Pass Resolutions Condemning Wave of Three Mob Murders

Decatur, Ga., May 22.—Resolutions condemning "unreservedly the three lynchings which have been committed in Georgia this year," were passed by members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Decatur-Oxford district, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the annual district conference held here recently.

Pledging itself to "stand foursquare against mob violence for any cause," the society went on record as opposing "all emotional upheavals based on racial prejudice in our state, in our country, and in our church." Mrs. E. C. McDowell, of Social Circle, district secretary, presided.

The resolutions follow: "Without offering any excuse for the people of our state, we, members of the Methodist Missionary Society, working toward a Christian America, condemn unreservedly the three lynchings which have been committed in Georgia this year. We recognize that such violations of all the principles for which we stand as Christians fear, and racial prejudice are used and Americans will not cease, but will continue to grow as long as hatred, emotional upheavals based on racial prejudices in political campaigns.

"Resolutions against lynchings are ineffective unless we make our resolutions a passionate conviction which will not let us hold our peace as long as lynchings are committed. "We pledge ourselves to stand foursquare against mob violence for any cause. We shall oppose all emotional upheavals based on racial prejudice in our state, in our country, and in our church."

War Ace Reception Marred By Rioting

POLICE BATTLE 700 AS COL. ROBINSON LANDS

NEW YORK, May 22.—Rioting spread through the streets of Harlem when two emergency squads and 20 mounted policemen charged a crowd of demonstrators, wielding indiscriminately their night sticks over the heads of men, women and children at 129th street and Lenox avenue.

The demonstration was staged in honor of Col. John Robinson, former air ace of Emperor Haile Selassie, who arrived in New York Monday night from Ethiopia.

Feeling has run high in the Lenox avenue sector since the execution by the Italians of several thousand Ethiopians including the giant former aide of the Emperor who had become familiar to Harlemites through his photographs.

For nearly two hours, Monday night, 110 bewildered patrolmen fought hand to hand with a mob of 700 people.

Braddock Guest at Joe Louis Party

"THINK I CAN WHIP HIM THOUGH," JIM SAYS IN INTERVIEW

LAKEWOOD, N. J., May 22.—Champion Jim Braddock, here last Wednesday to attend a birthday party in Joe Louis' honor, returned Sunday to witness the Bomber in action and the title holder left talking to himself. Just what Big Jim was saying is something that may never be known for not even his manager will know that.

One thing Braddock did say after the workout is that Joe Louis can hit. "I think he can hit hard enough to beat most any man if he lands and the big fellow rarely misses," Champion Jim said after the workout. "Do you think you can beat him?" That was the question reporters asked Braddock.

"Yes, I do. I think my experience and superior boxing sense would stop the youngster," Braddock added. "Do you expect to fight Joe this year?" was another question fired at the champion. "I hope so," Braddock added, as he departed the scene.

Nearly 1000 Dance To Hot Rhythm of Luncford's Band

RUTH ELLINGTON BAND HERE JUNE 10th

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

Nearly one thousand persons, many who came from points in Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska, swayed to the rokin' rhythm of Jimmie Luncford and his Band of New York City Sunday night at the Pla-Lan. The "Harlem Express," with his 5 or 6-way reed section, six part brass featuring Trumpeter Cy Oliver and a versatile drummer with all the accessories, displayed class of a la Cotton Club variety. Willie Smith, the dreamy eyed sepi "Bing Crosby," gave the feminine hearts extra speed with his "vocal offerings." To enumerate the popular hits, red hot stomps and light'nin' speed top note choruses is more than one person can do, but everyone agrees as one, that it was a "thrill of a lifetime."

Local talent came in for their share of the honors in the floor show. Maggella, attractive junior miss; Evelyn, sweet little edition of Jini LeGon; and Harold, a Bill Robinson model, in other words, the sensational Crewe Kids, were forced to endure with some 1936 flashes of tap dance routines that were delightful to watch. And those white tuxedos trimmed in black, white boutonnieres and black top hats!!! The Three Wee Sisters, dressed in dainty lace formals of brown and peach, sang two numbers. The El Producto club, in charge of Atty. J. Nelson Thompson, who sponsored the affair, expects to bring other leading bands here in the near future.

