Bride Dies; Groom Alive; Murder Charges Filed

Dubuque, Iowa, March 27.—Thomas (Sleepy) Hart, 45, confessed Sunday afternoon following his arrest that he shot and killed Mrs. Mary Allen, 30, his former paramour, and seriously wounded her husband of an hour, Horace Allen, 36.

The shooting occurred shortly before noon Saturday less than two hours after Mrs. Allen had told police authorities that she feared her former lover would harm her if she married another. Hart was then picked up and taken to police headquarters for questioning and was released less than an hour before the double shooting.

Hart Gives Account of Shooting
Police Chief Strub said that Hart confessed to him immediately after his arrest that he had shot the Allen and told the chief later a detailed story of how the shooting occurred. Strub said that Hart said, "I was mad because they (the Allens) had me picked up Saturday morning." Hart also said that he felt that the Allens had planned to get said Hart explained that he followed the fleeing woman, reloading his gun as he went along. The next two shots, Hart told the chief he fired directly at her, both taking effect. She fell where she was shot the first time.

After shooting her, Hart returned to the house, and according to his story reached the front porch when a brick thrown by Allen came through the glass, shattering it "I fired at him through the broken door," Hart was reported as saying.

Hides in Metal Barrel

He fired only once at Allen, Hart told Strub, and then walked the street for a short distance, where he threw away the gun. Nearby he saw Leo O'Brien and asked him to take him to the headquarters. He said that after O'Brien's refusal, he kept on walking until he reached a spot in the rear of the ball park, where he took refuge in a metal barrel.

BARREL IN WHICH SLAYER SLEPT BEFORE ARREST

Police Officer William Carroll and Chief of Police Joe Strub examine the battered metal oil barrel in which Thomas (Sleepy) Hart, Negro, confessed slayer of Mrs. Mary Allen, 30, also a Negro, slept Saturday night while hiding from officers after he had slain Mrs. Allen and seriously wounded her husband of an hour, Horace Allen, a third Negro. Hart was arrested Sunday morning at the Municipal Athletic Field while returning to the jail after leaving to seek a warmer spot. Monday he was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of murder. Hart did say, however, that at first he did not intend to shoot Mrs. Allen, but lost all sense of reason after he had fired one shot over her head as she ran between her own home and a neighbor's, Chief Strub declared. He only shot to frighten her.

Crowd Sees House Kills Y Carnival Printing Bill

Although the prevailing temperature was more conducive to an outdoor sports exhibition, approximately 500 persons attended the 12th annual Athletic Carnival held in the Central YMCA gymnasium last Wednesday evening. A varied athletic program that consisted of two basketball games, three boxing bouts, table tennis exhibitions and the awarding of honors to the championship league teams filled the complete program that ended near the midnight hour.

Appearing together for the first time on a local floor, The Famous Globe Trotters and Jesse Owens Olympians wound up the bill with a fast exhibition of professional basketball with the latter aggregation squeezing out a narrow 25 to 23 victory. Holding an 8 to 5 margin at halftime, the Olympians, paced by the brilliant play and shooting of Sonny "Boswell," extended their advantage to 17 to 8 before the Trotters quit clowning and applied the pressure to come within two points of winning the contest. The losers were handicapped by the absence from the lineup of Token Dennis, brother of the veteran Danny Dennis, but made a game of it with Danny and Cleo Johnson carrying the brunt of the attack. The sharp-eyed Boswell and Pedro Boyd, front court men of the Olympians, and Nate Bryant, huge pivot man, all turned in nifty exhibitions and won the plaudits of the followers of the court game.

Not to be outdone by the younger members of their club, who had captured the intermediate title the week before, the H. I. B. Intermediates reversed an early season defeat by the HasBrouck's "Y" Stars to trim them 24 to 16 in the opening game of the evening, thereby capturing the senior league championship. Sparked by the two veteran former St. Paul A. M. E. players, Bus Brown and Eugene Wilson, the champions rolled up an early 12 to 5 lead in the first stanza and then coasted the remaining distance to wrap up the pennant. Brown came through with one of his big nights and registered 10 points for the winners. Bob White and Wilson, with John Estes, chalked up four markers each for the winners. Art Edmunds topped the scoring for the "Y" Stars and turned in a grand defensive game from his backcourt position.

