G.O.P. Delegates Ignore Colored Leaders in Stiff Battle For Seats

Cleveland, Ohio—The Republican convention credentials committee decided early Wednesday to seat the John E. Jackson delegation from Louisiana and Perry W. Howard's Mississippi delegates.

GIVE WARNING TO MANAGERS OF THE PARTY

Cleveland, Ohio, Convention Hall, June 12—The steam roller, guided and directed by Walter L. Brown, who is charged with sponsoring lily-whitism, moved with deadly effect in the disposition of delegates who were up for consideration by the national committee at a meeting in which 400 Republicans from diverse sections of the country, including delegates and alternates from any states, met at the Western Reserve Republican club Friday night and unanimously condemned the bosses of the Republican convention in excluding what they claimed to have been the duly elected delegates from Florida and Louisiana.

At this meeting some of the most representative Negroes of the country participated. A resolution was drafted which was presented to the national committee condemning the apparent disposition to prevent the participation of black men from the south in the nomination of the presidential candidate. The signers of the resolution were: W. C. Houston, John E. Hubbard, Clayborne George, and Charles E. White.

Kansas Negroes Backing Landon

ATTY. WM. M. BRADSHAW OFFERS KANSAS STARTS STEAMROLLER

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12—If the sunflower-lapelled Kansas delegation is to be believed, in so far as the nomination for the president is concerned, it is Landon by a landslide. All Kansas delegates and hundreds of visitors from Governor Landon's state are enthusiastic and well-nigh jubilant.

They are taking first prize as hand-shakers and wide-smilers. One of the Landon headquarters, in the Hotel Majestic, presided over by Atty. William M. Bradshaw, Landon appointee in the highway department of Topeka, Kans., and Prof. P. G. Porter, prominent in the educational world, for years principal of Lincoln junior high school, Atchinson, Kans., were asked to state some of the virtues which their candidate for president possesses that justifies the interest of the Negro brother.

They made the following statement: "We regard Governor Alf M. Landon as typifying those high qualities of character, ability and human sympathy which enable him to look beyond the hampering influences of either racial prejudice or religious bigotry.

"His attitude as the governor of the state of Kansas with respect to our racial identity, both in manifest interest and human consideration, justifies the above statement."

Among other Landon boosters are Bishop W. T. Vernon, Mrs. Frasier Mitchell, Miss Ann Sawyer and the old mestro of legal lore, Turner B. Bell.

ATTY. J. W. BELL ATTENDS THE G. O. P. CONVENTION

Negro Polar Hero Now Recognized

HENSON WILL BE AWARDED GOLD MEDAL

Washington, June 12—The house passed last Tuesday the bill introduced by Rep. Arthur W. Mitchell, Dem., of Illinois, providing for the recognition of the heroic conduct of Matthew A. Henson, who accompanied Admiral Robert E. Peary to the North pole when he discovered it on April 6, 1909.

Before passing the bill the house amended it by striking out a provision which would have given Mr. Henson an annual pension of $2,500.

The measure authorizes the director of the mint to coin a suitable gold medal to commemorate Henson's heroic services. Admiral Peary's polar expedition. The medal is to be presented to Henson by the president.

All's Quiet On School Campus

COMMENCEMENT AT ARK. STATE IS UNEVENTFUL

Pine Bluff, Ark., June 12—While two of her expelled classmates stood on the sidelines, Miss Verna Mae Winn received her degree along with twenty-two other seniors from Pres. J. B. Watson at the sixty-first annual commencement exercises of Arkansas State college held on last Wednesday.

Miss Winn was the center of a student riot on the campus which ended two days before commencement with the expulsion of two seniors, Wilfred T. Holley and Kermit Hockenull, president of the class, and seven other students.

Hockenull and Holley were leaders of a student group which demanded that President Watson make a public apology following his calling Miss Winn "a dirty little skunk," and a "liar."

Among the few northern students there are Leonard Brown, athletic trainer; Catherine Hawkins, librarian; Catherine Glass, instructor of domestic science, and Allen Ashby, assistant physical director, all of Des Moines. Mr. Ashby returned home three weeks ago.