Music makes the dance, and when Ruth Ellington brings her Harlem Orchestra to the Pla-Lan, Seventh and Grand, on June 10, this section will be afforded an opportunity to listen and dance to one of the most popular orchestras directed by the Girl Maes-

Due to several previous planned holiday affairs the scheduled "Battle of Music" for May 29 has been postponed to a later date.

NEW YORK CITY, May 22.—(Special) — The decisive defeat of Ira T. Aged Man, Sister Kill Six Lynchers in 6-Hour Battle

PAIR DIE AS COTTAGE IS FIRED BY VA. STATE MACHINE GUNNERS

GORDONSVILLE, Va., May 22.—William Wales, 65, and his sister, Cora, perished in the flames of their cottage here Friday night after holding off a lynch mob of 1,500 persons for six hours.

During the six-hour gun battle in which the Orange fire department and state police were called in to aid the lynchers, Sheriff William B. King was killed and six other officers injured. Five members of the mob were also killed and nine others injured.

The siege was broken when a state trooper ignited the cottage with his gasoline soaked shirt and others moved the man and his sister down with machine guns as they attempted to flee the building. The bodies of both fell into the flames and were consumed.

Fight Under Floodlights

Officer Oscar Munday was killed by rifle fire from the house when he attempted to drive a heavy truck used in road construction into the cottage. The battle which began at 4 p. m. Friday was continued after sunset under the glare of floodlights supplied by the Orange Fire department. Hostilities opened when Sheriff

Anti-Lynch Bill Caucus Doomed

SENATOR ROBINSON CALLS ITS CONSIDERATION IMPRACTICABLE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 22.—Efforts to bring up the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill for a vote in the Senate before Congress adjourns next month were useless last Tuesday when Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, the majority leader, told Senator Royal S. Copeland, Democrat, of New York, that consideration of the measure at this session would be impracticable.

When the Senate clerk calling the calendar for the consideration of unobjectioned bills reached the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill, several Senators including Senator, Kenneth D. McKellar, Democrat, of Tennessee, objected to its consideration. But at the request of Senator Copeland, Senator McKellar withheld his objection to allow Dr. Copeland to plead for an opportunity for Senators to vote on the measure.

"I think this bill, the anti-lynching bill," he said, "ought at some time to have a vote of the Senate. Regardless of what its fate may be, it is only right, as I view the matter, that there should be an opportunity to vote upon it."

Senator Copeland said he had insisted demands from his state that that "something be done regarding this bill." "Regardless of how I may feel about it personally," he said, "I think it is only right that before the end of the session there shall be an opportunity to have a vote on a matter so important as this."

January of each year the board of supervisors allot the budget for each department for that year. At the end of the year 1935 we handed back to Polk county $48,000 of unexpended funds. Besides this we accumulated enough in 1935 to take care of $512,000 worth of bonds, interest and coupons due in 1936 with a spread of $7,000 less in the county due in 1936 than in 1935.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

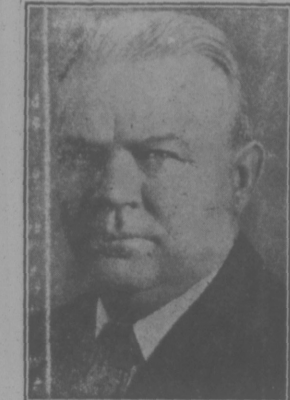

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

WILSON OUTLINES HIS PROPOSED POLICIES

Holstein, Iowa, May 2—(Special)—"I am out of patience with those who say the farm question is wholly national, and that the state administration can do nothing about it," said Senator George Wilson, republican candidate for governor, in addressing an open air rally here last night. "I propose to demonstrate that the state administration can and will do something about it. Here are four simple concrete things that we can and will do.

"First, lower property taxes on farms and homes at least 25 per cent by eliminating useless bureaus and commissions. Second, the state must encourage every department of research in its many colleges to find new uses for farm commodities and by-products, and develop new products from our farm crops. Third, give Iowa farmers adequate financing at low interest rates on a long time basis, and, fourth, effect a crop loan system, based on the present Iowa warehousing act."

NEGRO BOXERS OUTSTANDING IN ALL DIVISIONS

If they are given a fair chance to assert their rights to championship claims, there is a possibility that septa slugos will ascend the throne in a majority of the fight divisions within a year's time.

