Chicago Youth Kicked, Hung By Ankles To Get Rape "Confession"

Chicago, June 22—(CNA)—Beatings and torture were the methods used by police to secure the numerous "rape murder confessions" from Robert Nixon, defense lawyers of the Negro youth revealed this week.

"They beat me, kicked me, stripped me and then hung me by my ankles without any clothes on," Nixon told his lawyers when they were finally permitted to interview him.

"They kept beating me and hanging me, trying to make me confess to everything," Nixon continued.

Nixon made his charges of police third degree brutality to Attorneys Ulysses S. Key and W. Sylvester White, Jr., who are members of a committee of lawyers who have volunteered to defend Nixon and Earl Hicks, his co-defendant.

"Police Circus"

Nixon and Hicks were forced to take part in a recent lynch-inciting "police circus" in which the youths were paraded throughout Chicago and made to re-enact all the unsolved rape crimes attributed to members of their race.

A demand for a change of venue will be made by defense attorneys in order that the boys might be tried outside of Cook county, Dr. Charles E. Burton, Chicago director of the National Negro Congress and a member of the defense, told the Crusader News Agency.

The circumstances surrounding this case make a change of venue the only means of assuring real justice," Dr. Burton said. "Naturally, the purpose of the trial of Nixon and Hicks will be to determine whether they are guilty or innocent. Such a purpose would be defeated by the holding of the trial in Cook county in view of what has taken place.

"Disgrace To City"

"It would be impossible to secure an impartial jury because of the tactics of the Chicago police department and the local press. Both of these agencies united in staging what was a disgrace to our city—the so-called 'police circus,' in which Nixon and Hicks, as thousands of spectators inflamed by the lurid, lynch-hysteria of the press watched, were forced to re-enact all of the crimes of which police suspected them."

An indication of how newspaper stories, describing the youths as "ape-like" and "bestial" have created a lynch feeling against the defendants was shown last week when Nixon was attacked in court by the husband of a rape victim.

Notables At Schomburg Funeral

New York, June 21—(CNA)—In a small church in Brooklyn, the Rev. George S. Stark, pastor of Siloam Presbyterian church, 494 Lafayette avenue, conducted the last rites for Arthur Alonzo Schomburg, internationally famous Negro scholar, curator and bibliophile on Negro literature.

Schomburg, 64, died suddenly last Friday as a result of a tooth infection which confined him in the Madison Park hospital. He was buried in Cypress Hills cemetery.

Schomburg received his early education in St. Thomas college in the Virgin Islands, where he was born in 1874. Arriving in the United States in 1891 he associated himself with the firm of Gen. Roger A. Pryor, where he studied law for five years.

Considered the foremost collector of books on his race, at the time of his death, Schomburg evinced a deep regard for this hobby during his youth. The material as it stands today is a valuable asset in the field of Negro research. Franklin F. Hopper, recalling the history of the collection and the purchase by the Carnegie Corporation, emphasized the inestimable value it has been to New York educators and students interested in Negro history.

MAJOR WRIGHT GIVES GRAND-DAUGHTER IN MARRIAGE

Philadelphia, June 22—(C)—Major R. R. Wright, Sr., president of the Citizens & Southern bank and founder of the Wright family, gave his granddaughter, Grace Lydia, in marriage to Rev. Dwight Vincent Kyle, son of Prof. and Mrs. Duncan H. Kyle of Clarksburg, W. Va., at the home of the major, 554 N. 58th street, on Tuesday evening, June 14, as Bishop R. R. Wright, Jr., father of the bride and Bishop David H. Sims, of the A. M. E. church, performed the ceremony.

Though marked by simplicity, the wedding was one of the most beautiful.

WPA Prize-Winning Author Gets Literary Post

New York, June 22—(CNA)—Richard Wright, author of the national WPA prize-winning novel, "Uncle Tom's Children," has been appointed to the editorial board of New Masses magazine, it was announced here this week.

The announcement was made at a reception held in Wright's honor and in celebration of the twentieth year of the Crusader News Agency, at the International Workers Center, 317 West 125th street. Samuel Sillen, a member of the magazine's editorial board, who revealed the youthful author's appointment to the board, said: "I am happy to say that the New Masses magazine did not make this appointment on the basis of Mr. Wright's recent honor alone. We have had the honor of publishing material from his pen long before he became famous as the author of "Uncle Tom's Children," and we take pride in the fact that we recognized some time ago that Richard Wright is one of America's topnotch authors, white or black."

SPAIN'S CONSUL FETES NEGRO WAR NURSE

Chicago, June 22—(CNA)—Salario Kee, 23 year old nurse of Akron and New York recently returned from Spain, had the distinction this week of being the first American Negro ever to be honored at an official reception given by the representative of a foreign government.

