Island Massacres Told by Officials

3,000 IN HAITI SLAIN, ENVOY HERE SAYS

Washington, Nov. 18 (CNA)—Haitian officials arriving for a conference with Acting Secretary of State Sumner Wells revealed this week that 3,000 and perhaps 5,000 of their nationals have been slaughtered in the Dominican Republic in the last six weeks.

Haitian Foreign Minister Georges N. Leger and Haitian Minister Elie Lescoeur said latest information from their government is that at least 3,000 nationals had been slain by Dominican military and police. Leger added that when final reports are compiled, the deaths may "exceed 5,000."

It was the first public expression from Haitian officials on the massacres, which were first reported by private observers. An American, living on the Haitian side of the border which divides the Caribbean island between Haiti and the Dominican Republic, estimated the number killed by Dominican authorities as high as 5,000. He accused Haitian authorities of trying to hush up the matter.

St. Louis Lawyer, Once Janitor, Dies

St. Louis, Nov. 18—From janitor to prominent barrister read the life history of Attorney Joseph P. Harris and which closed last Tuesday with his death following an illness of several months. Years ago he was a janitor in the probate court, under Judge Charles W. Holtcamp, and because of his attentiveness and interest in his work, the jurist made him a deputy clerk.

Later, under Judge Holtcamp's guidance Harris studied law, passed the bar examination, became one of St. Louis' best known attorneys.

Get's Business

HOLLYWOOD BOOTBLACK DONS TOP HAT AND TAILS TO GET CUSTOMERS

Hollywood, Nov. 18—(ANP)—Taking a tip from the show world of Hollywood, Herbert Elliot has increased his bootblack business from just fair to a constant rush by adding a unique touch. One bright morning, publicity-dilled Hollywood citizens rubbed their eyes and stared again as they saw Elliot cleared for action.

He was attired in a full dress suit, silk hat and gardenia in buttonhole, busily applying blacking brushes to

Ku Klux Klan Parades in Negro Section of Atlanta

ONLOOKER TAKES MARCHER'S HOOD AND WEARS IT

Atlanta, Nov. 18—(ANP)—Led by a police escort on motorcycles, more than fifty cars containing an estimated 250 Ku Klux Klansmen paraded through both Auburn avenue and Decatur street, leading Negro thoroughfares, early Tuesday night.

But this demonstration by the hooded brotherhood did not strike terror into the hearts of the colored observers who lined sidewalks, homes and business houses watching the parade pass. One onlooker, known on Auburn

University, Miss., Nov. 18—(ANP)—Attacking what he considers "the preaching of racial equality at the Blue Ridge 'Y' Graduate school, Blue Ridge, N. C., Dave Hamilton, graduate student at the University of Mississippi, in Saturday's issue of the student newspaper, said he considers it repulsive to wait on the table of a Negro, "whether the Negro be a Ph. D. or a field hand."

In his letter, Hamilton said: "It has been brought to my attention of late that the Blue Ridge school has been advocating, if not practicing, the most dangerous doctrine of racial equality. Dr. W. D. Weatherford, head of the Blue Ridge Foundation, has entertained Negroes in the Robert E. Lee hall and, according to the best reports of the students themselves, presented these blacks to the white students and workers there as equals.

"Ole Miss" "At the same hotel Ole Miss students of both sexes were employed as attendants and waiters. For an Ole Miss man or woman to wait on the table of a Negro seems most repulsive to me, whether the Negro be a Ph. D. or a field hand.

"For the past few years almost all the students taking important part in our 'Y' work here have been encouraged to attend Blue Ridge each summer. A great many have, mostly with the help of scholarships and jobs.

"Y' Programs "The racial equality idea seems definitely connected with the 'Y' program, as Dr. Weatherford is head of the 'Y' graduate school and is also connected with Negro Fisk university in Nashville.

"It does not seem best that our 'Y' officers should be so trained, or subjected to the insult of being presented to a black as an equal, not to mention to be placed in the servant position for him. I favor any method or program that may better the conditions of our large Negro population, but this method, I believe, will do more harm than good."

Unemployed Poll Now Under Way

NATIONWIDE CENSUS NOW BEING MADE

Under the direction of Administrator John D. Biggers final plans are being made for the nationwide census of the unemployed and partly employed, decreed by congress and approved by President Roosevelt. The report cards containing fourteen questions were distributed to 31,000,000 homes on November 16-17, through facilities of the postoffice department. These cards will be filled out by the unemployed and the partly employed and mailed back to Washington by November 20th. The mayor of Des Moines is chairman of the local committee. He is being assisted by the religious denominational organizations, the educational board, fraternal organizations, civic clubs, labor organizations, etc.

All persons unemployed or partly employed are being urged to fill out the cards, so the government can get an accurate check on conditions throughout the country and thereby be enabled to devise still further means and measures for combating the unemployment problem. Unemployed persons receiving cards are asked to answer all questions and mail them promptly. Housewives should not fill out cards unless they are able to do other work and are looking for work with pay. Information concerning the census can be obtained at any postoffice or from the postman.

CALVIN GETS OUT 15,000 LETTERS

Washington, Nov. 18—(C)—The first job of Floyd J. Calvin, newly appointed special consultant to the administrator of the unemployment census, was to get out ten thousand letters to pastors of churches, with a circular of information about the census, telling who should register, and five thousand more to editors of newspapers, presidents of colleges, principals of schools and heads of various organizations, urging that they pass the word along to those of their groups to be sure to register if they are unemployed, or partially unemployed and are able to work and want to work, so that the unemployment figures among colored people will be as nearly accurate as possible.

