Cleveland Gives Owens Noisy 'Welcome Home'

Olympic Track Idol Feted By Officials, Dignitaries

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 28—Cleveland and the state of Ohio outdid themselves here Tuesday, when efforts were made to show Jesse Owens the high esteem and rare appreciation felt by the citizens of this Great Lakes metropolis and commonwealth for the very fine way he acquitted himself at the World Olympics in Germany.

It was more ostentatious than the Armistice demonstration and equaled only by the reception given Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. Confetti, paper, ribbon, waste and flowers of every description came pouring into the streets seemingly from everywhere, as the long procession attempted to wind its way through the prescribed line of march set for the public parade.

Welcome Home, Jesse! The entire police force, under the direction of Safety Director Elliot Ness and Police Chief Geo. Matopitz, was required to aid in a vain effort to direct the traffic.

Flags, bunting and streamers bedecked the main thoroughfare with blazoned banners screaming the words: "Welcome Home, Jesse Owens, Our Hero."

Mayor Heads Welcome

Mayor Harold H. Burton, who has outdistanced any previous chief executive of Greater Cleveland in covering territory to participate in public civic affairs, flew here from his vacation to meet the train and head the local welcoming committee of hundreds of citizens who jammed the entrance of the station and virtually stampeded the place to get an opportunity to yell, "Yea Jesse, Yea Jesse, Our Hero," in regular college fashion.

Inspects the Exposition

Like President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jesse was escorted on a tour of the Great Lakes Exposition in a deluxe Greyhound bus train, before being taken to the public hall where the public reception was tendered by the citizens committee appointed by the mayor, headed by Tris Speaker, former manager of the Cleveland Indians baseball club, as chairman.

The vast hall was filled beyond capacity and the entire broadcasting amplifier system of radioland of the Great Lakes Exposition, the largest broadcasting studio in the world, was used to carry the program of praise throughout the exposition and to the world.

Scroll and Home

A scroll from the city was presented to the American hero in New York City by the Cleveland welcoming escort.

A modern home fully furnished with all modern conveniences and the latest furniture appointments is to be the public token of the city and state to the son who brought world renown home through athletic powers. This effort was started by Governor Martin L. Davey.

Plan Statue of Owens

The Future Outlook League, headed by John O. Holley, president, has launched an effort to dedicate a drinking fountain at East Fifty-fifth street and Kinsman-Woodland-Buckeye and have the intersection renamed Jesse Owens' square in honor of the runner.

George L. Stokes, president of the Benedict Club, Inc., 2118 East Forty-sixth street, announced his organization will present a scroll signed by its sixty members to Owens on September 3rd at a benefit dance in the Tri-union ballroom.

Speaker

PERRY W. HOWARD (above) a national figure will speak for Republican rally here Labor Day.

Browne Set for Labor Day Rally

J. G. Browne, chairman of the Negro Voters League, has made final arrangements for the appearance of Perry W. Howard of Mississippi, Republican national committeeman, who will give the main address at the statewide G. O. P. rally and picnic to be held Monday, Labor Day, September 7th, at the E. T. Meredith Jersey farm. J. Finley Wilson of Washington, D. C., grand exalted ruler of the Elks, is guest speaker.

Buses will meet all picnickers from the Urbandale line at Beaver and transport them to the farm, Mr. Browne said. A softball tournament between leading teams of the city will be held. Band music all day, basket dinner, races and dancing in the evening are some of the planned features.

George Wilson, Republican candidate for governor, will be presented, as well as other Republican officials and candidates, during the day.

4 Pass Red Cross Life Saving Tests

GOOD'S BATHHOUSE

TO COST $40,000 According to Mel Harvey, park board secretary, a bathhouse and water filtering building are being constructed at the new Good's park pool as a works progress administration project and when completed the total cost, including the pool, will be $40,000.

Four hundred persons can be accommodated in the men's and women's dressing rooms. The L-shaped building, 200 feet long, will house check-room, the chlorinating and filtering equipment. The structure will be ready for next season, Mr. Harvey said.

In the life saving tests conducted at the pool recently by Ralph Squier, manager, and Walt McQuerry and Elbert Webb, life guards, the following passed: Jimmie Swann, Oscar Moore, Jimmy McGee, juniors, and Sam McCann, senior. Thirteen applicants competed.

