Rev. Hackley of Decatur Accepts Pastorate Here

REV. J. A. ALEXANDER RESIGNS AFTER FOUR YEARS AT ST. PAUL CHURCH

The Rev. R. H. Hackley, the new pastor at St. Paul A. M. E. church here established an impressive record as "builder of churches" during his thirty-one years in the ministry, it was revealed in an interview Monday at the Bystander office. The Rev. Mr. Hackley, who came from St. Peter's A. M. E. church at Decatur, Illinois, has accepted the Des Moines pastorate left vacant by the sudden resignation of the Rev. J. A. Alexander, who left Saturday to take charge of the Ebenezer A. M. E. church at Evanston, Illinois. He was pastor here since September of 1932, serving as president of the Ministerial Alliance and was prominent in local community, civic and political affairs.

The Rev. Hackley spent nine years as pastor of the Decatur church in the Illinois conference. He built this commodious edifice in 1927, all modern, air conditioned, $50,000 pipe organ, with the assistance of "colored people only." "This is a Negro achievement," he explained proudly. "No second-handed, worn out building, but built absolutely by ourselves." At Champlain, Illinois, he constructed a $5,000 parsonage and at Jacksonville, Illinois, he paid off a $6,500 mortgage in five years.

The Rev. Hackley, cousin of the late Presiding Elder A. W. Hackley, formerly of Toronto, Canada, and pastor at Ottumwa, Iowa, was born in Decorah, Iowa, and was raised on a farm near Cedar Falls. Beginning his theological work in 1905, he attended Iowa Wesleyan college at Mt. Pleasant, receiving his B. D. degree from Wilberforce university in 1905. Mrs. Hackley, his wife, is a music teacher in Decatur and formerly taught school in Missouri.

"Being sent to Des Moines is just like coming back home," he said. The Rev. Hackley's first pastorate in Iowa was at Cedar Rapids, where he purchased the parsonage. He organized the First Methodist church in Fairfield and attended general conference in Des Moines when St. Paul church was "down on the river," as the pioneers say, "at Second and Center." The veteran minister was a personal friend of the late Atty. John L. Thompson, former editor of the Bystander, who died in 1930.

To Evanston

Pastor here since 1932, the Rev. J. A. Alexander (above) left St. Paul A. M. E. church Saturday to accept a charge at the Ebenezer A. M. E. church in Evanston, Ill.

Mary Waring At Corinthian Sunday

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION HEAD WILL ADDRESS IOWA WOMEN

Dr. Mary F. Waring of Chicago, president of the National Association of Colored Women since 1933, will speak at the Corinthian Baptist church Sunday at 7:45 p. m. The public is invited to this meeting. Dr. Waring, who has practiced medicine for more than twenty-five years graduated from the National Medical college in Louisville, Kentucky, and Chicago Medical college in Chicago and is a life member of the International Council of Women and belongs to the Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

Mrs. Myrtle Foster Cook of Kansas City, Missouri, president of the Central Association of Colored Women, and Mrs. Mary Cabbell of Sioux City, president of the Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, will also be present.

ABBOTT'S BAND TO PLAY FOR DANCE WEDNESDAY

Oskaloosa, Iowa—(Special to the Bystander)—Gus Abbott, and his swing band will play for a dance at the Armory hall here Wednesday, sponsored by the Ace High club.

Petitions Flood Legislature To Impeach Prejudiced Jurist

Harrisburg, Pa., July 24—A petition has been filed before the house judiciary committee of the Pennsylvania legislature asking for the impeachment of Judge B. C. Atlee of Lancaster, Pa., who on July 10th is reported to have said to a colored prisoner: "Had they lynched you they would have been justified."

The defendant before him was Sam Watsch, a stone deaf colored man, who was accused of annoying two small white girls. The petition asking impeachment was filed by Representative Homer S. Brown of Pittsburgh, Pa., and the Rev. Marshall Shepard of Philadelphia, both members of the state legislature. Protests upon the remark of Judge Atlee have been pouring in to the governor, the attorney general and the legislature.

