D.M. Woman Is O.E.S. Matron

Electa Grand Chapter, O. E. S., Iowa and its jurisdiction of twenty-eight chapters, held its twenty-eighth annual session in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, June 16, 17 and 18 at the Bethel A. M. E. church. Mrs. Mattie R. Gould, W. G. matron, presided, assisted by Ed Askew, W. G. patron. One of the main features of the worthy grand matron's report was of her attendance at the International Conference of Chapters, held in Washington, D. C., last August. ### Joy Reigns for the Colored Ex-Soldier

NEGRO VETERANS GET BONUS
Joy reigned in many an impoverished Negro home this week as World War veterans here began receiving their share of the $2,300,000,000 which the government is distributing as adjusted wages for the months and years they spent in training camps, dugouts and trenches.

Of the 3,518,191 veterans who will benefit from the bonus payment, it is estimated that 9 per cent are colored. Some 300,000 Negro veterans will collect approximately $158,000,000. Of this, $5,000,000 will be collected in New York City, it is believed. Many of the bonus recipients were nerve-wracked, broken, middle-aged men in hospitals. They had waited eighteen years for their bonus. The bill authorizing payment of the bonus in checks and bonds was passed by Congress last January over President Roosevelt's veto.

U. S. TO PROBE ARKANSAS TROUBLE

Little Rock, Ark., June 26—(C)—U. S. Attorney General Cummings has directed S. E. Whitaker, special assistant, to question Miss Willie S. Bladen on Memphis and Rev. C. C. Williams of Little Rock, who have charged they were beaten near Earle, Ark., last week for helping cotton choppers who are on strike. Both the complainants are white.

Negroes Barred From Two Shows at Carnival

"THIS IS FOR WHITES ONLY, BUDDY," MANAGER TELLS DON PARKER

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer
Old Man Race Hatred reared its ugly head in Iowa's fair city again this week and started immediate action by the Des Moines city council. When Don Parker, 204 Watrous block, attended the carnival operated by the Sunset Amusement company at East Nineteenth and University avenue last week, he was refused admittance with this statement, "You can't come in, buddy; this show is for whites only." This mediocre outfit, who thought it was showing at the Texas Centennial, has two or three fourth rate concessions in operation which Jim-Crowed colored people, Parker said. The carnival is sponsored by the Disabled Veterans organization of this city.

Writes Letter
Assisted by Atty. J. Nelson Thompson, the following letter, in part, was directed by Mr. Parker to each member of the city council, chief of police, sheriff and county attorney:

"I am wondering if you, as one of the members of the city council, voted for a license to the carnival that is exhibiting this week at East Nineteenth and University. If you did vote thusly, do you know that they are operating contrary to the laws of the state of Iowa and of the city of Des Moines in respect that they exclude from several of their shows all people who are not white. This is in direct violation of the civil rights statutes."

In reply, Safety Commissioner HasBrouck stated he, with several members of the council, interviewed the carnival management and several Negroes last Thursday, June 18th. They learned that, reported HasBrouck, the trouble was at one particular concession, where a group of

Samuel S. Leibowitz Remains Head of Boys' Defense Counsel

New York, June 26—(CNA)—Trials of six of the nine Scottsboro boys were postponed from mid-July to November 2 by Judge W. W. Callahan, the Scottsboro defense committee announced this week. Samuel S. Leibowitz remains chief defense counsel for the boys, the Rev. Allan Knight Chalmers, chairman of the committee, said in repudiating an intimation by Lieut. Gov. Thomas E. Knight, Jr., special prosecutor in the case, that Alabama attorneys would head the defense.

Knight had made public the formation of an Alabama Scottsboro committee. Touching on that, Mr. Chalmers said: "We state most emphatically that Lieut. Gov. Thomas E. Knight shall have no part in determining counsel for the boys whom he has prosecuted for more than five years for a crime of which they are innocent. Samuel S. Leibowitz is chief counsel for the Scottsboro boys and there is no basis for any impression to the contrary."

John D. Rust, of Memphis, also white, has written President Roosevelt urging that an inquiry be made into the flooding charges. Most of the workers in the East Arkansas area are colored tenant farmers, and attempts to unionize them have brought clashes with plantation owners.

K.C. Rockets at Pla-Lan Monday

Harlan Leonard and Kansas City Rockets will play at the Pla-Lan, Seventh and Grand, Monday. Fifteen pieces and three entertainers will direct this band, which is coming direct from the Hotel Muehlebach in Kansas City. Charles Goodwin is the vocalist.