Moore Must Die On October 2nd

WAS FORCED TO ADMIT KILLING CO-ED, SAYS BOY ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 28—Martin Moore, 22 year old hotel worker, must die in the state's lethal gas chamber at Raleigh on October 2 for the murder of Helen Clevenger, 18, New York university co-ed. A verdict of guilty of first degree murder carrying with it a mandatory death sentence was returned by an all white jury Saturday, after a brief deliberation. Motion for a new trial was denied the defense.

It was rubber hose, heavy soled shoes and hard fists and not a desire to be free of a torturing conscience that induced him to confess that it was he who killed the girl in a hotel here on July 16th, Martin Moore on trial for the murder of the college co-ed, told the crowded courtroom.

Iowa State Fair To Open Friday

Iowa prepared today to welcome more than 350,000 vacation seekers to the largest state fair she has held in ten years, and the huge 300 acre exposition awaited the opening of its gates to the public here Friday morning. Featuring the invasion of nearly 30,000 children, who are expected for the annual statewide children's party. All youngsters under-16 will be admitted free to the fair Friday, and will be guests at a gala grandstand performance in their honor.

Events will include: National circuit auto races, August 28-29 and September 4, with entries by more than forty of the nation's greatest drivers. Horse races four afternoons, August 31 through September 3, and every night, with over 300 harness and running horses competing for over $10,000 in purses. The fourth annual state fair rodeo, in which nearly 200 entries have been received—a nightly feature of the fair.

A "thrill circus" very afternoon and night, including such attractions as Zacchini, shot from a cannon; the "bat" man, flying on wings strapped to his arms; Alice Sisty, daredevil horsewoman; a troupe of diving ponies; and eight other circus thrillers. A festival of light and fireworks show every night. The "Miss Iowa" beauty pageant on two nights, August 30 and 31. Horse shows Sunday afternoon and four nights from August 31 through September 3. Twenty bands and musical organizations providing continuous music throughout the exposition grounds.

CALVARY SINGERS TO PRESENT PLAY THURSDAY

Rev. Robinson Is Re-elected Sixth Term Moderator

CORINTHIAN PASTOR WILL LEAVE SEPT. 7 FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

For the sixth consecutive year the Rev. G. W. Robinson was elected to serve another term as moderator of the Iowa, "South Dakota, Nebraska Baptist association last Friday at the close of the fifty-eighth annual session at the Corinthian Baptist church, Ninth and School streets. "This convention was one of the most successful in the history of Iowa Christian work," the Rev. Robinson, host pastor, said. The meetings, which began Monday, ended Friday night with the final sermon by the moderator.

The other officers elected were as follows: The Rev. G. E. White, Omaha, Nebraska, vice moderator-at-large; the Rev. A. M. Smith, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, recorder; the Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Council Bluffs, Iowa, executive secretary, and the Rev. T. L. Ligon, Des Moines, auditor.

W. B. Bryant, Omaha, Nebraska, was named chairman of the educational board, and the following board members were chosen: The Rev. J. W. Harris, Fort Madison, Iowa, eastern division; the Rev. J. W. Tutt, Des Moines, central; and the Rev. William Smith, Sioux Falls, S. D., western. The Rev. Smith is a former Burlington boy who received his degree at Drake university two years ago.

On September 7 the Rev. Robinson leaves for the National Baptist convention, which meets in Jacksonville, Florida, on September 9th. The Rev. L. K. Williams, chairman of the colored voters' division of the Republican national committee, is serving his fourteenth year as president. The Rev. Robinson, who is one of the vice presidents of the national organization, will preside at one of the sessions. He is also chairman of the enrollment committee.

CHAPMAN DISPLAYING PRODUCTS AT THE STATE FAIR THIS WEEK

Lawrence W. Chapman of 3005 N. Third street, owner and operator of the U-Need-R Aid Chemical Co., is displaying his products at the Iowa manufacturing exhibit at the Iowa state fair next week.

Kill-Pest spray, moth powder, bug exterminator and a hair pomade are among the six preparations which will be on display at the machinery hall.

5 feet, 11 inches, beating the former mark by more than three inches. Other stars in the track met were: Swink, who won the 100 yard dash in 10.01 seconds; Jefferson, winner of the 50 yard dash in 5.06 seconds, and Harold Miller in the broad jump, 19 feet, 5 inches.

