Evangelist Hudson Opens City-wide Campaign Sun.

An evangelistic campaign which opens Sunday night, June 18, will last four weeks until July 9, at Bible Pavilion, Corner University and Dixon, conducted by Evangelist R. T. Hudson, in charge of the evangelistic work in this state.

To call attention to current events in the light of Bible prophecy and to cause individuals to understand for the coming of Christ are the purposes of the city-wide meeting.

"This Troubled World-What Will the Outcome Be?" will be the subject for Sunday night, the opening meeting. The following week these subjects are scheduled: Tuesday, "Blasting at the Immutability of Ages;" Wednesday, "Another World Dictator Soon to Appear;" Thursday, "The Coming of the Man of Destiny;" Friday, the beginning of a series of subjects on the Life of Christ, opening with "What, Think Ye of Christ-Whose Son is He." No meetings are held on Monday or Saturday.

Elder Hudson returned last week from a series of meetings in Ft. Madison and Cedar Rapids, Ia. Assisting him will be: Mrs. Hudson, special worker for children and youth; Mrs. M. Taylor, pianist; William Betts, book display.

NEGROES PLAY BIG PART IN ENTERTAINING KING AND QUEEN

Washington, D. C., June 10 (ANP)—Artistic and culinary history for the Negro race was written here last Thursday at the state dinner in the White house given by the president of the United States and Mrs. Roosevelt, and honoring Britain's King George and Queen Elizabeth.

Featured soloist on the all-American music arranged for entertaining the royal visitors was famed Marian Anderson, contralto, who recently gained world prominence when Southern bigotry twice raised the color bar against her appearance in recital in the nation's capital.

Co-starring on the White House program Thursday with Miss Anderson were the North Carolina Negro spiritual singers, whose "Humble Yourself" and "Wald in de Water," thrilled the royal visitors and distinguished guests attending the president's dinner. The singers were trained by Mrs. Neil Hunter, who

Hazel Bell to Grand Jury for Attempt to Kill Peavy

Mrs. Hazel A. Peavey, alias Hazel Bell, 233 West Fourteenth street, was bound over to the criminal court, Wednesday, June 14, in a hearing on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

She was arrested on June 3 by Police officers Miller, Kastler, Kirchner, after she admitted shooting Arthur Peavey at the above address where she told the officers she and Peavey had been living.

At the hearing, officers read a statement of the shooting that the 23-year-old woman had made in which she stated she shot the man after he had a fight with her and had threatened to kill her.

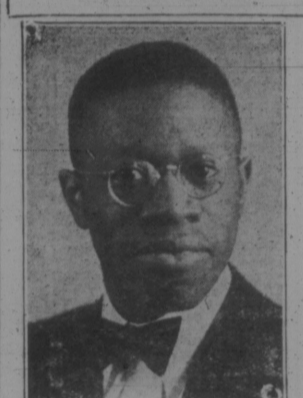

Peavey is still in the Broadlawn General hospital where his condition is still said to be critical.

The "goals" he pointed out were: moral integrity and intellectual honesty; mind development, and to start early to accomplish something in life.

Thirty-four At A. U. graduates were identified as waiting for your leadership to help direct their strivings to the place that it will eventually take among the other races of that world," Harry Herbert Pace, president of the Supreme Liberty Life Insurance company of Chicago, told thirty-four graduates at Atlanta University's seventieth commencement, June 5.

His subject was "Background of Tomorrow."

WPA MURAL IN S. C. FEDERAL COURT TO REMAIN DESPITE JUDGE

New York, June 15.—The U. S. Treasury's section of fine arts has decided that the WPA Mural by Stefan Hirsch, shall remain in the federal court at Aiken, S. C., where U. S. District Judge Frank K. Myers sits, because it "is regarded as a distinguished example of contemporary American wall painting by a most able artist."

Last March, Judge Myers ordered the painting covered up because the central figure "Justice," appears to be that of a mulatto woman.

The new anti-discrimination provision of the State Constitution, provides: "That any person denied appointment, or suspended or dismissed from the public service on racial or religious grounds, shall be permitted to appeal to the Civil Service Commission."

