Negro Students Asked Not to Dance at Drake Affair

DUKE ELLINGTON

Duke Ellington and his orchestra will be here Saturday to play an engagement at the Val-Ais Ballroom.

'KING OF CINDERS'

JESSE OWENS

Olympic star, will be here Monday night to present his "Streamlined Exhibition" at Western League Ball park.

Jewel Word, Call cameraman who spent several days in the city last week, enroute from Lincoln, Neb., where covered an athletic event, left Sunday night for Kansas City.

JESSE OWENS, OLYMPIC STAR TO BE HERE

Jesse Owens, Olympic champion, will present his "Streamlined Exhibition," which has been filling ball parks from coast to coast in Western League Park, on Monday night, July 17. Owens' terms were accepted by Lee Keyser late yesterday, via Western Union.

At the same time the contract accepted to present the world famous Original Crawfords of the Negro American League to play the Heck

A group of Negro graduates of the high schools of Des Moines were insulted on Tuesday night when they attended the annual entertainment that is sponsored by Drake university, which was given at Riverview park and pavilion.

Dressed in appropriate clothes for the occasion, couples of students arrived at the park, expecting to enjoy fully what their sponsors at Drake university had scheduled for them and what their invitations, mailed to them from the hosts, had sent out in the printed word.

With a desire to dance, a young couple, students of this year's graduating class of the city high schools, arrived at the park early and sought the dance hall, where they were admitted and danced among their white classmates.

Other Negro students arriving at the park later—desired to dance, also, and they sought admittance to the dance hall but were stopped at the door by an attendant who informed them that they could not dance—that the park management would not permit the Negro students to dance—if they entered the hall they must not dance, several of the embarrassed students informed a By-stander reporter this week.

The students objected to their being refused and when they did the attendant at the dance hall called a police officer to try to get him to inform the colored student guests that they could not enter the dance hall and mingle with the white students, who were enjoying the dance and the music.

One of the students related that the couple who had gained entrance to the hall early and had been dancing, left the hall with their passes and when they desired to return later, they too, were refused and the manager asked them not to dance "for his benefit," the informing student told the press.

Drake Sponsor 'Sorry' A representative of Drake university, Ed. C. Lytton, who was in charge of the student affairs, was contacted by the By-stander.

Mr. Lytton was "very sorry" that the Negro students were embarrassed.

"I have done all I can to avoid it," he informed a By-stander.

"It is a difficult problem," he stated in discussing the situation that confronted the colored students but he assured that "it is not the spirit of the school."

"Every once and a while we run across something that we cannot do anything about," he said.

Asked why he invited the students to places where the colored would be Ross on the same program. The Crawfords are one of the flashiest and most sensational colored clubs in America, while Owens' fame is worldwide due to his Olympic conquest. Owens holds four world's records and is tied in seven others.

Owens' contract here calls for him to compete in three events to be selected by the local management. All opponents will be suitably handicapped. The 100 yard dash, Owens' favorite, will open the program, followed by an attempt to break the world's official base circling record, a feat he has accomplished on numerous occasions. Either a novelty base circling act with four players running in relay, or a 120 yard low hurdle exhibition will conclude the show.

VALUE WEBB ESTATE

New York—A letter of administration issued in Manhattan surrogate court Tuesday disclosed that the total estate of the late Chick Webb, amounting to over $10,000 had been willed to his wife, Mrs. Sally Webb and his mother who lives in Baltimore.

Listed among the treasurers left by Chick are many gifts of kings and queens given him in appreciation of his contribution to music. At his death he held in his collections an offer for a trip abroad that would have netted him many thousands. He was also slated for a command performance before the King of England.

embarrassed Mr. Lytton explained that several days prior to the entertainment someone interested in the welfare of the Negro students phoned him and asked him if the colored students should attend.

"At that time, Mr. Lytton said he advised the person that it "would not be the best thing" for the Negro students to go out to dance because they "had trouble with that place before about the colored students."