This band of young musicians is popular throughout the south and southwest and is including Iowa in its first stop in the northern tour, T. L. (Speck) Howard, dance promoter, said. "The ballroom is air cooled every fifteen minutes."

Advance ticket sales, at reduced rates, close Monday noon at Wonder Inn, 1110 Center street; Hardaway's, 1104 Center street, and Walker Street Pharmacy, E. Sixteenth and Walker streets.

Leonard's Rockets engaged in a battle of music recently with Cab Calloway's band to 10,000 persons at Convention hall. They broadcast regularly over radio stations.

N. Y. ITALIANS CELEBRATE CONQUEST OF ETHIOPIA

New York, June 19—(C)—More than 20,000 Italians thronged Madison Square Garden Saturday night in a huge celebration of the conquest of Ethiopia by Italy. Mussolini was freely praised, and $100,000 more was sent to the Italian Red Cross. A total of $700,000 has been sent to Italy by American Italians to aid in conquering Ethiopia, it was announced.

for whites only. It is the order of the management." At the time I was refused admittance there were no groups of Negro people blocking the doorway at any of those concessions.

I have evidence of the fact that these conditions were altered immediately upon being brought to bear upon the management of the carnival and the Negroes were not excluded. I also at this time wish to thank you for the interest you have taken in this case and earnestly trust that you will continue to take such interest in the affairs of this kind so that such discrimination in Des Moines will be completely eradicated.

Respectfully yours,
Donald Parker.

Nat'l Progress Fair Slated for Aug. 15

HARLEM TO CELEBRATE RACE DIAMOND JUBILEE

New York, June 26—(C)—Former Alderman George W. Harris announced the National Progress Fair, Diamond Jubilee celebration commemorating the Emancipation Proclamation, at the world's largest and finest recreation center, the Lido, 146th street between Lenox and Seventh avenues, August 15th. The celebration is sponsored by the Association of Trade and Commerce, which was founded in 1921.

Mr. Harris is promoter and Arthur C. Harris is manager. It is planned to create a Coney Island in Harlem for this celebration. Street parades, water carnivals, mass meetings, moonlight cantatas, dancing contests and brilliant functions will be a part of the program.

Trade Union Plan To Unite Forces

LEWIS TO ORGANIZE NEGROES IN STEEL

Washington, June 26—(CNA)—Plans for the organization of the steel industry announced by the committee for industrial organization, headed by John L. Lewis, include measures for uniting Negro and white steel workers.

There are four thousand Negro workers in the steel industry and these have been the worst victims of the lack of a powerful trade union. It is now planned to draw them into the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers along with tens of thousands of unorganized white steel workers.

Mr. Harris is promoter and Arthur C. Harris is manager. It is planned to create a Coney Island in Harlem for this celebration. Street parades, water carnivals, mass meetings, moonlight cantatas, dancing contests and brilliant functions will be a part of the program.

Attempt to Break Up 'Bonus' Party

TEXAS MOB HUNTS TEN FOR 'MASS' LYNCHING

Wharton, Tex., June 26—(C)—A mob of about three hundred white men and women were hot on the trail of ten colored persons, six men and four women, ten on a "mass" lynching in retaliation for the alleged murder by stabbing of Ted Simmons, white, 30 year old special officer, who is said to have met his death while attempting to quiet a disturbance among colored veterans celebrating the receipt of their bonus.

The colored side of the story has not as yet been told. Officers were rushing the prisoners to different jails to foil the mob. Just why Simmons is designated as a "special officer" and what he was doing among colored people who were "celebrating" is not revealed in first accounts of the tragedy.

JULIAN GETS NEW ITALIAN NAME

Naples, Italy, June 26—(C)—Hubert Julian, formerly of Ethiopia, who announced a few days ago when he sailed from New York that he is now an Italian by virtue of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia, got a new Italian name as he landed here last Thursday for a tour of the country. Julian is now "Col. Huberto Fauntleroy Julianiano."

Julian kept customs officials cooling their heels outside his cabin several minutes while he put the finishing touches on his formal attire. He was fussy about a carnation for his buttonhole, discarding a white one and waiting, patting his foot in annoyance, while a red one was secured and brought to him.