He said: "This is one of the most despicable offenses ever brought before the local court. It is no credit to the people of Columbia that they allowed you to be here in court today."

"Had they lynched you they would have been justified. I say that although I am sitting here to administer justice. It is most fortunate for you that this offense occurred north of the Mason and Dixon line. No court has to bother with cases of your kind south of that line."

Dunbar Home to Be Made Shrine

CITIZENS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY UNITE IN APPEAL TO GOVERNOR TO SIGN BILL

Columbus, Ohio, July 24—The move to save the Paul Laurence Dunbar home in Dayton from being sold under the sheriff's hammer stepped up a notch last week when the Ohio state legislature passed a bill authorizing the "Dunbar Memorial."

Efforts to make the home of the noted poet a national shrine was begun some time ago, but a lack of funds checked the progress. Foreclosure proceedings threatened to put the property on the auction block.

With the recent passing of the bill, all that remains for a complete solution of the situation is the signature of Gov. Martin L. Davey. Citizens of Ohio and of other states interested in the memorial for the perpetuation of the memory of Paul Laurence Dunbar already have begun to flood the state house here with telegrams and letters, urging the governor to sign the bill.

Louise Lloyd Weds Ernest Clark, 41

WOMAN CHARGED WITH MURDER MARRIED IN JAIL

Louise Lloyd, 28, who is in the Polk county jail awaiting trial for the fatal shooting of Geraldine Jackson, 21, at 776 Tenth street, after a quarrel March 31, was married to Ernest Clark, 41, in a ceremony at the court house Monday.

An expectant mother, Mrs. Clark wished that "her child would have a name at its birth" was the reason officials granted the wedding. The woman is expected to face trial in the September term of court.

Ed Thayer, her counsel; Carl Burkman, county attorney, and Herschel Hubbard, special officer, who assisted in the arrest of the former Mrs. Lloyd, were witnesses. Both had been married before.

D.M. Man Accepts Job in Kansas City

SENATOR WHITAKER IS CIRCULATION MANAGER OF CALL

Senator Ernst Whitaker of 824 Fourteenth street left Sunday for Kansas City, Missouri, to accept a position with the Kansas City Call, Negro weekly newspaper, as circulation manager. He is a former student of Bible and journalism at Drake university and was employed at the Chamber of Commerce n Hotel Savery for four years.

Whitaker was born in Caruthers, Missouri, and attended public schools and graduated from the high school in Keokuk, Iowa. His wife, Irma, will join him in Kansas City next week.

Negro Gambling House is Raided

TAYLOR'S PLACE IN HORSE BETTING CHAIN

Among the 83 arrested in the sweeping, citywide raids Wednesday, twelve Negroes were booked from Taylor's Place, 1145 Center st. William Johnson is the owner. Taylor's Place, 1114 Center street, is the latest addition to Des Moines' chain of gambling houses, it was announced Tuesday. The Fifth Avenue, at 263 Fifth avenue, has opened two new places this week, the Mayfair, 417 1/2 Seventh street, a former night club de luxe, was opened and raided Monday.

The Fifth Avenue has a monopoly on race track gambling and sports bets, with special leased wires from leading cities. The Viaduct, a card and dice house, 207 Seventh street, is in competition. The house for Negroes makes six gambling establishments, the Hub, 221 Ninth street, and the Link, at 567 Seventh street, are the two.

Jimmy Clark, Jamestown, N. Y., middleweight. Arthur Oliver, Chicago, Ill., heavyweight. Women's Track and Field Tydie Pickett, Chicago, Ill., hurdles. Miss Louise Stokes of Malden, Mass.

