'Should Be Saving Souls in Africa for His Church'-Davis

G. D. P. LEADER SAYS PRELATE SEEKS MONEY

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2—Declaring that politics makes strange bedfellows, Hon. Ben J. Davis, former Republican national committeeman from Georgia, has addressed an open letter to Bishop R. R. Wright, Jr., in which he says the church leader conveniently changed his politics to suit his purse.

"Politics," Mr. Davis says to the bishop, "often upsets our religion and makes men substitute the dollar for the Grace of God."

Praise Republicans

Continuing, Mr. Davis says: "When Bishop Wright was a candidate for the bishopric, he came to Georgia, and in addressing the Voters League here, he declared himself as a Republican; explaining that his family had split in politics in Pennsylvania; some were Democrats and otherwise, but he, R. R. Wright, Jr., had remained faithful to the party of his father, R. R. Wright, Sr."

What About Africa?

"Bishop Wright owes it to his church and his race to explain why he does not proceed to his district in Africa, discharging his duties in his

ESTHER WINTER, 28, KILLED

IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

Eleventh, was also held in jail with Eubanks as a material witness to the accident. They were questioned by Coroner William Carpenter.

Garland Weston, 25, 914 Crocker street, who was riding in Eubanks' car, received a broken right arm. Miss Winter, who had lived in Des Moines just a year, died at the Broadwains General hospital after being taken there by a passing motorist. Mrs. Rachel Winter of Coffeyville, Kansas, four brothers and four sisters survive. The body, in charge of L. Fowler & Son, was shipped to her home Wednesday for burial.

'Don't Be Swayed By Loud Oratory'

N. A. A. C. P. WARNS VOTERS TO BEWARE POLITICAL TRICKS

New York, Oct. 1—As the presidential campaign waxes warmer, the N. A. A. C. P. issued today a warning to thoughtful Negro voters not to be carried away by artificially pumped up enthusiasm, but instead to exact from candidates for office unequivocal pledges on matters of grave concern to Negro voters.

Prominent Negroes are actively working in all parties, and that is as it should be. But the motives of all persons, white or Negro, and the past activities of those who urge Negroes to vote this way or that should be carefully scrutinized and weighed. Specious appeals to catch phrases should be ignored. If the Negro masses are to get any benefit from the extraordinary opportunity which this election affords, they must be realistic and not let themselves be led astray by meaningless party labels or flamboyant oratory.

Negro Republicans of Iowa Organize

Upon invitation of J. G. Browne, chairman of the Negro Division, State Republican central committee, seventy-five Negro men and women representing all counties in the state with any Negro population, met at the Savery hotel Wednesday afternoon and perfected plans for a statewide Landon-Knox organization.

Mr. Browne outlined the plans whereby these workers are charged with the responsibility of registering and helping all Republican supporters to vote. Other speakers included M. F. Field of Waterloo, Rev. J. W. Tutt, chairman of the Polk County organization, M. F. Bynum, of Davenport.

Supreme Court's Decis on Clears Men, Decides Judge

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 1—After a spirited and hard fought battle of legal technicalities here last week, three colored sharecroppers, Ed Brown, Henry Shields and Yank Ellington, were one step nearer freedom in their long battle against the charge of having murdered a white Kemper county farmer in May, 1934.

Judge A. H. Longino, after listening to the argument of Earl Brewer, Esq., attorney for the trio, granted a writ of habeas corpus to discharge the men completely. District Attorney John C. Stennis of Kemper county and three assistants immediately appealed the writ just granted to the supreme court.

In handing down his decision, Judge Longino said that it was apparent the Negroes had not been given a "fair and impartial trial in Kemper. If I send them back there for a second hearing on murder charges this court would be a party to a lynching. Court decision is that, in part, is exonerates these defendants.

Since the state can produce no additional evidence than was introduced at the original trial and which has since been declared invalid, it is my opinion that these three parties are being held unlawfully and by this decree give them their freedom."

