Georgia Executive Is Angered By Refusal to Extradite Man

Boston, August 12.—(C)—Governor Hurley's letter to Governor Rivers of Georgia, denying the return of James Cunningham to the Georgia chain-gang on the ground that the Georgia prisons are "inhuman," which brought the charge from Georgia that Massachusetts is responsible for subsequent breaks for freedom of white prisoners "who believe if they can get to Massachusetts they will be safe, reads: "There is much evidence of brutality in connection with the punishment imposed by your state during the confinement of the fugitive. It further appeared that the fugitive has been living in this commonwealth for the past twelve years as a citizen of Massachusetts, has married and has borne an excellent reputation during all this period."

Houston Is Elected Nat'l Bar President

GROUP ORGANIZED BY LATE GEO. H. WOODSON OF IOWA PHILADELPHIA. (Special) Charles H. Houston of Washington, D. C., legal counsel head of the NAACP, was elected president of the 13th annual convention of the National Bar Association, Inc. held here this week. Forty-two cities from twenty-one states were represented. This organization was founded by the late Atty. George H. Woodson, pioneer lawyer of Des Moines, Iowa, and was incorporated under the laws of Iowa in 1925.

MRS. S. JOE BROWN ELECTED ON ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

The twentieth biennial session of the National Association of Colored Women, held last week in Fort Worth, Texas, was attended by representatives from forty-two state associations of the six sectional groups. Iowa is a member of the Central association. The opening session was held on Sunday afternoon in the Will Rogers Memorial municipal auditorium. The week day sessions were held in the new Mount Gilead Baptist church, formerly pastored by Dr. L. K. Williams, now of Olivet church, Chicago. At the opening session all of the state presidents, including Mrs. Sarah Jett of Des Moines, Iowa, made reports. During the business sessions Iowa was also much in evidence, as Mrs. S. Joe Brown of Des Moines was the parliamentarian who had to rule upon the many knotty questions that arose, and Mrs. Sophia Nilholms acted as sales agent for the National Woman's Magazine. In the art and draft exhibit Des Moines, Iowa, won the following awards: Prizes First prize—sand sweepstakes blue ribbon on embroidered tablecloth, Mrs. Paris Skanes; first prize on crocheted table cover, Mrs. Chas. P. Howard; first prize on embroidered set, Mrs. Wm. McGruder; first prize on embroidered pillow case, Mrs. Paris Skanes; first prize on hand painting, Mrs. Cornelia Graves; second prize on hand painting, Mrs. Cornelia Graves; second prize on crocheted doily, Mrs. Chas. P. Howard; second prize on scrap book, Hallie Q. Brown; club, and second prize on crocheted pillow case, Mrs. Chas. P. Howard.

Allen Appointed On Police Force

FORMER NORTH HIGH ATHLETE, CROCKER Y. BOARD MEMBER James Allen, well known Crocker Y. M. C. A. athlete, was appointed patrolman for a six month probation period by Safety Commissioner Henry Hasbrouck on Tuesday afternoon in a special meeting. Allen's appointment and those of nine firemen were approved by the city council. Allen, who has been prominent in St. Paul A. M. E. church activities for the past twelve years, is a graduate of North High and was a letterman in football, basketball and track. He was a member of the Crocker Y. M. C. A. Five basketball team and is pitcher for several semi-pro nines in the city. Allen is employed, at present, at the Charles Hewitt & Sons, wholesale grocers. He is married and has two children and is a member of the Y. committee of management.

Victory Predicted

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In a jarring upset of their legislative program to adjourn congress this week, senate administrative leaders were caught flat-footed and while they were in a daze, a motion to debate the anti-lynching bill was passed 27 to 25. A bitter fight is expected today over the measure which the house already has passed. Senator Wagner (Dem., N. Y.) made the motion to take up the bill and pledged to stay with it despite the futile parliamentary moves of his opponents. Washington, D. C., August 12.—The motion to make the Wagner-Van Nuys anti-lynching bill the unfinished business of the senate to be taken up immediately will be made this week by Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, immediately following the vote on the judiciary reform bill, it was announced here today. When the housing bill is voted upon the judiciary bill will be next in line. Unless there should be prolonged attempts to amend the court bill, it should be disposed of in two days. Observers point out, however, that there is no certainty in this schedule, as anything can happen in the rush to adjourn. This week a group of southern senators went on a rampage and emasculated the housing bill. While grabbing millions of dollars for cotton, the southern bloc would deny northern cities money for slum clearance. It was reported this week that a secret plan to move suddenly for adjournment on August 14 was blocked only by the half promise of the white house to nominate a supreme court justice. The senate wanted to debate this and so set off adjournment. All these moves have helped keep alive the fight for the anti-lynching bill. In addition the senators have been flooded by letters and telegrams from individuals and organizations urging action on the bill prior to adjournment. These messages are more necessary now than ever and when the bill comes up for a vote, supporters must be ready to hold their senators on the floor to block any possible trickery by foes of the bill. When the motion to consider is made by Senator Wagner the opposition will probably move to table this motion and here will come the first voting test, as a move to table is not debatable. Senators favoring the bill must be on the floor and ready to vote on this expected move. If they are caught napping the bill will be lost for this session.

