Workers On Relief Should Not Be Denied Right of Franchise

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5—Not only have the states no right to deny the franchise to persons on relief, but every poll tax law in the country should be "abolished," was the assertion made by Dr. Louis T. Wright of New York, chairman of the board of the N. A. A. C. P., in a statement issued here last week.

The statement, which appeared in the United States News, in part follows:

"Not only do I strongly feel that

LIFE MAGAZINE TELLS STORY OF THE NEGRO IN PICTURES

New York, Oct. 5—Twelve full pages of the October 3rd issue of Life magazine contain an essay in pictures on the Negro in the United States. The pictures give a bird's eye view of the Negro's development in politics, economics, art, literature, social life, education and sports.

The panorama includes pictures of the new buildings on several Negro university campuses, a full page photo of Augusta Savage, showing the sculptor working on a figure to be shown at the New York World Fair; and more than a score of pictures of Negro leaders from Frederick Douglass to Walter White. According to observers the publication of so large a number of pictures of Negroes by a national picture magazine represents a new trend in this field.

U. S. High Court May Pass on Oklahoma Election Law

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 5—The U. S. supreme court will be asked to pass upon the constitutionality of this state's election law, when application is made some time in November for a review of a recent U. S. circuit court of appeals decision upholding the law, which was passed in 1916.

The application will be filed in the form of a writ of certiorari by Charles Chandler, on behalf of I. W.

American citizens should not be denied the right to vote because they are on relief, and that no state law on the subject of 'pauper' vote be enforced in respect to relief workers, but I go further and assert that the poll tax should be speedily abolished wherever it is required."

DINING CAR UNION ASKS RAIL PAY CUT MEDIATION

Chicago, Oct. 5—(CNA)—The joint council of Dining Car Employees, A. F. of L., this week requested the national mediation board to stay a 15 per cent wage cut, it was announced by Ishmael P. Flory, secretary-treasurer of the council.

"If the question is not settled in the mediation board, the union will issue strike ballots," Flory told the Crusader News Agency.

"It is absurd that the carriers should at this time be seeking to sabotage the recovery program of President Roosevelt, in the face of the need of increased purchasing power of the masses," said Flory. "It is even more absurd to talk of cutting the wages of dining car employees whose wages are as low as $40 a month, when they work."

Lane, a resident of Wagoner county, Oklahoma.

The case dates back to 1935, and challenged the Oklahoma election law of 1916, which provided that persons hitherto barred from voting must register within two weeks after passage of the new law. Few Negroes, it is alleged, knew about the passage of the new law, hence many of them did not register. The law was passed after the U. S. court, in 1915, outlawed the grandfather clause in the previous state election law.

TO SPEAK AT MEETING HERE

Miss Frances Williams, Secretary National Y. W. C. A. Board Here To Assist In Annual Membership Drive

Miss Frances Williams, secretary with the national board of the Young Women's Christian Association in New York, is in the city to confer with local Y. W. C. A. officials on various phases of the association's program. Miss Williams has been associated with the national organization for several years.

A Kentuckian by birth, she is the daughter of Frank L. Williams, who has been identified with the school system of St. Louis for more than twenty-five years. Special training for her present task as advisory secretary to local groups has been obtained at a number of leading educational institutions. She is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke college, where she was awarded membership in Phi Beta Kappa. She is also graduate of the New York School of Social Work and has a master of arts degree from the political science department of the University of Chicago. At the latter school Miss Williams majored in community organization, a subject which has been helpful in her work of visiting local associations and appraising trends in the community which might affect the program and policies of social work organizations.

"The migration of large numbers of Negroes to the city during the last two decades has made the study of urban life among Negroes of first importance to those who are interested in racial advancement," Miss Williams says. "In cities the less privileged Negroes have made tremendous strides in recent years. It is they who are the bulwark of our political advance and it is they who are hammering at the doors of new and varied economic opportunity.

To Speak at Meeting Here

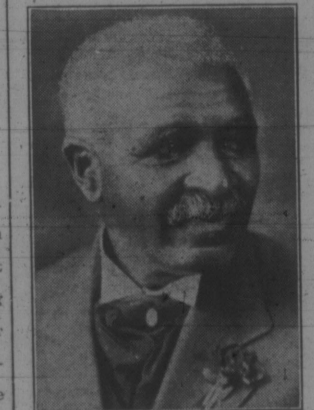

Miss Williams was the guest speaker and discussion leader of the group work section of the Iowa Social Workers conference, which convened last week at Fort Dodge, Wednesday evening, October 5th. Mrs. Williams was the guest of the Thorobred club, a club of young girls cut of high school at the Y. W. C. A. branch, Thursday, October 6th. Miss Williams spoke at the membership meeting at the Blue Triangle branch; Monday evening she will speak at the Interracial Commission meeting at North High school; Monday noon she will speak at the Ministers' Alliance and Social Workers, Blue Triangle branch.