Brown, Ellington and Shields were quickly convicted of murder and sentenced to death by a court in Kemper county, Mississippi, in the spring of 1934, after a trial in which the only evidence against them consisted of "confessions" they were alleged to have made that they killed Raymond Stewart, a white tenant farmer. At the trial deputy sheriffs freely testified that the prisoners had been beaten to make them confess.

However, two justices of the Mississippi supreme court in a dissenting opinion scored the torture of the men and called the case "worse than the Scottsboro cases." In delivering the opinion of the court Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes declared "the rack and torture chamber may not be substituted for the witness chair."

Whitman Dancer Is Now Evangelist

SAYS SHE HAS JUST FOUND REAL HAPPINESS, SO IT'S GOOD BYE STAGE FOREVER

Chicago—The Lord has called Essie Whitman, senior member of the famous Whitman sisters stage team. She's an evangelist and doing religious work as often as she can. She has been in this field for the last three years.

"God called me," she told a reporter, "after I received an injury to my foot. He told me to go back to my work as an evangelist. You know I was a religious worker when I was 14 years old and before I went on the stage."

It was recalled that when she was 12 years old, her father, the Rev. A. A. Whitman, known all over the country as "poet-preacher of the world," converted twenty-five people at Hot Springs. Miss Whitman aided him in this work. She says Aime McPherson, coast evangelist, has given her much inspiration.

Norman W. Robinson, 27, employee of the place, whose uncleaned fingernails gave damning evidence against him, himself notified the police of the murder of Mrs. Goodwin.

IMPROVED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 4 THE MACEDONIAN CALL

LESSON TEXT - Acts 16:6-16.
 ROMANS 15:18-21.
 GOLDEN TEXT - Go ye therefore, and teach all nations - Matthew 28:19.
 PRIMAARY TOPIC - Paul's Wonderful Dream.
 JUNIOR TOPIC - God's Call to a New Continent.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC - A Cry for Help.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC - The World's Need of Christ.

The roots of American life, cultural and religious, reach back into the European soil on which our forefathers dwelt. The lesson before us is therefore of peculiar interest, for it relates the first step in the carrying of the gospel into Europe, and ultimately to America.

Paul, the missionary with a pastor's heart, felt constrained to go and visit the centers where he had ministered on his first journey. As he proceeded he was providentially hindered and led by the Holy Spirit to Troas. Here his next "step" seemed for a time heavenly vision, but soon God in a vision called him into Macedonia—and the gospel had come to Europe.

It is of interest to note that Paul, as he thus began his second missionary journey, was I. Obedient to the Spirit (Acts 16:6-12).

He had certain plans in mind. He set out with a purpose, but he was willing to have his own itinerary changed as the Holy Spirit led. It is significant that the guidance was negative as well as positive. The steps as well as "the steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord" (Ps. 37:23). Christians will do well to remember that providential hindering circumstances may be as much the leading of God as the heavenly vision. We are to be obedient to any guidance He gives but we are not to be merely passive, but actively submissive to His will. Paul was about the Father's business, not idly waiting for the speaking of a voice from heaven. It is to such a man or woman that the Macedonian call comes even in our day, one that now comes from China, India, South America, or Africa.

II. Faithful in Testimony (vv. 13, 14). Paul, with his companion Silas, Timothy who had joined them at Lystra, and Luke (note that the "they" of v. 8 becomes "we" in v. 10) came to Philippi in Macedonia, but they found no Macedonian man waiting for them. Had they been mistaken in their vision and call?

True missionaries are not thus easily discouraged. They had come to be fishers of men. The fisherman does not expect the fish to come to him. He goes after them. Paul soon discovered that there was a place of prayer at the river, evidently a gathering place of devout Jews for worship. There he met the man of Macedonia who turned out to be a woman. For some reason the men were absent from the place of prayer on that all-important Sabbath morning. Lydia was a woman of distinction, business ability, and of high moral character. But Paul knew that even good people need to be saved. He spoke the truth of God. She accepted the message as God opened her heart, and at once she entered into it.

III. Fellowship in Service (v. 15). Lydia proved herself to be one of that noble succession of women who have served Christ and the church. She and her household shared in the ministry of Paul by their Christian hospitality, thus helping forward the missionaries. Observe carefully that she was not saved by her works, but that her works followed naturally after her salvation.

