C.—The appointment of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, of Daytona Beach, Fla., as director of Negro activities for the National Youth administration, was announced today by Aubrey W. Williams, executive director. She succeeds Miss Juanita Sadler, New York, who has resigned. Mrs. Bethune has been a member of the N. Y. "The National Youth administration is securing in Mrs. Bethune the services of one of the most outstanding women of the Negro race," Mr. Williams commented. Mt. Pleasant, Iowa—Two hundred and sixty students and leaders spent a week meeting the various current problems and teachings of Jesus Christ at the Pioneer Young People's Institute, which met at Mt. Pleasant, the home of the Pioneer college, Iowa Wesleyan.

The outstanding contribution to the Institute program was a class on "Race Relations," led by Rev. S. M. Riley, Jr., of the LaSalle M. E. church of St. Louis, Mo. He is the first man of his race to spend a week of leadership at this institute and it appears that the young people have given a unanimous invitation for his work to continue for another year.

P. In a telegram to Attorney General Homer S. Cummings the N. A. A. C. P. charged that Whittaker is prejudiced against Negroes and that he refused to investigate a report that seventeen Negroes were confined in a stockade in Arkansas by planters.

According to the N. A. A. C. P. report, Whittaker, when told of the stockade, is said to have asked whether the men were whites or Negroes. On being told they were Negroes, he is reported to have declared: "Oh, nobody would believe Negroes."

New York, July 3—The omission of any mention of lynching or of other injustices to which Negroes are subjected in the platform adopted by the Democratic convention was termed "a grave disappointment" by the N. A. A. C. P. in a telegram today to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The association urged the president to "remedy these omissions as far as possible in your acceptance speech Saturday night."

Texas Exposition Is Insult to Race

Dallas, Texas, June 26—(Special)—Negroes visiting the Texas Centennial exposition Friday expressed disappointment over the location of the $50,000 Hall of Negro Life, which has been set aside from other exhibit buildings and hidden by a row of cedar trees.

Officials of the Streets of Paris, a concession, closed doors on June 26, stating that "niggers had no business seeing nude white women." The Old Nuremberg restaurant opposite the Ford building near the entrance of the Cotton Bowl, let down its color bar Friday and offered watermelons, pork chops and chicken dinners to Negroes. Fortunately, however, the visitors weren't so easily misled, and instead spent their money with a Negro who operated a restaurant near the Hall of Negro Life.

Insults were hurled at the visiting through the columns of two of the leading Dallas dailies, the Morning News, Journal and Dispatch, which referred to members of race as "Darkies," "Mammies," "Pickaninnies," and "Dusky beauties."

Texasans have not forgotten the insult thrust upon the Negro in the parade on the opening day. While floats depicting the progress of the various races passed along the streets, the Negro was represented with on float, and that was a group of women and men picking cotton.

Unless some effort is made to remedy the embarrassing situation, members of the race say they will not only stay away from the exposition, but will write their friends throughout the country and tell them to remain at home.

Selassie Pleads at Geneva Conference

WILL RETURN TO ETHIOPIA TO LEAD BIG ARMY IF LEAGUE LIFTS SANCTIONS

Geneva, July 3—Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia bitterly denounced the League of Nations members who have indicated their willingness to lift sanctions against Italy. The emperor, politely, but with a firmness characteristic of his iron will, informed Capt. Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, that he will not hesitate to go back to Ethiopia and reopen hostilities against the Italians in the event that the league assembly should lift sanctions.

Should a decision to drop the economic embargo against Italy be reached, the emperor intends to leave at once for Gore, in western Ethiopia, where a provisional government has been established since the capture of Addis Ababa by Marshal Pietro Badoglio. Already mountain tribesmen have caused considerable anxiety to Fascist authorities in the Ethiopian capital. Italian expeditionary forces, which have been dispatched to the west, have been routed again and again.

"SAVE HERNDON" DRIVE LAUNCHED AS DEFENSE WINS 60-DAY STAY

New York, July 3—(GNA)—A campaign to rescue Angelo Herndon from the threat, raised by the recent decision of the Georgia supreme court upholding the ancient insurrection law, of death on the chain gang got under way in this city last week with the issuing of a call for the formation of a New York City Herndon defense committee and election of delegates to a "Free Herndon Conference."

In its recent decision the Georgia high court reversed Judge M. Dorsey's superior court ruling that the law under which Herndon was convicted for organizing Negro and white unemployed workers to struggle for relief was unconstitutional. The high court ordered Herndon to surrender to begin service of an eighteen to twenty year sentence on the chain gang, but later extended a stay of sixty days upon notice that its decision would be appealed to the U. S. supreme court.

K. C. ROCKETS PLEASE DANCE CROWD

The late Bennie Moten left a wonderful heritage when he gave the Kansas Rockets orchestra the right to carry on. Harlan Leonard's boys "played to the bricks" at the dance Monday night, at the Pla-Lan ballroom. In line with the torrid temperatures of the weather the music was just that "hot."