Roxborough, Bruseax Each Files Counter Suit

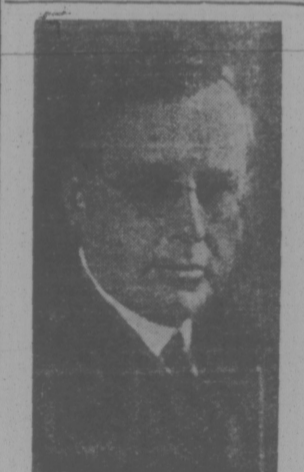

Chicago—The Joe Louis vs. Dope ruckus went into the third round yesterday when the Negro heavyweight fighter's manager, Julian A. Black, and the latter's partner and representative, John W. Roxborough, each filed a $100,000 suit in circuit court against Sheridan A. Bruseaux, Negro detective of 2139 S. Wabash avenue.

The damage suits, filed by Atty. Irvin C. Mollison, again brought to public attention the charges that Louis was doped before his June 19 fight at Yankee stadium, New York, with Max Schmeling, Louis and his managers vigorously denying the charges in sworn statements. No sooner had the Louis forces filed their suits than Bruseaux, through Atty. John E. Clayton, Jr., answered with a $100,000 suit against Black, Roxborough and Louis.

The bill charged Bruseaux's investigation business and himself were "wickedly and maliciously" injured by statements issued by the fighter and his managers which charged him with "libel and blackmail."

Bruseaux chose the U. S. district court in which to open his legal offensive against the Detroiters.

G.O.P. Hope

All roads led to Topeka this week, where Gov. Alf. M. Landon (above) was officially notified of his candidacy for the office of President of the United States with elaborate ceremonies Thursday at the Kansas capital. Republicans see a G.O.P. victory in the White House this fall.

ETHIOPIANS DEFEAT DUCES MEN IN BATTLE

Paris, France, July 24—The town of Moggio, an important strategic point situated forty-seven miles southeast of Addis Ababa, fell into the hands of an Ethiopian army after fierce fighting in which a strong Italian force was defeated.

By their occupation of the town the Ethiopians have cut the railroad connection between Addis Ababa, where the main fascist forces are concentrated, and Djibouti, French Somaliland. One of the two hastily armored trains which left Addis Ababa for Moggio was derailed and the other forced to return after escaping an attack in which many Italian soldiers were killed.

Bryant Victor in Suit for Position

A. M. E. CHURCH MAKES APPEAL TO TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT

July 24—Ira T. Bryant, secretary-treasurer of the A. M. E. Sunday School Union, who was "ousted" at the recent general conference session in New York, was victorious in his suit to retain his post Wednesday morning.

After a bitter court fight with A. M. E. church officials, Bryant was declared winner when Chancellor James B. Newman, who presided over part 2 of the Davidson county chancellor court, ruled that the general conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church does not have the legal right to elect the secretary of the Sunday School Union.

Chancellor Newman also ruled that Professor E. A. Selby of Normal, Ala., who was "elected" to succeed Bryant, cannot take over the office of secretary. Bryant's term of office will expire in 1938.

The court took cognizance of the fact that even though the election was held and even though Bryant participated in it, it was a nullity, and the African Methodist Episcopal church had established a board of managers and that members of the denomination must abide by any laws they make and also be governed by the charter they procured from the state.

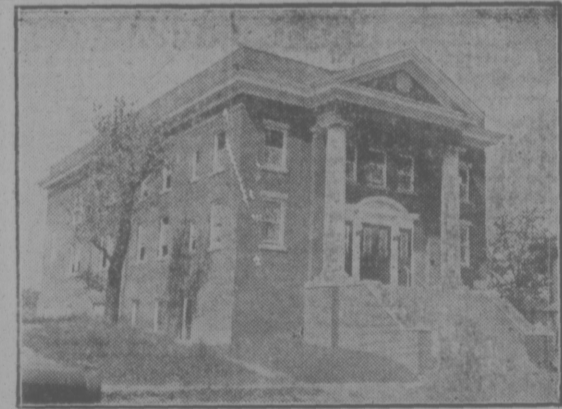

Counsel for Selby and the A. M. E. church immediately appealed the case to the Tennessee supreme court with hearing scheduled for some time in October.

