William C. Brown, 1407 Center street, and Andrew Hamilton, 923 E. Seventeenth street, two Younker department store employees who have been in the picket lines since last week when the Building Service Employees of the A. F. of L., No. 103 called a strike at Younkers.

The main issue in the strike is the union demand for a closed shop. The strike involves approximately 85 of the 45 building service employees.

Several conferences were held during the week in an effort to settle the strike.

The strikers are picketing the Kresage store, the New Union and until the first of the week had on their list Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Trash Man Has Trail of Bad Luck

Will Veesley, 1706 Southwest Second street, who hauls trash and junk from many of the business places in the city, had a streak of bad luck recently.

On the evening of July 25 he returned to his small lodging place and found that someone had stolen one grey suit, two hats, two work caps, three suits of underwear, one dress shirt and one work shirt, all valued at about $45.

Learning the name and address of one of the men seen to enter his house and later seen wearing his clothes, Veesley said he caught a fast train out of here bound for Waterloo.

He had just got off the freight at Davenport and was waiting to transfer to another when a cop ushered him to the Davenport police station where the judge gave him ten days in jail.

While serving the ten days Veesley said he got paralysis in his right arm which bothered him after he was released on August 6, when he went to board a fast freight back home.

Veesley got back to the city and found that his grocery order had been cut off by the relief people, he said.

He said some people had complained about his place in the neighborhood, but that he did not have the kind of money to fix it up.

St. Paul Has Graduation

In connection with the reports from the Third Annual Youth Congress at the evening service last Sunday evening certificates and diplomas were issued to a class of eleven persons who have completed either one or two years in the Religious Leadership Department, now under the supervision of Atty. Boyd and Mrs. Sophia Nichols who were in attendance at the Cedar Rapids meeting. Mrs. S. Joe Brown, the director of the conference presided at this meeting.

Temperature 100; Kill Man About O'Coat

Dallas (By Fritz Casler for ANP) - An overcoat, of all things, was the alleged cause of a killing last Saturday in a downtown office building with the temperature sizzling at 100 degrees. Harvey Lindsay, white attorney with offices in the Fidelity building, walked into the sheriff's office and handed a deputy a pistol, telling him that he had just shot a Negro. Lindsay further stated that he killed William Harrison, 21, when the latter threatened him following his refusal to return an overcoat that Harrison had left as security for attorney's fee.

When investigators from the sheriff's office arrived at the lawyer's office they found Harrison dead from two bullet wounds in the body and one in the head. The slayer was promptly released on a bond said to be $2,500 upon a writ of habeas corpus granted by District Judge Henry King.

Mrs. Mackay, wife of Ernest Mackay, 1022 Thirteenth street, and mother of four children, died at her home on Saturday evening, following an illness of several months. DR. SANFORD DROPPED FROM LANSGTON U. Oklahoma City, Okla.—Although Prof. B. F. Lee has been appointed acting president of Langston university following the dismissal of Dr. J. W. Sanford, there is much speculation as to who will be named to the post.

Dr. Sanford, who has been under fire for several months, was dropped from the institution July 30 by the board of regents. His dismissal became effective immediately.

Trouble is said to have started at the school following a legislative investigation which revealed conditions which displeased the lawmakers.

Missouri U Color Bar Again Upheld by State Supreme Court; W. E. Taylor Dean

Jefferson City, Mo. (ANP)—Missouri university's ban against Negro students was again upheld by the state supreme court sitting en banc Tuesday on the grounds that a law school was being established at Lincoln university and it would first have to be determined if these facilities are substantially equivalent to those afforded at the University of Missouri.

Dean Named At the same time, it was announced that William Edwin Taylor, who since 1935 has served as acting dean of the Howard university law school, has been named dean of the Lincoln law school, scheduled to open in September.

Mrs. Williams Confesses Shooting Roomer When He Drew Knife on Her

Murder charges were placed against Mrs. Mae Williams, 43, 1544 Scott street, Thursday morning, according to inspector Brophy of the police department. Mrs. Williams confessed to the fatal shooting of Richard Helm, 31-year-old boarder at her home when he came at her with a paring knife late Tuesday night, August 8.