"Of course, there were about 4,000 persons in the park and about 2,000 in the dance hall," he observed.

"We are just up against it when the colored students are not welcomed," Mr. Lytton said.

Annual Union Services at East-West Side Churches

The sixth annual Sunday evening union services between the Corinthian Baptist and the Burns Methodist churches will begin Sunday, July 16, when congregations of both churches will gather in the auditorium of Corinthian church.

The opening speaker of the series of union services during the summer months will be the Rev. John C. Bain, pastor of Burns church. He has chosen for his subject: "The House Next Door."

Special musical numbers will be offered by a chorus composed of members of the choirs of both churches. Mrs. G. W. Robinson will be at the organ.

ACTORS CHARGE BAPTISTS ARE GUILTY OF UNCHRISTIAN CONDUCT

Chicago, (ANP)—Delegates to the recent National Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. congress in Tulsa were guilty of "un-Christian conduct" and being "showoffs" when they refused to accept the invitation of the Claremore, Okla., chamber of commerce to visit the Will Rogers memorial because the late comedian once used an objectionable epithet in a broadcast, according to Clarence Muse and Bill "Bojangles" Robinson, who were personal friends of Rogers.

Both well known actors in statements to the Associated Negro Press told of Rogers' deep friendship for Negroes and cited instances of ways in which he had specifically aided members of the race. They also pointed out the great pains he took to apologize for having used "darky" on the radio program and his sincere regrets at having offended his colored listeners.

LYNCHING RECORD

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—The department of records and research of Tuskegee Institute reports a total of four lynchings in the first six months of 1939 in the U. S.

This is three more than the number 1 for the first six months of 1938, and the same number four, for the first six months of 1937.

The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Florida, 2, Georgia, 1, and Mississippi, 1.

Joe Louis Won't Retire Soon

Detroit, July 11 (ANP)—Despite published statements that Joe Louis plans to retire in 1940 after four more title defenses, the champion will be in their pitching leather until 1942, if you take the word of John Roxborough, his co-manager.

"I've just begun to look for a new training camp for him," said Roxborough on his return to the city last week. "Does that look like we were getting ready to forget fighting?"

"No, Joe isn't going to retire yet. But I'll tell you what he is thinking about. He's thinking of taking on everybody who wants a chance until about the winter of 1942. If he's still champion by that time, he'll retire undefeated. If he gets licked in the meantime, he'll stage a comeback. Joe definitely has made up his mind to fight for at least three more years."

WATSON, BATISTE TO GO ABROAD

Lincoln, Neb. (ANP)—Unheard of before the National A. A. U. meet here last Monday and Tuesday, Joe Batiste, 18-year-old high school hurdler from Tucson, Ariz., found himself a member, along with Bill Watson of Michigan of the 10 man American track team who will compete in the international games to be held in London, Aug. 7.

Batiste won the high hurdles after Fred Wolcott of Rice, generally recognized as the greatest in the world today, stumbled over the eighth and ninth sticks and came in second. But the A. A. U. consistently names winners of the national championships, no matter how surprising their victories may be. Although most of the selections committee felt Wolcott should be chosen, after several hours of wrangling, the bid went to Batiste.

Watson failed to win a championship but was picked because of his versatility. The 10 Americans must compete in 14 events. The Michigan star is Big 10 champion in the discus, shot put and broad jump and also can high jump and throw the javelin.

NEGRO EMPLOYEES OUSTED FROM D. C. UNION STATION

Washington, (By Rienz B. Lemus for ANP)—Even though ours is now a hectic era that forbids anything to be startling, regular rail travelers in and out of the Washington union station got the shock of a decade when they entered the terminal restaurant last Saturday to find white waitresses and busboys, all ready to serve them.

For more than a half-century terminal eaters had been served by colored waiters and kitchen helpers; first in the old 6th Street depot, where President Garfield was fatally shot in 1881, now submerged from memory by the Mellon Art gallery's mammoth east wing, and since 1907 at the present locality.

