Des Moines Man Seriously Injured in Car Crash

Melvin Overton Near Death In Hospital at Kansas City

Melvin Overton, 25, is reported near death as a result of injuries suffered when the car which he was driving collided with a truck near Kansas City, Missouri, early Tuesday morning. He was taken to the General hospital in Kansas City, where he was still unconscious Wednesday. Attendants described his condition as critical.

The Rev. H. L. Overton, pastor of Scott M. E. church in Denver, Colorado, and former pastor at Burns in Des Moines, rushed to the bedside of his son. The injured boy was unable to recognize his father. Doctors held little hope for recovery, according to word received here by Mrs. Fred Allen, 1106 Fourteenth street.

Overton, who is employed at Younkers department store here, left for a visit to Kansas City late Monday night, accompanied by Mrs. Thurston and her two children, the report stated. It is believed that fatigue from the day's work had caused him to misjudge the headlights of the approaching truck as he neared his destination.

The details of the accident were not explained to Mrs. Allen, but the brief information revealed that in order to avoid plunging over an embankment, Overton was forced to strike the truck, which was traveling at a high rate of speed on the east side of the road. Mrs. Thurston suffered severe injuries and is in the hospital. The children were unhurt, it was said.

Overton, a former grid star at North High and all around athlete in the sports circles of the city, was a member of several radio choruses and the Burns quartet. He was a former president of the Epworth League at Burns church.

Dixie Womanhood 'Respect' Is Jolted

PROBING MAN'S DEATH
Memphis, June 19—A young Memphis society woman and a Presbyterian minister, both white, were flogged by a mob of angry whites who resented their investigation into the death of Frank Weems, tenant farmer.

The young woman, Miss Willie Sue Bladgen, secretary to Fannie Hurst, New York novelist, declared that she had been beaten with a studded leather strap and put on a train for Memphis. Rev. Claude Williams, her minister companion, was given fourteen lashes. When Miss Bladgen reported the attack, she did not know the whereabouts of the minister.

The pair had been informed that Weems, who lived in Earle, Ark., had been flogged to death by striking cotton workers. Desiring first hand information on the outrage, the two went to Earle, where they began an investigation in the Negro man's death.

LEIBOWITZ DENIES HE WILL QUIT SCOTTSBORO CASE
New York, June 19—(C)—Attorney Samuel Leibowitz issued a denial Wednesday that he will quit the Scottsboro cases, following a report from Alabama that a new group of Alabama whites will take over the defense of the nine boys. Leibowitz said there was not the slightest bit of truth in the assertion that he would withdraw from the cases. Leibowitz added that the new Alabama group has nothing to do with the defense of the boys.

Ben O. Davis, Jr., Graduates From West Point Academy

West Point, N. Y., June 19—"You are going out into the world alone now, let us hope to continue preaching the ideals and fine qualities which you have been taught at West Point. I congratulate you on behalf of the United States of America for your fine accomplishments, and it is with great pleasure that I place in your hand this certificate of graduation from the finest institution in the world."

Those were the words Gen. John J. Pershing spoke into the ears of 23 year old Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., who last Friday became the fourth Negro to graduate from the United States Military academy, and the first since 1889.

Young Davis had just completed a task that few Negroes and a small percentage of whites have been able to solve. That he succeeded with flying colors may be adjudged in the faith that he was thirty-fifth on the graduation honor roll that included 276 members. Officials at the institution said there were a total of fifty students in the class of '36, and young Davis finished thirty-fifth.

General Pershing, retired chief of the American expeditionary forces, has attended five other commencement ceremonies since his graduation in 1886 and not one of either of those classes included a Negro. There was one, John H. Alexander, in General Pershing's class, and there has been one, Col. Charles Young (1889) since, but the general was not present at that graduation.

The first Negro graduate from the institution was Lieut. H. O. Flipper, who received his diploma back in 1877. The fourth, of course, is Lieut. Benjamin O. Davis, Jr. There have been two other officers in the regular army; one of whom is Col. Benjamin O. Davis, Sr., father of the West Point graduate of last Friday. The other was Lieut. Col. John E. Greene, who retired a few years ago. Both of the latter came up from the ranks.