Mrs. Williams was arraigned Thursday morning before Judge Don Allen and a charge of murder was filed against her. No bond was set. She is scheduled for preliminary hearing on August 7.

The woman told Inspector Brophy that Helm threatened her with a paring knife during a "lover's quarrel" and that she shot him with his own 12 gauge shotgun.

Shoots Though Door She said she fired the shot through the kitchen screen door as he tried to get into the house after threatening her.

Mrs. Mañida Thomas, 69-year-old mother of Mrs. Williams, was the only witness to the shooting. She told the inspector that her daughter dragged Helm 40 feet through the backyard into the alley after firing a charge from the gun into his right lung at close range.

Surrenders Following the shooting Mrs. Williams told the officer that she took her mother home in a taxi to the home of a brother, Will Thomas, 786 Twelfth street and then surrendered to Patrolman Louis Garland at Tenth and Center streets.

Mrs. Williams' husband, Howard Williams, is in the county jail awaiting disposition of a case on a charge of breaking and entering a place on July 15.

The body of Helm is at the Estes funeral home. He had been in the city one year, coming here from St. Louis, his native home.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

No Cream Puffs in First Aid Class

If you should happen to be at Good Park pool on any Wednesday or Friday evening and see groups of scary-looking creatures, all bandaged up, from head and maybe to feet, don't think that they are ghosts or goblins getting ready for a swim, just stand by and listen.

Presently you will hear the voice of Frank Robinson, instructor of the Red Cross First Aid course. He will be instructing his students and explaining their attempts to learn the art of making and applying bandages for all types of emergency treatment.

Instructor Robinson ordered the students to be ready for "rough treatment" Friday night when he would see how much the class knew about the next chapter of "Respiration."

President Scruggs said the new school will be organized in strict accordance with standards set forth by the American Association of American Law schools and that Will Shafroth, white, chairman of the legal education committee of the American Bar association and Harold Shepherd, white, secretary of the American Association of American law schools have been invited to Lincoln to help start the new school.

After the Gaines case went to the U. S. supreme court and was returned to the state high court following the ruling that Gaines must receive equal educational facilities within Missouri's borders, new hearings were held here. But, meanwhile the Taylor bill had been rushed through the state legislature. So Missouri U. attorneys argued that sufficient provision was now made at Lincoln for Gaines' education.

Iowa Graduate William Edwin Taylor, dean of the new law school at Lincoln, was a normal graduate there in 1917 and holds bachelor of arts and bachelor of laws degrees from the University of Iowa. He has been teaching law at Howard since 1929.

LOCAL STRIKE IS IMPORTANT

A strike among the building service employees of several of the Des Moines stores has been in progress for several days. The disagreement arose over the demand of the unions for a closed shop.

In spite of the fact that Des Moines is a strong union town, this is the first strike where the majority of the pickets have been Negroes. Of course, the lack of Negroes in picket lines in the past is due to the refusal of unions to let them into their organizations; the large number of them in this instance is due to the fact that this particular local—an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor—does not bar Negroes.

Iowa labor circles are well acquainted with the loyalty of Negroes as union men. In spite of the fact that thousands were brought here as strike breakers in the coal fields several years, they turned to the union quickly and have made valuable, dependable members.

It will be interesting to watch the outcome of this strike for its success will depend greatly upon the support given by the other unions. The results will produce for these Negro members either more or less confidence in the unions.

LAW SCHOOLS

The state of Missouri is going forward in its establishment of a law school at Lincoln University. This is being done in order to comply with a decision of the United States Supreme Court which held in the Gaines case that the state must provide equal educational facilities for all of its citizens even to the extent of admitting Negroes to the state universities if necessary to meet that principle.

Determined to maintain its segregation laws Missouri hastens to provide a law school and it is gratifying to note that Wm. E. Taylor, a graduate of Iowa University law school and at one time acting dean of the Howard University law school, has been named dean.