Morton Graves, Cedar Rapids Gazette Golden Glove champion, was too experienced for Bob Niles, Nulife Athletic Club featherweight, and outdistanced his opponent by a wide margin. Another white boy, Bob Anderson of the Nulife Club, held Ozzie Lewis, classy welterweight of the "Y" Stars to a draw in a fast bout. David "Slick" Calister and Joe Rollen, bantamweight, opened the fistic portion of the bill with a three round draw.

Henry F. HasBrouck, commissioner of public safety and sponsor of the HasBrouck's "Y" Stars, made the presentation of awards to players on the championship teams. The gold victory trophy was presented to John M. Estes, manager of the H. I. B. teams, by Mr. HasBrouck and gold basketballs were received by Eugene Brown, Eugene Wilson, Frank Massey, Eddie Watkins, Tommy Avant and Estes. The members of the H. I. B. Intermediates, Bob White, Jimmy Bowman, Marshall Dominguez, Henry Holt, James Schultz, Art McCune and Joe Johnson, were also given green gold

REPRESENTATIVE HAUGE ARGUES AGAINST PRINTING BILL

Charging that a bill introduced by the committee on printing in the lower house of the Iowa legislature would prevent the Iowa Bystander from publishing legal notices and thus rob it of one of its sources of income, Representative Hubert Hauge told the members of that body that the measure was discriminatory and should be defeated. He called attention to the fact that the Bystander had been published in Iowa for many years and had been used freely by lawyers and public officials for publishing notices.

Following Representative Hauge's speech other members including Representative Hallagan joined in the protest declaring no such measure should become a law in Iowa. The bill was defeated without a roll call.

The proposed measure was aimed at race, religions, and other class publications.

Henry F. HasBrouck, commissioner of public safety and sponsor of the HasBrouck's "Y" Stars, made the presentation of awards to players on the championship teams. The gold victory trophy was presented to John M. Estes, manager of the H. I. B. teams, by Mr. HasBrouck and gold basketballs were received by Eugene Brown, Eugene Wilson, Frank Massey, Eddie Watkins, Tommy Avant and Estes. The members of the H. I. B. ### NOW THAT MY HEART'S CONFESSED

By Theresa Marie Brown
"You know I've always dreamed of moments like these," Judy said in a wistful sort of way. "Just you and I alone together. It's taken a long time. But instead of being lovely as it should be it's ugly and unfair. Unfair because we have to steal our happiness like this and hurt the only two people in the world that really love us. Your wife and children and my husband."

Pete kissed her hand and drew her into his arms. "Sh-h-h let's just sit here and dream with the stars and forget about ugly things being unfair and all. Nothing is unfair. Remember all's fair in love and war? Well this is love."

"And war, war because always in my heart I have to keep fighting, fighting. Fighting Pete so there won't be any slip ups. Because if there is all of my ammunition will blow up at once and I'd be tearing my heart out showing him just how every little piece got broken. Not because he broke it. But there I'd be crying my heart out telling him how years ago I fell in love with you and how you took it for puppy love and tossed it aside."

"How I went away and spent a century like years trying to forget. Instead of forgetting I only remembered while the flames grew and grew. My heart longed for the love of your heart, my eyes longed for the sight of you, my ears burned to hear that laugh, that voice and my arms longed to crush you so close to me until you became a part of me."

"So I returned home only to find that you had married somebody else. The somebody else I wanted to be. In dreams I had often held you up above the world and told the world how great you were and how much I loved you. But when I heard the news the world lost all of its beauty. It shook, crumbled and fell and somewhere in the ruins you fell too. I found myself hating her because I knew you didn't love her. And for a moment I died a cold miserable death."

"Then some poor sap found me, brought me to, told me his name, said I was his life's dream and asked me to marry him. I actually laughed. Pete, not because it was funny, but because love seemed to play such strange pranks. He loved me with all his heart and there I was loving you with all of mine. I thought I could learn to love him and besides I couldn't say no because I knew what it was to lose a love's ideal. So we were married and there we were two love hungry souls looking for peace and happiness. My marrying him would help me to forget you."

