Decorations Day at the Pla-Lan, Seventh and Grand avenue. Both of these dances may be attended for the price of $1.10, tax included, by purchasing your ticket in advance. The committees are sparing no expense to make this a signal occasion in the history of fraternal conventions in Des Moines.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Western League ball park you will see one of the hardest fought ball games, when the Negro Elks and white Elks meet. The competition has been keen between these two aggregations and you will see them at their best Sunday afternoon. Also a feature of the afternoon at the park will be drill team contests between Denver, Kansas City, Omaha and Des Moines Temple. The president, W. J. Shepherd, has received a letter stating that a band will accompany the excursion from Kansas City, St. Louis and Denver are also having an excursion.

Hinton, instructor in bacteriology and immunology and in preventive medicine and hygiene on the faculty of the Harvard medical school, was awarded the 24th Spingarn medal this week by the committee for "26 years of brilliant scientific work of the highest technical calibre."

He is the author of a textbook on syphilis, declared by many to be the best written in the English language, which is used by health authorities, medical schools, and clinics.

GOVERNOR MURPHY IS CHAIRMAN OF 'NEGRO WORLDS' FAIR

PAUL S. HOLLIDAY

Second vice president. Foreman of the Streets Department of Omaha, Nebraska.

SAMUEL JAMES

Third vice president. District deputy of Cheyenne, Wyoming.

A gigantic jubilee celebration marking the 75th anniversary of the freedom of the American Negro, which will take place in Detroit, Michigan, in 1940, was officially launched this week as Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan accepted the chairmanship of a nation-wide committee. The jubilee, which will assume the proportions of a world's fair at a cost of $500,000, which has been virtually assured by the state and federal governments, will be known as "Seventy-Five Years of Negro Progress."

The rise of the American Negro will be graphically portrayed in ten thousands exhibits that will represent every aspect of Negro progress in the last three quarters of a century.

The historic celebration will be enhanced by the meeting of the Sesqui-centennial Conference of African Methodist Episcopal church in Detroit at the same time.

Letter From the Governor
The acceptance of the chairmanship of the national committee by the Honorable Frank Murphy of Michigan was the culmination of the efforts of a group of Detroit leaders. The interest of the state of Michigan in the jubilee is indicated by the following letter from Governor Murphy:

STATE OF MICHIGAN
EXECUTIVE OFFICE
Lansing

The plan to hold an exhibition devoted to 75 years of Negro freedom and progress in Detroit in 1940 meets with my full and unqualified approval. No fair minded American who sincerely believes in the fundamental principles of our nation—freedom and equal opportunity can deny that the forward strides made by the Negro since emancipation are among the most eloquent examples of what can be accomplished in a free and liberal country.

His record is all the more inspiring because it has been achieved in the face of the obstacles born of racial differences. For although as a nation we are devoted to the ideal of freedom and liberty for all, regardless of race or creed, we still have among us forms of discrimination and some denial of liberties. In time these will be lessened and we may have hope that they will eventually be eliminated, so that the Negro may enjoy the fullest realization of his heritage under the American system.

It is entirely desirable that an attempt be made to depict graphically some of his accomplishments in the many and varied fields in which the Negro is active. Such an exhibition would undoubtedly be a revelation to many, and I am particularly glad that it is to be held in the city of Detroit, the metropolis of our great state of Michigan, which has been, and I am sure will continue to be, fair in its treatment of the Negro.

Governor,
(Signed)
Frank Murphy

The national committee, headed by the governor of Michigan, will include distinguished leaders of both races throughout the nation and each of the forty-eight states will be represented in the exhibition.

With the active co-operation of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce, the Michigan Tourist Bureau, the Convention Bureau and the Board of Education, along with the state agencies, the success of this unprecedented undertaking has been assured. It has been officially estimated that the exhibition will give employment to approximately five thousand colored citizens.

WILL PLAY WHITE ELKS SUNDAY AFTERNOON

ASKS AID FOR ETHIOPIANS

"War in Europe would mean Ethiopia's freedom—and there will be war in less than five years—probably much less. I figure to be back in my country before very long," said Dr. Malaku E. Bayen, personal representative of the exiled emperor, in Des Moines on Tuesday.

