Commander Colmery Asked to Probe Actions of Dixie Group

DELEGATION SEEKS TO FIND OUT IF ORGANIZATION WAS "BUNCH OF REDS" Atlanta, Ga., May 6—A protest has been registered with National Commander Harry W. Colmery of the American Legion upon the invasion in Atlanta, Ga., April 23rd of the N. A. A. C. P. regional meeting by a group of men who said they were representing the American Legion of Atlanta. During the speaking by J. L. LeFlore, secretary of the Mobile, Ala. branch and a director of the regional conference, in the Congregational church, thirty white men marched in and took seats near the front of the auditorium. Several of them wore legionnaire caps.

At the conclusion of Mr. LeFlore's speech one of the men, later identified as W. S. Van Dyke, who is head of the Atlanta chapter of the legion, arose and began questioning the speaker with the purpose of establishing that the N. A. A. C. P. is a communistic organization. Mr. LeFlore denied this.

Before the legionnaire could continue reading from a list of questions he had prepared, Clarence Mitchell, former member of the staff of the Afro-American, who is now studying in Atlanta, arose and delivered a brief talk upon the purposes of the N. A. A. C. P. The legionnaires were so startled by this straightforward and fearless speech that the leader sat down without asking any more questions.

When Mr. Mitchell finished his talk, A. T. Walden, a director of the N. A. A. C. P., arose and said:

Open Air Dance Hall to be Razed

UNION PARK PAVILION SCENE OF FESTIVITIES

By the Staff Writer

In the passing of the Union park dance pavilion, which is to be razed soon, will go the memories of not only the revelry of the gay nineties of Lee township night livers, but a landmark of the Negro social minded folk, also one place where they were always welcome.

Old timers will recall the numerous dances, twice or thrice weekly, to the big time jazz bands of the age during the pre-depression days. Swanky social affairs of the elite were given at the open-air palace of former days.

More colored orchestras (many of them at the top now) appeared there than any other place in Iowa, it is estimated. A popular young men's club chose this spot annually for their yearly summer formal party to which guests were invited from throughout the state and middle west.

Mother's Day Sunday May 9th

Twenty Three Years Ago May 9, 1914, President Wilson's proclamation declared a second Sunday in May to be observed as Mother's Day. The idea originated with Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, in 1907 and Philadelphia was the first to observe the day May 10, 1908.

Dearest name in all the earth is mother! Every noble thought has birth by mother! She can wipe away the tears, She can banish all our fears, And the whole wide world reveres, a mother!

The first word that children speak is mother! And the last—when ill and weak—is mother!

In her arms all men find peace, And her labors never cease, Till God brings heaven's sweet release to mother!

Father Divine's Angel Mary Will Tell All to Jury

PROMISES TO BLOW LID OFF

New York City, May 6—(Special)—The mysterious workings of Father Divine's cult, the huge sums of money he has made, and where it is stored promised to blow off the lid this week when a grand jury in Kingston county begins its probe of "God's" movement.

Four surprise witnesses are expected to furnish startling revelations which, if proven true, will in all probability cause Uncle Sam to step in and ask the noted "Messiah" to show cause why he shouldn't be sent to the federal penitentiary for evading payment of his income tax.

Father Divine is facing his greatest test now, and his followers, who have unbelievable faith in him, say that he will come through with flying colors. This, however, is yet to be seen, because "Faithless Mary," angel No. 1, is doing all in her power to have the cult leader swept from his kingdom.

DR. KING STAYS AT ST. MARK'S

ADDRESSES GROUP

New York, May 6—(C)—Dr. Lorenzo H. King, who fought bitterly the proposed unification of the M. E. churches, charging that the plan segregates the Negro, was sent back to his post at St. Mark's M. E. church in Harlem for another year by the New York conference last week. It had been feared that Dr. King might be removed from the charge for daring to oppose the plan.

War is Made on Funeral 'Racket'

'CONVICTION AND WORKHOUSE SENTENCE' IS SLOGAN OF DRIVE LEADERS

St. Louis, Mo., May 6—Conviction and Workhouse Sentence is the slogan of the St. Louis Undertakers association, in their heated campaign to rid this city of "funeral racketeers," who are polluting the profession.

A precedent was established April 29, when Judge James W. Griffin of the court of criminal correction sentenced Lehman Turner, 37, alias "Scrap" to thirty days in the city workhouse on a charge of embalming without license.