"I'd be learning to love him and I've learned to love him in a sort of far off way. Far off because the engraved basketballs. The champions of the western junior league, Tigers, composed of Bobby Simmons, Elwood Simmons, Edgar Palmer, Clarence Frazier and Kenneth Brewer were given gold bronze miniature basketballs. ### Rep. Mitchell Again Loses As I. C. C. Refuses to Reconsider Jim Crow Case

Washington, March 27 (ANP).—Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell of Chicago's First District, last week received another setback in his Jim Crow suit against the Rock Island Railroad when the Interstate Commerce Commission turned a deaf ear to his plea that the commission reconsider its dismissal of his complaint against the railroad.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENTS PLAN FOR ANNUAL JABBERWOCK

Each year in its presentation the Jabberwock introduces new organizations and new faces. The Jabberwock may well be described as Des Moines annual Variety Show. The acts of the nine competing groups will be interspersed by novel entertainment by the plantation singers, concert and chautauqua artists, in a group of classical and popular songs. And the latest addition to the terpsichorean artists of Des Moines is petite Sylvia Ross, a young lady of versatile talent who will present both ballet and tap.

Many Clubs Participate
Delta Sigma Theta sorority is grateful for the enthusiastic response displayed by the participants as well as the community at large. Among those participating are the T. O. B., Thorobreds, Junior Mary Church Terrell, H. Q. B., clubs from both the west and east Community Centers and several others, the titles of whose acts have not been presented.

Attended at the Jabberwock represents your cooperation and endorsement of an effort to make higher education possible for some worthy girl of Des Moines. Come and bring a friend.

A VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION

When Dr. Washington conceived the idea of Negro Health Week, hardly did he realize that so many institutions would find it helpful to cooperate with the movement even from the selfish standpoint...

Among the cooperators in the Negro health week are the Negro insurance company groups and the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company...

The United States Public Health Service knows that germs draw no color line and that it is impossible to keep one race of people living side by side well and the other sick.

This movement has grown to include not only the betterment of Negro health, but also employment and thrift, fire prevention, better housing, civic pride, and home and city beautifying.

March, 1939, ran true to tradition when it came in like a lamb and went out like a lion.

The National Negro Health Week, founded by Dr. Booker T. Washington at Tuskegee Institute in the year 1915, has maintained continuous growth and usefulness throughout the succeeding years until today it is a year-round movement with the Health Week program as a period of emphasis in a constantly progressive community effort to secure better homes and neighborhoods and to improve health of all members of their households.

The vision of Dr. Washington is well portrayed in the school poster which received special award for its appropriate entry in the year 1939 Health Week observance. It shows Dr. Washington contemplating clean-up activities, school events, public meetings, and health clinics. The first Health Week programs were designed primarily to stimulate cleanliness as an essential of good living and good health, but other interests were enlisted as the educational approach to the special health problems of the Negro became effective.

The theme of this year's Health Week observance and year-round follow-up is: "The Citizen's Responsibility for Community Health." It supplements the correlated objectives of the immediately preceding years which directed attention to, first, "The Home and Family as the Unit of Community Health"; next, "The Child and the School as Factors in Community Health"; and, following these, "The Doctor's Responsibility for Community Health."

The Silver Anniversary will be celebrated during the whole month of April although the Health Week proper is April 2 to 9. It offers a two-fold opportunity for an effective pro-

RUBELLA

Rubella (German measles) is an acute, very contagious, infectious disease of unknown origin. It has an eruption similar in some ways to both measles and scarlet fever.

The onset of rubella is slow with a mild inflammation of the nose and throat. The symptoms are sneezing, slight nasal and eyelid discharge, and moderate cough. There is a mild soreness and redness of throat. The temperature is usually about 101 degrees with some body aching and a fairly rapid pulse.