Again I say, Will Rogers was a humane man, and his passing was a great loss to all races, God rest his soul. Bill Robinson, in his statement, said: "I am not speaking as an soul."

Father Divine May Get 'Heaven' in Newport

Newport, R. I.—Father Divine who has been acquiring "heavens" for his religious followers, located in some of the exclusive sections and colonies of wealth and blue-blood aristocracy, threw a shock over some "of the society heavens" when it became known this week that he was about to land a new "heaven" in their midst.

"Mrs. Angela Kaufman, owner of a mansion known as "The Castles," said Tuesday that Father Divine "will have the property" for his flock of angels.

Widow of Millionaire Mrs. Kaufman is the widow of a millionaire safety razor manufacturer and one more than an occasional she has startled the society set.

Mrs. Kaufman did not reveal the nature of the transaction, as to whether it would be a gift, sale or trade, but she did say that Father Divine would "be here within a week."

Mrs. Kaufman indicated strongly, without saying so flatly that her action was taken because she was angry at her failure to obtain a liquor license for the mansion she had converted into a summer hotel.

"I bought 'The Castles' last January," Mrs. Kaufman said, "and applied for a liquor license for my elegant clientele, but they refused me."

"I tried again a few months later and still couldn't get any place."

To 'Worthy' Person "I want somebody worthy to have 'The Castles' and I think that Father Divine can be the person. He is a worthy man and pays his way."

"The Castles" formerly belonged to the late Richard Washburn Child, once the United States ambassador to Italy.

When refused a license by the liquor licensing commission, Mrs. Kaufman took her case to the Rhode Island supreme court in an effort to have this ruling quashed.

"The Castles" is located about a mile from the exclusive society section of the city, but is less than half mile from a group of pretentious summer homes.

The large stone building itself is on a quiet residential street, with two small summer hotels not far distant.

Father Divine's purchase of "his last heaven" caused an uproar when Howland Spencer, New York squire, sold his Krum Elbow estate, directly across the river from President Roosevelt's Hyde Park mansion—to the religious leader for his followers.

Other occupants in the Williams' car who were returning from the national convention were: Miss Mattie Young, Kansas City, Mo., who received a fractured pelvis; Mrs. Goldie Elliot, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Kansas City N. A. A. C. P. branch, who received minor lacerations and shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Coloresch of St. Louis were injured also.

Four Others Injured in Car Wreck

Kansas City, Mo.—Elmore Williams, president of the Kansas City N. A. A. C. P. branch and manager of the People's Finance Corporation in Kansas City, died Sunday night, July 9, in the Calloway County hospital in Fulton, Mo., of injuries received in an automobile accident July 4 while enroute home from the national convention of the N. A. A. C. P. which met at Richmond, Va.

The automobile accident occurred on U.S. highway 40 at Overfelt corner 12 miles-northeast of Fulton and seven miles east of Kingdom City, a junction point.

In the heavy holiday traffic on the night of July 4 Mr. Williams' car collided with another auto driven by Max Coloresch of St. Louis, white.

Other occupants in the Williams' car who were returning from the national convention were: Miss Mattie Young, Kansas City, Mo., who received a fractured pelvis; Mrs. Goldie Elliot, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Kansas City N. A. A. C. P. branch, who received minor lacerations and shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Coloresch of St. Louis were injured also.

A. G. Clark Is Laid to Rest

Oskaloosa, Ia.—With honors befitting one who was at the same time a pioneer citizen, a pioneer in education and a fraternal leader of the first rank, A. G. Clark, first Negro graduate of the University of Iowa and authority on both the history and jurisprudence of Freemasonry, was laid to rest July 6 in the cemetery, north of the city of Oskaloosa, Iowa, where he had resided for nearly a half century and where he died on July 3.

