No Racial Discrimination is Reported at Sanitariums

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—(ANP)—That the government, through its Works Progress Administration, has taken official notice of the necessity for providing medical care and hospitalization for infantile paralysis victims, is indicated in a recent departmental announcement which declares that thousands of Americans, including many colored children, are being aided in their fight against infantile paralysis and other like diseases by services instituted under the work relief program of the WPA.

These include the construction of hospital and hospital annexes, equipped especially for the treatment of infantile paralysis cases; the construction and operation of therapeutic pools; the establishment of summer camps for cripples; physiotherapy treatments and baths; the conduct of experiments with the newly developed polio spray in an effort to check the spread of the disease, and classes of instruction for paralysis patients who cannot attend school. Hospitals and pools for crippled children are being built by WPA workers in many states, and all will be opened to colored as well as to white patients.

Delta Award

MAXINE PAYNE Gets New Honor

Maxine Payne is Scholarship Winner

DRAKE CO-ED WAS HONOR GRADUATE AT EAST HIGH By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer

Miss Maxine Payne, co-ed at Drake university, was declared winner of the second annual scholarship award presented by the Phi chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority this week. Five competed for the prize. Mrs. Helen Beshears, scholarship announced. There were not enough applicants for the September term, she said.

Miss Dorothy (Wald) Wheeler, society editor and columnist of the Iowa Bystander, who is now attending Drake, was runnerup. A very small margin determined first place. She was also an honor student at East High.

Miss Payne graduated, at the age of 15, from East Des Moines high school in June, 1936, as the youngest in her class, receiving twenty-seven "ones" and thirteen "twos" during her high school work, giving her a grade average of 1.32. She was elected to membership in the National Honor society, was member of the Philomathean club, Scribblers, home economics, Shakespearean, golf club, and was on the Scroll and Quill staffs.

Majoring in sociology, Miss Payne is maintaining her excellent scholarship record in college. She is the daughter of Mrs. Bessie Payne, 922 E. Seventeenth street, a WPA music instructor.

Proceeds from the Jabberwock, given each year, make it possible for this annual recognition to be given to a worthy student," Mrs. Beshears said. Preparations are now being made for the affair to be given soon.

Sanctified Church Suit Now Settled

PROPERTY BELONGS TO ALL MEMBERS

In the two year argument between two church factions, District Judge O. S. Franklin ruled Wednesday in equity court that the property belonged to all the members of the congregations of the Christ Sanctified Holy church of which the Rev. A. B. Brewer is pastor, and the Chesterfield Sanctified Church of Christ of which the Rev. Myrtle I. Cranshaw is the pastor, at the time of the former's withdrawal in September 7, 1935.

Suit was brought by the Rev. Brewer to establish title to the church property at 1521 E. University Ave. also to recover $80 savings account, and the safety deposit box containing the church deed, abstract articles of incorporation and insurance papers.

The plaintiff was represented by Atty. Jas. B. Morris and Gertrude R. Rush. I. H. Tomlinson was attorney for the plaintiff.

INTRODUCE AND WITH DRAW BILL FOR JIM CROW TRAVEL IN MISSOURI

Chillicothe, Mo., Jan. 28.—(ANP)—Withdrawal of a bill which would impose a jim crow law in Missouri providing for separate coaches for Negro travelers on railroad trains was announced last week by its sponsor, Paul E. Turner, representative from Buchanan county.

It was introduced in the house on Thursday morning and, following a conference with leaders, was withdrawn Friday.

Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York will speak February 12th from 6:15 to 6:30 p. m., eastern standard time, in support of a federal anti-lynching bill over the blue network of the National Broadcasting company, whose chief station is WJZ of New York.

Senator Wagner, co-sponsor of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill in the last congress, is to sponsor a revised federal anti-lynching bill in this congress. The senator will talk from Washington, D. C., for the network.