killed George Stanford, white, the riding boss and general agent of the R. C. Denny farm, located about six miles from Milan, Tenn. The case has its background in the old sharecropper and farm tenancy system. The Denny plantation consists of more than 1,000 acres. Bledsoe was born on the farm and his father was taken there when a small boy. The riding boss of these large plantations is usually a deputy sheriff and frequently rides the plantation with a pistol on his hip. The white and colored lawyers acting for Bledsoe have stated they will carry on the fight for his freedom to the highest courts, being confident of a reversal.

J. H. McDowell, 79, War Veteran, Dies

SERVED IN 24th INFANTRY; CLASSMATE OF BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

John H. McDowell, 79, of 1211 Center street, veteran fighter in the Indian war, who died Saturday at the U. S. Veteran's hospital in Des Moines, was born in Staunton, Virginia, in the year 1859. When quite a young man he enrolled as a student in Hampton Institute, where he was a classmate of the late Dr. Booker T. Washington; and where he displayed his first aptitude for music, being the first bugler of that now famous institute. In 1875 he enlisted in the United States army and was assigned to the 24th Infantry with which he served during the Indian War; and where he continued his musical studies and was honorably discharged from that now famous regiment with the rank of principal musician in 1880. Mr. McDowell came to Iowa and located at Muchaknock, the all-Negro community then operating near Okaloosa, in Mahaska County and organized the "writing" is not legible.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 12.—President Roosevelt was told this week "one strong word from you might now can practically assure passage of the Wagner-Van Nuys anti-lynching bill before adjournment." The telegram was signed by Walter White, N. A. A. C. P. secretary, who has been here almost continuously since July 10th in the interest of the bill.

Omaha, In the featured event of the afternoon, Van Ginkels' softball team defeated the Hasbrouck Aces, 3 to 2, to capture the trophy and title of Negro city champions. The South Side boys played brilliant ball, with William (Whip-Arm) Ford hurling a masterful game.

The Van Ginkels outfit has made an enviable record this season, defeating some of the fastest white teams in the state, gaining the semi-finals in the city league tournament and placed third in the American League standings. Charles Tolson, former baseball star, is manager.

In expressing appreciation and thanks to the public, Atty. Thompson stated, "Congratulations and thanks are due the many Des Moines organizations that co-operated with the Products club in the promotion of this celebration." It will be an annual event, he told the press in his praise for its excellent publicity.

'Prophet' From Paducah Claims African Ancestry

ON WAY TO SUPPLANT FATHER DIVINE—WILL ALSO ADVISE PRES. ROOSEVELT

Cincinnati, Aug. 12—(ANP)—"Dr." J. H. Oden, who describes himself as an "American Ethiopian prince" and claims descent from King Solomon as well as being a cousin to Haile Selassie, stopped off at Mayor Wilson's office Tuesday and told his plans for the future.

The prophet from Paducah, Ky., resplendent in a golden turban and a purple, gold-fringed robe worn over a brown business suit, said he would preach for a week in Cincinnati, and then would visit President Roosevelt in Washington, advising him how to save the world for democracy before continuing to New York, where he plans to chase Father Divine out of business.

The Harlem Messiah is deceiving the people, declared the prophet from Paducah, by telling them they will live forever and at the same time permitting them to eat pork. Only by eating grains in oil and by right thinking can one become immortal, Dr. Oden advised. The prophet said he could solve any problem, including sidown strikes, for which he would substitute picnics.

UNION DELEGATE SITS IN COUNCIL IN TEXAS

Beaumont, Texas, Aug. 5—(ANP)—History was made here in Texas recently when for the first time a white union labor delegate met with white delegates of the International Theatre and Stage Employees union of Texas. The only colored delegate among nearly a hundred whites, Lee A. Lewis, business agent for local 279, a colored union of Houston, affiliated with the A. F. of L., was accepted freely and openly at this state convention.