RUST COLLEGE SINGERS IN PROGRAM AT WOODWARD

(Special to the Bystander)
Woodward, Iowa—The Rust College Singers from Holly Springs, Mississippi, were heard in a program at the M. E. church here Monday, June 15th. Several persons from Moran and Dallas attended.

R. C. Morgan, manager of the chorus, gave a brief talk outlining the school. Mrs. Vivian Warrick-Parker of Des Moines and graduate of Drake university, is the director.

The Rev. J. H. Ross of Moran gave the invocation and the Rev. E. D. Brown of Girard, Kansas, gave the benediction. The Rev. Mr. Coats is pastor of the church.

Sen. Smith, South Carolina, Bolts Democratic Meeting

Colored Minister Opens Session With Prayer

PHILADELPHIA — Aroused to seething rage because of the presence of Negro delegates and Rev. Marshall Shepard, Negro minister of the Mt. Olivet Tabernacle in Philadelphia opened the afternoon session with prayer, Senator Ellison D. Smith, a delegate-at-large from South Carolina, stormed out of the Democratic national convention Wednesday.

The veteran solon of 27 years in the U. S. Senate, was followed by a few of the members of the Dixie delegation. Gov. Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina, said that Smith was "lucky to be here as a delegate" and said that other members had no intention of following the lead of the "hot headed southerner."

The fact that Rep. Arthur W. Mitchell of Illinois, only Negro representative in Congress had been selected to second the nomination of President Roosevelt, further infuriated Smith, a bitter opponent of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill. "I'm through with Negro business of the convention and I'll walk out whenever a Negro has a part," he screamed.

"Social Equal"

Senator Smith, blazing mad, had said he "would not support any political organization that looks upon the Negro and caters to him as a political and social equal."

"The situation in the south before and since the Civil War makes it impossible for the south to recognize and accept the Negro as an equal political factor," he raved. "Political equality means social equality and social equality means intermarriage and that means the mongrelizing of the American race."

In His Place

"There is not a man in America that has more regard for the Negro in his place than I have."

"But realizing the unspeakable danger inherent in this thing, I cannot and will not be a party to the recognition of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments."

Tells of Hideout, Is Bound, Beaten

Detroit, June 26—(CNA)—A white woman who gave police information on the hiding place of one of the presses which the hooded Black Legion used to produce its anti-Negro fascist literature was found bound, gagged and brutally beaten in her apartment last week.

The attack, described by the prosecutor's office as "undoubtedly the work of a Black Legion avenger," came a half hour after fifteen white men had been ordered held for trial on charges of conspiring to murder political leaders of the terrorist organization which sought to establish a fascist dictatorship in the United States under a program calling for the crushing of labor, Negro, Jewish and Catholic groups.

The latest victim of the Black Legion terror, Mrs. Dorothy Guthrie, was taken to the receiving hospital in a serious condition. Mrs. Guthrie regained consciousness there and told William E. Dowling, assistant prosecutor, that she was seized by a

Melvin Overton's Condition Is Same

The condition of Melvin Overton, 25, 907 Seventeenth street, Des Moines, who was critically injured in a car-truck crash Tuesday, June 16, at Cameron Junction, Missouri, on his way to Kansas City, Missouri, is unchanged, according to reports received here Wednesday. William Ashby, Allen Ashby and Chester Williamson motored to Kansas City last Saturday to see Overton, who is confined in Phyllis Wheatley hospital.

Overton, who was driving a Ford V-8, collided with a truck traveling at a high rate of speed on the wrong side of the road near a steep embankment sixty miles northeast of Kansas City. He suffered a fractured skull, body bruises, severe lacerations of the arms and hands and is in a semi-conscious condition, friends said, and is allowed to receive visitors only a brief time.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Overton of Denver, Colorado, plan to take their son with them to recuperate, after his release, which will be about a month, hospital attendants say. He is being attended by Mrs. Virginia Mackay Butler, nurse, formerly of Des Moines. Mrs. Naomi Thurston, who was riding with Overton, is recovering at the hospital. She and her two children suffered from shock.

man she did not see as she returned to her home after doing some shopping.

Mrs. Guthrie had told police two weeks ago that her home had been used for three years as a Black Legion meeting place, and that her husband had printed literature for the night riders, including their ritual and their pronouncements against "Communists, Negroes, Jews and Catholics" in the basement of the home. She said she had been compelled at pistol point to take the membership oath.

