COMMITTEE TELLS REPUBLICAN PARTY 'WHAT THE NEGRO WANTS'

CHICAGO, Ill., March 10. (CNS)—The nine colored members of the recently formed 'Republican program committee' responded to the call of Dr. Glenn Frank, its chairman, in a two-day session at the Palmer House here this week. These representatives took active part in the creation of the basic machinery with which the committee plans to sound out the rank-and-file sentiment throughout the country.

Mrs. Sara Felham Speaks of New York City, in an address at the banquet meeting on Monday night "sounded the tocsin" when she declared that "the Negro like other disaffected groups will readily return to the party the moment the party shows an understanding of the needs of his people." The speech, listened to with marked attention, drew great applause at its close, and was reported as voicing the combined views of all colored members of the committee.

Nine regional sub-committees were set up for active work throughout the country and one of the nine colored members will serve on each sub-committee as follows: Frederick M. Roberts, editor, New Age Dispatch, Los Angeles, Calif.; William E. King, state senator, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. S. Joe Brown, housewife, civic interests, 1059 Fifth avenue, Des Moines, Iowa; Joseph S. Mitchell, lawyer, Boston, Mass.; John O. Hopkins, Jr., theatrical producer, Detroit, Mich.; Francis E. Rivers, lawyer, New York City; Mrs. Sara Felham Speaks, lawyer, New York City; Bishop David N. Sims, clergyman, Philadelphia, Pa., and Thomas G. Nutter, lawyer, Charleston, W. Va.

Sphinx Club Will Repeat Fair Monday

"Country Fair in Harlem," the much discussed presentation of the Sphinx club, will be repeated Monday evening, March 14th, at the Billiken ballroom.

Because of the elaborate setup of "Country Fair in Harlem," false rumors have been circulated to the effect that the club is being backed by White concerns. No one other than the Sphinx club is connected with this outstanding attraction.

Capacity crowds filled the ballroom at the previous presenting of "Country Fair" and arrangements are being made to take care of an even greater number next Monday. Three grand awards will be given to the lucky ticket holders.

K. C. Man to Defend Killer

LOS ANGELES, March 10. (ANP)—Going to bat as usual for the unfortunate worker, Loren Miller, brilliant young barrister, formerly of Kansas City, Kan., has disregarded remuneration and rushed to the defense of George Farley, to be tried soon for the killing of two deputy marshals.

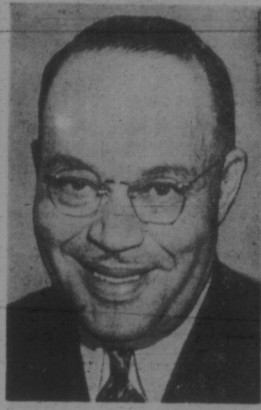

The officers, Dwight Crittenden and Leon Romer, were attempting to dispossess him of his home. Farley and his wife had purchased the little home in 1923 and finished paying for it in 1928. But unable to pay a street improvement bond of $46.48, it was foreclosed and the firm of Trampeter & Company bought it in for a trifle.

Alexander Lauds Mussolini's Program After Tour in Europe and Africa

By Everett Wadsworth, Staff Writer

"Italy has made more progress since the war than any other country on the continent," A. A. Alexander, 2901 Fifth avenue, widely known engineer and contractor, said in an interview Monday about his recent trip to Europe and Africa. Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Alexander left New York last November 27 on the Italian liner "Vulcania," bound for the coast of Portugal.

Returning to the United States on February 16, the tour by ship, train, plane, auto, horseback and camel, included Gibraltar, Algeria, Sicily, Italy, Egypt, Palestine, Trans-Jordan, Isles of Rhodes in the Mediterranean Sea, back through Italian soil on to Switzerland, France, Belgium, Holland and the British Isles.

Rehabilitation
Displaying intense enthusiasm in Mussolini's program, Mr. Alexander's impressions of Italy, where he spent most of his time, were most profound. "Fascism would be a good thing for many countries, and possibly the dictatorship saved this one from a complete collapse," he related. "With practically no unemployment, Italians are living on a better standard than those of their American brothers."

His nationalistic idea has created a loyalty of his people second to none in the world," the engineer stated. Mussolini's idea, which is instilled into young children, is to rejuvenate Italian culture in art, science and literature, restore the glory of ancient Rome which was once theirs. Tourists are made especially welcome and are treated with utmost cordiality, both white and black, he reported, because Italians are anxious to make friends with foreigners.