T. L. (Speck) Howard, dance promoter, states that he will reopen the ballroom this fall with "bigger and better bands than ever." His organization thanks the public for its support and will be expecting their continued patronage this coming season.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By Whirling Wheels

Well, my boy, Steinbeck, came through in a grand and glorious manner last week—why in fact he dishes dirt better than I do—an that's not saying much—Wonder what old man disappoint has done to him.

Things that I have seen a great deal of lately—also heard—The Gamma Kappa Deltas softball team boys wearing their outfits all the time—Henry McKnight, of Corinthians team—saying, 'C'mon gang, let's take these rookies.' All the softball teams boys around blowing about how good their teams are—Bob Hyde telling Fred Morrow that it was his turn next, after hearing of all the recent marriages, which included none other than that popular sax man, Lynford Willis of the Congo and the petite Temple Randle, and our other old joking friend Sandy Hughes and his little Gloria of out-of-the-city fame—My, my, my, just too many of those things around here.

Wonder what will Doris (Venus) Carter do when her Stanley Beverly goes to CMTC next week—Braddie (Bystander) Morris is also accompanying him—Wonder what I'll do with nobody to skeebunk—Guess I'll have to take it out on Smith now—

Newest thing around town—Harold Carr's new Janzen—which he plans to wear to that memorable opening day of God's swimming pool—if you have not seen the medicine show yet, you don't know what you're missing—its just simply too ducky-wucky—

Seems as if B. H. is living up to his name of the "Great Trumpeter" cause he has put the skids under the Great Mellow Jasper for that most important little lady of town—B. P. seems to think he is the Brown Bomber when it comes to his girl friend, who happens to be a Drake student—Flash—Wonder why Rev. Robinson has been looking so downcast lately—is it because June B. hasn't called up any more—Wonder what F. O. M. is going to do when his girl friend goes to Michigan—Well, Hank Hammit has returned to town—guess all will be quiet on the Western front—

Orchids to the Raiders baseball team, who haven't lost a game—since the season began—Those boys are just all right—the old Bystander staff is well represented on this aggregation too—with Harold (subscription agent) Carr being the manager and Everett (All 'round man) Wadsworth holding down first plate—and how he smags those high ones—Can someone tell me why the East Side's greatest lovers continue to break and make up again—They must be just that way over each other. Well, enough dirt for this time.

Yours,
WALDA.

LEWIS TO ORGANIZE NEGROES IN STEEL

Washington, June 26—(CNA)—Plans for the organization of the steel industry announced by the committee for industrial organization, headed by John L. Lewis, include measures for uniting Negro and white steel workers.

There are four thousand Negro workers in the steel industry and these have been the worst victims of the lack of a powerful trade union. It is now planned to draw them into the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers along with tens of thousands of unorganized white steel workers.

WHAT SENATOR SMITH'S WALK MEANS

The Democratic high command embarrassed the southern end of the party considerably at Philadelphia last week, but it remained for Senator Smith of South Carolina to walk out because Negroes were given official recognition. Mr. Farley played the game for he knew Senator Smith and the southerners who felt the same jolt had no other party to join and he could afford to stand their complaints in order to show the Negro voters in the North that the Democrats wanted their support.

Many people are wondering what the Negroes' reaction will be to the conduct of Senator Smith—whether the Democrats will lose votes as a result of his dirty remarks.

The question has been put to The Bystander by several people. The answer is "Not many over this incident alone."

This is not the first time Senator Smith has tried to block the progress of the Negro. He is one of the most vitriolic critics of anti-lynching legislation and has been one of those southerners who has not hesitated to keep the measure from coming to a vote. What does embarrass the Democrats—and the Republicans will campaign on it—is the fact that when he is in power such men as Senator Smith and the important committees in Congress are a source of much embarrassment when matters of special interest to the Negro and his friends are up for consideration.

But The Bystander knows that the Democrats are going to be smart enough to appeal to the Negro on the economic issue. They are telling Negro voters that the Republican party has made a tool of them during all these years, on the other hand they have given them many good jobs, that they have given fair treatment in matters of relief and that a continuation of the Democrats in power will assure them the same consideration.

Without arguing the merits of their contentions or admitting their truthfulness, The Bystander realizes that that appeal will be tremendous and knows that the Republicans must offer adequate concrete economic consideration in order to offset the Democratic campaign propaganda.

The Republican platform asks better economic opportunity for the Negro in private industry. What the Negro demands is that they help secure and maintain these opportunities as well as adequate representation in the expenditure of all funds by the federal government, state, county, and city administrations. This is what the Negro is demanding and the party most likely to deliver these things will get his vote.

