ANTI-LYNCH LEGISLATION DOOMED

Mitchell Bill Is Blocked in House by Southerners

Atty. William Hastie Confirmed by Senate as First Negro U.S. Judge Filibustered to A 256 122 Defeat

GAVAGAN MEASURE SLATED ON MONDAY

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Destined to suffer the same fate of the now forgotten Costigan-Wagner bill, a filibustering coalition of Southern Democrats and northern advocates of federal anti-lynching legislation, Wednesday succeeded in side-tracking in the house the anti-lynching bill introduced by Rep. Arthur Mitchell (Democrat, Ill.). The measure was defeated by 256 to 122 votes during the house roll call.

Elimination of the Mitchell bill left the house free to fight out the issue again Monday when a stricter measure sponsored by Representative Joseph Gavagan (Dem., N. Y.) must be taken up under a vote-forcing petition. At a minority caucus house Republicans agreed to support the Gavagan bill.

Washington, April 8—(ANP)—forced, at Wednesday's hearing before the house judiciary committee, into conceding that an anti-lynching bill will be sent to the senate for consideration, southern representatives indicated this week they will support Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell's proposed legislation as "the lesser of two evils" because other bills are more drastic, and may bring it to a house vote before the April 12th hearing on the Gavagan measure.

There are altogether fifty-nine anti-lynching bills before the committee. The bill proposed by James A. Gavagan, Tammany Democrat, who represents a Harlem district, will automatically come before the house May 12th because of a petition signed by 218 representatives. The Wagner-Van Nuys bill is before the senate judiciary committee. Both of these have the support of the N. A. A. C. P., which does not back Mitchell's measure and accuses the Illinoisan of attempting to block its work.

Sectionalism Wednesday's hearing was held solely on the Mitchell bill, considered less comprehensive than that of Gavagan or the Wagner-Van Nuys measure. The Chicago congressman was the first witness called at the session during which the fires of sectionalism flared up.

According to Chairman Hatton Sumners, who once said he would do all he could to prevent such legislation from coming up, lynching has decreased steadily from 226 in 1892 to eight in 1936 and only one during the first quarter of this year. He said this means "the states are making progress" and a federal law would only irritate rather than help local governments in dealing with the problem.

"States Fall Down" "As long as one person is lynched, we ought to have a federal law," Mitchell answered. "Most of the states have fallen down in the enforcement of anti-lynching laws, and most in the south, where the Negro is struggling against the bitterness which is a relic of slavery and the reconstruction period."

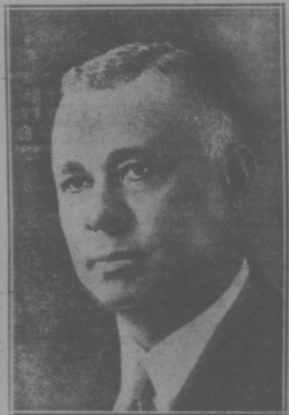

Several members of congress appeared before the committee to urge passage of an anti-lynching law and during cross examination southern representatives on the committee were caustic in their comments.

Marquette to Send Colored Flash Here

ED BURKE EXPECTED TO BE HEADLINE ATTRACTION

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer Marquette's popularity as headline thrill "went with the wind" with the passing of Ralph Metcalfe's flying spikes from the picture. However, this year, on April 23-24, Con Jennings Marquette's track mentor, is bringing another star in the track crown of the Hilltoppers to Des Moines for the twenty-eighth annual Drake Relays.

Ed Burke, sophomore high jump sensation, who is the present world's accepted record holder, 6 feet, 9 inches, established in New York recently, is counted to smash the oldest record on the Drake books. Back in 1922 Harold Osborne of Illinois sailed over the bars set at 6 feet, 6 inches to remain unbroken through all these years.

Cal Beckett, middle distance runner and 1936 captain of Marquette, will be one of the mainstays of the relays quartet from Milwaukee. Last July he pressed the winner, Glenn Cunningham, in the special 1,000 yard race to a new mark.