Still on the Air

NBC TO CONTINUE TUSKEGEE CHOR

New York, Nov. 18—(ANP)—Originally scheduled for a series of four broadcasts over the nationwide red network of the National Broadcasting system, Tuskegee Institute's famed 100 voice choir, under the direction of William L. Dawson, will be heard indefinitely over the airways, according to an announcement by Dr. Frederick Douglas Patterson, president, here today, after conferring with NBC officials.

So enthusiastic has been the public response to the thrilling renditions of the beloved songs of the southland by Tuskegee's choirmasters that they have been made one of NBC's featured sustaining programs. After such concert telegrams and letters continue to deluge the famed institution, and Radio City headquarters, expressing appreciation for the unique concert which are heard each Sunday at 1:30 p. m.; E. S. T.—12:30 in the Mount Hope colored elementary school.

F. O. Morrow, president D. M. branch N. A. A. C. P., received the following response from Senator Herring last summer when it was feared that the bill would be lost by adjournment:

MR. F. O. MORROW 1060 12TH STREET DES MOINES, IOWA

MY DEAR MR. MORROW: I ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR TELEGRAM OF JULY 18 WITH REFERENCE TO THE ANTI-LYNCHING LEGISLATION. I YESTERDAY, VOTED FAVORABLY UPON THIS ANTI-LYNCHING BILL, BUT BY A VOTE OF 31-34 THE MEASURE WAS TABLED. VERY TRULY YOURS, CLYDE L. HERRING

Indignant leaders of Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., fraternal organizations, American Legion, churches, clubs and other groups bombarded the senator Wednesday night with telegrams and long distance messages urging him to "stick to his pledge."

7 Out of 10 For Anti-lynching Bill

PUBLIC OPINION POLL SHOWS 72% OF VOTERS FAVOR AS AGAINST 28% LAST JAN. Southern Vote is 57 Per Cent in Favor and 43 Per Cent Against

New York, Nov. 18—A poll of public opinion on a federal anti-lynching law announced Sunday, November 14th, by the American Institute of Public Opinion reveals 72 per cent of the voters in favor of such a law and 28 per cent opposed. This proportion shows an increase in support of this bill for last January the same poll showed 70 per cent in favor and 30 per cent opposed. The poll shows 57 per cent of southern voters in favor of the bill and 43 per cent against. The highest percentage in favor of the bill was found in the middle Atlantic states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, where the vote was 79-21.

The bill provides that counties and municipalities shall be responsible for lynchings within their borders; that they shall be liable to a lynching victim, or his next of kin, for a sum not exceeding $10,000, and that an officer who fails to make diligent effort to prevent a lynching may be fined a maximum of $5,000, imprisoned for five years or both.

In the final minutes of the session last summer, the senate halted a filibuster on the anti-lynching measure by promising it would take up the bill in the next session as soon as it disposed of the first order of business, the farm bill.

Senator Connelly (Dem. Tex.) who is leading the filibuster on the floor argued that the anti-lynching bill is unconstitutional. He shouted: "The supreme court still is across the street—and I know one justice who will vote that this bill is unconstitutional. He is Mr. Justice Black of Alabama."

Connelly then produced what he called "a prejudgment opinion by Mr. Justice Black" on validity of the bill. It was a lengthy filibuster speech made by Hugo Black in 1935 when as a senator he had fought against an anti-lynching measure.

Washington, D. C. — Siding with the South in its efforts to both side-track and block the anti-lynch bill, Senator Clyde L. Herring, Iowa Democrat, who served as its governor from 1932 to 1936, definitely stated his position on the issue and declared openly that he was opposed to it Tuesday.

"I shall vote both against considering the anti-lynching bill, and against the bill itself. This is an outrageous situation when matters of this kind can be brought up to the detriment of legislation which is of the most important nature."

The Iowa senator claims he was not against the principles of the anti-lynching bill but, he was against the tactics which side-tracked and delayed consideration of farm legislation.

"Old Fight" "It cannot be made too strong," Herring said. "It appears now that the old hatreds still exist. We will be engaged in this fight, first-over whether the anti-lynching bill shall be considered, and then over whether it shall be passed, for two weeks while the farm bill waits.

"When legislation that is needed is side-tracked so that a play can be made for the votes of Harlem, then is there any wonder the country has no more respect for congress," said Senator Herring.

Speakers to Talk Of CIO, Pension

Two well known speakers, Don Harris, regional director of C. I. O., who is flying here from Denver, and Byron G. Allen, state superintendent of old age assistance, who will explain old age pension laws as they differ in Iowa from other states and also the federal laws, will be main speakers at the Burns Community Bureau at the Burns M. E. church, Eighth and Crocker streets, Sunday at 4 p. m.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 21 CHRISTIAN WORKERS

LESSON TEXT—1 Corinthians 3:10-15; Galatians 6:6-10. "GOLDEN TEXT"—Aid let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.—Galatians 6:9. PRIMARY TOPIC—In Our Church. JUNIOR TOPIC—What Can We Do to Help? INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Can I Do for Christ and the Church? YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Need for Christian Workers.

"Laborers together with God"—such is the glorious and distinctive title of true Christians, according to the verse just preceding our assigned text. Unfortunately is the all too-common error of regarding only pastors and missionaries as the workers in God's vineyard. While we recognize that there is a special calling for some men to leave their vocations and devote their entire time to the Lord's work, let us be sure properly to stress the importance of every Christian's being a worker for God.

The portions assigned for our study present the privilege and responsibility of Christians as fellow-workers with Christ, under the figures of builders and of seed sowers.

1. Builders of the House (1 Cor. 3:10-15). The first requisite of a building is a foundation and it must be strong and true. Builders for Christ have a sure foundation stone in Him.

2. The Master Builder—and his builders. Paul was a pioneer. He declares his ambition and calling to be "to preach the gospel not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation" (Rom. 10:25). Such a privilege does not come to all men, but let those who thus serve learn of this "wise master builder" that they may lay only one foundation—Jesus Christ.