Arrested during the past week disclosed that members of the secret hooded order were supplied with U. S. government ammunition and that a number of police chiefs in northern cities as well as members of their force, had taken out membership in the order.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Now we are picking up the pieces of our busted idol. The southern newspapers are expressing their delirious joy at the supremacy of the white race being restored and millions of Negroes are shaking their heads saying "it can't be true."

How could a man who was only a mediocre boxer outclass another who seemed to have everything? Frameup!! Bah!! Dismiss the thought.

We were eager to see the pictures of the brawl and after seeing them figured things out to our satisfaction. In almost any game there comes along a man who outclasses the field and yet has a glaring weakness which he manages to cover up.

Louis was in good physical condition but no youth under twenty-five can stand pace with a veteran of thirty if both are in the same condition. It was experience and maturity against youth and when the pressure was applied youth wasn't there as is almost always the case.

Wednesday night in "Early to Bed" the pathetic tale of a timid soul who walked in his sleep. On the same program are returning Will Rogers' greatest picture, Mark Twain's inimitable "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

LAUGHS GALORE AT DES MOINES AND ROOSEVELT
Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland are on view at the Des Moines and Roosevelt theatres through next

The youngster proved he could take it and had plenty of courage, but old Man Experience was just too tough. Let no one kid you about Max Schmeling being an old man. There is no man as tough and hard as a thirty or thirty-one year old veteran who has lived a clean life throughout. He may not be as fast as he was at eighteen or twenty, but brothers, he is hard and seasoned. What he lacks in speed he makes up by keenness of judgment and stamina and endurance. He knows just when to let go and when to hold back. For these reasons a man's best competitive years in sports requiring durability and ability to take it are from twenty-five to thirty-five, if he will pay the price in his early youth. Schmeling paid the price and cashed in last week at the expense of all the Negroes in the country.

There is no middle ground, you dance or you fiddle; Schmeling chose to fiddle. Louis was in good physical condition but no youth under twenty-five can stand pace with a veteran of thirty if both are in the same condition. It was experience and maturity against youth and when the pressure was applied youth wasn't there as is almost always the case.

Wednesday night in "Early to Bed" the pathetic tale of a timid soul who walked in his sleep. On the same program are returning Will Rogers' greatest picture, Mark Twain's inimitable "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

Loretta Young is at the Paramount theatre this week with Franchot Tone in "The Unguarded Hour." The companion picture is an especially gay and tuneful romance "Palm Springs" starring Frances Langford.

E. Plamadore, district manager for the Northwestern Bell Telephone company.

In those cases where payments of 25 cents a month have been made for a period of less than thirty-six months, the 15 cents a month charge, which will become effective July 1, will be continued until a total of thirty-six full monthly payments have been made, stated Mr. Plamadore.

Walda.
Gather Round All youse Guds and Gals,
Lend to me your good eyes and ears
Brings sadness or cheer.
Listen to gossip that
Pap Pohn answer us this. How do you manage to be at three places at the same time; Corinthian Jr. Choir, St. Simon G. K. D., and Burn's service? Just what is that force that draws you to all three places?

12th street seems to have something to say everytime somebody brings up Miss Brown's name: Look out? ? ? who is it that has a certain young lady's name.

Corinthian's soft ball team should go places with the Robinson family being so well represented. G. Warren is on the mound, H. Crockett behind the plate a Owen (just returned from college) on first base.

G. A. W. seems to be walking around in a daze. They say ??? is blind—maybe that is why he goes around singing, "With Every Breath I Take."—It seems that L. Q. was queen for five days while riding in R. K.'s car and ! ! ! !

Flash—Guess where C. Simms and E. E. go every week? Answer—to see the Wade sisters—Bob Parker has quit summer school and is planning on spending more time trying to persuade Mrs. Tolson to let him wash dishes so he can nearer his "Heart." From a reliable source comes this astounding fact that B. P., Dolly M., C. Skaly B., Q. C., would jump at the snap of George E. finger—In short, they are that way about her!!! And after her getting all the medals and ribbons from Keokuk—The Gamma, Kappa Delta softball team will be a real success if G. E., J. M., and V. Wade will stay away so the team can concentrate on the game—Ken (Butch) Burris has relaxed and let himself go (in other words love is in the air) where M. Adams of Chicago is concerned.