First, we begin with the heavy-weight group, where Joe Louis is reigning uncrowned, although Jimmy Braddock is still sporting the diadem. That the Brown Bomber is figured to add the name of Braddock to his list of victims when they meet, is revealed by the fact that White Hope tourneys are being held in every corner of these United States to regain the title for the white race.

Our John Henry Lewis is the current titleholder of the light-heavy-weights, having successfully defended his crown since winning from Bob Olin early in the year, and is being talked of meeting Braddock for the heavy crown, whom he has formerly decided. We have another notepunch contender in Al Gainer, New Haven, Conn., who holds victories over Braddock, Lou Brouillard, Al McAvoy, and holds two triumphs over Bob Olin.

William "Gorilla" Jones, veteran Akron, Ohio, fighter, and Oscar Rankin, Los Angeles corner, are serious challengers for Babe Risko's belt in the middleweight section. Jones, with two recent kayo victories over ranking contenders, is seriously staging a comeback for another crack at the title. Rankin's win over Jack Gibbons places him up in front with the Akron boy.

Barney Ross up till now, has not had any difficulty retaining his light-weight honors, but Leon Zorrilla of Los Angeles, whose right name is Willie Collins, and Peter Jackson also of California are coming fast in this section and are causing some of the top boys some sleepless nights.

Pedro Montanez, a colored Puerto Rican, recently scored an impressive victory over Al Roth in New York. It was his ninth straight win since arriving in this country. Pedro gave Roth a worse trimming than when he lost the lightweight belt to Tony Canzoneri, and stamped himself one of the foremost contenders for the light-weight toga.

The 127 pound division is now ruled by Freddie Miller, who is recognized by the N.B.A., but is not considered a champ in some states. Henry Armstrong, the champion of California and has challenged the white boy, but Miller decked the fight, claiming it would not draw expenses. The California Commission has asked the New York boxing fathers not to recognize Miller until he meets the Negro flash.

The bantam and flyweight divisions have dark-skinned contenders, but not of this country. Sixto Escobar, Puerto Rican defeated Lou Salica to cop the 118 pound title in the estimation of the New York Commish. Small Montana, Filipino whirlwind, defeated Midget Wolgast to capture the fly-weight title in California recently.

MRS. HARNAGEL PROMINENT REPRESENTATIVE CANDIDATE

Mrs. George Harnagel, widely known democrat and student of government, is a candidate at the primary June 1st for the office of state representative from Polk county on the democrat ticket. Mrs. Harnagel, a native Pennsylvanian, has lived in Des Moines for thirty-eight years and is the wife of a well known attorney. She prepared herself for the teaching profession in the public and normal schools of her native state and has been actively identified here with club, church and civic work for twenty-five years.

Mrs. Harnagel has made history and the science of government her hobby and has done extensive research work in both fields. She has written and produced the history of women, showing their struggles and achievements in education, economics and politics. Recently she completed and produced the story of the outstanding Jewish women of history and assisted in portraying the progress of Negro women. She served as director of the women's division of the police department for two years, organizing the work according to plans and standards of the International Association of Policewomen.

The Harnagels have four children, three of whom have been graduated from North High school, and two having received scholarships to Grinnell and Oberlin colleges and Harvard university.

Mrs. Harnagel pledges integrity in office and intelligent and thorough consideration of all legislative matters. She will esteem it a real honor and responsibility if she is nominated and elected as the first woman member of the legislature from Polk county.

NEW YORK, May 15—(Special)—After a stormy opening in which two high church dignitaries—Bishop William Allen Fountain of Atlanta, Ga., and Ira T. Bryant, secretary of the Sunday School Union, almost came to blows, ministers and delegates have finally settled down to business as the 30th quadrennial General Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church entered its second week here in Rockland Palace, 155th street and Eighth avenue.

Thus, this flag-bedecked palace came near being converted into a fistic arena, as it was reported that Bishop Fountain swung at Secretary Bryant but missed him.

Cause of Wrangle
The near fight, it is said was the result of an uncomplimentary remark made by Mr. Bryant concerning the bishop. The trouble was precipitated by the announcement by Rev. S. B. Butler of Texas Conference that a "certain" general officer of the church had allowed himself to become a lay delegate thus having double representation at the conference. Rev. Butler asked the conference to decide whether or not a general officer can become a lay delegate, thus having double representation.