COSMETOLOGY BOARD REFUSES TO EXAMINE COLORED GIRLS WITH WHITES

Cleveland, May 6—(ANP)—Condoning the discriminatory practices of the Carter hotel management, the Ohio cosmetology board refused to examine thirty-five colored girls here as scheduled. Receiving admittance notices from the Columbus office, three girls went to the Carter hotel on the day designated for the exams to be held. The management told Miss Heslin and Mrs. Bruce of the state examining board that he would not permit colored girls to be examined in his hotel.

Board members proceeded to examine the white girls present and informed the colored girls they would have to take their examinations in another place, suggesting the Williams School of Cosmetology, from which most of the girls had graduated.

BLOCK PLAN TO PITCH

A LOUIS CAMP Lake Geneva, Wis., May 6—Opposition from residents of the summer resort located here has just about wrecked whatever plans the Joe Louis management had for pitching camp here. The Bombers' managers, John Roxborough and Julian Black, had announced the acceptance of the local school grounds for training, but the home owners said "no."

Sanction for pitching the camp here had already been gotten from the mayor and the chamber of commerce. Mr. Black, reached at his offices in Chicago, said he was very much surprised to find opposition to the camp, having been invited to train there.

Edward Dunn, a member of the chamber of commerce advisory committee, notified Black later today that the protest did not represent Lake Geneva "citizens' sentiments. "That protest was just the work of a few old women who don't even live in the city," Dunn said. "They have homes on the upper end of the lake."

GAVAGAN PRAISES ORGANIZED FIGHT FOR ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

New York, May 6—Home for a brief time in his New York office, Congressman Joseph A. Gavagan, who pushed his anti-lynching bill

Washington, D. C., May 6—A declaration that the senate is laying aside the anti-lynching bill and using it to trade for votes in support of the president's supreme court plan was made this week by Paul Mallon, one of the best informed political writers here, in his syndicated column, "News Behind the News." Mallon declares this use of the anti-lynching bill for trading purposes, with other reasons, makes passage "more doubtful."

It appears that in the desperate fight to win votes for the change in the supreme court, some few votes are being won over by a promise that if the opponents of the anti-lynching bill will vote for the court plan, the court plan supporters will agree to block the anti-lynching bill.

Workers for the anti-lynching bill could not verify this procedure, as no senator, naturally, would admit it, but there is a very great possibility that something of this sort may delay the anti-lynching bill if the supporters back home do not speak up to their senators through letters and telegrams.

Letters should be sent to Senator Wagner and Senator Frederick Van Nuys at the senate office building here pledging their support from the country in the militant fight they will make to get the bill up for a vote. Editors and readers of the Negro press are urged to send in editorials asking passage of the bill to their own two senators and to Senators Wagner and Van Nuys.

National Survey Being Made on Color Status

MICHIGAN, KENTUCKY POSITIVE ON 'WHAT IS A NEGRO'

Chicago, May 6—(ANP)—Both Michigan and Kentucky have definite ideas on what constitutes a Negro in those states, according to statements of their attorney generals made in connection with a nationwide survey conducted by the Associated Negro Press.

At the same time, similar officials in Wisconsin, California and Massachusetts declared those commonwealths had no legal definitions or statutes telling what percentage of Negro blood is necessary to classify an individual officially as a Negro.

Altogether thirty-five states have stated their positions, reactions of the first thirty being given in a previous article.

Accordingly a person with one-fourth or more Negro blood is classified in Michigan as a Negro, while a person with less than one-fourth colored blood is legally considered white.

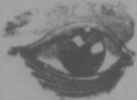

Kentucky, despite its laws preventing intermarriage and mixed schools, has no statute of its own defining "Negro," but has incorporated, like Michigan, the Virginia interpretation which calls a person with one-fourth or more Negro blood a Negro and those with less than one-fourth Negro blood white persons.

TROUBLES LOOM AS WOMEN ANGELS REVOLT, CULT LEADER NABBED IN STABBING EPISODE, LOS ANGELES FOLLOWER FACES TRIAL ON MANN ACT

New York, April 29—(ANP)—Has Father Divine, shrewd cult leader known as "God" to thousands of white and colored followers from coast to coast, come to the end of his trail? Will his extensive "heavens" crumble into dust or is he smart enough to thwart law action on many fronts and thereby more firmly control "disciples" of his delirious which would mean added followers?

