RAILWAY MESSENGER GETS 15 YEARS FOR $110,000 THEFT

ST. PAUL, MINN., Mar. 17 (ANP)—Fifteen years imprisonment in a federal penitentiary was the sentence meted out Tuesday to John Neal, 49, Soo Line railway messenger, when he withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to five counts of theft from a national bank.

Neal stole more than $118,000 in seven years while working as a trusted messenger, an auditing of accounts showed. He was indicted by the federal grand jury on 10 counts of embezzlement from the First National Bank and Trust Co. of Minneapolis.

John Neal, with a brother, W. Squire Neal, own an undertaking company here which has a branch in St. Paul and which grossed around $30,000 last year. W. Squire was also indicted on two counts, charging concealment of funds after investigators found $5,903 of the money involved in the Neal home.

Fletcher Henderson At Pla-Lan Monday

Des Moines folks like to talk about the time, back in December of 1931 (before the birth of "swing"), when Fletcher Henderson's band came here for the first time and swept the dancers on their heads in with a frenzy of excited rhythm and red hot choruses (they weren't jam sessions then, at the Esra at 10th and Walnut. of Grand Terrace fame in Chicago, he had, at that time, just embarked on a tour from old Connie's Inn in New York. ## To Recover Whiskey 5,000 Youths in Cargo Sunk Over National Pilgrimage Seventy Years Ago

APALACHICOLA, FLA., March 17 (ANP)—Through information supplied him by an aged Negro resident here, Frank P. Blair, white, Chicago salvage operator, got confirmation this week of a supposed whiskey-laden boat that struck a snag and sank 73 years ago. Blair said the unidentified colored veteran told him he was a dock-hand when the steamer Alice was loaded with 1,300 barrels at the Apalachicola docks in 1864.

Acting on this tip, the Alice was found by use of a magnetometer, a device that reveals the presence of iron. The boat was discovered about 1,000 feet from the present river channel, covered by 24 feet of mud and six feet of water. Blair is proceeding with salvage operations relying on information from several sources that at least 300 barrels of the sunken vessel's cargo in whiskey worth today about $300,000, as compared with a valuation of about $3,000 in 1865.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17, (ANP)—Upwards of 5,000 young people, white and colored, from all sections of the country, converged here last week, the big assemblage being labeled the "Youth Pilgrimage" for Peace, Jobs and Education. Hailed as one of the most concerted movements ever made by the young people of America, the pilgrimage was sponsored by the American Youth Congress, representing 36 student and youth organizations throughout the land.

The purpose of the pilgrimage is to prevent a cut in NYA appropriations, to demand extension of NYA, and the passage of the America Youth Act, the Harrison-Fletcher-Black education bill, Nye-Kvale bill to make R. O. T. C. optional, Bernard Bill to put CCC camps under civilian control; and will seek defeat of the industrial mobilization plans for war-time as embodied in the Sheppard-Hill bill.

U.S. Negro Advisor Resigns For Position at Hull House

CHICAGO, March 17 (ANP)—Dewey R. Jones, former assistant in the office of Adviser on Negro Affairs in the Dept. of Interior at Washington, has resigned to become attached to the staff of Hull House in Chicago. He follows his chief from the department, Dr. Robert C. Weaver having resigned several weeks ago to become adviser to the Housing Authority Administrator.

Hull House, the famous social settlement center on Chicago's near west side, has never before had a colored attaché. The character of the surrounding population has changed, and there are now many Negroes living in the neighborhood, mixed in with Mexicans, Italians and Greeks.

Upholds University Cafe Discrimination

URBANA, ILL., March (CNA)—A verdict in favor of Henley's largest campus restaurant, has been returned by an all-white jury composed of ten farmers and grocers in the suit of four students against the restaurant. The students, who were refused service in the restaurant last March, in accordance with the local custom of race discrimination, will appeal the case to a higher court, it was learned.

