S. Dodges Neal Lynching Issue of 1934

New York, Jan. 7.—Citing the swift action of the famous G-men in the Mattson kidnaping case in Tacoma, Washington, the N. A. A. C. P. this week again called upon Attorney General Homer S. Cummings to proceed with the federal investigation of the lynching of Claude Neal by a mob at Marianna, Florida, October 1934.

According to the Lindberg law a period of seven days must elapse before the federal government can presume that a federal crime has been committed, that is, that a state line has been crossed by the kidnapers.

The association's letter pointed out that the federal investigators did not wait for the elapsing of seven days, as provided by the federal kidnaping law, in order to become active in the Mattson case but rushed in simultaneously with the report of the kidnaping to the Tacoma police. Eight federal agents were sent into Tacoma almost before the police teletype machines had finished recording the kidnaping of the Mattson boy.

Theoretically, if a state line is not crossed, the job of arresting and punishing the kidnapers is supposed to be confined to state officers. In practice, however, the G-Men have ignored this portion of the law and have rushed into every kidnaping—except the Neal kidnap-lynching.

Neal was taken from a jail in Brewton, Alabama, and transported across the state line to Marianna, Florida, where he was lynched. Despite the clear interstate nature of the crime the federal government has refused to act, basing its inactivity upon a strict and highly technical interpretation of the law.

Rev. JESON TO PUT SON IN SOVIET SCHOOL TO DUCK DISCRIMINATION

Moscow, Jan. 7.—(ANP)—Paul Robeson, Jr., 9 years old son of the distinguished singer and actor, will go to school in Russia in order to avoid race discrimination in America until he is older and his father can be with him, the elder Robeson announced here last week.

FORMER HOUSEMAN TO LATE GOVERNOR N. E. KENDAL

After a brief illness, Professor Charles L. Washington, well known music instructor and choir and band director, a trustee in St. Paul A. M. E. church, died Wednesday afternoon at his home at 1441 Buchanan St. Funeral arrangements have not been made. He was born in Michigan and came to Des Moines from Albia Gov. N. E. Kendall who died November 4, 1936. Mr. Washington came into limelight when the retired official willed $5,000 to his faithful and efficient "houseman". An ardent worker in religion, Mr. Washington was a trustee and chairman of the men's club and former class leader and choir-leader at St. Paul Church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lizzie Washington, missionary evangelist. For the past fifteen year he was houseman and butler of the late with the Kendall family in 1920. The body is at the Wilson Funeral Home.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER AGAIN NATION'S NO. 1 ARTERY FOR COTTON TRADE

Memphis, Jan. 7.—(ANP)—The sluggish muddy Mississippi, named Ole Man River of verse and song, has again come into his own with the present great increase in cotton traffic brought about by a production estimated at six times as large as last year's. The docks and barges here are again resounding to the songs and banter of the colored handlers, roustabouts and dock wallopers who are working overtime as aids in transporting record shipments "down the ole Mississippi."

Principal to Be Tried for Cruelty

New York, Jan. 7.—(CNA)—Harlem residents scored up a partial victory this week with announcement that Gustav Schoenchen, former principal of P. S. 5, who brutally attacked a 14 year old school boy last October 21, will be tried in special sessions on January 31 on charges of assault. Schoenchen attacked Robert Shelton when the boy called at the school, 140th street and Edgecombe avenue. Several stitches had to be taken in the boy's scalp and his body was a mass of bruises after Schoenchen announced here last week.

The lad had spent most of his life abroad. He attended school in Austria, where he did not encounter color prejudice. Last fall his father sent him to school in America, but it was a bewildering and painful experience, although young Robeson did get along with his white classmates. Like his father, the boy is big and strong and an excellent athlete.

GRADUATE OF MEHARRY MEDICAL COLLEGE SERVED INTERNSHIP IN KANSAS CITY

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer
Dr. Clyde R. Bradford, M. D., physician and surgeon, was appointed to the staff of county doctors by the Polk county board of supervisors Saturday. This is the first time in the history of Iowa a Negro has ever been given this position, officials said. His salary was not announced by Ben Dewey, retiring chairman. However, the other three assistants are receiving about $2,000 or $3,000 per year.