These questions loomed big this week, not only in Harlem but throughout the nation, as the spotlight focused on the mysterious activities of the man who has baffled the entire country and has successfully warded off previous efforts to ruffie his "holy clam." What causes many to believe Father Divine is at the end of his trail are these developments of the past week:

1. Arrest of Father Divine Thursday night, on the tip of a woman follower, for felonious assault in the stabbing of Harry Green, white man, last Monday night in a riot at his Harlem haven.
2. Investigation into the source of coal used to keep his "angels" warm in their mission.
3. Denunciation of Divine's divinity by "Faithful Mary," his "No. 1 angel and so-called wife," and her refusal to give up property held in her name.
4. Refusal of "Mother Divine," his legal wife, to part with property in her name.
5. Suit by Mrs. Barbara Jones, white follower, for 2,315 in which she charges she was forced to submit to intimacies with him.
7. Indictment in California of John W. Hunt, 33, wealthy white official in the movement, for alleged violation of the Mann act with a 17 year old Denver white girl.
- Arrest of Father Divine followed a three day hunt by police. Officers found him hiding in the cellar of a house at Milford, Conn.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for May 9

ABRAHAM A MAN OF PRAYER

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 18:17-32. GOLDEN TEXT—"The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. James 5:16. PRIMARY TOPIC—Abraham Praying for His Neighbors. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Great Man's Prayer. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Praying for Others. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Ministry of Intercession.

Prayer—how many are the books that have been written on that subject and the sermons preached, and yet how little it is actually practiced. One can attract an audience to hear it discussed, but only a handful will come to pray. We as Christians agree that it is God's appointed way of blessing. We put up mottoes such as "Prayer changes things" or "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of," and then (may God forgive us!) we try to change things ourselves. We struggle with problems when we ought to pray.

The lesson of today, from the life of that great hero of faith, Abraham, stresses the importance of intercessory prayer, that is, the giving of ourselves to pray for the temporal and spiritual welfare of others. In an age characterized by a grasping spirit of acquisition for personal advantage it is like a breath from heaven to read of this man's prayer for others.

I. The Nature of Intercessory Prayer.
1. It is a Privilege. Abraham had been honored by a visit from God. The covenant had been renewed, a son had been promised. The three visitors looked out toward Sodom. God who had thus appeared to Abraham in visible form and had shared the hospitality of his home now extends to him the privilege of sharing in God's purpose. How glorious to be on such terms of confidence with God, to know him and to know his will and purpose!

2. It is a Responsibility. "Abraham stood yet before the Lord"—why? To pray for Sodom and Gomorrah. Privilege and responsibility go together. Those who have audience with the King of kings are there to carry the blessed burden of prayer for others. Are we praying for our children, our families, our church, our nation? If not, who will pray?

3. It is Objective, not Subjective. Some modern "religious" leaders would devitalize prayer by making it a sort of spiritual exercise which has only the value of developing our own soul. The prayer room is to them a sort of spiritual gymnasium where the soul develops its strength and a spiritual sense of well-being floods the soul. Undoubtedly the very fellowship with God which is inherent in prayer is spiritually beneficial, but prayer actually deals with such things as cities, men, sin, sorrow. It concerns men's physical well-being, their material prosperity, as well as their spiritual welfare. It is the means designated by God for the release of his power on behalf of the object for which we pray.

II. Characteristics of Intercessory Prayer.

1. Unselfish. Abraham already had his promise and his blessing. The cities of the plain were wicked, yet he prayed for them. Those who know the spirit of God are not selfish in prayer.
2. Courageous. Note the reverent boldness with which Abraham pleaded the cause of the condemned cities. The Bible reveals that God honored men who had a holy courage. History tells the same story. We celebrate this year the centenary of one who prayed boldly—and believed, and labored—Dwight L. Moody.
3. Persistent. No one likes a "quitter." Christ spoke of a man who was heard for his importunity (Luke 11:8). See also Luke 18:1-8. Some one has said that when we pray we are all too often like the mischievous boy who rings the doorbell and runs away without waiting for an answer.

III. Results of Intercessory Prayer.

The cities were destroyed, but the righteous were saved. God hears and answers prayer. This is the testimony of His Word, of countless Christian men and women of all ages, yes, of the men and women of our day. We know by experience that it is true—"I cried; he answered." He says to you and to me, "Call unto Me and I will answer thee and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not" (Jer. 33:3).