Firestone Sends Negro Engineer

New York, N. Y., July 24—Joseph F. Walker, civil engineer, sailed for Liberia on Tuesday, July 14th, on the S. S. New Brunswick under contract with the Firestone Pantations company of Akron, O. This is the first instance in which this company has sent out a Negro from America in its technical personnel in the African republic, and marks a departure from its policy for years.

Since the Firestone Rubber company first obtained its concession of 1,000,000 acres of land in Liberia in 1923 for the cultivation of rubber on a large scale, hundreds of technical men, including foresters, chemists, engineers and even aviators, have been sent by the company from the United States to Liberia, but all of these have been white Americans. Mr. Walker is the first of the race to be employed under the regulation contract of the company. He goes out to engage in the construction of a stretch of road and bridges connecting Monrovia and the main plantation of the company at Duside, a distance of about forty-five miles.

Mr. Walker graduated summa cum laude from Tufts School of Engineering at Boston, Mass., in 1933, and has finished his work for his master's degree in civil engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston. He is the son of Walter F. Walker, Liberian consul at New York and assistant editor of the Voice of Missions, of the missionary department of the A. M. E. church, and the grandson of Ernest Lyon, Liberian consul general, Baltimore, Md.

SPORTS by Allen Ashby

Boxing

So Joe Louis has taken the first step along the road to seek new laurels by signing to meet Jack Sharkey on August 18. These are just a few words to those of you who look for a push-over win for our boy. This Sharkey guy didn't start fighting last week. In fact he was a veteran and a good one when our boy Joe was probably just cutting his permanent teeth. This is the same Sharkey who made his reputation off Harry Williams about ten years ago. He is the same bird who had Jack Dempsey wondering why he hadn't brought along his clippings so this fellow wouldn't play so rough. He almost stopped Dempsey. The man has been around a long time, knows most of the answers and thinks he can win. Don't sell him short.

The latest addition to our city's crop of fight managers is Earnest Thompson, brother of Walter (Little) Hauge, Thompson, former Drake athlete. Thompson has taken charge of Wayland Heath and Chuck Broddus. Heath has been doing rather well of late and last week stopped a tough boy. Monday, however, Wayland fought himself out beating Ernie Klomp, a white boy, to death and the boy parked a wild, desperately flung left on Heath's chin, knocking him colder than last week's news. Broddus stopped his man, so Thompson got an even break with his stable.

Our boys who don't get in the money give us a bad reputation. They don't train hard and have to fold up at the first hard punch because they aren't in condition. Then white folks say Negroes can't take it and quit when they get beat.

It isn't fair to the Negroes who are first raters, for they took to get there, but people judge us only by our poorest performers.

Tennis A few girls have questioned us about tennis since our article of last week. Most of them say they would like to play, but no one will teach them. Well, here's the setup, gals. You simply must be on a tennis court to learn the game. Unfortunately, parlor, dayports and front porches haven't yet been made large enough to play tennis on. You must spend hours in the hot sun, and be burned to a crisp and get stuck with sweat and dust, you must forget your looks and dignity as you chase the little white ball. You must spend hours day after day doing the same thing. You must go out each day determined to correct your mistakes of the previous session. You must talk tennis, think tennis, dream tennis, eat and sleep tennis if you would become only a fair dud. Now if you would become what we call good, just repeat this ten-fold. Some of our younger girls of ten or twelve might be willing to do as we have said if they could get started, but most of our older girls are entirely too social minded to devote much time to tennis. We repeat! There isn't a Negro girl tennis player worthy of the name in Des Moines.

EXPECT DECISION IN MISSOURI U. CASE JULY 27

Columbia, Mo., July 27—Argument in the case of Lloyd Gaines vs. the University of Missouri, in which Gaines is seeking entrance to the law school of the university, was heard here last Friday, July 10th, before Judge Dinwiddie.