Even in England, where American race hatred is gradually creeping, the Alexanders were treated with respect and courtesy everywhere; they stopped at several of the best hotels there. Bishop and Mrs. R. E. Wright, A. M. E. missionary to Africa, were met in London. "Negroes aren't a curiosity there as they seem to be in America," they observed.

The more than 1,500 Negroes in England present almost no race problem with the exception of Wales, where many African stevedores and poor whites live. The League of Colored People, of which Dr. Harold Moody is president, is similar to the N. A. A. C. P. of the United States, he said. Their activities in fighting for rights and against discrimination are conducted much in the same manner.

Dies in Gas Chamber For Doctor's Slaying

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 10. (ANP)—Last Friday, for the first time in many years, a Kansas City Negro was executed for killing another of his race, when William Wright paid the extreme penalty in the lethal gas chamber at Jefferson City state prison. Wright, in holding up the drug store of Dr. Thomas McCampbell four years ago, shot the doctor, who died within a few minutes afterwards.

Dr. McCampbell's family secured the services of Attorney C. H. Calloway to assist the state in the prosecution of Wright. He was convicted the first time, and sentenced to hang.

The case was appealed to the supreme court and sent back on error. bar apartments here with her mother, a member of the New York Kindergarten association.

Puts Limit on A.M.E. Delegates

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 10. (A.N.P.)—The Bishops council voted unanimously at its meeting here last week to retain the limit imposed upon delegates to the general conference. Only three ministerial and three lay delegates will be certified from each conference.

This was one of the most vigorously contested actions of the council. Conferences such as New York, Baltimore, Chicago and Philadelphia, which in the past have had from twelve to sixteen delegates, will now have but six. The result is certain to be great competition within the conferences for places as delegates.

Howard Observes 71st Anniversary

WASHINGTON, March 10. (ANP)—The romantic story of the founding of Howard university as well as its rise to fame was told in a program before an audience of trustees, officers and members of the faculties of the nine schools and colleges of the university, students and alumni. Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of the university, and Thaddeus L. Hungate, controller of Teachers' college, Columbia university, N. Y., chairman of the board of trustees of Howard university, were main speakers.

Howard's Graduates Lauded
Mr. Hungate, in his address, referred to the unique position Howard university occupies among the higher educational institutions for the training of Negro leaders for public service. "Howard university," said Mr. Hungate, "has now become important as a center among the Negro colleges for the professional training of doctors, dentists, pharmacists, lawyers." The exercises were brought to a close by an address which was broadcast over the radio, which address was delivered by Secretary of the Interior Ickes.

Rev. Robinson Surveys Work in Bahamas

Nassau, Bahama Islands—(Special to the Bystander)—The following letter was sent to America this week by the Rev. G. W. Robinson, pastor Corinthian Baptist church in Des Moines, and moderator of the Iowa-Nebraska Baptist association who is studying home mission work here.

To My Friends in the States and Elsewhere:

I find myself today, February 28th, sitting on a porch in the midst of ferns and beautiful flowers all around, in one of the most modern homes in Nassau, with a splendid young lady taking my dictation.

Since our visit here we have made some successful researches covering the social, educational and spiritual life of the 30,000 in Nassau. This is a most interesting and romantic city. The people are very congenial, jovial and happy. I find some of them living in some of the most modern homes and enlightened environments.

Nearly all of the policemen are Negroes Postoffice employees and attorneys nearly are all colored. In fact, about sixty per cent of the customs officers and deck hands are colored. It was quite interesting to see them at their work as foremen, bosses and managers. I have been in the office of one of the most outstanding attorneys, T. A. Toote, who has an office girl quite as efficient as any I have found in the states. I went into the court house, where Bar-rister Toote was conducting a trial.

Ingram Quits Study Young Negro Group For Role in 'Haiti'

NEW YORK, March 10. (ANP)—Rex Ingram, who says he has a doctor's degree in medicine and a Phi Beta Kappa key from Northwestern university where he was reputedly a star athlete, gave up his research in tuberculosis to return to the stage where he is now portraying the role of Christophe in "Haiti," now being presented at the Lafayette theatre, it was announced last week by the W. P. A. Federal Theatre project, producers of the show.

Mr. Ingram is most famous for "De Lawd" in the screen version of "The Green Pastures." His first screen appearance was in 1920 while in Los Angeles. After several films, he appeared on the stage, his most notable role being in "Stevodore." When called to play the part of Christophe, Mr. Ingram had started doing research work in tuberculosis, with his brother-in-law, Dr. Orville L. Ballard, house physician at the Waverly Hills Tubercular sanitarium in Louisville.