New Anti-Lynch Bill Introduced

REVISED VERSION OF COSTIGAN-WAGNER MEASURE TO PERMIT FEDERAL ACTION

Washington, Feb. 4.—A new federal anti-lynching bill, which is really a revision of the well known Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill, was introduced in the house of representatives this week under the sponsorship of the N. A. A. C. P. It will be introduced in the senate next week by Senator Robert F. Wagner, of New York, and a co-sponsor. The N. A. A. C. P. has requested representatives who are friendly to this legislation to introduce identical bills in the hope of arousing greater support for the measure in the house.

One of the objections which has been raised to the old bill was that it might be interpreted as applying to gang and racketeer killing and to classes between factions in labor disputes. The new bill expressly provides that the term "lynching" shall not be deemed to include violence occurring between members of groups of law breakers such as are commonly designated as gangsters or racketeers, or violence occurring during the course of picketing or boycotting incidental to any labor dispute.

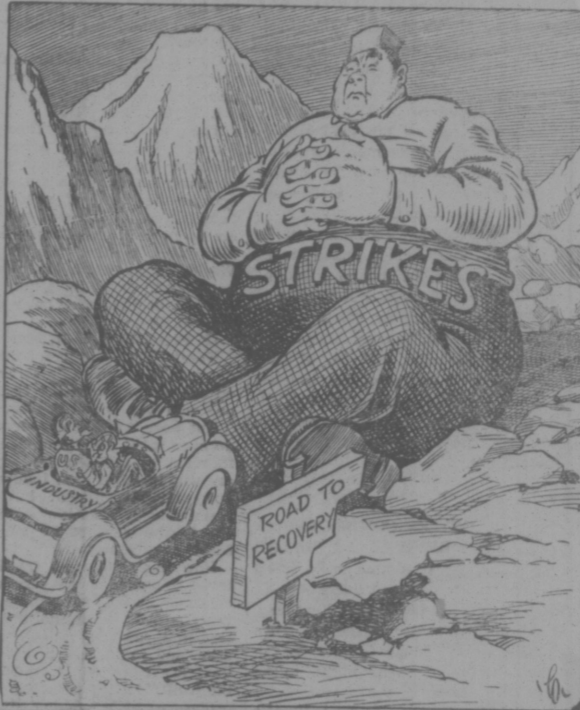

The new bill also broadens the Lindbergh federal kidnaping act to include interstate kidnapings and lynchings such as the Claude Neal lynching. The new bill, like the Costigan-Wagner bill, is not simply confined to those in the custody of peace officers. It covers cases in which victims are hunted down and lynched by mobs or so-called posses before they are ever arrested and formally charged with a crime.

The new bill does not attempt to punish private individuals, but concentrates on punishment of peace officers and state prosecutors who fail to protect prisoners before lynching or prosecute the members of the mob after a lynching has taken place. It still provides for civil damages against the county or counties in which lynchings occur. The new bill also differs from the Costigan-Wagner bill in that it provides definitely for the conduct of an investigation of a lynching by the federal bureau of investigation, better known as the G-men.

Seek to Remove Church Mortgages

Chicago, Feb. 7.—(ANP)—Bishop John A. Gregg, presiding bishop of the Chicago area, assisted by the district's presiding elders, pastors and church members, has launched a drive to be known as the Chicago Conference Sesqui-Centennial campaign, in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the A. M. E. church. This initial drive promises to develop into a four year plan, by which all A. M. E. church mortgages will be wiped out or materially reduced and the work in general greatly extended.

Haynes, chairman of the inauguration committee of the board of trustees of Dillard university, the inauguration of William Stuart Nelson, recently elected president of Dillard university, will be held on Friday, April 9th. President Nelson succeeded Dr. Will W. Alexander, formerly acting president of the university, and came to Dillard after a five year tenure at Shaw university.

During several days immediately preceding the inauguration the university will sponsor a period of festival, including a drama festival, the Lower Mississippi Valley Festival and drama and music conferences. Throughout the period from April 5 through April 9 the university will hold an exhibition of the works of leading Negro artists in America.