Scheduled to be held at a local white hotel, the coming of Lewis caused the hotel management to learn at his presence. White delegates told the management that if Lewis could not enter the premises, then

as Remodeled by French

The English units of measurement have evolved gradually from the simple standards used by the English peasants and artisans a thousand years ago. Prior to the French revolution, in fact, the standards of all nations were based on the rude units developed by primitive peoples, writes Dr. Thomas M. Beck in the Chicago Tribune.

In 1790 the French government appointed a commission to place the weights and measures of France on a decimal basis. This step involved the discarding of the old units and the adoption of new ones. As there was nothing sacred about the toise and the livre and the rest of the old units, the commission could arbitrarily have chosen any stick and stone in France to be the new standards of length and weight. In actual practice, however, it is desirable to have such standards based on certain known and indestructible quantities, so that if all yardsticks and weights in the land were destroyed in some catastrophe, they could soon be reproduced.

For the measurement of length the commission chose the most indestructible thing available, the earth. The unit of length, the meter, was defined as one ten-millionth of the distance from the equator to the north pole along the meridian passing through Paris. Ten meters were defined as a decimeter, 100 meters as a hectometer, and 1,000 meters as a kilometer. Among the sub-multiples, a meter was defined as 10 decimeters, 100 centimeters, and 1,000 millimeters. The new units of area and volume were the squares and cubes of these lengths.

Pole Dances Stir Indian

Braves of Mexican Towns

Of those age-old rites which survive among the Indians of the mountain villages in Mexico, one of the most interesting and spectacular is the strange dance of the flying pole. In a symbolism centuries old, the performers dance at the top of a tree trunk as tall as a ship's mast, then "fly" to earth on long, unswinging ropes.

When the Otomi Indians performed the dance at Pahuatla, says a correspondent in the Detroit News, they wore bright-red costumes and two bandannas crossed in the back gave vague resemblance to wings. Five were dressed as men and the sixth as a woman.

In the center of the bustling plaza towered the flying pole, almost 70 feet high. A thick vine had been twisted around the pole to afford a foothold. One by one they climbed to the lofty height, the "woman" somewhat hindered by the long skirts fluttering in the wind. Once on top, they sat down in a frame and supported their bodies by thrusting their feet against the pole. Then one after another they stepped on the platform. One step misplaced, one slight loss of balance, and nothing could have saved them from plunging to sudden death. After the pole-top dance all tied the ends of the ropes around their waists and with a piercing cry launched into space. For one breathless moment they hung along the pole, five of them head down, for only the woman flies with her head up. Then down they came in a steady crescendo of ever-widening circles.

Highest Tides in the World

The highest tides in the world are the spring tides at the head of the Bay of Fundy, on the coasts of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, where they reach 70 feet. In the Santa Cruz river, Argentina, the rise is 40 feet, and at Cape Virgin, in the Straits of Magellan, they reach an equal height. In the Bristol channel, England, 44 feet is attained; along the Welsh coast, 36 feet; at France, 26 feet; at St. Malo, France, 25 feet. At no place in the Orient or along the African coast or our own western coast are any such heights reached. Bombay's high tide is seventeen feet, Surat, the highest in India, nineteen feet. At the other extreme is Trincomalee, Ceylon, where the neap tide reaches a height of only one foot. The highest tide in the United States is found at Eastport, Me., which rises to a height of twenty and one-half feet.

Windmills Long in Use

Related by Washington Irving in his "Lives of Mahomet and His Successors" is the fact that Khalif Omar was murdered in 643 A. D. by a Persian carpenter skilled in the construction of windmills. Thus we know that for well over 1,200 years, man has spread his wings in the wind for pumping water and grinding grain—two kinds of work to which windmills were especially adapted because both pumping and grinding could, without great inconvenience, be intermittent and could vary with the force of the wind.

Why Pawnbroker Is "Uncle"

Why do we speak of pawnbrokers as "uncle"? One theory is that it was derived from "uncus," meaning a hook. Pawnbrokers used hooks to lift up the articles pledged with them. It is rather curious to note that the French use "mia tante," or "my aunt," in the same way. Where we speak of pledged property being "up the spout," or "at uncle's," across the Channel they say it is "chez ma tante," or "at my aunt's." London Answers Magazine.