Heretofore professorships for Negroes in law schools have been very limited due to the fact that only one Negro graduate school maintains a law school.

The creation of these schools will add a number of jobs for Negro lawyers heretofore unavailable; we shall have more Negro lawyers in Southern communities and better protection of the rights of Negroes in the courts of those states.

Thus while the decision of the Supreme Court in the Gaines case opened new educational opportunities for this group, its application goes further by providing better and more economic opportunities for the Negro.

It is obvious that other states will follow the example of Missouri and undoubtedly we shall have several law schools among the state schools for Negroes in the South.

BIBLE THOUGHT

"Be careful for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God."

"And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:6-7.

The Bible thought this week was selected by the Rev. H. C. Boyd, pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church.

Health Hints

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

PSITTACOSIS

(Parrot-Fever)

This is an infectious disease which occurs in parrots and in parakeets. The germ has never been identified but is transmitted from a sick parrot to a man.

Symptoms: the incubation period is about twelve days. The disease begins suddenly with a chill and fever. To begin with there is a feeling of malaise, headache, occasional vomiting, cough, slow pulse and pleurisy pains at times. The disease carries a diffuse bronchitis. The course of the disease is irregular, the duration varying from 10-15 days being more severe in old people than children. The death rate caused by this disease is from 10 to 40%—different on threats.

The diagnosis is different unless the patient gives a history of contact with a sick parrot. The treatment is difficult as no specific drug has been found for treatment.

TENNIS GETS UNDER WAY

Old Jupiter Pluvius took a hand in things and as a result our tennis meet was barely able to get started Sunday and was rained out completely Monday. We got just two matches completed and one was all even when we had to quit. Everett Newcomb started things off by trimming R. Hardaway at 6-2, 5-3. Hardaway put up a real scuffle until he got tired, and then it was all Newcomb. In the women's singles Edith Woodward, favored by your writer to be one of the finalists, ran into all sorts of trouble with Mable Mann and they quit with one set each. Edith broke Miss Mann's service to take the first set 7-5 and Mable came right back to grab the second cant. Wilda Mullins and Lucille Benning hooked up a cross-court back-hand and drop shot duel with Mullins, 1937 champion, finishing on the long end of the score in two 6-4 sets.

The small number of entrants in the boy's division caused the cancellation of that branch, and left the juniors with Joe Howard favored to grab the bacon. The doubles affair is expected to furnish some real fireworks as the boys paired up with the intention of bringing up a new doubles championship team. Bill Ashby has teamed with Ted Martin, and they will be tough. Paul

Williams has taken Art Bush and they are defying all comers, while the veteran Everett Newcomb says he sees possibilities in Joe Howard and expects to cut a swath with his junior partner.

Everything at this writing points to a meeting between Chet Williamson and Paul Williams in the semi-finals in a match that may well decide the championship. In the bottom bracket the boys are so evenly matched that you pay your money and you take your choice. Any one of four men may come through to meet the ultimate winner of the top bracket. Bill Ashby, the only man to meet Williamson twice in the finals is the favorite in the bottom division. But in his path stands Leonard Lomas, who once beat Bill Art Bush, who on one of his hot days is capable of stopping anybody, and Ted Martin who we have called for years the best money player in town. Martin may play mediocre tennis all season, but, brother, when the chips are down, Martin covers a lot of court and uncovers some tennis that makes one wonder where he keeps it at other times. If J. Pluvius is willing, we plan to have our finals Sunday, and we can promise you some fine tennis and some scuffling worth going to see.

Several Scouts in City With the summer vacations drawing to a close, a lot of scouts from southern schools are in the city looking for boys to take back with them. Representatives of Tuskegee, Arkansas State, Lincoln of Jeff City, and Western University have contacted your writer and wanted to know where they could find some good athletic material. Your's truly knows of a lot of athletes, but he knows of few who are willing to try to make the grade in our leading colored schools. Most of our youngsters expect entirely too much pampering to have much luck in the fierce dog eat dog competition for places on one of the nation's best Negro teams. But, we are willing to do what we can for any of you who would like to try it. We can't promise anything, but we will do our best if anyone interested will contact us at the Bystander.