John Adams, Jr., of Omaha, only colored member of the Nebraska unicameral legislature, graduate of Nebraska and serving his second term, was overwhelmingly vetoed Friday. Objection was so great that a machine record was not required and senators escaped going on record.

Immediately representatives of eleven women's organizations sent angry telegrams of protest to Speaker Warner scolding the "cowardly action" of the body. It was the fifth time the measure has been rejected in Nebraska, with twenty-eight other states voting for ratification.

APPEALS DEATH SENTENCE BY ALL WHITE JURY Montgomery, Ala., April 8—(ANP)

New York, April 8—Knickbocker hospital of this city, which achieved notoriety on March 11th by delaying in accepting Mrs. W. C. Handy, wife of the famous composer of the "St. Louis Blues," does not have a policy of excluding colored people, but has "a policy of treating the sick of our neighborhood regardless of race, color or creed," according to a letter received last week by the N. A. A. C. P. from E. M. Robinson, president of the hospital board.

In a conference at N. A. A. C. P. offices March 29th, Mr. Robinson said the woman employe who had refused to accept Mrs. Handy had been transferred to other duties and had no authority to speak for the hospital. He said the hospital had treated Negro patients in its wards and it sometimes had as many as 10 per cent of its ward patients colored.

In the letter to the N. A. A. C. P. the hospital declared that it had few applications from colored people for private rooms and that in the last two years it had had only three such applications and the colored patient had been accepted in each case.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for April 11

THE SIN OF ADAM AND EVE
LESSON TEXT—Genesis 2:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—The soul that sinneth, it shall die. Ezek. 18:4.
PRIMARY TOPIC—In the Garden of Eden.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Trying to Hide From God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Sin Is and Does.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Consequences of Sin.

"One of the curiosities of the British Museum is a brick from the walls of ancient Babylon which bears the imprint of one of Babylon's mighty kings. Right over the center of the royal seal is a pariah dog which apparently trod upon it when it was soft and plastic. Long ages have passed; the king's superscription is visible but defaced; the footprint of the dog is clear and sharply defined.
"Human nature is like that brick. Man originally was made in the image of God, but over the royal beauty of the Divine likeness there has been superimposed the dirty disfigurement of the Devil's imprint" (D. E. Hart-Davies).
Last Sunday we saw the heavens and earth, the animals, yes, the entire creation crowned by man himself, as it had come from the hand of God—"and behold it was very good" (1:31). But, sadly enough, it did not long remain so, for sin which had already entered the universe soon found its way into the world.
God created Adam in his own likeness and image, gave him "a helmet unto him," and placed him in perfect surroundings. He gave him congenial employment, and above all the inestimable privilege of fellowship with Him.
But because man was not a mere automaton—a toy in the hands of a superior being—God gave him the power of moral choice, the opportunity to exercise his God-given personality in making that choice. Obedience is the underlying moral principle of the universe.
Today we go with Eve and Adam into that cataclysmic experience which we read in Romans 5:12, "by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned."
I. Temptation (vv. 1-5).
Satan is not a cloven-footed monstrosity with a forked tail and a trident in his hand. No, indeed, he is more subtle than anything in creation. We read that he is "transformed into an angel of light" (II Cor. 11:14). His approach in our day is as smooth, and cultured as it was in the garden of Eden. An example is the insidious liquor advertising of our day. Another is his use of the man who stands behind the pulpit or sits in the professor's chair and destroys the Christian faith of young men and women.
Note the five steps in the fall of man:
1. Listening to a slander against God (Satan lied about God).
2. Doubting God's Word and love (If we trust God we will obey him).
3. Looking at that which God has forbidden (The eye will betray us unless we guard it).
4. Lusting after what God had prohibited (Compare Genesis 3:6 with I John 2:6).
5. Disobedience to God's command.
II. Sin (v. 6).
Sin is deliberate transgression, not a natural weakness, nor a necessity. It showed itself in its true light when it at once reached out and dragged down another. We do not sin alone for very long.
III. Consequences (vv. 7-15, also 16-19).
1. The serpent is cursed.
2. Sin, death and condemnation enter the world.
3. Sorrow is linked with motherhood.
4. Responsibility and headship is given to man.
5. The ground is cursed and the burden of labor introduced.
Here we have the first promise of redemption, and the scarlet thread of redemptive truth thus runs from this point at the Bible's beginning to its very last chapter. Even in judging the first Adam for his sin God promises the coming of a second Adam who is to redeem the race. You are in the family of the first Adam by natural birth; have you entered the family of the second Adam by supernatural rebirth? (I Cor. 15:21, 22, 45).