No Reason for Anxiety
Anxiety is the poison of life; the parent of many sins and of more miseries. Why, then, allow it when we know that all the future is guided by a Father's hand!—Blair.

A Long Life
He lives long that lives well, and time is spent is not lived, but lost.—Fuller.

Letters of appreciation for Mr. Gavgagan's work may be addressed to him at the new house office building, Washington, D. C. Good-will Delegation Returns From Haiti

GROUP HEADED BY MAJOR WRIGHT ACCLAIMED BY ISLAND OFFICIALS

Mission to Country Is Successful As Men Plan to Aid Business and Tourist Development

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Calvin Service)—The first Good-Will Delegation of leading American Negroes ever to visit the Republic of Haiti for the purpose of seeking ways and means of promoting the economic interests of the inhabitants of the two countries, and especially seeking a way Negro Americans can cooperate with their brothers of the Caribbean, has returned with glowing reports of the possibilities of the country, and vowing that they have decided to promote, as far as possible, the tourist trade of American Negroes to Haiti, and the sale of Haitian products, and particularly coffee, in the United States.

Led by Major R. R. Wright, Sr., president of the Citizens & Southern Bank and Trust Company of Philadelphia, who three years ago visited Haiti and decided that the country offered splendid economic and commercial opportunities for the American Negro—and immediately organized the "Haitian Coffee and Products Trading Company," the delegation was composed of C. C. Spaulding, banking and insurance executive of Durham, N. C.; Attorney W. H. C. Brown of Newport News, Va.; Elder L. S. Michaux of Washington, D. C.; Attorney S. D. McGill and A. L. Lewis, insurance executive, both of Jacksonville, Fla.

Major Wright, who has become the largest distributor of pure and unblended Haitian coffee in the United States, began organizing the party last December when C. F. Madison of Port-au-Prince, one of the largest Haitian exporters of coffee, wrote that his company had long "tried to find an American market for Haitian coffee but without success, and it looked like Major might be the one to do the job successfully." Mr. Madison and other Haitian exporters hailed with pleasure the visit of prominent American Negro businessmen on their visit or tour of inspection. The party sailed from New York on the S. S. Columbia on April 1, and arrived in Port-au-Prince on April 5.

A. A. Alexander, contractor and engineer of Des Moines, Iowa, was a member of a similar tour taken by prominent business men of United States to Haiti in 1934.

UTMOST PRESSURE ON SENATE URGED FOR ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

New York, April 29.—While the forces which were victorious in driving the Gagan anti-lynching bill through the house are jubilant over their success and are tackling the senate undaunted, they point out that there are two very real dangers facing the bill in the upper house. One is the prolonged and bitter fight over the president's supreme court plan. The other is the direct filibustering on the anti-lynching bill itself.

In the senate the bill is known as the Wagner-Van Nuys bill (S. 1709). It differs only slightly from the Gagan bill and an adjustment between the two is expected to be a simple procedure.

The N. A. A. C. P. this week urged a steady barrage of letters, telegrams, petitions and resolutions be sent to senators impressing upon them the desire of the country for this legislation.

NO "OFFICIAL" CORONATION COLOR BAR IN HOTELS

London, April 29.—(ANP)—Several London hotels are putting on a "color bar" for the coronation. Unlike America, when the English start their Jim-crow act, they have to begin with the Indians and go down the line of colonial to the Africans. Or up, as you choose. There does not seem to be half the emphasis on "race" here as there is on "color." In other words, all non-whites are given the boot in much the same fashion as old Ned, at home, is given 't, all by himself.

Nashville, Tenn.—The N. A. A. C. P. is not defeated by the decision of Chancellor J. Bejach of the Shelby county court, April 16, in Memphis, Tennessee, dismissing the petition for mandamus brought by William B.

Redmond II against the University of Tennessee to compel the University of Tennessee to accept his application for admission to the School of Pharmacy.

Chancellor Bejach ruled that Redmond had filed his suit prematurely, and that it was not a violation of the Fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States for the state of Tennessee to provide pharmaceutical instruction for white students and make no provision for Negroes.

Tip of Nose Is Center of Balance, Writer Says

The center of all balance is in the tip of the nose.