NOBLE SISSLE BETTER

AFTER AUTO MISHAP

Delaware, Ohio, June 12—After sustaining four broken ribs and a concussion of the brain, Noble Sissle, internationally known band leader, was reported improving this week at the Jane Case hospital here, where he has been confined along with the other members of his orchestra, following an automobile accident early last Wednesday morning.

The musicians were en route to Cincinnati from Cleveland when a tire blew out on Comedian Billy Banks' car, causing the machine to overturn.

In the state, Atty. Bell has attended every national convention since 1896. With his late friend, Dr. Motes, also of Leavenworth, he controlled the activities of the race throughout Kansas and it is many a race youth who owes his success in his travel of life to T. W. Bell.

Pickens Hurt in Highway Crash

WHITE HITCH-HIKER RIDING WITH N. A. A. C. P. OFFICIAL KILLED

Bakersfield, Calif., June 12—William Pickens of New York, director of branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, suffered a broken right arm, and James Anderson, a white hitch-hiker, to whom Mr. Pickens was giving a ride, was fatally injured near here Saturday, May 30th, when Mr. Pickens' car left the highway and crashed into a tree. Dean Pickens left New York the latter part of February on a tour which began in St. Louis, Mo., and was to have ended in Spokane, Wash., in July.

Mr. Pickens was scheduled to speak in Bakersfield on Sunday, May 31. After he recovered consciousness following the crash, he explained the accident by saying that in coming through some mountains in the rain and cold he had closed the windows of the car and when he descended to lowlands he suddenly became dizzy and felt that he was about to lose control of the machine. He made an unsuccessful effort to stop, but did succeed in snatching the key from the ignition lock. The key was in his hand when he was found. Mr. Pickens does not know whether carbon monoxide was seeped into the car or a sudden change in altitude caused his dizzy spell.

Immediately after the accident Mr. Pickens was placed in jail temporarily by Bakersfield police on a charge of reckless driving. He was released on this charge as soon as officials of the Bakersfield branch of the N. A. A. C. P. learned of his plight. The coroner's inquest into the death of James Anderson was held June 4th. Thomas L. Griffith, Jr., president of the Los Angeles branch of the N. A. A. C. P., is rendering the legal service needed by Mr. Pickens. The rest of Mr. Pickens' tour has been canceled temporarily, pending clearing up of the situation here. The car is a total wreck, but it is understood that the loss is covered by insurance.

Students Barred From Riverview Dance Floor

FRED MORROW AND FRIENDS INSULTED AT DRAKE UNIVERSITY PARTY

By the Staff Writer
"You can't dance in here. The rule of the park is to keep you folks out," is the ultimatum issued by A. A. Franke, manager of Riverview park, to a group of Negro students and friends seeking admission to the dance hall at the Drake university all-behool party Thursday night.

Georgia, Alabama, or Texas can't beat the "good tall corn" state for discriminatory practice and jim crow rules. For the second time within two weeks, flagrant disregard of the Iowa civil rights law has been flaunted in the faces of Des Moines Negro citizens.

School Gives Tickets

Fred Morrow, Donna and Adah Graham, Robert Hyde, Albert Bradford, Warren Pemberton and several others were issued complimentary tickets by the school earlier in the week inviting them to participate in the all-school party for the students held semi-annually by Drake.

All went well as the colored stu-

First Lady Greeted in D.M.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who is noted for her fondness for children, is shown smiling upon two of the school babies at the Negro Community Center where she visited Monday.

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt Visits Negro Center

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

More than three hundred persons packed the lawn and veranda of the Negro Community Center Monday afternoon to get a glimpse and to shake the hand of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the president, who addressed the graduating class of Drake University in the morning. Following a busy schedule which kept the First Lady constantly on the move, her itinerary called for a visit of WPA projects in Des Moines which included the Negro workers.

Headed by a motorcycle escort of six uniformed officers, Mrs. Roosevelt and party consisting of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Morehouse, president of Drake and several other dignitaries arrived at the Center during the noon hour.

Amid a tremendous ovation the distinguished visitor was received by Mrs. Lillian Edmunds, director of the Community Center, Boy Scout Troop 59, neatly uniformed and standing at attention; William Bell, of the WPA project and G. B. Tucker, commander of American Legion Lincoln Post and NYA head, Mrs. Ardiella Watkins and Mrs. Gertrude North WPA supervisors.

