Tells of Warm Springs' Refusal to Negro Victim

Dr. Willis J. King of Atlanta, Heard at National Preaching Mission Colored People Gave $250,00 for Support

The Des Moines preaching mission, part of a national enterprise which brought to the city 15 of the world's foremost preachers and religious leaders, will close Wednesday with an address at Shrine auditorium by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, famed Methodist missionary of India.

Dr. Willis J. King, Oxford graduate and president of the Gammon Theological seminary, Atlanta, Ga., was one of the speakers. He addressed several church and civic groups. Dr. King spoke to the student body at North High school Wednesday. He was introduced by J. Braddie Morris, Jr., 12-A student.

WHITE PREACHERS REFUSE TO ACCEPT A NEGRO SPEAKER

Atlanta, Oct. 22—(CNA)—Prominent Negro ministers of this city flatly declined to participate in the activities of the National Preaching Mission when white ministers of the city refused to permit colored ministers to appear at their churches in the course of the mission's campaign to "bring about a spiritual awakening in the United States."

New Business Enterprise Here

ATTY. CHAS. P. HOWARD HEADS INSURANCE CO. Atty. Charles P. Howard will be general agent for Iowa Sentinel Hospital Insurance company, a new business enterprise organized with home office in Des Moines.

Agents now employed are Alfred Dudley, Carl Robinson, and Geo. Crank. They will work the Des Moines territory. Many appointments for Negro men and women agents throughout the state will be made.

Howard states that this is the first large insurance company with the courage and fairness enough to not only receive Negro policyholders but to employ Negro agents on an equal basis with all other policyholders and agents. The hospital situation has not been unsatisfactory as far as Negroes are concerned and the basic cause is the inability to pay.

Mr. Howard assures every policyholder that with this service is the highest grade of hospitalization in the best hospitals will be available to the Negro. "The Sentinel company is a legal mutual reserve with the best endowments of the State Insurance Commission of Iowa. Write for more detailed information or have one of the agents call and explain it to you," he said.

Vagabonds Say 'D.M. Girls Tops'

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

"I'm moanin', I'm moanin', I'm moanin' for you; Life can't go on like this, Cos I'm just moanin' for you."

Smooth strains of this well known crooning melody floated down the stairs of the Chemical building Friday morning as the Vagabonds, NBC artists, complimented the Bystander staff with a visit, interview and a couple of selections. They were featured at the Food Show at the Shrine auditorium last week and broadcasted daily over radio station KSO.

84 More Office Seekers Pledge

New York, Oct. 22—Twenty-four candidates for congress have signed a pledge sent them by the N. A. A. C. P. to support and work for a federal anti-lynching bill if elected, and to oppose discrimination in the civil service in relief jobs and other employment.

Twenty-four candidates for reelection answered the N. A. A. C. P. letter by citing the fact that they had supported anti-lynching legislation in the past congress and, therefore, would do so in the next congress. This makes a total of 243 candidates definitely on record to date.

Those who signed the N. A. A. C. P. pledge included: Clark, Jorgensen, Peck, Carter, Swanson and Harrington, all of Iowa.

Among those who promised in their own words to support the program: Buresh, Wolf and Gwynne, all of Iowa.

Japan Trains 500 Ethiopian Boys

PROPOSED MARRIAGE OF AFRICAN PRINCE TO JAP GIRL MAY YET BE CULMINATED

Tokyo, Japan—The training of 500 Ethiopian students in the aviation schools of Japan has revived rumors of the marriage of Prince Arya Ababa of Ethiopia to Mademoiselle Masako Kurade of Japan.

This affair, which created an international sensation in the chancelleries of Europe, came to light during the spring of 1934, following a visit to Japan by the handsome and elegant Abyssinian prince, Arya Ababa. The stage was set for this historic union, when pressure from some quarters outside of the two countries concerned brought all nuptial negotiations to a sudden stop.

While Abyssinia was making preparations for the wedding, Italy was shaping her military plans for a fascist conquest of Ethiopia. Thus the objections of Mussolini to union of Japan and Ethiopia through the marriage of Prince Arya Ababa, nephew of Emperor Haile Selassie, to Mademoiselle Masako Kurade, daughter of Viscount Kurade of Japan shattered the international romance.

Gibbons' Slayer is Held, Manslaughter

PATROLMAN EARL WILSON, UNDER HEAVY BOND, REMAINS ON DUTY

Chicago—First point in her campaign to avenge the death of her son was achieved by a determined mother Friday when a coroner's jury in the county morgue returned a verdict of manslaughter against Policeman Earl Wilson, held in connection with the fatal shooting of Joe Gibbons on October 5th.