Baseball Title

In the older boys' section the Dooblin A. C. won the baseball title, of which Herman Wadsworth was captain. The Raiders took the volleyball championship under the captaincy of Arnold Wiley. The Hot Shots walked off with the baseball crown in the younger boys' section, of which Earl Bundy, Jr., was captain, while Henry Holt captained the Flashing Eagles to the volleyball title.

In addition to the win record over the Raiders, the camp softball team routed the Fraser aggregation in their yearly game by a score of 11 to 4. Lawrence Strother won a prize presented by Frank T. Dillon, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who also served as camp manager during this period, for shooting the lowest miniature golf score.

82 Monograms

Arnold Wiley and Joe Danforth won the highest camp monograms possible to receive by being awarded the junior leader's monogram shield. A total of eighty-two monograms were issued to campers of this period. Flying Eagle cabin, under the leadership of Albert Thomas, won first place in cabin inspection or the period.

Boys attending camp were from Des Moines, Valley Junction, Kansas City, Omaha and Chicago.

Jourdain, Jones and Cumby Of Chicago Head New Group

Mrs. S. Joe Brown National Secretary

MRS. S. JOE BROWN Chosen on National Body

MRS. MYRTLE FOSTER COOK RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT CENTRAL ASSOCIATION COLORED WOMEN

Chicago—Plans were announced Monday by Dr. L. K. Williams at his office in the Republican national headquarters here for an extensive campaign among young voters. Attorney Sidney A. Jones, Jr., of Chicago, was appointed director of the work. Alderman Edwin B. Jourdain of Evanston, Ill., and Best Cumby, a graduate student of Fisk university, were named as co-directors.

These three men have outlined plans for making an extensive campaign in every community where members of the race vote, and then territory is to include, for the time being, all the territory west of Pennsylvania. They are to travel and organize young Landon-Knox clubs, enlist the support of new voters and young Republicans. They seek to influence them to help promote the fortunes of the Republican party in the coming November election.

Atty. J. B. Morris of Des Moines, editor of the Iowa Bystander, met with Dr. Williams on Monday for a conference.

recently appointed director of the Negro division of the National Youth administration, and John P. Davis, secretary of the National Negro congress.

The major departments of this association, "Mother, Home and Child," and "Women in Industry," summed up their findings in the extension of self-help activities for the unemployed and efforts for better working conditions for our women. Des Moines was chosen as the next meeting place August, 1938. The following officers were elected for 1936-1938: Mrs. Myrtle Foster Cook, Kansas City, Missouri, president; Mrs. Jane E. Spaulding, Charleston, W. Va., vice president-at-large; Mrs. Mary Taylor Gates, Cleveland, Ohio, first vice president.

Crocker Y.M.C.A. Ends Annual Vacation Trip

128 BOYS ATTEND RECORD PERIOD AT BOONE CAMP By Quentin R. Mease Crocker Y. Executive Secretary

A record breaking period of 128 boys and leaders, with six part time campers, ended Monday at the Crocker Y. M. C. A. camp at Boone, Iowa. Quentin R. Mease, executive secretary, was in charge, assisted by the permanent camp staff.

A large crowd of parents and visitors attended church services on Chapel Point on Sunday to hear Atty. Charles P. Howard address the boys on "Sportsmanship." Herman Wadsworth, chosen as the most outstanding camper, presided at the Chapel Point services. A larger afternoon throng attended the program at the Y. M. camp, which was also participated in by the Y. W. campers and staff. Speakers included Miss Waurine Sprott, Howard Crawford and Mr. Mease.

Both camps then went to the Y. W. camp to witness a pageant presented by girls of the Blue Triangle period. General swim for campers and visitors held later in the afternoon. Ball game (ha, ha) between a picked camp team and the Raiders, in which the camp team won, 5 to 2, was enjoyed by many spectators (to the discomfort of the Raiders). (Staff writer's note—Oh, yeah!

Stunt Night Show

Girls from the Y. W. camp participated in the stunt night show given in the Chase lodge at the Y. M. camp Saturday evening, after which a social hour was held. Best of the cabin acts on the stunt night show were: Blackhawk, featuring Les Jefferson, Ike Miller and Leonard Lomas; Whrppoorwill, with Harry Sanders and Harold Miller, and Sunnyside, with Milford Brewer and Roland Taylor in rope jumping specialties.