By balance I mean physical, psychic, spiritual—all three, observes a writer in the New York Sun. The nose is a most despised feature in Occidentals, and yet there is no other organ so quick to register like and dislike, no other with such a tenacious memory, no other more indicative of character. "Count noses" is a very elementary way of arriving at a decision. A ring in a bull's nose, or even a stick without an end, will tame the wildest animal. A skater, a ballet dancer, a skier, an army man, all know this fact instinctively. The ideal nose combines both the eagle and the hound. Too straight a nose, without a saving humorous tip, means fanaticism, too aquiline a nose means a grasping nature, too upturned a frivolous one.

A psychically disturbed person, one who is always and more and more in a hurry, who goes in great Catherine wheels over the universe till he is dizzy, can be checked by concentrating on the end of his own nose.

Try it and see. It polarizes and concentrates the nervous energy. It gives one a sense of the lode star, as the bow of a boat always swings with the tide, but comes back to balance, the arrow flies straight, the man bows to his Maker.

Poison in Berries and Leaves of Some Garden Plants

According to a Home Gardening expert, many common plants contain dangerous poisons, warns a writer in Pearson's London Weekly. There is deadly prussic acid in leaves and roots of arum lilies, in the cherry laurel. Another acidic poison, oxalic acid, is contained in the berries of the hollyhock species. The poisonous cytisine is found in butcher's broom berries, and in laburnum seeds, while Christmas roses are dangerous on account of helleborin in them. Every part of the common daisy, and the sticky juice of the dandelion stem, are also poisonous.

Digitalin, a deadly drug, is contained in foxglove leaves, while holly berries hold several poisons. People are also warned against the ivy berries, which are full of hederin. Lupin seeds contain lupinine, and the berries of Daphne, daphniphyllin. The entire monkshood plant is impregnated with aconitine, and poppy heads are full of morphine, the chief narcotic agent in opium. Finally, the yew is dangerous on account of its taxine content. Taxine is a poison which causes suffocation.

MISSISSIPPIAN, 67 YEARS OLD, TO BE A HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE

Jackson, Miss., April 29—(ANP)—A living example of the truth of the old bromide, "it's never too late to learn," Jefferson Davis of the Finks county, 67 years old and a senior student at Campbell high school here, will graduate on May 27th, thus completing another chapter in his educational career which began at the age of 12, six years after the death of his mother. He has pursued his high school studies for eight years.

Born on the same date as martyred President Lincoln, Tobias has had tough sledding in his quest of learning, reference which elicited this comment: "When I was 22 years old, I couldn't read a newspaper. I mean I didn't know how to turn the pages because I didn't know which way the writing went. But now, nobody can buy these eight years from me. They're the best work I ever done." During his long period of study the aged student continued his work on his farm and daily walker to his classes rain or shine. He is extremely popular with his classmates.

UNITED AUTOMOBILE WORKERS UNION HITS JIM-CROW

Detroit, April 29—The United Automobile Workers union, a part of the C. I. O., will not tolerate segregation and will fight for the rights of Negro workers in every way, according to a statement by Homer Martin, president, in a letter to the N. A. A. C. P.

Mr. Martin's letter, addressed to Roy Wilkins, N. A. A. C. P. assistant secretary, was in answer to an inquiry concerning alleged separate Negro locals being organized in the Ford plant and alleged omission of Negro Chrysler workers from the seniority rule.

Where Columbus Once Lived One of the famous ancient monuments of Savona, Italy, is the Pancaldo tower, which overlooks the harbor and was built to guard it at night. In 1684 the tower was ornamented by a clock and a statue of the Madonna, the latter facing the sea. Close by one encounters a small square, the Piazza Colomba. On the right-hand side of this square, as one faces the harbor, stands a tall, narrow dwelling, with a tablet on its wall stating that Columbus lived here for many years.

Looking Over the Hawkeyes

By A. Braddie Morris

Hello everybody! How is every one since the last time that we had the pleasure of meeting? Things have been going pretty slow around this small college town. The only scene of action seems to be the city hall in Iowa City, where there are two city councils and both claim that they are the rightful possessors of the council seats. The defeated faction claims that bribery was used in the past election to secure the needed votes for a majority.