One hundred invited guests attended the reception held in Miss Kee's honor by Luis Perez Begala, Spanish consul in Chicago. Tribute to Miss Kee's work was paid by the Spanish consul, by Julian Lewis, Negro member of the University of Chicago faculty, by William L. Patterson, Negro leader and associate editor of the Midwest Daily Record, and by numerous other speakers, white and Negro.

"I never found in my own state and country the freedom and civil liberties granted me from one end of loyalist Spain to the other," Miss Kee declared at the reception.

Sees Ethiopia Aided

"I feel that the best way to restore Ethiopia and to secure freedom for Negro minorities in other countries is for all progressive sections of the people to support Republican Spain." Pointing out that Miss Kee was the first Negro woman ever to leave American shores to help another country in its fight for independence. Patterson reminded the guests that 800 Haitians had fought for American independence under the French general, LaFayette, and that American Negroes were now fighting for the freedom of Spain in the international brigade.

Miss Kee also spoke at a mass meeting here, at which more than $200 was raised for the Negro ambulance fund for republican Spain.

NEW YORK SUBWAY TO OPEN JOBS TO NEGROES

New York, June 22—Employment of colored men in jobs above the grades of elevator operator and porter was promised the N. A. A. C. P. by the Interborough Rapid Transit company here in a letter from Thomas E. Murray, Jr., receiver of the I. R. T., to Charles H. Houston, special counsel of the N. A. A. C. P.

The I. R. T. is one of the privately owned subway systems of New York City. Heretofore the system has employed Negroes only as porters and elevator operators.

When the new municipally owned Eighth avenue subway system was opened in September, 1932, colored men were employed immediately by it as station agents. After several years of effort, colored men were admitted to the civil service examinations for guard, or conductor, and later were admitted to the civil service examinations for motorman. At the present time there are numerous Negro station agents, a goodly number of conductors and platform men and eleven Negro motormen on the municipal system.

The two privately owned systems, the I. R. T. and the B. M. T., have closely restricted Negroes in employment. The N. A. A. C. P. has been working on the "problem for several years and has finally received the assurance that the I. R. T. will employ a number of Negroes as platform men and station agents. However, the I. R. T. has made the concession with a string upon it and that is that if the Negro employees in these new positions do not make good or have friction with the public, the new policy will be discontinued.

In writing to the I. R. T., the N. A.

Clarence Norris Sentenced To Die In Electric Chair August 19th

Alabama State Supreme Court Ordered Execution

Montgomery, Ala., June 22—(CNA)—Clarence Norris, one of the nine innocent Scottsboro boys, for the second time in the past three years faces death in the Alabama electric chair, if the murder verdict handed down against him last Thursday is not halted within the next sixty days.

The Alabama state supreme court last week affirmed the death sentence imposed on young Norris in Decatur, Ala., in July, 1937, and ordered his execution for August 19. The court refused the plea for a new trial, holding that the "record discloses no reversible errors and the judgment of the trial must be affirmed."

Norris was the first to be tried in the last series of Scottsboro trials and was convicted on the same evidence upon which four of the nine Scottsboro boys were unconditionally released. Two of the others tried at that same time, Andy Wright and Charlie Weems, were given sentences of ninety-nine years and seventy-five years respectively on the same lie-detecting testimony of Victoria Price, who maintained all of the boys were equally guilty of having attacked her.

In freeing four of the boys, Olen Montgomery, Willie Roberson, Roy Wright and Eugene Williams, Alabama authorities admitted that Victoria Price's testimony and identification were "mistaken." It was the same testimony which was used to sentence Norris to the electric chair.

CANADIAN COURT UPHOLDS RACE BIAS

Montreal, June 22—(CNA)—A fascist like ruling condoning the practice of discrimination against Negroes in public places was handed down here by the appellate court of Quebec this week.

The action grew out of a damage suit brought by Fred Christie, Montreal chauffeur, against the York Tavern, where he was refused service. The ruling reverses the decision of the lower court, which had awarded Christie $25.00 judgment some weeks ago.

It is felt here that the action of the high court in this case completed the chain of a series of similar insulting incidents to Negroes throughout Canada. It will be remembered that some time ago the famous American singer, Marion Anderson, while staying at a Toronto hotel, was "requested" not to use the dining room, and that Negro delegates attending a social workers' convention were refused admittance to leading hotels. These incidents, following in the wake of the rapid growth of fascist movements here, have caused grave concern to Negroes and progressives.