J. L. JOHNSON, JR., IS SWORN IN AT NAVAL ACADEMY
Washington, D. C., June 19—(Special)—On the heels of the graduation of Lt. Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., from West Point Military academy came an announcement from the government's naval training school at Annapolis, Md., this week of the admission of James L. Johnson, Jr.

Johnson was appointed to cadetship at the naval institution by Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell and is the first Negro youth to be sworn in a midshipman there in the past sixty years.

43 Years As Iowa's Only Negro Newspaper

Last week Iowa's only Negro newspaper, celebrated its 43rd year in business. It was founded in 1891. The present Bystander staff is made up of the following (seated from left to right): Col. Lafayette B. Gleason, secretary of the New York state Republican committee, asked Bradford to write a song hit, but did not know Perry was on the WPA relief. Now that Bradford has made a hit with the Republicans, speculation is rife as to how long he will get his WPA check, which comes through the grace of the Democrats.

Court Rules Young Communist Guilty of 'Slave' Law Violation, Faces Term of 18 to 20 Years

Atlanta, Ga.—Immediate steps will be taken by the International Labor Defense to appeal to the United States supreme court against the decision of the Georgia supreme court in the Herndon case, it was announced today by Anna Damon, acting national secretary, in New York. The Georgia court today handed down a decision overruling the decision of Judge Hugh M. Dorsey of the Fulton county court granting Herndon freedom on a writ of habeas corpus, challenging the constitutionality of the Georgia "insurrection law" under which Herndon was convicted and sentenced to twenty years on the Georgia chain gang two years ago. Herndon, a young Negro communist organizer of the unemployed, is now out on bail.

Stay of Execution
Application will be made immediately for stay of execution of the sentence pending appeal of the case to the United States supreme court, Miss Damon said. The appeal will be in charge of Whitney North Seymour, New York attorney, who has handled the case through its previous appeal stages.

"The decision of the Georgia supreme court is a challenge to all American labor," Miss Damon said. "At its fifty-fifth convention in Atlantic City the American Federation of Labor passed a resolution condemning the Georgia insurrection law, which was originally passed to suppress slave revolts. The action of the Georgia court in upholding the constitutionality of this monstrous statute must be met by vigorous action and protest from all sections of American labor."

Arrested in 1932
The Herndon case originated with his arrest in June, 1932. He was convicted a year later and sentenced to eighteen to twenty years on the Georgia chain gang on a charge of

Radio Comedian Donates $1600 For Scholarship

AMOS GIVES BONUS CHECK TO AID RACE EDUCATION
Chicago—With $1,600 given by Fremar F. Gosden, Amos of the famous team of Amos 'n' Andy as a nucleus, a move is being pushed forward by the Chicago Defender, Negro weekly, to establish a $50,000 scholarship fund for the education of Negro youths.

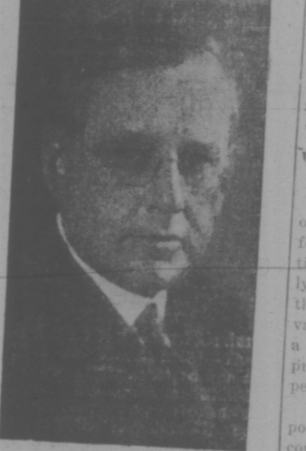

Mr. Gosden, a world war veteran, in a letter to Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Defender, stated, "I will receive fifteen hundred and some odd dollars from the government as a bonus. I will add the necessary amount to make up $1,600 and give it to a fund to be used to help educate four colored boys."

This unselfish and unsolicited act on the part of the noted comedian has led to the move to create a permanent fund to be used to aid worthy students annually.

"Inciting to insurrection." In 1934 the Georgia supreme court refused to reverse the conviction on an appeal taken by the International Labor Defense. The case was taken to the United States supreme court, which refused to consider the case, pleading lack of jurisdiction. Justices Cardozo, Stone and Brandeis vigorously dissented from this opinion.

A writ of habeas corpus brought by the International Labor Defense, which retained Mr. Seymour, was granted by Judge Hugh M. Dorsey of Fulton county, Georgia, last December. The present decision of the Georgia state supreme court is an appeal taken by the state against this decision of Judge Dorsey.

