Gavagan Seeks Discharge of Group Blocking Measure

FORTY-THREE SOLONS SIGN GAVAGAN DISCHARGE PETITION FOR ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

New York, Mar. 31—Forty-three Congressmen are believed to have signed Representative Joseph Gavagan's discharge petition, to have his Anti-Lynching Bill (H. R. 801) taken out of the hands of the Rules Committee and brought before the House for a vote, N. A. A. C. P. officials announced here today.

BARKLEY URGED TO INCLUDE ANTI-LYNCHING BILL IN "MUST PROJECTS" BEFORE CONGRESS ADJOURNS

New York, Mar. 31—A telegram urging that the Anti-Lynching bill be included "among those measures which must be voted on by the Senate before adjournment," was also sent Friday to Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley by the Association.

Urges Youth Plan Future

"Out of every 22,000,000 unemployed youth only 47% has a chance to make good" cited Mr. M. T. Woods executive secretary of the Urban League of Lincoln, Nebraska, to an audience of approximately 150 young men and women Sunday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. He stressed the fact that due to racial prejudice, inferior educational opportunities, economic under-privileges and special handicaps the Negro youth has a milestone around his neck, but with guidance and initiative these can be cast off.

Mr. Woods urged that the youth prepare for the future by making up their mind what they want to do first, then prepare themselves to do it, he stressed upon the youth. So that opportunities afforded youth could be learned, he suggested that the history of the race, Negro magazines and newspapers be read because opportunities vary in different communities. Speaking of this point he emphasized individual responsibility by stating "We as Negro youth have a very large problem and the responsibility lies within ourselves as an individual."

Mr. Woods called attention to the fact that over 700,000 youth each year come into the courts before they are 21 years of age; 200,000 potential murderers are roaming the streets and 300,000 murders will be committed by this group. To alleviate this condition, activity should be developed to take the place of idleness. "This problem has been solved in Italy and Germany by rigid regimentation and complete disorganization and domination of the individuals personality," he revealed.

He listed unemployment, faulty homes, faulty parents, definite inequalities of educational opportunities, lack of health, information, crime and delinquency, safety, racial prejudice and child labor in the South as problems youth are facing and will have to face in the future. "Problems of the Negro youth are greater than that of white because of the racial barriers, health hazards and inadequate economic opportunities," he stated.

Miss Clara Fanf, president of the club, presided and Miss Annabelle Payne, vice-president and program chairman introduced the speaker.

The forum meeting was conducted in cooperation with the National Urban League and its seventh annual opportunity campaign by the Thoroughbred club of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A.

BLACK MAN'S DISCOVERY AMAZES METALLURGISTS; METAL MYSTERY

Cleveland, April 4 (By Clarence L. Simmons for ANP)—Henry Thomas a keen-eyed, middle-aged bachelor is being hailed here by Clevelanders as a "second George Washington Carver," by his discovery of magic flux designed to clean metal, brasses and steel. It is considered by Cleveland industrialists who have used it in their foundries as superior to any product of its kind on the American market.

A young man of 34 from Cincinnati, and well-known for promotional ability, is to be credited with Thomas' decision to again make his formula available to the Negro rather than accept offers of between $50,000 and $100,000 for his patent rights, after the first attempts to form a corporation had failed. The new corporation is known as the "Flux Metal Purifier, Inc.," 2159 Clarkwood road, and includes young aggressive, well-educated Negro Clevelanders, many of whom are contributing wide experience in business to the development of the firm.

Jabborwock Here April 13

Interest is running high among the competing clubs which will participate in the 1939 Jabborwock. Deep secrecy shrouds each rehearsal. Each club is sure that it has the winning net. Mrs. Helen Beshears, the 1939 Jabborwock chairman, states that it has been increasingly difficult to secure the titles of the skits prepared by the various clubs because of the mystery surrounding the clubs. Several of the clubs have been winners in past years and hope to recapture their luck. The competing groups this year are the T. O. B., Sepia Maidens, Mary Church Terrell, Jr., Pep and Pepper Steppers, Les Bonnie Amies and the Community Center Dramatic club.