"Let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon." It is a serious matter to serve the Lord as a builder, for it is possible to go badly astray at this point as well as in laying the foundation.

3. The materials—good and bad. Whether we apply Paul's words to the building of our personal spiritual life or to the work we do in the church they are equally serious and urgent. "The day"—when Christ returns, and we shall stand before him to give account of the deeds done in the flesh—will reveal by flaming fire whether we have been faithful, true and diligent in preaching God's Word, in prayer, in sacrificial service for Christ, or have sought to introduce into our lives and into the churches we serve the "wood, hay, and stubble" of aspiritual schemes, neglect of God's Word, prayerlessness.

Saved? Yes, but entering into God's presence as a man who has escaped from his burning house with nothing but his life.

H. Sowers of the Seed (Gal. 6:6-10).—The figure changes. No longer are we builders—but rather sowers of seed. Would that it were all good seed that were sown—but we see the sowing to the flesh as well as to the Spirit. This is true.

1. In our own lives. The inexorable law of sowing and reaping prevails in the moral realm as truly as it does in the physical. Men who would never expect wheat to grow where they have planted thistles, thus serve to expect that they may reap in their own lives the seeds of selfishness, indifference, or careless neglect of the things of God—and still somehow reap the fruit of good character and noble living.

2. In the lives of others. We may be tempted to take attractive by-paths and short-cuts to win the interest and allegiance of men to our "seed" and the church, but they will prove to bring but corruption and destruction. Spiritual seed will always produce spiritual life.

3. Waiting for the harvest. Harvest must be patiently awaited. We know it to be so in natural things; the same is true in the spiritual realm.

A Message of Love. One of the last slowly murmured sayings of the American poet Whit-tier, as he lay a-dying, was this: "Give my love—to the world."

Worth-While Living. Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.—Isaiah 1:17.

Miss Vera Campbell is the teacher. Mrs. J. W. Tutt Sunday evening addressed a group at St. John Lutheran church, aside from which she gave several readings. At the city-wide Sunday School contest, Union and Corinthian tied for divided. An old motto still remains true, "If you can't tie them, you can beat them." The Harvest week at the Union Baptist church closed Sunday with the greatest demonstration in the twenty years pastorate of the Pastor, Rev. J. W. Tutt. One soul for baptism Sunday evening. Thanks to the many that made this demonstration possible.

Meaning of "In Trust"

"In trust" is a phrase used in deeds or wills wherein funds are placed in the hands of a person called a "trustee" to hold them in trust for others. The purpose of this is usually that the trustee shall pay to one person or a number of persons the income from the funds for life or some other period and eventually turn over the principal to others named in the deed or will. If an estate is settled by reason of a trust being terminated, the money need not be put in trust again unless those taking it so desire.

When Opal Lost Favor

The susceptibility of the mass mind to superstition is typically illustrated by its attitude toward the opal. Up to 1829 this gem stone was believed to bring luck to its owner. Ever since, says Collier's Weekly, it has been considered a magnet of misfortune merely because a character in Sir Walter Scott's novel, "Anne of Gelebrstein," happened to express this belief.

Claims Election Firsts

Oregon claims the honor of having initiated the movement for direct primaries, the initiative and referendum and the recall.

The Friendly Tree

Compared with man a healthy tree is ageless, and it can grow into one's affections and become a factor in the life of a family, playing its own part in romance, contentment, happiness, sorrow and respect. The old homestead may go; the master may tear it down and replace it with something new and unfamiliar, feeling no poignant qualms; but the old tree remains, an old friend, a retainer, faithful comrade through all the summers and winters—that the man has known.

First "Miracle" Play in England

The first "Miracle" play in England was acted probably not far from 1100. In the Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth centuries these plays had become so popular that they were produced in nearly every part of England. Shakespeare felt their influence. He must have had frequent opportunities in his boyhood to witness their production. They were seldom performed in England after 1600.

The Term Chiaroscuro

The term chiaroscuro means the distribution of light and shade so effected in a picture that these elements are of mutual aid. The term is applied especially to the devices by which a figure or an object is made to appear as if enveloped in atmosphere. Among the masters of chiaroscuro are Correggio, regarded as its inventor, and Rembrandt, who developed it to its farthest limits.

Jungletow, of Pheasant

Family, Daddy of Poultry The Chinese ring-neck is one of about 108 species of pheasants which inhabit all parts of the world that lie in the temperate zones and the tropics, and so not only furnishes sport and food to civilized man but to the savages of the jungles. The red jungletow, a member of the pheasant family, is the ancestor of all varieties of our domestic poultry; thus again emphasizing the importance of the genus, according to an official of the Detroit chapter of the Izaak Walton League.

The most gorgeously plumed pheasants are the tropical species, and among these the Tragopans stand supreme, with magnificent plumage of cherry red or crimson, interspersed with other harmonizing colors of delicate shade. To add to their beauty, nature has equipped them with brilliantly colored wattles. The tragopans are extremely shy birds and inhabit areas that are not easily accessible to man.

Among the long-tailed pheasants, beautiful in form but not so rich in coloration, is the Chinese "Silver pheasant" with a long hairy crest and breast of purple. His silvery tail is considerably longer and bushier than that of the ringneck. The Reeves' pheasant, also a native of China, carries an exceptionally long tail, but the feather colorings are more subdued.

Outside of the tropics we find the plumage of all species of pheasants a varied mixture of brown, orange, gold and purple, but body shapes differ, some being stubby and others elongated.