Turning now to one of the epistles of Paul we look at his exposition of certain

IV. Fundamental Missionary Principles (Rom. 15:18-21). Those things which Christ had wrought (Paul took no glory to himself) through him Paul had consistently directed into fields where no one else had preached the gospel.

The spirit of the missionary of the cross is that of the pioneer, pressing ever onward, taking new land, not duplicating the work of others, not jealous of their success, not seeking comfort or glory. Men need the gospel; they are lost without it. Let us press on into the yet unoccupied territory.

Sorrow and Enjoyment
 We are sent here, in one sense, to bear and to suffer; but, in another, to do and to enjoy. The active day has its evening of repose; even patient suffering has its alleviations, when there is a consolatory sense of duty discharged.—Scott.

Undermined the Character
 Fear and gain are great perverters of mankind, and where either prevail the nobility is violated.—William Penn on the Fruits of Avarice.

Ford, Candidate for Vice President, Assails Major Party Candidates Here

Bitterly denouncing both the parties, especially Gov. Landon and his policies, James W. Ford, Communist vice presidential candidate, spoke at East High auditorium Friday, September 25th.

Stating that he was very pleased to speak in Des Moines after the national favorites, namely, Gov. Alf M. Landon, President Roosevelt, Father Coughlin and Lemke had been here, Ford proceeded to assail the drought conference, Hearst, the Liberty League and Father Coughlin for his contradictory statements.

Although Mr. Ford criticized President Roosevelt and the New Deal, the Communists have adopted some of the New Deal ideas for their platform, i. e., on the youth question they believe that the National Youth Administration budget must be maintained and enlarged, that child labor must be abolished and made unconstitutional, and that the American youth act must be enacted into law.

The Communist vice presidential candidate also assailed Gov. Landon as a hypocrite, who, while closely linked with the enemies of the Negro people, has "donned the garb of Abraham Lincoln to ensnare Negro voters."

The four youths were Cleo McCoy, 16; Manning James, 12; Sears Ward, 14, and Robert McCormick, 14, all colored. The boys claim the white man locked them in a corn crib at night, after they picked cotton all day.

DISCRIMINATION IN HIGH SCHOOLS BEFORE COURT

Baltimore, Oct. 1—The open discrimination against Negro children of high school age in Baltimore county was revealed here this week in the suit before Judge Frank I. Duncan in Towson, Maryland.

Thurgood Marshall, attorney for the parents of Margaret Williams, called witnesses who testified that there were ten high schools for white children in Baltimore county at a valuation of almost two million dollars, but no high schools for Negro children; that white graduates of elementary grade schools automatically attended high school upon presentation of their certificates, but that colored children were required to take an examination before being allowed to go to high school in the city of Baltimore.

CHARGE KIDNAPPING OF COTTON PICKERS

Laurel, Miss., Oct. 1—(C)—Kidnapping charges were filed Friday against Leroy Rogers, 32, of Jasper county, who, it is claimed, abducted four colored youths here and forced them, at the point of a gun, to pick cotton on his farm. Rogers is held in jail.

SOUTHERN YOUTH CONFERENCE CALLED FOR NOVEMBER 26-29

Washington, Sept. 30—(CNA)—Imbued with the zeal and traditions of Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman, the youth section of the National Negro Congress has called on the young people of the south to meet in Richmond, Va., November 26 to 29 to plan action for "freedom, equality and opportunity."

Mease Organizes Iowa Democrats

Henry Mease, chairman of the state Democratic league; William Bell, vice chairman; Atty. M. J. Carl, G. B. Tacker and Jack Smith spent the week-end visiting cities in the eastern part of Iowa organizing Democratic organizations. Among the cities visited, Davenport was one of the most enthusiastic. A club of forty-six members, under the chairmanship of William Scott, was set up. Mr. Smith is chairman of the Muscatine organization.

Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell, who will be in the state two days, will speak in Des Moines during October. The time and place for the meeting will be announced later.