Employing Character
A good character when established should not be rested in as an end, but only employed as a means of doing still further good.—Atterbury.

Punishment That Hardens
If punishment makes not the will supple, it hardens the offender.—Locke.

To Have Friendship
The only way to have a friend is to be one.—Emerson.

ST PAUL, MINN.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

BASKETBALL

The Y. carnival rung down the curtain on the cage season. The Erlings tried for one game and three overtime periods to make a present of their contest to the Indianola Creamery. They finally succeeded, losing 34 to 33. We have seen eleven carnival games, and we have seen the home team win one game in all those years.

The Stars turned on the heat and sailed through the Colfax Invaders, 35 to 24, without too much trouble. The Hawkeys ran over a team from the Central Y., 50 to 12, closing their season two straight wins, since they dropped another team from the Y. last Friday, 33 to 15. The league champs, Hawkeys, Aces and St. Paul, received their trophies and awards. Charles B. Broddus and yours truly engaged in a ten minute demonstration of modern wrestling with each of us being careful not to be too rough.

TRACK

Eddie Eaves of North reports that the boys simply ran too fast at state high school meet at Iowa City last week, which East High won by 54 points. Nine colored boys from North and eight from East competed. He said there were quite a few Negroes there, but none of them did enough to talk about. Bill Parker of East scored a place in the sixty yard dash, finishing fifth. Frank Kaiser, Jr., Stanley Beverly, Al Thomas were members of the half mile relay team which captured first. Harold Miller, broad jumper, and George Wells, dash man, also competed for the Red and Black.

BOXING

The boys are still playing their game of hide and seek with the world's title bout. In the meantime John Henry Lewis goes merrily about his way trying to climb into high class heavyweight timber, his latest achievement being stopping Red Barry in five rounds. They say John Henry made $58,000 last year and that this year he is really gonna get busy.

GOLF AND TENNIS

The golf players have frequently climbed aboard our frame for not giving them proper publicity. They have demanded recognition or a lead. They say they plan to engage in more meets this year and to include Minneapolis and St. Paul in their list of opponents. And the tennis players continue to sit by and do nothing. The set-up here is ideal for one of the greatest Negro tennis and golf clubs west of the Mississippi. Plenty of willing co-operation from the whites, the best courts and links. Why not make this a big year for both golf and tennis?

"White Woman's Creek" Is Indian Name for a River

Mary Harris, a heroine of the Deerfield (Mass.) massacre in 1704, is responsible for the origin of the name of the Wauhatchie river which winds through a part of central Ohio before joining the Muskingum. When she was ten she was captured, carried into the valley of the Wauhatchie, into what is now Coshocton county, and later was married to a French Mohawk. She is believed to have been the first white woman to live in this section so the Delaware Indians termed the stream Wauhatchie, which in their language, according to a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, meant "White Woman's Creek."

There are three popular theories concerning the derivation of the name Cuyahoga. Some claim the name can be traced back to the Indian Cuyahogan-uk meaning "Lake River." Others insist it was derived from Carrihoga, or "News Carrier." A third group contends the name was taken from Cayahoga, signifying crooked. The latter is probably correct as anyone can see by looking down at its winding course. Some authorities consider it the most crooked navigable waterway in the state.

Use for Artificial Fly Macedonians' Discovery

I am of the opinion that the artificial fly dates back to the era of the Macedonians, and was the invention of necessity, states a writer in the Detroit Free Press. Those who fished along the Astracus river were unable to catch the fish abounding therein because the only thing the fish responded to was a fly which hovered over the river, and which proved to be unsuitable for bait when used by the fishermen. It lost its color and its wings shriveled up. It was then necessary for them to find a bait, equally attractive and effective. They discovered that by winding a piece of crimson wool around a hook, and attaching there-to two feathers from the neck of a cock they had an artificial fly which was a real competitor so far as fish were concerned. You know the rest—states set aside streams for fly fishing only. Each year finds its popularity increasing.