Educated in America
The Howard university educated emissary, touring the United States in the interests of freedom for Ethiopia, spoke at St. Paul's A. M. E. church, Twelfth and Crocker streets, Tuesday night.

"Ethiopia's food blockade and raids by guerrillas loyal to Haile Selassie are starving Mussolini's garrisons in Ethiopia and Italian soldiers, and natives in inner Ethiopia alike, are reduced to eating cats, dogs and monkeys, Dr. Bayen asserted, as the food blockade tightens and guerrillas intercept food trains.

In retaliation, Dr. Bayen said, Mussolini's airmen still are bombing and passing large open areas to lower the morale of the loyalist natives and to scatter the guerrilla bands.

"Face"
"Mussolini would withdraw his troops from Ethiopia if he could 'save face' with the rest of the world," Dr. Bayen declared.

A confirmed optimist when his country's fate is concerned, the 38 year old personal physician to Selassie believes his nation's liberty from Italy is not far distant.

Ethiopians share his optimism, he said. "The only thing that can halt that freedom would be for other nations to aid Italy. We admire the United States for its courageous stand (non-recognition of Italy's conquest in Ethiopia).

KINKY HAIR KINKY LIVES

Kinky hair makes its appearance through neglect and carelessness. Not giving the hair the proper attention that it should have. The hair should be made a thing of beauty—and also one's glory.

Rev. Jordan W. Tutt, Pastor of Union Baptist Church

glects hair, neglects one of his or her important assets. There is this difference between curly hair and kinky hair. No one desires kinky hair, while many prefer the curls. Kinky hair can be made straight. There is a process that works fine. See a beauty hair culturist. Kinky hair, to use the term, is very crooked, that is what makes it so ugly to look at. Now, so much for the hair. What do you think of a kinky life? Kinky ideas; kinky thoughts, and kinky action, all crooked and out of line with a beautiful life. The life is more important than hair or raiment. See the ministers, hear their instructions; heed their warnings; and accept their messages. "He that heareth My voice and comes unto Me, I will in no wise cast him out." If our lives were as straight as some of our hair, we would be an asset in our community that would be much desired. Avoid a crooked life, crooked thinking, and crooked actions. "Straight is the path that leads to eternal life, and few there be that find it." THINK ON THESE THINGS.

HARLEM YOUTH PARLEY BACKS FIGHT FOR JOBS

New York, May 24—(A. R. Chapman for CNA) Representatives of more than 125 Harlem youth attended the first AH-Harlem Youth Conference this week and worked out a joint program for job opportunities (quite health, educational and recreational facilities and elimination of discrimination, crime and juvenile delinquency in the community. A committee for the co-ordination of youth action in Harlem was set up to put into effect the decisions of the conference.

Packing St. Phillip's parish house, delegates and friends heard greetings from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the president; U. S. Senator Robert Wagner and Borough President Isaac. Prominent local and national leaders addressed the conference, including Marion Cuthbert of the Y. W. C. A., Herbert King, Y. M. C. A., Joseph Lash, American Youth Congress; Dr. P. H. Savory, of the New York Amsterdam News; Gildys Stoner, National Negro Congress; George McLarin, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, and others. Meeting in a business session the next day, the 231 delegates distributed themselves among the various panels according to their interest. Leading the panels were such specialists as Judge Anna Kross, Lester Granger, the Rev. William L. Lines, Emma Shields Penn, William Gaulden, Edward F. Guiner, the Rev. Charles Carrington.

The conference went on record to support President Roosevelt's recovery program, and to work with those organizations fighting to break down job barriers set up by the utilities and other employers. It voted to cooperate with the Harlem legislative conference and called for the abolition of color bars in those unions where they still exist. The conference called upon the U. S. state department to continue its policy of non-recognition of Italy's "Ethiopian empire" and to lift the embargo against the Spanish government.

EDITORIAL POLICY
 It shall be the editorial policy of the Iowa Bystander to raise the convictions of the people, to be constructive in its nature, with a definite regard for the progress of all. We are under obligation to no one or organization, but we are true to what we honestly believe, and we propose to do so with independence and fearlessness in defense of the principles of right as we see it.