All colored patients of the county will be served by Dr. Bradford, Col. E. R. Bennett, newly elected board chairman, explained. The Negro population of Polk county is estimated at 6,000. He is located at 404 East Fifth street. Col. Bennett proposed his election, which was seconded by Vice Chairman Vane E. Overturf.

Coming to Des Moines in 1933 from Kansas City, Missouri, where he served a year as interne at the General hospital, No. 2, and for two years as resident physician, Dr. Bradford graduated from the Meharry Medical college at Nashville, Tenn., in 1929.

He is a popular speaker for many local civic gatherings and is a foremost authority on problems of medicine and health concerning Negroes throughout the state and nation. His column on "Health Talks" appears weekly in the Iowa Bystander.

Seek Race Welfare In 75th Congress

N. A. A. C. P. TO BE ACTIVE IN FEDERAL LEGISLATION

New York, Jan. 7.—Several important pieces of legislation vitally affecting the welfare of Negro American citizens will engage the attention of the N. A. A. C. P. in the 75th congress, it was indicated by the board of directors this week.

The first item on the list, of course, is the federal anti-lynching bill. The association has campaigned for a federal law since 1920. It succeeded in getting the Dyer bill passed in the house in 1922, but a filibuster in the senate killed it. In January, 1934, the association got behind the Costigan-Wagner bill and mobilized public support of it throughout the duration of the 74th congress.

The Costigan-Wagner measure received more support in congress than any previous bill, but was jockeyed about on account of various emergency recovery measures and was finally stopped only by a seven day filibuster in the senate. A new bill will be presented in the 75th congress, to be introduced by Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York and another senator not yet named.

A second legislative item of prime importance is the Harrison-Fletcher federal education bill. This bill provides for the distribution of millions of dollars of federal money to the states, but, as it stands at present, it contains no provision whatsoever for insuring the fair distribution of this money in the states which have established separate schools.

A third item in the legislative program of tremendous importance is

Figures Differ on Year's Mob Killings

13 LYNCHINGS IN 1936, ACCORDING TO N. A. A. C. P.

New York, Jan. 7.—With Georgia at the head of the list with five lynchings, America hung up a total of thirteen mob killings for the year, compared with twenty-eight for 1935, according to statistics compiled by the N. A. A. C. P. (Tuskegee research department records only eleven for 1936, or eleven less than 1935. Arkansas and Michigan followed Georgia with two lynchings each, while Florida, Mississippi, Oklahoma and Texas contributed one each. Two of the thirteen victims were white, both in Michigan as a result of the murderous activities of the Black Legion.

One of the two lynchings credited to Arkansas is that of Frank Weems, Negro sharecropper, who disappeared June 8th. At that time the sheriff of the county and later Gov. J. M. Furrrell stated that Weems was not dead, but would be produced in "due time." Nothing has been heard of Weems since and a few days ago, in response to a direct inquiry from the N. A. A. C. P., Gov. Furrrell's office stated, "This office has no record at all concerning Frank Weems."

Of the thirteen victims, six were accused of attacks or attempted attacks on women; one was accused of murder; one of activity in the Southern Tenant Farmers Union; one of wife beating; one of refusal to join the Black Legion, and one offense unknown. Nine of the victims were shot to death; two were hanged; one was hung and shot, and one was beaten to death. colored people is the proposed assistance to farm tenants and sharecroppers. There are some 800,000 colored heads of families in these occupations and the N. A. A. C. P. is watching the proposed bills to see that racial discrimination is not allowed to creep into them.

Other matters which will engage the attention of the association in the new congress are: Efforts to extend the franchise to qualified voters in southern states; further activity to prevent discrimination in relief and work projects which are bound to be continued for some time; support of legislation which will away with discrimination in the service, and examination of measures by which the special

IMPROVED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for January 10
NEW LIFE IN CHRIST
LESSON TEXT—John 3:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.—John 3:3.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Answering a Man's Question.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Most Important Question.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How the Christian Life Begins.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—New Life in Christ.