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATES KLAN OUTRAGE IN MIAMI

New York, June 9.—The terrorist activities of the Florida Ku Klux Klan, which took place just prior to the recent primary elections held in Miami, when white citizens in the familiar Klan garb sought to intimidate Negro citizens in an effort to keep them from voting at the polls, is being investigated by the Department of Justice.

This was the announcement made today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The association had asked United States Attorney General to prosecute members of the Florida Klan under section 19 of the Federal criminal code.

This section of the code provides a $5,000 fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years for two or more persons who conspire "to injure persons in exercise of civil rights."

Secretary of agriculture and died in office), a group of colored singers from this school sang at the funeral. In fact, they are scheduled to sing here in the department auditorium in a few days.

Mr. Wallace touched upon a federal anti-lynching bill, stating that he was "in favor of the most effective way to stop lynching," a slum clearance as a federal program, and civil service.

A survey made recently shows that the number of appointees in the bureau numbers 52,000 of which 1,123 are Negroes. When asked about the ratio of Negroes compared with whites, it was said that no thought had ever been given such a thing, and employes were not regarded on the basis of color in this particular administration.

PASTERIE MILK

Of all foods, milk has caused some of our most terrible epidemics, but in cities where the milk supply is carefully protected we no longer fear these wide spread epidemics. Every precaution should be used in the home to preserve the purity of your milk. Germs from dirt do not die out in milk, but multiply very rapidly. These germs get into your milk from the hands or by using unclean utensils. Some of the germs that get into the milk are typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and septic sore throat germs. These germs affecting milk often make it very poisonous for children and adults as well.

All milk for drinking should either be pasteurized milk or have a bacteria count lower than pasteurized milk. Pasteurized milk is milk which has been heated to a temperature of 145 degrees F. and kept at that temperature for thirty minutes. This process kills all of the dangerous germs without being indigestible. People who have sore throats or other illness should not handle milk. Protect your milk, keep it cool and covered and your babies will be healthier.

Track Awards On Hand. Awards won by contestants in the Memorial Day track and field have been received and may be obtained by the owners at the "Y". Medals and ribbons for place winners in the senior and intermediate high jumps are also on hand, and as the standards were not available at the time of the meet, competition in these events will be held at the "Y" soon to determine the winners.

In two of these, the State Tax Commission and the Liquor Control Commission are employed hundreds of workers. In the former no Negroes are employed while in the latter the personnel is confined to a janitor in one town and a night watchman in another.

This condition ought not be allowed to prevail. In many other states where Republicans gained control last year, the Negro has fared wonderfully well. Iowa ought not be an exception to the rule.

The Iowa Republicans made promises just as other politicians did; the Bystander expects them to keep their word.

"MY LITTLE BOY"

(Dedicated to all Parents)

Let's look in the pockets of my little boy,

And see what life furnishes him in the way of joy.

A bit of paper, a torn book,

A nicked up marble, a rusty hook,

A piece of cloth, a bit of lace,

Said he won it in some sort of race.

A battered top, a penny or two,

A stick of gum he forgot to chew,

But the dearest of all was a picture of me,

Said he carried it so his friends could see.

His mothers dead, and gone away,

So with me he's got to stay,

He is a prince of a fellow, a peach of a lad,

Kind, good, and spry, but never bad,

He is one of the things that makes my life a joy,

And I am proud to tell people that he is my little boy.

NEW YORK'S CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

The New York Legislature has passed a law making discrimination against Negroes in public places illegal; further it provides for punishment for those who discriminate against persons on account of race or religion in their attempt to secure jobs or promotion.

We are not acquainted with the laws of New York and therefore don't know whether this is the first civil rights law on statute books or not. In any event, New York has not been free from racial discrimination and it will be interesting to watch the enforcement of the law in view of the wide reputation District Attorney Dewey has made since assuming that office.

One feature of the law—discrimination in employment—is particularly interesting in that this very thing is one of the most difficult problems faced by the Negro today.

The Bystander has stated on many occasions that President Roosevelt would have rendered the cause justice and the Negro race a great service had the NRA provided for no discrimination in employment on account of race; that had the National Labor Relations act provided that no union which discriminated against a worker on account of this race could be recognized as a bargaining unit dealing with employers.