N. Y. A. Project Helps Many Here

Annabelle Payne

"Not enjoyment and not sorrow, Is our destined end or way, But to act that each tomorrow Finds us further than today."

How these immortal words of Longfellow fit the progress of the National Youth Administration. What is being done and what can be done for the hundreds of thousands of energetic young people who are meeting the fact that they are not needed today?

In Des Moines, Iowa, project 1643-YI, under the supervision of Mr. G. R. Tucker, there has been interesting progress. This project is regarded by the communities, public and private agencies, organizations, as well as individuals, as the most beneficial project ever attempted.

This project is composed of thirty-two ambitious young men and women who are craving for distinction and leadership—common and natural to all. The project serves a number of purposes. As a training school, it gives needed experience (for many of these youths have never had any experience), it provides income, strengthens morale, awakens a feeling of confidence, poise and independence. It embraces such factors as promptness, adjustment to work, congeniality and general adaptability.

Five special places had immediate work to be done. Y. M. C. A. building at Twelfth and Crocker streets; Negro Community Center at Fifteenth and Crocker streets; building at 1150 Thirteenth street, used as a center and church combined; East Side Community Center at East Sixteenth and Walker streets and the Y. W. C. A. at Fourteenth and Center streets.

At the Y. M. C. A. building all the walls were washed, the office thoroughly cleaned, twelve windows put in, with new glass in two of them; along the west side of the building the boys have filled in with dirt, a wire fence built, basketball equipment painted and repaired, all the seats, tables and book racks were repainted, the building has been painted on the outside, a regulation size boxing ring built, which has drawn hundreds of people to attend the fights.

Work now in progress is the digging of a basement and installing water, toilet and shower bath facilities, which have long been badly needed. Numerous boys are now benefitted from improved recreational and other facilities at this building, where the boys attain valuable physical and mental benefits.

The Negro Community Center is a large twelve room construction, open halls, two stairways, one in front and one in back, a large basement and attic. Here all the woodwork in building has been cleaned and varnished, several walls washed and painted, bath room painted, windows cleaned, radiators silvered and the basement painted and attic given a thorough cleaning. The yard was also kept clean.

At the building which is used as a center and church combined, the windows were put in and cleaned, walls cleaned and repairs were made on the rear of the building. Here is taught handcraft, sewing and wholesome games for children. A chorus of thirty-two N. Y. A. youths meet once a week here to sing Negro spirituals and folk songs. A very successful community work is being carried on in this building.

The East Side Community Center need was great and there are few facilities. Renovating was needed and it is being done. A thorough cleaning was done; papering, scrubbing, varnishing and painting, repairing furniture and putting glass into windows. The yard has been cleaned and kept clean at all times. A basement is now being cleaned out. There are still many things to be done to improve this building.

The Y. W. C. A. needed cleaning and repair work done. Here the general upkeep of the interior is kept in good condition. The boys also keep this yard beautifully cleaned.

sion. These are good examples of what young people can do if given the opportunity.

It is a fact that youth leaders must direct the energies of youth into proper channels. Idle or not, young people are "going to do something." Therefore they must have something constructive to do.

A comment from this project's supervisor, G. B. Tucker, clearly shows that he is striving to direct youth into proper channels. He states: "I am always glad to help any energetic and ambitious young person; glad to be able to help train youth in habits of regularity, sociability and approach, something that offers experience, recreational and educational possibilities."

We find that with most of these youths on this project, their assistance is needed in the home life or that the young people are left largely upon their own. Thus the N. Y. A. has shown a private effect in the homes as well as to the individual. The N. Y. A. repays a state of drifting and futility by a serious program which attempts to fit the person to the job, giving the youth experience and responsibility.

These youths are rendering a real service to the community. This is the first job for some of these boys and girls and they are realizing for the first time a sense of responsibility. The entire community should feel and see the effect of this youth's program.

The supervisor has designed forms to be filled out concerning each youth working on the project. A weekly record is kept of each youth, and a rating form, showing adaptability and their progress in the work. This all tends toward creating within youth pride for his community and an ambition to accomplish something that will be of credit to him.