The only entrance into the Christian life is by the door of the new birth. Regeneration is the act of God whereby the divine nature is imparted to the believing sinner and he becomes the child of God. He who has not entered by this way has not entered at all. He is still dead in trespasses and sins, without God and without hope (Eph. 2:1, 12). Men are seeking to enter the household of God by almost any other means—culture, reform, character building—and are neglecting God's way. This lesson should therefore be studied and taught with earnest prayer that this foundation truth may lay hold upon the hearts of the hearers of the Word. Let no one who is not born again attempt to teach it to others, lest the blind attempt to lead the blind, and both fall into the ditch (Luke 6:39). The coming of Nicodemus to our Lord took place at the time when he was in Jerusalem for the Passover. Jesus had chosen six of his disciples, had been at Cana of Galilee, where he performed his first miracle, and had made a brief visit to Capernaum, after which he came to Jerusalem for the feast. In high and holy indignation he had driven the money changers out of the temple. The Pharisees who looked for the coming of the Messiah as a secular conqueror wondered at this new spiritual leader. It was probably as much on their behalf as his own that Nicodemus came to inquire of Jesus. In answering his questions Jesus reveals the necessity, the nature, and the method of regeneration—in other words, the Why, What, and How of the New Birth.

I. Why? (vv. 1-7.)
Jesus was not unduly impressed by the dignity and high station of his visitor, nor by the visitor's courteous acknowledgment of his own position as a great teacher. With decisive boldness Jesus declares that this man, a cultured and distinguished ruler of the Jews, must be born again, if he is to see the kingdom of God. God is no respecter of persons. This "doctor of divinity" must be born again, just as was the illiterate fisherman. D. L. Moody once said that he was thankful it was to such a man as Nicodemus that Jesus presented the necessity of the new birth—or men would have said that only the down-and-outer needed to be saved. Two reasons are given by our Lord for the "must" of verse 7: (1) The Kingdom of God is a spiritual kingdom, and cannot be entered by way of our human nature; and (2) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh" and is radically and essentially bad. To learn why the flesh is bad read Jeremiah 13:23, and Galatians 5:19-21.

II. What? (vv. 8-13.)
The new birth is a divine mystery, not fathomable by human reason. Those who insist that all spiritual truth has been put through the little norm of their intelligence will never understand it or receive its blessing. The striking illustration of the life-giving and energizing wind used by our Lord is most illuminating. Wind is unseen, but the results of its movement are evident. Just as there was healing and life in a look at the uplifted serpent (Num. 21:8), so there is life for a look at the Crucified One. Faith receives God's perfect provision for sin. Verse 16 may well be regarded as the greatest sentence in the greatest Book in the world. It presents the whole plan of salvation—its source, its ground, its recipients, its condition, and its result. This glorious salvation is for all men—"whosoever"—but some reject it. Notice that God does not condemn them. Their own evil works and desires condemn them (vv. 17-20). God in his grace is ready and willing to save, but men love "darkness rather than light"; for their works are evil.

III. How? (vv. 14-17.)
God's Mercy
O God, the whole world is as a drop of morning dew. But Thou hast mercy upon all. For Thou lovest all things that are, and abhorrest nothing that Thou hast made. But Thou spearest all, for they are Thine, O Lord, Thou lover of souls.

LYNCHING REPORT OF 1936 EXCLUDES "MYSTERY" CASES

Tuskegee, Ala., Dec. 31—(Special)—Statisticians compiling records on a survey made during the year 1936 report that nine persons were lynched in the United States, all of whom were members of the Negro race. This report, of course, is incomplete. It merely tells of the known black people who were lynched.

It is not unusual for black men and women to be shot for the most trivial offense in the deep south without any report being made beyond the immediate authorities of the county. These lynchings never reach the Associated Press. They are stifled and suppressed by county and city authorities.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often remove offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often remove offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

CHURCH

NOT RACE, CAUSE OF CRIME, PROFESSOR SAYS

Des Moines, Jan. 7.—(CNA)—Slum conditions, not nationality, are responsible for delinquency and crime, Professor Shaw, white, of the Institute for Juvenile Research, told the annual convention of the American Sociological society here this week.

