Highland Park lassie who gave him the 'shut out' for an Ames guy. Quite a three-sided affair . . .

That a certain mellow East side chick has been paying marked attention to Sequoia Buford . . .

That Albert (Susabelle, Pollyann, Carmen, and Susie) Thomas of 1626 Buchanan street, who dared me to put his name in this column, can out cheat you in any and everything you play—including hearts—His girl friend "Max" certainly had some swelegeant pictures taken . . .

That most of the younger set, although unable to vote, are for Has Brouck . . .

That another popular maid on the East side whose boy friend is C. D. seems to sort of 'down and out' on Sundays. Wonder why? . . .

That eight femmes rocked over to the AKA sorority party Friday in a mellow chariot after being set up to ginger ale and gum. The donor was a modest young gentleman who lives on the "Dozens street"—Y'know 12th . . .

That L. J.'s friends are humming quite surreptitiously "There's Gonna Be a Wedding in June" around him.—But pals 'yknow you never can tell . .

That a certain friend of "Squawkie" Buford's believes in being generous with his public appearances.—He just dances for you any where. Yers truie noted him at the Community Center and at West giving Eddie Boone, a veteran, a few pointers.—Chalk him up a point, Braddie, cause I got his name . . .

That "ART", my old paisy-walsy, saw her Billsy-Willsy Sunday.

That V. Mann was nee Rocking up Center toward 14th street the other Sunday . . .

That Arnold (Grandpop) Wiley says I never give the Cavaliers a break and put their names in the column.—Sorry Grandpop, I thought I was being impartial . . .

That this same guy who lives on 12th has also been paying a great deal of attention to the former Bystander society editor. . . .

That T. F. has been noted with a certain young lady who lives on that street between Buchanan and University—Now "T", Mama don't low none of that 'round here . . .

That I get the greatest of pleasures out of calling 3-5611.—This is a secret though—from out of nowhere . . .

That Friday the 13th means nothing to most of us—except another evening to go to basketball. . .

That Miss G. T. (Clara) has the cutest boy friend in the person of Paul W.

That I am anxiously and enthusiatically awaiting the time when I meet A. G. of Valley Junction . . .

That Ruth Fulton rates with a certain Chicago boy who comes to see her quite often—Quite handsome he is too.

That Bob Brooks has aspirations of being an efficient mortician some day.

That I haven't seen Evelyn Hayes in a long time, so I'm wondering if she has gone into seclusion.

That little Jim Morrow is an awfully nice kid.

That George (Big-time and Hot-stuff) Manuel thinks it is an insult to be in this column—but what's the diff, this won't be the first one . . .

That G. Smith thinks the column is N.G. and only fit for the waste container—So-o-o-o-o don't take off your flannels because we have a few 40 and 50 degrees days, there are still bound to be some 16 degrees days yet.

Yors,
WALDA.

P. S.—My boys have come thru at last. Larry Redwick and G. Warren Robinson, Jr., traveled to South Bend, Ind., Thursday with Drake's track team to enter the meet at Notre Dame. While there they will compete with nationally known track teams.

OBITUARY

Mable Higgins Washington was born in Randolph county, Missouri, August 7, 1893, and died in Iowa City March 7, 1936. She was married to Squire Higgins in 1912 who died in 1930, and later married to James H. Washington who died in 1933. She was a member of the Northern Methodist Church and later of the Seventh Day Adventist church. Three daughters and other relatives survive. Funeral service was held Wednesday at Seventh Day Adventist Church. Rev. R. T. Hudson officiated. Interment at Glendale cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank the friends for the kindness during illness and at the death of our loved one, Mrs. Mable Higgins Washington; donation of cars, beautiful floral display; to thank Rev. R. T. Hudson and Rev. A. J. Jordon for their inspiring remarks and L. Fowler & Son for their efficient service.—Miss Mary Higgins, Miss Orzealyea Higgins, and Miss Charlotte Higgins, daughters.