Karakul Fur Bearer Old Member of Sheep Family

The karakul fur bearer is an ancient member of the sheep family, dates back thousands of years. History recounts that conquering tribes came into the independent kingdom of Bokhara, bordering on old Russia, thousands of years ago, bringing their sheep with them. Archeologists have dug up mummies buried for 3,000 years—that were found to be wearing this lamb's fur—in perfect condition, writes a correspondent of the New York Herald-Tribune.

The breed takes its name from the little town of Karakul, not far from the Aral sea, in Turkestan, Asia. For centuries the fur of the sheep grown in the little primitive community was known to traders and furriers the world over as the finest to be obtained. The pure karakuls were found only on the ranches of the Bokharan noblemen. Mixed breeds are found throughout that part of Asia, the Afghans, the Astrachans and the Krimmers. The Mahomatan tribes of Bokhara have a sacred regard for these full-blooded karakuls. They guard them zealously.

Crest of the Medici Family

Carvings of shields which bore six balls, are said to be the crest of the Medici family. These balls represented pills, we were told, because the Medici family were physicians, says London Answers Magazine. They were also moneylenders, and Edward IV of England, wishing to borrow from them, offered them a street in London where they could transact business. They called the street Lombard street, after Lombardy, their native town, and altered the six balls in their crest to three. So when one visits one's "uncle," one knows the origin of the sign of the three balls over his shop. The Medici began as traders and bankers, not physicians, and became rulers of Florence and Tuscany. The Medici were physicians of ancient times who relied on general principles rather than experiment.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Over the Nation
The weeks roll by and the football teams roll in the dust each week. In the feature game of the Big Ten Minnesota with Bell and Reed playing major parts secured revenge for the licking Northwestern gave them 3-5234 Bystander ahl 11-37 last year. The combined efforts of Jefferson Hinton and company couldn't have much luck except Jeff's kicking kept the Gophers from getting too many points.

Captain Homer Harris wasn't able to play much as Iowa lost to Indiana after a bitter battle in which the Hawkeyes outplayed the Hoosiers in everything but scores. Fred Smith got in a while at left end, as he has been doing all season.

The same reports come out of the East about Brad Holland and the boy at Syracuse whose name sounds like a hen laid an egg. Hollands defensive play featured Cornell's game. "Sing Salt" or something stood out on his team. On the Pacific coast Ken Washington and Woodrow Strode had some day as the Washington State jinx helped drumb the U Clans.

Negro Schools
Talledega ought to celebrate. The Degas held field to a 6-6 draw last week. Le Moynes mad magicians must have had their magic uncovered because Kentucky State dusted them 31 to 7. Alcorn and Tougaloo along with Morehouse and Knoxville played scoreless ties. Morgan dumped Hampton 25 to 0. Morris Brown slowed Xavier's Gold Rush down to a walk 13 to 7. Virginia Union rolled over Shaw 26 to 0 and Tuskegee saddled Howard 19 to 0. Tennessee A. and M. and Bluefield lost 6 to 0 games to Virginia State and Wilberforce. Langston and Texas College summed had scuffles with Wiley and Southern each winning 7 to 0, while Arkansas State took the measure of Tennessee State 7 to 2.

High Schools
The local high school season rang down with North as city champs after their clean out win over East 19 to 12. Ike Miller was the only North boy to see any action, and he didn't see too much. Eddie Mauppin had to go it alone for East and played a nice defensive game while he was in. He left the game in the last quarter a tired young man.

The Comets became champions of the Northwest pro league by trimming Vandevere playing one of the best all round games of his career. The Comets expect to play at least two more games against high caliber teams before the season really ends.

Billiard Tournament
Buck Scott's billiard tournament is on in full swing. At this writing two matches have been played. Jack Howard, former North High basketball and golf player, served official notice that the veterans will have no easy route to the title by downing Curt Jackson 90 to 58. Howard's steady game promises tough opposition for who ever he plays next. Allen Solomon, a former champion and a leading favorite this year, flashed his old form as he took Joe Wilson to the cleaner's 100 to 71. The later matches which will be played every night except Saturday, will bring together several natural rivals who have played their matches with their tongues while waiting to settle it with cues.

Basketball practice for intermediate, juniors and senior teams entered in the Crocker Y league will begin November 24 at West High gymnasium and last Wednesday and Friday throughout the season. Managers and captains of teams will be called for a meeting at a date to be announced later.

"Regular games will be scheduled to begin the middle of December," Quentine Mease, executive secretary of the Crocker Y Branch announced this week. "This is much earlier than past seasons," he added.

LIQUIDATES $3,500,000 CONCERN —RETURNS $500,000 TO TENANTS

New York, Nov. 11—(ANP)—Harlem residents heard with regret this week the long anticipated news of the failure of the Co-operative Paul Laurence Dunbar apartments at 149th street and Seventh avenue, erected in 1928 by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., at an estimated cost of $3,500,000.

It was reported that the apartments had been sold by Mr. Rockefeller to the 320 East 73rd Street Corporation, headed by E. Cranford Stuckless, the reported consideration being 1,000,000. In the transfer, it was reported Mr. Rockefeller took back a purchase money mortgage of $350,000, which in turn was subject to a first mortgage of $5,000, both given to New York Savings bank and "payable according to the bond."

Harlemites particularly regret the transfer of the Dunbar because it represented the biggest effort at co-operative apartment buying ever started in the country and its development was being watched with eagerness by colored people all over the nation. To the credit of Mr. Rockefeller it must be recorded that not a single tenant-owner lost a penny, as he refunded to them in cash $500,000 they had paid into the equity fund, which was created to purchase the buildings when the accumulated reserve was sufficient to negotiate it. Some of the long term tenants received refunds of from $500 to $700 and higher.