Displays
The Center was resplendent with exhibits, displays and handicraft and art work of the workers. Mrs. Roosevelt visited with each director and chatted pleasantly and informally with everyone.

The pre-school, consisting of 20 colored babies, attracted her attention immediately. "What beautiful children, aren't they cute!" exclaimed Mrs. Roosevelt.

Accompanied by his or her friend.
Park Manager
Morrow demanded to see Park Manager Franke; E. C. Lyton, Drake business manager, was summoned by the Negroes. Lyton went to the main office and after a conference, reported the statement in which Franke's policy was plainly indicated. Willard Johnson, dean of men at Drake, expressed regret at the incident. "I will do anything you ask to adjust this unfortunate condition," he said.

Passes Another Milestone In Nat'l Negro Journalism

The Iowa Bystander, celebrates its 43rd anniversary of journalistic service to the citizens of Iowa. Just 28 years after the close of the Civil War, Hawkeye's only Negro newspaper, came into existence as an Iowa institution to the colored race of America. The first issue came off the press at the old Register block in June 1894, with the following announcement:

"... delay the Iowa State Bystander makes its initial bow to the public... It will be a REPUBLICAN paper in its politics... The majority of people lynched are southern Negroes, the African race has never produced a traitor... Since the Revolution any period dawn to the present the colored troops have fought nobly and bravely... What has been their reward?"

"The Iowa State Bystander will do all it can to furnish news and give each patron value received. It has entered the field to do an honest and legitimate newspaper business. Our motto is 'Fear God, tell the truth, and make money.'"

The founders were: Charles S. Ruff, editor; Thaddeus S. Ruff, Associate Editor; Joseph H. Shepard, manager and John D. Reeler, treasurer. Ben J. Holmes, E. T. Banks, James Todd, William Conlan, T. E. Barton and Jeff Logan were the directors.

Mr. Ruff, active newspaper man in the gay "nineties" but who is now retired, is living at 750 Tenth street and is an occasional worker in local politics. His brother, Charles, now a resident of Peoria, Illinois, was awarded a life membership medal for fifty years of service in the Typographical union last year by the Peoria Transcript Journal, white daily. They are the only founders alive today.

Judge Allibon Tourshee, a writer of the Chicago Tribune in 1892, called his column the "Bystander." In naming this paper the "Iowa State" was added by Mr. Ruff for distinction to the midwest.

LARGE CROWD AT ELLINGTON DANCE

Despite the unseasonably cool weather, a large, gay crowd was there to step to the tunes of Ruth Ellington and her orchestra at the Pla-Lan Wednesday night. T. L. (Speck) Howard, dance manager, plans more summer entertainments this season at the air-conditioned ball-room.

The former Chicago girl, who made good through Dixie and eastern night spots, gave several torch numbers. The arrangement of "Blue Skies," written by Mike Thompson, trumpeter, was a decided hit.

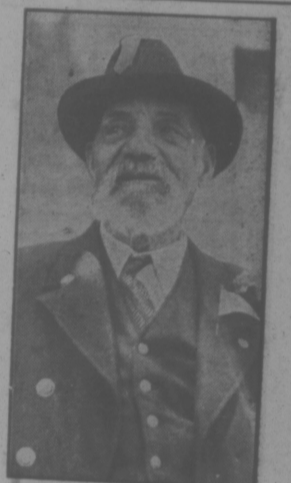

Roosevelt was anxious to know how well they were being cared for. Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson, 11 years clinic physician, was introduced to the wife of the nation's chief executive.

Autograph Hunters

Eager to grasp the president's wife's hand were numerous persons as were the autograph hunters. Graciously she granted each request, and after a cordial fifteen minutes' visit she departed, waving a fond good-bye to the cheering throng and leaving with the entire assemblage of the Des Moines Negro citizens a fine impression of a great woman.

In her radio talk during the forenoon, Mrs. Roosevelt said that more jobs could be created if there was less "prejudice and more broadmindedness. White, Negroes and Indians should be treated alike... There should not be such a lack of understanding between groups..."

John Walker, 1137 School street, Des Moines, who celebrated his 96th birthday in March, was the only living Negro civil war veteran who attended the sixty-second annual Iowa encampment of the G. A. R. this week. Approximately forty ex-soldiers are left.