New stage decorations and settings are planned by the Deltas which will make the Jabborwock beautiful to see as well as interesting to hear.

The plantation singers with their close harmony and classical interpretations will present a group of numbers. Don't miss the Jabborwock of 1939.

More Than 50,000 to Hear Marian Anderson Sunday

Washington, D. C. April 4—Marian Anderson, the internationally famous singer who has been denied the use of both the D. A. R.'s Constitution Hall and the (white) Central High School-auditorium here for a scheduled concert April 9, will sing in the Nation's capital on schedule and under auspices never enjoyed before by a singer of any race.

Following a conference here Wednesday, March 29 between Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP; Gerald Goode, of the S. Hurok Musical Bureau, of New York which manages the singer's concerts; and Oscar Chapman, assistant secretary of the Interior, Secretary of the Interior, Harold L. Ickes was asked to permit the use of the Lincoln Memorial for holding a free, open-air concert Easter Sunday, at 5 p. m.

Ickes Gives Permission Secretary Ickes announced shortly thereafter that permission to hold the concert at the famous memorial site had been granted. It is understood that Ickes' action, which means that all the facilities of the United States park service will be at the singer's disposal, had the approval of President Roosevelt.

Representative Caroline O'Day, of New York, has issued invitations to more than forty persons, including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who resigned from the D.A.R. because of their action, to act as sponsors for the concert. The list acceptances includes high government officials and persons prominent in local and national life among whom are Chief Justice and Mrs. Chas. E. Hughes and Associate Justice Black.

The N. A. A. C. P. urged organizations within easy train distance of Washington to send large delegations to the concert. Delegations are expected from New York, Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk, Virginia, and other nearby places.

President Roosevelt Visits Tuskegee Institute; Speaks

Tuskegee Institute, Apr. 5 (ANP)—Franklin Delano Roosevelt, president of the United States, rode into Tuskegee institute, the world's most famous Negro institution, Thursday morning and flashing his familiar smile, told the student body, the faculty and the thousands of visitors massed to greet him that "I have always wanted to come to Tuskegee. Thirty years ago I promised Booker T. Washington that some day I was coming to visit this institution. Then in later years, I promised Dr. Moton frequently that I would be here and more recently I have given the same pledge to President Patterson.

"I wish that almost every American could come to Tuskegee and see what is being done here. The president continued: "I don't know whether in any individual institution, the faculty and the students realize how much they are being watched by the outside world. The things that they are doing in their institution count but more than that, the things which their graduates are doing, not only among their immediate neighbors but also throughout the states and the nation, count.

Praises The Institute "As a matter of fact, because I travel about the country a good deal, I notice the graduates of Tuskegee more than some of you do who are right here. I hear about a man or a woman, not only in the lower south, but in the middle of the country, in the north; somebody who is making good; somebody who is having an influence for human service in their community; And then I hear that he or she is a graduate of Tuskegee and that is what counts."

President Roosevelt's talk centered around what young folks have to face and the debts young folks must pay in the future. He stressed the point that "more and more they have got to plan for the present, plan to work for the other fellow. And that is one thing you are teaching here at Tuskegee; that is one thing you are learning." He impressed upon their minds that no matter how old you get, it is grand to keep on living "because there is still so much to be done."

Urges Students To Keep Ideals Of Youth

He closed with the words "So my boy and girl friends, keep the ideals of your youth all through your lives. I am happy to have been here. I want to come back some day in the future and I will, if I can. In the meantime, I give you my affectionate regards. Good luck to you in all the days to come."

The president's special train stopped at Chehaw, the little station on the Western Alabama railroad, some eight miles from the school and where he was met by President Patterson. In the party were Governor Frank L. Dixon of Alabama, U. S. Senator Hill from the same state and Congressman Henry B. Steagall of this district.

100 CITIES TO OBSERVE GUIDE RIGHT WEEK

Topeka, Kans., April 4 (ANP)—After working for several months in their various communities, members of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity will observe the 10th annual Guide Right Concentration week, in approximately 100 cities, beginning Sunday, April 16.

