N. A. A. C. P. HOLDS UP APPEAL IN U. OF TENNESSEE CASE

New York, June 10.—The N. A. A. C. P. announced today that in view of the fact that the state of Tennessee has enacted a scholarship law providing for the graduate and professional education of Negroes it would not appeal the William B. Redmond case, but would wait to see whether the scholarship law is fairly administered.

Redmond filed suit in 1936 to compel the University of Tennessee to accept his application for the school of pharmacy after the officials of the university had rejected his application solely on the ground he was a Negro. The suit was tried before the chancery court in Memphis in March, 1937, and a decision sustaining the officials of the university handed down in April by the chancellor. The association noted an appeal, but the Tennessee legislature rushed through a scholarship bill which was signed by the governor on May 22.

Montgomery, Ala., June 10.—"We had to lynch somebody, but we didn't get the right man," is their defense. No crime has been committed when a mob lynches a Negro in the state of Alabama, even if it is a case of mistaken identity and the innocent victim is the wrong man." Such was the opinion of the Alabama supreme court in acquitting Sheriff W. L. Corbitt of Henry county Friday.

Corbitt was impeached on charges of negligence, and cowardice in the lynching of Wesley Johnson, who was accused of having attacked a white woman.

It took just thirty-five minutes to free the Dixie lynch sheriff. The decision of the court came in a four to two vote and the oral opinion was announced without comment. Friday marked the third time that Corbitt had been absolved of blame. The court went so far as to ignore the warning of Attorney General Albert A. Carmichael that congress would pass the anti-lynching bill if Alabama doesn't enforce the constitutional clause on lynching.

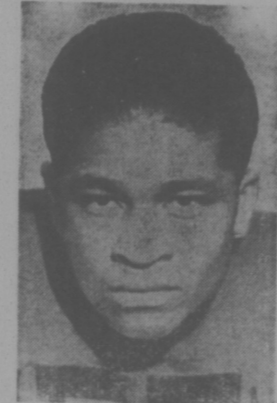

Protest Lodged on R.I. Discrimination

NEGRO BOY SCOUT BARRED FROM JAMBOREE
Newport, R. I., June 10.—A protest has been lodged with the Boy Scouts of America, Inc., by the N. A. A. C. P. upon the reported barring of a colored first class scout in Rhode Island from the National Jamboree, which is to be held in Washington, D. C., beginning June 26th.

The Rhode Island officials told the parents that they felt the southern white scouts would be "very unkind" to the colored boy from Rhode Island. The officials absolutely refused to assume any responsibility in the situation and would promise no protection for the lad whatsoever.

FIND FLORIDANS "NOT GUILTY" IN PEONAGE TRIAL
Jacksonville, Fla., June 10.—(ANP)—With charges of bribery and perjury threatening at times to totally overshadow the main issues in the case, the trial of four white turpentine camp operators ended in verdicts of "not guilty" in Florida's now famous peonage case here this week. The case was tried in a federal court and the defendants had been accused of holding their Negro workers in a state of forced labor, using armed "camp riders" to prevent escapes by the Negro workers.

According to the investigators who visited the alleged peonage camp immediately after the arrest of the white men, not only had the Negroes who complained been subjected to peonage, but dozens of others working in the camp were working under similar conditions. Pay, it was found, was totally dependent upon the amount of it that was spent in the company's commissary; hours were unduly long, and the turpentine workers were constantly threatened with death if they attempted to leave the camp.

TUSKEGEE PRESIDENT LAUDS JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER
Jefferson City, Mo., June 10.—(ANP)—While here last Monday as the commencement speaker at Lincoln university, Dr. F. D. Patterson, president of Tuskegee Institute, paid a glowing tribute to the life and work of the late John D. Rockefeller, and especially his efforts in furthering Negro education. Dr. Patterson declared:

"His deep interest in Negroes and his generous contributions to their education have given heart to the colored people. His direct bequests to certain Negro schools have been notable, and through the general education board and other agencies he contributed munificently to the whole group of the more promising Negro schools and colleges."

Gavagan Measure Action Slated Soon

SENATE MARKS TIME ON ANTI-LYNCHING BILL
Washington, D. C., June 10.—With a report on the Gavagan anti-lynching bill slightly delayed due to the long Memorial holiday week-end, the senate today was still marking time on the measure, although it is freely predicted that some action will be taken this session.

It became apparent this week that congress will be in session until after July 15th and some quarters are predicting the session will last until mid-August. The president's supreme court bill has been withdrawn temporarily, thus clearing the way for action on other legislation, including the anti-lynching bill.

It is expected that it will be favorably reported within a few days by the senate judiciary committee, headed by Senator Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona.

