

Warrick Found Guilty - Sentenced to 30 Years

'NAACP for Advancement of White People Also' Pickens Tells Group

"Whether we pass a lynching bill or not the fight will kill it," stated Dean Pickens before a large audience Monday night at St. Paul church. "There has been more Negroes lynched in self-defense than any other crime" he continued. He made it clear that most lynching was not for rape, only 16 1/2% out of 3,000 were accused of rape, and that rape was lowest among Negroes than any other race, therefore the statement "We must protect our women" was just a farce. "White women of the South have stood solidly in line for an anti-lynching bill," he revealed.

No Real Segregation
During his speech Mr. Pickens told the audience that "There can be no real segregation of the white and black races." He illustrated this point by saying that "You may be forced to enter the back door while the whites enter the front, but do you realize that once you get in you're both in the same house?" He also emphasized the fact that the NAACP program aimed to help both races; that the breaking up of lynching would do more for the white than for the colored. This organization started thirty years ago by three white persons, a race riot being the cause. There are over 10,000 white members in the organization at the present time. Ten out of eleven cases taken to the supreme court have been won, and the eleventh was not really lost but the court had no jurisdiction over it. The first case won was the elimination of the grandfather clause in state constitutions.

Thirteenth Amendment Created Freedom For All
Another important point made by the speaker was that Frederick Douglass was "an extremely important factor in establishing freedom for both white and colored." The thirteenth amendment created a permanent freedom for the white man as well as the Negro. Earlier in his talk he had stated that there was no white person who did not have stigma

FORMER CHICAGO WAITER MANUFACTURES CHICKEN SAUSAGE

Chicago, March 15 (ANP)—A new food article making a recent appearance in the local market and finding marked favor with housewives is a chicken sausage manufactured by Emmett J. Marshall who has had wide experience as dining car waiter and butler in private families. He is also organizer of the South Side Poultry Association, and has his sausage factory at 67 E. 43rd Street.

Marshall's chicken sausage comes in pound packages, retails at 40 cents and is said to be very tasty. His recipe is a closely guarded secret and one of the spices used he discovered in Paris in 1928, while acting as butler for the secretaries of U. S. Ambassador Myron T. Herrick. Marshall received his bachelor of arts degree at the University of Minnesota in 1932, his master's in 1933, at Atlanta university.

of slavery in his ancestral line. After Dean Pickens' talk the meeting was thrown open for questions. Other numbers on the program were a trumpet solo by James King, "My Rosary," and a vocal solo by Mrs. Kerline Jackson, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I See." Miss Clara Webb was mistress of ceremonies.

The meeting was sponsored by the NAACP, the Polk County Council of Religious Education, and the Des Moines Interracial Commission.

Approximately one hundred persons attended the last address of Dean Pickens on "The Future Of The Negro," Saturday, March 11. Dr. Pickens was introduced by Attorney S. Joe Brown.

Dean Pickens spoke before the Interracial Commission, 6:15 p. m. on the "Possibilities Of The Interracial Commission," Tuesday, North High School cafeteria.

Howard Gets More Funds

INCREASE HOWARD, FREDMAN'S APPROPRIATIONS

Washington, March 15 (ANP)—Government appropriations for Howard, university and Freedman's hospital were revealed last week, showing that the university had been allotted $745,000 and Freedman's $480,820 to carry on during the coming year.

The Howard allotment of $745,000 is the same as the budget recommendations, but is $22,000 in excess of the current appropriations. The Department of Interior which has charge of the business of the university found that the most urgent need at the school is for additional personnel, particularly in the schools of medicine, the graduate school and the college and the school of law.

The estimates submitted to the house for consideration by the Department of Interior will have to be passed on by the legislative body.

Wilson Given State Post

For the first time in many years, an additional Negro clerical worker was assigned in the Iowa statehouse this week.

Harry E. Wilson, who has been employed in the city streets department for several years and who previously was in the statehouse branch post-office, was named to succeed Hal Junkins of Fairfield as supply sergeant for the state highway patrol. He has been active in Republican circles for many years having assisted in organizing the Iowa Negro Republican Voters League and has campaigned actively for each Republican ticket since 1920.