Being a past G and master of Masons his funeral was in charge of the United Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. (Prince Hall Affiliation) in charge of Most Worshipful Grand Master Branham N. Hyde of Des Moines.

Assisting were the following Past Grand Masters: S. Joe Brown, Des Moines; W. W. Gross, Keokuk; H. E. Williams, Ottumwa; H. A. Martin, Dubuque and F. S. Johnson, Keokuk; and the following grand-officers, Rice Lintz, Deputy Grand Master, Ottumwa; E. F. Weldon, Senior Grand Warden, Keokuk; E. C. Martin, Junior Grand Warden, Mason City; C. T. Culbertson, Grand Sec., Iowa City; A. R. Joyce, Grand Custodian, Cedar Rapids, and the following Past Grand Officers: Geo. L. Butler, Past Senior Grand Warden, Marshalltown; W. C. Buice, Past Senior Grand Warden, Des Moines; N. L. Black, Past Senior Grand Warden, Washington, and the following Past Masters: F. D. Bland, Keokuk; R. A. Wilburn, Des Moines; J. M. Kelley, Des Moines, and by Wallace Davis, Worshipful Master and the members of Golden Star Lodge No. 4 of Ottumwa, of which deceased was a member.

The service was held in the beautiful air conditioned chapel of the Oskaloosa Funeral Home and consisted simply of the reading of the scripture and prayer by the Rev. C. K. Parks, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church of which deceased was a member and two solos by Mrs. Russell Downey of Ottumwa.

THE WPA TROUBLE

WPA workers are striking all over the country in protest against new rules under which they are required to work in the future.

Frankly, the Bystander sees some merit in the protest but does not feel that the government ought to tolerate any strikers by its employees whether employed on the WPA or any other governmental service.

Heretofore the WPA has been paying the prevailing wage scale for labor as set in various communities; and the employees were required to quit work when sufficient hours had been put in to draw the semi-monthly pay. Now the employees are to work 130 hours per month for a monthly wage which in the beginning was designated a security wage.

If the WPA is an emergency measure—and even the administration so labels it—there is no reason why the government should attempt to compete with private employers. On the other hand the theory has been based on an attempt to pay a man a salary rather than give direct relief, thereby maintaining more self-respect.

Of course the WPA has been playing politics with the unions in order to appease them, but now in an effort to get down to sensible conduct finds itself in a "hornet's nest."

Workers who have been on the WPA for eighteen months will be laid off for thirty days without pay. If these people are entitled to be on WPA at all they should not be laid off.

Certainly, they have not been able to save any money.

We are inclined to believe many of these people once released, will never be reemployed. This layoff is a good way to get rid of them.

The WPA has been the subject of more criticism than any other department of the government. Most of it has been just, but fell on deaf ears. Now that more practical people are in charge, the conduct of the work will be put on a more practical basis. In the meantime WPA workers will become accustomed to the new rules and soon become satisfied.

CHECK THIS PRACTICE

Policemen assisting private companies to keep order in their establishments are violating the law themselves when they attempt to force Negroes to leave places of public amusement; and this is true even though their employers instruct them to do so.

Officers of the law, while not lawyers, are supposed to know if a party is violating the law before they make an arrest. Certainly when an officer attempts to put a Negro out of a public place, because the manager wants it done, the officer and not the party attempted to be arrested is violating the law. As a rule, the Des Moines policemen are pretty decent, and about whom we have little to complain. But they must not be allowed to violate the law simply because some prejudiced manager for whom he may be working extra hours wants to embarrass Negroes.

BIBLE THOUGHT

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment for all that do so are abominations unto the Lord thy God." Deuteronomy 22:5.

The Bible thought of the week was selected by the Rev. J. L. Lucas, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church.