CHANCES OF ETHIOPIAN INDEPENDENCE REMOTE

Speaking before a mixed audience in Des Moines on Wednesday night, Dr. Malaku E. Bayen, American educated Ethiopian and at one time personal physician of former Emperor Selassie, said that war in Europe would mean Ethiopian independence and that there will be war within less than five years. He illustrated his talk with moving pictures showing the condition of the country at the time leading up to the war and the present. The doctor said Italy's task of conquering the Ethiopians was made easier because of the weakened condition caused by religious wars which had extended over a period nearly three hundred years. The pictures showed clearly that Ethiopia was utterly unprepared for war, and that the guerrilla warfare being carried on now could not do the Italians a great deal of harm.
 We are inclined to believe that the faith he pins on a future war in Europe for freedom has some merit, for it is the only way they can be assured of ammunition and equipment to make a campaign. That, too, has its perils, for generally the small countries are used as pawns in dickerings for things the other fellow wants.

THINGS CHANGE

During the primary now in progress, Democratic candidates are making very definite effort to line up Negro voters as never before. They realize that the Republicans don't have all the Negro voters and that the closeness of some of the races requires that every available source be tapped. It is rather baffling to some of the old timers, but that shows how things can change.
 This brings to the front the necessity for good leadership on both sides of the political sheet for Negro groups will get out of the elections so much only as they intelligently put by intelligent maneuvering.

DES MOINES WELCOMES THE ELKS

The citizens of Des Moines are entertaining the Mid-Western association of Elks, a regional division of the Independent Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World. Among those expected are the grand exalted and daughter rulers and other national officers; also lodges representing the states of Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Colorado.
 These men and women represent one of the outstanding organizations of the country.
 Possibly the most outstanding feature of the order is the system of holding oratorical contests, the winners of which are given scholarships which in many instances have enabled them to pursue their courses in highest institutions of learning. The subjects upon which the orations are based require an exhaustive study of American history and the constitution with particular reference to the Negro.

Thus this big organization which for years bore little other reputation than that of good time seekers, has in this undertaking and other worthy ones demonstrated that they are not only interested in themselves but also in their young people.
 Des Moines welcomes the Elks and extends to them the hospitality of the community.

Health Chats

By Dr. C. R. Bradford
HAY FEVER
 (Rose Fever or Pollinosis)
 This is an allergic condition of the tissue lining the nose caused usually by inhaling the pollens of plants. Pollens are sometimes carried by the wind for two hundred miles.
 Symptoms: When caused by pollens, there is usually a definite seasonal evidence. This varies according to the latitude in which one lives. In the spring of the year it is frequently associated with the pollens of the trees, such as the elder, hickory, oak, ash, elm and poplar; while in the summer it is most frequently due to the pollen of flowers and grasses, as the rose and hay. Toward autumn many cases are due to the pollen from ragweed and buck wheat.
 There is a swelling of the mucous membrane of nose, with excess secretions, a sense of burning and paroxysms of sneezing that become distressing. If the offending pollen can be determined, vaccination against the cause is frequently successful.
 An open meeting of Labor's Non-Partisan League of Polk county by Mrs. Hortense Dillon, chairman of the Iowa Civil Liberties Union, at 8 p. m. Tuesday, May 31st. Having been an active member of the Civil Liberties Union for several years and having made a thoroughgoing study of the questions of the labor movement, civil liberties, etc., Mrs. Dillon knows her subject and those attending this meeting may rest assured that their evening has been well spent.
 An official of Labor's Non-Partisan League will explain the aims and purposes of the organization, and will outline the necessity of unity of the forces of labor, independent business people, professionals, students etc., if they are to defeat reaction in this fall's elections.
 The organization's committee which investigates the records of candidates for office—especially their attitude on the question of progressive legislation—will also report its findings at this meeting.
 The meeting is open to the public and there is no admission charge. Labor unions, student unions, organizations of small business and professional people are invited to send their representatives as observers and to become acquainted with the program and policies of Labor's Non-Partisan League.
 This meeting will be held on the second floor of the Odd Fellows hall, 615 W. Locust street, Des Moines.