Rev. Henry McCraven, 85, Who Campaigned for Garfield, Entertained Teddy Roosevelt, Says 'Prosperity Is Gone Forever'

Spring means moving days for most people. For the past sixty-five years, however, to the Rev. Henry McCraven, 85, 749 Tenth Street, assistant pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church, it hasn't meant a thing because he has lived at that address since 1873. Ten children were born there, he said, there are only six living now: Mrs. Maude Wyatt, George McCraven, Mrs. Carrie Gilbert, all of Des Moines and the other three living in various parts of the country. His wife died thirteen years ago.

"Be temperate in all things, that is the secret of a long life," he told Everett Wadsworth, Bystander staff writer, in an interview Monday. Stoutly built, but erect with firm step, Rev. McCraven daily tends to his large garden on a sloping hillside in the summer and hot-house plants in wintertime.

Having observed the advance of times and customs he believes that good times have gone forever. "With the coming of machinery which puts so many people out of jobs, what is there to look forward to? No, prosperity is wasting away. I don't see how people can get along," the pioneer said in a pessimistic mood.

Important Positions

During his eventful life from the ox-team, candle-lights and homespun clothing to the streamlined motors, electricity and modern styles, Rev. McCraven has held many important positions. Born on the Fourth of July at Mt. Sterling, Montgomery County, Kentucky, in 1855, he came to Des Moines in 1873 to attend school.

After several years of teaching he was ordained to the ministry in 1884 by Bishop Brown and did missionary work. In the same year he was appointed honorary commissioner to the World's Cotton and Industrial Exposition held in New Orleans. In April, 1903, when President Theodore Roosevelt visited in Des Moines, Rev. McCraven was a member of the reception committee. In 1870 he was elected to cloak-room service in the Iowa senate and house, working continuously until 1934; he also served as toll-collector for Polk county.

President Garfield
Delving into a bit of politics, he canvassed Iowa for President Garfield along with P. D. Brown, served several times as Polk county juror and was a member of the Polk County Republican Central committee. During the '90's, Rev. McCraven was advertising manager for the Bystander under Editor Charles E. Ruff.

In the early days of Des Moines religious life, in 1882 Mr. McCraven was appointed by the Rev. Thomas Cheek to canvas funds to build a church. In three weeks, with a special committee of white business men of the city, he collected $11,000. The largest check was from Mrs. Henry Rollins. Later, he and Rev. Brooks, pastor, canvassed for additional funds and received $4,000. Today, Rev. McCraven teaches a Sunday school in the church he helped to build, St. Paul A. M. E. church. The Rev. R. H. Hackley is the present pastor.

Visit to E.D.M. Center Reveals Progress of Local NYA Projects

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

To one dozen Negro boys, under the supervision of G. B. Tucker, local N. Y. A. director, falls the task of preparing the grounds and buildings to receive Mrs. Mary M. Bethune, national N. Y. A. advisor of Washington, D. C., who will visit and inspect Des Moines projects on Sunday and Monday, April 10 and 11. In a brief call at the East Des Moines Community center Tuesday, the comprehensive program was outlined for the colored youth of Des Moines to the Bystander staff writer. Instead of being assigned to porter and janitor work (jobs disliked by the average aspiring young person), the boys, after two years, are now doing furniture repairing and renewing, renovating and redecorating the interior of the kitchen, nursery, pre-school, library, club and recreation rooms, which, in most instances, are done very skillfully. Plans are now being formulated for a modern equipped woodwork and woodturning shop at the center, the directors told the reporter.

Last fall, Mr. Tucker said, the east side center was painted and the spring program calls for a repainting and redecorating of the Negro Community center at West 15th and Crocker streets. Landscaping, shrubbery planting, beautification of side and back yards consist of the outdoor work for the dozen boys. At present, a full basement is being constructed at the east side center. Bricklaying, mortar mixing, etc., are done by the youthful laborers.

Ten girls are employed, according to Mr. Tucker. They are engaged in sewing, painting, handicraft, etc. Most of their work is at the west side project. Tree surgery and sodding at the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. occupied the time of the boys last year. Training for future jobs and to create an inspiration in their work are what the leaders hope to instill in the Negro youth, Mr. Tucker said.