With the idea of helping youth to approach their futures realistically, to make the most of their studies and to know what the different vocations demand and what they promise in return, the movement is recognized as filling a very definite need by educators, businessmen and U. S. Commissioner of Education.

ized groups, mixed committees, lobbying, personal demands, and distribution of seals indicating their needs." He closed by stating, "it is up to the youth of our group to join in with the elders in working out a solution—to pursue a march toward job security and self-respecting citizenship."

Before Mr. Woods address, a viola selection, "Kol Nidrei" by Benny Dacus accompanied by Calvin Dacus and a vocal solo, "An Evening Prayer," by Dorothy Montgomery were given.

Miss Clara Fanf, president of the club, presided and Miss Annabelle Payne, vice-president and program chairman introduced the speaker.

The forum meeting was conducted in cooperation with the National Urban League and its seventh annual opportunity campaign by the Thoroughbred club of the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A.

Mid-West AKA Sorority Hold Tenth Annual Meet

The Tenth annual Midwestern Regional conference of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority will convene tomorrow. Registrations will begin at 9:00. Business meetings are divided into two sessions each day. Morning sessions will begin at 10:00 a. m. and afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

On Friday night the Patroness club of the Beta Gamma Chapter will entertain the visitors at a cocktail party between the hours of eight to ten, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Alexander, 2901 5th Avenue. At ten o'clock the visitors will be entertained at a Spring Formal at the Blue Triangle Ballroom.

Entertained By Other Organizations Saturday night a closed AKA banquet, beginning at 7:00 p. m., will be held at the Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A. After the banquet an informal dance will be given by the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity at the La Cuta Uptown Studio, 4123 University Avenue.

Committee chairman of Beta Gamma Chapter, hostesses for the convention, are as follows: Soror Gwendolyn Fowler, social committee; Willa Mullins, publicity; soror Azalia Mitchell, escort; soror Olga McCraney, transportation; soror Margaret Patten, housing; sorors Donna and Ada Graham, hostess.

Winner Must Pay for Relief

Philadelphia, April 4 (ANP)—Several months ago, when the ticket salesman visited her home, Mrs. Pearl Mason, on relief for the past six years, took $2.50 from her modest relief check and bought a ticket in the Grand National Sweepstakes, drawing "Workman," the horse which ran the big race and deposited $141,000 in the lap of jubilant Mrs. Mason.

Mrs. Mason lives with her husband, Benjamin, former garage attendant, who has been out of work for seven years, and their two children. Because her family has been on relief, Mrs. Mason faces certain difficulties before being able to fully enjoy her winnings and she has engaged Atty. Raymond P. Alexander to attend to legal details.

Federal Tax First The first deduction from her $141,000 take-down will be the federal tax, said to amount to $57,558. She also faces the possibility of having to repay to local Relief officials the $4,000 her family has received as aid during the past six years. In addition, she may have to pay the cost of treatment received last year at Philadelphia General hospital, and, of course, counsel fees. However, after all deductions have been made, the happy woman can look forward to enjoying a neat bankroll, probably in excess of $75,000.

nationally-known head of the Negro division, NYA. During Dr. Bethune's absence in Washington as an NYA official, Abram L. Simpson is acting president of the college.

After the dinner and entertainment program, Mrs. Bethune spoke, pledging anew her determination to continue the fight for training of our boys and girls. She said Bethune-Cookman's greatest need at present was a permanent endowment, and that the school must secure $135,000 immediately as the first step toward that goal.

PROMINENT DOCTOR ADDRESSES GROUP

Matrons Praise Bystander Past Cooking Schools

Des Moines matrons are eagerly anticipating the 5th annual Bystander Cooking School and Home Makers Institute to be held Thursday and Friday, April 20 and 21. These matrons have expressed their views and opinions on what the institute has meant to them and what it can do for you.

Mrs. Essie Holt: "The Bystander Cooking School has always been inspiring and helpful to me. It's teaching has helped me and I expect to attend this year."

Mrs. Brancham Hyde: "I don't want to miss a single session of the Bystander Cooking School. I think it is very interesting as well as instructive and the new ideas are fine as that is what we want."