Yesterday

By Clara Fant HUMAN INTEREST

Not many of you have thought about the cripple boy and girl and how poorly they get along if they are not educated so that is why I bring to you this week my interview with Mr. Charles F. Pye, executive secretary of the Iowa Society for Cripple Children.

"When you take off a child's leg you take out of him something more than that," Mr. Pye stated. "He then gets an inferiority complex and becomes discouraged with life therefore, we spend quite a bit of time educating them and telling them life is still worthwhile."

"There is an intolerance in taking on handicapped boys and girls," he further stated "and we are trying to overcome this by saying that the cripple child can do better than the ordinary child in what he does do."

Sixteen of the larger cities in the United States, Des Moines included, are conducting seal drives to raise more money for this cause, which begins April 1 and terminates April 9.

Neighboring states, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska have societies which are rendering very effective service. In fact, some of the best programs in the United States are found in states bounding Iowa.

In the organization of the Iowa Society for Cripple Children, it is the purpose to bring Iowa into line motion. Certainly, there should be fitting commemoration of Dr. Washington, the founder, who conceived the practicable idea that health should be an accompaniment of his "head, hand, and heart" philosophy of education. And, at this period when health welfare is receiving attention commensurate with its importance, there should be evaluation of the past and projection of the future of this people's health program which utilizes the sound and effective counsel of Dr. Washington that each community should "let down your bucket where you are."

Self-appraisal and self-health will advance the Negro dweller and his community to the extent of his ability and needs; but this is not sufficient for the welfare and security of the Negro or any other community group. Much help must be rendered also by health agencies, official and voluntary; social and civic organizations; employees of labor, operators of business enterprises; directors of recreation; and all responsible institutions which make available those many benefits whose total is the dependable assurance of well-being.

May the Silver Anniversary which marks the present worth of Dr. Washington's prophetic vision—accumulate new values to justify the Golden Anniversary two score and five years hence.

From the National Clean-up and Paint-up Campaign Bureau.

with other states and to give the crippled children of Iowa the same humanitarian service that such individuals receive in other states.

This Society is financed through a seal sale conducted at Easter time. It very cordially invites your cooperation and support.

SPORTS

By Allen Ashby

The roughest, wildest wooliest league race in Crocker Y history came to a close at the annual Carnival held at the Central Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday. The H. I. B. club with Mortipjan Estes taking James Allen's place in the "three old men" line-up, sank the hopes of the Y Stars 22-16.

"The three old men" were aided by Bob White, who was so much of a menace to the Stars that they let everyone else go. The Vets caught the Stars off balance with a quick start and had a lead of 12-1 in the second quarter and the young boys never could make up the deficit. Bus Brown looked like the Brown of 1933 and 34 as he got his famous pivot shot working for ten points to lead the scoring. Bunny Wilson flashed his old time form at brief intervals and helped make things tough on the Stars. Bob White was watched so closely that he couldn't get away a lot, but that made things easier for Brown and the other boys.

In other Carnival events, Chet Williamson and Paul Williams engaged a pair of white boys in table tennis and each finished second in interesting matches and Dave Callister, Mor-

Everett Wadsworth, will meet Friday at 4:00 p. m. This club is open to all Junior High School students and persons over 12. Its purpose is for the study of past heroes and current personalities of the race.

ton Graves and Ozzie Lewis punched some white fellows around in boxing matches. The feature game of the evening, between the Globe Trotters and Jesse Owen's Olympians was an exhibition of football, boxing and basketball combined. The Olympians got the most points, 25-23. Next week we shall present our all star teams in the senior and intermediate leagues. Negroes Dominate City High School Meet

They thought for awhile last Saturday the Negro track boys were having a private feud of their own, but it was later discovered that it was only the city high school track meet. Del Morrison broke the city broad jump mark finished ahead of Harold Miller of East, Poschie Davis, of East, lowered the hurdle mark. And the pole vault honors went to Claude Elliston of North. Frank Kaiser, East's veteran sprinter grabbed the fifty and ran on a relay team. There were really so many of our boys that space forbids our telling about them all, but you will hear about them later.