He was a first lieutenant attached to the 306th Infantry during the World War. In France he served with the 92nd division and was wounded in action. Several years ago he helped organize the East Side Booster club which was the beginning of the East Des Moines Community Center and which is now under the supervision of the community chest agency. Mr. Wilson is married and lives at 1029 East 15th Street.

He began his new duties in this department Monday, March 13.

Missouri to Comply with Decision

MISSOURI PASSES EDUCATION BILL TO COMPLY WITH SUPREME COURT RULING

Jefferson City, Mo., Mar. 13 (ANP)—Missouri Democrats triumphed over GOP opposition in the State legislature last Monday when the house of representatives ordered perfected a bill by John D. Taylor, Chariton County Democrat, to expand facilities of Lincoln university, to equal the standards at the University of Missouri.

The bill was passed after a rallying plea to Democrats and luke-warm Republicans, but only after a brilliant appeal had been made by Rep. O. B. Whitaker, Hickory County GOP stalwart, that qualified Negro students be admitted to University of Missouri. In his plea Rep. Whitaker stated that he would rather have his children associated with those who have made good citizens of Missouri than with Japanese who are being trained to slaughter persons on the battlefield.

Stem of the Taylor bill was the decision last Dec. 8 of the U. S. Supreme Court in the U. of Missouri case, which ruled that the state must either admit Negroes at U. of M. as a law student, or "provide equal facilities within the state" for Negro students. Rep. Taylor, said he would ask for an adequate appropriation for Lincoln to enable the state to comply with the high court ruling.

NAACP Attorneys Aid

The suit instituted in the circuit court in behalf of Miss Black was filed by J. Thomas Hewin, Jr., Thurgood Marshall, Leon A. Ransom, and Charles H. Houston, attorneys for N. A. A. C. P. The fight is being supported financially by the Virginia State Teachers' Association and other local groups.

Develops New Fruit

Seffner, Fla., Mar. 13 (ANP)—Joseph Smalley, veteran citrus fruit grower here, has developed a new product. Unnamed as yet, Mr. Smalley calls his discovery "The Unknown Fruit." Resembling a grape fruit, it has all of the grape fruit's acidity and meat yet tastes as sweet as an orange.

When asked why more young colored men did not take to citrus growing, he said, "The citrus industry is a long-time investment and requires large outlays of cash to get the grove started. Young men usually are desirous of getting immediate returns for money invested in citrus groves, and are therefore impatient with the length of time it takes a citrus orchard to develop." Mr. Smalley, a veteran of 93 years, but as spry as a man of 50, grows upon his farm temple oranges, satsuma, Large Naval, Small Naval, the Smalley Lemon (weighs about two pounds), Salista, Dancy Tangerine, and several varieties of citrus fruit. There are over 200 colored growers in Florida.

EQUAL TEACHERS' SALARIES

"JUST AND FAIR," SAY WHITE PROFESSORS
Norfolk, Va., Mar. 15.—Establishment of the principle that Negro and white teachers in Virginia with similar training and doing the same work should be paid the same salaries, was described as "nothing more than fair and just," by eight faculty members of the Norfolk division of William and Mary College, the oldest institution of higher learning in the country.

Their viewpoint was expressed in a letter to the editor of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, and published in the paper March 7. Publication of the letter followed closely upon the filing of a suit in the Norfolk circuit court by attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People March 3, on behalf of Miss Aline E. Black, a teacher at

Judge Ladd Pronounces Sentence Immediately After Jury's Verdict

Fleetus Jack Warrick, 23, was sentenced to thirty years in Anamosa Penitentiary for the stabbing of L. R. Stoker, operator of an Urbandale street car, the night of January 14.

Events leading up to the stabbing were revealed during the trial Tuesday by Miss Esther Cox, a witness. Miss Cox said that Warrick took a seat behind her when he got on at Tenth and Center Street. He asked her several times where she was going without her husband. The car operator thinking that he was molesting Miss Cox, told him to "let that woman alone," then, in line with Warrick's previous request, stopped the car at Ninth street and Grand Avenue to let Warrick get off, but Warrick told him to go on.