Johnson Golden Gloves Finalist

SIoux CITY, Iowa.—Clayton Johnson, clever Negro bantamweight from Sioux City, was the one of two Iowa fighters to survive the third and quarter-final rounds in the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions in Chicago last week.

As a result of his two triumphs he will return to Chicago March 11 for the semi-finals. Hammering out a clean cut victory over Mitchell Walton of Dayton, Ohio, he gained a position as favorite.

Eight Iowa boxers participated but were eliminated: Al Powell, Wayland Heath, Lewis Taylor and Tommy Pen-son, of WHO team of Des Moines; Harold Briggs and Herman Howard of Art Taylor's team of the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Gazette, and James Woolridge of Burlington.

Troop 35 in the capital city of the former southern confederacy, has been named "Jewell" in tribute to one who introduced this form of activity among her sex in that region.

Life Story Reads Like Fiction Page

Employed by Man He Once Helped For $15 a Week

CHICAGO, March 10. (ANP)—Following his release last Friday from Joliet prison where he had served three years of his one-to-ten-year sentence for embezzlement in connection with the defunct Binga State bank, Jesse Binga said this week that he would devote the remainder of his life to religious work among his people.

Former Banker Binga's spectacular rise as a business man and financier reads like a page from a fiction story. Coming to Chicago during the first World Fair in 1893, with a $10 bill in his pocket, and jobless, he soon got his bearings and in the two decades that followed, ran up his "original capital" to a fortune estimated by many at a million dollars.

The former banker has been paroled to the Rev. Joseph F. Eckert, pastor St. Anselm's Roman Catholic church—to which, some years ago, Binga donated the sum of $1,000 for erection of a new building. Father Eckert assured parole officials that Binga would be paid $15 a week for working at the church.

Rose Temple Endorses Meet

Rose Temple No. 33, I. B. P. O. E. W., under the direction of Mrs. Mabel M. Mason, associate general chairman of the Mid-West states convention, gave a chicken dinner Thursday at the Roadside Settlement house. The auxiliary is putting forth much effort to entertain this convention which will bring large delegations from all parts of the mid-western states, May 30 through June 1.

W. J. Shepherd, president of the Mid-West association; Harry Wilson, chairman of the committee on finance; and Mrs. Agnes Wilson, daughter ruler, have expressed much satisfaction for the progress being made.

This will be the last publication of the oratorical contest subjects before the closing registration date, Tuesday, March 15, J. G. Browne, general committee chairman and registrar of the contest, has announced. (See inside page.)

Henderson's Dance Ticket Sales Rapid

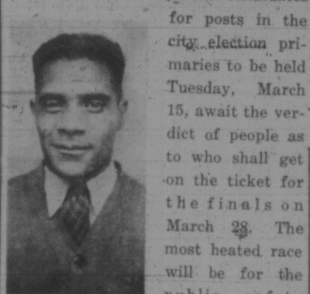

Fletcher Henderson's orchestra, playing for a dance at the Pla-Lan Monday, March 21, is bringing a sixteen-piece aggregation; the same group heard over the network from Chicago last winter. The maestro is attempting arrangements for a broadcast of this dance on that evening.

The welcoming of Eddie Barefield, first saxophonist, former Des Moines boy, is adding interest to this spring attraction. T. L. (Speck) Howard, promoter, is urging an early purchase of tickets now on sale, to avoid disappointment. "A large block of tickets were being purchased by several out-of-towners," he said.

Included in the membership are Negro youths from all parts of the city, representing varied vocations and employment, whose common interests are community and civic work, Ashby outlined. Reiterating his stand, he said that the club is not primarily political, but is "for any issue of the day that is for civic betterment."

Winding up a comparatively quiet campaign, the twenty-three candidates for posts in the city election primaries to be held Tuesday, March 15, await the verdict of people as to who shall get on the ticket for the finals on March 23. The most heated race will be for the public safety commissioner post now occupied by Henry F. Hasbrouck who is seeking his second term. Six others seek to topple him from his position.

Allen Ashby

Among the Negroes, the interest in the campaign seems to have centered on the Young Negro Progressive club, led by Allen Ashby, widely known in sports, athletics and Y. M. C. A. work. He is sports editor of the Iowa Bystander. The Rev. J. W. Tutt is chairman of the advisory committee.