WOMAN COMPOSER HAS REMARKABLE CAREER

Chicago (ANP)—When the United States Marine band played its latest concert at Washington, the nation's capitol, last Saturday, among the numbers which were featured was "Three Little Negro Dances," a new composition written by Mrs. Florence B. Price of Chicago, noted Negro woman composer.

The piece had only recently come from the presses of the Theodore Presser Co., but already has been played by Bainum's band in the summer series of concerts played on the lake front here in Chicago and the Marine band.

Mrs. Price, a modest, attractive matron, has had an enviable reputation among musicians for a number of years. Marian Anderson has sung her "My Soul's Been Anchored in the Lord" all over the world. Some of the leading symphony orchestras in various countries have played the song with Miss Anderson as accompanist. It was a featured number of Miss Anderson's unforgettable program sung at the Lincoln Memorial on the capital grounds in Washington last Easter.

Entrenous

Well friends, this is strictly a guest column and we go on record as being entirely independent of the regular writer, assuming full responsibility for whatever appears here.

Here Goes. First, there is a new secretary at the office, Esther Holt, who looks sleepily charming back of a desk. The young lady declared war on bananas. She ate four to check a growing appetite until "brother brings lunch." "Said brother, I forget lunch, and brings, you guess it, more bananas."

Guy Smith is worrying about what to do while C. F. is on her vacation. You never worried before while she was here Guy.

God's latest gift to girls T. B. A. got the shock of his life when he discovered that his out-of-town girl friend reads both the Bystander and the Observer.

Imagine Mrs. Chet Simms, former Dorothy's Wheels, shopping for a baby carriage.

John Danforth is the only window washer in town who takes a nap between sweeps of his brush.

Now that Mrs. B. has returned home the unholy three can cease worrying about each others absence from the trio.

They had a sitting session one night, but T. M. could go across the alley and double right back—He did. The newest salutation now is "chief."

The Y Stars have promised to have Cabin Daniel Boone on springs at Y Camp.

B. A. got back home from Chicago but he won't talk, why Bill?

Lost, strayed, or stolen, one tall slim guy, wore grey suit, black wavy hair, good looking, brown eyes, and nice teeth, stood behind Allen Ashby and Chet Williamson at the tennis matches Sunday. If he can be found, notify this column.

He was a swell guy and a nice musician but he got an idea that he had to be a "big timer." So he reaches the point of starvation for alcoholic beverages. Now he wanders around always hoping for his break not knowing that he has drunk away most of his musical talent.

Just a youngster? (The Guest Tattler)

Club Women Find Many Things of Interest in Boston

"Bostonian hospitality is wonderful," Mrs. A. A. McGinty, of Mason City, Ia., president of the Iowa Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, remarked Monday in a brief interview at the Bystander office. She was telling some of the experiences of her trip to the National Association of Colored Women which convened in Boston during July.

Mrs. McGinty was thrilled to have been able to stand in the spot where Crispus Attucks stood and touched his monument, located in one of the show places of Boston.

She liked Boston, for its historical value but when it comes to living in comfort, give her Iowa—where the streets are wide and clean and one can feel the breezes blowing, she inferred.

Accompanying Mrs. McGinty to the Bystander office was Mrs. Sarah Jett, past president of the state federation, who with Mrs. S. Joe Brown, made the trip to Boston. Mrs. Jett gave highlights of the meeting and commented upon the hospitality shown the Iowa visitors by the Rev. Sumpter M. Riley, Jr., former Des Moines pastor, who "has one of the lovely" homes in Boston, Mrs. Jett said.

