Lesson for April 25

THE OBEDIENCE OF NOAH
LESSON TEXT—Genesis 6:20-22, 9:1-7.
GOLDEN TEXT—By faith Noah, being warned of concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house. Heb. 11:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Meaning of the Rainbow.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Rainbow's Message.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Following God's Plan.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Deliverance through Obedience.

The "book of beginnings" (Genesis) has already brought before us the creation of the world, the origin of man, the entrance of sin into the world, and God's judgment upon that sin. In chapter 4 we find the first murderer, Cain, who brought an offering before God which was not acceptable, murdered his brother Abel, whose offering pleased God. Strange it is that man has it in his heart to hate those who expose his sin by their godly life.

God does not leave himself without a witness in the earth. The God-fearing line of Seth appears. There are always those who have not bowed the knee to the Adversary. Consider the astonishment of Soviet officials at the deep-seated and wide-spread faith in God revealed in their recent census.

But sin again lifts its ugly head and ere long God is driven to the necessity of judgment upon mankind. Read the terrific indictment of humanity in Genesis 6:5-7. It is still true that the heart of man apart from God's grace is "deceitfully wicked" (Jer. 17:9). "Well does a contemporary writer say that even modern "psychology has unveiled the dismal and sinister depths in human nature. Man can no longer flee from reality into the romantic refuge of his own heart; for the human heart has become a house of horrors in whose murky recesses man cannot erect for his solace either a shrine or a citadel. Man is bad; he is a sinner. The depths of his meanness are being unveiled in a ghastly way in individual and social life in these times. What a contemporary ring there is about these old biblical judgments on mankind! (Gen. 6:5, 6; Isa. 1:6.) What a tremendous arraignment of sinful human nature is Paul's "prologue in Romans 1" (Mackay).

So God sent a flood upon the earth. It used to be fashionable to doubt the story of the flood, but archaeology has joined hands with geology and history to agree with Scripture. The facts are available; let us use them.

"But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord" and prepared an ark at God's command. Here again it can be demonstrated that the ark was sufficiently large to meet the needs of Noah and all his family, with the animals and their food, and with room to spare. It is significant that the proportions of the ark were those of a well-planned boat. God knows how to build, and man does well to obey his instructions.

The rain came, the fountains of the deep were opened, and all the living perished, except those within the ark. What an instructive type of our safety in Christ is the ark!

But our lesson concerns primarily what occurred after Noah came forth from the ark and presented himself before God.

I. An Obedient Man (8:20-22).
To come before God with acceptable worship, man must come with clean hands. The question is not whether he is brilliant, learned, or of high position. The one thing that counts is obedience. When such a man offers the worship of his heart before God, it goes up to him like a sweet savor.

II. A Covenant-Keeping God (9:8-17).
The beautiful rainbow in the cloud became a token of God's promise, and the visible assurance to "all flesh" that the judgment of the flood will not be repeated. Never again will seed time and harvest, nor any of the orderly processes of nature, fail throughout the whole earth.

What a gracious God we have! And what a pity that men presume upon his goodness. Because he "maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust" (Matt. 5:45), men not only forget that he is the giver of all things, but assume that they may sin against him with impunity. Let us remind them that it is the clear teaching of Scripture that "every one of us shall give account of himself to God" (Rom. 14:12).

Well Spent Days
Oh, what a glory doth this world put on, for him who with a fervent heart goes forth under the bright and glorious sky, and looks on duties well performed, and days well spent.—Langfellow.

Purity of Heart
A holy life is the very gate of heaven; but let us always remember that holiness does not consist in doing uncommon things, but in doing everyday things with purity of heart.—Cardinal Newman.

Looking Over the Hawkeyes

By J. Braddie Morris

Greetings friends!

With the coming of the good spring weather I know all your thoughts are turning to the great outdoors. You know what the song says "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to love and the wide open spaces." The gala event is coming off this week I know everyone's mind is centered on the great athletic event. We see by the papers that the entry list is growing every day and a good afternoon's entertainment is in store for all the spectators.

It seems now that as much attention is centered on the annual relay party as on the celebrated athletic carnival. The Drake College Keys are really the tops in their annual event. I have some good news for all who are interested in Iowa. It is retaliating with a spring party. The date seems to be May 15th although it isn't positive as yet. We will even go so far as to guarantee a charming evening to all present. The affair is to be sponsored by all the Negro students.