BOOKS

BLACK WORKERS AND THE NEW UNIONS

By George F. McCray
Julius Rosenwald Fellow, Labor Problems (For ANP)

Immediately before the period of "perpetual prosperity" suddenly collapsed in one of the most disastrous depressions in the history of the United States, S. D. Spero (white) and A. L. Harris (Negro) toured the country gathering data for one of the most competent analyses of the problems of Negro workers ever published on the subject. Their book, The Black Worker, reported very few progressive changes taking place in the relations between the three main human factors in American industry; namely, white workers, white employers and black workers. In fact, these observers reported that in several important industries such as steel, meat packing, and longshoring a veritable stalemate existed, and the poisonous effects of the World War migration, the resulting competition for jobs, and the exploitation of racial antagonisms which had marked the period were still sapping the numerical and the emotional strength of the labor movement. The outlook for the Negro worker was ominous indeed.

CROCKER "Y"

"Y" Boxers Repeat Victory Over Adel

The Crocker "Y" fighters slugged out a four-to-nothing win over the Adel Athletic Club team of Adel, Iowa in the weekly boxing show in the "Y" ring last Thursday night. This was the second triumph in many weeks for the local mitt slingers over the Adel club, who were substituting for the Oskaloosa, Iowa Y. M. C. A. who were held up by a severe rainstorm in that vicinity of the state.

In the main event Mose Shackelford gained the verdict over Wayne Kissing. Merle Anderson started punching in the last round and scored four knockdowns over Chuck Hutt of Adel to grab the decision.

Richard Garland tried hard to put Burke Anderson of Adel to the canvas for keeps, but had to be content with a decision in a lightweight match.

In the local ring this week, July 13th is a strong squad representing the Marshalltown Athletic Club, Central Iowa champions. Coming to town are the pugilistic representatives of the Omaha Star of Omaha, Nebraska. Included on this team are a number of boys who have represented Omaha in the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions in Chicago. They are in charge of S. Edward Gilbert, publisher of the Omaha Star. This special show is scheduled for next Wednesday evening, July 19th at 8:15 p. m.

The announcement of the tenth annual Negro city tennis tournament was made Saturday by Rozenting Hardaway, chairman of the Crocker Y. M. C. A. tennis committee, sponsors of the annual net classic. The tourney will be held during the week of July 16 to 23, all matches being played on the Goode Park courts.

Competition will be held in the men's singles and doubles, women's singles, junior singles, and boy's singles. Entries blanks may be obtained at 320 Locust, 1002 Center or the Crocker Y. M. C. A.

Two unearned runs in the seventh inning enabled Negro Community Center to nose out St. Paul A. M. E. 4 to 3 in a hotly contested game Monday evening on the West High Stadium diamond. St. Paul went into the lead in the first stanza scoring a trio of runs on five successive hits off the slants of Morton Graves. East Des Moines Community Center suffered their first defeat of the current season coming off second best 4 to 1 in another interest game on the West High Stadium field last Friday evening.

In the other two games played last week Negro Community Center defeated Fowler's Funeral Home 9 to 5 Wednesday evening on the Goode Park diamond with Lawrence Carter performing on the mound for the winners. Estes-Van Ginkels came through for their first victory of the season with Corinthian Baptist 12 to 3 on the West High Stadium field. Bob White went the route on the mound for the winners, while Corinthian used Williams, Scott and Ozzie Morrow in their futile effort to win.

Union Baptist 11, Kyles A. M. E. Zion 3

After a three week's lull in the Church Baseball league, Union Baptist and Kyles A. M. E. Zion renewed hostilities Tuesday evening on the First and University diamond with the former walking off with an 11 to 3 decision.

Weather permitting, the games will continue on Tuesdays and Fridays on the First and University Avenue diamond for the balance of the season. The games are called at 8:15 p. m.

ANNUAL CITY TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENS JULY 16

The ninth annual city Negro tennis meet will get under way on the Goode Park Courts at 10 a. m., Sunday, July 16. Started ten years ago as a result of a friendly argument between four friends, the meet has become an institution and is looked forward to by all local racket swingers. Up until two years ago the meet was largely the result of the efforts of a one-man committee; but in 1917 the Crocker "Y" got behind it and helped so that it is now regarded as having a definite place in the "Y" program.