Sidney R. Redmond of St. Louis, chief counsel for Gaines, was assisted by Charles H. Houston, special counsel for the N. A. A. C. P. in New York. Judge Dinwiddie took the case under advisement and an opinion is expected to be handed down about July 27.

THREE RECORDS IN ONE WEEK

New York City, July 17—(INP)—Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, who is now on tour playing theatres for Paramount and a series of dance engagements for the Rockwell O'Keefe office, is evidently out to break all the records possible during the summer months. When he played the Michigan theatre in Detroit, he broke the record held by Ted Lewis. He took a slump the following week at Shea's Hippodrome in Toronto, but came back strong to smash dance attendance records in Pittsburg on last Friday night, surpassing the ones held by Cab Calloway and Duke Ellington. Saturday night he played to an overflow crowd in Columbus, shattering the attendance mark set by Fred Waring. In Cincinnati last Sunday, Louis Armstrong equaled the one night attendance records of Jack Benny, Wayne King and Guy Lombardo.

ROY ADDINGTON CITES TEN YEARS OF SERVICE

Roy Addington, proprietor of the Addington Poultry and Egg Company, 12th and Keo, has been in business for nearly ten years. During this time, he says, "I have made many friends and have many of the same customers since the first day I opened. The By-stander has been one of the mediums I have always used and I always get good results from my ads. I have supported financially nearly every Negro institution in the city. Many firms have opened and closed since I started at my present location and I have often wondered if the public realized what it has meant to me to know I could not have continued had it not been due to the support of my loyal customers. I have consistently kept the best merchandise regardless of added expense and sometimes at a loss to my business. I hope to continue to improve my services to the public and intend to show my appreciation in every way possible."

SHEPHERD RE-ELECTED PRES. OF MIDWESTERN ELKS ASSOCIATION

W. J. Shepherd, James B. Hudson and Eddie Allen returned from the midwestern association of Elks held last week at Denver, Colo. More than 2,000 were in attendance from Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado. The convention was welcomed by Gov. Ed Johnson of Colorado and the mayor of Denver. Grand Exalted Finley Wilson was guest of honor. Among the officers re-elected were: A. E. Toney of Kansas City, president; W. J. Shepherd, vice president; James Hudson, both of Des Moines, esquire. The 1937 meeting will be in Omaha.

NATIONAL NEGRO ALL-STARS TO FACE DEMONS TUESDAY NIGHT. Satchell Paige Slated to Hurt

The Negro National League All-Stars, in the Denver Post tournament, featuring Satchell Paige, sponsored by W. A. Greenlee owner of the Pittsburgh Crawfords—winners of pennants in 1933 and 1935, club of men selected for high rating in 1935 and 1936, will face the Des Moines Demons at the Western League ball park, Tuesday, at 8:15 p. m. There will be no advance in prices. Little can be said about Satchell Paige that isn't already known. It is freely admitted that only his color prevents him from sharing the spotlight with Dizzy Dean or other great hurlers.

His favorite receiver, Josh Gibson, 6 ft. 1 in., and 190 lbs. of power and speed, set the pace in the first half by batting .457, took part in every game played by the Crawfords.

The northwest also knows "Cool Papa" Bell, with a .366 batting average, will be roving in the outfield and straking around the bases. The infield with Buck Leonard at first, Sammy Highes, second; Chester Williams, shortstop; Felton Snow, third; is not only a sparkling combination on defense, one capable of an onslaught at any part of the lineup. Toddled up C street and into Hardway's popular resort where that handsome of handsome (J. Danforth) shoe shiners work and had some of my locks (its supposed to be glory, but I don't know) shorn off, now I'm cool enough (but maybe its hot enough) to dish hed hopping gossip. Well my boy, the "old pitcher snatcher" Walter Johnson outdid himself last week and wrote a jam-up column—it gets an x-celent and five star rating, Walt, and this minus the usual line of jive—Now I'll pull the wool over your eyes—omitted yers trulies' theme song of the week, "These Foolish Things Remind Me of You."