All Negro pupils wishing to enter are asked to notify Mr. Browne at 1419 Maryland avenue, Des Moines, Iowa. Browne states that there are six entrants to date—three, Des Moines; two, Council Bluffs; one, Monley, Iowa.

Protest Low Pay, Men Are Arrested

FLORIDA NEGROES JAILED FOR REFUSING JOBS

Miami, Fla., Feb. 4.—(ANP)—Failure to accept jobs harvesting tomatoes at $1.50 per day and transportation to the fields resulted in the arrest of fifty-seven jobless Negroes recently. After S. Bob Dean, district manager of the state employment service, reported that crops were in danger of ruin because the growers were unable to harvest their crops, seventy-nine Negroes were arrested. Charged with vagrancy, twenty-two of the arrested men were able to convince the court they were already employed. The remaining fifty-seven received sentences of ten to fifteen days in jail.

'32 Olympic Star Hired by Gov't

EDDIE TOLAN JOINS NYA STAFF IN MICHIGAN

Detroit, Mich.—Eddie Tolan, Detroit Negro, who was the world's fastest runner until he lost the title last summer to Jesse Owens, has become a member of the staff of the National Youth Administration in Michigan, it was announced recently. The former Olympic title holder in the 100 and 200 meter dashes took up his new duties this week in the division of Negro activities of the Detroit office of the NYA. He will be connected with the vocational guidance and placement service.

NO NEGRO EXHIBIT FOR TEXAS CENTENNIAL

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 7.—(ANP)—The calling of A. Maceo Smith, assistant general manager of Negro participation in the Centennial, to return the exhibits in the Hall of Negro Life to the exhibitors seems to confirm the rumor that the federal government has denied the Negro participation feature in the Pan-American Exposition at Dallas for 1937. It is reported that the Negro building will be demolished and an amusement building erected in its stead.

Danger Points Watched At Mississippi Lowlands

'FATHER OF WATERS' HELD WITHIN BANKS BEFORE MAJOR RISE

Estimate 750,000 Homeless - Property Loss $300,000,000

The government's 21 million flood trap, a vast southeast Missouri basin, neared its climax of its first major test this week, as the coast guards in Cairo, Illinois, with fifty-five boats from the Atlantic seaboard ordered all night watches.

News flashed from Cairo to the Gulf of Mexico last night as the Mississippi river billion dollar levee system recorded no major breaks in the constant inching to the sand bag raised level of the mud-laden waters.

The victory remained momentary, however, as the Ohio, falling everywhere, sent its ripping waters into the channel of the "Fathers of Waters." In the Ohio area, Louisville, Cincinnati and other cities began rehabilitation efforts. Paducah stands further test down the river.

The damage estimate is well above $400,070,000, while the known dead is near 350.

Cairo, Ill., situated at the confluence of the Ohio and the Mississippi, stood fast behind a sandbag-topped bulwark. Most of its inhabitants long since had fled. The rest, hardy river men for the most part, faced with courage a predicted crest of sixty-two feet—against a sixty foot wall to which three feet of sandbag filling had been added.

With more than $300,000,000 in property damage, 750,000 persons homeless, 150 officially dead, and 200 reported found dead in the Louisville, Ky., area alone, Mississippi levees are being strained to the highest pitch as water from the Ohio recedes at present from Pittsburgh to Paducah, Ky.

D.M. Awaits Word from Relatives in Flood Area

SCHOOL AT PINE BLUFF BELOW RIVER LEVEL

By the Staff Writer

Des Moines folk are anxiously scanning headlines, twisting dials and burning the wires to hear some word of the fate of distressed relatives in the flood area. J. G. Browne, 1419 Maryland avenue, has not been able to communicate with his sisters, Mrs. James Bond, Dr. Mary McGee and Mrs. Lydia McAfee in Louisville, Kentucky. Indirectly he was told by a nephew in Chicago that they are safe. Mr. Browne said. Mrs. Eva Bell Mathews of 1827 School street, whose home is in Cincinnati, returned from a visit there early in January.