The argument about the best Negro player in the city is no longer an argument. It is now Chet Williamson who has never lost a match to a local Negro when the chips were down, against the field.

Williamson has won the men's singles title every year of the meet. In fact it has got so that when he loses a set it is news. He lost his last set in the finals in 1933 and has since just two sets in the semi-finals since then. Only one player, Bill Ashby has met Williamson twice in the finals. Everyone else has had one chance and has been swamped.

This year the boys regard Paul Williams, former North High Ace, as the man likely to break Williamson's strange hold. Paul, a tricky left-hander, has everything necessary, but the heart. If he can must the necessary ability to accept bad breaks as part of the game he might have a chance of doing what no one else has yet done.

Earl Newcomb's slow careful game, Everett Newcomb's dashing net attack, Bill Ashby's fire ball, and Paul Wood's ball-dogging have looked alike when fired across the net at the dead pan Williamson.

Chet and your humble servant will be the defending champs in the men's doubles.

The defending champion Lois Mann will not be here to protect her

Health Hints

DR. C. R. BRADFORD
ERYSIPELAS

Erysipelas is an acute specific inflammation of the skin and superficial tissues, characterized by a shining redness, swelling, heat, pain, and fever. Erysipelas is not as common today as in years gone by. It is caused by a very poisonous germ that has an incubation period of three days. The germ enters through a skin wound.

The onset of this disease is usually sudden with a chill and rigors; there is malaise, headache, loss of appetite and high fever. The most frequent sign of the infection is the face, particularly on the nose from which it spreads over the cheeks in butterfly like distribution though it may occur on any part of the skin. The prognosis is usually good though the patient may be confined from eighteen to twenty days. Treatment is carried on along symptomatic lines, such as rest in bed, appropriate diet, and large amounts of fluids, drugs for pain and sometimes local applications to the skin are beneficial. It is best to isolate these patients from others.

women's singles title nor will Miss Laurine Sprott, last year's runnerup. This makes the women's meet a wide open affair. Paul Williams who won the junior title last year will be in the men's division and Langston Hardaway, last year's boys champ, will be in the juniors.

While we are on the subject of tennis, Charles W. Graham, former Missouri Valley champion and Oklahoma State Negro Champ is playing in the Mississippi Valley Meet this week at Iowa City. Graham should go far in that meet and might become a finalist.

ST. LOUIS STARS WIN TWO

The St. Louis Stars of the Negro National league won two league mother with a birthday party at the games here last week. They dusted the Kansas City Monarchs, long a favorite of local white fans here, 9 to 5. Said to be a light hitting, but clever fielding team, the Stars turned loose some hitting power aided by some classy fielding to stop the Monarchs. Tuesday night they grabbed the Bacharacs of Atlantic City and set them down in a fence busting exhibition that was worth going to see. The Stars got out in front early and it was well that they piled up their winning total because in the next six innings they gathered just one hit off the offerings of Decker of Atlantic City.

The Pittsburg Crawfords who haven't been here for a couple of years will be at the local park July 18 and will feature a running exhibition by Jesse Owens.

Are you a SLAVE to your FEET?

Thousands of people in this land of the free are actually SLAVES to their feet simply because of the kind of shoes they wear—shoes that force or allow their ankles to twist INWARD and DOWNWARD under their body weight.

HEALTH SPOT SHOES have been scientifically designed to prevent this action and to distribute the weight of your body in your feet as Nature intended.

FASHIONS

(By H. L. Griggs for ANP)

Dressmaker bathing suits continue to be most popular for beach wear. The varied versions of this type suit are as neatly flared through the skirt and as graciously molded through the waist and top as any dance, frock, and are, therefore, very flattering. Beach shoes with crepe rubber soles are also in the swim, and there's a new cap on the market called "Sava-Wave" with an inner rim of rubber guaranteed to keep out very bit of dampness.