While passing out compliments I couldn't forget to leave a few orchids at the following persons doors—To the Randalls who operate the concession stand at Goods pool and who put out the grandest dogs (hot) ever—Also the life guards of the same place who are always so willing to teach us poor dames the fundamentals and technique of that most popular (at present) of sports, swimming—Earl Newcomb, Paul Woods, and Paul Williams for being tennis players supreme and to Chet Williamson and the sports scribe for being grand losers—Thomas Preston of Omaha who is captain of the rookie squad at C. C. for wanting his name in this column—Makes me think that someone reads it—Also a beautiful specimen of nature to the Gamma Kap softball team for gradually becoming an average baseball team—Keep the good work up boys.

It seems as if Harold Carr has been offered an official position in the I. D. Legion of the nation. Can you imagine our boy marching down the street at the head of a battalion with a Sam Brown belt, a sabre, and high top boots on and also a Robin Hood hat with a foolish feather? If you can you're better than I.

The newest and most exciting thing to look forward to is the Emancipation Dance to be at the Pla-Lan ball room August 3 with our old swinging friend Don Redman—This is also a five star event.

ST. PAUL RAIDERS CHALK UP TWO MORE VICTORIES

Chalking up two more victories this week, the St. Paul Raiders continued their clean slate of a dozen victories this season by trouncing the Bookee Packing Company 13 to 2 in a softball game at Amos Hiatt field Monday and defeated the Bankers-Life ten 7 to 2 at Roosevelt diamond Wednesday.

Walter Johnson, portsiere, fanned 10 Packers in Monday's contest while Davis and Carr clouted homers. Every Raider came thru with a hit. Jack Howard was on the mound for the winners Wednesday.

All Negro Town in Cal. NAMED FOR GOV. LANDON. Los Angeles, July 17—Almost simultaneously with the action of the state legislature of South Carolina in revoking the charter of an all Negro city in that state known as Maryville, because whites objected to living under a government controlled by blacks, a new Negro city, Landon, Calif., named for the Republican candidate for president of the United States, was getting started.

The new town, consisting of several thousand acres, is located fifty miles from this city, just off Foot Hill boulevard, near Ettawanda. It is fifteen minutes from San Bernardino; twenty-six minutes from Redland; and thirty minutes from Riverside and an hour's drive from Pasadena. In explaining the naming of the town, Sidney P. Demes and Jim Erving, founders and managers of the project, said:

"We called it Landon because it is founded upon the constitution of the United States, which the Republican candidate advocates in its entirety. It is our hope that it will become one of the most cosmopolitan towns in the country. Although we hope the town to be settled principally by Negroes, everyone is welcome. It is to be the idea town with no prejudices and equal rights for all."

Governor Landon has already been invited to visit and inspect the town should he come to California during his campaign.

"Suzy" will play at the Des Moines and Roosevelt theatres through Wednesday with Bing Crosby's new one, "Rhythm on the Range," giving us all a look at that drawing favorite of Bing's radio program, Bob Burns.

Paramount "Public Enemy's Wife" opens at the Paramount on Friday with Pat O'Brien, Cesar Romero and Margaret Lindsay. On the same program is "We Went To College," with Charles Butterworth and Walter Abel.

Strand The Strand offers Fred MacMur-ray and Joan Bennett's air thriller, "13 Hours By Air," starting Friday of this week, with "I Married a Doctor," starring Pat O'Brien, and taken from Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street." This program is scheduled through Monday, with Gary Cooper and Marlene Dietrich in "Lesire" opening Tuesday with "The Ghost Goes West."