Many Ohio Counties Are Named for Prominent Men

Many Ohio counties were named after famous military commanders and prominent men that figured in early history. Meigs county, the site of some of the earliest settlements, was named in honor of Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., the fourth governor. Gallia county derived its name from the Latin for ancient France. It was the French who originally settled within its boundaries, their first town being Gallipolis (City of the French).

A story is often told, states a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, that the first French scalp taken from a member of this Gallipolis colony by a young Indian brave was so strongly scented with perfume "that the wind went love-sick" and the chief of the tribe to which the brave belonged continually sniffed at the trophy in utter amazement. The other Indians envied the proud warrior and immediately set out in quest of similar grisly relics. This gesture was quickly followed by a rapid increase in the number of bald-headed Frenchmen, dead and alive, in that section.

Breeds of Horses From Abroad

The breeds of light horses, originating abroad and imported to this country, include the Arab, the English racehorse, or thoroughbred, the high-stepping hackney and the Cleveland Bay from England; the Shetland pony from the north of Scotland, the French coach horse and the German coach horse. In addition to these recognized breeds there are the Orloff trotter of Russia, and the dun pony of Norway, both of which are distinct breeds, though not often seen here. Three breeds originating in the United States are recognized by the Bureau of Animal Industry in Washington. Of these the Morgan is the oldest, the remarkable foundation sire to which all of the thousands of registered horses trace back, having been foaled in Springfield, Mass., in 1793. In the middle decades of the last century his progeny were more sought after than those of any other horse.

Pommes Soufflees Was Discovered by Accident

Pommes soufflees, the gastronomic creation, was discovered by accident because a train was late, reveals a Paris United Press correspondent.

This accident occurred in Saint Germain en Laye, historical town near Paris, about a century ago. A banquet was to be held in Saint Germain for the blueblodes who were passengers on the first train to run between this town and the capital. Louis Philippe, ruler of France at the time, was at the station to welcome its arrival.

Collinet, the famous chef, who was to prepare the banquet, knew that the king liked fried potatoes, so he endeavored to prepare some to the best of his ability. When the train failed to arrive on time, he took the potatoes off the fire for fear of drying them.

When the guests were finally announced, Collinet put the potatoes back into the butter upon the fire. Suddenly the upper crust expanded and turned golden. Collinet was heartbroken, thinking he had spoiled his monarch's favorite dish.

Unknowningly, Collinet had discovered the famous pommes soufflees, now served the world over—but it required the palates of the princely diners to make him aware of his triumph.

Nature Supplies Power and Ice From Volcanoes

Sometimes Nature supplies power for nothing. The people of Larderello, in the Province of Pisa, Italy, live at the foot of an active volcano. Every unit of heat, power, and light used in the town is obtained from its fiery interior, thus saving the citizens endless expense and taxation. In addition, commercial borax is obtained from "blow holes" in the hillside, relates a writer in London Answers Magazine.

The people of Styria, Austria, live beside another kindly mountain. This is "Der Erzberg," the Iron Mountain, which is 5,000 feet high and contains about 300,000,000 tons of iron ore—fifty per cent of its volume.

There is another iron mountain in Sweden—Kirunavaara—which is 2,455 feet high and contains more high-grade iron than any other.

This is a Speck Howard promotion.

REFUELING GIVES HIM RIGHT TO RETAIN POST

Nashville, Tenn., April 2.—(Special)—Ira T. Bryant, the stormy petrel of the A. M. E. church and secretary-treasurer of the Sunday School Union, does not have to turn over the keys of the plant to Prof. E. A. Selby of Normal, Ala., who was elected to the post during the last general conference.