Party's Choice

GOV. ALF M. LANDON
Negro Back on G.O.P. Platform
Cleveland, O., June 12—(C)—For the first time in eight years the Negro reappeared in the platform of the Republican party as Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas was nominated unanimously as candidate for president. Under "Bill of Rights," section 2, the platform reads:

"We favor equal opportunity for our colored citizens. We pledge our status and personal safety. We will do our best to further their employment in the gainfully occupied life of America, particularly in private industry, agriculture, emergency agencies and the civil service.

"We condemn the present New Deal policies which would regiment and ultimately eliminate the colored citizen from the country's productive life and make him solely a ward of the federal government."

Howard Still In
Publication of the names of the new Republican national committee reveals that Perry W. Howard and Mrs. Mary C. Booz of Mississippi are the only Negroes left of that body.

80,000 March in Baptist Parade

FOUR BRASS BANDS
PLAY "ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS"
New Orleans, La., June 19—(Special)—To the strains of "Hail the Baptists" and "Onward Christian Soldiers," played by four brass bands, eight thousand Boyd Baptists and New Orleans citizens braved a scorching sun Sunday afternoon and marched along principal streets in a spectacular and colorful parade, which brought to a close the thirty-first annual session of the National Baptist Sunday School Congress.

While a crowd of some 50,000 or more persons looked on, the marchers stepped gaily over six miles of hot pavement, mopping their brows and trying as best they could to weather the intense heat which drove the mercury to 95 degrees. At least a score who started out found themselves unable to keep pace and were forced to drop out. It was by far the largest spectacle to be staged here since the famous Mardi Gras season.

Ickes to Address NAACP Conference
New York, June 19—Secretary Harold L. Ickes of the department of the interior will deliver the principal address at the opening of the twenty-seventh annual conference of the N. A. A. C. P. in Baltimore, Maryland, on the night of June 20th, it was announced here today.

Mr. Ickes, whose work has touched more colored people than any other government department with the exception of that of Harry L. Hopkins, is expected to deal with the problems of colored Americans, and to explain how the New Deal is attempting to include them in the various plans for recovery. It is expected that the address will be broadcast over a nation-wide radio network.

The conference will be welcomed to Baltimore by Mayor Jackson for the city and by Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore branch. Also speaking on the opening night will be Dr. Louis T. Wright, chairman of the board of directors, who will give a report of the year's work.

Negro Boys Chased Out Of Birdland Swim Pool

GOOD PARK BEACH TO BE READY IN TWO WEEKS
By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

A black water spaniel took a dip in the new WPA financed Birdland pool Monday and enjoyed it so much that he rated an eight column spread in the daily paper. Last week a couple of colored boys were chased out of the same public swimming beach by a group of whites for seeking relief from the 97 degree temperatures. The trouble was reported to the park board by a white girl who witnessed the assault on the Negroes. She expressed her indignation at the incident in no uncertain terms. Several conferences have been held with city officials about the matter. Negro girl swimmers have been unmolested, it is reported.

Joe Green, 15, accompanied by his brother, Arthur, and a friend, Anthony Tymony, were ordered out of the pool Sunday by a crowd of white men led by Joe Coppola, well known North High athlete. In the fight which ensued, one of the attackers was severely slashed and bruised on his arms and hands by a knife wielded by the older Green boy, who struck in self-defense. Johnny Johnson, North High color and manager of the pool, said that the "colored people are just as much entitled to swim in the pool as anybody," and told the Negroes to stay there.

The pool at Good park, Seventeenth and University, is nearing completion and will be ready in two weeks' time, according to Mel Harvey, executive secretary of the park board. Negro lifeguards applicants are taking examinations now. In an interview with C. A. (Chuck) Allward, manager of the Ashworth pool at Greenwood park, he said: "We cannot keep colored people out of these pools, but, of course, undesirable situations and trouble result from unfriendly people."

Allward, a former West High grid star and well known sports referee and official, stated to your reporter this week: "I wish you would tell the colored people of Des Moines, through your paper, that we managers are friendly to them and we do not attempt to bar anyone. But we are faced with other situations that are beyond our control." On the desk in his office is a typewritten copy of chapter 602, section 13251, of the code of Iowa, civil rights law, which he willingly showed when questioned about the policy at Ashworth.