Source of Great Lakes Water

The supply of water in the Great Lakes is maintained by drainage from the area comprising the lake basin, about 300,000 square miles, of which 60 per cent is in this country and 40 per cent in Canada. The amount of water fed into the lakes by the hundreds of small rivers, streams and springs varies with the season—in April and May it has been estimated to average more than 50,000 cubic feet per second, and in November less than 20,000 cubic feet per second. The level of the lakes is determined by the balance between inflow and outflow; artificial outflow and evaporation from the surface of nearly 100,000 square miles. In the natural state each lake was an individual reservoir, maintaining its own level by natural means. In the past, by damming and digging to assist transportation, these have been modified and the artificial outlets such as the Chicago drainage canal, Welland canal, New York state barge canal, etc., also affect lake levels.

"The Lady With the Lamp"

Parental objections to nursing as an occupation almost prevented the start of a career that has never since been equalled in that profession. Annette Fiske tells of "Florence Nightingale, the Lady With the Lamp" in Riviera, The Health Magazine. The objections were based on the conditions then existing which were not fit for a lady. Years were to pass before the family prejudice finally weakened enough for her to obtain her wish. During the intervening years, however, her view of life and people became widened, and this laid a broad foundation for her future work. By her work with the army, Miss Nightingale opened a career to women and proved their right to a place in military hospitals. All her efforts were exerted to make nursing a trained profession and to improve the medical administration in the army. Her notes on the hospital administration in the British army led to many reforms.

Ohio Once Fined Prison Keepers

In the Ohio criminal code enacted in 1815 the provision said the keeper of the penitentiary should be fined $50 for each prisoner who escaped. Legislators thought this penalty would make the keepers see that there were no escapes—or at least a minimum number. Soon after the law's passage, however, many persons thought this provision unfair. It was changed to read that a $50 reward was to be offered for the return of each escaped convict.

AN AID IN DISGUISE

A resolution has been introduced in the Senate which seeks to prevent the discharge of WPA workers who cannot secure employment in private industry at prevailing rates of pay.

The resolution will work decidedly in favor of the Negro in communities where they occupy an easily dispensed with and which pay poor salaries.

Another reason the resolution would benefit Negroes arises out of the fact that the present administration has sponsored closed shops which invariably keep the Negro from getting a job and consequently hard for them to be absorbed by industry.

KEEP HISTORY STRAIGHT

Several inquiries have come to the Bystander from callers who wish to be set right on why some people celebrated Emancipation day in August.

The Negro year book of 1931 and 1932, an annual encyclopedia of the Negro edited by Prof. Monroe N. Work, director of the department of Records and Research at Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, makes the following explanation of the confusion of dates on this historical matter:

The date most generally observed by Negroes of the United States as Emancipation Day is January 1, the date in 1863 of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation.

Growing weaker and weaker, he turned to the local Veterans Hospital for a third time about four weeks ago, where the end came on Friday, August 6th at about 9:15 P. M.

Thus it may be that there are excuses for this confusion by Negroes born in slavery like our friend Green Hutchins of Des Moines who says he is 109 years old but there could be no question about these dates in the minds of intelligent Negroes or white people for that matter today who are free to read history and know themselves what the historical facts are.

NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION ENDORSES CIO

At the annual meeting of the National Bar Association held at Philadelphia last week among the resolutions passed was one endorsing the CIO and urging Negroes to join the organization.

This is the first Negro group of importance to take this decided step others preferring to take a middle ground rather than become antagonistic to the other side in the fight between the CIO and the A.F.L.

When one compares the policy of the groups toward the Negro, there could be but one choice—the one they took. And now that the CIO has gotten the lawless element of its organization in the background it will be easier if other groups to take a similar stand.

This is a splendid question to be considered by Negro lawyers must be interested in Negro labor. Lawyers cannot succeed without it, and Negro labor needs Negro lawyers that their right may be protected properly both in and out of the organization.

organized and instructed the famous Muchaknock cornet band; and also was for a number of years the director of the choir of St. John A. M. E. church of Muchaknock.

Republican Under Harrison

Having been an ardent supporter of the Republican party in the campaign of Benjamin Harrison, in 1889, McDowell was appointed post master for Muchaknock, being the first member of his race to hold such a position in this state.

Shortly after coming to Muchaknock he married Miss Alice Anderson, formerly of Keokuk, Iowa, who was then vice principal of the public school of that community, with whom he lived happily until the day of his death. To this union was born one daughter, Miss Birney McDowell, who with the widow, survives him.