BRUNSWICK, GA., GETS FIRST NEGRO JUROR IN 50 YEARS

Jacksonville, Fla., June 10.—(ANP)—Marking the first time that a Negro has sat on a jury in that section in a half century, William Clark was a member of the grand jury in Brunswick, Ga., a few miles from here, when it returned a protest against the proposed federal anti-lynching bill.

Details of the reason for Clark's vote with the rest of the jurors when they handed down their opposition to the measure are not known. The jury is said to have urged Georgia politicians to vote against the measure when given an opportunity.

Brunswick is in a section that has had lynchings of its own during the past few years.

Boston, Mass., June 10.—(ANP)—A number of local organizations, headed by the Boston branch N. A. A. C. P., are aiding 34 year old Eugene Wilson, in his effort to fight extradition back to the Georgia chain gang, from which he escaped fourteen years ago.

FOUNDED BY CHARLES S. RUFF AND THADDEUS S. RUFF

From the pen of Judge Albion Tousey, a writer of the Chicago Tribune in 1892, came the column called the "Bystander." At the birth of Iowa's only Negro newspaper in the old Register block on June 8, 1894, the Hawkeye state became one of the leaders in the field of Negro journalism. Forty-four years ago Des Moines was greeted with this story:

"Today the Iowa State Bystander makes its initial bow to the public. It will be a REPUBLICAN paper in its politics—The majority of people lynched are southern Negroes, the African race has never produced a traitor. . . . Since the Revolution any period down to the present the colored troops have fought nobly and bravely. . . . What has been their reward?" "The Iowa State Bystander will do all it can to furnish news and give each patron value received. It has entered the field to do an honest and legitimate newspaper business. Our motto is, 'Fear God, tell the truth, and make money.'"

The founders were: Charles S. Ruff, editor; Thaddeus S. Ruff, associate editor; Joseph H. Shepard, manager, and John D. Keeler, treasurer. Ben J. Holmes, E. T. Banks, James Todd, William Coalson, T. E. Barton and Jeff Logan were the directors.

GOV. FRANK MURPHY WILL PRESENT SPINGARN MEDAL
Detroit, Mich., June 10.—As one of the highlights of the twenty-eighth annual conference of the N. A. A. C. P., which meets here June 29-July 4, Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan will formally present the twenty-third Spingarn medal to Walter White on the evening of July 2. A thousand delegates will attend.

The presentation will have a historical significance because it was in Detroit that Mr. White and the then Judge Frank Murphy first became acquainted. Judge Murphy presided at the famous Sweet trial and throughout the long weeks of that trial became acquainted with the work of the N. A. A. C. P. and with its executives. Shortly thereafter he became a member of the board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. and has occupied that position ever since.

The youth section of the N. A. A. C. P. will have a conference at the same time and at least 50 delegates are expected to register for it. This young people will have a special radio broadcast July 1, a dinner for the youth delegates, and after the evening mass meeting, at which the problems of youth will be considered, they will have a dance for the guests.

Other topics to be discussed at the conference include disfranchisement, relief and social security, lynching, Scottsboro case and the Negro worker and the C. I. O.

JOHN HENRY LEWIS STOPS BOB OLIN IN EIGHTH ROUND

St. Louis, Mo., June 10—(Special)—A series of half a dozen hard rights to Bob Olin's jaw midway in the eighth round was enough to give John Henry Lewis, world's champion light heavyweight, a sensational victory over the New York fighter here Thursday night.

Olin went down for the count of seven, struggled to his feet, dazed by the ruthless attack of leather to his head. Lewis, anxious to finish his man, rushed in for the kill and sent another hard right to Olin's jaw and Referee Walter Heiser stopped the bout, declaring Lewis winner by a technical knockout.

Some 12,000 persons witnessed the fight and saw Lewis win easily over the man from whom he snatched the title in October, 1935. Lewis topped the scales at 174. Olin weighed 174½.

BOXING

Those of you who went out to Riverview Park on Monday night to see Pret Ferrar box Frank Battaglia also saw Tony Cianciola flatten Johnny De Cruze. If reliable reports are true, Ferrar, who was kayoed in the fifth round, entered the ring drunk, and De Cruze, who was substituting for a Kansas City boy, could not possibly have been ready.

It's the old story of using our boys to make the white boys look good. They don't seem to care, but if we were fighting we could certainly owe it to our friends and ourselves to be ready when we got in the ring.