Eugene Skinner and Edward Wiggins ran on the Iowa 440 and 880 yard relay teams at the Kansas relays. The grid men are taking their workouts daily. The teams are fast developing under the new coaching staff. Most of the practice will be this spring as there will only be ten days of practice next fall before the opening game with Washington's Huskies, September 25.

And you my friends, will see you all at the Drake relays.

Your Campus Correspondent, J. B. M., Jr.

Baltimore—April 15—(ANP)—A series of lawsuits seeking to open the University of Maryland to colored students is under consideration by the N. A. A. C. P., declared Thurgood Marshall, general counsel, here Wednesday.

Marshall said a plan advanced by President H. C. Byrd of the university and subsequently enacted by the state legislature is discriminatory and not satisfactory. Already one student is attending the Maryland U. law school without trouble following court action undertaken and won by the N. A. A. C. P.

WHITE CHURCHMAN FIGHTS "FORCING" PLAN ON GROUP

New York, April 15—(Calvin Service Flash)—The fight started on the M. E. church merger by Dr. Lorenzo H. King, when he appealed to the N. A. A. C. P. to use its legal staff to prevent the jim-crow plan from going through, has gradually grown to a veritable avalanche of sentiment against the plan. Such high churchmen as Dr. E. Stanley Jones oppose the merger. The meeting of the M. E. publication council, at which it was decided to ignore Dr. King's protest, has gradually been worn down.

ST. LOUIS NEGRO CLUB TO PLAY DEMONS SUNDAY

In their first appearance here, the St. Louis club of the National Negro League will net the Demons Sunday afternoon in a baseball game at the Western League ball park at 2:30. The calibre of this aggregation known throughout the country. Previous years have brought the Kansas City Monarchs, Negro-all stars with Satchel Paige and other diamond luminaries Chosen Knight, D. M. club suntime, is planning to book many big time colored teams here this season.

BASEBALL PLAYERS TO MEET SUNDAY

Episcopal church club please meet at the church, Twelfth and Center, Sunday evening at 7:00 p. m. Owen Watkins is manager.

as a member of their four mile relay team. Then our smaller colleges and high schools will have their quota of Negroes and we will be there wondering who will be the unannounced star to start a meteoric career in these games Friday and Saturday. The keen rivalry between the high schools, especially the local ones, the bitter dog fight competition of the two Kansas colleges, Emporia and Pittsburg, along with the natural age old rivalries of the big schools will grip you and get under your skin in a way you'll never forget if you let yourself go out to the Drake stadium, Friday and Saturday.

ILLINOIS SENATE PASSES KING BILL

Huckin, white Democrat, asking appointment of a committee to investigate the cause of rent increase in Chicago and activities of the Chicago real estate board was reported Thursday by the state senate.

rental and management division of blanket increases was fostered on all landlords regardless of individual circumstances. It is expected to increase rentals $50,000,000 for the year.

India Elephants Not Bred In India elephants are used for hauling and big game hunting. Despite popular belief, they are not bred. It's cheaper to capture a wild adult, which is easily trained. The African elephant, on the other hand, is untamable. His ivory tusks are his only assets to man.

PHILADELPHIA... JOHN HENRY LEWIS FOOTBALL CAREER HALTED BY FATHER

By Everett Wadsworth Staff Writer First boxing exhibition at 4 years—a professional at 16—world's champion at 23—such were the steps up the ladder of pugilistic fame of John Henry Lewis of Pittsburgh, world's lightweight champion, who was in Des Moines last week-end for a non-title bout with Pret Ferrar at the College on Monday night. His father, who now lives in Oakland, California, and owns a gymnasium there, was his trainer in their home town in Phoenix, Arizona.

The high school football career of John Henry was abruptly cut short one day right at the height of practice, the elder Lewis walked over to his coach and said a few words to him. "Turn in your suit, young fellow," the coach told John Henry, thus ending a promising gridiron future of a potential title holder. Paul, 16, younger brother is breaking into the A. A. U. tournament in Tucson, Arizona.

"How did it feel to win a championship life, believe me," the champion said, "the greatest moment in my life, believe me." "October 8, 1935, when I defeated Bob Olin, I'll never forget that." The church with a welcome.

CHURCH OF GOD AND SAINTS 928 West 12th Street ORDER OF SERVICES Sunday night at 7:30 P. M.; Wednesday night at 7:30 P. M.; Friday night at 7:30 P. M.; all day Sabbath, commonly called Saturday; all are welcome. Elder M. L. Smith, Pastor-in-charge.