Professor Shaw based his observations on a ten year study of Chicago delinquency. He exhibited several maps charting the frequency of urban crime. The maps show that the near West Side and the near North Side are the worst sections in Chicago.

"If the so-called crime districts of Chicago were rebuilt and if the people living there could get jobs paying decent wages, crime would be eliminated in these districts. The reason people in the so-called better districts are not criminals is that they have better living conditions."

FIGHT STARTED ON SLUMS FOLLOWING TRAGEDY

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—(CNA)—State and city legislation to rid this city of "band box" dwellings and to provide safe housing at low rentals is the aim of a campaign launched by the Workers Alliance of South Philadelphia, following the collapse of two tenement houses in which seven persons were killed. All of the victims were colored.

CONTRACT SHOWS DEPOSIT PAID HENDERSON BY THOMPSON

country and Canada and who is president and business manager of the El Producto club which sponsored the proposed Fletcher Henderson dance Thanksgiving evening, has turned over to the Bystander a copy of the contract, receipts, telegrams and several letters pertaining to this dance. After careful examination of the papers anyone would be convinced that a deposit on the Fletcher Henderson dance for Nov. 25, 1936, was made by Atty. Thompson on November 6, also that the only money paid for the orchestra was paid by Atty. Thompson and that fulfilled all obligations necessary to insure the appearance of Fletcher Henderson. The contract further shows that the remaining amount of the guarantee was not necessary to be paid until 10 p. m. on the date of the dance.

He States: "Atty. Thompson, who was born and raised in Des Moines, Iowa, and whose people have lived in the city practically all their lives, is a person whose word is unimpeachable. His father, the late John L. Thompson, was the former editor and owner of this newspaper, the Iowa Bystander, for more than 25 years, as well as the owner and manager of the swanky Thompson Hotel of several years back. John L. Thompson will also be remembered as one of the most outstanding men the Negro race has ever produced. He was noted as an author, lecturer, politician, as one of the greatest Masonic organizers in Negro history, and above all as a church man. It is regrettable that such unjustified attacks should be made upon Atty. Thompson by an unknown person of another state and city.

"When Fletcher Henderson failed to appear November 25, I called Ed Fox, the millionaire owner of the Grand Terrace in Chicago, to find out why the band was not here. Mr. Fox told me that because of some past financial misunderstanding, with Jesse Johnson he had cancelled the Des Moines engagement.

This he told Mr. Johnson on Nov. 23. Upon being asked why Thompson was not notified as to the cancellation, Fox replied that he had with the Musicians Union and their attorneys and was informed that at any time a cancellation is proposed the local promoter must be notified in advance. Consequently the case has been turned over to the American Federation of Musicians for them to deal with the other party in their own manner.

"The warrant for Mr. Johnson, having been issued by a Justice of peace court, is not good outside the State of Iowa. Therefore as long as Mr. Johnson remains in Missouri and does his talking he need not fear arrest.

"I did not offer Jesse Johnson the much publicized 'thirty dollars' as stated by Jesse Johnson. I did, however, offer to pay the full amount of the guarantee, $500.00 upon demand from representatives of Fletcher Henderson's orchestra. Such demand was never made.

"I estimated the loss as a result of Fletcher Henderson's failure to appear.

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S GOWN

Queen Elizabeth is said to have left more than three thousand habits in her wardrobe when she died, including gowns, petticoats, kirtles, doublets, and mantles, some embroidered with jewels and others made of velvet and damask. A high functionary who was invited by the queen in audience described her dress as follows: "The queen had two great pearls in her ears with very big drops. She wore red false hair and a small crown. Her neck was uncovered and she had a huge necklace of exceeding fine jewels. Her gown was white silk all bordered with white pearls as big as beans. She wore a mantle of blue silk shot with silver threads and a very long train." She is described as "vain and effeminate, though brusque and masculine."