In the field of sports, Iowa ran away with Minnesota on Saturday in their first outdoor dual meet of the season. Eugene Skinner placed third in the 100 yard dash and third in the 220 yard dash. Edward Wiggins placed second in the 100 yard dash and fourth in the 220 yard dash. Homer Harris placed third in shot-put after about a month's inactivity. Next week there is the annual Iowa intercollegiate meet here at Iowa City. It is expected to be one of the best in years. A great battle is expected between George Robinson of Drake and Skinner and Wiggins of Iowa in the sprints.

The military department is preparing for federal inspection day, May 7th, and Governor's day, May 15th. We are getting plenty of good drilling. The spring party is next week. The invitations are being mailed and we look forward to a swell time and a good representation from Des Moines and all the rest of the towns and cities within traveling distance. Your campus correspondent, J. B. M., Jr.

Nature Supplies Power and Ice From Volcanoes

Sometimes Nature supplies power for nothing. The people of Lardarello, in the Province of Pisa, Italy, live at the foot of an active volcano. Every unit of heat, power, and light used in the town is obtained from its fiery interior, thus saving the citizens endless expense and taxation. In addition from "blow holes" in the hillsides, relates a writer in London Answers Magazine. The people of Styria, Austria, live beside another kindly mountain. This is "Der Erzberg," the Iron Mountain, which is 5,000 feet high and contains about 300,000,000 tons of iron ore—fifty per cent of its volume. There is another iron mountain in Sweden—Kilruvavara—which is 2,455 feet high and contains more high-grade iron than any other equal area on earth, for seventy per cent is pure iron. Needless to say, both these mountains have been exploited by the communities who live in the vicinity. Nature has also her own gasworks. Medicine Hat, in Alberta, has for years obtained gas and light from inexhaustible subterranean generating stations. There are a number of wells which supply fifty miles of houses and streets. Welland, Ontario, also has a natural gas supply, and so has some of the Mid-Western of the United States, but in the latter case gas is sent by pipeline from Texas—where the wells are—800 miles away. Mexico has a volcano that produces ice. This is Colima, which sometimes bursts into activity. By some freak, huge hailstones fall continuously round the crater. These are collected in special bins, conveyed to distant towns, and sold in cafes and hotels.

Spiked Boots Ban Saved Traverse City Sidewalks

His boots were as sacred to a lumberjack in Michigan's boom timber era as a saddle to a cowboy, but the loggers couldn't wear them in Traverse City, reveals a Traverse City correspondent in the Detroit Free Press. The city passed an ordinance providing a maximum fine of $10 or 10 days in jail for the lumberman who was found wearing spiked boots in the city limits. In the '80s and the '90s, there was a good reason for the rule. Traverse City sidewalks then were constructed of wood. After a couple of instances when the city had laid a sidewalk of new white pine and three or four hundred rivermen had come off a drive and riddled it with their spiked boots the city decided to call a halt. The boots, made of the finest kangaroo skin and costing as much as $45 a pair, were purchased in the fall. Through the winter the loggers treated them carefully with mutton tallow, but they never wore them until spring when the drive started. Then the boots went on and stayed on for as long as two months. Why the loggers insisted on water-proof boots when they spent most of the working day waist-deep in the water hasn't been explained.

Eloquence of Chief John Logan

In addition to Chief John Logan's famous speech that has been given a permanent place in our histories, he also once wrote a letter that, while it is far from the speech in eloquence, it has nevertheless been held up as one of the finest things done by an Indian, says a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Dated July 21, 1774, it was fastened to a war club and left in the cabin of a slain settler. It read: "What did you kill my people on Yellow Creek for? The white people killed my kin at Comestoga a great while ago, and I thought nothing of that. But you killed my kin again on Yellow Creek, and took my cousin in prisoner. Then I thought I must kill, too, and I have been three times to war since, but the Indians are not angry, only myself."

Women Dream More Than Men, Experiments Reveal

Amateur psychologists at Westminster college, reports a New Wilmington, Pa., United Press correspondent, in the Chicago Daily News, decided on the basis of questionnaires and experiments that: Food does not cause bad dreams. Women sleep more lightly and dream more than men, and remember their dreams more vividly. Dreams do not forecast future events.

In a series of experiments members of psychology classes learned that external stimuli stimulate dreams which are definitely connected with the external forces. For instance, icebags placed on the head of one victim caused her to dream that she was sick in a hospital and that the nurse was applying ice packs. Another one dreamed she was caught in a freezing windstorm. The experimenters held a bottle of perfume under a girl's nose, caused her to dream that she was in a shop buying perfumes and testing them by smell. Another girl dreamed she was driving on a road lined with magnolia trees in full bloom. The research workers said they found that men were less susceptible to outside influences in their dreams.