Sec Taylor says that Joe Louis is slow, irritable and hard to handle in his training for the world's heavyweight champion, Jim Braddock. He also says that Braddock is really working to get into condition, and from all reports looks better than Joe. We will say this much for Sec, he has never been guilty of not saying just what he thinks, whether any one else agrees or not. He is not tied to any syndicate and doesn't have to build anything up, so he writes his honest opinions. We want Joe Louis to be at his best for his supreme test on June 22. However, when Joe was here we observed that in spite of the fact that he was loafing, he seemed too easy to hit. Bill Ashby says he saw Joe's sparring partners hit him plenty, but one wallop from the Bomber would more than even things up. Joe in perfect condition has two things in his favor; speed and punching power. Braddock is no part of an old man with one foot in the grave, but a tough, courageous thirty-one year old Irishman who wants to go on being champion. When you place your nickels on our boy, keep this in mind and don't give crazy odds.

Montgomery, Ala., June 3—(CNA)—Heywood Patterson, Scottsboro boy under sentence of seventy-five years' imprisonment, was denied constitutional rights in his fourth circuit court trial, defense counsel told the Alabama supreme court last week.

These teams will have to play against Negro clubs when they enter the final payoff, however. The lone criticism of the league's policy is that of barring teams composed of both Negro and white players.

FILM IS FINE PREACHMENT FOR BETTER RACE RELATIONS

Hollywood, June 2—(ANP)—"Penrod and Sam," the new Warner Brothers talkie, remade from the old silent film based on Booth Tarkington's immortal story, is receiving accolades wherever shown. The youthful actors who carry the dramatic parts capably include Billy Mauch, one of the famous Mauch twins, as well as two colored boys, one of whom, Philip Hurlic, practically shares honors with the Mauch lad.

Warner Brothers, who produced the picture, are to be congratulated upon their treatment of the racial angles. Nothing could be more tender than the solicitude of Penrod for Verman's welfare. When his mother speaks of Verman's mother, who was her washerwoman, it is as "Mrs. Diggs." At Penrod's insistence, Verman is "adopted" into his family. Delia, a colored maid, played capably by Bernice Pilot, becomes his foster mother.

It is, however, the fine relationship of the boys, a characterization which should be truly American, that pervades the play and attracts favorable comment. The picture has a wide appeal and grownups enjoy it fully as much as their juniors.

AUTHOR OF BIRTH OF NATION AGAINST ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

New York, June 3—Thomas Dixon, who wrote the Negro-hating novel, "The Clansman," from which was made the motion picture, "The Birth of a Nation," has made a bitter speech against the Gavagan anti-lynching bill at Chapel Hill, N. C., before the Carolina Political Union.

"If we had had any doubt at all about an anti-lynching bill, it is now cleared up," said Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, "for anything concerning Negroes that Tom Dixon opposes must be the thing they ought to have. Another boost was given the bill recently when Senator (That Man) Bilbo of Mississippi stated his undying opposition to it."

HIGH PRESSURE CHURCH METHODS RAPPED BY YOUNG PEOPLE

High pressure methods of making converts were lambasted Sunday at Burns M. E. church as young people discussed "Why don't we go to church." The youths also censured the hypocrisy of so many church leaders and workers.

Some of the chief reasons for not attending church were: "uninteresting sermons, too much stress on finance, lack of attention by elders and general lack of reverence on the part of church members." Sunday the Epworth league plans a trip to Ames to visit the Iowa State College campus.

Clearing My Mind * Jeep Frazier you are positively N. G.—Here sits I around all week with a blank mind depending upon your column and you "no show up"—That's what I tell you about sign boards and stuff . . . For news: The Turner sisters are still top notchers—with Harold R. and Chauncey B. carrying on the good work . . . Charles Boston is home—quite a changed man—my what college does do for one . . . Dick Dobson and Leo Kerford—Two Iowa U. studs stopped thru en route home . . . Incidentally Julia Nell Ship was in the city the one day Leo K. was in town . . . I'm told the local institution will have another new student next fall . . . Another crop of youngsters have received their pieces of paper for which they have diligently worked for 12 years . . . Best of luck June grads . . . Where does James Anderson, Arthelia Watlington, Loretta Blackwell, Verlene Reeves, Mary Brown keep themselves these days—no see, no more . . . Wonder if Arthur Prope, the newest addition at Florsheim's shop could be occupying Verlene's time . . . Noted Charles Allston with Margaret Green—Is this new or am I late? . . . The city is having spring cleaning on my boys here lately around 16th and thereabouts . . . The Howard Realty Company is the newest Negro concern in town with offices at 11th and Center . . . Many of our young people will be connected with it. This column wishes it best of luck—Has anyone else besides yers' trulle noted how rapidly

How can Annabel P., Joe Danforth, Chauncey B. and T. Avant call anyone henpecked? . . . My goodness, the irony of it! To: P. E.