The wheels of legislative machinery are beginning to turn over so rapidly that it is expected that by the end of the week, three bishops to fill the vacancies of the late Bishops Henry Blanton Parks, Josiah H. Jones and William Sampson Brooks, will have been elected.

Expired Sunday
Suspended four years ago at the general conference because of the mishandling of funds, Bishop William T. Vernon of Kansas City, Mo., one-time registrar of the United States Treasury, was reinstated this week when he took his seat on the platform with other prelates Sunday morning.

INTERNATIONAL POLICY IS RAPIDLY LINVILLE

Lansing, Iowa, May 22—Speaking at a republican gathering here this evening, Guy Linville of Cedar Rapids, republican candidate for nomination for United States senator, branded the state department at Washington as too internationally minded for the good of the country.

"The democratic high command is selling our birthright for a mess of pottage," said Linville. "The most recent example of international folly was created by Secretary of State Hull. He had no more than announced the signing of a reciprocal trade treaty with France when France boldly informed us—though unofficially—that she planned to close the books on the war debts due us.

WILKINSON REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR U. S. REPRESENTATIVE

Adel, Iowa—After due consideration, M. G. Wilkinson announces as candidate, seeking the nomination on the republican ticket for congressman from the Sixth district, which consists of Story, Polk, Marion, Warren, Madison and Dallas counties.

The Rev. Mr. Wilkinson has spent more than twenty years in the Sixth district, holding pastorates in Polk and Dallas counties. He contends that if it was permissible for a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. John Witherspoon, to sign the original copy of the Declaration of Independence, that it is a worthy aspiration to seek a position affording opportunity to help preserve independence and freedom, which extremists and visionaries would legislate away, in the names of "The People's Government."

CLAIR E. HAMILTON FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

Clair E. Hamilton Wednesday morning announced his candidacy for state attorney general on the democratic ticket. For three years he served as assistant attorney general, resigning in February, 1936, when he resumed active practice.

GRIMES LAMENTS HERRING'S HOMESTEAD BILL VETO

The greatest error of judgment ever made by an Iowa governor was the veto by Governor Herring of the homestead bill, according to J. M. Grimes, republican candidate for governor, Wednesday at Maquoketa. "It is Herring's distinction to have committed the biggest blunder ever made by an Iowa governor. It has cost Iowa residents a fortune and the pathetic part of it all is that money cannot be recovered," Mr. Grimes declared.

VANE OVERTURFF CITES

The people of Lee Township are called upon to choose a member of the County Board of Supervisors this year, the choice of the party candidates to be selected at the primary June 1st, and the primary choice to be elected at the general election in November.

The present member of the County Board for the Second Supervisor district from Lee township was chosen to this office in 1934, and assumed his place on the Board in January, 1935.
He graduated from East High School, where he was an active student in all lines of school work. He is married has a family of two children living at 3249 Easton boulevard and has been a resident of East Des Moines nearly all his life. Since taking his place on the Board he has been a member of the county finance committee and he with the other members of the board look with pride upon their record in that they have lived within the budget limit fixed at the beginning of the year.
This they have done in every department except the relief and pauper fund.

SENATOR DICKINSON

ACTIVE CHAMPION FOR

NEGROES RIGHTS

Senator L. J. Dickinson is a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself. Prior to his election he served several terms in the House of Representatives.

During all of his service in Congress, Senator Dickinson has been a consistent fighter for agriculture and is recognized as one of the leading statesmen in Washington. As a critic of the New Deal his predictions as to the short comings of measures passed by Congress have borne out.

Senator Dickinson's record in Congress on the Negro question has been consistently favorable. He supported Howard University in its effort to secure federal support by definite law and continues to back the annual appropriations; he has supported each anti-lynching bill that has been in Congress.

In March, 1934, when a determined effort was made to defeat consideration of the Costigan-Wagner antilynching bill Senator Dickinson voted to keep it before the Senate until a final vote could be had on the merits, and wrote the NAACP that he would vote for the bill.

Senator Dickinson says "If renominated and elected Negroes and their friends can depend on me to continue my support of these measures which I consider fair and just."