This well-rounded program has been put into a most remarkable effect. All these make one feel that the efforts the N. Y. A. is expending is bringing some tangible results.

FOOTBALL

The football wars broke with a vengeance last week. In the Big Ten

Three 7718 Bystander News a-hw 9-23 at Iowa ran into mud and unexpected sturdy opposition against Carleton College. It took a touch-down scramble by Ozzie and some fine end play by Homer Harris and Don Simon to turn back to Carls. Jefferson, a big sophomore at Northwest, is expected to be a rival for Ozzie; they meet next week. Jefferson is also an A-1 kicker and passer.

High School East and Valley met before the rain got in its dirty work and our boys provided the fireworks. Charley Swink made a 55 yard run to help his team score what proved to be the winning touchdown as Valley beat East 9-8. Al Thomas must have thought he was racing to the dinner table at Y camp as he grabbed the hog hide and ran 80 yards for East's only marker. Harold Sharp did some mighty fine running in East's drive for victory that failed when they called the kid once too often. Harry Saunders and Eddie Maupin got into the battle a while.

Chet Simms and T. Avant were rained out of their debut last Saturday. Suppose next they will be making football a summer pastime so the boys won't get their nice new suits wet.

Semi-pro Bob Vandevere continues to make the boys wish he was some place else on Sunday afternoons. He broke up his second semi-pro ball game last Sunday at Rock Island by running back a couple of punts. Looks as if he might settle all arguments as to who was the greatest Negro back in our city.

Boxing It wasn't any surprise to us when Chuck Broddus dusted the guy Mike Klomp Monday night. To our way of thinking it was simply a question of Broddus getting so he could stay five rounds. Johnny Deeruz spotted a boy twenty-five pounds and came out second.

Eby's Coe team this Friday night, and this game is causing the Drake mentor a little worry. It has been thirteen years since Drake played Coe, but that game in 1923 hasn't been forgotten. That day, Jack Pence gave one of the greatest displays of placekicking in history as he helped the Kohawks to a 12 to 6 victory.

PAIGE SHUTS OUT BLACK YANKEES AT POLO GROUNDS

New York, Oct. 1—(CNA)—New York's first Negro magistrate, Myles Paige, pitched the first ball in the Sam Langford benefit doubleheader between four of the leading colored nines in the country at the Polo grounds last week. In the first game, the Philadelphia Stars outthrew the Nashville Elite Giants, but bowed to them 7-3.

Scoring in the first, third and sixth innings, the Pittsburgh Crawfords had little trouble in subduing the Black Yankees 4-0 in the second game. Satchel Paige gave the Yankees only five hits, while his teammates battered Ben Holland for fourteen blows. The doubleheader was witnessed by 24,000 fans and a large number of celebrities.

ARKANSAS PEONAGE PROBE MAY HIT HIGHER UPS

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 2—(Special)—Slavery in its worst form, surpassing by far conditions which existed before the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation, was uncovered here last week as the result of investigations by a governor's commission and the federal grand jury of Little Rock.

The probe marked the first formal airing of charges of peonage growing out of the sharecropper system in the eastern Arkansas cotton belt.

City Marshal indicted Paul D. Peacher of Earle, who is now free in $2,500 bail, higher-ups in the city, county and state governments are scurrying for cover, lest they be named for their part in the peonage system. Peacher is the first person to be indicted in Arkansas under the anti-slavery laws of 1866.

Mayor

Already the probe has hit Mayor T. S. Mitchell of Earle, for it was he who worked hand in hand with Peacher in supplying farm hands for the peonage farm.

Mayor Mitchell at the instigation of Peacher acted as justice and sentenced eight Negro farmers to serve thirty days on Peacher's plantation after they had been falsely accused of being vagrants.

LONDON CONFIRMS REPUBLICAN TRADITION, SAYS DICKINSON

Iowa, Falls, Iowa, Sept. 24—Traditions of the Republican party of many years standing are brought once more to the full understanding of the American people and confirmed in Governor Landon's espousal of the family type farm, Senator L. J. Dickinson declared in an address here tonight.