In spite of Ashby's persistent denials that the club is just another political organization of the "mush-room" variety (which springs up overnight only to disappear into oblivion after an election), this group of young athletes and Y men are credited with playing a decisive part in the Negro vote in the recent city manager fight.

Two Months Old
Less than two months old, the club has definitely stamped itself as a factor in local affairs and observers are predicting it as becoming one of the most powerful community organizations ever yielded in Des Moines. The recent appointment of James Allen, club treasurer, to the city police force is noted as significant recognition of its work," the president pointed out.

"The day of one man Negro leadership is fading . . . for years Des Moines Negroes have been exploited by self-appointed political leaders . . . whose object was a few dollars or a job for themselves," Ashby said. "Officials have seldom had to deal with local colored people . . . all working for a common cause."

City Wide

Included in the membership are Negro youths from all parts of the city, representing varied vocations and employment, whose common interests are community and civic work, Ashby outlined. Reiterating his stand, he said that the club is not primarily political, but is "for any issue of the day that

It shall be the editorial policy of the Iowa Bystander to voice the convictions of the Negro. Fringe and criticism will be constructive in its nature, with a definite regard for the program of all. FEDERAL MONEY FOR EDUCATION

The federal government is being urged to embark upon a program destined to appropriate more than eight hundred million dollars over a period of six years for education in the various states. This the sponsors say has been made necessary because of the meager educational facilities in some states and their poor financial position to provide better schools. The money is to be allocated according to need rather than on the basis of population.

Representatives from some states are beginning to insist that the money be given with no strings tied to it; in short, they want to handle it without restrictions laid down by the federal government. Most of this argument comes from southern states where from three to ten dollars are spent on a white child for education while one is being spent on a Negro child.

Most of the taxes from which these funds will be derived come from states which have kept their educational system up to date and will therefore get little of the federal funds. It is bad enough for these backward states to spend their own money inequitably. It will be worse to spend that of others in the same manner.

However, the idea is a good one for in spite of the progress we have made in education, too much illiteracy prevails among us. Then too money spent for education will do us much more good than many of the projects that have taken our money during the past few years.

VOTE TUESDAY

Tuesday the voters of Des Moines go to the polls to select nominees for the final election to be held on March 28.

It is highly important that everybody votes, for it is a privilege every good citizen should exercise.

The best candidates for office should be nominated, for it will not be possible to elect good officials if the list from which the choice is finally made does not contain competent people.

The Bystander simply urges that you vote and that you vote for the best candidate.

SOME PROGRESS HERE

It is indeed a poor campaign headquarters today which does not have one or two Negro workers in it; and their work includes stenographic and clerical duties as well as the fellows who are around just to kill time.

A few years ago that was not the case. The practice shows that here and there Negro political leaders have been insisting on a larger share of what office seekers have to give out.

In most cases the idea startles political managers but they are quick to be shown that "you seek the Negro vote, spend some of your money with him." Which only goes to show that race prejudice can and will be waived in many instances if a fellow sees that he can gain an advantage by doing so.

THAT MANY STILL

The American Federation of Labor reports that there are more than ten million, nine hundred thousand people out of work. That does not sound very good nor does it speak well for all the "shots" we have been given to put men back to work.

It simply shows that the solution of this problem is far distant.

CROCKER Y. LEAGUE

Dames Bros. took over the feature game of the East High program Tuesday night. It seems that no matter who plays that game at East they just can't win. Daniels grabbed the Jaquinta Fruit boys and led all the way until the last three minutes. Then the drive of the fruit gang pulled them out, 40-39, after a wild scramble.

The other half of the twin bill included a game between the Blue Triangle girls and the Dubin A. C. girls. The first half was played under girls' rules and the Blue Triangle girls led by a small margin. The second half was played under boys' rules and the Triangle girls' superior size and speed gave them a decided advantage. We forgot the score, but the Dubin gang finished a bad second. The Jr. Hawks dusted the Tigers in the intermediate game and the H. I. B.'s got a forfeit in the other. The Jr. Tigers swamped the Flying Aces in the junior league.

Wednesday night at West, the intermediate team of Daniels Bros. and the All-Stars played with the league leadership at stake. The All-Stars got up a grand battle, but bowed to the difference in size and two much Pats Miller, 27-21. The H. I. B.'s took the Panthers into camp 12-7 on the junior league, and the Y. Stars tangled with Corinthians to play off a tie of a few weeks ago. It was a real tight game up until Estes had to leave on an emergency call. Then the Stars went to town and sat on Corinthian, 43-25. The Monarchs won a forfeit from the Comets in the other middle league game.