CORINTHIAN CHURCH... at the conclusion of the interview, at the La Marguerita hotel Sunday, where he was guest, the handsome young man, who looked more like a young college student than a world's champion fighter, played a selection on the piano with the grace of a master.

ST. LOUIS NEGRO CLUB TO PLAY DEMONS SUNDAY In their first appearance here, the St. Louis club of the National Negro League will net the Demons Sunday afternoon in a baseball game at the Western League ball park at 2:30. The calibre of this aggregation known throughout the country. Previous years have brought the Kansas City Monarchs, Negro-all stars with Satchel Paige and other diamond luminaries Chosen Knight, D. M. club suntime, is planning to book many big time colored teams here this season.

CHURCH OF GOD... East 17th and University Sunday school at 10:30 in Ne-Vienna Williams, Supt. N. Mackless at 12:30 P. M. Y. P. W. at 6:30 P. M. George Parchman, President. General services at 8:00 P. M. Weekly services: Tuesday night, general services at 8:30 P. M. Friday night, general services at 8:00. Elder Eugene Robinson, Pastor.

CHURCH OF GOD... M. E. CHURCH... King of Pittsburg, Kansas, is expected to be back to defend his title, while in the high school we have two record holders. Walker of Ohio State, whom we have as a gangling sophomore two years ago, holds the world's indoor record. Edward Burke of Marquette holds the outdoor record. Neither of these boys can afford to even a little off, for there are several ambitious white boys anxious to knock them up.

Then there will be the relay races, which will be seen several familiar faces. Iowa's Eugene Skinner, Robinson and Wiggins, Iowa's football captain, Homer Harris, will be in a new role, as he will be on the hurdle relay team. Indiana's Jimmy Smith will be back

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbances, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome an offensive mouth odor due to the fermentation of the bits of food on mouth, teeth, or nasal plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odor, and thus counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lanchort Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Walda Goetz Round & Round

SOMEBODY'S SOB SISTER SITS SILENTLY SOBBING STUFF AND SCENES

Dear Niwi:

Now is no better time to write you that letter and give you all the latest—well I hope its the latest—happenings—

Well as you know another week has just about ended taking with it those dreaded report cards, exams and—nothing dreadful about this—the Drake Relays—But Niwi, let me tell you something about last week. You know everybody in town went to the Jabberwock—at least it seemed that way. The Mary Church Terrell's won first prize and the "J. Moderistics captured second. Boy those Moderistics really looked sharp in little black dancing costumes. They showed plenty originality in their skirt. And you really should have seen the black face artists including Book Johnson, Ellen S. Ann P—and I won't say a word about the various color combinations I had—Cora Mae T. sang "Trust In Me" just too superbly supreme—She can go Mike.

Mrs. Beshears, Mrs. Ritcher, Mrs. V. Morrow, Mrs. DeSlet and some more of the matronly matrons took part in the "Mountaineer Wedding" that had everyone holding their sides. You certainly should have seen the red stockings they wore and Mrs. Meredith Carl—the attorney's wife—carrying a bucket around. Well enough about the Jabberwock.

I have intended to tell you about the little Howard boys, Joe, Charles, and Lonie before. They have started a community paper, "The Observer" which is really a good and interesting. These boys are getting a great deal of experience which will be of plenty help to them later. They actually sell advertisements for the paper and carry a society column that is the "top of the town." Now I know what Joe is doing whenever he edges up close to any conversationalists and instantly becomes all eyes and ears.

Say Niwi, John Henry Lewis, light heavyweight champion, was in the city last week. He, and the men in his stable were sure one bunch of swell guys. The bad, John Henry, has intelligence, personality plus, and a supply of English jokes—he was made for big things. And of course you know more than one maiden's heart is bursting with pride because she either met him, played ping pong with him, had him take motion pictures of her, talked with him, listened to him play like Duke E. on the Steinway, and joked with him.—Of course I couldn't leave out James Thompson who was in his stable. He was over 6 foot tall, weighed 250 pounds, told English jokes, has aspirations of being one of the world's greatest fighters—and believe it or not, could solid croon—especially "Dedicated to You." You really should ask George E. about his line of live though.

Now the Drake Relays—The Relays will really be a national event this year. Our boys are coming from all over the country. Remember James Smith of Indiana, tall, handsome, and modest—he will be back again as well as Kermit King, and many of the others. The College Keys are giving their third annual event and the Kappa fraternity is sponsoring their first—of course there will be any number of after parties—I'm told—Please visitors from out of town will be here—which will make it all more interesting.