Lovell C. Carroll, white, representing Mr. Christie, declared the action "a serious affront to racial amity and minority rights, and should be taken to the supreme court of Canada."

A. C. P. has suggested that it has adopted the wrong approach to the problem psychologically and that Negroes ought to be employed without any strings on merit alone. As for friction, the N. A. A. C. P. points out that for six years the municipal subway has been using Negro employees and that in all that time no friction with the public due to color has been reported.

U. S. SURVEY BARES NEGRO MISERY

Washington, June 22—(Sam Chase for CNA)—Bare necessities are hard-ly within the purchasing power of Negro families, according to results of a survey announced this week by the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"In this study the BHE has been especially interested in the kind of living that various incomes will buy—whether or not the amount spent on food is sufficient to indicate a diet adequate for health, and whether the money put into housing and household operation is sufficient for good living conditions. Analysis of diets of these low income Negro families indicate that they are inadequate nutritionally," said Dr. Louise Stanley, director of the survey and chief of the BHE.

The survey covered thirty-four villages of Georgia, Mississippi and the Carolinas, of families with incomes up to $1,500 per year. Not enough families receiving over $1,500 were found to justify analysis.

Interesting among villages included in the study was Mound Bayou, Miss., which, with an all Negro population, has been commented upon by sociologists as an example of Negro self-government and economic independence.

The average spending of a Negro family with an income up to $249 per year over a one year period, is as follows: An average of $86 for food; $34 for housing; $27 for household operation; $19 for clothing; $11 for medical care; $7 for tobacco; $4 for personal care; $4 for gifts and community welfare; $4 for furnishings and equipment; $2 for recreation; $1 for reading; $1 for formal education; $1 for travel and transportation other than auto; $1 for miscellaneous items; and 50 cents or less for automobile.

Only non-relief families having both husband and wife, born in this country, were included in this study of consumer purchases. The study is a WPA project, conducted by the BHE in co-operation with the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor, the national resources committee and the central statistical board.

PRESSURE THAT COUNTS

For several years Myers-Cox Cigar company has had a Negro man driving the delivery truck in Des Moines. Evidently his work has been satisfactory, as it included the collection of bills for packages delivered—otherwise his term of service would not have been so lengthy.

Following a change in local management recently, this driver was laid off for no other earthly reason than that he was a Negro.

The Community Pharmacy, one of our leading drug stores in the city, and which had been a regular customer of the firm and had bought thousands of dollars worth of cigarettes and cigars annually, upon hearing that this driver had been fired, called up and cancelled their business with this firm.

This drug store is to be highly commended for taking this action, for the withdrawal of an account such as this is the best protest that can be made. We have many stores in Des Moines which could not live without their Negro trade, still they give back nothing in wages to Negro employees; too many concerns where Negroes are forced to trade but get back nothing in wages to Negro employees.

Some cities have organized to the end that their protests have brought results. But this must be done through intelligent organization.

Unfortunately we are losing jobs here and there—and for no other reason than that the discharged person is black.

What next, Negro Business Man! After all, you suffer as much as the employee who loses his job. It is up to you to take the lead in the adjustment of these problems.

DON'T CHANGE THIS BILL

One of the subjects which the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will discuss at its annual convention this year is that of permitting more than one branch in the same community. The rulers of the organization have forbidden this in the past.

Most questions have meritorious arguments on each side; some have more than others. In this instance it appears that the old rule should prevail.

The single branch in a city has forced a unification of all work in behalf of the Negro under one source. This has prevented one group from working at odds, and yet officially, against the other; it has obviated the necessity of the national office settling arguments between local groups over the question of who is wrong and who is not; it prevents disgruntled members from setting up branches to spite another; it has lifted the national office out of local scraps for control over leadership that comes as a result of heading the branch.

We hope the N. A. A. C. P. will see fit to leave this rule undisturbed, for in a change we see endless trouble.

The Negro Republican Voters League of Iowa was organized September 11, 1930, in McCree's hall, East Sixteenth and University avenue. been able to tabulate the voting strength of the Negro population in the state and have in our files the names and addresses of 5,000 Negro Republicans exclusive of Polk county. We also have the names, addresses and party affiliations of all Negro voters in the city as of November 3, 1936.

It is the intention of this league of voters to put on a campaign of education to teach our group the dangers of a governmental system that tends to make our race wards of the political party in control of our government. We are opposed to such a system irrespective of the party. With half our people on relief, the party in power can mark your ballot in Washington and compel you to abide by it. We think that is too great a price to pay for security.