Iowa boys in the CCC camps at DeSoto and Advance, Missouri, are stationed many miles from New Madrid the stricken region on the Mississippi. Many are possibly engaged in rescue work. When the expected crest is reached, the "Father of Waters" is expected to wash out thousands.

The A. M. and N. college at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, is located below the water level of the Arkansas river, according to Allen Ashby, Bystander sports writer, who was assistant athletic instructor there in 1935-36. "The school would be first to go if the levee should break" was his opinion. Many Des Moines students are attending there.

Minister Refuses Aid to Victims

TENNESSEE OFFICIAL TURNS DEAF EAR TO MERCY PLEA

Jackson, Tenn., Feb. 7.—(By W. Daniel Holder for ANP)—Citizens of this community are aroused as never before over the heartless action of Rev. Pipkins, book agent and official of the C. M. E. publishing board, last week when he turned a deaf ear to the heartrending pleas of flood victims and refused to allow them to be sheltered in the auditorium of the publishing company's building.

With refugees pouring into the city by hundreds and all emergency agencies being utilized to help these suffering people, with the national guard army being thrown open to the white victims, the mayor of the city of Jackson appealed to the Colored Red Cross committee to find shelter for the colored refugees. This committee for four days had extreme difficulty in finding co-operation among racial groups here.

The committee received their greatest rebuff when, to their surprise and anger, they were flatly refused to use the publishing company's auditorium by Rev. Pipkins, who was in charge of the building, which is tax free and the property of the Colored Methodist Episcopal church.

Other residents here who followed the example of Rev. Pipkins are O. F. Porter, who refused the committee the use of the Masonic hall for the poverty stricken and suffering refugees—and the men in charge of the old Brookhaven hospital and Anderson home property—all of whom disregarded their duty and turned their backs on these helpless members of their race.

TO AID FLOOD VICTIMS

Mrs. Sophia M. Nichols of 1062 Eleventh street, president of the S. M. N. club, announced that an effort is being made to aid flood victims and all who have contributions of clothing, shoes, money or any other necessities are asked to send them to her address or call 3-8338. A barrel will be shipped February 9th from here to the sufferers at Louisville, Kentucky. Elks Give to Red Cross. Hawkeye Elks Lodge, No. 160, sent six dollars to the local Red Cross to aid flood victims.

All young people and organizations are invited to take part in the appeal. Anti-Lynching buttons will also be sold. George Stewart, is the president of the Junior Association.

Lesson for February 7 JESUS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

LESSON TEXT—John 8:12, 31, 32; 9:1-11. GOLDEN TEXT—I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Passed By JUNIOR TOPIC—When Jesus Passed By INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Is the Light of the World YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Walking in the Light With Jesus

"The Light of the World Is Jesus" Who does not remember with what delight we as children sang "Come to the light, 'tis shining for thee . . . The Light of the world is Jesus." How precious was the truth that thus flooded our souls. Jesus was the light, and just as the sunlight shed its glory on an awakening world at dawn, so he shed abroad the light of God in the hearts of men. The writer of these lessons pens these words with the prayer that as this portion of God's Holy Word is studied and taught, the light may break forth on many a soul caught in the bewilderment of this dark world.

Our study centers around three simple words fraught with beauty and rich in meaning. I. Light (John 8:12). The text says, "Then spake Jesus." When? Just after he had silenced the hypocritical accusers of a woman taken in sin, and had spoken the word of peace to her troubled soul. She was to "go and sin no more" because she had met him who is the "Light of the World." They that follow him "shall not walk in darkness"; they are the children of light, they have the very light of life. II. Freedom (vv. 31, 32). Free! Four letters, but what depth of meaning! Chains have fallen off, prison doors are open. The one who was bound is free. But here we are concerned with an even more important liberty, the freedom of the soul. Many there are who boast of their independence but who are naught but slaves. Jesus said, "Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin" (John 8:34), not its master.