Miss Williams will be in the city twelve days.

Ickes To Address East- ern Conference of National Negro Congress

Baltimore, Oct. 5—(CNA)—Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior, will address the opening meeting of the Eastern Regional Conference of the National Negro Congress in Baltimore.

Recognizing the importance of the conference, Ickes stated in a letter to John P. Davis, national secretary of the Congress, that "although my speaking engagement is already overcrowded, I find myself impelled to accept your kind invitation to speak at the Eastern Regional Conference of the National Negro Congress in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, October 7, 1938, at eight o'clock." The conference will close October 9th.

Among other speakers participating will be Dr. Robert C. Weaver, U. S. housing authority, and John P. Davis.

Hundreds of delegates from twelve eastern states and the District of Columbia are expected to converge on this city this week-end for the expressed purpose of mapping out a comprehensive non-partisan legislative program designed to meet the

Republican Governor, Harry Nice, Seeking Re - election Says "Totally Unconstitutional"

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 5—The state Democratic convention meeting here, September 28th, to nominate Herbert O'Connor former attorney general for Maryland, for governor, pledged to end the differential in Negro and white teachers' salaries.

Included in its program of policy is the following statement:

"We recognize the obligation on the part of the state to equalize the salaries of white and colored teachers having the same teaching qualifications and we pledge the accomplishment of this objective at the earliest possible time."

Republican Governor Harry Nice, who is seeking re-election, issued a previous statement in the Baltimore Sun in which he declared that the state law permitting a differential in salary payments to Negro and white teachers was "totally unconstitutional." "I am supported by the

Attempting to force a confession, three detectives, Lorin Miller, R. E. O'Brien and Ben Ritch, are reported to have administered the third degree to Coyle by seriously beating him in a darkened room. Coyle exhibited injuries he said were inflicted with rawhide whip, blackjack and fists.

A conference held Monday in the office of the chief of police with G. W. Robinson, Atty. Casper Schenk, Atty. James B. Morris, representing the N. A. A. C. P.; Atty. Bogart, representative of the C. I. O. and American Civil Liberties; LeRoy Franklin, Jack Smith, J. A. Brody, chief of detectives, and Roger West, assistant chief of police, resulted in a fine of $75 imposed on the trio of detectives. Under the law, Henry Hasbrouck, safety commissioner and appointing officer, has the authority to impose a summary fine of a policeman of $75 or a thirty day suspension. It shall be the editorial policy of the Iowa Bystander to voice the convictions of the Negro. Praise and criticism will be constructive in its nature, with a definite regard for the progress of all. NO THIRD DEGREE WANTED

Last week three Negro boys were arrested and held for investigation by the police department upon suspicion that they had been involved in a robbery and a series of purse snatchings. Unable to gather sufficient evidence to justify the filing of a charge against them, three officers are said to have attempted to force a confession and in so doing administered the third degree to one of the defendants.

The boy was beaten shamefully and evidently without just cause. Complaint was made to the department. A conference with the superintendent of public safety, chief of detectives and assistant chief of police, representatives of the N. A. A. C. P. and Interracial Commission and the C. I. O. was held, at which the situation was gone into with the result that the officers have been fined for the offense.

Generally the Des Moines police force has been relatively free from third degree tactics and it was highly important that summary punishment be meted out which would serve notice that this kind of conduct would not be tolerated. And while the punishment is not adequate, we feel that the prompt action of the heads of the department merits commendation.

NOT THE WAY TO NEGOTIATE

It is difficult for Americans to understand European diplomacy; possibly this accounts for our criticism of them. So much has been written of the recent war scare in Europe and the generally condemned settlement that one more stone thrown at it is not at all out of place.

We are inclined to give every fellow his day in court and a chance to make a defense of his side of a controversy. Evidently this is not the system adopted by the four powers in their disposition of Hitler's demands of the Czechs. The four powers got together without giving the Czechs a chance to be heard, arranged the boundaries as demanded by Hitler, which included taking much of private property without recourse, and then sent the decision to the Czechs with what amounted to a demand to accept it. Self determination is a fine principle. Hitler insisted on it, and rightly so. But the right to make a defense of one's own cause is equally important and should not be denied a state or individual simply because it is unable to protect itself.

NOW OR NEVER

The Bystander has said on more than one occasion that fairer disposition of patronage is the paramount political issue before the Negro in Iowa today. In order to make some headway the leading Negro campaign managers must make an intelligent approach to the problem. It must be done now, not after this election. What about it, gentlemen?