Just imagine: Joe Danforth without some place to go—M. Cooley with M. E.—Dolly M. going with M. Bailey—E. Powell without Bessie Colbert—Chet Simms going with G. Edmunds again—Ed Eaves married to D. W.—Yeah—Just imagine. Flash—Johnson of Jordan High is going up on 17th street again according to late reports everything is all arranged except the ring—D. W. here seems to be something fishy about this—Well-being as how I don't know as more dirt—I guess I will quit by citing V. Barker and D. Graham because they are both that way but they don't know who with.

—Thomas Burke Evans, Jr. Esquire.

FOUR VIRGINIA STATE TROOPERS PUT WOMAN OFF BUS AT MIDNIGHT

New York, June 26—Miss Edna Reed of Yonkers, New York, filed a complaint here this week with the N. A. A. C. P. charging that four Virginia state troopers forced her to leave a bus at Alexandria, Va., at 12:30 a. m. May 10th because she refused to surrender her seat to a white man, his wife and child.

Miss Reed states that she bought ticket No. 2548 over the Great Eastern bus system from New York to Greensboro, N. C., and was assigned seat No. 16. She boarded a bus in Yonkers and was brought to the New York City bus terminal, where she took her seat in the through bus for Greensboro. She says she was told she could have seat No. 16 to Richmond, Va., and then might have to change in accordance with state laws.

Guests of honor sharing with the pastors' greetings by the membership, were the Rev. Garfield Tipton, District Superintendent, the Rev. Thompson and wife of Minneapolis, son-in-law and daughter of Dr. Brown. Rev. Tipton conducted the Quarterly Meeting at Burns Cunday. The Rev. J. A. Alexander, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's A. M. E. church and his choir officiated at the 3 o'clock service.

She says a white man, his wife and child boarded the bus just outside of Washington and there were no seats for them. The driver, Jack McCall, No. 54, told her she would have to give up her seat. This she refused to do. After some argument, the passengers took a hand and the situation looked threatening, most of them being hostile to Miss Reed. She stuck to her point, however, but at Alexandria, Va., the driver summoned four state troopers, who told her she would give up the seat "or else."

Atlanta, Ga.—Immediate steps will be taken by the International Labor Defense to appeal to the United States supreme court against the decision of the Georgia supreme court in the Herndon case, it was announced today by Anna Damon, acting national secretary, in New York.

The Georgia court today handed down a decision overruling the decision of Judge Hugh M. Dorsey of the Fulton county court granting Herndon freedom on a writ of habeas corpus, challenging the constitutionality of the Georgia "insurrection law" under which Herndon was convicted and sentenced to twenty years on the Georgia chain gang two years ago. Herndon, a young Negro communist organizer of the unemployed, is now out on bail.

Application will be made immediately for stay of execution of the sentence pending appeal of the case to the United States supreme court, Miss Damon said. The appeal will be in charge of Whitney North Seymour, New York attorney, who has handled the case through its previous appeal stages.

The Herndon case originated with his arrest in June, 1932. He was convicted a year later and sentenced to eighteen to twenty years on the Georgia chain gang on a charge of "inciting to insurrection."

THE FIGHT

Like most people, The Bystander was shocked at the results of the Louis-Schmeling fight. Few honest opinions were otherwise. However, desiring at all times to be a good sport, there is no question that Joe got a good beating and Schmeling certainly did it.

There are some features of the fight that stand explanation in view of the high plane upon which Louis has kept his fights. In fact he more than any other man in recent years has succeeded in building up confidence in the public that prize fighting could be open and above board.

(1) For instance the referee announced that Joe was slow from the start and never delivered the man-killing punches that characterized his former fights. (2) How a man of Joe's ability allowed a one-eyed man to knock him out. (3) Why a man of his age could not recuperate faster from a set back over a period of eight months.

Possibly these things will never be explained satisfactorily. But this set back ought to make an even greater fighter of Joe if he does not lose his nerve. He gained experience he never had before, he is young and has much time ahead to regain his laurels.

Unfortunately some Negroes in Harlem went far afield from fair play when they stoned and molested white people passing through that section following the fight. Of course whites did the same thing and worse to Negroes when Jack Johnson beat Jeffries but this is no valid excuse for such conduct.

Negroes of all people cannot afford to pursue a policy of mob violence for in the end they are the greatest sufferers from such crimes. Fortunately for Des Moines no such foolishness existed because the average Negro and white man appears to have sense enough to keep a level head.