Oh say, Niwi, I forgot to tell you about the lion cub that I saw last week. It was the most cunningest creature. Well yours truly hopes to tell you all about the Fletcher Henderson dance the next time I write you—so take it easy.

Your pal, WALDA.

IT IS UP TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

In spite of the fact that the Gavan anti-lynching bill has passed the house of representatives, there is but one way for the legislation to hurdle the senate and that is for President Roosevelt to request its passage. Already announcements have come out from Washington that there is little chance for the bill in the senate.

The Bystander has made this statement before. And it further predicts that President Roosevelt will lend none of his administrations pressure in behalf of the bill. The reason is quite evident. Practically all important committees in the senate are headed by southern members. They are opposed to anti-lynching legislation; they are in charge of the administrative legislative program.

The flareup over President Roosevelt's court proposal has taught him that some of these fellows will buck the president; consequently he dares not ruffle their feathers too much for fear that his program will be jeopardized.

Unlike the house, the rules of the senate permit unlimited debate. Southern members can and will filibuster until lukewarm members see a chance to keep from going on record by voting to cease the bills consideration because the business of congress is being unduly blocked.

The Bystander makes this prediction knowing the set-up in advance. However if Mr. Roosevelt steps in the situation will be different. It must be admitted that it will take courage to take this stand. Will he do it? Does he believe in law and order to that extent? Time only can tell.

ENCOURAGING RACIAL ACTIVITY

The Drake relays in Des Moines this week bring together hundreds of athletes—white and black—from all over the country. These men will compete for honors without fear of being denied a square deal. Generally there is little doubt about the winner, and nobody will object to the other fellow having his chance to win.

Thus athletics help lead the way to better race relations for there is the question of opportunity, a fair chance to compete and fair decision. After all this is what anybody is entitled to in life; he should have it.

Last week a jury was drawn in Judge Allen's division of the Municipal Court to try a white man for violating the intoxicating liquor laws. Assistant County Attorney Harry Grund prosecuted the case for the state. The jury consisted of ten white women, one white man, and one Negro man, Carl Mays.

Mays was selected foreman of the jury. The members of the jury said they were unanimous in their conclusions that he was the best one to act as foreman and this was the reason he was chosen. The defendant was found guilty.

The point here is this man was elected foreman when he comprised one-twelfth of the jury. He could not elect himself. The white people did. "It is simply another example that we are making strides in better race relations in Des Moines," said Judge Allen and The Bystander agrees with him fully.

The Omaha Presbytery has elected a Negro minister as its moderator. He is the only Negro minister in the organization; press reports said—that practically all the members favored his selection.

Another step in better race relations. This time by the church which after all should lead the way in the proper solution of the race problem.

The action of the Omaha Presbytery is the antithesis of the Methodist Episcopal church which in its effort to satisfy race prejudice attempts to throw the Negro out body and soul. Surely if the price of unification of the Methodist Church and the Methodist Church South is the elimination of the Negro then it is unchristian like and should not succeed.

Examples like that set by the Omaha churchmen strengthen faith in Christianity as far as Negroes are concerned; the example attempted by the Methodist Church shakes it.

Anti-Lynching Bill

are leading people to believe it will be an effective curb against lynching, but on the contrary it is a futile gesture."

One of the few southerners to favor the measure was Maury Maverick of Texas, who asserted: "Lynching is not only a disgrace to the south, but to the whole nation."

Mitchell Speaks
Speaking in behalf of the bill was Arthur W. Mitchell of Chicago, whose own proposed statute was defeated the previous week. He declared:

"When I was head of a school in Alabama, I once knew what it was to fear mob violence because of some misunderstanding about a $20 check. A mob formed to march on my house, and I stood at a window with a rifle while my wife armed herself with a pistol. Luckily there was no trouble, but I know what little chance a man of my race has when the mob spirit is aroused."

Referring to the Mississippi atrocity, as did many others, Hamilton Fish of New York said: "That gruesome lynching conducted by a mob of lawless ruffians who tortured and burned two young Negroes to death by use of a blow torch proves the immediate need of a federal anti-lynching law. . . . Judging from past experience, I doubt if the members of this atrocious, bloodthirsty mob will be convicted and imprisoned."

THREATENS TO REVIVE KLAN IF GAVAGAN BILL BECOMES LAW

Washington, April 22—(ANP)—Threats that enactment of federal anti-lynching legislation would revive the old Ku Klux Klan on its reconstruction period basis were hurled here last week by southern congressmen in an effort to defeat the Gavan bill which was passed Thursday by the house.