The best beach wraps are the terry-cloth coat and capes. They are either very short, falling like smocks from the shoulder or a little longer, shirred at the waist. The hooded ones—when hoods are lined with the bathing suit material, printed cotton or polka-dotted silk—are particularly smart. The big beach bags, which hold so many articles necessary to comfort on an outing, are indispensable for summer jaunts, and they, too, are quite appealing when they match the ensemble. The newest note in beach hats is a huge sombrero of natural straw with strips of ribbon forming the crown. Crocheted hoods in every color under the sun are another type of play-time headgear favored this year. They tie in big bows on top.

Organic Blossom Cream: One cup orange juice, chilled, two tablespoons sugar, one and one third cups milk, chilled. Dissolve sugar in orange juice and combine with milk. Shake vigorously and serve immediately.

Grape Gingerale: One pint grape juice, two tablespoons granulated sugar, one half cup lemon juice, one quart grape juice, dry ginger ale. Combine grape juice and sugar. Str

P. E. H.—I am a devoted admirer of your column. I am just 17 and have "boy trouble." The problem I am terribly worried about is kissing boys. I have a very good reputation as a "good girl" and I'd like to keep it. But when a friend comes to the house and asks me for a good night kiss, I'm afraid to hurt his feelings by refusing or slapping his face if he insists. Is it considered "cheap" for a girl to accept a kiss from a boy she likes? PERPLEXED.

Ans: Good night kisses are perfectly respectable and you needn't worry about jeopardizing your reputation by indulging in one or two. This doesn't mean that you should start a "slobbering contest" every time you say good night to a boy. A good night kiss and a pat on the cheek will hold your admirers for you.

R. T.—Dear Professor: Will you please tell me if the woman I left my sample case with will pay me for the comb?

Ans: Why should she? She didn't get your comb.

D. M. B.—Should I give this letter to the boy that I wrote it to and what would he do?

Ans: He would feel flattered somewhat but it wouldn't make a very big impression on him. The majority of young people go through this stage of writing notes to one another—he will keep it a secret as he had done many times before.

H. M.—I'm out of a job and am thinking of going to California and until sugar is dissolved. Add lemon juice and chill. Just before serving add ginger ale.

If you want the leaflet of cold drinks, just address Arden Duane, Associated Negro Press, 3507 South Parkway, Chicago, Ill.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Boyd motored to Danville, Ill., last week to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Sarah Leona Woodard who died there on July 4. They returned to the city Saturday.

The minister and his wife left the city Tuesday morning to attend the annual meeting of the Young People's congress which is in session at Cedar Rapids, Ia.

to know what you think of it?
Ans: The idea is alright . . . but you must have money to make a trip of this kind. Get out and get employment and save a little money. When you get something ahead, then make the change to California if you feel you prefer to live out there.

A. D.—Dear Abbe: I am writing about our church. Tell me if it will ever grow and will we ever build a new church? What is wrong?

Ans: The chief difficulty seems to be that the Members do not cooperate as they should . . . without cooperation, very little can be accomplished. In all probability if you had a new active leader among you women, you could help the Pastor accomplish his aim. At any rate do your part, and pray that the others will do likewise. In time a new church will be built.

E. T. M.—I have an awfully nice boy friend and he will do anything I ask of him. He is trying to get me to marry him and I am afraid he won't be as nice to me after we are married. Tell me if he is really in love with me?

Ans: He's "nuts" about you, and you know it too. Most likely you two will be married within a few months time and I firmly believe that you will get along swell. If you strive as hard to make him happy as he is to make you happy, then your worries will be few.

Ans: He would feel flattered somewhat but it wouldn't make a very big impression on him. The majority of young people go through this stage of writing notes to one another—he will keep it a secret as he had done many times before.