Mrs. M. J. Carl: "I think it is grand! I plan to attend this year."

Mrs. J. W. Tutt: "I have never had the opportunity to attend, but I think it's a fine thing for housewives."

that I won't forget to attend the Cooking School."

Mrs. Harrison Gould: "It is a great help to young wives as well as older wives."

Mrs. T. L. Howard: "I think it is fine and housewives should take advantage of the different methods of modern homemaking."

Mrs. Marsaline Estes: "I've never had the opportunity to attend the Bystander Cooking School, but I surely anticipate attending this year."

Mrs. Nelle Esters: "I think it is a thing we really need—I always attend."

Mrs. Mable Mason: "I attended the Cooking School at the Shrine Temple every day and I don't think I have received any more valuable information than that I received at the Bystander. I hope these schools will continue as long as possible and I will always do anything I can to foster it."

Last week Florida reversed the usual procedure and lynched a white man. In fact that state bore out further the late Booker T. Washington's predictions that in his time Negroes only were being lynched; the time would come when white men would be lynched.

In this instance the defendant had been tried and given his sentence. Evidently the mob was not satisfied with the punishment given by the court and determined that it knew better what should have been done when they took the prisoner from the jail and lynched him.

As usual, the members of the mob have not been identified and if left to the state nothing will be done about the matter. When the anti-lynching bill was before Congress southern senators agreed that there was no need for federal legislation on lynching as local authorities were capable of handling the situation. This agreement had great weight with senators coming from communities where law and order, what ever the circumstances, is the rule.

Unfortunately as this lynching was, it goes to prove further that lynching is not a Negro problem, that the states have not been able to cope with the situation; that lawlessness is no respecter of persons.

SOME GOOD HAS BEEN DONE

The controversy over the refusal to allow Marian Anderson to sing in Constitution hall while unfortunate has produced some decidedly gratifying results.

First, it demonstrated that the DAR posing as a patriotic organization was by its discriminatory treatment of the Negro rivaling the low methods of Hitler in his treatment of the Jew in Germany.

Second, it surprised a great many people that an organization posing as the guardian of the rights of America would resort to such discriminatory practices.

Third, it brought to the aid of this fight on this unfair discrimination men and women in high places which will react favorably on the whole cause of the Negro.

The saying that it is an ill wind that blows no one some good is borne out very well in this instance.

HEALTH STATISTICS

The Bystander calls attention to the article on Negro health in Iowa appearing on the front page of this paper. Coming during Negro Health Week, it is timely and should be read with care by everyone.

Figures further show that the death rate among Negroes is about 17 per thousand while that of the whole population 10 per thousand; the birthrate 14 per thousand among Negroes and 16.9 for the whole population. Frankly the statistics are

Health Hints

(By Dr. C. R. Bradford)

"TUBERCULOSIS"

This is a communicable disease which is caused by a germ, it is still the greatest killer of youth. Thanks to the advancements in the medical science that have made it possible to discover the disease in the early stage is easily cured. In the advanced stage it frequently causes death.

April is the month designated by the national state and local tuberculosis associations for the "Early Diagnosis Campaign". The slogan this year is "Help Find Early Tuberculosis." You can help in the search for early tuberculosis by submitting to a tuberculin test and X-Ray if necessary. Heed nature's early warnings such as fatigue, the feeling of tiredness without apparent cause, slight loss of appetite and weight. Do your bit this month by presenting yourself to your physician for an examination thereby helping to find the spreaders of the disease.

NEGRO HEALTH

The National Negro Health Week is a period of emphasis and demonstration. The Negro health movement, a year round service, is a clearing house for dissemination of health information to groups, white and colored, interested in conditions unfavorably affecting the Negro.

Booker T. Washington said, "The future of the race depends on the conservation of its health." Realizing the interest of my readers in our race I devote my column this week to a small amount of health information I acquired on my visit to the Iowa State Department of Health.

"Good Health is a daily project, and you must constantly seek to obtain it, not piecemeal whenever you happen to think of it," the Iowa State Department of Health says in releasing the following health rules in connection with observances of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Negro Health Week.