As he started the car, the operator continued, someone hit him on the side of the face, and as he turned to fight back, Warrick drew his knife. Stoker was cut along the left side of his face from above his ear to his chin, a wound requiring thirty-one stitches, stabbed below his change-belt and just below the right shoulder blade.

On the witness stand Wednesday, Warrick admitted stabbing Stoker and said that he was angry when he struck him first. However, the knife was in self defense after the motorman had attacked him with an iron bar the car operator uses to throw switches.

In his closing statements before the jury Attorney Patterson, defense attorney, argued the technical point of "intent" in the assault charge stressing that Warrick had no intent to murder Stoker. He said that Stoker told Warrick "I'm going to kill you!" as he threatened him with the switch bar.

Patterson closed his evidence with the testimonies of Jake Sherman, William Hawkins, and O. H. Beck, former employers of Warrick, as to Warrick's good moral character.

PROWLER ENTERS ATTORNEY MORRIS' HOME

Jewelry valued at more than $100 was stolen from the J. B. Morris', attorney, home, 955 17th Street, last week. The jewelry taken was property of Mrs. Harold Wilkerson, occupant of an apartment in the Morris home, and part that of Mrs. J. B. Morris and her daughter, Jean. Later it was discovered that a shot gun belonging to J. B. Morris was taken also. No trace of the stolen articles has been found.

COLORED GIRL QUITS CHICAGO U. BEAUTY CONTEST

Chicago, March 15 (ANP)—Wild rumors circulated on the Southside following the resignation of Miss Geraldine Lane, pretty 20 year old student at the University of Chicago, from the institution's annual beauty contest were set at rest by the girl herself.

The contest is conducted by the Cap and Gown, yearbook, and attracts citywide attention. According to the rumors, Miss Lane was leading in the voting until officials "learned" she was colored. Since it would never do for a Negro girl to be chosen over white coeds as the most beautiful on the campus, a "deal" was made whereby Miss Lane would take only second place for the benefit of all concerned, said the stories. Rather than do that, she withdrew.

According to official results as given out by Cap and Gown officials, Miss Lane was fourth with 140 votes. The first, second and third place winners got 324,281 and 220 votes respectively.

U. S. NOT HONEST ABOUT DEMOCRACY, NAACP CHARGES

New York, N. Y., Mar. 10.—A new booklet outlining the ways in which the Negro is denied the benefits of democracy was issued this week by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The pamphlet, entitled "Let's Be Honest About Democracy," is being especially as an appeal for substantial financial contributions from persons in the higher income brackets. The booklet asserts that the "surest method of safeguarding the democratic system is to protect the civil liberties of every citizen" and appeals for funds to carry on a legislative program, including a federal anti-lynching bill, to carry a better interracial information service; and to set up two regional offices of the association.

PLAN SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF NATIONAL NEGRO HEALTH WEEK

Washington, D. C., March 15 (ANP)—Officials of the National Negro Health Movement, headed by Dr. George W. Bowles, chairman of the advisory committee and Dr. Numa P. G. Adams, secretary, are pushing plans for the 25th anniversary of National Negro Health Week, the observance to last April 1-30, with Health Week Proper April 2-9.

The U. S. Public Health Service, State, County, and City Health departments and various voluntary health and civic organizations will be cooperating agencies. Declaring that: "The future of the race depends on the conservation of its health," Dr. Booker T. Washington, founder of Tuskegee Institute organized National Negro Health Week in 1915.

Coyle Suit Against Police Officers Nearing a Close

FLASH! The jury brought in the verdict in favor of Coyle awarding his $100 damages and cost of the suit.

Charging that three detectives, Ben Rich, Lorin Miller, and R. E. O'Brien beat him September 27, 1938, while they were questioning him concerning a service station robbery, Wardell Coyle suit for $2,100 damages for injury, pain and suffering and $1,500 special damages went on trial in Judge Shankland's Court Monday morning.