In the police department in Des Moines the bulletin of arrest asks the nationality of prisoners. All whites are designated "Americans" while all colored people "Negroes." Possibly many offices confuse nationality with race and possibly some don't know.

Joe Louis is an American and Max Schmeling a German but many people were more desirous that a white man win than that an American win. They get into their thinking that Negroes are not Americans and in instances like this make them put race above nationality—a wrong thing to do of course.

USURPING SOME RIGHTS

In one of his speeches while on a speaking tour of the South, President Roosevelt attempted to answer some of those who accuse him of usurping states rights. He assured his audience that only in those instances where the states had failed to function to the detriment of its citizens had the federal government stepped in and taken over the job.

The trouble about the statement is that he should have added "if it happened to be a matter in which the administration is sufficiently interested." The argument used by the President is sound logic on the anti-lynching question for in no field has the states broken down so completely as in this.

Of course the trouble is in the fight against lynching is looked upon as a fight for the Negro and President Roosevelt does not choose to bill the cat. He is interested in the "forgotten man" but certainly with limitations.

BONUS FUNDS

Foes of ex-service men and others opposed to the payment of the soldiers bonus predicted that when the money came a large number of the veterans would blow it to the wind; that a few wild nights and many would be broke.

News dispatches tell of slight brawls here and there but as for Des Moines the boys have been pretty level headed. Speaking of the Negro veterans, The Bystander notes from police records and general observations that there has been no increase in crime of any kind; in fact the record at the Municipal Court shows no record of arrests for intoxication or any other crime of a Negro veteran since payments began.

Of course this does not mean that all have been sober or otherwise breaking the law. The point is the money has not gone to their heads unduly.

The Bystander believes that most veterans have made good use of their money.

What Others Say

WHAT OTHERS SAY

To the Editor:

Nothing that has happened in a long time has brought more disappointment to Negroes all over the country than Joe Louis' defeat. Not because it is of such great importance, but because of this disappointment is "because."

It is amazing that so many people will pay such enormous prices for the pleasure (?) of seeing two sane men pound each other into blood clots for no reason at all. But anyhow there was high hope and expectation that Joe would win.

After all, this defeat may be his greatest victory. It is true he has stood upon the pinnacle of hero worship and apparently his head has stayed normal in size, but no one can say just how much longer he could have stood the applause. Dunbar wrote:

"Mere human strength may stand ill fortune's frown,
So I prevailed for human strength was mine;
But from the killing strength of great renown
Naught may protect me but a strength divine.
Help me, oh Lord, in this my trembling cause,
I scorn men's curses, but dread applause."

It seems that occasional defeat and disappointment are just as much a part of mortal existence as are triumph and success. In fact it seems that most human beings must drink deeply of both before they can develop true character.

Although he has displayed rare poise and common sense during his skyrocket career, there is no doubt that he has grown considerably since that eventful night of June 19th.

Whether he regains his place in the ring doesn't matter much. He has already given Negro youth (and all other youth) a splendid example of individuality and courage to stand by one's convictions.

Of course what Joe Louis does with his life is strictly Joe Louis' business, but we do not feel presumptuous in hoping that he will use his fortune and those fine qualities that make up his personality on something that will be of greater value to his race and to himself than fighting.

WISCONSIN JUDGE PROUD OF LYNCHING THREAT

New York, June 19—Judge August C. Hoppmann of the ninth judicial circuit of Wisconsin has written the N. A. A. C. P. that he has no apologies to make for his statement from the bench in a recent case involving a young Negro and a white girl student at the University of Wisconsin as follows: "In many places after what happened you would not have the chance to be brought before a court—you know what I mean by that. All the gods of fate were in your favor."

This statement appeared in a Milwaukee daily paper and was sent to the N. A. A. C. P. The association protested to Judge Hoppmann, stating that his remarks were an encouragement to lynchers.

In the case before him the young colored man had been charged on the word of a policeman with lustful assault, after being shot near the scene of the alleged crime. However, when the case reached court, the defense produced three witnesses who said

FOOD POISONING ACUTE DIARRHEA

With the coming of summer and the urge to picnic and eat out of doors, many cases of food poisoning will be seen. Extreme precautions should be taken to keep all foods fresh and water from becoming contaminated. Children are more susceptible to these infections than adults and usually become very, very ill even causing death at times.