The Tennessee supreme court granted every claim in Bryant's brief and therein affirmed the decision of Chancellor Jas. Newman of the lower court, who had ruled that the board and not the general conference has the power to elect the secretary, hence Bryant is officially the secretary-treasurer of the A. M. E. Sunday School Union.

Bryant was "ousted" at the New York session of the general conference by a narrow margin after a last minute "swing" gave Prof. E. A. Selby of Selma, Ala., the sufficient number of votes to cause him to be declared victor. Bryant's term of office will expire in 1933.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of any bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Stops fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

A CHANCE TO HELP

Missionary societies of a number of white churches have invited Negro speakers in to discuss the race problem augmenting their study which is being carried on this season. They have done this because they feel that a member of the race is in better position to tell of the hopes and aspirations of that race than some outside person.

Many of these speakers have gone out of town, some in communities where no Negroes live and where about the only thing some people know about the problem is what they read in the newspapers. And one must admit that if the opinion of the Negro as a good citizen was based upon what was read in the newspaper, it is bound to be poor.

People living in small towns don't always stay there. Many come to large cities and become leading citizens. Many gain political position and influence where they can either do a lot of harm or good as their training and experience influence them. It is therefore necessary that rural and small town people be taught to think and act right on such questions, as well as those in large cities.

The fact that the race problems has been made a study by so large a group as the missionary societies of the country is commendable. Undoubtedly many people have a different understanding of the Negro as a result of the movement. After all a lack of understanding has been one of the chief handicaps to a more rapid adjustment of differences between races.

SIT DOWN STRIKES A HYSTERIA

It looks as if the Democrats have won additional offices at the recent election in Michigan. Governor Murphy immediately announces that the results indicate an endorsement of his method of handling strikes in that state during the past few months.

Well, undoubtedly that is true. But this does not make his method of handling the situation any more nearly correct. As a matter of fact if Gov. Murphy had ordered the strikers to mob the officers, the vote would have been just the same. The mere fact that the governor was on their side without regard to how flagrant his disregard of the law was made him popular with the majority of the voters. As a matter of fact the grand kleagle of the Ku Klux Klan was just as popular in many states a few years ago, but now that the hysteria has died down he could not be elected dog catcher on the basis of his record.

There comes a time when a candidate must go down to defeat standing by a principle. This the Bystander believes is more important than election to office. Sit-down strikes will run their course. They are popular with many today. But eventually they will subside and react against the very people who sponsor them.

Health Talks

SEASICKNESS

Many of us never will experience the symptoms of seasickness on ships or aeroplanes, but we all have at some time experienced the symptoms while riding on a train or street car. When these symptoms occur in an aeroplane, railway or street car they are called "air-sickness" or "car-sickness."

With the modern improvements and the addition of large ocean-going steamers, few if any of the symptoms of seasickness are experienced, while some years ago seasickness was a hindrance and a dread to many ocean travelers.

The symptom closely related to that of mountain sickness, seasickness can be aggravated by the habit of unconsciously holding the breath with the movement of the ship, or by watching the horizon.

SYMPTOMS: The symptoms in the mildest cases are a sense of tightness in the throat, salivation, with frequent swallowing. Nausea and headache soon follow an the victim becomes pale. Sometimes the symptoms become more severe and the victim develops dizziness, headache, explosive vomiting, cold clammy skin, rapid pulse, thirst, and collapse.

Recovery usually occurs in three or four days, but in some the symptoms continue in a modified form throughout the voyage. Death does not occur from seasickness, but it may aggravate those who might be in a precarious physical condition. The treatment is chiefly prophylaxis by careful attention to elimination before the voyage is started. If during the first few days the sea is smooth and there is little perceptible motion to the ship, passengers frequently become immune. Much time as possible should be spent out in open air with the deck chairs placed in the middle of the ship. Wear dark glasses and avoid looking at the horizon or the sparkling of the sun on the water. The diet should be restricted to small amounts taken frequently and fluids should be moderately restricted. Many drugs are prescribed by the ships doctor when necessary if you report to him.