Coyle's petition charges the detectives "in collusion, angrily, maliciously and unlawfully struck and beat the plaintiff over the head, back and face with a rawhide whip, rubber hose, sap and fists" so that he was driven into a window from which broken glass wounded his chin, elbow and forehead. It is charged that his eyesight was permanently impaired.

The civil service commission freed the three officers of "third degree" methods in the case, but upheld a fine of $75 apiece against them for failing to report the incident to the chief of police.

Casper Schenk, Coyle's attorney introduced four witnesses, J. B. Morris, attorney, Isaac Shelton, preacher and painter, the Rev. J. W. Robinson, minister, and Louis Garland, policeman, each affirmed Coyle's reputation as a person of good moral character.

Attorney James E. O'Brien represents the three detectives.

Extravaganza Staged by East Community Center

The Musical Extravaganza "Amos 'n' Andy In Hollywood" was presented at the Jewish Community Center last Thursday night.

The theme of the show centered around Amos and Andy, impersonated by Colen Scales and Jim Rhodes, respectively. These two funny characters tried time and time again to convince the director, Cecil B. De Mille, enacted by "Speck" Howard, that they were actors and Andy was a great lover. The remainder of the program was built around this plot and scenes from the various movies such as "Ashes Of Roses," "Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs" and "Maytime."

The best presented and most beautiful scene was the one taken from "Maytime" with Miss Roberta Maupin and Harry Tredwell, cast in the roles of Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy, singing "Will You Remember." This scene received much applause and was also an encore.

Sylvia Ross, very petite and demure, dressed in a white net fairy-like costume did a very intricate ballet dance. This was very extraordinary and something different from the usual trend of dances. She also did a tap dance "I'll See You In My Dreams." With her clever routine, personality and smiles, she danced away with the show. Getting an encore on both numbers.

Although the show can not be called a success and was not well presented, the plot was very outstanding and with more rehearsals and stage

GEORGIA SEEKS MAN IN N. Y. UNDER LINDBERGH LAW

New York, Mar. 10.—The State of Georgia is seeking to use the Lindbergh law to force the return of John Ryals to Georgia from New York City on a charge of murder. The action is being fought by five Negro lawyers here: Vernal J. Williams, Lucius Delany, John Lewis, Edward A. Watts and Darwin Telesford.

The N.A.A.C.P. points out that when it sought to have the Lindbergh law used in 1935 against the lynchers of Claude Neal, the then Attorney General Homer S. Cummings refused to act. A mob left Marianna, Fla., and drove 200 miles to Brewton, Ala., removed Neal from jail, motored back to Marianna, and lynched him.

Ryals maintains that he acted in self defense in a fight with his landlord, and that he hid in a swamp for several days before escaping to New York while a mob hunted him to lynch him. His lawyers claim that if he returned to Georgia, he will be lynched "without question." Further hearing on the Ryals case will be held March 23.

This extravaganza was sponsored by the East Des Moines Community Center and given under the direction of Mrs. Alice McCraney with Lawrence Graves, assisting.

SUPREME COURT ADDS TO VICTORIES

In a recent decision rendered by the United States Supreme Court written by Mr. Justice Black and in which all justices concurred, it was held that not only was it a violation of the fourteenth amendment of the constitution to exclude Negroes from petit juries, but from grand juries also.

When we think of the great decisions of the court in which they have refused to allow states to strike down human rights—and that of the Negro in particular—we are reminded of the loose talk of those people who attacked the court and the constitution on the ground that we could not eat either. Those people never stopped to think that eating is not everything in life; that if a man can not enjoy his rights as a citizen, it would simply be a question of time when his chances of getting something to eat would be impaired seriously.

And incidently, Mr. Justice Black is making a good record in cases involving the rights of the Negro. It only goes to prove that most people want to be fair on all questions, but many find it difficult to stand the pressure of outside influence which may oppose fair mindedness. Life tenure of service on the supreme court relieves its members from intimidation by the rabble.

RESULTS JUSTIFY EFFORTS

Speaking at a public meeting here last week, Dean William Pickens of the NAACP said that since the organized fight on lynching began the number of victims had decreased from over a hundred to seven and eight per year.