We are prepared to take this issue to the very doorstep of every Negro voter in this state and in this effort we earnestly solicit the aid of every intelligent citizen of the state to help to awake race pride. Sincerely yours, J. G. Browne, committeeman precinct 27 and state chairman of the Negro Republicans, 1419 Maryland avenue.

WOMAN AND MAN NEW OWNERS OF NEWARK HERALD

Newark, N. J., June 28.—(C)—Speculation on the fate of the Newark Herald, suspended in April after ten years of publication, ended last week as the paper reappeared under new ownership, that of Miss Dorothy Saunders, manager of the Community Personal Finance corporation, 2365 Seventh avenue, New York, and William Merrill, clerk of the same concern who were listed in the incorporation papers of the Newark Herald Publishing company filed in the Hall of Records as holding thirty to thirty-five shares of stock respectively and one Alden Archibald, whose address was given as 35 Somerset street, in the Harrison apartments, who was listed as holding thirty-five shares. Miss Saunders gave as her Newark address, 327 South Eleventh street, and Merrill as his Newark address, 132 Peshine avenue. The par value of the stock is $10 and the company is authorized to issue 1,000 shares. When the paper appeared, the president of the company was listed as Merrill Biddle, who was not known to newspaper folk in Newark. The fact that Miss Saunders and Merrill are employees of a Harlem concern owned by Dr. C. E. Powell and Dr. P. M. H. Savory, publishers of the Amsterdam News, further strengthened the belief that the Herald is operated by them, although Dr. Powell is said to have denied to Melvin Johnson, former editor of the Herald that his interests had purchased the paper.

PORTER TRANSFERRED TO UPTOWN THEATRE

Maurice Crew, manager of the Uptown theatre, is very appreciative of the service Wilbur Lee Brown has given since his employment and wishes the public to know that Mr. Brown was transferred to the Uptown theatre after a short service at the downtown Des Moines theatre. Mr. Crew says: "The theatre is always immaculate when he leaves. Tuesdays and Saturdays, Brown works in the parking lot and his courtesy and capable assistance to the patrons has caused considerable comment. He is a fine example of what a real porter should be."

Crocker "Y" Summer Boxing Show Opens

The opening program of the summer boxing shows at the Crocker Y. M. C. A. will be staged Wednesday evening, July 6, with an all star card of local amateur pugilists performing in the outdoor ring.

The shows are jointly sponsored by the physical and camp committees of the "Y," but will be under the general direction of George Bourland, manager of the Twentieth Century gymnasium, and well known in boxing circles throughout the state.

Well known amateur boxers in this section of the state will be presented by Matchmaker Bourland on each week's card, and efforts will be made to bring in outside teams to oppose local fistic artists.

Net proceeds will again be used for the purpose of assisting needy boys in raising their camp fees for this year's Crocker "Y" period. All amateur fighters desiring to appear on the opening card, or any subsequent program, are requested to phone or see Mr. Bourland at the Twentieth Century gym, or sign up at the "Y."

With one more week of play remaining in the first round, four strong teams are battling for the leadership of the first half of the schedule in the Crocker "Y" softball league. The Second Street Eagles are currently setting the pace, having registered triumphs in the three league contests they have engaged in to date. The Eagles' latest victory was over the Corinthian Baptist crew by a 14 to 10 margin Monday evening on the West High diamond.

Two other aggregations are sporting clean slates in games played thus far. The East Des Moines Community Center and the All Stars have come through with victories in the few games they have been able to play, but the impressive showing they made stamps them as favorites in the pennant chase. The team of youngsters, playing under the colors of the Van Ginkel Sporting Goods company, have dropped one game out of three played, and if they continue to play heads-up ball, may upset some of the more favored combinations. In one of the best played games of the year, the Van Ginkel outfit nosed out the Negro Community Center team in a fast 7 to 6 game last Wednesday evening. The contest was decided by Bus Bates' long winning triple in the seventh with two mates aboard.

Corinthian Baptist and the Billiken Nite Owls have not broken into the win column as yet, the former dropping all three starts, but are just getting together a working combination. The Billiken boys have only played one game due to having several games rained out, but are all set to make up for lost time with the remaining games on the schedule. Pee Wee Coal, who won the championship last year under another name, won the only game they have played on the schedule, but have failed to appear for the last two games and have therefore suffered forfeits. Their position in the league will probably be taken by the Grand Auction club team.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Page Kyle, of Raleigh, N. C.

The bride was lovely in white mousseline de soie with seed pearl yoke, veil with orange blossom coronet. Around the neck was a beautiful diamond-studded locket, the gift of her grandfather. Falling from her bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses was a lovely rosary, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor was charming in pale yellow, and the other attendants wore pink.