1. Eat three wholesome meals (including fruit, leafy vegetables, and whole grain cereal and bread) regularly every day, with no candy or sweets between meals. Sit down to eat, chew thoroughly, and eat slowly.

2. Drink at least a pint of fresh milk every day, but not tea or coffee.

3. Drink four glasses, or more, of water every day between meals.

4. Sleep 10 to 12 hours every night, warmly covered and with bedroom windows open. "Early to bed and early to rise make a man (child, too) healthy and wise."

5. Spend an hour of two, outdoors daily in the air and sunlight. When the weather keeps you indoors, play inside with the windows open.

6. Have at least one good movement every day, preferably in the morning.

7. Brush your teeth carefully and well twice a day, morning and night.

8. Keep body and clothes clean. Take a warm, complete bath at least twice a week. Don't neglect hair and fingernails.

9. Wash hand thoroughly before eating and after going to the toilet.

10. Always carry a clean handkerchief and cover mouth and nose when coughing or sneezing. Don't go to school if you have a "bad cold."

11. You should be examined by a medical doctor every year. Your dentist should examine your teeth and mouth twice a year. If you need treatment don't be afraid of the doctor. He is your friend. Be sure you are protected from small pox by vaccination and from diphtheria by immunization.

12. Keep cheerful. A good disposition helps you to have good health. Be careful. Accidents are numerous and dangerous. When crossing the street, STOP, LOOK, and LISTEN! "SAFETY FIRST" is a good watchword. If you do not abide by these daily dozens expect no results.

ARKANSAS FARMER WINS EXTRADITION CASE

Chicago, April 6 (ANP) The South last week failed in another attempt to extradite an innocent colored defendant back to a Dixie jail, on trumped-up charges. Sitting in Felony court last Friday, Judge Matthew Hartigan dismissed the case of Clint Shaw, 50 years old, former prominent farmer of Dermott, Arkansas, who had been held in Chicago's county jail since Feb. 19 as a fugitive from justice. Last summer, in Dermott a colored neighbor of Shaw asked him to sell a yearling calf for him. Shaw, obliged, sold it to a white farmer, not knowing his colored neighbor did not own the calf. After investigating the learning the owner of the calf had not endorsed the transaction, he paid him his price in cash for satisfaction and settlement of all damage done.

Not Satisfied

But this was too late. The envious white farmer who had bought the calf had him arrested on a charge white lawyer, Shaw last March pleaded guilty in county court at Monticello. The trial judge released him on bail, told him to make his crop and return on September 19 to be sentenced to prison. When the father, Clint Shaw appeared in court in September to be sentenced, he was told to go to Mississippi, locate his son who has fled to Mississippi to escape another trumped up charge and return him to Arkansas.

Instead the Shaws came to Chicago, where the father was arrested and has since fought extradition. He has been represented by Atty. R. F. Turner, who presented a petition to quash the extradition warrant, to acting Governor John Stelle, of Illinois. On the basis of Turner's argument, the acting governor refused to grant extradition, Shaw's release from custody was affected when the facts were stated to Judge Hartigan and he ordered the case dismissed.

WEST COMMUNITY CENTER

Two Easter parties will be held Friday afternoon for over 200 young folks. Children from six to nine will be entertained between two o'clock and four o'clock. From six to eight o'clock older children between the ages of ten to fifteen will be entertained.

The Campfire Girls are coloring the eggs for the two Easter parties Friday afternoon.

Community Council will sponsor forum meeting Friday, April 14th. The guest speaker has not yet been announced.

Negro Vital Statistics

Seven more Negroes were born in Iowa in 1938 than in 1937 and one more Negro died last year than the year before according to provisional figures of the vital statistics division of the Iowa state department of health, Dr. Walter L. Biering, state health commissioner, reported today.

He said that comparison of general mortality figures gives 298 deaths in 1938 and 297 the previous year. The birth total in 1938 was 239 compared with 232 in 1937.

Leading among the first five causes of death were diseases of the heart which took 57 lives, three less, however, than the deaths from this cause in 1937. Heart diseases were followed by cancer in the list of causes. Thirty one deaths resulted from this disease, one more than in 1937.