Friday night came the scuffle that the boys had waited all season for. The league read was at stake when the Y. Stars and Daniels took the floor. After a battle that was as thrilling as any we have seen this year, the Daniels boys came out on top, 28-27. Joe Danforth thought he had dropped in the winning basket with ten seconds to play, but a technical violation by a Daniels player made the long shot void. The Stars fought their hearts out and losing that game seemed to take a lot out of them, because the next night they couldn't even see the ball. The defensive work of hustling, stressy Bob Vandever kept the Daniels boys in the running.

Although Bob Parker limited Vandy's usual high scoring to a free throw, Parker and Powell were hot for the Stars and Paul Walker and Jack Howard got the most points for the Stars. The grudge battle between...

Queen the Raiders and Rockets was also a humdinger, with the Rockets dropping in a free throw in the last three seconds to win, 16-15. St. Paul, with Heywood Brewer staging a comeback after two seasons' absence, had a hard time getting started against the Florshelm Shoe gang, but finally opened up in the last half. The St. Paul gang shined the shoe for 32-17. In the Jr. league the Jr. Y. Stars walloped the Panthers by a lopsided score, 22-4.

We have neglected high school basketball all season, but now we tip our hats to the boys in recognition of their fine work. Melvin Madison, Al Powell and Paul Williams of North; Harold Miller and Guy Jackson of East, along with Charley Swink of Valley, deserve all the recognition due them and this department commends you on your fine play. FROM THE UPPER ROOM

"By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them"

Jesus said: "Men do not gather grapes of thorns nor figs of thistles"; "By their fruits ye shall know them." Again he said, "Do not call me Lord, and do not the things I say." For after all the acid test of life is its influence. Is it good—or is it evil? Men care little about what we say, but much about how we act. Not what we profess, but what we possess is the evidence of a genuine Christian life.

Said Emerson: "What you are speaks so loud, I can not hear what you say." These words ring clear today, for we have many loud speakers. If we would bear the fruits of the Spirit: love, kindness, gentleness; long suffering, and meekness; how much better our world would be. When we think of life as merely being only a sheet of paper on which we may write, and then comes night, we would soon begin to trim our sails for the right direction. The text: "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." Matt. 7:20.

The Prayer "O God, our Father, take our lives and make them Thine and Thine alone. Separate us from all that separates us from Thee. Sanctify every power of our being to the glory of Thy name and the bringing in of Thy kingdom." Amen.

Thought, For the Day "The trivial round, the common task, Will furnish all we ought to ask; Room to deny ourselves, a road. To bring us daily nearer to God." John Keble

Rev. Jordan W. Tutt, Pastor Union Baptist Church

W. Robinson; talk on "Well Known Negro Missionaries," Oradella McCarroll, and remarks by Rev. Beverly. Rev. Robinson will be in charge next Sunday.

which was very interesting. I am sure that, with a little money, the people of Nassau could rank with the foremost of our race anywhere. Now as to religion, which is my chief interest here. There is one Presbyterian church in the whole colony, and what few Negroes are Presbyterians, attend it. There are four Wesleyan churches and quite a number of Catholics and Episcopalians. There isn't a single white Baptist church in the whole of the Bahama Islands, but I am thankful to say that the Negro Baptists have the foremost among the evangelical churches.

There are approximately between twelve and fifteen Baptist churches right here in Nassau. The Salem Baptist church, of which the Rev. Enoch Backford is pastor, and located in the heart of the city just across from the colonial public buildings, is a real nice structure and is composed of a very intelligent membership. I will write from time to time and inform you of these others.

The Metropolitan Baptist church, of which the Rev. J. E. Hutcheson is pastor, has the largest membership. Their devotional services could not be surpassed by any in the United States. All of these churches and the Baptist people in general are centering their attention on the work of day nursery and educational centers. They believe, as we do, that this will be the means of the starting of a Baptist school in the Bahama Islands. Miss Mattie Fisher of Chicago and Mrs. Reed of Philadelphia, with the co-operation of the people in the islands, under the direction of Rev. T. T. Lovelace, has a splendid outline for the future; therefore let us co-operate with them and send some money for the cause of religion for our good brethren-of-the Bahamas.