SPORTS

by Allen Ashby

The big battle is not far off. By a week from the time you read this junk the bout between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling will be history. The baby-hoo is on in full cry and if all the people who wrote stories about this fight were laid end to end it would serve them exactly right. Schmeling is a changed battler. The deadly right that landed against the chin of Jack Sharkey, Max Baer and Paulino Uzcudun with all the devastating effect of a cream puff tossed against your writer's head has now become a terrific weapon which may demolish Louis and the entire Yankee stadium with one explosion. Louis is out of shape, lazy and not training. Neither do we eat a free meal when we get a chance. Married life has softened him. The Bomber up (we have never agreed that married life softens any one if he is in his prime or hasn't reached before he marries). Training is just sensible living, and who lives any more sensible than a married man who wants to live according to the rules of the game? We believe this is just another step on the way up for our boy.

Golf
We owe the golfers an apology. Yes, we stood and fondled Phi McGuire's golf medal, which he said was the first he had ever won, and we asked his brother, Jim, about the meet held Memorial day with Kansas City guests. Yet when we began to write we forgot there had been a golf meet and Speck Howard had to remind us. Jack Howard won the affair, beating his bigger namesake, Charlie Howard. Phil McGuire got second place in the second flight and Speck Howard cursed Tate for letting him shoot his way into the top flight and turning back on him. Jack and Charles are in the city meet and will have either been out or will be in the money when you see this. Jack shot into the championship flight and Charlie shot into the second flight. Stay with 'em, boys.

Track
Dave Albritton and Cornelius Johnson jumped each other dizzy last week, but called it a draw. There might be one of those boys in the Olympics if things break right. They don't have anyone to beat but Walter Marty, world's record holder; Harold Osborne, former holder of the mark, and Philson of Drake. George Robinson, winner of two seconds in the state college meet, went to Milwaukee, but the boys wouldn't wait for him. Jesse Owens continued to run amuck, as you all must know by now.

Paul Williams, who used to require experts to tell when he swung a tennis racket and when the racket swung him, played on a North High doubles team this year. Good to see the kids come up. Most of them today, however, won't accept advice from Negroes who know what it is all about, and too many old timers belittle the kids. Let's get together, boys.

NEW ORLEANS HOST TO BOYD BAPT. SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET

New Orleans, La., June 12—(Special)—How best can we build Front Line B. Y. P. U.'s and Sunday school auxiliaries are the major questions holding the interest of some 5,000 or more messengers assembled here at Freedman's auditorium for the fifty-first annual National Baptist Sunday School Congress.

For five days these religious workers coming from all sections of the United States, Canada and the West Indies will discuss every phase of the Bible and the method of applying Christian ethics to the social processes of our communities. The climax and closing scene, however, of this summer school of methods will be a mammoth street parade on Sunday afternoon, followed later by a mass meeting and songfest.

197 CONGRESSMEN ASK ANTI-LYNCHING BILL ACTION

Washington, D. C., June 12—Up to last night 197 members of congress had signed a petition calling for the release of federal anti-lynching bills from the house judiciary committee. The bills have been buried in committee since the spring of 1935 without any action whatsoever being taken on them. The chairman of the judiciary committee is Congressman Hutton W.

Summers of Texas and he is reported to have made the statement that no anti-lynching bill would come up for consideration as long as he had anything to say about it.

The petition to release the bills from committee requires 218 signatures and it is expected that the required number will be secured before adjournment. The machinery of congress was all geared to bring about an early adjournment but the death of Speaker Joseph W. Byrns has delayed everything. This means there is still a small chance for consideration of the anti-lynching bill. Supporters of this legislation are working up to the very last minute of congress.

N. C. ELECTION OFFICIAL WHO BARRED NEGRO VOTERS FINED $300 BY COURT

Wilkesboro, N. C., June 12—John Cashion, registrar at an election booth, who in 1934 refused to register fourteen colored citizens, was found guilty this week on fourteen counts and fined $300 in the United States district court. Cashion was also placed on probation for three years.