Watched the Drake Frosh dust Simpson in a dual track meet last Tuesday and was particularly impressed by Charlie Swink, former Valley Ace, and Lloyd Redmond. Redmond pulled up second in the fifty yard dash and Swink ran two fine quarters, winning the quarter mile dash and running anchor man on the winning mile relay team. Those boys will do all right for Drake next year.

President of the club is Robert Brown, Forest Carter, secretary, Harry Johnson sergeant at arms.

A meeting of the staff was held Wednesday afternoon.

The closing date of the Bicycle contest sponsored by Boy Scout Troop No. 59 has been postponed until April 17th. It was formerly announced to close March 31.

The Campfire Girls attended the Grand-Council Fire at Drake University Field House Friday night. Two Easter parties will be given for the young children the latter part of next week.

where 150 prized cows will be milked daily. Industry science and the nations of the world will offer their wonders and art treasures to the free view of all Fair visitors.

Admission to the grounds will cost 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. One day each week children will be admitted for 10 cents.

One of the most elaborate spectacles in theatrical history, Billy Rose's stage and water ballet at the 10,000 seat Marine Amphitheatre, starring Eleanor Holm and 300 dancing and swimming girls, will cost only 40 cents.

The World on Display Sixty-two foreign countries whose magnificent pavilions face the Lagoon of Nations and the Court of Peace will be open throughout the Fair for free inspection. Here the treasures of Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and South America will be shown.

A list of the free wonders of the Exhibit Area would fill columns. Some of the highlights are: The Railroad Building, center of a 6-acre exhibit, containing the most complete miniature railroad ever constructed; a thriving American homestead, complete with cattle, sheep, and chickens, with a singing fountain at the entrance; the most valuable wheat field in the world; a 135-foot schooner in New England's exhibit; the model Town of Tomorrow containing completely furnished homes; The Children's World, a fantastic miniature fair by itself; the House of Jewels where more than $5,000,000 worth of gems will sparkle. All this and vastly more, may be seen—free of charge.

MRS. ROOSEVELT CONFIRMS DAR RESIGNATION Los Angeles, March 27. (ANP)—Long-awaited confirmation of her reported resignation as a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution came here last Thursday when Mrs. Roosevelt, lecturing before an audience of 2,500 and asked the question: "Do you intend to resign from the DAR," replied: "I have resigned from the DAR."

NOW THAT MY HEART'S CONFESSED (Continued from Page 1) tell you, I've been living in a sort of a miserable hell for sometimes. It's still miserable because though I've found you, you aren't mine to own. You must be shared and I hate sharing you because I see so little of you. I belong to him and you belong to her and your children. Because of the children I won't interfere.

"We are so near we touch and yet we are so far from each other. Our lives should lead down one path, I see two. We owe them a certain amount of loyalty. How can we give it to them and be here? It's cheating and yet you say it isn't fair. Now, that my heart has confessed if all fair in love and war do you mind if I'm on the outside of them both?"

Pete pulled her closer in his arms. Judy feeling hot and sick inside closed her eyes and whispered, "Thank God for such small favors. Uncontrollable tears streamed down Judy's cheeks but she didn't feel ashamed. She laughed to herself about the tears. They stood for so many things. Love, a moment's happiness, loneliness and grief. Funny she thought, this old world we live in.

Pete was so taken up by Judy's sudden outburst that it took him sometime to find his tongue. "You poor darling you did all of that for me. Suffered all of that for love of me and to think I once let you slip through my fingers. Of all the things I never wanted to do was to hurt you and now I've done it and deeply too. Please dearest if you can, forgive me? Do stop crying."

A soft breeze, blew through the tree tops and old man moon peeped through between the branches. "You know darling I'm the happiest man in the world and for as long as we can be together allow me to make you the happiest girl. Look at the sky darling notice the stars. Which one will you have for your gown?" Judy smiled looked up at him and said, "The star I want isn't up there in the sky it's you." "Darling I know it isn't much but it's love for you until I can change things? I do love you my sweet." Pete crushed Judy to his heart and his lips touched her hair. Pete lifted his head up. "She's so like an angel." He whispered. "God grant that I may give her this, all of this, my heart and heaven too."