And from these facts he concluded that even though lynching never becomes a crime under the federal law, the fight waged in behalf of such a law would break up lynching eventually.

The history of lynchings during the past few years bears out Mr. Pickens' conclusions. And the success achieved justifies the expenditure of every dollar and every ounce of effort put into the fight.

Crusades for movements don't always win their laurels along the line laid down in their program, but as long as the end for which they fight is accomplished they justify their work. This is exactly what Dr. Pickens was saying in his speech.

NOBLE SERVICE

Heretofore Negro students have not been able to continue commercial courses in the private schools here thus making it expensive for those who begin that work in high school and desire to follow through the advanced work. Alpha Delta Chapter, Iota Phi Lambda, the local unit of this national business sorority decided to do some-

ACUTE RHEUMATIC FEVER

This is an acute infectious disease chiefly characterized by an infection of the throat, joints, muscles, and heart. Children often fall victims of this disease after an attack of tonsillitis. The germ causing this condition usually enters the body through the throat. The onset of the disease is sudden with a sore throat or (tonsillitis) in over 50% of the cases; in addition to these symptoms there is a general malaise, fever, rapid pulse, and sweating.

Involvement of the heart muscles and valves make this disease most serious and one that is likely to cause permanent injury to the heart. Patients suffering with this disease require long periods of rest in bed even after all acute symptoms have subsided. Rest is imperative in treating a damaged heart. Drugs are used chiefly to combat various symptoms as they arise. Liquid and easily digestible foods are always necessary.

Jesse Clark, colored actor of 12 years experience in motion pictures has been assigned the part of Uncle Peter in "Gone With The Wind," Selznick International technicolor production. ## CROCKER "Y" CARNIVAL AT CENTRAL MARCH 22

The current basketball season will reach its climax with the annual Crocker "Y" Athletic Carnival next Wednesday evening, March 22 in the Central Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, 4th and Keo Way.

Topped by the greatest cage attraction ever billed for this event, a capacity crowd is expected to turn out for the gala evening of entertainment. Serving as the feature of the program is the game between the Famous Globe Trotters of Harlem, N. Y., and Jesse Owens Olympians of Cleveland, Ohio.

The Trotters have made a number of appearances in the city during the past six years, dazzling local court devotees with their clever antics and deft ball-handling. Three of the finest basketball players in the pro world are included on the Trotters' team. One is Danny Dennis, one of the original Harlem Globe Trotters, who has been playing nine years. He has worked diligently to teach his brother, Token, the many tricks he has developed and the two have delighted the patrons repeatedly with their ability. A new addition to the Trotters this year is Goody Goodwin, trick shot artist and fancy ball handler.

Against this array of talent the Jesse Owens Olympians, who have played together for the past six years, winning the national Negro A. A. U. title at Cleveland in 1937, will pit one of the most deceptive scoring offenses ever seen. Star players include high-scoring Sonny Boswell, Nate Bryant and Arthur Grant.

The club is noted for its fine defense of man-to-man shifting that has bottled up some of the best clubs in the country. The Olympians have made one local appearance, having defeated Drake University last year.

Holding second place on the variety sports menu, but first in importance to many of the two hundred athletes who competed on Crocker "Y" league teams, will be the senior league championship game between two of the four teams tied for first place position. Daniel Brothers Comets, present titleholders, Hasbrouck's "Y" Stars, Negro Community Center and the H. I. B. Club will meet in two payoff games Friday night at the West High gym to determine the opponents in the championship tilt on the Carnival card.

HAWKEYES WIN CITY CAGE CROWN

The week end was packed with basketball dynamite. The Hawkeyes, scrappy little East side intermediate team stole the spotlight last Saturday, competing in the class B section of the city Junior tournament, the Hawkeyes made history by becoming the first Negro team to win a championship. Several of our teams have reached the finals, but none ever came through before. There boys, led by Jimmy Payne, Martin Wyatt, argumentive Johnny Skipper and Del Gooding, won their final game during the Van Ginkel team, who were doped to win, 27-25 in a game that kept your writer on the edge of his seat and added a few more gray hairs. The other members of the team are James Taylor and Sonny-Griffith, who also played good ball. The boys won the right to compete in the state meet to be held soon, and we are all for them, and their coach, Arnold Mays.