IT HURTS TO SPEAK AT TIMES

Negroes have a lot of friends among the white group in Des Moines as well as in other places. That friendship we believe exists not because of any special love for the Negro, but because they believe in giving every man fair and impartial consideration and when the occasion arises where something is done for his benefit, the fact that he happens to be black is incidental.

Nobody appreciates that fair-mindedness more than The Bystander for not only is it in a position to see it displayed in countless instances but it is the beneficiary of much of that spirit itself.

Naturally these people get criticism from some members of the white group. This is to be expected for those who oppose decent consideration for the Negro make more noise than those who favor it.

We all make mistakes at times: The Bystander is no exception to the rule; neither are the friends of the Negro. But because of that friendship the Negro must not be deterred from pointing out errors. It is the only way to keep them from happening again. In the process of pointing out errors the Bystander occasionally steps on some fellow's toes who feels he is exempt from receiving a calling down. This of course we cannot help for it is the business of a newspaper to do so and we shall not hesitate when occasions arise.

SELASSIE GETS NO HELP

Emperor Haile Selassie made a personal appeal before the League of Nations this week asking that they not lift sanctions which they imposed upon Italy and that they live up to their covenant and restore his Abyssinian Kingdom.

The League will do neither of these things. They refused to take adequate measures to balk the Italian invaders when the fighting was going on; they peror now. Thus the League demonstrates that it has no effective power of its own and member nations are unwilling to use their resources to carry out the League's mandates.

LYNCHERS ASK RACE SEGREGATION

El Campo, Tex., July 3—(CNA)—Leaders of the lynch mob that fired a Negro dance hall in El Campo after an unsuccessful attempt to lynch four women and five men in connection with the fatal stabbing of Special Officer Tip Simmons, white, were circulating petitions this week asking the segregation of the Negro population in a special settlement.

Simmons was slain after he had shot two men at a dance celebrating the payment of the bonus. Nine of those attending the dance were subsequently arrested on suspicion of complicity in the slaying.

HOLIDAYS AND ACCIDENTS

Will the time ever come when we can look forward to holidays without associating them with accidents?

Do we forget the old slogan of "safety first" when we celebrate our holidays. If a little more precaution was used on the part of all who celebrate, accidents would and should be fewer.

Drowning, burns by the use of firecrackers, explosives, firearms, and automobile accidents and the most common accidents.

A few of the following precautions should be used against drowning:

1. Do not overload your boat.
2. Know that your boat has been inspected and is in good condition.
3. Do not get into a boat unless you can swim or carry a life preserver, or with someone who is capable of life saving.

Use extreme precaution when shooting firecrackers and other explosives. Do not throw them near a car or a human. If a firecracker fails to shoot after having been ignited, do not pick it up until ample time has been given. Do not throw explosives near inflammable material or houses.

Do not be guilty of being called a road hog when driving. Observe all highway traffic laws. Develop an attitude of giving rather than taking even though you are entitled to half of the highway.

Co-operation on the part of all will prevent many a happy group from leaving the picnic grounds in grief and sorrow.

C. B. A.—My husband is in a good line of work and I have tried for a long time to make him go to a larger city so that he can do better, but he refuses. Tell me what must I do?

Ans.—Your husband won't ever leave the small city that you have lived in for so long and it is my suggestion that you try to make a go of things right where you are. You will find a job within the next few months and you will be able to clear up your old bills.

J. B.—I am a constant reader of your column. Do you think that if I do what I have in mind I will succeed and make enough money to live the kind of life I would like to live?

Ans.—Yes, the only way that you will make the salary you have in mind is to prepare yourself for one particular line and stick to it. The course in engineering when mastered will enable you to make a name for yourself.

E. C. W.—Will my present difficulty be straightened out and what lies in the future for me that is worthwhile?

Ans.—The matter will be cleared up within a period of six months. The next most outstanding event that will take place in your life is a marriage and a home of your own. Your present difficulty does not appear to be very serious.

X. G.—What is the matter that my husband don't go to church. Is he up to no good or does he have any outside friend?

Ans.—Your husband is a good man and a religious one, but he doesn't enjoy going to church. Arrange for him to become interested in church going people and this will influence him more than anything you could say. He does not have any friends other than what you know up about.

C. G.—I want to know if my home will be taken from me?

Ans.—It seems to me that you will be able to make a substantial payment on your home this year and it will not be taken from you.

W. P. S.—Is it true that a girl has to get common with a man to marry him nowadays?

Ans.—Of course they don't. Any man that expects such isn't worthy of a nice girl's love. Don't let the friends of this man's influence you to change your way of living, as you won't lose him by your high code of morals as this is what attracts him.

L. C.—Please answer yes or no if he is guilty of what I accused him?

Ans.—He is not guilty. Stop believing idle gossip or you will lose him.

A. M. H.—Will my sister get any money? She thinks that she will?