In the care of the poor the board has been limited by the requirements of the federal government.

During the year 1935 the Lee township member of the Board has been chairman of the juvenile home committee. Much can be said as to what is being done in making a $50,000 addition to the juvenile home at East Sixteenth and Hull avenues. The addition and improvements will make a modern and well arranged home for dependent and delinquent children.
What is being done at the Home is under the direct supervision of the Lee township supervisor, Vane B. Over-turf.

Supervisor Overturf was chosen by a popular vote of the people, and in about the middle of his first term in office is asking the voters in the Second district for their endorsement of his work. The people of his district have found him a friend to all, willing to consider every question brought to his attention. He has shown himself a hard worker and from the work done results have been achieved. He has a large number of warm, personal friends and they are conscientious in working to make his majority in the coming primary a complete endorsement of a new official in the list of county men who has been tried and proven as able men.

A. E. SHAW, M. D., IS

CANDIDATE FOR CORONER

Dr. A. E. Shaw, in announcing himself for the office of coroner of Polk county, states that the logical choice should be a member of the medical profession. He is the only republican candidate for coroner filling that requirement. The nature of the duties of the coroner are such that it requires a man trained in the field of medicine. The doctor feels that he is well qualified to administer this office due to his many years of practice as a physician and surgeon in the county.

Dr. Shaw is a member of the staffs of the various hospitals of the city, including Broadlawn county hospital, where he gives four months of his time each year. This service is given in the interest of the indigent and needy. A large part of the doctor's practice has been among the laboring classes and is generally known as a friend of labor. His office is in the Fleming building and he has lived in Des Moines the past twenty-four years.

and effort for the uplift of all citizens of the city, county and state.

Judge Hallagan's fair attitude on
the civil service commission brought to the Negro group the feeling that there was a member who insisted that
justice be done whether the applicant
was black or white and he served
with credit to himself and the public generally.

If nominated and elected to congress, Judge Hallagan can be depended upon to support all worthwhile
legislation and will not hesitate to stand up for the rights of the Negro.

FRANK HALLAGAN IS FAIR TO NEGRO GROUP
Frank Hallagan former judge of the municipal court and member of the civil service commission of Des Moines, is seeking the Republican nomination for congress from the Sixth congressional district.

His ability as an attorney is recognized, his service in the Spanish-American war and World War is well known to the public; as public spirited citizen he has given of his time

and effort for the uplift of all citizens of the city, county and state.

Judge Hallagan's fair attitude on
the civil service commission brought
to the Negro group the feeling that
there was a member who insisted that
justice be done whether the applicant
was black or white and he served
with credit to himself and the public generally.

If nominated and elected to congress, Judge Hallagan can be depend-
ed upon to support all worthwhile
legislation and will not hesitate to
stand up for the rights of the Negro.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—More than 26,500 colored high school and college students are receiving substantial aid in continuing their studies from the National Youth Administration, it was revealed in a report presented to the Administration's National Advisory Committee by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune recently. High school pupils are given financial assistance in return for performing such tasks as binding text books, making studies of sanitation and health, tutoring, and repairing school furniture.

Waldie Goes Round & Round

By Same Old 3, 6 and 9

Somewhat rested after all the exciting events of the past week, I take my (the firm's) typewriter in hand and proceed to thump out these choice bits of morsels—Wonder why the crowd around the Pla-Lan entrance the other eve had such a wistful looking appearance when Jimmie Devan, up the band?—Sylvia (Pete) Devan, East Side's septa Carole Lombard, looked simply too exquisite in her litted formal—Seems as if several people were too tired to go to work Monday morning—was it because it was the day after the night before?—Noted several notables from "foreign" parts at the affair including Bennie Brown, Robert Taylor, Margery McGill, Clifford Bayles, Maynard Black, Maurice Jackson, Ernestine Ross, Virginia Jones, and just numerous others—The West Siders looked simply too luscious in their new formal "My Blue Heaven" was detops—And could the band swing on "Rhythm in our Business"—Wonder why E. "Newbie" Newcomb left so early the other eve—Did the olde rockin' chair have him—Seems as if some dames are all net up about the Keokuk boys appearance in town—