Incumbents Survive City Primaries

All four of the council members and the mayor were elected to the ticket in the city primary election Tuesday. However, Mayor Joe Allen trailed his opponent Dwight Lewis as did Safety Commissioner Henry Hasbrouck behind Pete Welsh although the margin of the latter was very close.

A small vote of 25,420 resulted in the following lineup for the finals Monday, March 28: Joseph H. Allen, Dwight N. Lewis, for Mayor; Roy C. Welch, L. P. Love, Finance; Henry Hasbrouck, Pete Welsh, Public Safety; John MacVicar, George E. Stowell, Streets; and E. Lee Keyser, Walter C. Brindley, Parks.

Hawkeye lodge and Rose Temple are concentrating their every effort to make this the most successful convention in the history of the city, E. Holt, exalted ruler, said.

The entries in the oratorical contest are Lucy Davis and Haley Ozell Johnson. There will be no elimination contest, but the finals will be held Friday, April 29th. Announcement of the place will be made later, the chairman, Mr. Browne, said. State organizer of the Daughter

Henry Jones 'Joke' Victim

White Youth Held

BOULDER, Colo., March 17. (CNA)—The "joke" shooting of James Henry Jones, 21-year-old track star, at a fraternity "tubbing party" on the University of Colorado campus, was denounced this week by student leaders. Walter Carlson, white editor of the Silver and Gold campus newspaper, addressed a scathing editorial to members of the Chi Psi fraternity, in which he sarcastically referred to them as "the boys of the Shooting Lodge and their Public Hero," and charged that their "attitude would give some persons the impression shooting of classmates was part of regular fraternity house procedure."

The shooting, which occurred last week, was the climax of a fraternity "tubbing party" in which L. Jackson Todhunter, 20, son of a socially prominent white Denver family, crippled the Negro track star, who was employed as a table waiter by the fraternity. Jones was taken to Community hospital, where physicians spent several hours removing the .22-caliber slug from his ankle. Todhunter's father, Lewis J. Todhunter, is treasurer of the Western Bakera Supply company.

Student organizations on the university campus prepared to demand Todhunter's expulsion, as President George Norlin announced that university authorities will delay final action until Mr. Jones is able to be up and around. Todhunter was released by Boulder police on a $500 bond, pending his arraignment on April 4 before District Judge Frederic W. Clark on charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

Howard Alumni Continues Attack on President Johnson

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Completely taking university officials by surprise the much heralded special issue of the Howard Alumni Journal, "The Case Against President Mordecai W. Johnson, Facts, Figures and Exhibits" made its appearance at the charter day dinner at Howard university last Wednesday when Secretary of the Interior Ickes was the principal speaker.

The magazine, a thirty-two page and cover publication, carried more than eleven pages of "confidential" interior department investigation reports, showing that $32,000.00 of misallocated funds were ordered returned to the government by Howard and that recommendations were made by the investigators that President Johnson, the treasurer, and the superintendent of building and grounds be removed from office.

The distribution of the magazine caused a restrained sensation at the banquet. They were handed to guests on their arrival in envelopes on the back of which were the words and music of Howard's "Alma Mater. The cover of the magazine carried an almost life sized portrait of President Johnson. University police chased the distributors from the campus after 300 magazines reached the guests.

Delta Jabberwock Thursday, April 14

The Delta Sigma Theta sorority will present its fourth annual Jabberwock at the Jewish Community Center on Thursday, April 14th. The proceeds from the entertainment will be used for scholarship purposes only, a national policy of the chapter. Past winners of this special fund are Mrs. Atrell Smith, nee Atrell Jett, now of Waco, Texas, and Miss Maxine Payne, student at Drake.

Since no award was made last year, that amount will be added to the net proceeds of this entertainment for this year's award. Girls desiring to apply for this scholarship may do so by writing to Mrs. Adah Johnson, president, or Miss Clara Webb, scholarship chairman.

From all indications this promises to be one of the grandest scholarship shows ever presented by the chapter here. The enthusiasm is running high, judging from the response of several clubs, that are to give sets in this novel entertainment. "Does your club have talent? Are you going to be represented in this worth-while event? Remember, first, second and third cash prizes will be given for the best acts. Telephone the Jabberwock chairman, Miss Webb, 4-4988, or Mrs. Johnson, president, 3-5949, on or before Wednesday, March 23rd, if your club is planning to participate."