To Des Moines

About 1905 Mr. McDowell removed with his family to Des Moines where he had previously purchased a home and entered the employ of the old Des Moines National Bank at 6th and Walnut Streets where he served as custodian until about 1912, then he became a custodian and general utility man for the Welch Printing Co. 6th Ave. and University, in which position he served continuously until incapacitated as the result of having been struck down by an automobile in December, 1930, since which time he has been unable to do any work.

After having received treatment in Mercy Hospital, he was able to return to his home for a while but about two years ago came down again with the results of this injury complicated by other ailments contracted while in the U. S. Army and was transferred to the local Veterans hospital for treatment, after which he again returned to his home until October of last year Mr. McDowell was returned to the local veterans' hospital from which he was transferred to the veterans' hospital at Hines, Ill., where he remained until February, when he again returned to his home.

Health Talks

By Dr. C. R. Bradford ADOLESCENT GOITER

This is a diffuse enlargement of the thyroid gland occurring in growing children, and usually beginning at puberty.

The enlargement is due in part to iodine deficiency. There is a world-wide relationship between the occurrence of adolescent goiter and the amount of iodine in the soil.

Soil poor in iodine will result in a deficient iodine content in drinking water, the vegetables, and other foodstuffs. The "goiter district" includes the St. Lawrence basin, the Great Lakes basin, and Upper Mississippi valley, and the northwest states.

The chief symptom and sign is enlargement of the thyroid and pressure on the trachea of the neck. Preventive treatment is more satisfactory than curative treatment. School children in spring and fall should receive small amounts of iodine administered with advice of a physician once or twice weekly.

When one compares the policy of the groups toward the Negro, there could be but one choice—the one they took. And now that the CIO has gotten the lawless element of its organization in the background it will be easier if other groups to take a similar stand.

B. S. F.—Please answer in the column whether or not I should continue with my husband or not? He stays out nights and doesn't attempt to support his family.

Ans: Get away for a few months. While you are away—send a little money back each week to take care of your children also write to them. It won't take them but a short time to realize that their father is as interested in them as their mother. Your wife will see her mistake... but it will take some time for her to see it.

R. J. H.—I have read your column for a long time. Do you think I will get over this sickness I now have and how long will I suffer?

Ans: There really isn't any need for you to go through life with this ailment. See a good doctor and cooperate with him for a few months and your sickness will be a thing of the past. Home remedies help sometimes... but in your case it is a waste of time and money.

W. R.—I have planned a trip to the west coast for a year now and since the time has just about arrived for me to go I can't get the least bit interested. Should I go or stay at home?

Ans: Don't allow that "good for nothing" friend of yours try to keep you from enjoying a vacation you have planned for the past 12 months. Sure you are going to have the time of your life and you WON'T RETURN THIS YEAR.

Z. B. B.—My business affairs are getting in bad shape. Please tell me what is the best thing for me to do?

Ans: Get a job... even though you can't get anything to pay you a good salary, take something. While you are working try to get something better, and it will only be a short time until you have your bills under way and this constant "headache" will disappear.

A. J.—Am I going to marry the man that I am expecting to marry?

Ans: Just say the word and he will march you right down to the preacher's house. This is one old body that you will never be able to shake as he has lost his head about you.

Ans: There really isn't any need for you to go through life with this ailment. See a good doctor and cooperate with him for a few months and your sickness will be a thing of the past. Home remedies help sometimes... but in your case it is a waste of time and money.

W. R.—I have planned a trip to the west coast for a year now and since the time has just about arrived for me to go I can't get the least bit interested. Should I go or stay at home?

Ans: Don't allow that "good for nothing" friend of yours try to keep you from enjoying a vacation you have planned for the past 12 months. Sure you are going to have the time of your life and you WON'T RETURN THIS YEAR.

Z. B. B.—My business affairs are getting in bad shape. Please tell me what is the best thing for me to do?

Ans: Get a job... even though you can't get anything to pay you a good salary, take something. While you are working try to get something better, and it will only be a short time until you have your bills under way and this constant "headache" will disappear.

A. J.—Am I going to marry the man that I am expecting to marry?

Ans: Just say the word and he will march you right down to the preacher's house. This is one old body that you will never be able to shake as he has lost his head about you.

Boys Are Excited About Camp

CROCKER "Y" TO OPEN PERIOD MONDAY

One of the largest periods of all time, and what may prove to be a record number, will usher in the nineteenth annual Crocker "Y" period at the Des Moines "Y" camp, opening Monday, August 16th, and continuing through August 23rd. Last year's enrollment has already been exceeded, and with the usual late signers, a capacity camp seems assured, Secretary Quentin R. Mease stated.