How shall they be freed? Note three things in verses (1) A condition, "If ye continue in my word." This means not only a profession of faith but a daily appropriation and realization of his truth in life. (2) A promise, "Ye shall know the truth." The philosophies of men profess to be a seeking after truth but how few there are who look to the one place where it can be found—in Jesus Christ. (3) A result, "The truth shall make you free." Truth always sets free. Men are enslaved because, as in some foreign lands, they have not had the opportunity to learn the truth (we have failed to send it) or because they have rejected it. III. Vision (John 9:1-11). This is one of the most instructive passages in Scripture. A man born blind is seen by Jesus. His disciples note his intent and begin to theorize on a theological question. They had learned so little of the compassionate spirit of Jesus that they saw in this blighted life only an illustration of a theological theory. May God help us that we may never be so blind.

Jesus goes at once to work. He was in the world to do the works of God. He and the Father always work. Let us follow his blessed example. "The King's business requires haste." Let us work "while it is day, the night cometh when no man can work." By a loving and gracious act, Jesus stirs in the heart of the man that faith which causes him to go, to wash, and to glory to God, he sees! Such a personal experience of the divine power of the Son of God leaves no doubt in the man's mind that the one who caused him to see "is a prophet." All of a man's doubts concerning the deity of Jesus Christ disappear when he becomes his Saviour.

Read the remainder of the chapter and note how this man's faith is victorious in the face of trials, persecution, and even of excommunication; for outside the temple he met Jesus and takes him as his Lord. As Dr. Scroggie puts it, "His excommunication was a promotion. He went from the synagogue to the Saviour." Thinking of Self Only Show me the man who would go to heaven alone, and I will show you one who will never be admitted there.—Fetham. Laws to Fit the People Laws should be like clothes. They should be made to fit the people they are meant to serve.—Clarence Darrow. Divine Confidence Divine confidence can swim upon those seas which feeble reason cannot fathom.—W. Secker. Beware of Hypocrisy There is nothing against which our Lord warns us so terribly as hypocrisy.

ASKS REMOVAL OF ARMY CAPTAIN AS WPA PROJECT HEAD IN NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 4.—A request that Captain Roy W. Grower, an army officer who has been placed in charge of the Federal theatre project in this city, be removed from his post because of his openly declared prejudice against Negroes was made of WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins by the N. A. A. C. P. this week. Captain Grower's removal also has been asked by the Federal Theatre Project Supervisors Council.

It is charged by the supervisors council that in the presence of witnesses Captain Grower, using offensive and insulting language, declared that he would not have Negroes in supervisory positions where they might have to give orders to white people and that a white person he would not work under a Negro and that he did not expect other white persons to take orders from a Negro.

Wanda Goes Round & Round

By Wanda

Promised you something new this week, but just didn't make it—In reviewing the week's events I find: that Algie Brown and Winifred Brooks are two new freshmen at Drake while J. Braddie Morrie hied himself off for Iowa City (broke down past resolutions for this) that the Raiders with Louis Fulton doing a bit of starring, defeated the mighty St. Paul quintet which caused the Sport Scribe no end of disgust; that Joe Danforth and Bobby Parker are two A-1 basketball players; that George Edmunds has one of the niftiest stocking caps I have seen in some time; that the Texas kid reminds me of a celebrity I've seen somewhere—

Happened to glance through "The Sunlander", organ of the C. C. C. camp at Advance, Missouri and noted the following about our former: "M. Q.'s talk of late is of a Miss J. M. in Des Moines, Iowa."—Could that be Jean Morris and Morrell Quincy? "I wonder if Miss E. DeV. of Des Moines, Iowa thinks of "Flash Gordon" (Herman Wadsworth) as often as he talks about her"—Do you Eleanor? ... Also noted that Leonard is high point man on the Camp basketball team having amassed 21 points also, "Leonard 'Headplay' Lomas, the most talkative man in camp wants his name in the Paper."—Some old Loomy, eh?—An eastern paper of some size carries a column for those seeking mates—One of the headlines read—"Specials for the Week"—under which a person sent in his full description including likes and dislikes and asked for a wife of a certain description and maybe he got her—Pretty good idea for those who want to find the one and only—

Say, what's happening to these Jr. clubs again?—the feud is getting thicker and hotter—oh well—nothing can be done about it.