In roaming through past editions of the paper recently I noted that the Cavaliers club "chose Irene (Kie) Glass in December, 1934—Wondered why this hasn't been continued—So this columnist bethot it would be a good idea to conduct such an affair in this column—The results will be unofficial of course—and no prizes will be awarded—being as how we are very poor people—but it will arouse a little excitement around this town—so here's the dope—All you readers and fans will please vote for your sweetheart, girl and boy; most talented girl and boy; most studious girl and boy; most athletic girl and boy; most philosophical girl and boy; most laziest girl and boy; sweetest girl and boy; best looking girl and boy; most wittiest girl and boy; most versatile girl and boy; best dressed girl and boy; and most nonchalant girl and boy; boy and girl having the best personality; most nearest girl and boy; best groomed girl and boy; most athletic girl and boy; Mr. Sarah Jett, president of the city federation, who planned and directed the affair thanks all who assisted.

FRED WARING HONORS RACE MAESTROS IN NBC BROADCAST

New York City, May 14 (INP) Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians paid a tribute to two Negro orchestra leaders on their recent Tuesday coast-to-coast broadcast over the red network of NBC when they honored Leroy Smith and his Connie's Inn orchestra and Willie Bryant and his Ubangi Club orchestra.

Waring and his boys by playing different styles and versions of "Tiger Rag" showed how Bryant and Smith would have played it. Their impersonation of the two orchestras was very commendable and well received by the studio audience.

JERUSALEM, May 15. — Haile Selassie, who, in order to avoid further bloodshed retired a week ago into the Holy Land, is now the subject of serious concern among members of his immediately family and his faithful followers.

The Ethiopian monarch suffered a heart attack while on the British cruiser the Enterprise which bore him and his royal escort to Haifa, but recovered long enough to set foot in Jerusalem unassisted.

Immediately following his arrival, however, the self-exiled Emperor suffered a relapse. He was visited by the personal physician of Sir Arthur Grenfell Wauchope, British High Commissioner for Palestine.

The emperor was too ill to talk with Dr. Azaj Worpneh C. Martin, his minister to Great Britain who telephoned him from London. He spent hours lying listlessly on a couch with his pet white dog Lulu beside him.

This array of legal talent indicates how important the case looms in the minds of Missourians. This line-up is similar to the cause with the N. A. A. C. P. brought against the University of North Carolina in 1935 when the state used its attorney general, the first assistant attorney general and three professors from the law school of the University of North Carolina.

Against the six Missouri lawyers will be Sidney R. Redmond of the St. Louis N. A. A. C. P., and Charles H. Houston of the national office of the N. A. A. C. P. in New York. The hearing is set for May 25.

ABILITY SURMOUNTS JIM CROW IN SOUTH

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 15.—Surmounting Jim Crow barriers and ignoring other indignities meant to impress upon him his inferiority to the southern whites in whose midst he was, Caleb Peterson, Peeskill, N. Y., high school student won first prize in the national declamation contest finals held here Thursday.

Peterson came here for the contest sponsored by the National Forensics League, from a section of the country much more liberal than this. In fact so liberal was the section from which he came that it was not even thought necessary to mention that he was not white as were the contestants from other sections of the nation.

Smiles On his arrival here officials told him, with guilty smiles on their faces, that Oklahoma is a southern white state and that in compliance with laws separating the Races he would not be able to compete with the white contestants on the platform of the white high school.

"I understand," Peterson smiled. However, the officials had a change of heart. They didn't relent altogether, though. They did decide, however, that Peterson could speak on the platform of the white high school, but that the white contestants should not be on the platform at the time of his appearance.

Peterson, who took up dramatic oratory a few months ago "just for the fun of it," elected to give the graveyard scene from Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones."

1,900 Cheer When he completed his presentation and bowed off the stage the audience of approximately 1,000 white persons and 10 members of the Race burst into enthusiastic applause, demanding that he return for another bow.

The New York Negro lad had so far outstripped his five white opponents that to have awarded the prize to another would have been so grossly unfair and so evidently a prejudicial act that even the audience might have rebelled. Peterson was, therefore, declared the winner.