Birth Circumstances

When the great Napoleon was exiled to St. Helena the British secretary of war issued strict orders no French visitors were to be allowed on the island. But destiny was not reckoned with and when Mme. Bertrand, wife of the French general and companion of Napoleon, gave birth to a child on the island she presented the baby to the Emperor as the first French visitor that had entered the island without permission of the British.

Looking Over the Hawkeyes

By J. Braiddie Morris

All the "smoke and dirt" of Homecoming has cleared away and we find ourselves back with our noses to the grindstone. Everyone is still talking about visitors, especially the beautiful young ladies, and the fun and frivolity enjoyed by all.

We saw a good football game Saturday, and if you ask me the only reason Iowa lost was that Dame Fortune turned her back on the Hawkeyes. According to statistics, Iowa outplayed the fighting Hoosiers from Indiana. A field goal in the fourth quarter spelled the doom of our boys. One field goal was attempted, but missed. Thus ends the Big Ten competition and the last of the home games for the 1937-season. Our record is exactly .000—played five and lost five. Captain Homer Harris played his last home game under Old Gold and Black of Iowa. Fred Smith sophomore end, gave a good account of himself in the time that he was in the fracas. Next week the Hawkeyes will wind up the season at Lincoln where they will lock horns with Nebraska's mighty Cornhuskers.

The Negro Forum met Sunday evening at the Iowa Memorial Union. Plans were made for participation in the city-wide financial campaign which is presented annually by the Religious activities Board of which we are a part.

Well, So Long until next week.

The Monroe Doctrine

The Monroe Doctrine, named for President Monroe and enunciated by him in his presidential message of December 2, 1823, was originated by his Secretary of State, John Quincy Adams. The formation of new republics in South and Central America had led to the belief that European powers were contemplating interference there to restore the old form of government. The fundamental principle of the original Monroe Doctrine is that there are two natural spheres of world influence, separated by the Atlantic ocean, and that European powers should keep out of American affairs. At a later time the doctrine was extended to imply a United States police power or intervention power in this hemisphere.

Human Eye Is the Most Susceptible to Injury

The human eye is one of nature's finest instruments, and one of the most delicate ones. Normally, states a writer in the Chicago Tribune, it is used from the moment of birth until the hour of death, except when its owner is sleeping. It is not so keen as similar organs in certain other forms of life, particularly in high flying birds, but it performs, when in normal condition, adequately for all of man's purposes.

Chief factors involved in seeing, however, are the optic nerve and the center in the brain for vision; the retina, which is the part of the eye that conveys images through the optic nerve; the lens, which focuses the image; the muscles, which control the lens; the iris, which forms the outline of the pupil, regulates its size, and controls the amount of light entering the eye, and the fluids which are necessary to the correct working of the mechanism.

The eyes are subject to many ailments and conditions that may affect vision. Among adults over the age of forty, farsightedness is very common. The eyes may function properly to about that age; then the individual begins to have trouble reading, although he sees objects clearly at a distance.

No organ of the body is so susceptible to injury as the eye. A particle of dust or a cinder may set up infection which, if not treated immediately, may imperil the sight. Any foreign body lodging in the eye can cause extreme discomfort.

A PRAYER FOR YOUTH!

Down through the centuries prayers have been offered for youth. In every age, in every land, parents have earnestly beseeched the All-Wise and All-Powerful to guard their youth.
Even today, prayers are still said for youth. Ours is to let our young men and women be brave, upstanding, self-reliant, honest and honorable, industrious, frugal, and God-fearing. Let them always take thought of the morrow, always PLAN for a Better Day. If youth will do this, they will be saved.

Artist Is Discovered By Mrs. Roosevelt

DISCOVERS CHICAGO TEACHER WHO CREATES PICTURES FROM USELES TRASH

Chicago, Nov. 18—(ANP)—A teacher who creates pictures from chicken bones, peanut shells, fish scales, sawdust, coffee grounds—anything discarded by housewives as useless—was "discovered" by Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt on her recent visit to the Chicago south side.

The artist is Mrs. C. Rosenberg Foster, who teaches weaving in Du Sable high school and who recently told of her work before a teachers' meeting at the University of Illinois. So impressed were they that she was asked to describe it in a book. As a result the manuscript of "Bricks Without Straw," with color plates, is now in the hands of a New York publisher.

Colored Landscapes

One of her most successful pieces is a colored landscape of mountain and waterfall. There is not a paint brush stroke in the picture. It is made of carefully selected and placed pine bark, moss, peony petals and milkweed. She also has a dreamy looking home in pastel colors made entirely of eggshells and chicken bones.

The technique is comparatively simple, but calls for patience and care. Materials receive their color from water in which crepe paper has been soaked. Crushed shells are then applied with precise selection for color to cardboard on which there is glue.

Fish Scales

Transparent fish scales have been made into a brilliant peacock. Yellow eggshells and coffee grounds have become sunflowers. In front of a birch bark fence is a cotton dog. A girl clipped from a magazine is dressed in pencil shavings and discarded washrags become Easter bunnies.

Mrs. Foster hit upon her unique idea in 1934, when the public schools were struck by the depression, and teachers seldom got their salaries. Her weaving class suffered because there were no funds to buy materials for the looms. She spent nights trying to figure a way out, and finally worked out the idea of utilizing things people throw away.

ANDREWS, JUSTICE RE-ELECTED MAGISTRATE IN PHILADELPHIA

New York, Nov. 11—(ANP)—Despite the general city-wide vote given the republican-fusionist slate which re-elected Mayor LaGuardia and put in Special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey as district attorney, Harlem returned Assemblymen Robert W. Justice and William T. Andrews to the state legislature on the democratic ticket.

First Kindergarten Was in Blankenburg, Germany

That idea of schooling as simply the fostering of the best natural growth was in the mind of Frederick Froebel when he opened the first kindergarten in the little town of Blankenburg, Germany, in 1837, and found a name for his educational idea, says a writer in the New York Times. From a hilltop where he could see the village houses, each with its tiny garden plot, he made his famous declaration: "Eureka! I have it! Kindergarten it shall be!"