Behind the action of the coroner's office could be seen stark drama, mystery and all the elements which have thus far made the investigation into the death of Gibbons, a former suitor of Marva Trotter-Louis, one of the sensations of the year.

JESSE GRAVES IS PRAISED FOR ACTING

Los Angeles, California—Jesse Graves is slowly but surely making his mark in Hollywood. He hasn't been ballyhooed to the sky, as Clarence Muse, Stepin Fetchit and others, but is slowly taking much of the ground that once belonged to a dozen highly publicized personage, Deacon McDaniel," says Freddie Buford, in a recent syndicated feature published in the Reflector, Negro tabloid paper.

Graves, a former Des Moines policeman who went to Hollywood several years ago, has "made good" in a big way. He has been seen in many leading film productions and has had important parts with outstanding motion picture stars. He is now starring in a film which is to be released soon.

COMMUNIST LEADER TALKS ON VACANT LOT

FORD SPEAKS IN LOS ANGELES DESPITE BAN

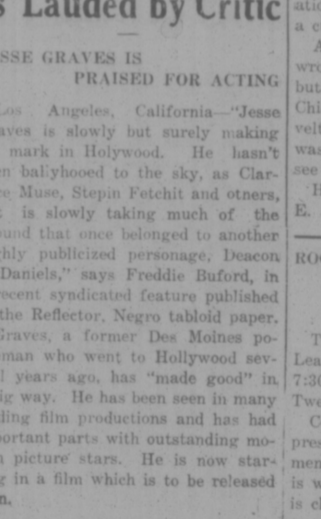

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(CNA)—Barbed from the East Side auditorium here, James W. Ford, Negro Communist vice presidential candidate, spoke to more than 4,000 persons in nearby vacant lots on his visit to this city.

The contract for the hail was broken by the owners due to police pressure, but the Communist party quickly arranged to hold the Ford rally in vacant lots across the street.

The Communist nominee also addressed an enthusiastic meeting of more than 2,000 students at the University of California at Sather Gate, in front of the main entrance to the grounds of the university, which is located in Berkeley.

College

Ernest Thompson reported the Iowa-Illinois battle to us, since it was impossible for us to be there. Thompson said that Simmons was covered like a ghost under a sheet. Iowa never had much of a chance to get an offense under way, so Simmons was pretty well checked. Thompson says that Harris was the best punt coverer he had ever seen and that he turned in a fine all round performance. Although disappointed at Iowa's not winning, Ernest said he was proud of the showing of Ozzie and Harris. Since Ozzie is watched so closely, any play with him starting and passing laterally or forward to a teammate is almost sure to click. Ozzie should be used more on the throwing end of those passes and it would save him and make the offense stronger. Reed and Bell had a fairly soft day, as Minnesota trounced Michigan. Hinton and Jefferson were prominent in Northwestern's upset over Ohio State. Jefferson tossed a pass that put the decision score on the fire. Fritz Poillard had a rather rough day, as North Dakota took St. Louis university into camp. Poillard started the game. He was the Bison's main offensive gun and he would have played or else. Arkansas State tripped Southern University last Saturday for their second victory. The boys are undefeated after three games. Last year they lost their first four.

High School

Chet Simms and Tommy Avant helped North trim Centerville. Chet threw some nice passes and they say he played a fine defensive game. Avant continued his little war for a starting position and played a lot of the brawl. Al Thomas and Harold Sharpe of East, aided by Harry Saunders, put on a show against Lincoln, 31 to 6. They ran distances ranging from twenty to sixty yards and worked so well together that people are calling them the Three Bronchos. Eddie Mauding was also in there. Booker King and Charlie Swink helped Valley down Chariton, 6 to 0, with King causing the most trouble.

Professional

Bob Vandevere ran into a world of trouble as the Comets tied the strong LaCrosse, Wisconsin, team last Sunday. LaCrosse kept the ball three-fourths of the time and punted twice during the entire game. They were out to stop Bob and finally cracked a bunch of his ribs. Bob made enough long runs to give the crowd a thrill and played the last half with his ribs injured. He finally collapsed on the field and was carried off. Ordinarily a rough, vicious back, Bob has fallen into the mistake that most Negroes on white teams make at first. He thinks it is poor sportsmanship to be rough enough to protect himself. There is a vast difference between protecting one's self and playing dirty. The boys say Bob will learn this in time.