The East Side Community Center is sponsoring its big opera—February 22—promises to be the tops—at least its fun.

Will someone—not particular—please do something so I'll have a big scoop to write on—Y'know some hot gossip.

The experts are behaving true to form. They are handing orchids and praise to Bob Pastor for outrunning Joe Louis last week. Bear Cat Wright once told us that it is impossible to stop them when they want only to last the limit. The boys are hinting that maybe Joe didn't really try. Well, even if he didn't, we can't see why Pastor is due so much praise for running ten rounds. If he had put up a tough battle and lost by a narrow margin we would praise him ourselves but no one ever praised a rabbit for his fighting ability. At least not until they began to hail Pastor as a great fighter. Now that Pastor has hit and run to last a distance the campaign to make Louis a has-been and back number is on. Watch it. Will he fight Braddock when we see them climb through the ropes, we will say the bout is on.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Basketball

The Imperials and the Aces were winners in the Intermediate league and the Buffaloes won their first victory in the Junior league, trimming the ill-fated Bombers, 23 to 9. The Hawkeys and Cubs were fighting for the Junior league leadership and the Hawkeys had a hot night. They turned the Cubs into kittens, winning 34-17.

The Senior league has become the world against St. Paul, and the crowd was tickled pink when the Raiders turned back the veterans in a torrid battle, 27 to 25. Fouls cost the St. Paul team heavily, as the Raiders made fifteen free throws out of sixteen attempts. Louie Fulton, latest addition to the Raiders, made six, as did Jamo Allen for St. Paul. Singling out one man for either team would be unfair, as everyone on both teams gave all they had and looked good. It was simply anybody's ball game until the last whistle.

The Rockets came from away behind and caught the Y. Stars to throw their battle into an overtime period and add a little more gray to the coach's head before the Stars finally won, 27 to 21. The score at the end of the regular game was 21 all, with the Rockets issuing accoupl of shots in the final seconds that would have upset the apple cart.

The Corinthian-Top Hatters game was called at the end of a half, with the Beapoles leading, 14 to 13. George Robinson, chief Beapole, says he will have to quit basketball because of his leg and because he starts track workouts soon.

The Raiders kicked the Fisk tire team around last Wednesday, 45 to 20, and the Cubs and Bombers took some outside rivals into camp. The Eri Kings and the Y. Stars, your writer's basketball stable, worked out together. Last Sunday the Riteway team got some reinforcements and invited the Kings over to the Jewish Community Center. The two weeks' layoff was too much for our boys and they lost, 22 to 20. Jack Howard made his debut as a regular Eri King and got eleven points. The best combination seems to be Archie Greenlee, Jack Howard, Bus Brown, Jamo Allen and Bunny Wilson, with Morton Graves as the sixth man.

The other half of the stable set two records last Monday night. They piled ten of us in a five passenger car and rode out to Westminster church and back for one way fare. They engaged the Fisk five boys in a brawl, dusting them 28 to 20. Joe Danforth clowned in eight baskets. Bob Parker scored a few and Chauncey Bailey yelled a couple in. Chet Sims, Bobby Hyde, Roy Stewart and Lawrence Carter made the rest of the

WE MUST REMAIN CONSISTENT

Several days ago, a reporter on the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Courier interviewed Homer Martin, head of the United Automobile Workers of America, the organization sponsoring the sit-down strike against the General Motors Corporation.

To be sure this is encouraging news for the time has come when union labor is not only controlling the labor market but is dictating who shall and who shall not work.

The Bystander, in accord with union labor as long as it is on the right track. It is in accord with an effort to organize the automobile industry as long as that effort is conducted in a legal manner and constituted authority is respected.