Most individuals poisoned by the ingestion of spoiled food or of contaminated water manifest the following symptoms: gastric pain, anorexia, and perhaps vomiting, vertigo and cold clamminess of the skin, and diarrhea, usually accompanied by much straining.

Patients suffering with a nattaack should have their stomachs emptied immediately and a cathartic given. Rest in bed and no food except cold liquids for 24 to 36 hours.

They were present when the officer shot the boy. This circumstance prevented the charge from being sustained and the defendant was given a much lighter sentence.

NO DATE FIXED FOR U. OF MISSOURI CASE

Columbia, Mo., June 19—No date has been set as yet for the hearing of the case where Lloyd Gaines, young colored college graduate, is attempting to secure admittance to the school of law of the University of Missouri here. Charles H. Houston of New York and Sidney R. Redmond of St. Louis, counsel for Gaines, conferred here this week on the matter of the date.

Summer vacations and trials in other parts of the state requiring the presence of the lawyers for the university make a decision difficult. The university has six lawyers, two from St. Louis, one from Kansas City, one from Springfield and two from this city.

AMOS GIVES BONUS CHECK TO AID RACE-EDUCATION

Chicago—With $1,600 given by Freeman F. Gosden, Amos of the famous team of Amos 'n' Andy as a nucleus, a move is being pushed forward by the Chicago Defender, Negro weekly, to establish a $50,000 scholarship fund for the education of Negro youths.

Mr. Gosden, a world war veteran, in a letter to Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Defender, stated, "I will receive fifteen hundred and some odd dollars from the government as a bonus. I will add the necessary amount to make up $1,600 and give it to a fund to be used to help educate four colored boys."

This unselfish and unsolicited act on the part of the noted comedian has led to the move to create a permanent fund to be used to aid worthy students annually.

LEIBOWITZ DENIES HE WILL QUIT SCOTTSBORO CASE

New York, June 19—(C)—Attorney Samuel Leibowitz issued a denial Wednesday that he will quit the Scottsboro cases, following a report from Alabama that a new group of Alabama whites will take over the defense of the nine boys. Leibowitz said there was not the slightest bit of truth in the assertion that he would withdraw from the cases. Leibowitz added that the new Alabama group has nothing to do with the defense of the boys.

J. L. JONSON, JR., IS SWORN IN AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Washington, D. C., June 19—(Special)—On the heels of the graduation of Lt. Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., from West Point Military academy came an announcement from the government's naval training school at Annapolis, Md., this week of the admittance of James L. Johnson, Jr.

Johnson was appointed to cadetship at the naval institution by Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell and is the first Negro youth to be sworn in a midshipman there in the past thirty years.

A. B. C.—I am sick and I heard of a healer in another state and I want to go. Do you think he will cure me?

Ans.—It would be to your advantage to consult with a good physician right in your home town and he will be able to give you relief from your condition. I do not think that the healer can help you as much as a doctor.

L. W. S.—I quit my job Saturday because the head woman moved me to a different floor. Did I do right and will I get another good job?

Ans.—You made a terrible mistake by quitting your job. As long as you are employed you must abide by the rules of the firm. The head woman was only doing what she thought to be the right thing by moving you. You will find work within a short time, but not as good job as you have had the past five years.

B. B. S.—I am married and my husband doesn't treat me as I think I should be treated. Please advise me what to do?

Ans.—Now is the time to correct this mistake when marriage is new for both of you. He doesn't realize that he is being selfish to leave you alone, but if you talk with him and explain that two can play the same game that he is trying to play, he will see his mistake.

X. Y. Z.—Will the man that I dream of so often come into my life again?

Ans.—I do not contact this man ever meaning very much to your future happiness. You appear to be infatuated with his good looks instead of his true self. Please send your correct address if you desire a private answer, also full name.

H. A. A.—I am possessed with an evil odor which has caused me considerable worry and humiliation. I consulted a doctor and he said there wasn't anything serious. What must I do?

Ans.—She is associating with the wrong bunch of young people. It is too late now to break her up and the only solution is to move out of your present community and send her to boarding school next year. I am afraid you allowed her too much freedom at her tender age.

Ans.—Your mother's two hens made a very appetizing Easter dinner for several young men who were touring the country. She won't get these hens back.

I. P.—My daughter was brought up in Sunday school and church and she goes out and drinks and acts like something is wrong with her mind. Oh please help me and tell me what to do?