Bobby Parker retained his tap dancing crown during the dance contest staged Friday night for a prize put up by Henry F. Hasbrouck, safety commissioner. Second and third prizes were won by Harry Sanders and John Williams. Leonard (rap) Lomas won the prize for best singing in camp.

Wadsworth Best Athlete

Herman Wadsworth was adjudged best athlete in camp by virtue of his winning the physical efficiency test, in which more than eighty boys competed. Wadsworth compiled a total of 150 points, the highest total possible, and set an all-time record for all periods.

His record supplanted that of Bob Coffman set in 1932. Wadsworth also set a new camp high jump record of

by Allen Ashby

While we were at Y. camp we listened in on the Sharkey-Louis brawl. From what we could hear, it was just a good test to instill confidence back into our boy. Sharkey did try hard and wasn't afraid, and that made a good, not too tough a test for our boy. He fights Al Ettore, the big Italian, who holds three decisions over Leroy Haynes, September 22. If he can get by this one, look out, big shots.

At the park last Monday they matched two of our best boys against each other for the "Negro light-heavyweight championship of the city," and called the fight a draw so they could be rematched again. Both Chuck Broddus and Wayland Heath are "victims" of the new ham the boys are building up out there. They took the fights on short, sudden notice and of course were not ready, but the boys got a win over tough opponents. Either of those boys in shape would make Mike Klomp jump out of the ring and we can't see why they insist on letting themselves be talked into those fights. We'll bet dollars to doughnuts that either Broddus or Heath with the same backing and build-ups behind them that Klomp has would go twice as far why doesn't some hustling Negro who likes boxing try to see that the boys get it, or must your writer do it himself?

The people at Y. camp wonder how we get such marvelous records during our Crocker Street period. The answer is that we send the cream of our talent up there, and if they couldn't surpass the records of the ordinary fellows, Lord, help us. Here is a roster of some of the athletes there during the period just closed: Jack Howard, our best young golfer; Jamo Allen, our best basketball and one of our best baseball players; Bob Webb, Herman Wadsworth, Al Thomas, Charles Swink, Moses Floyd, our best track men, including Les Jefferson.

Arnold Wiley, Chet Simms, Bob Parker, Harold Carr, Leonard Lomas, Alfred Benzie, our best group of all round athletes. Our very best junior athletes between ten and fifteen. No wonder we break records.

Turner home. Mr. and Mrs. Sheddick Stephens and daughter, Mary Margaret, of Indianapolis, Indiana, stopped here for a few days on business. They stayed at Mrs. Myrtle Rhodes' home. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and daughter and Mrs. Rhodes and family attended the Columbus Junction fair last week. Rev. W. F. Ogelton made pastoral calls here last Thursday. The Silver Leaf Missionary society was held last Thursday at Mrs. P. A. McLamore's, with thirteen present. This was the last regular meeting of this conference year. There is to be one more called meeting to finish up financial affairs. Leola McLamore rendered a clarinet solo. The Missionary society was invited to the union services and basket dinner in Muscatine for Sunday, August 23, with the presiding elder, Rev. W. H. Ogelton, and Rev. McGee of Keokuk delivering the sermons. Charles Crawford and Carter Holdt of Iowa City visited friends here Sunday evening.

The Old Settlers Picnic association will meet for election of officers at the Community Center on Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock.

A special called meeting of the Virginia Picnic association will be held at the Community Center on Sunday to make final plans for the Labor Day picnic.

BIBLE LECTURES CLOSES TENTH WEEK'S SERVICES

The tenth week of the meetings at the Bible and Health pavilion closed with a lawn social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Spriggs, corner of Washington and DeWolf streets.

St. Paul A. M. E. Church

Sunday will be the last service for the conference year of St. Paul A. M. E. church. The pastor Rev. R. H. Hackley is requesting every member and friends to make Sunday, August 30th, "Go to Church Day." The pastor will leave for the conference at Waterloo, Iowa, in September. Each member is asked to not fail to bring in their conference fees.

The attendants of the Bible and Health pavilion are having a vacation of one week while Pastor R. T. Hudson, the evangelist, and a group of his members are in Kansas City, Kansas, attending a convention. The meeting at the pavilion, corner of McKinley and University, will be resumed Tuesday evening, September 1.