The trial and conviction of Cashion follows fifteen months of persistent effort on the part of the N. A. A. C. P. and the North Carolina citizens against him. Cashion's excuse was that the colored people were not qualified under the North Carolina educational test for voters. Among those disqualified was one college professor, several school teachers, a doctor and others. When the N. A. A. C. P. tried to get the U. S. district attorney of Greensboro to act, he took Cashion's word for the incident and closed the case. When the N. A. A. C. P. first presented the case to the attorney general at Washington, affidavits were called for, which were secured and presented in person to Washington. After frequent exchange of sharp letters between August, 1935, and December, Cashion was finally indicted.

THE PRESIDENT SENDS HIS NOMINATION TO SENATE

Washington, D. C., June 5—President Roosevelt sent to the senate last Saturday the nomination of Benjamin Oliver Davis, Jr., son of Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, United States army, to be a second lieutenant in infantry in the regular army. His name was included in the list of nominations of members of the June graduating class from the United States military academy to be second lieutenants in the various branches of the regular army.

Without referring the nominations to a committee, the senate confirmed them immediately en bloc to rank from June 12th, the date of their graduation from West Point.

According to the nominations, Caslet Davis stands thirty-fifth in his class.

He will be the fourth colored man to graduate from the United States military academy since it was organized in 1802.

New York, June 5—Dr. John Hope, late president of Atlanta university, has been awarded posthumously the twenty-second Spingarn medal for the year 1935 by the Spingarn medal award committee, of which Oswald Garrison Villard is chairman. The committee announced that only the fact that Dr. Hope was himself a member of the committee has prevented his receiving the medal during his lifetime. The language of the award characterized Dr. Hope as follows:

"A distinguished leader of his race, one of the foremost college presidents in the United States, widely and favorably known throughout the educational world, John Hope was admired wherever he went because of his wisdom, his tact, his skill in negotiation, his solid contribution to any conference in which he sat, his remarkable modesty, and his untiring service to both races in the United States.

"A graduate of Brown university, he dedicated his life to the teaching of colored youth. First a president of Morehouse college from 1906 to 1931, he had served at Atlanta university in the same capacity since 1928. Under his presidency occurred the epoch-making amalgamation of Morehouse and Laura Spelman colleges and Atlanta university, in which group Atlanta now stands as the foremost Negro graduate school. His achievements in this field were attended by honorary degrees from Brown and Bates colleges and Bucknell, McMaster and Howard universities.

For one year he rendered distinguished service among the colored troops in France as a representative of the Y. M. C. A. At one time president, he was a director of the commission on interracial co-operation, which has made such remarkable contribution to improving the relations of the two races. He was president of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History and of the Georgia State Council for Work Among Negro Boys, a distinguished figure in the Baptist World Alliance and in the work of the Y. M. C. A. and the N. A. A. C. P.

M. and N. college here, to Miss Verna Mae Winn, a member of the senior class and honor student, resulted in a campus riot, which was marked by the brandishing of guns, throwing of bricks and the expulsion of seven members of the class, one of them its president, Kermit Hockenhull.

Walda Goes Round & Round

Just About Time—The time has come to lend thine eyes for a while to read the dribble which comes out here. Just for fun the contest was postponed until next week—Y'know just to have something to do—Well, let's get into the swing of things.

The town has been painted red slightly for over a week since Helen Madden and Thomas Shelton have been here. They're both just too heavenly. While Curtis Cooley, also of the same town, Joe Louis' home, Detroit, wonders why a certain little lady who lives on East Sixteenth street pater is so very confining.

Maybe some of the heart-forsaken girls will have something to look forward to, now that Owen Robinson is giving us a break and put an appearance in his old home city. He is just too brilliant after being away for school all year.

All youse guys and gals who have been patients of Dr. W. J. Ritchey for some time like "Dear Loomy" Lomas and myself should be pleased to know that he has remodeled his headquarters and they're just simply too ducky.

Wonder what will happen when the rest of our school going friends return to town.—It has a great many of us wondering what will G. A. W. do when his pal, A. M., returns to his home town.

One of the things that should have been mentioned last week and wasn't was the superiority of the younger boys in the track meet held Memorial Day—Such stars as Jimmy Payne, Junior Bundy, William Wells are boys to keep your eyes on in the future.

While commenting on various things, we just can't forget to remark about how svelegant Earl Miller.