At the Garden theatre, Mae West's "Klondike Annie" is opening Saturday with "The Last of the Pagans," to run through Monday, with Jimmy Dunn in "Daring Young Man" and "Here's To Romance," with Mmè Schuman-Heink, coming on Tuesday for two days.

joy a show with P. E. No. 1 better. Camp season will soon be here—Wonder why so many older boys and girls are planning to attend this year—Is it because they're in favor of that "Back to Nature Plan?" Well here's the wishing all youse guys and gals get a well browned complexion while the rest of us business (ahem, ahem) folks stay in the city and sweater—Buster Crawford, brother of that sweet little Russell, has captured all the hearts of the East Side girls—But D. Berry has the best go so far.

After reading last week's column and wracking my brains trying to guess what all the mystery was about and not letting this scribe see it until it was printed, has just about tired me out, so I'll leave it with you, with this request. Please do something very scandalous so I'll have something to write about without having to think.

All Negro Town in Cal. NAMED FOR GOV. LANDON. Los Angeles, July 17—Almost simultaneously with the action of the state legislature of South Carolina in revoking the charter of an all Negro city in that state known as Maryville, because whites objected to living under a government controlled by blacks, a new Negro city, Landon, Calif., named for the Republican candidate for president of the United States, was getting started.

The new town, consisting of several thousand acres, is located fifty miles from this city, just off Foot Hill boulevard, near Ettawanda. It is fifteen minutes from San Bernardino; twenty-six minutes from Redland; and thirty minutes from Riverside and an hour's drive from Pasadena. In explaining the naming of the town, Sidney P. Demes and Jim Erving, founders and managers of the project, said:

"We called it Landon because it is founded upon the constitution of the United States, which the Republican candidate advocates in its entirety. It is our hope that it will become one of the most cosmopolitan towns in the country. Although we hope the town to be settled principally by Negroes, everyone is welcome. It is to be the idea town with no prejudices and equal rights for all."

Governor Landon has already been invited to visit and inspect the town should he come to California during his campaign.

JOHNSON OF KEOKUK HEADS IOWA MASONS The united grand lodge of Iowa Free and Accepted Masons (Prince Hall affiliation) closed its forty-ninth annual communication Thursday, July 16th, at Burlington, Iowa, after having voted to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary or golden jubilee next July in Des Moines, where it was organized in August, 1887. A special golden jubilee committee was appointed, consisting of Past Grand Masters W. W. Gross of Keokuk and S. Joe Brown of Des Moines and Past Grand Custodian Wm. Bell of Waterloo.

A BRAVE POLITICIAN

It has been said and rightly so, that the politicians today are not leaders but followers of the crowd. They take little chance on getting out in front and pointing the way but wait to see what the public wants and pushes on to accomplish its desires.

This cannot be said of Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for president. Last week he addressed the national convention of Townsend clubs. Instead of hedging and giving the delegates a talk that straddled the fence he told them that their scheme would not work and why. He received boos and catcalls, galore but stood his ground and never wavered. And of course the delegates did not like it but after reflecting most of them must have admired his courage and candor.

Norman Thomas will never be president. But he has shown those who may what it means to stand by their convictions. The majority of the public does not agree with his views, but a man of his courage is bound to be respected.

UNAMERICAN GROUP

Michigan officials are still uncovering atrocious crimes committed by the Black Legion. This week they admitted killing a Negro just for fun. In each instance the crimes committed—and the reasons given for their perpetuation have been so ridiculous that it is astounding that so-called human beings can be so barbarous.

The whole theory of such organizations is based upon class hatred and the thought that the best method of advancing their cause is to take the law into their own hands. This theory is certainly contrary to our American form of government and yet we have more of it than in any other country.

Generally thoughtful people are not lined up in these groups. But they make some thoughtful people so fearful of their power that it is astounding how well they work their schemes. At times names on their membership rolls include state, county, city and federal officers. It often happens that they occupy key positions which enable them to block investigations, arrest and trial. And they are people who are ignorant enough to push their claims of righteousness while too often the thoughtful people pass up their schemes until something unusual happens.