Froebel's first school was at Keilhau, established in 1816. The working plan of that school and his educational theory he put into print in 1826 in the "Education of Man." The "Means of Education" used there and printed in "Education of Man" would be an acceptable course of study in a modern country day school.

Froebel's experience in this school and his observations of mothers with their children in the home life about him led to his conviction that education was a continuous process; and to be effective should begin in early childhood. For twenty years he thought and worked over his plans for obtaining a more abundant life for children.

He had made his appeal to parents for a better understanding of child nature in the following terms: "O men, as you stroll through garden or meadow or field or copse, why not use your sense to perceive what nature would teach you? Behold the plant! When grown under pressure you scarcely guess its natural life and purpose, but in open ground it becomes a sun of green rays, a star of leaves. Your child, too, O parents, have it in them to become creatures fully developed to beauty."

Smoke Small Particles Suspended in the Air

Smoke is nothing more than myriads of small solid particles suspended in the air, writes Dr. Thomas M. Beck in the Chicago Tribune. These particles are denser than air, yet they settle only with extreme slowness because of two facts. A falling body soon reaches a speed at which its weight is balanced by the air resistance opposing its motion. This resistance is roughly proportional to the amount of surface exposed, and the smaller the body, the greater the ratio of surface to weight and the slower its rate of fall through air. Smoke particles usually are so small that their rates of fall hardly are perceptible. In addition, the particles' motion through the air causes them to pick up electrical charges, and the mutual repulsion of these charges prevents the particles from coalescing into larger particles which would fall more quickly.

It is a surprising fact that these smoke particles are much harder to remove from air than are the far smaller molecules of a gaseous impurity. Air can be freed from foreign gases by bubbling it through the right kind of absorbing liquid or by passing it through a loosely packed mass of a porous solid absorbent. These methods frequently fail with smokes.

The reason for this difference lies in the fact that the small, light gas molecules are in a state of constant motion, and travel at incredible speeds which quickly bring them into contact with the absorbing material. On the other hand the far heavier smoke particles drift very slowly through the rest of the gas, and only a few of them have time to reach the absorbent.

Invented the Lifeboat

The first lifeboat of which any complete account exists was invented by a Frenchman in 1795; but there are no records that it was ever used, says London Answers Magazine. So the honor of designing the lifeboat as we know it may be divided between three Englishmen. Wouldhave invented the self-righting boat; Lukin designed the non-self-righting sailing lifeboat; and Greadhead actually built the first lifeboat. This noteworthy vessel was launched at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1799; it did good service for thirty years, saving hundreds of lives.

Murderer Revealed Crime

A strange case of the lack of observation occurred during the assassination of President Marie Carnot of France in Lyons on June 24, 1894. Accompanied by three friends, two grooms and surrounded by mounted police, he was riding in his state carriage when a man jumped on the running board and fatally stabbed him. The first inkling of the tragedy, according to a writer in Collier's Weekly, came from the murderer, who attracted attention to himself when, running down the street, he shouted, "Vive l'anarchie!"

Heavy Water

Heavy water is water in which the hydrogen atom is replaced by the double-weight hydrogen isotope, deuterium. Chemically it is indistinguishable from ordinary water, except that a given amount weighs more. It is mixed with ordinary water in the proportion of about one part in 6,000. It was first prepared by the electrolysis process at the Bureau of Standards shortly after the discovery of the heavy hydrogen atom.

Lutheran Church Much Older Than Methodist

The Lutheran church is about two centuries older than the Methodist, notes a writer in the Detroit News. As its name indicates, it was founded by Martin Luther, whose opposition to certain doctrines and practices of the Catholic church led to his excommunication in 1520. The organization of his church began soon afterward and in 1530 the Augsburg Confession was adopted as its fundamental creed. From Wittenberg in Saxony Lutheranism spread throughout Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Netherlands, Poland, Hungary, etc. The first Lutherans came to America as early as 1643 and established a congregation in 1648.

The Methodist church was an offshoot of the Church of England and was at first a reform movement within that church. John and Charles Wesley had in 1729 formed at Oxford university a club for the promotion of personal religion and their careful observance of rather strict rules of conduct led to the term "Methodists." Briefly, the open-air preaching of the Wesleys and of George Whitefield and the opposition of the Church of England gradually developed the Methodist system into a church, from 1738 onward. The first Methodists arrived in America from Ireland in 1760 and six years later, their fanatical Philip Embury, formed the first Methodist society in America.

HOLD HEARING WEDNESDAY ON MITCHELL'S JIM CROW COMPLAINT

Chicago, Nov. 11—(ANP)—A hearing on the complaint of Rep. Arthur W. Mitchell that he was jim crowed and forced to ride in a second class railway coach, although he had a first class ticket, will be held here Wednesday at the Hotel Sherman, the interstate commerce commission announced last week.

Defending the action are the Illinois central and the Rock Island and Pacific railroads and the Pullman company, who, the congressman charges, violated the interstate commerce act as well as the federal constitution last April 20th when, on a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., from Memphis, he was forced to give up the first class seat he held.

Mitchell asserted the railroads, claiming to act under authority of Arkansas law, based their action on the fact he is a Negro. The car in which he was forced to ride was used jointly for passengers, train crew and baggage and was "small, poorly ventilated, filthy and indescribably unsanitary," he declared.

MUST TAKE HAILE SELASSIE'S CLAIM TO HIGHER COURT

Paris, France, Nov. 11—(ANP)—At last Wednesday's hearing on the suit of Emperor Haile Selassie, whose lawyers are seeking to have 8,000 shares of stock in the Ethiopian railroad transferred to the name of the former ruler, Judge Mallefaut declared he was incompetent to hand down a ruling.