Senator Dickinson said Republicans are still firm in the faith as suggested in Proverbs, chapter 26, verse 19: "He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread, but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough."

"There can be no danger of want when the cellar is filled with provisions—canned vegetables, fruit, corn and preserved meats and other products of the farm. This philosophy was underlying the suggestions of Governor Landon in his speech the other evening," Senator Dickinson said.

MISTAKING THE FACTS

The editor of The Bystander while talking with a friend in Des Moines recently heard him say that he was supporting President Roosevelt because he wanted to pass the anti-lynching bill but the Republicans would not let him.

Prof. Kelly Miller, formerly of Howard University, is writing a series of articles entitled, "Why the Negro Should Vote for President Roosevelt." In the first article in the series he states:

"Governor Landon is 49 years of age and yet if he has any favorable attitude toward the Negro he has preserved it as a profound secret up to the time of his candidacy for President. Up to now his friendship for the Negro might be compared to the chapter on oranges in Alaska—there are no oranges in Alaska. Indeed, if we are to believe the President of the local N. A. A. C. P. of Governor Landon's home town, he must be regarded as unfriendly to the hopes and aspirations of the colored race. No man over fifty is apt to take on new endearments with much ardor or depth of affection. The Governor's campaign utterances on this question will of course be taken with the customary grain of salt."

It is true that a Negro lawyer in Topeka has criticized Gov. Landon for refusing to give him a job in the Attorney General's office but this lawyer has not told Dr. Miller that another Negro got the job and has it today; that all the other Negro lawyers in Topeka are supporting Gov. Landon; that Negroes draw more money and hold more and better jobs in Kansas than in any state near its size and with the same ratio of population. This is common knowledge among intelligent Negroes all over the state. It is not surprising that an untutored person like our Des Moines friend might be misled and misquote the facts but there is absolutely no excuse for Dr. Kelly Miller falling into the habit of misstating facts. Prof. Miller has a right to make his own choice for public office but he ought not attempt to mislead the people by distorting the facts upon which he argues for his candidates.

IOWA HEAD DUCKS THE ISSUE

Ozzie Simmons made the first touchdown for Iowa in the game against Carlton College Saturday and the first score of the season. Simmons is a senior playing his last season and while his place in football has already been made, he is being watched by friend and foe in every game. Unquestionably he is by far the most outstanding player on the team.

Iowa begins the season with an unusual situation in that the team has no captain. When the question came up at the regular time to select a captain for the 1935 season the unheard of announcement was made that no regular captain would be chosen but one would be named for each game.

Of course there is an apparent reason. They did not want to elect Simmons and still this would have been the logical choice. Coach Ossie Salm evidently did not have the courage to do the big thing. He chose the easiest and most cowardly route. He ducked the issue.

Last summer when the American Olympic team left for Germany, one Negro and three white runners composed the 400 meter relay team. However when the odds seemed to be going against the American team, the head coach brushed aside racial barriers and chose two other Negroes, Owens and Metcalf—the team finally comprising one white and three Negro runners, and they won. The white boys displaced made no complaint feeling that it was important first that America won and second who composed the team.

If Simmons had been named captain of the Iowa team a large majority of the people would have hailed it the smart thing to do. Of course somebody would have complained. This is to be expected. But people in positions of leadership ought to be strong enough to take it and certainly so when their decisions are on the side of right. Captain Salm muffed a chance to display courage and ability as well as common decency when he ducked this issue. Unfortunately for the Negro we find in many people in high places who do not have courage. They are a handicap to the program they themselves try to put over and rob the Negro of an opportunity to display his ability to make progress.

What Others Say

Mr. James B. Morris
302 Chemical Building
Des Moines, Iowa

My dear Mr. Morris:
You are about to end and in the closing of my official career in this County, I wish to say that it has been one of the most pleasant that anyone could have hoped for in serving all of the people here. In that time I have tried to be absolutely fair with all of the classes and while I could not please everyone in the main it has been as wonderful as anyone could have wished.