Y LEAGUES

The Senior league race is all knotted up like a stomach full of green apples. Either the Y Stars or the Roadside Settlement could have won the crown by winning their game last Friday. But the Stars were jittery and over anxious, so the Negro Community Center, with Paul Williams and Booker King hot dusted them 27-17. Daniel's Comets stopped the Roadside 21-19 in a free for all affair that looked more like a battle royal than a basketball game. This brings up at least a four team tie and now the championship is anybody's. The H. I. B.'s, the Aces, Y Stars, NCC, and Comets are all likely to figure in a play off that will be tougher than boarding house steak. The H. I. B. game, trimmed the Dead End Boys 53-15 with Bob White setting ball committee or at the "Y" office. Members of the committee are—John M. Estes, Earl Miller, Allen Ashby, James R. Roberts, George Robinson, William H. Ashby, Chester Simms, Ered N. Morrow, Jr., Harold Carr, Thomas Avant, Paul Williams, Dolph Lawson and Wesley Bettis.

thing about this several months ago. They made the project one of their major programs.

Last week they announced through the Bystander that they had succeeded in working arrangements whereby this rule has been changed.

This is a fine piece of work. The Bystander congratulates these women who have shown to the community that sororities are not interested only in their own members, but the welfare of the community also.

Coming in for a lion's share of attention are the three boxing matches featuring several of our Golden Gloves champions and other outstanding ring performers who have appeared in the summer boxing shows in the "Y" arena. Another feature being repeated is a table tennis exhibition with some of the leading ping pongists of the Central YMCA city leagues meeting Crocker "Y" paddle wielders.

Adding a festive note to this year's affair will be several music and dancing novelty surprises to be presented by star performers between the athletic exhibitions. Also looked forward to with keen anticipation is the presentation of awards to the players on the championship teams of the senior, intermediate, and western and eastern junior leagues.

The opening event on the program is scheduled to start at 8 p. m., with the feature game between the Trotters and Olympians set at approximately 9:30 p. m. Advance seat sale is now on, tickets being obtainable from any member of the "Y" basket-ing a new league record as he rolled in twenty-five points. White's mark was just a shade under the all time Crocker Y record by James Allen. Allen dropped fourteen baskets for twenty-eight points against the Western Electric teams in 1933.

The Doobin A. C. stayed out of the cellar by setting back Corinthian 41-29 last Wednesday night. George Robinson fought hard for his team and scored 19 of their 29 points. That is the high mark of George's career. In the intermediate league the Hawkeyes have an outside chance to tie the H. I. B. club if they can stop the powerful Monarch team. The Junior titles are already decided.

TRACK

Negroes did all right themselves in the various indoor track meets around the country. John Bonican won his 1000 yard event from a sick Glenn Cunningham, but the world's record he made will not be allowed, since it is argued that he beat the gun. Whether he did or didn't beat the gun, there was no argument that he did not beat Cunningham. Jimmy Herbert lost his first race of the season. In the Big Ten Bill Watson, Michigan's track captain set a new shot put mark, and was followed by Archie Harris of Indiana who looks as if he will take up Watson's burden after this year. The white boys regained their high jump and sprint crowns after a long period of dark supremacy. Other Negroes were very much in the battle also, but Smith of Wisconsin along with Watson and Harris will have to complete our list. Smith finished third in the hurdles.

Here at home we hear the boys talking about track with Kaiser and Wells of East we hear that North has about the finest group of Negro track men in the city. The boys can become the best teams North has had for years, but they don't seem to want to train. It is whispered around that Del Morrison, Charlie Howard, Jr., Bus Jackson and the other boys are already getting their chests measured for medals. That is too bad, because the only place one can win a track medal is in a track meet.

Entrenous

Only five more days before spring so the calendar says, but oh! Does the weather contradict it. But spring must be in the air for from the appearances of several old couples together again. Among those being M. Evans and Bubbles Parsons, who had a "just friends" date as Maurice described it. (believe it or not). Charlotte Higgins never misses a day without making her call at the Y to Sam out in Runnells Highline.