It is a well known fact that had it not been for Atty. Thompson and the members of his club, the colored people of Des Moines and Iowa never would have had the opportunities of enjoying these great attractions.

Atty. Thompson, who has one of the best furnished offices in the city, is employed in the civil service department of the U. S. government at the highest salary and therefore it is not necessary for him to bring these attractions to Des Moines. It is merely his interest in supplying first class entertainment to his fellow citizens and friends that otherwise would be denied them. Such a community spirit is deserving of the support of Des Moines and Iowa. The Bystander wishes to congratulate Atty. Thompson in his community spirit and suggests and hopes that all of it readers who are loyal citizens will rally in support of Atty. Thompson and the El Producto club and urge him and the club to keep up the good work.

First Presidential Election

The first Presidential election was not conducted as such elections are today. Delegates to the electoral college were not instructed for specific candidates. Moreover, under a constitutional provision which was superseded by the Twelfth Amendment in 1804, each elector voted for two persons, the candidate receiving the highest total becoming president, and the next highest, vice president. John Hancock was one of twelve men who got votes. He received six. But inasmuch as Washington had been given one vote by each of the 69 electors, his election thus being unanimous, Hancock is rather to be considered as having been a candidate for the vice presidential chair. He was not a candidate in 1792 and died in 1793.

Nature Esteemed by Chinese

Nature is close to the life of every Chinese, says Nature Magazine. All the feathered folk that go to make up the finishing touches for the charm of the out-of-doors are held in high regard by the laborer, the student, the water-shop keeper. More than mere incidents in the complete scheme of all things natural and of the earth, they were long ago given a rank of high importance in Chinese literature, art, and science. Perhaps, too, that is the secret of the abundance of bird life in China, in spite of the fact that the country has suffered periodic cycles of famine and scarcity since the dawn of history. Evidently this love has been so sincere that the birds have been preserved.

Bag of Beans Yields Gold-Bearing Quartz

Seward, Alaska.—Some California bean fields may be rich in gold. A Seward miner discovered a piece of gold-bearing quartz about the size of a bean in a quantity of the staple vegetable he purchased here. Examination showed a number of pieces of the quartz, picked up when the beans were harvested. A check showed they came from California, but the exact locality is unknown.

Beautiful Lady Is Given Russian Title by Duke

Amsterdam.—Beautiful Lady (Lydia) Deterding, former wife of the Dutch oil magnate, Sir Henri Deterding, has been granted the title of Princess of the Don—the highest title that can be conferred on Russians not directly of royal blood.

The new title was conferred on her by the Grand Duke Cyril, first cousin of the late czar of Russia and regarded by Russian legitimists as the rightful "czar of all the Russias."

It was learned that the honor had been conferred on Lady Deterding in recognition of her generous work for Russian emigres.

The speaker said: "The title of Princess of the Don is the highest rank that can be conferred by the Russian imperial family on persons who are not directly descended from the imperial family.

"It is a hereditary title." Lady Deterding is a Russian by birth.

Happy in Company

The secret of success is a certain heartiness and sympathy. A man who is not happy in company cannot find any word in his memory that will fit the occasion. All his information is a little impertinent. A man who is happy there, finds in every turn of the conversation, equally lucky occasions for the introduction of that which he

SOUTHERNERS CHANGE ATTITUDE TO COLOR

Philadelphia, Dec. 31.—There seems to be in the process of development a new atmosphere in some sections of the south in the attitudes of whites toward Negroes," stated John Dillingham, member of the executive staff of the emergency peace campaign, upon his return here to national headquarters after a tour of six southern states, during which he spoke in more than twenty-eight towns and cities in the interest of peace.

"White southerners received me just as did all other representatives of the emergency peace campaign," he said. "They seemed more interested in the problems of war and peace than in the differences in color." According to Mr. Dillingham they were courteous, congratulated him after his speeches and expected him to discuss just those issues which he did discuss. "In other words," he said, "I saw no sign of their desiring me to sing spirituals and discuss the race problem." The "race problem" was discussed from a broader standpoint—the "human standpoint."