The subject for Tuesday evening will be, "Is there any real meaning in the world as fast approaching its end?" This is a review of the first five weeks' lectures. Everybody is invited to attend the closing lectures of the Bible and Health pavilion.

WHITE WOMAN CONVICTED IN DEATH PLOT
Milton, Fla., Aug. 21—(C)—Mrs. L. W. Vann, 40 year old grandmother, was convicted Friday by a jury of conspiracy to wreck the train of which her husband was engineer. Two colored men have been convicted of actually trying to wreck the train, but they testified that Mrs. Vann offered them $500 for the job.
The woman's husband had declared he did not believe his wife was a party to the plot. Earl Travis, 35, is to go on trial later, charged with plotting with Mrs. Vann. It is claimed Mrs. Vann and Travis had plotted to get rid of Mrs. Vann's elderly husband so they could collect the insurance.

BLUE TRIANGLE GIRLS RETURN TO CITY

With a total of seventy-two girls present at camp Sunday morning the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. camp under the direction of Waurine Spott, executive secretary, closed one of the most successful camp seasons in several years Monday. The girls from the ages of eight on up spent the eight days in hiking, reading, handicraft, camcraft, playing baseball, tennis, and archery, tumbling, tap dancing, studying nature lore and many other things.

"The Flood," a one-act play written and produced by Mrs. K. Jackson, was presented Sunday by the girls for the visitors. A "mixer" was held Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. camp in conjunction with the boys' stunt night at which time the ideal campers were announced for both camps. George Robinson, Lee Wallace Hill, and Richard Williams received the vote of the girls in their respective age divisions while Barbara Jane McCracken was chosen as the "Ideal Camper" at the Y. W. C. A. camp. The "Y Herald," camp newspaper, was edited and published by Dorothy Wheeler, editor; and Jean Morris, associate editor.

The camp committee, of which Mrs. Adelaide Bowman is chairman and the Committee of Management of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. wishes to thank the following clubs and persons that aided in sending girls to camp: T. O. B., La Parisienne, Roosevelt, Ten Keys, Three Purpose, El Domingo, Brotherhood of Des Moines, Charman, Mary Church Terrell, and De Luxe clubs and the Messrs. C. Devine, William Bell and the Misses Helen Banks and Letha Gray.

BOXING SHOWS RESUMED AT CROCKER Y. M. C. A.

By Walda
With Windy Davis, the announcer, following through a none too small megaphone, "Ladee-ees and gentlemen, we have in this corner at seventy-five pounds of Des Moines, Iowa, Lawrence Strothers, and in this corner Ellis Adams of Des Moines, Iowa, at seventy-five pounds, the weekly boxing bouts held by the Crocker Branch Y. M. C. A. are under way. The crowd goes wild as gloves clash and a solid blow is landed by one of the competitors. The events were as follows:

Bout of three one-minute rounds which ended in a draw between Strothers and E. Adams. Norman Thomas won by a technical knockout over his brother, Robert Thomas, in the sixty-nine pound class when the big-time promoter, Owen Robinson, threw the towel in for his man. John Danforth also won a technical knockout over James Boyd in the 118-pound class in three one and one-half minute rounds.

Leighton Johnson won over Richard Tatum by a forfeit. Louis Taylor won by a decision over Eugene Frazier as did Bobby Caldwell over Richard Davis and Paul Davis of Perry over Kermit Wilson. Les Jefferson at 158 pounds won by a technical knockout over Floyd Shade at 170 pounds. In the main bout of the evening between Bubbles Parsons at 168 pounds and Joe Louis Powell at 160 pounds the judges called a draw. James Gaitor has challenged anyone between 138 and 145 pounds for a bout next week.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By Walda