Everything is in readiness for the Big Camp Roundup and Pow Wow, an annual feature that precedes each period, that will be staged at the "Y" Friday evening. Camp movies, including some that were taken during last year's period, will be shown. Talks and stunts will be given by leaders and members of the staff. Old familiar camp songs will be revived and last minute instructions will be given out to all needing information.

The program for the entire period is being mapped out and will be given out later, including the Sunday morning services at Chapel Point and the speaker. These services are attended by a large number of visitors each Sunday in camp. The special interurban of two cars will leave the station at 1:00 p. m. Campers are urged to be on hand at 12:30 o'clock at the latest.

Personal and Mass Personal

Com. Ernest H. Harris, first vice commander of Scott County, Roy Allen, color guard, and Samuel Collins, color guard, legionnaires of Marshall Brown Post, No. 482 Davenport, Iowa, while attending the state convention here were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker, 1064 14th St.

The Mesdames D. Mae Lee Fine, Iva Ligon, and Virginia Smith were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. G. T. Fant Sunday evening.

Miss Louise Smith of Dallas, Texas, spent a few hours at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Robinson last Friday on her way home. Miss Smith, a graduate of Spelman College of Atlanta, Georgia, is working for the master's degree at the University of Iowa.

Mrs. S. Joe Brown, president Lincoln American Legion post, No. 126, auxiliary unit, left Monday for Ottumwa to attend the seventeenth annual convention of the American auxiliary.

Mrs. D. Mae Lee Fine was called to Ottumwa Friday because of the death of her uncle, Edgar Lee. Mrs. Fine is leaving Sunday for Los Angeles to visit her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Schackelford.

While in the West she will visit the Catalina Island, Garden of the Gods, Boulder Dam and Yellowstone Park. En route she will visit Mrs. Allen Coleman in Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Fine will return about the middle of October.

Mrs. Georgia Robinson of Hunterville, Missouri, Mrs. Grace Keyser, and Robert Carr, Roy Brown and Mrs. Alice White of Moberly, Missouri, visited in the city this week with Mrs. Ardella Watkins and Mrs. Ruth Steele.

Mrs. Lillian Edmunds and children, George and Arthur John, are leaving for a ten days vacation in Minnesota the last of the week.

Mrs. Walter Thompson, a member of the La Parisienne club, with her husband and son is visiting the latter's mother in Kansas City, Kansas. She will return next week.

"THRILL AND SAFETY DAY"

SUNDAY, AUG. 25, AT FAIR

Plans for a big "Thrill Day and Safety Day" at the Iowa State Fair, including an airplane crash, head-on automobile collisions, dynamite smashups and a dozen other "thrill" events were announced here today for Sunday afternoon, August 25th.

Headline event for the day will be a deliberate airplane crash, in which Capt. F. S. Prakes, noted pilot, will smash a plane head-on into the side of a house. Frakes has performed this stunt a number of times without serious injury, although the plane has always been completely demolished, fair officials said today.

Other "Thrill Day and Safety Day" features, designed to each the dangers of reckless driving and the wisdom of safety first, will include a car deliberately turning turtle while speeding down a race track, a head-on auto collision at sixty miles an hour, a car driven into fifty sticks of exploding dynamite, an automobile catapulted over the top of another machine, and many similar daredevil features.

National Women

Among the prominent men who visited the session were Wm. (Goose-Loek Bill) McDonald, president of the only Negro bank in Texas, the Fraternal Bank & Trust Co., Fort Worth, and L. C. Napier, former Register of the U. S. treasury, 91, but still active as the cashier of the Citizens Savings bank of Nashville, Tenn., and whose wife, daughter of the late John M. Langston, is president of the Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical association, maintained by the National Association of Colored Women.

After a somewhat spirited contest over the office of parliamentarian, the following were elected officers for the ensuing biennium: President, Mrs. R. R. Moton, formerly of Alabama, but now of Virginia; vice president, Miss Aresenia Williams of Missouri; chairman of executive board, Mrs. Ada Belle Dement of Texas; executive secretary, Mrs. Sallie W. Stewart of Indiana; first recording secretary, Mrs. Mayme Josenberger, Arkansas; second recording secretary, Mrs. Naunie Mae Williams, Illinois; third recording secretary, Mrs. Ida R. Henderson, Georgia; treasurer, Mrs. Ella P. Stewart of Ohio; statistician, Mrs. Lizzie B. Fouse, Kentucky; parliamentarian, Mrs. M. J. Brockway, Oklahoma; auditor, Mrs. W. B. Webb, Virginia; chaplain, Mrs. L. M. Johnson, Texas; and secretary of executive board, Mrs. Katherine Helm of Kansas.