Causing 29 deaths, an increase of seven over 1937, tuberculosis came next, followed by cerebral hemorrhage and apoplexy with 26 deaths, an increase of six. Pneumonia deaths which dropped from 38 in 1937 to 25 last year represent the greatest decrease among the first five causes.

High among the remaining general causes of death were nephritis. Twenty four lives were lost as a result of this cause, but the figure is nine less than in 1937. On the other hand, the accident death toll mounted from seven in 1937 to 15 in 1938.

Infant deaths also increased in 1938. Comparison of statistics reveals that there were 17 infant deaths from all causes, exclusive of stillbirth, in 1937 and 25 deaths last year. Malformations and early infancy caused the deaths of 15 babies last year, six more than in 1937.

SPRING DANCE

The I. W. T. club gave its first annual spring dancing party March 29 at the Billiken Ballroom. With horns, whistles, confetti and Des Moines own orchestra, "The Harlem Hot Shots," a good time was had by all. Each member was introduced by Charlie Wood as following: Isabelle Lewis, president; Edna Allen, vice-president; Opal Ramsey, secretary; Eva Franco, assistant secretary; Hazel Murphy, treasurer; Mattie Brown, Cussie Oranda, Tessie Stewart and Louise Scott, reporter.

SPORTS

By Allen Ashby

ECHOES OF A CAGE SEASON

In taking our final shot at the basketball season, we might inquire why the winning streak of Long Island College being ended by a Negro school was not mentioned much in the daily press. The L. I. U. boys just won the national college and the fact that the Union College boys trimmed them speaks very well for Negro basketball.

The Renaissance team further tightened the dusky grip on basketball by winning the first national professional tournament. But for the luck of the draw, they might have had an all Negro final. The Remns beat the Harlem Globe Trotters (not the ones here) in the semi finals and these boys won third place.

The All League Teams

Picking an all star team out of the league is like picking the five best grains of sand out of a river bed. The league race was so close that we wouldn't swear the best team won. There were four teams—The H. I. B.'s, Y Stars, Negro C. C. and Daniel's Comets that were so evenly matched that any one of them might have been champs. The play-off was largely a matter of breaks. This is in no way to the discredit of the winners.

Two players probably did a lot to help tighten the league race up. Bob White sparked the H. I. B. club just when they were badly in need of a point getter and Archie Greenly lifted the NCC out of the set-up class just in time.

We picked intermediate league. In the senior league, we won't guarantee that the first squad could beat the second.

TRACK

Wisconsin grabbed the track spot light by standing squarely behind Fred Smith, Negro hurdler who was barred from a meet at the University of Missouri. The badgers withdrew their whole squad and our hats go off to them. There have been very few times when a Big Ten team backed its Negroes that far and we should have more of it.

At Iowa City last week the boys in short pants went to it again; but they were forced to chase a Cedar Rapids Negro, Earl Carr, who has competed against our local boys in boxing and track won the hurdles and broad jump, setting two hurdle records. Del Morrison and Harold Miller traded places in the broad jump. Miller finishing ahead of Morrison. James Morrow stamps himself as a future star by winning the high jump and Claude Elliston finished in the money in the pole vault. Frank Kaiser might have helped East win the meet, but he couldn't run because of a spike wound. Reeves placed third in the four forty and Wally Hill was a point getter in the high jump.

BOXING

A bunch of amateurs went to Hampton last Tuesday. Wayland Heath, who couldn't defend his WHO crown last month because of a broken rib knocked out a boy in the main event. Bill Heath silenced the howl of Paul Conmear of Boone for a fight with Louie Taylor. Bill liked to beat the white boy to death. Lawrence Strothers knocked out his man in round one, and Ozzie Lewis clouded off a decision.

Terrific for the Kids

It is estimated that 2,000,000 children between the ages of 3 and 14 will visit the $1,000,000 Children's World. Admission to this zone will be free, although modest charges will be made for special entertainments including the diminutive restaurant.