HAL BRONSON TO PRODUCE BURLESQUE AT PRESIDENT

Hal Bronson of New York City has leased the President theatre, Eighth street, south of Walnut, and will give Des Moines real burlesque shows three days a week, beginning Friday, October 23, as played at the Rialto theatre, Chicago. Bronson, an actor, producer and manager of twenty-nine years' experience, said the theatre will be on one of the largest circuits in the country and that the shows which are to come here are originated in the Republic theatre, Forty-second and Broadway, New York City. Bronson, who began his stage career as a child actor with Gus Edwards, will have the title of managing director. He said he had played in Des Moines many years ago and claims credit for calling Edwards' attention to the stage as the lanes, whose home is in Indiana. He has been associated with many Negro actors of note. Started Bennie Carter, Harlem band leader, Eddie Bancroft, singer, is one of his many colored proteges. He is now interested in the Lincoln theatre in the colored section of Philadelphia and has managed the well

WILBERFORCE CLIPS TUSKEGEE, 6-0, IN ANNUAL CLASSIC

Soldiers Field, Oct. 17—A hard fighting Tuskegee Tiger which held Wilberforce scoreless in a nectic first half became vulnerable to a passing attack in the third quarter of the annual classic here Saturday afternoon long enough for the Force to push over a touchdown to make the score 6 to 0. The tally, the only scoring spurt of the line-duelling game, came in the early portion of the third period when McGinnis passed to Art Williams for forty-one yards, Clarkson plunged for eight yards and then McGinnis dropped another series for the remaining four yards to score the touchdown Art Williams' effort to make it 7 was in vain when his kicking attempt was inaccurate.

There is a wide variety of entertainment in the new pictures on the movie row this week-end. That four-starred example of all that is brilliant and sophisticated, "Labeled Lady", the new "Mr. and Mrs." in "Stage Struck," Dick Powell's newest musical comedy, at the Paramount, and "The Big Game," the season's first rousing football comedy, at the Orpheum. So, whether it is sophisticated fun with your favorites, or the trueful stepping of a flock of pretty girls, or even the tang of outdoor collegiate sports—you'll find just what you want in screen entertainment on the movie row this week end. Myrna Loy and Bill Powell, Jean Harlow and Spencer Tracy make up two of the liveliest twosomes imaginable. The story goes that Tracy is a newspaper man, about to marry Jean Harlow, when along comes a heartened libel suit against his newspaper, involving Myrna Loy, high-headed daughter of a very wealthy and influential father. To hold Myrna and her dad's libel suit in check, Editor Tracy marries his fiancée to dapper Bill Powell—just as a matter of convenience, and then sets the stage for Myrna to fall in love with Powell and thus be open for a retaliating libel suit. "Labeled Lady" plays at the Des Moines and Roosevelt theatres through next Wednesday night, and next week it's Shirley Temple in "Dimples," which you will agree is quite something of a treat.

ROCKFELLER FORECLOSES ON DUNBAR APARTMENTS

New York, Oct. 15—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., filed foreclosure proceedings on a $2,000,000 mortgage held against the Paul Laurence Dunbar apartments in supreme court Wednesday. The mortgage was given in 1927 and the apartments had defaulted in payments. The Dunbar apartments cost $3,500,000. It is stated, unofficially, that the present move is the first to be made in finally selling the buildings to the federal government, as the PWA has a $4,500,000 housing project similar to the Dunbar only a block away. The federal rents are to be below the Rockefeller rents, it is claimed.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15—In answer to a questionnaire containing a pledge sent out by the N. A. A. C. P. to candidates for congress in the November election, to date thirty-seven congressmen have signed the N. A. A. C. I also promise to oppose all discrimination on account of race, creed or color in relief jobs, civil service or in any other way."

The Divineites turned the police station into a "Peace Mission" with singing and shouting. They were to be tried in night court.

COMMENDS SECTION ON EMPLOYMENT—NEGROES INTEGRATED INTO LIFE OF NATION

New York, Oct. 15—The statement of Governor Alf M. Landon, Republican candidate for president, condemning lynching and declaring "we must devise some legal means" to end mob murder is "puzzling" to the N. A. A. C. P. A statement issued from the national office of the association today says: "We should like to know precisely what 'legal means' Mr. Landon has in mind. Does he mean a federal law as is proposed in such measures as the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill? Or does he mean leaving it to the states to pass such laws?" The association calls Governor Landon's pronouncement for greater employment of Negroes in the productive life of the nation "a significant statement which goes to the root of the Negro's economic plight," but again the N. A. A. C. P. asks specifically for the methods by which Governor Landon proposes to effect re-employment of the Negro by private industry. "Previous administrations, of both political parties," the statement declares "have failed to accomplish the desired integration."