As the situation stands today, the administration and the Labor Relations Board are committed to the closed shop; many of the unions don't accept Negro workers and consequently discriminate against workers on account of race.

Just how far the New York law can go in correcting these conditions is problematical. Suffice it to say that much needs to be done not only to improve the civil rights status of the Negro, but his economic status as well.

IOWA REPUBLICANS LAGGING

As yet the State Republicans administration has made no improvement in jobs among Negroes. While one additional job has been gained, there are less Negroes working at the State House than under the past Democratic administration. This may be due to a general reduction as was pledged in the campaign. If this is the situation, then we have no complaint; if not we shall be heard later on the subject.

During the campaign last fall, Chairman Milroy of the State Central Committee made some promises to work for improvement along many lines; in fact, they were just what the doctor ordered, but to date we have seen nothing done.

Next month a change in the political control of several boards and commissions will be expected to keep their word.

Perfumed Pick-Ups... Once you have taken care of the fundamentals of summer distinctness—at least one bath a day and regular use of a deodorant or non-perfumed strengthener and you should read the directions carefully before applying. A non-perfumed is a boon to the fastidious woman in any season and saves a great deal of wear and tear on your clothes.

What are your beauty problems? Write Marie Downing, Lariouse Beauty Foundation, Room 521—319 North Fourth St., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Although summer is not officially here until June 21, this first week of June presents the same problems of beauty care and good grooming which we will have to fight on through July and August. It requires extra care, time and forethought to look your best in summer but it can and should be accomplished.

Perspiration vs. Daintiness... The most grievous sin against summer daintiness is excessive perspiration. Frequent baths, of course, are absolutely necessary during the summer months and all year round for that matter, but soap and water are not proof against offending these blood-boiling days. No one can be really fastidious and not use a deodorant. There are excellent preparations on the market which deodorize without interfering with the natural functions of the glands. One of these should be applied at least once a day, preferably after bathing.

If you are among those who perspire very freely, a non-perfumed may be necessary to correct the condition. Otherwise a good deodorant may be used to advantage. These preparations come in different strengths and you should read the directions carefully before applying. A non-perfumed is a boon to the fastidious woman in any season and saves a great deal of wear and tear on your clothes.

P. W. E.—I bought a nice piece of property and had just about started building when she jumped up and left. Should I go ahead and build and wish for her return?

Ans: No... give up the idea for the time being. Concentration reveals that this young lady will not be the madam of your new home to be... you two were not mated very well, so don't try to find her. A very charming young lady will enter your life later on this year who will make you exceedingly happy. Build to suit her ideas.

R. T.—Did my friend do the things that she was accused of doing? I am in a predicament and don't know which way to turn and I fear that I will make the wrong step. May I write privately?

Ans: Evidence might point against you friend, but she isn't guilty. This you probably have found out. She is just as sweet and innocent as you have pictured her to be. Yes, write me if you like. Send a quarter for my Astrology Reading. Include your full name, birthdate, correct address and three questions which I will give you my free opinions on same.

R. E.—Does this person whom I think I am desperately in love with love me enough to come back? Why did he break away?

Ans: He felt that he had to make a change... he could not marry you without money enough to live on and he knew if he remained near you that he would do so. Keep your trust in him, but I don't think he will return when he promised he would.

P. S.—Is my only son guilty of what this girl tells me about?

Ans: Emphatically yes, and how well you know it to be the truth. Don't influence your son against her, as you would regret it later on in life.

J. A. B.—Being a constant reader of your section of the paper, I wish to know if I will prosper in the Ministry Work? What is there ahead for me?

Ans: A very successful career as a Minister is before you. You are young and have your whole life before you... study and you will surely make a name for yourself. A very important feature ahead for you is a HAPPY MARRIAGE... choose your mate carefully.

J. M.—Tell me what to do right away as I am desperate and do not know which way to turn. I must have help immediately?

Ans: Apply at the welfare for temporary relief... and in the meantime get out and search, diligently for work. You will be able to make a successful contact in a few weeks if you continue to try as hard as I think you are doing.