HEARING POSTPONED UNTIL FEBRUARY TERM

New York, Dec. 31.—(CNA)—Hearing of Angelo Herndon's second appeal to the United States supreme court against a Georgia chain gang conviction will not be heard until some time in February, it was learned this week. Date of the hearing had previously been set for December.

A "fiery cross" threat from the Ku Klux Klan, openly pasted on the back of a ten-nick envelope addressed to Herndon, was delivered by the U. S. postoffice early this week to the Harlem residence of the young leader, who is at present on a national tour. A postmark through the sticker indicated that it was deliberately passed through the mails in violation of federal postal laws.

The letter, which was mailed in Brooklyn, this city, contained a three by four enclosure lettered in red and black with the legend "Communism must be destroyed."

Both stickers showed a hooded Kansan mounted on a horse, holding aloft a flaming cross—the insignia of the terrorist band. The New York state organization of the Klan was recently revived with a celebration in Peekskill N. Y., several months ago.

MME. WALKER COMPANY FOLLOWS TREND IN "MODERNIZATION"

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 7.—The general business trend in "modernization" has been followed closely by the Mme. C. J. Walker Manufacturing company, the thirty-five year old maker of Mme. Walker's hair and toilet preparations, with new modernistic containers, for the hair grower, tetter salve, vegetable shampoo, glossing, and other products. The new 1937 Walker Year Book is replete with illustrations of these smart new containers, which immediately attract the eyes of discerning women who have long been users of these products.

Hon. F. B. Ransom, general manager of the Walker company, has shown by the new trend of the Walker company in adopting these smart and colorful boxes that he is progressive, even in the smallest details of the presentation of the Walker products.

Women throughout the country are commenting on these new containers, and are anxious that they be seen on their dressing tables, as proof that their own people are not left behind in this era of industrial modernization. The Walker Book is sent free to the public on the asking, by the Mme. C. J. Walker Manufacturing company, Indianapolis, Ind.

There were thirty-five instances in which officers of the law prevented lynchings. Five of these were in northern states and thirty in southern states. In thirty of the instances the prisoners were removed or the guards augmented or other precautions taken. In the five other instances armed force was used to compel the would-be lynchers. A total of sixty-nine persons, seven white and sixty-two Negroes, were thus saved from death at the hands of mob.

Of the nine persons lynched, all were Negroes. The offenses charged were: Rape, 3; attempted rape, 3; murder, 1; activity in sharecropper strike, 1; charge not reported, 1.

The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Arkansas, 2; Florida, 1; Georgia, 5; Mississippi, 1.

MME. WALKER COMPANY FOLLOWS TREND IN "MODERNIZATION"

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 7.—The general business trend in "modernization" has been followed closely by the Mme. C. J. Walker Manufacturing company, the thirty-five year old maker of Mme. Walker's hair and toilet preparations, with new modernistic containers, for the hair grower, tetter salve, vegetable shampoo, glossing, and other products. The new 1937 Walker Year Book is replete with illustrations of these smart new containers, which immediately attract the eyes of discerning women who have long been users of these products.

Hon. F. B. Ransom, general manager of the Walker company, has shown by the new trend of the Walker company in adopting these smart and colorful boxes that he is progressive, even in the smallest details of the presentation of the Walker products.

Women throughout the country are commenting on these new containers, and are anxious that they be seen on their dressing tables, as proof that their own people are not left behind in this era of industrial modernization. The Walker Book is sent free to the public on the asking, by the Mme. C. J. Walker Manufacturing company, Indianapolis, Ind.

There were thirty-five instances in which officers of the law prevented lynchings. Five of these were in northern states and thirty in southern states. In thirty of the instances the prisoners were removed or the guards augmented or other precautions taken. In the five other instances armed force was used to compel the would-be lynchers. A total of sixty-nine persons, seven white and sixty-two Negroes, were thus saved from death at the hands of mob.

Of the nine persons lynched, all were Negroes. The offenses charged were: Rape, 3; attempted rape, 3; murder, 1; activity in sharecropper strike, 1; charge not reported, 1.