BY ALLEN ASHBY

CROCKER Y. LEAGUES

Tuesday at East High the Y. Stars met the Plumb Jewelry gang in a lively tussle. The jewelry crowd chased the Stars plumb off the floor, 30-31, in spite of Al Powell's many points. The Hawkeyes took things rather easy after being played off their feet by the Tigers up to the last three minutes; then the Hawkeyes pulled away, 27-16. The All-Stars really went to town in a big way, twisting the tails of the Tigers, 38-12.

Wednesday night the Stars played Corinthian again in a game moved up from Friday to make way for the Cedar-Rapids contest. The Stars looked pretty dim for about a half, but finally managed to squeeze out a 31-27 triumph. The Hawkeyes lit on the Buffaloes and clawed them 39-19 and the H. I. B. club set off the Rockets, 17-12. In the junior league the H. I. B.'s sat on the Panthers, 25-16.

Friday night saw three well played games. In the opening the Monarchs came to life and kicked the middle letter out of the H. I. B. five, 34-17. Daniels grabbed the league title from St. Paul as Bus Brown and Bunny Strouve mightily to uphold the honor of the "Three Old Men." The third old man was missing, however, and while Heywood Brewer filled in splendidly for a man who hadn't played for two years, he was no Allen.

Baby Wilson played one of the greatest games of his career and nearly upset things single handed as the boys brought home their second one point win, 31-30. As the gun went off Clarence Weston let go a long shot that hit the rim, bounced up and fell out, and the reign of St. Paul was over. Jack Howard, Bubs Parsons, Vandevere and Paul Walker all played important roles for the red shirted east side boys.

Y. Stars Beat Cedar Rapids
Art Taylor brought his Cedar Rapids champs back for the rubber game with the Stars. The boys had said they got bad rolls at Cedar Rapids and so were really in a spot where they had to win. They started rather shakily, but soon blasted themselves right off the spot and turned the champs to chumps. Lanky Al Powell and Joe Danforth gathered 34 points between them, Powell 20 and Joe 14 in the 40-21 win over the visitors.

Bob Parker and Simms turned in a couple of sweet guarding jobs, especially Parker, who stopped the high scoring Reasby. Mr. Reasby got five points for the evening. As soon as the Stars changed their defense strategy and began to check the Rapids guards down the floor, the netting was over, but it was a swell ball game and the Rapids boys fought hard.

To Probe Jim-Crow At Armstrong Fight

CHICAGO, March 17.—(CNA)—An investigation of the Jim-crow seating arrangements at the Armstrong-Rightmire battle here loomed this week following publication of a story in The Midwest Daily Record of this city revealing that Henry Armstrong, featherweight champion, had decided never again to fight in any show promoted by Mique Malloy, white Chicago fight promoter, because of discrimination against Negro fight fans. Investigation of Malloy's segregation of Negroes at the International Amphitheatre will be demanded at the next meeting of the Illinois Boxing Commission. John W. MUCOUS COLITIS

A condition evidenced by periodic attacks of abdominal pain below the navel on either side and the passage of stools containing large amounts of mucus. The mucus may vary from a few flakes to large masses. In addition to the above symptoms these patients are usually of a rather nervous and emotional disposition and may exhibit some of the following signs, such as cold hands and feet, sweating, tremors, palpitation and increase in saliva. Sometimes a definite dyspepsia with occasional nausea and vomiting.

A careful examination of the stools plus X-ray studies of the colon should be made. This condition is closely associated in many patients with certain articles of diet. Skin tests should be made to determine the offending food if possible. As a rule rapid improvement and cure seldom comes but strict adherence to the orders of your physician will bring results.

Sphinx Club Plans Busy April Program

The Sphinx club, an organization of fast moving young men who are creating quite a stir with their novel and sensational presentations, are planning for a busy April.

According to the publicity chairman, Charles Holmes, the club intends to present early in April a "Battle of Swing" and to follow this with a mammoth Easter egg hunt for the children of this city.