Your people have always been helpful in their cooperation and in leaving the office, it is with the happy feeling of all of those who have assisted in making my official career a success.

I want you to know that I appreciate your editorials in the "Bystander" more than probably any other man not of your race. I read your editorial in the edition of Thursday, September 24th, under the title of "Shameful." I think Mr. Morris, that this is the best editorial you have ever written and I have been reading them ever since you have sent me your paper. If every colored person who has the feeling of their race at heat for their up-building, would read this editorial in the way that it should be read, they could not help but be inspired. Very truly yours,
William Carpenter, M. D.

SOCIAL SERVICE AGENCIES

PREVENT ECONOMIC UPHEAVALS

There are still some 10,000,000 unemployed in the United States, slightly more than one-fifth of the 48,000,000 which the 1930 census showed in gainful occupations. The seventh year after the advent of the depression finds a lot of slack NOT taken up.

How can we meet this problem? It can't be ignored; it can't be laughed off, and Americans are becoming somewhat skeptical of finding an all-embracing long time remedy in government panaceas.

Europe is in ferment with economic and political upheavals which largely may be traced to unsatisfactory social adjustments of depression-born problems. Rumbles of unrest crop out in the United States from time to time, although thus far not a portentous degree.

Fortunately there exists in this country an antidote for this considerable portion of the citizenry which our economic system has been unable to digest. The man without a job, the children without a playground, the sick, the discouraged housewife, the homeless child or adult, or the bewildered adolescent trying to find some niche of usefulness can turn with assurance of sympathetic aid to one of the social agencies in his town.

There are 25 such agencies in the Des Moines Community Chest waging a continuous battle against want, disease, discouragement.

Health Talks

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

STUDY OF HEART DISEASE

The study of cardiac diseases particularly those affecting the heart muscle, has received great impetus from the aid of an instrument called the electrocardiograph. This instrument has been the means of simplifying and explaining many diseased conditions of the heart, muscle, other hitherto wholly unknown or not fully understood by physicians. It has materially aided in increasing our knowledge of the mechanism of the heart beat, both in health and disease.

Unfortunately, the electrocardiograph, though an extremely useful instrument, can not possibly be owned or used by every physician because of its bulk and the technical training necessary for its operation. Portable instruments however are now being made to use in the homes.

The electrocardiograph is but an improved and modernized string galvanometer, in which the heart's action is recorded by projecting its shadow, magnified by a high power microscope, on a camera mechanism.

The degree and seriousness of early or late heart disease can definitely be determined in many instances where the physician is unable to do so with his stethoscope. Electrocardiographic studies should be made after physical examinations of all heart cases.

Unable to foresee the outcome, social workers all over the country are fighting in the determination that America shall not develop a permanently dependent class.

The Community chest plan is the practical and efficient way of meeting the social welfare problems of the community. This should be borne in mind when the Des Moines Community Chest campaign is held November 14-21.

CHARLES I. MADISON,
Executive Secretary of the
Des Moines Community Chest

TRADITION

The supporters of the New Deal, i. e. those of our group, want to ignore tradition and thus deprive those, who differ with them, of any means of defense; we the supporters of the Republican party refuse to be disarmed. Patrick Henry, that great American patriot tells us that "We can only judge the future by the past, there is no other light by which our feet can be guided except by the lamp of experience."

Andrew Jackson, from South Carolina, was inaugurated President of the United States in 1829 and the Democratic party as it exists today came into being. Since 1744 the Carolinas had permitted the education of Negroes, but in 1834, ninety years later and five years after the creation of the Democratic party the following statutes were adopted in South Carolina to wit:

"If any person shall hereafter teach any slave to read or write, such person if a free white person shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, for such offense, and imprisoned not less than six months; or if a free person of color, he shall be whipped, not exceeding fifty lashes and fined not exceeding fifty dollars. Anyone who reported the violation of the above statutes was awarded one-half of the assessed fine."

When we review the consistent efforts of all sections of our country, predominantly influenced by the Democratic party, we will note this underlying antagonism to the education of Negroes, the Supreme Court of the United States, as late as 1935 has handed down a decision invalidating statutes, that deny citizens of color the right to enter institutions of learning, that are maintained by taxes levied upon all of its citizens.