Marks of Past Illness Shown by Hair and Nails

Signs of past illness often remain long after the illness has ended. These are to be found where the circulation is poorest, viz., in the hair and the nails, says a writer in Pearson's London Weekly. After a severe illness, you will often find that a ridge appears running across the nail and growing with it, advancing towards the free end as the nail gets longer. This is due to the fact that the illness has absorbed a good deal of the patient's strength and the circulation, in consequence, has not been sufficient to nourish the nails properly. When anyone gets run down in general health, the nails frequently suffer in other ways, especially if the condition is a chronic one. They may become brittle and crack easily, while sometimes they are pitted with small holes as though they had been worm-eaten. To restore the appearance of the nails you must, of course, first restore the general health. The principal cause of the debility must be treated, and when this has been done improvement in the circulation follows. As soon as the nails begin again to get proper nourishment they quickly regain their healthy look.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant. Either because of stomach distastefulness, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance. But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome an offensive mouth odor due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces. This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odor, and then counteracts the odor themselves. Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

WE CAN'T AGREE

Recently a prominent citizen of Des Moines volunteered his advice to Negroes seeking accommodation in public places. He is a reader of the Bystander and is pretty well acquainted with the social, political and economic position of Negroes having grown up among them and is now occupying a position where he meets all classes.

The gentleman cited the fact that if he owned a restaurant or theatre he would be pleased to accommodate Negroes but knew that if he did his business would not pay. He said further that Negroes make mistakes when they attempted to enforce the civil rights law as it was impossible to legislate on these matters until the state of mind of the public was such that it would accept abedience to the law.

The Bystander does not agree with either of these two propositions. It is terrible for soldiers to kill one another and yet nobody doubts that we have fought some wars that were perfectly justifiable. The killing of the soldiers was merely incidental to the big job of winning the war. So it is true with the color of the skin of patrons at public places. The problem must be solved.

As to the second proposition, experience has taught that if we had no safeguard to check human nature, it runs wild. It is true here, for at times some people would like to push the Negro off the earth but they dare not break the law too much. And if these civil rights cases were not tried nobody would know what the law is. It is true that public opinion cannot be rushed to fast but on the other hand problems must be tried in order to get us accustomed to solving them.

PROD SENATOR HEERING

As far as The Bystander is able to determine, Senator Heering has not expressed a willingness to support the anti-lynching bill in congress. Senator Gillett came out for it at the beginning of the session.

Senator Heering said he wanted to study the bill, but this word was received three months ago. What he meant was that he was waiting to see which way the wind was blowing.

To further explain this position, the senator means he wants to know whether it is to his advantage politically and of course what President Roosevelt wants done.

The Bystander suggests that Iowan's send Senator Herring a few letters, telegrams and petitions expressing their approval of the bill and urging that he support it. And The Bystander still thinks that the senator will respond favorably.

The New Deal legislation has just about destroyed all state lines except the imagination. And strange as it may seem the very men who have fought for the doctrine of state rights have been instrumental, by virtue of their positions of leadership in congress, in performing the job.

But they forgot all of their advocacy of New Deal legislation when the anti-lynching bill was up for debate in the house for they debated just as loud as ever that the law was unconstitutional because it destroyed state rights.

CLEAN UP

Now that the rains have ceased—temporarily we hope—every body who has a yard has a standing invitation to rake, dig and shovel in order to grow pretty lawns and flower gardens for the summer as well as to get rid of the accumulated ashes and rubbish which were not hauled away during the winter.

Nobody wants to live next to a fellow who does not keep his place up for a shabby unkempt yard not only detracts from the looks of the owner's place but does the same thing to that of his neighbor. Further it invites poor neighbors into the community and either makes it impossible to finance home buying or the job so difficult that the loans are inadequate.

Brooms, rakes and shovels are cheap. Soap and water are plentiful. Pitch in and see if your lawn can't be the best in the block this year. You will be proud of it and the improvement will add to the looks of our city as well as to your neighborhood.

A. C. P. and former president of the Atlanta branch, also spoke, outlining in direct fashion the purposes of the association and stating unequivocally that it was for the purpose of securing equality for Negro Americans under the constitution and the laws of the various states.