Mrs. G. T. Fant was the principal speaker at the Woman's Day program at Union Baptist church Thursday afternoon, June 4th.

The Fant Brothers quartet sang at Burns church Sunday, June 7th, on the Men's Day program.

Children's Day Program Sunday

The annual Children's Day exercises will be held at St. Paul A. M. E. church at 3 p. m. by the Sunday school, Harrison Gould, superintendent, announced.

Picnic

Miss Irene Glass, student at Iowa State college, visited her family in the city recently.

ler looked on his recent visit to town. —Seems as if he enjoyed that last party so well that he just did have time to make the train.

Dances seem to be composed of nearly all younger people now.—Noted at Ruth Ellington's affair were Fred Morrow, the Barquettes, Kathleen Hubbard, Al Thomas, Jo Williams, Kathryn Jewett, and just too many others, which included that most popular foursome, Willie Miller, Sylvia DeVan, Rosie Vaughn and Oliver Tolbert.

Wonder how many of us will rate big time so as to view that greatest of all cinema attractions, The Great Ziegfeld. Maybe we'd better sing, Brother, can you spare $1.50 for us to see that show in 75c seats

Thomas A. seems to have just what it takes to get along. He seems to like the Community Center a great deal lately—since one of my very good friends have been working there.

According to George E., the Birdland swimming pool is just all right. So let's go out sometime, please, y'know when you can have a very joyful time.

In case you're wondering who the Imps are, two of the main characters are Chips Robinson and Q. C. Yours for better gossip, 'cause this is getting too good.

Walda.

P. S.—Just in case you don't know about it—who but none other than the Thirteenth street gentleman who works at a grocery store and the Twelfth street gentlemen have been seen upon by Burns A. M. E. parsonage.

OUR ANNIVERSARY

This issue of The Iowa Bystander contains greetings from a large number of advertisers and friends in recognition of the forty-third anniversary of the paper. Few business institutions in Des Moines operated by white or black people can point to such a long record of service to a community. No one is more appreciative than the management that this accomplishment has been attained.

Any institution with this long record of service must have been organized to do a constructive task; carried out the object for which it was organized; given to the public that which it demands of such institutions; tried to do its very best with the material at hand.

The Bystander, like the average weekly paper, has had its troubles; it is not out of its difficulties altogether. But it does believe it is being operated as a business enterprise should and in a manner which best serves the purpose for which it was organized. It is not unmindful of the splendid support many friends, black and white, have given and realizes without that support it could not have survived.

The Bystander has and does maintain a publication free to the public to express its views as well as those of the editorial staff. It welcomes the news of everyone, the amount being limited not by choice of the staff but by the extent of the support the field affords. It has stood firmly for every right for the Negro and at times has refused to hedge where his rights were in jeopardy at the expense of advertising revenue believing that a consistent policy of fair play would win out in the end. A Republican in politics, The Bystander opens its columns to Democrats for a full discussion of their views and counts among its friends men and women of both parties.

The Bystander has given employment to Negroes during all these years and at present maintains a splendid staff of employees. Many after serving their apprenticeship in this office have gone to bigger and better positions both in Des Moines and other cities.

Of course The Bystander like any other business cannot and does not attempt to run on a basis of friendship, recognizing that the least is followed the more substantial a business becomes.

The Bystander realizes full well that it has made mistakes. It has and will do its best to keep them at a minimum.

As to the future, the paper sees no reason to change its course except in so far as modern newspapers keep step with the times. It proposes to continue to serve its constituents in the best possible manner realizing that most people will respond with their fine support as has been the policy in the past.

POISON PROPAGANDA

At times it is difficult to understand the deep seated prejudices of some people against the Negro and yet when the steps to consider that organizations and individuals like the Ku Klux Klan and the Black Legion thrive on just such tactics, the mystery becomes very simple.