He said the case involved the principles of international law and of private rights, thus remained outside the jurisdiction of his court. The Italian government claims ownership of the stock in the railroad, which is French owned and plys between Addis Ababa and Djibouti. It was said later that the case would be taken to a higher court.

CHURCH GROUPS SEEKING PAROLE FOR R. C. BRUCE, JR.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 11—(C)—Church groups are active in seeking a parole for Roscoe C. Bruce, Jr., who unwittingly confessed to the "fake holdup" of the Richard B. Harrison apartments at his trial last week.

London, Nov. 11.—(ANP)—Jacob Epstein's latest piece of sculpture, "Consummatum Est," which shows the body of Christ brought down from the cross and laid in a tomb, has aroused a storm of controversy in local circles with one of the main protests being that the figure is a "Negro type."

The famous modernist, whose statue, "Christ," created almost as much furore when it was unveiled several years ago, has carved a figure "with flat face, heavy shortened legs and huge feet which are reminiscent of some primitive Negro sculpture," according to some of Epstein's bitterest critics.

Waldie Coes Round & Round

Station F. B. last week came through in a swiftest style telling of all the happenings etc., at Iowa City and around town too—Well for the weeks low-down if there is any. The Y victory banquet was held Tuesday evening at First Methodist church with a great deal of success for some—but I wonder how Chuck Danforth felt and why he made such a quick exit—Couldn't be because could it? Incidentally I wonder if A. Ashby was at the bottom of anything—

One of my running mates left town last evening—and I wonder what Bobby Parker will do now?—seen at the Anna Mae Winburn dance with L. Redrick, Lucille Day, Marguerite Williams, the Vanderbilts, Fords and Casa Lomians—and how could I forget Mo Wilson who swung out the entire evening—not to mention F. O. J. —East has been properly vanquished by as usual they went down fighting—it was a great game anyway—but I did miss Tommy Avant—my sympathies Avant for missing the last game of your career—but things like that do happen—forgot to mention that Evelyn E. and Phyllis N. had a rare time at the dance also—The next college and high school dance will be the 28th with everyone invited to enter the "Big Apple contest"—has luck to all you cats—

The column wouldn't be complete this week without mentioning the T. O. B. minstrels at the Center last Thursday—the show was a hound in capital letters—the only thing possible missing was Adelaide Bowman who was ill—But the Eaves carried on with Ethel solid cutting up—and Fumadoo Mathews really crooned "Once in a While"—but the blue ribbon numbers of the show was the "Beef Trust" chorus doing "halling the jack" and other of the Gay Ninety numbers—Don't let any one fool you about Octavia R. Besides welding a tennis racket she can also sing—The low down on the Y Star show will be forthcoming in next weeks issue—Good news for all you basketball fans—Crocker Y basketball will get into swing the middle of December—much

WHAT DOES SENATOR HERRING MEAN?

When the Wagner Van Nuys anti-lynching bill was before the Senate last summer it was reported that Senator Herring was opposed to it. Following some pressure from some of his constituents and friends, he wrote the Des Moines Branch, N. A. A. C. P. on July 27, 1937: "I, yesterday, voted favorably upon this anti-lynching bill but by a vote of 31-34 the measure was tabled." Naturally the people of Iowa thought that Senator Herring was favorable to both the consideration and passage of the bill and when the Senate adjourned last summer anti-lynching legislation would be taken up immediately following the agricultural bill.

However, the friends of agriculture are so divided that they have not been able to present a bill for consideration and of course nobody with any sense of decency thought other than that the anti-lynching bill would be next up for debate on its merits.

But to behold some of the southern senators who in their characteristic practice of throwing every law, gentleman's agreement and rules of procedure to the wind when it comes to dealing with any subject which involves according Negroes a place under the sun other than the place assigned them by those southerners are filibustering to keep the bill from coming to a vote and that in spite of the fact that it is known that friends of the bill have sufficient votes to insure its passage.

However southern senators don't do all the dirt. Senator Herring has joined them. Richard Wilson, Washington correspondent for the Register quotes him while fuming over the filibuster conducted against the bill as follows: "When legislation that is needed is side-tracked so that a play can be made for the votes of Harlem, then is there any wonder the country has no more respect for congress."

The Bystander hates to think that a United States Senator from Iowa would make such a shallow, dirty statement when he knows it is not true. If he has found out who is in the Senate he ought to know that many senators favor the bill who have practically no Negro constituents.

Mr. Wilson quotes this further statement from him: "I shall vote both against considering the anti-lynching bill, and against the bill itself. This is an outrageous situation when matters of this kind can be brought up to the detriment of legislation which is of the most important nature."

Senator Herring says he is for the principle of the bill but is not willing to follow procedure which enables the proponents of the legislation to side-track farm legislation.

The two statements are not consistent. If he favored the bill he would help break the filibuster and aid in its passage. No, he is not for it and the best proof is that he uses the same arguments against it as does Senator Smith of South Carolina and Tom Connolly of Texas.

Every Negro and every friend of the Negro who voted for Senator Herring should hang his head in shame for he has betrayed them and joined hands with the very gang which works in and out of season to keep this country from giving all of its citizens equal protection of the law. Sure people don't have respect for Congress and that lack of respect is due to the presence of too many of just such men as Senator Herring among its members.

If the anti-lynching bill passes it will become a law in spite of such northern men as Senator Herring who preach one doctrine before election and vote another after election.

FOOTBALL AT IOWA UNIVERSITY.