Given Literature

After Mr. Walden had finished, the delegation arose and left the church, explaining that they had come because they thought the N. A. A. C. P. was a "bunch of reeds." They were given literature of the association and invited to become acquainted with its purposes.

Notwithstanding the incident of Friday night, April 23, the closing mass meeting of the regional conference on Sunday afternoon, April 25, was threatened with a police raid because the N. A. A. C. P. was allegedly communistic. Charles H. Houston, special counsel of the association, of New York City, was the speaker at the Sunday afternoon meeting and shortly before the meeting he was arrested by the police.

Police Attend
They sought immediately to reach the police authorities by telephone, but were unable to talk to any responsible police official. Thereupon they visited the police station and found the chief there. The chief told them he had heard that the association was "red" and that no "red" activities would be permitted in Atlanta.

After a conference, the chief attended the meeting himself and came with a squad of officers. They were invited to become members.

CHICAGO NEGRO HERO OF JARAMA FRONT IN SPANISH WAR

Madrid, April 29—(CNA)—Among the members of the Lincoln battalion on the Jarama front, Oliver Law, Chicago Negro worker, stands out for his leadership, his coolness and his gallantry, demonstrated at least three times in going over the top under fire. The battalion is composed of American anti-fascists who are aiding the Spanish popular front government forces against the rebel fascist General Franco and his allies, Mussolini and Hitler.

Law was one of a group of Chicago Negroes who enlisted with the Lincoln battalion to help defend Spanish democracy. Most of the group have been killed in battle. The Lincoln battalion is part of the International Brigade, made up of anti-fascists from all parts of the world, which has helped the Spanish people's militia in repelling the fascist attacks on Madrid and in assuming the offensive on all fronts in recent months.

WHITE STUDENTS RETURN AFTER LOSING SCHOOL STRIKE

St. Louis, April 29—(ANP)—Losing their strike begun ten days before to establish a different school district from that including the more heavily enrolled colored school, 360 pupils of the all-white Nuroad public school returned to their classes Wednesday.

A board of arbitration named by County Superintendent of Schools H. G. Russell ruled against the white parents who caused their children to strike in an effort to separate the districts. This board ruled that the white school should remain in the Kinloch school district, which operates a school for colored at South Kinloch park. Strikers contended

I. M. C.—I am a farmer's wife and would like to have some information. There are three or four enterprises I am interested in and which one will I make the most profit from?

C. L. A.—Tell me could I have any success trying to win the girl I have in mind and may I make my introduction to her?

Ans.—It is a sure thing you won't have any success until you try. If possible, arrange a friend to introduce you to her. Don't be backward, timid or bashful, neither too bold. In my opinion she will make a charming companion.

T. A. A.—Does my boy friend care for me as I do for him and will he be married soon and happy?

Ans.—This man is not free to marry anyone. Even though his estranged wife is married again, he has not secured a divorce. A marriage now would not be legal.

L. M. U.—Will I ever get any of the money my brother died owing me last fall? His wife promised to pay me, but now she denies that my brother owed me anything?

Ans.—You could in all probability collect the money if you have a written contract or agreement lawfully executed by your brother. If you do have any such item, then it would be necessary that you take your case to court, otherwise you have no hope unless his wife is willing to pay.

R. G.—Please tell me if any of my relatives are living?

Ans.—You have numerous distant relatives living in several southern states. You could easily locate them without a long search if you will only make an effort. Write your grandmother in Alabama.

S. M. R.—Does this man really mean me well or is he just pretending?

Ans.—If the man was not sincerely interested in you, he would not waste his time with you. After all there are other women that he could go with, so why continue to doubt him and make yourself so unhappy.

Flush Kidneys of Acids and Poisons

Gain in Health and Stop Getting Up Nights

When kidneys are clogged they become weak—the bladder is irritated—often passage is scanty and smarting and burns—sleep is restless and night visits to the bathroom are frequent. The right safe harmless and inexpensive way to stop this trouble and restore healthy action to kidneys and bladder is to get from any druggist a 35-cent box of Gold Medal Harriem Oil Capsules and take as directed—you won't be disappointed. But be sure and get GOLD MEDAL Harriem Oil Capsules—the original and genuine—right from Harriem in Holland—a grand kidney stimulant and diuretic. Remember also that other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble are backache, leg cramps, puffy eyes, moist palms and nervousness.