Last week the Chicago Defender printed a facsimile of a card alleged to have been circulated by the Black Legion in the same manner as chain letters. Senders were cautioned not to sign their names when mailing the cards to others. Among other things the card said were:

DO YOU KNOW THAT YOUR BOYS OR GIRLS WHO ATTEND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ARE COMPELLED

- To sit with Negroes in school.
- To eat with Negroes in the school restaurants.
- To take swimming lessons in the same pool at the same time.
- To play with the Negro in the school playground.
- To associate with the Negro in all phases of school life.
- That they are permitted to attend school parties and encouraged to dance together.
- That there are many NEGRO TEACHERS TEACHING WHITE CHILDREN in the schools.
- That Negro groups have demanded of the school boards to be given more representation in the schools by placing Negro teachers over white classes.
- That Negro students have attacked white children and teachers in the schools and that these cases are kept quiet by the school principals because it would jeopardize their positions.
- That there are police records of criminal attacks by Negroes. Your boy or girl who grows up in this atmosphere is being taught to disregard racial lines. Eventually they will intermarry with the Negro. DO YOU WANT THIS TO HAPPEN IN YOUR FAMILY? IF NOT, HELP THIS MOVE TO SEGREGATE THE NEGROES AND THE WHITES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

While all this happened in Michigan, it is the same propaganda which the South has used as an excuse to "keep the Negro in his place" and the same propaganda which Negro haters all over the country are using to convert others to their way of thinking.

Low brow organizations do a lot of harm to many non-suspecting young people who unwittingly join societies of this character. They make it highly necessary that such organizations as the N.A.A.C.P. and others whose object is to disseminate propaganda asking fair play for Negroes not only exist but function aggressively.

DIAGNOSIS

(Careful Study and Time to Make It)
The practice of medicine is founded upon two essentials, diagnosis and treatment.

Of these, diagnosis is first and most fundamental, for depending upon it is the proper treatment for various diseases. Patients and relatives become to anxious and even demand to know immediately what is wrong. If your doctor says he doesn't know respect him for it and give him time to study the case, if he thinks consultation is necessary he will gladly call in assistance. Since diagnosis is the cornerstone of medical science, to master it is the aim of everyone who undertakes the art of healing while it is true that the chief end in view is treatment, this must be based upon recognition of the seat and nature of the abnormal processes to be remedied. While we have a multitude of means of ascertaining the presence and cause of disease, such as the X-Ray, or other laboratory aids, physical examination is the basis of diagnosis.

Among the first requisites for a correct diagnosis is a careful compiling of all symptoms concerning the development of the patient's illness, as well as a description of the symptoms which are in evidence at the time of the examination. Be fair to yourself and your doctor by answering those questions truthfully and carefully. Frequently patients try to deceive the doctor by refusing to tell all the facts in his case even though he is paying his hard earned money for professional advice. Develop a more tolerant attitude towards your physician when he is not able to make a diagnosis on his first visit. Remember that disease is sometimes not diagnosed until after death.

groes not only exist but function aggressively.

C. J. H.—Will I get a job someone other than what I am doing? I enjoy reading your column.

Ans.—Yes, but it will be at least three months before you find the kind of job that will appeal to you. Stick to your job at the bakery until you are able to do better.

A. M. B.—Am I wasting my time on G. W. J. or shall I go on with A. K.?

Ans.—You would be passing time only if you continue with either of the young men, for it seems to me that G. W. J. isn't very interested in you and you don't appear to care anything for A. K. Make new associates, for as it seems to me you will find happiness with someone else.

A. H. S.—Please answer as soon as possible in your column. When will mother get the money that she is expecting?

Ans.—It seems to me there will be several more weeks' delay in regards to the money that is due your mother. Her uncle's estate will have to be handled legally and it usually takes several weeks to clear such a matter up satisfactorily.

M. M.—I read your column each week and enjoy it. I have a friend that I care for and I want to know if we will be sweethearts again?

Ans.—For the past four months he has been going with a young lady continuously and it appears to me that he has very serious intentions regarding her. Look elsewhere for companionship.

L. R.—Please tell me if we will succeed in making the change we are planning? Will it be better or worse?

Ans.—Your plans are well laid out. This change will make a new man of your husband. Leave no stone unturned pushing this plan ahead.

M. M. C.—My husband is employed at a company here and he injured his foot and he doesn't want to go back to work. He wants to go out of town to work. Do you think this is advisable?

Ans.—No, for he has a good paying job and the company will care for him while he is injured. He would be acting rather foolish to give up this job and go out of the city to search for work. Encourage him to stay on this job unless he has good prospects for another.