WHY THE ANTI LYNCHING BILL CANT PASS

The Bystander calls its readers' attention to a cology in the U. S. Senate on May 12 which speaks louder than anything we may say as to the chances the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill has to pass this Congress and who to a large extent are responsible:

"Prevention of Lynching."
"MR. McKELLAR, Democrat, Tennessee, and other Senators. Let that bill go over."
"MR. COPELAND, Democrat, New York. Mr. President, I wish the Senators would withhold their objections for a moment until I may say a word."
"MR. McKELLAR. I withhold the objection."
"MR. COPELAND. I think this bill, the anti-lynching bill, ought at some time to have a vote of the Senate. Regardless of what its fate may be, it is only right, as I view the matter, that there should be an opportunity to vote upon it."
"From my State I have insistent demands that something be done regarding this bill. Regardless of how I may feel about it personally, I think it is only right that before the end of the session there shall be an opportunity to have a vote on a matter so important as this."
"MR. LEWIS, Democrat, Illinois. Mr. President, may I be pardoned if I ask the Senator from New York whether it would not be appropriate at least that some action be taken looking to setting a special time for the consideration of the bill?"
"MR. SMITH, Democrat, South Carolina. No."
"MR. McKELLAR. Let the bill go over."
"MR. KING, Democrat, Utah. Over."
"MR. LEWIS. Mr. President, I am propounding a query."
"MR. COPELAND. I hope Senators will bear with me a moment until I answer the Senator from Illinois. I think it would be wise to have the bill made a special order."
"MR. ROBINSON, Democrat, Arkansas. Mr. President, this bill was brought forward during the last session, and was discussed for a great many days. I am satisfied that it would not be practicable to take it up again during the present session."
"The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Objection having been made, the bill will be passed over."
The Bystander inserted the bold face.

Each of these senators is a Democrat but those from northern states say they would like to see some action taken. The principal objectors are heads of important committees in the senate: Senator Smith, agriculture; Senator Robinson, leader and administration spokesman; Senator McKellar, post office and post roads; Senator King, District of Columbia and also member of the judiciary and other important committees.

Evidently no amount of petitions ing of human beings. The point is these men are in key positions and are going to take every opportunity to block consideration of the measure. The president wants some measures passed even though grave doubts exist about their constitutionality. This one is not so favored.

FACE THE ISSUE

Des Moines is completing new swimming facilities this year and for the first time we are going to have swimming accommodations within reach of most everybody. All classes of people are going to want to swim and they should. However because of the inadequacy of pools there are problems that will arise which should be considered before they are opened. Experience has taught that serious race clashes have occurred in other places over this very thing. It is not enough to say that the law gives everybody a right to the public places without discrimination. Safeguards should be worked out in advance to keep the already happy relationship existing between races in Des Moines as they are. Foolish, hotheaded, youngsters both black and white may cause us a lot of trouble.

The Bystander suggests that the park officials call together a group of Negroes and whites that the matter may be thrashed out and a sensible basis worked out which will leave no opening for difficulties.

JUDGE MERSHON

In the death of Judge J. E. Mershon Des Moines has lost a fine citizen. He was a public servant who meant much to every group with whom he came in contact.

Judge Mershon was defeated for reelection to the Municipal Court in March after serving on the bench twenty years. And that defeat came not because he was other than a fair, impartial and learned judge, but because younger men came along who set a pace in the campaign he could not follow.

The Bystander recalls that Judge Mershon refused to compromise on civil rights cases or on any case where it appeared that Negroes were getting an unfair deal because of their color. He insisted that every man stood on the same footing in his court and often displayed strong convictions in comments after decisions.

Judge Mershon was an example other judges may well follow. Friend and foe respected him.

Col E. R. Bennett Seeks Return to Board

Col. E. R. Bennett, supervisor from the First district, is candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself.

A lifelong resident of Des Moines, Col. Bennett served in the Spanish-American war and was colonel of the 168th Iowa infantry in the World War.

COL. E. R. BENNETT

In 1920 he was elected county treasurer and served two terms. During all his activities in politics, Col. Bennett has made an efficient official and a staunch friend of the Negro. While county treasurer, Attorney James B. Morris was a deputy in the office and since his election to the board he has supported all measures in behalf of the Negro and helped secure the appointment of several Col. Bennett believes in giving Negroes representation, his friends know it from experience and is entitled to the unstinted support among our group.