SHERIFF KEELING STANDS ON HIS RECORD FOR RE-ELECTION

Sheriff C. F. Keeling, announced this week that he "will stand on his record in office for re-election Nov. 3, 1936."

In citing the efficiency and economy of his administration, Sheriff Keeling says that his carefully selected and experienced deputies, working under premise court of Iowa for final decision and thirty of these cases were successful. In five of the cases the Supreme Court reversed the lower courts and mathematically this would make his office eighty-three per cent victorious in Supreme Court cases alone, besides the tremendous number of successful civil and criminal cases which never have been appealed to the Supreme Court. Four of the above named thirty-five cases were First Degree Murder cases which were successfully prosecuted.

"With the high success of Mr. Burman's office we very cheerfully recommend that the voters of Polk County, Iowa, again go to the polls on Tuesday, November 3rd, and again show their approval by a unanimous election of Carl A. Burkman for the office of County Attorney."

Minister who prayed at Democratic Convention speaks for Roosevelt. Rev. M. L. Shepard who prayed at the Democratic National Convention at Philadelphia, says he is "working day and night for the re-election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, because I am convinced that his re-election is paramount to sustaining the significant gain that has been achieved under his Administration toward a more humane, social and economic hour."

Highways. Sheriff Keeling proposes continued advancement of safety to motorists on the highways and is sponsoring a program for installation of a two-way radio hook-up for his officers with Des Moines police.

The departments in the Sheriff's office including criminal and civil deputies, jail turnkeys and bailiffs have been combined to give the public efficient and courteous service and they will so remain, Sheriff Keeling assures.

I promised to expose a lot of well guarded secrets in this broadcast, but the boys loaded up their heavy artillery and threatened to declare an open season on Ashby if I got too far out of line, so I won't tell a thing.

I certainly won't tell that Quentin Mease has a good tenor voice, and a saxophone. He likes to pretend he is leading an orchestra when he hears it over the radio. And he can identify most of the big bands by hearing them play. Some chap—Did you know that Archie Greenlee is doing all right by Archie. It's a long way from Valley Junction to Highland Park, but Archie doesn't seem to mind. Ask Donna Graham—Don't say I told you this, but Al Thomas told me he couldn't dance—a football hero and no dance. "You gotta be a football hero."

WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

I wouldn't mention this for the world, but Chet Williamson has a delightful habit of insisting that he is not going to a party or dance. Then bam! he shows up. Probably wants to see if he will be missed.—Now I never told you this but, ask Tommy Avant and Chet Simms where they got their candy they brought back from Centerville.—And what they did with it—Now why do you suppose Virgil Mann looks at the fennies' pictures in the Pittsburg Courier and sighs, "I wish they would move here."—You mustn't repeat that Eddie Eaves is trying hard to hang a nickname on me—"A. M. & N."—I heard that Walda is a girl of widely varying moods . . . Looks like she sent her heart to the Windy City with the VAGABONDS.—That heart has certainly traveled around some, Ohio, Arkansas, Illinois—Where next, Walda? . . . Now don't say I started the report that Louis Fulton isn't wasting any time mourning about his now Southern Rose.—But he will make a big fuss if you tease him about where he is.—Can you believe that Arnold Wiley keeps his whiskers cut off since he has become a college man.—R. O. T. C. rules . . . He was home Saturday nite.—You'd think that some one would present an orchid to the Crocker team in the Y drive. The boys went over the top a day ahead of schedule. . . Nice work, boys—Don't tell a soul that Bill Ashby, Chet Williamson and Frank Mathews viewed the pro football game last Sunday from a very undignified position—Was it a tree, fence or what, boys? I took a solemn vow not to tell how tough Bobby Hyde was at those noon dinners at the Central Y last week—I said I never would tell, but I have never seen Everett Newcomb with the same girl two consecutive times—and his brother Earl apparently keeps all his girls hidden—

Imagine my surprise when they told me that Harold Robinson is rooming with my old roomie at Arkansas State College—Leonard Brown is the other occupant of the room—Incidentally, Steve, is the best guy on the campus—