The association for the first time in its history elected the members of the administrative board, who are: Mrs. Christine Smith of Michigan, Mrs. S. Joe Brown of Iowa, Mrs. Letha Fleming of Ohio, Miss Ann Gilman of Arkansas and the retiring president, Dr. Marg F. Waring of Illinois.

WPA NURSERY SCHOOLS AID MANY CHILDREN
Washington, Aug. 5—(CNA)—Nursery schools operated by the Works Progress Administration served more than 8,000 needy Negro children between the ages of 2 and 5 during the past school year, according to Dr. Grace Langdon, specialist in parent education and nursery schools for the WPA.

Walda Coe's Round & Round
BY WALDO

The Ice House Gang (nearly all Y. Star members) will be on duty for the present week while the old scribe gets a much needed rest. For reference to all articles and statements the "Randavoo" is located at Twelfth and Center and is open from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. Don't forget to remember that the swing affair will be swinging tonight at the Billiken—Walda.

Last!!! The Ice House Gang which meets daily at Chop's Randavoo (12 and Center) have decided to tell all they know about everybody except themselves.

Howard L. wishes to announce that he is ready for rug cutting again, so all the boys had better be careful, that goes for friends as well as enemies.

It has been rumored that A. Brown put a certain society lad's picture in the basement and in its place stands the Knight of Casa Loma. You'll have a hard way to go now Zeke, because not only is the man a Knight but he can sing. Zeke's motto to the Knight is: "You can spend and then I'll step in."

Oscar (P. E. No. 1) Glass thinks he is sticking with Doris S., but we think it is the car she likes. Incidentally Runt Hyde makes his creeps down on E. Second quite regular. Go head devil.

Chauncey Bailey made a creep all the way up to Ames to pay his most humble respects to that lovely little lady, Thelma S., but Prince Avant had beat C. Bailey up there and had stepped out with the young lady and gone to a movie.

Dan Law seems to be making a comeback with Mary McCracken, but Art Edmunds left the lovely dame out till 3:30 a. m. last week (Aug. 4) and now Art says he craves competition.

Burch, presiding elder will be present at 3 P. M. service Sunday. We will be at Kyles Quarterly meeting. Let each one bring one. Every one is welcome.

REV. ESTELLA BROOMFIELD TO BE AT EVANGELISTIC CENTER SATURDAY
The Rev. Estella Broomfield appeared on a musical program at the Evangelistic Center (old Princess theatre) Saturday night, August 7th, and gave a group of readings. The Evangelistic Biblical Dramatic League will present "The Four Ages of Man" Saturday night, August 14th, at 8 p. m. there, under the direction of Mrs. Broomfield.

The Rev. Mrs. Broomfield has returned from Cedar Rapids, where she has been engaged in revival services for the Rev. J. J. Evans of Bethel A. M. E. church. The revival was closed by the presentation of the "Challenge of the Cross," a sacred drama in which the best talent participated. The evangelist received the co-operation from the three sister churches of that city and was the recipient of many gifts and courtesies.

BROTHER JOHN WALKER CALLED HOME
Rev. Estella Broomfield, Evangelist, God needed him in realms more fair, To share His boundless love, And so in all his beauty rare, God called his soul above. He loved his church, his home, his God, He loved His Master's will, And in the path by pilgrims trod, His mission tried to fill.

So patient he and ne'er complained Whenever trials came, And he adored the lamb of God And glorified his name— With Christian faith that was sublime He was prepared to go To that eternal happy clime With Him who loved him so.

His suffering he tried to hide away, That others might not grieve, And with His Master day by day Tried others to relieve. And with the everlasting throng That shall sing redemption's story, The Saints of God will join him there In the portals of bright glory.

OBITUARY
John Wesley Rhodes was born in Albermarle county, Virginia, April 10, 1882, and died at Des Moines on August 1, 1937. He previously lived in Meachamock and Buxton, Iowa, where he married Rose Daugherty, to which union two sons were born. He later married Donata Jeffers in Des Moines, to which union one son and a daughter were born. He was a former member of the A. M. E. church in Buxton and later a member of St. Paul A. M. E. church. He was a member of the Des Moines police force since 1920. His wife, one daughter, three sons, three brothers, four sisters and other relatives survive. Funeral services were held Wednesday August 4th, at St. Paul A. M. E. church, with Rev. R. H. Hackley officiating. Interment at Glendale cemetery.