In the "thrill section" will be found a parachute leap where visitors will experience all the excitement of "bailing out" without risking broken bones. An automatic, "fool-proof" mechanism will release the "chutes" in such a manner that folding up will be impossible. The landing will be gentle. While this is one of the latest hair-raisers, the play center will be replete with coasters, wheels and rides of all varieties.

And to quote Grover A. Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation: "The World of Tomorrow" exposition will display the marvels of science, industry and art, and at the same time provide fun and gaiety for everyone."

"I'd like to write a sonnet All about your Easter Bonnet. You'll be the grandest lady in the Easter parade."

GRAND RUSH! STANDING ROOM ONLY! ALL PARKING SPACES RESERVED! FOR WHAT? Well, it's EASTER and the "avenue" (Center Street) promises to be jammed as folks come "falling out" in their wardrobes... this year seems to be the biggest ever... everybody wants to see what the other fellow has on and who is the grandest in the parade. The churches will see many faces who haven't been to church all year—everybody craning their necks to see what kind of "duds" the other fellow has... What is this world coming to—have we forgotten the real meaning of Easter? It seems as though ANYBODY GOES WHEN THE WAGON COMES for Jack Howard who received injuries in a dual last Fri. nite on the E. side is seen cruising around town day and nite with a NEW LOVE, (an other victim hanging easily on his belt)... Lula Mae Turner who is the ex-girl friend of "basketball man Art"—and a "mystery railroad man"... and ??? I'm afraid to call the name.

THE EYES OF CENTER ST. ARE UPON YOU: Evelyn C. holding hands with young Bettis... Marg-Greene and Earl Miller... F. Morrow and M. Williams are grrring again... nevertheless F. O. seemed to be doing alright at the AKA parties with out of town matrons... C. Bailey and his boys, Art E., Mel M. Ike Miller "breaking 'em up" at a popular nite spot (chicken shack) Jake Colbert looks at Goods Park with longing eyes and says, "the grass is getting greener all the time, if that park could only talk!" Ola McCraney rushing B. Parsons... Jerry Bates wearing Orchid Lipstick... M. Wilson looking so down and depressed... Charles Howard, Jr. saying he is immune to love! I don't want to hear a word of it Charles... DON'T SOME PEOPLE KNOW THAT: the bell has rung on "snow boots" which were so popular during snowstorms... that their feet really look bad if they are big, long and flat and wearing these new toeless and heelless shoes—after all there are exceptions... that marriage is very sacred (yes, even these days and times)... that an old flame never dies... That "it's the truth that hurts" (we publish the truth).

Notice little Mary McCracken with a special seat driving Dan Law's car. The Easter Dance Monday nite will be "oooh, ooh, so rare!" Watch your doin's and Goin's on Cause I'll be there watchin' on. Sepia Tattler will meet April 10 with Mrs. Isabelle Lewis, 1415 E. 17th Court. President, Elizabeth Sampson.

M. F. D.—Tell me if conditions will be more favorable this year than last and if we will be forced to lose our home?

Ans: The home will be saved. Careful planning and saving on your part will enable you to hold it. You are not going to experience any great change during the year... but conditions will be a little above the average for you.

T. V. H.—I am blindly in love with an engaged man. Everytime I see him my heart flutters like a wounded dove. He loves me too, but he can't break the engagement because he is afraid of a breach of promise suit. What shall I do? I am mad with my dreams of him.

Ans: If he loved you, he wouldn't be afraid to tell it to the world. He certainly wouldn't go ahead and marry a girl he didn't love just because he thought she might sue him. I suggest that you learn to control your emotions as you are in for a big let-down.

M. O. J.—I underwent an operation a couple of months ago and I wonder if they removed anything from me that would prevent childbirth and how must I find it out?

Ans: The doctor in charge of your case will give you the information you want. I feel that you are worrying foolishly as this matter would have been discussed with you if it had been necessary to remove such organs.

B. E. M.—Has my husband paid money to a lawyer as to getting a divorce from me as he said and is this woman that comes to my house so constantly when she thinks I'm away really double-crossing me?

Ans: If divorce proceedings had been started by your husband you would have been notified. Stop worrying about the separation and try to come to a reconciliation. The woman in question doesn't mean anything to your husband. She is one of the many women who have too much leisure time on their hands.

BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godfrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving woman's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

The selection of a summer wardrobe, especially for the working girl, presents a serious problem. Most dresses after a few broiling hours look as though they had been wrung through a wringer and not even hung up to dry. A careful choice of fabrics and styles will be a help in avoiding this appearance.

First of all, limit yourself to wash dresses almost entirely during the hottest part of the summer. Buy them with an eye to easy laundering. Several dresses that can be rinsed out at a moment's notice, dried in a few minutes and ironed with little or no effort will serve you better than five or six frocks that must be sent to the cleaner or which are a real chore to launder yourself. On these days when we go around in a perpetual drip, it is almost impossible to make a dress do more than one day without rinsing it out, but a clever collection of easily laundered dresses will save your leisure hours from tubbing and ironing drudgery.

There are a number of fabrics on the market today which are said to be "wash-resistant." How well these materials make good their claim is a matter of opinion, but they are especially treated to hold up under trials of summer weather. Washable prints are very wise buys for the working girl since the print has a tendency to make creases less noticeable. Light colors always look cooler in summer than dark or bright hues and we feel, to some extent at least, as cool as we look. While all white is impractical for all-day wear since it shows the dirt so readily, a flowered print on a white background is very attractive.

A number of manufacturers in recent years have been making cotton slips especially for summer wear. These have the double advantage of being much less expensive than the silk ones and considerably cooler.

Choose your summer shoes for comfort even if you have to sacrifice a little of their beauty. Many people buy their shoes a half-size larger for summer. And in buying your shoes, remember how often they will have to be cleaned. Nothing looks more untidy than brown and white shoes with white polish smeared across the brown, unless it is brown and white shoes with brown polish streaked across the white. Choose a simple, easily-cleaned design in a size that will allow for any possible swelling from heat and long hours of standing.

Avoid wide or tight belts for summer and collars that fasten up high around the neck. Your summer clothes need not be fitted as closely as your winter dresses. There are plenty of patterns which are cool as well as stylish. Make your selections from these.

What are your beauty problems? Write Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Foundation, Room 607—511 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

A SUGGESTION FOR EASTER CHARM

By Lena King

For the Easter Parade, include along with your new spring coiffure, a twin facial together with a hand and arm massage. We find that the suggested treatment exercises the muscles of the fingers and wrist, stimulates a fresh flow of blood to these areas. Together with the use of vital tissue-oils, the firmness of the skin is restored. Thus adding a complementary finish to your Easter costume.

Consequently we find a particularly fertile field for these treatments, especially the hands for flabby, wrinkled, hands are no more welcome than crows feet or a double chin. For the fashion conscious women these treatments are readily appreciated.

EVEN YOUR BEST FRIEND WON'T TELL YOU

You yourself might easily have halitosis (bad breath) without ever suspecting it. And the subject is so delicate that even your best friend wouldn't tell you.

That's the insidious thing about halitosis. Nearly everybody offends at some time or other... usually without suspecting it. Are you positive your breath is fresh and pure right now?

Why take unnecessary risks? It is so pleasant and easy to guard against this offensive condition. Just gargle with Listerine Antiseptic.

Listerine Antiseptic quickly halts fermentation, a major cause of odors, then overcomes the odors themselves. Get in the habit of using Listerine Antiseptic morning and night, and before all important engagements. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

LISTERINE FOR HALITOSIS (BAD BREATH)

EASY NOW TO CORRECT BAD BREATH

No need to offend others—Listerine, quick deodorant, sweetens breath

Now there is no excuse for offending others with halitosis (bad breath). The quick, easy treatment to counteract this condition is Listerine. Simply rinsing the mouth with it makes the breath cleaner, sweeter, more wholesome.

Most cases of bad breath, says one dental authority, are caused by fermentation of tiny food particles the tooth brush has failed to remove.

When Listerine is used to rinse the mouth, it halts fermentation and overcomes the odors it causes.

Smart men and women realize that it is easy to offend others and take the pleasant Listerine precaution against bad breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

Don't offend others. Check halitosis with LISTERINE