Well, last week I didn't bake in the city, but I did get my tan in the woods—A bunch of veteran campers (Gen Morrow, Jean Morris, Donna Graham, Octavia Roane, Adelaide Bowman, etc.) went up this year and had a "just too mellow" with emphasis time—Being away eight days puts me back in the "don't know-it-all" class and as a "solid sender" friend of mine says "You have to get on some kind of time, preferably that slow and easy time"—And so I'm trying my bestes—In my scouting round and round I find that the latest subjects for a conversation are: 1. Why Jack Howard came home from camp Sunday night instead of waiting until Monday morning to come with the camp boys. (That calls for a great deal of consideration and concentration.) 2. How Fred Morrow and Chops Robinson painted the town red while all the other boys were at camp—just too ready. 3. How the Rambling Rover (Braddie Morris) happened to beat Travis Fowler's time Tuesday morning early? 4. How Guy Smith is on that time since going to camp and coming back a tough number. 5. Why some of the boys on the camp baseball team who had been playing all week didn't play as well as the boys who worked all week. (Well its like this—But then I don't know.) 6. How George Warren Robinson can be the girls' choice for an "Ideal Man" and not get concited about it, while others get "the big head" over less than that. 7. How Willie Miller and Melvin Mays can "rock the cradle" and still hold their own with the older set. 8. How and what Louis Fulton is going to do now that his b. f. has "way down South" to get her some education. 9. How "it just ain't" beneficia for us local gals when out-of-towners come across the border. 10. How Chet Simms really rates with that Ames gal. (He seems to be immune to the fact.) 11. How you have to go away from home to be appreciated. 12. How "ruff, tuff and red" the new night club is going to be—And that's what another friend of mine calls getting on that beneficial time. 13. How Thomas Avant, the gentle who must have atmosphere when he makes his phone calls and who decided that a church could be no better place, puts all his heart and "sole" in the expression, "Oh Yeah." He should be an end man—14. How "Darling Loomy" Lomas won 50c crooning "I'm In the Mood for Love" at camp.—Could the inspiration have been—??? 15. How Allen Ashby can prove any day that mighty things come in small packages. 16. How "The Mug" holds a strange attraction for all who shouldn't be there.

Well this is the town's gossip in a nut shell—If you know anything more pass it around—it will go the way of the rest sooner or later—And as a final parting—to everyone that isn't on some kind time, get on some kind of time—as I have been told. Yours, until I hear "Gloomy Sunday."

Notice to all beautiful women—Jim Wade is without a girl friend now, wise, a certain East Side Uptown girl. Notice to all handsome men and other: is the same way only vice versa.

VIRGINIA PAPER ASSAULTS BAN ON FORD MEETING

Richmond, Va., Aug. 21—(CNA)—Denial of the use of the John Marshall high school here for a meeting for James W. Ford, Communist Negro vice presidential candidate, is condemned by the Richmond Times-Dispatch in an editorial as "ill-timed and in conflict with American principles of free speech."

The ban on Ford, the Richmond paper points out, is "a blow at one of the cardinal principles which went into the establishment of our form of government. Free speech is a cherished institution, guaranteed by the fundamental law of this country. Any infringement of it, upon any pretext, is a matter of vital concern to all people, regardless of the political creed of any of them."

THE CITY COUNCIL GOES TOO FAR

During the past few months, the Iowa Highway commission entered into agreements with three contractors to build three bridges in Des Moines. In each instance the contractors began their jobs according to specifications only to be stopped by intimidation of employees by the labor unions.

The city council decided that they ought to do something about the matter and urged that the contractors pay the prevailing wage scale rather than that agreed upon by the contractors. Gov. Herring tried to settle the matter by securing from the federal government a promise of sufficient money to pay the difference in the two wage scales.

And now our city council comes up with a proposition to issue $100,000 worth of bonds to pay this difference in the wage scales. They ought to be ashamed of themselves. Des Moines is already heavily in debt, besides the council is having a hard time making the income pay the obligations it budgeted for current expenses.

The idea is preposterous and the Bystander hopes that if the proposition is not halted someone will ask the courts to do it.

The Bystander is not opposed to the idea of paying the prevailing wage scale. But it is opposed to blocking legal contracts entered into by people who agree on the terms and those terms are within the law. Here we have lost weeks that hundreds of men might have been employed because of objection that should have been made at the time the contract was entered into.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE INTERESTED

Today the people are hearing a lot about excessive taxation, reckless spending by states and the federal government, and mortgaging the future of our children and their children. Although dry to most people it is a subject requiring great thought and some judgment. In fact there is too much of a disposition on the part of the average fellow to say "I have nothing to tax so why should I care," or "I will be dead within twenty years so I shall know nothing about it" or "let the rich worry about it; I own nothing."

Statements of this character are made without thought or with reckless disregard as to what they mean. Every good citizen ought to be interested in maintaining his government and that it be well governed; he ought to recognize that this country is great today because our forefathers did not take this attitude; that this country can remain great only in proportion that the masses of the people take sane and safe steps to carry their share of the load; that there is a responsibility on the part of this generation to leave its successors a fair chance to maintain a great stable government.