Observing the audience listening to Wm. Pickens, Monday night who should I see or rather hear, but Dora Mackey, lending her SNORING ability as an accompanist for Mr. Pickens speech.

I ONLY HEARD THAT: Dot & Al Powell are "pft-pfting" . . . W. Brooks and Mose F. in the show "knocking themselves out" . . . Art E. Melvin M. & C. Bailey racing through down town 60 miles (or less) an hr. Sunday nite—I hear it was an emergency call . . . Lula Turner and B. Brooks can't make up their minds they insist on that "daily battle" . . . Bernita W. spends much time at C. Center—an interest there, maybe? . . . Club "11" proprietor Tom Avant really jumped Sun. nite and "HOLD TIGHT" it will jump again this Sun. nite . . . some of the chief persons who patronize this club are L. Carter (Pimp) F. Morrow (little, but mighty) J. Eane (pounce charming) and others . . . C. Bailey is in love, but "afraid to call her name" . . . if I should tell where I saw A. Greenlee and B. King I would have to pack my trunk and make my get away . . . D. Montgomery is "savin' herself for ????" . . . two life long friends tested their friendship the other nite at a popular restaurant on Center—RESULTS: Not so good! And it was all over whether or not the one should drink pop out of a glass or not—Dear, Dear, it's the little things in life that count.

Clara Fant's motto: "I don't trust my b. f. as far as I could throw a piano" (too bad Smith) the story goes . . . after leaving "club 11" Sun. nite with b. f. (G. Smith) C. Fant demanded that she be the last to go home, not trusting b. f. with a car load of good friends. Thus Smith made four trips across the river that nite.

If your name appears in print—Please don't think any harm was meant.

Thomas Burke Avant, Jr. was the host to a group of friends at his home, Sunday evening March 12. Those sharing in the courtesies were: Misses Clara Fant, Edythe Ann Gray, Annabelle Payne, Nadine Robinson and Ellen Strothers. Messers Guy Smith, Joe Late, Fred Morrow, Jay and Lawrence Carter. think that's right, now tell me?

Ans: Of course its not, but you say nothing and let him get away with such stuff right under your nose. The only way to stop him is to pack up and leave or shoo him off when he comes around. You are very dear to him, but he has enough devil in him to be an easy mark for a voluptuous figure.

A. C. M.—Who did my boy friend carry to the game Friday night?

Ans: A very prissy and dainty little lady by the initials of "E. S. H."

G. M. H.—Do you think it would be wise to leave him? We can't get along.

Ans: And you won't get along, until you conveniently arrange to keep one of your best friends away from your home. Sometimes these friends get a little too chummy with ones own ratio. It will mean the breaking up of your friendship. . . . but she asked for it.

H. L. W.—Should I go somewhere else and take Beauty Culture or continue going where I started?

R. S. C.—Should I stay where I am and try to go to school and make a doctor? Will these people help me to be a doctor? Whats in life for me?

Ans: The medical profession is not one that you can absorb over night lad. It takes years of study, training and practical experience to become a physician, and its too much to expect of any friends to hand you a medical education on a silver tray. Your only good then, is to educate yourself and pay your own way thru school. If you have the courage and backbone to do it . . . your reward will be a worth one and well earned. You have tackled a big job Son . . . GOOD LUCK TO YOU.

L. J.—Why does this man I have treat me this way? If he wants this woman why don't he go to her? He stays with her whenever he wants to and then he comes home for me to fix him something to eat. Now do you

RECOLLECTIONS OF YESTERDAY

By Clara A. Fant

Let's turn the pages of history back to 1902 when Mrs. Izella Robinson, then Mrs. Izella Stone, came to make her home in Des Moines, Iowa. She was at that time the widow of Kelly Stone, who died and left her with six boys. They were Joseph, Floyd, Festos, Vern, Hermus, and Cecil. Mrs. Stone did day work to take care of these boys until her second marriage to Armsted Robinson in 1903. In the latter part of 1917 two of her son's, Festos and Cecil, were drafted into the army, and both returned after the signing of Armistice, November 11, 1918.