WILL RULE ON ADMISSION ON APRIL 5TH

Memphis, April 1—A ruling on whether the University of Tennessee should admit William B. Redmond, 26, to its school of pharmacy will be handed down probably on April 5 by Chancellor L. D. Bejach. Redmond was represented by Charles H. Houston, special counsel of the N. A. A. C. P. in New York; Z. Alexander Looby of Nashville, and Leon A. Ransom, of Washington. Counsel for the university was Edwin F. Hunt and W. C. Cook, assistant attorneys general. Redmond's chief contention is that his rights as a citizen under the 14th amendment are being denied by the state of Tennessee when it furnishes professional training for white students in pharmacy, dentistry, medicine, etc., and fails to furnish similar training for Negro students.

COLLEGE DEVOTES RADIO PROGRAM TO COLORED POET

Manhattan, Kan., April 1—(ANP)—A special radio program discussing the poetry of Frank Marshall Davis and interviewing Prof. C. E. Rogers, head of the department of journalism in which Davis studied, was broadcast Wednesday afternoon, March 24, over station KSAC of Kansas State college.

It was brought out that "the two former students at Kansas State who have achieved the most recognition in the literary field are both Negroes, Davis and Claude McKay." Of the average of 2,500 students who attend the college annually, the colored quota is approximately 25.

"ABSOLUTE EQUALITY" IS C. I. O. AIM, SAYS LEWIS

Detroit, Mich., April 1—In response to an inquiry from the N. A. A. C. P., John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, states in a letter: "The policy of the United Mine Workers of America and the Committee for Industrial Organization has always been that colored persons should be treated on an absolute equality with white persons."

Mr. Lewis' letter was in answer to unverified reports from Michigan that the United Automobile Workers of America, the big C. I. O. union, was setting up separate Negro locals and was not including Negro workers in the Dodge division of the Chrysler corporation in its negotiations for the seniority rule.

M. E. J.—Answer in your column just what you think is wrong with me?

Ans.: Nothing is wrong with you, except that you are lacking in SELF-CONFIDENCE. This alone is retarding your progress in life and needlessly causing you great worry and mental agony. Put more effort into what you try to do and stop worrying.

E. E.—Please tell me whether my father's sickness is natural?

Ans.: The sickness affecting your father, although regrettable, is entirely natural if sickness can be classed as such. No person is causing it. He just can't seem to adapt his life again without his wife. He is lonesome.

M. J. D.—I feel so worried about my son all the time and I feel as if something terrible has happened? What should I do?

Ans.: You have no cause to worry about your son because he does not write you. He is actively engaged in a new business venture as well as an interesting affair of the heart. He will write you within the next few months.

L. O. H.—Why didn't my husband want me to come to see him while he was sick to care for him?

Ans.: He was only trying to show you some consideration and to relieve you of trouble and worry of waiting on him. Well meaning friends waited on him and administered to his needs.

M. S. S.—Would a change improve things for me and if so please let me hear from you in the column?

Ans.: Indeed it would. . . . With the coming of spring we all have a desire to move and by doing so nearly always gives us new inspirations to better ourselves. Look around for it seems to me you would be better satisfied were you living at a more desirable location.

A. W. B.—Would the young man I ave in mind make a good husband and would we have any success together?

Ans.: You two are quite old enough to realize what you must expect of marriage . . . and there isn't any reason why you could not be very happy together. He would no doubt succeed in whatever line he takes up if he received the encouragement and inspiration he should from you.

D. D. B.—Tell me why my boy friend from out of town did not send what he said he would?

Ans.: When your boy friend arrived back home he suddenly realized that he did not CARE as much as he thought he did. He will not mail you the PICTURES nor will he carry on the correspondence you expect. Forget him.

C. B.—Would we be successful staying here or what would be the best thing for us?

Ans.: Stay on where you are until summer and put forth your best efforts to IMPROVE your business. Your husband and you should be able to make a profitable business of what you have, and it would do you no good to move away.

R. G.—Should I leave this man or remain here?

Ans.: You don't love him so why not play fair to yourself and this man also and leave long enough to determine the way your heart wants to lead you. Visit your acquaintances and be more congenial for you can't find the man of your heart by not allowing yourself to make friends.