The people of America must quit this stirring up of hatred between groups whether it be racial, religious, or economic. It gets the same results and too often is carried beyond the confines of the conduct of human beings. Maybe the G-Men will get busy and round them up. They did a pretty good job on the kidnapers. Here is their chance to do another big much needed service.

NEGRO OLYMPIC CONTESTANTS

Fortunately for America, it is sending to Berlin, Germany, an Olympic team which includes several Negroes. They won their berths by stiff competition and were awarded their laurels purely on the basis of ability.

Most Europeans have never seen Negroes do anything except perform on the stage. But in these contests they will see Negroes competing against white men and women in spectacular events. They will see them win in some of these competitions. What a surprise it will be to learn that a Negro can excel in places where he has the opportunity to compete. It may be that the sports will solve our race question. After all, except in a few instances, they open the door for competition without regard to race more than any other institution not excepting the church. And the beauty part is they give the decision to the winner.

These Negroes are ambassadors of the theory of Americanism; they are representatives of America. The Bystander hopes they will do well for in proportion that Negroes in high places make good the whole race climbs and America as the land of the free and opportunity gets a boost.

COLIC

Colic (pain in the abdomen) in breast-fed babies is usually due to the pressure of air in the intestines. It is most common in the early months of life and in breast-fed babies. It may be due to over-feeding or it may occur in babies who are constipated. Regulation of the feeding is important in the control of colic. Colic is usually not serious; but if it is persistent the advice of a doctor should be sought with regard to the regulation of the feedings. Colic usually disappears as the baby grows older. Treatment of this immediate symptoms consists in getting rid of the gas. Holding the baby over the shoulder may aid belching. The colic is relieved when the baby passes gas by rectum or has a stool.

Enemas are necessary sometimes to relieve colic. Medicine for colic should never be given except on the advice of a doctor.

We thank the friends for the kindness during the illness and at the passing of our loved one, Persis McClain, and Elders Martin and Strawthers for their inspiring remarks, also friends for the donation of cars and flowers.—Charley McClain, husband; Harry Wilson, Simon Wilson of Des Moines and Elder E. D. Wilson, brothers, and Mrs. Girtha Thomas of Des Moines and Mrs. Anna Tate of Fresno, California, sisters.

OBITUARY

J. L. H.—I am a girl 18 years old and have been going with a man 50 years old. Lately something is wrong. He fusses all the time. Is it something someone told him?

Ans.—There is no fool like an old fool, and when he is also jealous, it makes a sure enough unreasonable person out of him. He listens to every word he can possibly hear concerning you, and makes mountains out of these little tales he hears.

M. R.—I am to finish high school in 1938 and would like to take up embalming. How could I get in touch with a firm of that sort?

Ans.—Visit your local funeral directors and ask them where you can secure a list of the funeral parlors in your state—also offer to work around his place gratis. He can be a great help to you.

Kineo—For a year I have been wanting to write you. It seems that I have pretty good "breaks" in life. Why is it I don't succeed?

Ans.—Have patience—and keep after that government job—it's just your speed. I predict a promising future.

S. H. G.—I am a reader of the column you write and the first thing I read is the "Sayings of You." I am 25 years old and married to a man of no ambition or self regard. Will he change?

Ans.—Yes, with your help. What he needs is a friendly pat on the shoulder and a wife to spur him on and up. Finding fault and "belly-aching" about his shortcomings is no way for a wife to make something out of her husband.

H. A. L.—Please tell me if my husband is going to die before me, so I can take out some more insurance?

Ans.—Suppose you let Providence be the judge—not me. Your husband should live to a ripe old age.

M. D.—Please tell me why my boy won't stay in one place?

Ans.—Because he has the "wanderlust." Most kids eighteen years old get it. I know that I was the same way when I was your boy's age. When he meets the right girl he will settle down and make you proud of him.