Now why do you suppose Napoleon Morrow manages to keep out of my path?—I'll catch him some day— I haven't told you a thing about anyone—and if you tell this don't mention my name.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By Dorothy Wheels

Listen my children and you shall hear of last week's column that disappeared—The column was written, as it always is, but in the rush and absence of the main cog the column was lost. If you must know what was in it—part of it went like this . . . The celebrities that were in the city last week were marvelous—Oscar DePriest's son, Stanton, stopped over while passing through with all his 6 feet and the Vagabonds, radio artists supreme, were featured at the Food Show—And all of 'em were a great bunch of gents including Mr. DePriest

Hallow'e'n Mask Dance to Feature

RED PERKINS' RAMBLERS AT BILLIKEN OCTOBER 30

Despite the homecoming at Iowa City on Saturday, which took much of the "gelt" of local football fans and entertainment seekers, a large crowd turned out to hear Anna Mae Winburn, alluring young maestro, and her band Monday at the Billiken night club. The exotic Omaha girl presented her usual good floor show and several clever rhythm acts.

Red Perkins and his Dixie Ramblers of Omaha will return once again to swing it Friday, October 13, for a colorful Hallow'e'n masked dance. Prizes will be given by T. L. (Speck) Howard, manager, for the best costume, funniest masquerade and most original makeup. "A guy time is promised for all."

—And if you have marveled at T. Avant saying, "Oh yeah-h-h-h, you should have heard John Jordan and Bob O'Neil of the Vagabonds saying it—All they needed was a stoogie (Gay H. or yers tralie) to say "Mama, here are these men again."

Orchids to all the contestants who participated in the talent show, for putting on such an excellent performance, also one to Clarice Stewart for so ably assisting your scribe . . . Just happened to think how much swing those Swing Brothers do have and what a splendefereous dance outfit Dorothy T. Heath has—That my little chickadees is just part of last week's gossip sheet—Now for this week's with the old sports scribe doing the honors—

WALDA.

I promised to expose a lot of well guarded secrets in this broadcast, but the boys loaded up their heavy artillery and threatened to declare an open season on Ashby if I got too far out of line, so I won't tell a thing.

I certainly won't tell that Quentin Mease has a good tenor voice, and a saxophone. He likes to pretend he is leading an orchestra when he hears it over the radio. And he can identify most of the big bands by hearing them play. Some chap—Did you know that Archie Greenle is doing all right by Archie. It's a long way from Valley Junction to Highland Park, but Archie doesn't seem to mind. Ask Donna Graham—Don't say I told you this, but Al Thomas told me he couldn't dance—A football hero and no dance, "You gotta be a football hero."

I wouldn't mention this for the world, but Chet Williamson has a delightful habit of insisting that he is not going to a party or dance. Then bam! he shows up. Probably wants to see if he will be missed—Now I never told you this but, ask Tommy Avant and Chet Simms where they got their candy they brought back from Centerville—And what they did with it—Now why do you suppose Virgil Mann looks at the femmes' pictures in the Pittsburg Courier and sighs, "I wish they would move here."—You mustn't repeat that Eddie Eaves is trying hard to hang a nickname on me—"A. M. & N."—I heard that Walda is a girl of widely varying moods . . . Looks like she sent her heart to the Windy City with the VAGABONDS—That heart has certainly traveled around some, Ohio, Arkansas, Illinois—Where next, Walda? . . . Now don't say I started the report that Louis Fulton isn't wasting any time mourning about his now Southern Rose—But he will make a big fuss if you tease him about where he is—Can you believe that Arnold Wiley keeps his whiskers cut off since he has become a college man—R. O. T. C. rules . . . He was home Saturday nite—You'd think that some one would present an orchid to the Crocker team in the Y drive. The boys went over the top a day ahead of schedule . . . Nice work, boys—Don't tell a soul that Bill Ashby, Chet Williamson and Frank Mathews viewed the pro football game last Sunday from a very undignified position—Was it a tree, fence or what, boys? I took a solemn vow not to tell how tough Bobby Hyde was at those noon dinners at the Central Y last week—I said I never would tell, but I have never seen Everett Newcomb with the same girl two consecutive times—and his brother Earl apparently keeps all his girls hidden—Imagine my surprise when they told me that Harold Robinson is rooming with my old roomie at Arkansas State College—Leonard Brown is the other occupant of the room—Incidentally, Steve, is the best guy on the campus—

Now why do you suppose Napoleon Morrow manages to keep out of my path?—I'll catch him some day— I haven't told you a thing about anyone—and if you tell this don't mention my name.