J. W. M.—What type of girl could I go with in the condition I am in?

Ans.: According to your social and financial standing you can have more success with the opposite sex if you don't go out of the Middle Class. Unless you overcome being shamefaced every time you see a girl you won't go with anyone. Don't be ashamed of your figure.

G. H. E.—Will I be rewarded for what I said last month?

Ans.: Your boss has taken into consideration what you said in your address last month. I do not believe this speech will help you to get a better job . . . but it will be the means of your getting a RAISE IN SALARY.

J. W. B.—Please tell me what made this change in my life? Why did I turn such a fool?

Ans.: It is my opinion you started going with this other woman just for a NOVELTY, not knowing that you would become infatuated with her. Your acting like a fool as you did, couldn't help but bring about a change in your wife's attitude. Your life will be the same as it used to be when your wife remains confident in you.

political strategist (who for the privilege of being on the relief pay rolls, are willing to surrender freedom), will say, those conditions and principles do not exist now, here is our answer.

In 1928 when the Democratic party

Ans.: No one did a mean act like this. Your table appears to have been in a draft and the wind blew it over, breaking up the novelties you had on it . . . The party you have in mind wasn't even around at the time.

C. K.—I read the paper every time it comes out and it gives me comfort and joy. Will you please tell me through your column where my father is?

Ans.: Your father appears to be a salesman for a firm in Texas. He travels quite a bit but his headquarters are in the city of Dallas.

O. N. T.—Does the man who takes me driving means what he says?

Ans.: Your boy friend who has the CHEVROLET is rather truthful and you can believe what he tells you. He seems to be good company and believes in having a good time. So long as he continues to be as attentive as he has been you can rest assured he is sincere.

W. A. A.—Is my preference to a certain party going to have a future.

was 100 years old, the National convention was held in Houston Texas; the night before the convention was called to order a Negro was taken out of a hospital and lynched; the colored delegates and entertainers were put behind a screen back of the platform, this set up was made by Mr. Jesse Jones of Texas, James T. Robinson of Arkansas was chairman of the convention. Mr. Garner, vice president of the United States and Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Texas, does not allow Negro voters of that state to vote in the primaries where the national representatives to Washington are chosen.

Ans.: Your liking for "G" and his interest in you will bring about a happy future . . . It will terminate into a marriage during the spring of NEXT YEAR.

B. T. J.—I am badly in need of employment and have been searching for three months without success. Will I succeed in finding the kind of work I am looking for?

Ans.: You will find a job in your field of work but not with the method you are using. An Employment Agency will assist you in getting something worthwhile to do, and it will be well worth the small fee you will have to pay them.

X. X. X.—I have had three dates with a boy and he hasn't even tried to kiss me yet. Should I wait for him to make love to me or should I make love to him or would he think me too flippy?

Ans.: Don't rush your boy friend so or you'll scare him off. He seems to be a little backward but just give him time . . . he'll do plenty of love making with only a little encouragement.

they also passed a resolution asking the National convention in Philadelphia not to seat colored delegates.

The senior senator, who has represented South Carolina for the last quarter of a century, walked out of the convention last June because they asked an intelligent Negro minister to pray, and quit and went home when the Negro representative from the first congressional district in Illinois was permitted to speak. Party tradition running through one hundred and eight years of its existence. (Ref. Cotton Ed. Smith.)

How any Negro voter in Iowa whose right to vote is protected by legislation, placed upon the statutes of this state by the Republican party can use his right of suffrage to place the national government in the control of men of such diabolical bias, is beyond all comprehension.

It lacks any of the qualities of manhood, because it is void of self respect, intelligence and common horse sense. Whatever the issue that section votes only white versus black. When you go to the polls November 3rd remember that every law safeguarding our rights even the right to vote as we please, was given to us by the party of Landon and Knox, Dickinson and Wilson. Vote straight Republican.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome
Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant
Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.
But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often remove offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.
This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.
Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Listerine Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.