This huge delegation will leave Friday evening, August 12th, via Chicago to join delegates from Minnesota and Illinois and will arrive in Milwaukee on Saturday morning in time for the opening session. After the order of business a change in tempo will be made to give the conventioners a chance to dine and dance at the swanky country club, or go bathing with the breeze in the cool and colorful Lake Michigan. All business transactions will be concluded on Sunday, August 14th.

Local meetings will be held on Thursday evenings of each week at the Blue Triangle Branch, Y. W. C. A. Business of importance.

"So live that when thy summons comes to join The enumerable caravan which moves To that mysterious realm where each shall take His chamber, in the silent halls of death, Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night, Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

He began his Christian career when but a boy, in Virginia, where, being an orphan, he was reared by his aunt, Mrs. Sallie Sales, of Madison Heights, whom he afterwards supported by paying her taxes and sending to her monthly allowances as long as he was able to work. He joined the Maple Street Baptist church under the pastorate of Rev. Bates, later becoming a member of the Union Baptist, with Rev. Jordan Tutt, pastor. At the time of his death he was a member of the Adventists church, his pastor being Rev. E. Hudson. WORDS WITHOUT MUSIC

By LOUIS REID Music Features & Photo Syndicate

"SWEET LILANI," Harry Owens' song which Bing Crosby first popularized in the film "Waikiki Wedding," captured first place in the balloting of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as the best song written for a film during 1937. It topped by a comfortable margin, it is said, such other meritorious tunes as Warren and Dubin's "Remember Me"; Cole Porter's "Rosalie"; and "The Old Feeling," by Lew Brown and Sammy Fain.

There are 2,270 different lullabies or cradle songs, regularly published and copyrighted in ASCAP's files. Nearly one-quarter of them bear the title of "Berceuse." . . . Again, showing how often composers have the same idea, there are 496 compositions entitled "Barcarolle." And this list does not include 100 different arrangements which have been made of Offenbach's famous work of this name . . . Fifteen different lyrics have been published to the music of the Neapolitan serenade, "O Sole Mio." Even the music of Wagner's "Evening Star" has been published under six different titles.

Those Sentimental Ballads Sentimental ballads of home and mother and smiling-through-the-heartbreak continue to find a big public. Witness the recent popularity of "There's a Gold Mine in the Sky," "On the Sunny Side of the Rockies" and "When the Organ Played O Promise Me." This type of song stems, of course, to the late Charles K. Harris and his "After the Ball," which was a tremendous hit for more than a generation. Harris who had unusual talent for this style of number, followed up his great hit with other successful ballads which, along with "After the Ball" are occasionally revived—"Hello Central, Give He Heaven," "Always in the Way," "Break the News to Mother," and "Somewhere the Sun Is Shining."

The old ragtime tunes that flourished since Theodore the First sat upon the White House throne are seldom heard today. The jazz pianists and maestros of the present sniff at the "Maple Leaf Rag," at one time the craze of the land. Even such a tune as "Kerry-Mills" "Waiting Rufus," once played in every cross-roads of America, rests in dusty oblivion. About the only definitely ragtime

One Enduring Ragtime Air A lifetime has passed since it first crashed upon the pianos of the old cabarets of the country. It swept across the nation with the force of a cyclone. Feature writers interpreted prominent citizens on the perils of ragtime and Berlin was considered everything from a menace to a genius.

With ragtime now spelled as jazz and swing, Berlin confines his activities chiefly to blue skines and melodies that linger on, leaving the hot stuff to others. Yet when the call is clear and persistent, he, too, can turn out torrid jazz as he demonstrated in "Heat Wave."

The roof gardens and road houses are coming to life, and the dance tune-men are scrambling for positions. There's one thing sure in these uncertain times. Dance music was never better. The competition is severe and it is keeping the composers, as well as the band leaders, on their toes. It is doubtful, however, dance music brings people to their toes in the parlors. People use it as background for bridge and conversation.

No song in the last six months had a quicker rise—or a quicker fall—than "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen."

The Curse of Repetition Repetition is still the curse of music broadcasting. The public endures repetition in heaping doses, orchestras playing the same tunes hour after hour, night after night. And yet, the music publishers are largely responsible for the over-crowding. They have believed that concentrated airing of a new song over a period of a month or more to an audience of 50,000,000 would bring a rushing torrent of gold to their sheet music counters. They did not reckon upon the effect of the constant airing.

No listener can endure a persistent dinning of a ditty. He quickly becomes fed up—fed up in most cases in less than a month. Even the complex strains of the classic composers cannot stand nightly repetition. Even a Debussy or a Richard Strauss cannot hold up under it. And if they can't, what chance has a simple Hollywood ballad?