RESTAURANT DISCRIMINATION SEVERE HANDICAP

Champaign, Ill., April 15—(ANP)—Nearly 110 Negro students at the University of Illinois face the cheerless prospect of two more school months without a satisfactory place to eat near the campus. The University cafeteria, an experimental laboratory located in the Woman's building on the campus, is the only place in which they may eat and this place has two disadvantages—the price of a complete meal is prohibitive to most colored students and lunch is the only meal served.

The nearest place for the students to secure proper food is located twenty blocks from the campus. This distance makes it impossible for them to eat lunch and be present for one o'clock classes. Consequently they must eat bakery products, confections or fruit purchased from street vendors. For their evening meal they are forced to crowd into one small restaurant or cook for themselves. In both instances many valuable hours are lost that could be utilized in study.

This situation has existed since the closing of the Co-Operative restaurant last December. This cafe was used by members of both races, but closed because of mounting financial losses. Recently four Negro students attempted to secure food at a campus confectionery, but service was refused them. A damage suit totaling $2,000 resulted from this alleged act. The suit was filed in circuit court through Attorneys George Neuhitt and Edward B. Tules, Chicago, former students in the university.

PROPHYLAXIS

Chilling of any portion of the body and excessive fatigue both lower the resistance to the infection and should be avoided, especially during inclement months. The crowding together of large numbers of people in closed spaces help to facilitate the spread of the disease. It has been estimated that over 40,000,000 working days are lost annually because of colds, grippes, and flu-involving loss in wages and salaries of at least $120,000,000. This enormous yearly loss has caused anxiety on the part of science, employer, and employee. Intramuscular injections of vaccines building up a patient's resistance to the common cold is being used to a decided advantage in many cases by causing a decrease in the number and severity of colds. This immunization may be carried on without any inconvenience to the patient from his daily routine. These immunizations should begin during late summer or early fall.

IS THE COMMON COLD PREVENTABLE

To draw a sharp distinction between common colds, grippes and influenza is almost futile; they are different manifestations of one and the same thing, and successful treatment of all three is prevention and the successful prophylaxis of their complications.

Cold and grippes occur with greatest frequency during winter, and spring while influenza shows no predilection for season and may occur any time causing the well known symptoms of "cold in head", headaches, chilliness, pains all over the body, especially in back and legs, loss of these symptoms largely determine the diagnosis; if the attack is mild with the symptoms confined chiefly to the head and eyes, it is a cold, if severe grippes; if very severe and occurring during and epidemic, it is influenza.

FATHER DIVINE SUE

New York, N. Y.—Harlem's Negro God is having more "angel" trouble in his "heaven." Mrs. Barbara Jones, middle aged white housewife, sued Father Divine for $2,315, an amount she claims was given him to take her an "angel."

She further says that she was lured to the "heaven" in 1928 on his promise to "bless her," give her "everlasting life," but instead was seduced by the prelate at Sayville, New York. The process server was disguised as an "angel of peace."

With the surrender of John Hunt, 33, one of the white disciples, who is charged with the Mann act in the seducing of Delight Jewett, 17 year old white girl, G-Men, it is claimed, are

L. T. W.—I want to know if the girl I love cares anything for me? I read your paper weekly and find many interesting facts in it.
Ans.—The young lady in question enjoys your company, but she is also interested in another boy, whom I believe that you are acquainted with. Due to her extreme youth, she will not make up her mind to marry anyone within the next few years.

H. L. W.—Why is it that I do not have any success at anything that I do? Will I do better?
Ans.—You will, yes, so keep plugging. You haven't been able to put your whole heart into your work and unless you do so, you can't succeed. Before the middle of summer you will be making a better salary than you have made in several years.

B. N.—Why do I dream of this certain man so many times? Also tell me is my husband jealous of me?
Ans.—The man in question will never mean anything to your future life nor will any of the dreams that you had about him come to pass. You keep him on your mind and in all probability this is why you dream of him so much. Yes, your husband is jealous and don't you think he has reason to be?

A. L. E.—My husband drinks and stays out late and he tells me that he is just out having fun with men. Am I right in accusing him of the parties I have in mind?
Ans.—He is having fun all right, and don't think for one minute that he isn't. However, it is cheap fun which will grow monotonous to him. He is not associating with your cousins. They wouldn't have him.

L. O. W.—I feel so down-hearted and lonely sometimes I feel that I am just forgotten by every one, especially by the opposite sex. What should I do?
Ans.—Make friends. Of course you are lonely and there isn't any reason for it. Take a more active