Today we are engaged in a fight to pass a federal anti-lynching bill and base much of the argument upon the fact that local law enforcement officials are powerless or deliberately refuse to prevent lynchings; that mobs take the law into their own hands thus denying victims the protection of the courts.

On two occasions, the courts of Michigan have ruled that the strikers occupying the General Motors plants held them illegally and ordered them out. But the strikers have refused to vacate the plants.

Now, it is not very consistent to argue that strikers may take the law into their own hands and kill to maintain their position and at the same time argue against other organizations like the KuKluxKlan, the Black Legion and mobs who take the law into their own hands and do as they please.

American has gone along during all of its existence on the basis that our courts were competent umpires of our disputes; citizens have respected them and except in a very few instances they have done a pretty good job.

JUST OUR POLICY

Last week The Bystander was criticised by one of its white friends and subscribers because it told the truth about the disadvantages of Negro sufferers in the flood area.

Most people know the injustices suffered by Negroes in these areas in normal times and the fact that want and suffering existed has not changed prejudiced hearts very much.

The athletic committee at the University of Iowa is having a difficult time finding a football coach to succeed Ossie Solem.

FROSTBITE

Frostbites are similar in many of its qualities to lesions produced by burns and may likewise be classified in three degrees.

If the frost bite is more severe, the part appears pale blue and may be quite insensitive to touch and pain.

Prevention is of much greater value than cure. The part should be kept dry and covered from exposure to low temperature.

During the early years of his life he was known as Frederick Augustus Washington Bailey. Not until he was a man did he take the name Douglass.

Of his father nothing is known except that he was white. For a few years he knew little if anything about the privations and hardships experienced by most slaves.

Suddenly he was taken from his grandmother's care and placed in care of a woman who seemed to be just the opposite of his grandmother.

Now he saw fellow slaves severely beaten and even killed for being "impudent." There was so much that he couldn't understand.

You have been urged to cultivate the habit of thinking. But thinking may do a slave more harm than good.

But this boy, Fred, could not help thinking any more than he could keep from breathing.

As time went on he came to know at first hand all the cruelty, the anguish, the degradation that go with slavery.

Now, it is not very consistent to argue that strikers may take the law into their own hands and kill to maintain their position and at the same time argue against other organizations like the KuKluxKlan, the Black Legion and mobs who take the law into their own hands and do as they please.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE STARS By Abbe Wallace YOUNGEST MENTALIST ON THE AMERICAN STAGE

NOTE—Your question will be answered FREE in this column ONLY when a clipping of this column enclosed with your question, your full name, birthdate, and correct address.

P. P. C.—I would like to know if you think I will get the job I have in mind and what other steps should I take to get this job?

Ans.—No, I don't feel that you will get the job. In the first place the man in question has misrepresented things to you and he can't help you in any way.

R. S. C.—I am planning on making a trip for Easter and I wonder which of the two places that I have in mind would be the best for me to go and will I enjoy myself?

Ans.—You had better go to your own home for these holidays instead of going to the home of your boy friend's family without an invitation.

L. S.—My boy friend tells me that I am the only woman that he ever loved. But still he always has some place to go. Tell me what you think about him loving me.

Ans.—He loves you dearly when he is with you. And the same thing holds true when he is with other girls.

H. L. M.—Please answer in your column what you think that I should do about my house? I am thinking of selling.

Ans.—You could easily get what money you have in the home if you were to decide to sell. However, if you get a loan and make some improvements on the place and add another room or two, it won't be necessary for you to get a larger place.

U. T.—The girl in my home town which I love her only, will we ever be together again?

Ans.—You will see her again and I believe this event will take place during the summer of 1937.

Ans.—Expect just exactly what you put into this year's work. Unless you begin at once putting more time on your books you won't do much better than you did last year.

P. C. M.—Should I depend on my brother or what should I do about myself and the children?

Ans.—Of course your brother will strain and help you again this spring, but you seem to forget that he has children of his own to provide for.