Health Talks

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

POLIOMYELITIS (Infantile Paralysis)

Infantile paralysis is an acute infection and inflammatory disease of the gray matter of the spinal cord and brain. It is a disease of major importance (1) because it is very contagious, (2) most often attacks children, and (3) causing a long convalescing period even running into years.

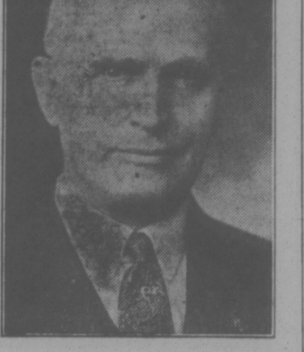

To begin with the disease may not be suspected as the symptoms are those of beginning flu or gripe, cold, headache which gradually grows more severe, a feeling of malaise, and usually a diarrhea, there will be pain in the back, neck and limbs leading one to think it is an attack of flu. After 48 hours these symptoms become more intensified with a gradual development of a flaccid paralysis of the extremities, the muscles become toneless and tender.

Paralysis may occur in both legs or arms and legs combined or any combination. After the paralysis has existed two or more weeks, a wasting away of the affected muscles becomes very evident. The paralysis if cured may last from one-half to two years. If a cure is not effected, the patient passes into a chronic stage, which is incurable and becomes an invalid.

Much research work has been done both on the cause and cure in the past twelve years. Epidemics have been more easily controlled, the convalescing period has been shortened, more cures effected and more relief given to the chronic incurables. Much has been accomplished by orthopedic surgery (surgery of bones and muscles) and water therapy.

Dr. Delk Seeks to Legislative Post

Dr. J. W. Delk, republican candidate for State Representative from Polk County, before the primaries June 1, 1935, was born and raised on an Iowa farm and is well informed regarding the problems now confronting the Iowa farmers and taxpayers.

J. W. DELK, republican candidate for State Representative from Polk County, before the primaries June 1, 1935.

He served his country with Co. I of the 51st regiment of Iowa Volunteers until the regiment was discharged. Volunteered for service in the world war but was rejected because of physical disability. Is a member of the United Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is a staunch friend of labor and is deeply interested in the problems confronting the laborers today. Has always been an advocate for equal rights and justice for the laboring men and their employers.

Having been in business for a number of years he is conversant with the fact that the interests of the business man must have adequate protection from unjust taxation and expropriation. He is a man of honesty and integrity, well educated and if elected will serve his constituency faithfully and fearlessly to the best of his knowledge and ability.

The public needs men who will represent all of the people and not special interests.

P. L. C.—Do you advise me to take up the course of study that I have in mind and do you think I will fail or pass?

HAROLD DAVIDSON OF CLARINDA MAKES BID FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

Clarinda, Iowa—Harold Davidson, twice mayor and a practicing lawyer in Clarinda, Page county, for nineteen years, as a member with the firm of Sipe, Davidson & Davidson, and known as one of the most able lawyers in southwest Iowa, is a Republican candidate for attorney general.

He finished his law course at Drake university in 1916, is married and has two children.

During the World War Mr. Davidson was commissioned a second lieutenant. He has just retired as Page county chairman of the Republican Service League and is Seventh district legislative chairman of the American Legion, is past commander of the Clarinda American Legion post and past county commander of Page county. Since 1930 he has been Republican county chairman of Page county and has served one term as a member of the Iowa legislature.

Mr. Davidson is the only Republican candidate for a state office living south and west of Des Moines and has been active in the offices of the Republican organization for several years. Undoubtedly Mr. Davidson will make a splendid candidate and if nominated will carry into the campaign a background of very effective work for the Republican party, a wide acquaintance and the unquestioned ability to make a capable public official.

Ans.—Your husband is already married to another woman, and you would always regret it if you were to try to break up his home. There will be another marriage for you in a few years that will be a model marriage.

T. L. M.—Will my daughter ever learn to play the piano?

Ans.—It is a hopeless task for you to try to make her play the piano when she isn't the least bit interested in music and has no talent for it. You are making a mistake by not allowing your children to choose their own vocations.

A. L. A.—Will my husband succeed in the business he started. He doesn't like it much?

Ans.—Your husband should seek other employment, for he doesn't like the grocery business at all. He has made quite a few improvements on his store and will be able to get a much bigger price for it than he had to pay to secure it.