Pretty Wedding-- Lewis - Watts Nuptials

YOUNG COUPLE WERE MARRIED SEPTEMBER 24th

BLUE TRIANGLE BRANCH Y. W. C. A. SCENE OF CEREMONY - RECEPTION FOLLOWS VOWS

Miss Pauline Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Page, was married, September 24th to Jack Clifford Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Southall of Zookpur, Iowa. The couple were married at the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. in front of the large fireplace. The room was beautifully decorated with lattice work and flowers. The bride was beautifully gowned in white chiffon, made on the princess style. A halo of pink and blue rosebuds around her head and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Miss Rose Mary Watts, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, dressed in pastel yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of tea roses. Jacob Colbert was the best man. Miss Loretta Blackwell played the wedding march and Evelyn Carr sang "I Love You Truly." Rev. Ingram married the couple.

The reception was held immediately after the wedding, with the family and a few friends as guests.

SPORTS

Football

The great season of "pick out your man and smack him" is well under way. After looking over the local high school situation, we feel inclined to think that if East can dig up a good kicker and passer, the Lee township lads will be the city champs for 1938. Ike Miller turned in two fine performances against Dowling and Marshalltown, bidding fair to become the outstanding Negro high school baller here. But Miller will find stern opposition for these honors in "Lanky" Fred Williams of East and big Jim Thompson who is now fullbacking for Roosevelt. Then there is Wally Hill of North, and the veteran Harry Saunders of East, along with a host of others we will mention from time to time. If Cliff Lovelady of West Des Moines had some support, he would rate all star honors as he is the best high school passer in the city. As these other boys from East and North come up, you will hear about them.

The entire state is fairly flooded with Negro high school footballers and we shall try to recognize them all from time to time.

COLLEGE

In the Big Ten we have the familiar faces of Bernie Jefferson of Northwestern and Horace Bell of Minnesota, along with Fred Smith of Iowa, who missed his opener at U. C. L. A. Jefferson and Bell both played major roles in their games last week as their teams won.

Indiana comes up with Archie Harris, a big end, who will make himself talked about before he closes his career. Iowa had Henry Washington of U. C. L. A. under control for about a half, but he finally did his bit, as he and Woodman Strode helped the U. clubs dump Iowa in their opener.

Fritz Pollard returned to the grid-iron wars and helped North Dakota come through. Pollard seems to be headed for a great year again.

Out at Drake we have a boy named Cushionberry who seems to be a natural tackle, but they are playing him at end and he isn't doing so well. But he is only a sophomore and may yet find himself. You will hear about all of these lads from week to week.

PROFESSIONAL

The debacle of the Negro College All Stars wasn't a great surprise. The Chicago Bears have too much organization and power in the center of the line for most teams. The Negroes could pick a team that might give the Bears trouble, but they couldn't have it picked by fans. The fans are not familiar enough with Negro football to be able to get the best and biggest. This size is very essential against the Bears.

Here, with the Comets, Bob Vandever has shifted into high gear and is going places again in the local games. In spite of the fact that he is a marked man, Bob is still a world of trouble as he uses his speed and added experience to star for Daniels.

DON ALBERT, "KING OF SWING" PLAYS AT BILLIKEN, OCTOBER 10

Don Albert and his NBC and CBC radio artists, consisting of seventeen artists and a gigantic floor show, will play a dance engagement at the newly decorated Billiken ballroom Monday, October 10th. This dance is sponsored by the Tall Corn Democratic club.

This "Swing Band" is one of the big six colored bands of the nation and is returning south from his record breaking tour of New York Appolo theatre, Graystone ballroom of Detroit, Golden Pheasant at Cleveland and the Savoy ballroom in Chicago. Don is the south's favorite band, having outdrawn Louis Armstrong in Nashville, Tennessee, a few months ago.

"The band is tops," says T. L. "Speck" Howard, dance promoter. "I have tried for three years to book them here, but business was so good in eastern states that managers would not heed western call."

Don will give a forty-five minute floor show. The newly decorated Billiken will have plenty of room for dancing, since the new arrangement gives 6,000 square feet of dancing room. This will be the official opening of the new ballroom which has been installed in the basement of the Billiken. So all you "Jitterbugs," "Floggies" and what have you, come on out and give Don, "The King of Swing," a grand send-off.

Remember the date! October 10. Place: Billiken ballroom. Time: 9:00 p. m. Advance ticket sale at Community Pharmacy, Hardaway Tonsorial Parlor, Hammitt Drug Store and Tolson's Cafe.

Citizens Urged to Write Senators on Lynch Bill - Cloture

New York, Oct. 5—Officials of the N. A. A. C. P. urged upon individual citizens and organizations interested in pressing the fight for passage of an anti-lynch bill during the coming session of congress to write their senators and congressmen asking them how they stand on this legislation.

Only two questions need be asked of these solons, some of whom are up for re-election to office, it was said; do you favor a federal anti-lynching bill, and to senators only will you vote for cloture (limitation of debate) in order to stop a filibuster?

Announcement of the letter writing drive came one week after the N. A. A. C. P. board of directors had unanimously adopted a resolution to press vigorously the fight for passage of the bill during the coming session of congress.