In the organization of Bethel A. M. E. Church in 1914, Mrs. Robinson was among the first members. She served as Stewardess for nine years and has served, so far, as deaconess for fourteen years. The Constellation club is the oldest club of this church for which Mrs. Robinson has served as president for nineteen years. A member of the O. E. S. and has been for the past forty years, she is a Past Matron of both Missouri and Iowa Chapters.

BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godefroy Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

After a summer which has prolonged itself far into the fall, winter has finally caught up with us, and if we aren't careful, we will find ourselves with chapped, peeling faces and rough red hands. Icy blasts are hard on the toughest skins, and none of us can face the ravages of winter without giving our skins some sort of protection.

Use Protective Cream
A wise and beauty-conscious woman will never leave her house these chilly mornings without applying a protective cream to her face before putting on her make-up. A foundation cream will not only protect the skin against winter winds but has a tendency to make the skin and thus eliminate the necessity of frequent "touch-ups." A good foundation cream will give the skin a natural, satiny appearance and make the powder go on more smoothly.

It is well in the winter to apply a slight coating of cream to the lips before putting on lipstick. This, too, will serve as a protection against the weather, make your lipstick wear more evenly, and prevent unattractive and painful cracking. And, speaking of winter lipstick, be sure that your lipstick harmonizes not only with the richer colors of your winter wardrobe, but more importantly, with your own particular type of coloring. There are on the market now lipsticks especially blended for your coloring so use a little care in selecting one that will best set off your skin.

Hands Need Care
As a rule, hands come in for the hardest treatment in cold weather. There is always more dirt in winter than summer and we have to wash our hands oftener. And soap and water, combined with cold weather, is an unflattering recipe for chapped hands. Make it a rule, as long as the cold persists, to apply a hand cream or protective lotion to your hands every time you wash them, be it five or fifty times a day. Nothing detracts more from a woman's charm than rough, red hands. Soft, smooth hands are an invitation to romance, but rough, cracked skin will cool the most ardent admirer. Play safe this winter. If your skin is inclined to be dry, use a good night cream, especially designed for dry skin to counteract the effect of wind and cold. Winter is always the most social time of all. Don't let icy winds freeze your chances for a round of gaiety.

What are your beauty problems? Write Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Foundation, Room 521 — 319 North Fourth St., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

NOVENA AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH
The March Novena in honor of the Little Flower and the Passion and death of Our Divine Lord will begin at the Little Flower Shrine in St. Peter's church Saturday March 11th, and close Sunday March 19th. The hours of devotion will be at 6:30 in the morning the first six days, and 6:30 in the morning and 7:45 in the evening the last three days. The main intention of this Novena will be to further the cause of Canonization—Blessed Martin De Porres the colored Saint. The prayers of the world are offered up especially this year for His Canonization. Also a special intention of this Novena is for all the colored people. I would like very much to have the colored people attend the novena especially the last three evenings—that is; Fri. Sat. and Sunday evenings—Mar. 17th, 18th, and 19th. I have class for the colored adult people every Monday evening in the school hall at 7 o'clock, and classes for the colored children every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The object of these classes is to give the colored people a chance to find out about the teachings of the Catholic Church. The colored people are all invited to attend these classes and you may be sure that you are most welcome.

MAJOR BOWES TAKES INVENTORY OF NEGRO "FINDS"
When taking inventory of his 200 broadcasts over coast-to-coast network, Major Bowes discovered that these programs had started several young Negro entertainers on the way towards careers that may make them the future Bill Robinson and Paul Robeson of tomorrow.
Among those who got their start on his programs and are now making good are Dr. Savage and his Five Perk Chops, playing at the swank Roy Club; Slim Gaylord; and LeRoy Stewart, Clyde Barry, Helen Humes with Count Basie and his orchestra, Bob Parrish; Rhea Parada, Mary Perry, James Ballantine Smith, youngsters of ten years, and Edna Livingston, who made a hit with her own interpretation of "Can't You, Won't You Hurry Home."