When Tubbs was selected head football coach at Iowa University the Bystander felt that Negroes were interested in knowing what his attitude would be toward Negro candidates for the football squad. With this idea in view, a letter of inquiry was addressed to Coach Tubbs upon his arrival at the university and in his reply he gave the names of a number of his friends both white and black who could testify better than he on the basis of his record and said he would be willing to stand on what they said.

Negro members of the football squad say he is fine to work with. The manner in which he has played the Negro members of the squad is ample proof that Coach Tubbs is interested in winning football games and the color of the player's skin does not determine whether he plays or not.

It is mighty fine that this situation prevails and we are proud of it. Unfortunately, the team has not won any of its important games this year. However the scoring does not reflect the strength of the team for anyone who has followed its games this season will agree it is a good aggregation and although the breaks have been decidedly against them their opponents knew when the games were over that they had been in a real battle.

Coach Tubbs and his boys are entitled to a big hand and the continued support of the Iowa fans. Undoubtedly he is going to develop a strong

What Others Say

WHAT PART DO WE PLAY?

Des Moines is a wonderful city to live in. The group relationship here is far better than ninety-five per cent of any of our cities. The question that naturally arises, is what part have we played, and to whom is entitled the credit? You yourself can answer the question, Des Moines is truly a city of preparation. How many have taken the advantage of the situation. From an educational standpoint, what has been your opportunity? From an economical standpoint, what has been your opportunity? From a religious standpoint, we have had exceptional opportunity to raise our religious standard. In this we have miserably failed. In our last religious institute, every president and worker in our Mission department in our churches had an opportunity to train for better service under a very competent Negro instructor, and only two Negro churches enrolled. Should we study to show ourselves approved of God; should we study to rightly divide the Word of God. Where do you place the responsibility.

No, our pay check has been our God, and we have never looked beyond it, and we have never gone beyond it. The time is now here that the Negro must become a maker of pay checks and not so much a receiver. There are a very few Negroes that are makers of pay checks—The Iowa Bystander stands at the head of the list. Our contribution to this wonderful city, is what we are able to add to it, and not what we are to subtract from it. Life is not accumulation, our circulation. Have you in mind one Negro public project that we can foster for the good of the us thrash it out. Remember—Time Marches on.

DELIRIUM TREMENS

This is a form of acute delirium seldom seen in wine and beer drinkers, but most commonly found in those who are habitual users of whiskey, gin, brandy and other spirituous liquors. It may develop during a period of intense and persistent alcoholism, or in more moderate imbibers who have suffered severe shock, accidents, etc.

The symptoms are more violent during the night, and the most prominent being hallucinations of sight. The things the individual will imagine he can see may be the ordinary articles, or animals of a household. On the other hand, they take the form of terrifying animals and unreal shapes. The patient has no conception of surroundings and fails to recognize his family. The memory is completely lost, with incoordination of all extremities and difficult speech.

Frequently he becomes so violent that he must be committed to an institution for treatment. Moderate drinkers never suffer with this condition.

BOSSES KNEW OF GAS LEAKS BEFORE FATAL BLAST

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 11—(CNA)—Long before a horrible disaster crushed and mangled the bodies of thirty-four miners—twenty-three of them Negroes—officials of the Woodward Iron Co. were aware that Mulga was a "hot," dangerous mine, R. J. Marshall, vice president of the company, admitted after the explosion two weeks ago had horrified the nation, that Mulga was regarded as a "tough average."

For several weeks before the disaster, the miners had been suffering from severe headaches caused by the highly inflammable methane gas. The section in which the men were working, subsequent investigation revealed, was so filled with the gas that even a slight spark may have caused the catastrophe that blew thirty-four men to bits.

R. M. W.—Will I get the promised promotion or would I do better in business for myself?

Ans.—You very probably would be better satisfied in your own business, but it would not be wise quitting your present business connection at this time. Remain as you are until after the promotion or until you are in better financial circumstances.

E. W.—I am the mother of two beautiful twin children. Recently I met a young man who wishes to marry me in spite of my mistake in life. Should I marry him?

Ans.—There is no good reason why you should not marry the man and try to live in peace and comfort for the balance of your life. He must be a noble person to forgive your mistake and be willing to be a father of your children.

W. C.—My father and brother both have good jobs, earning nice salaries. Should my brother continue to work and help support the family or go back to school?

Ans.—There is no doubt but what your brother's salary would be a welcome addition to the family budget, however, I think the family could manage without his help during the school term. He has every right to secure an education and should be allowed to do so.

M. A. E. R.—For over four years I have been troubled with large, ugly spots on my face. If there is any way whereby I can have these spots removed, I am willing and able to work the rest of my life to do so. Will I get them removed?

Ans.—It is indeed unfortunate that a young and otherwise attractive girl should be afflicted in such a way as yourself. Whatever means you employ to remove the blemishes, do so only with the advice and consent of your doctor.

M. F.—Is there any need of keeping my boy with me and sending him to school?

Ans.—Absolutely. Keep your son with you at all costs and see that he secures the best education possible. Guide his footsteps on the right path of life during his early years and he will make you proud of him in his manhood.

A. M. F.—Is there a "jinx" on me or just what is the trouble? It seems that I never get the things that I want.

Ans.—I fear that you have adopted an attitude of wishful waiting in trying to gain the good things in life, rather than really working for them. You have no right to expect to gain anything without making an effort to get it. Most worthwhile things are gained only through hard work and faithfulness to duty.

R. E. H.—Will my hair ever grow long like the hair of other girls? When will I marry?

Ans.—There are several preparations on the market that would aid you in growing a lustrous head of hair. I am sending you the information today that will tell you where and how to secure just what you need for your hair. You will be married as soon as you learn to make yourself attractive.

The new magistrate will hold office for six years at an annual salary of $5,000, the same pay received as a boxing commissioner. He was the only Negro candidate in Tuesday's race.