MASON CITY

608 N. Mass. Ave. Mason City, Iowa March 7, 1938 Mr. Leland W. Green, Bystander Publishing Co., Des Moines, Iowa

Dear Sir:—As an officer of the Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, please accept my thanks for the liberal space you are allowing in your paper for our federation news, notices and such. We hope to show our appreciation by the proper use of this space. I am planning to send in for a year's subscription to the Bystander within the next two weeks and I hope many other club women will do the same. Sincerely yours, (Mrs.) Alberta A. McGinty.

BE PREPARED

By Agnes Matthews Time is swiftly passing. We have but a few months to get ready for our state meeting. The question is, will your art be ready? "Bring your best work—Standard must be raised. Give your support to the department of Arts and Crafts in order that we may stimulate interest. Every action of recognized merit and ability has demonstrated its knowledge, interest and appreciation for art education. The members of the Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs demonstrate their ability through the Arts and Crafts department. It is the one medium through which many of them speak. Many women unable to attend the state meetings demonstrate their talent by sending their work to the meetings. Economy is taught by transforming discarded articles into things of usefulness and beauty. Many join our clubs because of the value of the arts as an educational factor of the opportunity the club offers for self-expression and a chance to demonstrate their knowledge and ability in the things they can do, the soul of art is expressed in the department.

RED OAK

By LaVerna Jones

Mrs. Verna Moore returned from Council Bluffs on Wednesday for the burial of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Theoda Gooper. The Clarinda young people gave a play here Friday night, "The Bashful Mr. Bobs," under the auspices of Miss Betty Jean Arnett. Twenty-five people attended from Clarinda. The Gateway Quartet, consisting of Manager Elmer Reeves, Joe Holgan, Novel Lee Evans and Henry Nicholson, sang at the evening service Sunday. Mrs. Theresa Martin of Omaha was also a visitor of the church. The quartet and Mrs. Martin, Rev. Goldsmith and Miss Anna Belle Jones motored to Clarinda on Sunday to attend the afternoon services of Rev. D. Nicholson of Second Baptist church. The quartet sang. J. E. Brooks celebrated his birthday Sunday. The Misses Dorothy Letcher and Louise Farrot, James Buster Smith of Nebraska City and Glen Letcher of St. Joseph visited at the home of the Letchers' relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Keene and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelly and family, Sunday.

WALDA

I think that I shall never see
Another skater as bad as me. (Sorry.)
Up again, down again, oh my,
This is worse than grapefruit in the eye.
But now for the news in full sway:
Man, these cats are having their day.
"Danny" D. and Doris S. went phfft;
Now Joey is having all sorts of fits.
Nadine R. is party number three.
That caused this romance no more to be.
In the young married crowd the fad
Seems to be to creep and creep till someone is mad.
The husbands generally are the culprits,
But some wives fall short quite a bit.
Sunday, Speck Redd came back to town,
And how Des Moines did "truck on down."
Alice S., Benita W. and Betty P. were there,
And thought the orchestra quite rare.
Roland Redd is the apple of someone's
eye.
Alice, are the words: "I'll Love You
Till I Die?"
Maybe I'm talking out of school,
But it's fun sometimes to break a rule.
Anyway, Zeke E.'s new movie not yet
on the map
Is (my, my, my) "Coaldust and the Seven Taps."
One of the predictions in last week's column
Has come true, making someone solemn.
What used to be a perfect union is split.
Often other people have too much lip.
We can only pray and hope these two
Will get together and make a couple that's true.
Like water on the well-known duck's back,
One popular young gent remains intact,
To many a chick's conniving, jibing,
and glibbing.
For a fair one in Oklahoma City he is living.
To dances, public events, etc., you must go
To find scads of people you would never know.
Cute, homely; skinny, fat; sharp and some awful sad.
Some look so bad that you think they're mad.
Hurra, hurra, hurra, as Mr. Webb would say,
And choose your partner, for Friday
is the day.
For that mammoth, gigantic and colossal dance contest
To select the terpsichorean artist that you like best.
To those who lose that are entered,
Weep not, for we all can't be winners.
Political campaigns and sessions should last all year
To show our fair-skinned brothers
what we have here.
Our kids have been tested and proven
quite true,
Shows that with the chance we really
can do . . .
Well this would go on forever
If I didn't stop my enthusiastic endeavor.
So with this week's thought my light will be dimmed.
"They that stand high have many enemies."

blasts to shake them.
And if they fall, they dash themselves
to pieces."—Shakespeare.
A bit of advice to always keep near.
—Waldie.