H. Hackley and C. W. Robinson for their inspiring remarks and L. Fowler & Son Funeral Home for services. Mrs. Donata Rhodes, widow; Elaine, Warrnell, Albert and Wellington Rhodes, children.

MEN'S DAY RALLY AT ST. PAUL SUNDAY
St. Paul A. M. E. church will observe their annual men's day services Sunday, August 15th, with Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor of Corinthian Baptist church, as speaker, at 3 p. m. The men's chorus of Corinthian Baptist church will furnish the music.

Enthusiasm in Work
Enthusiasm is the element of success in everything. It is the light that leads and the strength that lifts men on and up in the great struggles of scientific pursuits and of professional labor. It robs endurance of difficulty, and makes a pleasure of duty.—Bishop Doane.

Lesson for August 15

GOD GIVES LAWS TO A NATION.

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Matt. 22:37-39.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Good Laws.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Before the Mount of God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why a Nation Needs Laws.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Basic Laws for a Nation's Life.

Basic laws have been laid down by God for the orderly administration of his universe. Men see them clearly in the physical universe, although at times they do not recognize the One who created all things. Physical laws are of great importance, but of even deeper significance are the moral and spiritual laws which control the human life. There is in the world a moral law, and a distinction between right and wrong—what man may ignore only to his own sorrow, and which he cannot abrogate or destroy. All laws of men which are true and right are founded on this underlying moral law, and are in reality simply a development and interpretation of "God's Code of Morals"—the Ten Commandments.

These commandments given to Israel at Mt. Sinai are worthy of careful study on the part of every reader. They may be grouped under two divisions.
I. A True View of God (vv. 1-11).
The first and most important question to be asked regarding any law is, "By whom was it established?" Legislation by an unauthorized person or organization has no power over others. Who gave the ten commandments? Verse 1 tells us "God spake all these words."

Men sneer at theology as being out of fashion, but the fact is that Christian doctrine is the only safe foundation for Christian character. Unless my view of God is right, my life will be wrong. Until I know Him I will not appreciate the authority of his law.
1. Whom to worship (vv. 2-5). There can be but one true God, and he alone is to be worshiped. He is a personal being, ready to enter into communion with each one of us. No image can take his place.
2. How to worship (vv. 6, 7). We are to love him and keep his commandments. There is to be no sham about this, for no matter how sweet and pious may be the praise and prayer of a man, he has taken the Lord's name in vain unless he keeps the Lord's commandments by holy living.

3. When to worship (vv. 8-11). God has ordained that man should not incessantly bear the burden of toil. He is to have a day of rest and a time for worship, undisturbed by the duties and responsibilities of daily labor. America needs a mighty stirring up about the desecration of the Lord's day.

II. A Right Relationship to Man (vv. 12-17).
To be right with God means that we will also be right with our fellow man.
1. Family life (vv. 12). The fifth commandment has to do with the relation between child and parent. There is a plain and direct command that father and mother should be honored. Only in respect and obedience to parents can the child possibly find true and proper development.

2. Physical life (vv. 13, 14). God is interested in our bodies. Already we have noted his provision for a day of rest each week—Now we are reminded of the sanctity of human life. "Thou shalt not kill," and remember there are many other ways to kill a man than by shooting him. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith makes a telling point by reminding us that we may kill others by selling liquor, or food, intoxicating drinks, or "dope"; by neglecting duty, by careless driving, by failing to provide employees with sanitary and healthful surroundings.

There is another way that the body may be destroyed—by its misuse in adulterous living.
3. Social life (vv. 15-17). "Thou shalt not steal"—and remember any dishonest appropriation of what does not belong to you is stealing, call it what you will. And "false witness"—how it has honeycombed our very civilization. Not a little of it is found within the church, more shame upon us! Lastly, we come to "covetousness"—which has been called one of "the respectable sins of nice people." It is subtle and often hidden. Let us root it out of our own lives by God's grace.

"It seems that Att. M. is putting Dick D. in the shade as far as R. S. is concerned. P. L. had better watch his step or H. M. will be climbing up to 600 P street in his place. It seems as if the boycott on M. C. didn't work or else Mr. L. is using every night to try to find some settlement. It doesn't seem fair to V. J., though since they put 600 P street off the map. T. Baker had better stop getting mad at E. C. or he'll get mad and then what will she do. It seems a shame that D. D. should have to ride around in that big Buick all by his lonesome, doesn't it, E. B."