The "Battle of Swing" will bring together two outstanding bands of the Midwest. Lloyd Hunter's fifteen piece band of the Music Box ballroom of Omaha and "General" Lloyd Hundling, orchestra of the Hotel Ft. Des Moines' Tropical room, will vie for "jam session" honors on two stages in a continuous round of music at the Pla-Lan on Monday, April 4. The "General" will be heard over the Mutual coast to coast swing club network Saturday, 5:30 to 6:00, and is a nightly radio feature.

In their repeat presentation of a "Country Fair in Harlem," which attracted a fair crowd Monday at the Billiken Nite club, the following grand prizes were awarded to: Wiley Dixon, 945 Sixteenth street, smoking stand; Willie Jean Thomas, 1200 E. Sixteenth street, table lamp; Nathaline Wilkinson, 955 Seventeenth street, tapestry. George M. Faul, Republican candidate for state senator, has a fine record of public service in every line of community endeavor and has especially contributed to its betterment by his efforts in the behalf of youth, including Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, etc.

Mr. Faul has also given much of his time to aid the aged and needy colored people. He not only advocates pensions but helps to obtain them.

In all of his efforts, Mr. Faul has always been extremely fair in matters of race and condemns prejudice in every form. It was he, who, in a recent address, said, "What the Negro needs is to be treated as a citizen of the United States."

Faul is director of several finance companies interested in reducing debts of Negro churches and lowering of their taxes. He is also a proponent of the homestead tax exemption law. Widely known to Lincoln post members, he was winner of the sixth district community service award of the Argonne American Legion post.

The many friends of Mr. Faul will be pleased to know of his candidacy and will look forward to seeing him installed in the office he seeks, giving him a wider field of public service.

The speaker said that despite the internecine fighting within the country, England did not want to withdraw because of the increased valuation of the land due to the efforts of Jewish and Arab capital, who have co-operated in many instances. He also found that the government discouraged tourists from seeing the inner country, and encountered some difficulty in gaining admittance.

BUFFET SUPPER

Already elaborate parties have lost their punch. Nowadays friends clamor for invitations from smart hostesses who entertain with superb simplicity.

Everything but the food can be purchased from the dime store. Paper napkins, gay and picturesque. Paper doilies or oilcloth with happy joyous drawings will serve as a cloth. If you have pottery or glass dishes, use them to add more charm. Blend together an effective color scheme, such as red and white, navy—and white or burnt orange and autumn. You will find that it won't cost a bit more than a dull color combination. Your best china does not need to be used. See that your table is well laid. Hot dishes and plates together—cold dishes arranged the same way—the cutlery fixed in a non-confusing array.

Plan a different party instead of cold cuts and potato salad. Try curried soup, carrots and onion, pickles and radish roses, a crisp salad, cheese, cranberry and orange gelatine dessert and plenty of hot coffee. Clear black coffee gives a dash to everything and marks the perfect hostess. Use twice as much coffee and a tenth as much boiling. In other words no boiling at all.

If you will send a loose three cent stamp, I'll send you several menus for buffet suppers along with the recipes. Address your request to Arden H. Duane, Associated Negro Press, 3507 South Parkway, Chicago, Illinois.

The Word of God

A LIFE INVESTMENT

Luke 18:19-22. And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments. Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother. And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing; sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

Historian Says Negroes Brought in 1619 Not Slaves but 'Indentured Servants'

RICHMOND, Va., Mar. 17 (AP)—If the Virginia senate passes its bill for erection of a monument near Jamestown on the site "where the first Negroes were landed in 1619," it should not be reared as being to "the first slaves," the senate learned last week in a message sent them by Matthew Page Andrews of Baltimore, historian.

Dr. Andrews cited the case of Anthony Johnson, a Negro who was brought here in 1619 or "certainly before 1622." In due course, he was freed, the historian said, became a landholder, and as such secured the services of a Negro named John Casor, a later arrival.

Johnson held Casor in service longer than the indenture called for, and "white persons intervened to get Casor's release." Casor was to have been indentured seven or eight years, but was kept "servant for seven years longer than he should or ought," the records show.