FAIR WEATHER ADVISERS

An unusual number of white people are taking it upon themselves to advise Negroes on their political future. They are prompted by the high bid each major party is making for his

Health Talks

By Dr. C. B. Bradford

ENDOCARDITIS

This is an inflammation of the inner lining of the cavities of the heart, more especially that part covering the valves. There are four types of endocarditis all of which should be recognized as early as possible by the physician in order that necessary treatment be instituted at once, the chief of which is prolonged rest. The rheumatic type develops during the course of an attack of rheumatic fever causing pain in the heart region, increased pulse rate, high temperature, and some dilatation of the heart. Some of these cases prove rapidly fatal. Usually the teeth, tonsils, middle ear or sinuses act as the foci of infection.

Treatment

In all forms of this disease the patient must be kept absolutely quiet, and an ice bag kept over the heart region almost constantly. Necessary drugs for pain and prolonged rest.

OWEN'S DECISION

Jesse Owens and the A. A. U. are both acting within their technical rights. The unquenched athlete from Ohio State University has stayed through to the end of the Olympic contests and so fulfilled the purpose for which he went. On the other hand, it is the rule of the A. A. U. to suspend any competitor who violates an agreement.

It is unfortunate that Owens and his coach, after agreeing to attend supplementary contests in Sweden, found it necessary to withdraw. Disappointment in Sweden will be great. It is possible that that country would not have extended the invitation to the team if it had known the star was not coming.

Before passing too severe judgment on the brilliant and sportsmanlike Negro all-round track star, it should be remembered that all the backslapping and grandstand cheers will not make a career for him. No bond brokerage house, for instance, would be very likely to make a place for him on its sales staff, as has been done more than once for stars of the football field where the race question did not enter.

Whether in view of all the circumstances the A. A. U. could not have expressed its regrets to Sweden and let it go at that without harshly disciplining Owens will be debated wherever sportsmen meet. The unimpeachable fact remains that Jesse Owens has proved credit to his country.

NORTH CAROLINA DAILIES RESENT FIGHT ON WARREN

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 21.—Daily papers of this state are giving considerable space to the protest being made by the N. A. A. C. P. and other organizations and individuals against the possible appointment of Representative Lindsay C. Warren of this state as comptroller general of the United States.

The comptroller generalship is a fifteen year appointment and carries a greater degree of independence from any kind of control than any other office. Representative Warren is being opposed by the N. A. A. C. P. and others because as chairman of the warren committee on accounts Mr. Warren has supervision over the restaurant in the capitol and in this capacity he has refused to permit colored people to be served in the restaurant, al-

W. F. S.—Will I be able to handle the little business that I am taking over the first of August? Am I too young?

Ans.—The experience you have had the past eighteen months is sufficient for you to make a success of the store that you are taking over next month, nevertheless you will run up against obstacles very often, but you will learn to shoulder them.

True Blue—He is the only minister I have ever been in love with. I always said I didn't want a preacher, but since I've learned to love him he doesn't come around. I don't feel that I'll ever get over it if he turns his attentions to someone else in our town?

Ans.—I am afraid you will have to get over it, for I believe he is already engaged to another woman. She is the cause of his visits being so few and far between nowadays. You will be invited to their wedding.

S. H. M.—I plan to change cities this summer and run my same business that I have been in for about sixteen years. I am going to add some other side lines to it. Please tell me about it?

Ans.—I like your idea fine, but it is my impression that you will have a very successful year. There is one suggestion I would like to make, however, regarding your side lines. Why don't you add these side lines where you are now, so that you will know and understand all about them when you move.

M. B. D.—All my friends object to my keeping company with my boy friend. I've promised to marry him. Must I?

Ans.—Do so at your own risk. I don't believe you love him if he is as bad tempered as I think he is. I am afraid your married life won't be any too happy. Besides, his untidiness and the type of friends he has seen to be quite a bit lower than your standard.

V. J. R.—I read your column and especially interested in it. I would like to know where my baby brother is living?

Ans.—According to my reasoning, I believe your kid brother to be in the state of California. It seems that he is already in touch with one of your relatives and that you will see him later in life.