Iowa Delegation

Mrs. Jett reported on the Iowa delegation attending the national meeting naming the following: Mrs. Brown as chairman of the trustee board; Mrs. Maude M. Brewton of Mason City, vice chairman of the trustee board; Mrs. Lillie Mills of Council Bluffs, past vice president; Mrs. Sophia Nichols of Des Moines, member of the trustee board; Mrs. Eunice Stewart, Mason City, supervisor of the Girls Association; Mrs. Carrie Wheeler of Mason City, Mrs. Berline Warren of Mason City, Mrs. Louis Kipper of Mason City.

The following Iowa girls attended: Miss Geraldine Herndon of Council Bluffs, president of the Iowa Association of Colored Girls; Miss Edith Ann Gray of Des Moines, vice president.

Mrs. Ione Coleman of Kansas City, formerly of Des Moines, registered with the Iowa delegation.

Mrs. Jett reported the following officers elected: Mrs. Brown reelected to the administrative board; Mrs. Nichols served on the credentials and election committees; Miss Herndon elected vice president of the National Association of Colored Girls; and Miss Gray.

Veteran Club Woman

Mrs. Sophia Nichols of Des Moines who has been going to the national conventions some "twenty odd years" returned to the city Saturday night after having spent ten busy days in the East.

"At the national meeting we were up at meetings until midnight—nearly every night," the veteran club woman said—and added that she never even thought of getting tired.

Leaving Boston Mrs. Nichols paid

a short visit at the New York World's Fair and then called on former Iowans who live in New York, Mrs. Mack Miller and her sister, Peggy Stearns. From New York she went to New Jersey and called on a friend, Mrs. Harold Smith. At Buffalo, N. Y., found another former Iowan, Art Wilson and his family who have a lovely home there and then she called on her husband's niece there.

Mrs. Nichols was in her regular pew at St. Paul Sunday morning and on Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Drew's reception "friends were telling me I looked fine," Mrs. Nichols smiled.

Bound for Chicago

"It was most gratifying that the association was able to pay $5,000 on the $8,000 indebtedness on the national club home in Washington," Mrs. S. Joe Brown said in speaking of what impressed her most at the national meeting. The home was purchased for $35,000 in 1936, under the administration and efforts of Mrs. Sallie W. Stewart.

A special effort will be launched to pay off the small balance on the headquarters, Mrs. Brown revealed and she was proud to state that the Iowa State Federation had pledged $100.

Mrs. Brown also pointed out that this was the first time a national meeting of the organization had been held in its birthplace. Out of appreciation of the organizer, the late Mrs. Josephine St. Pierre Ruffin, at one of the meetings, memorial services were held and a wreath placed on her grave.

Mrs. Brown was busy at her office this week making plans to leave this week end for the national meeting of the Iowa Association of Clubs which is convening in Chicago. She was entertaining Miss Ione Coleman of Kansas City, Mo., who had just arrived here Tuesday to accompany Mrs. Brown on her trip to Chicago. Miss Coleman also attended the national meeting in Boston. She is a school nurse in Kansas City.

Mrs. McGinty Meets Officers

Mrs. McGinty held a business meeting here Monday night at the Community Center with the state officers of the Iowa Federation and the presidents of the federated clubs of Des Moines.

She presented here five-point program of the year which stressed: the maintenance of the Federated Home for Girls at Iowa City; increase of membership, club expansion and redistricting the state; the developing of an scholarship loan fund; developing of junior work; contributing to the national headquarters drive.

Mrs. Sarah Jett was appointed at this meeting the publicity chairman for the state federation by Mrs. McGinty.

Following the meeting the trustee board assembled and made plans for the reopening of the girls home at Iowa City.

Mrs. Daisy Reeves, 203 W. 10th was hostess at a dinner by willing workers club, Tuesday, August 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Frazer, 1342 Sampson. The club presented her with a gift for her birthday.

Mrs. Meredith Carl, 1417 Thirteenth street, was called out of the city last week to the bedside of a relative in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Smith left the city Tuesday night to visit his mother in St. Louis. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jett.

Cyril Robinson who completed work on his Master's Degree in the city this week to attend the graduation exercises.

MISS BERNICE LEWIS, BEAUTICIAN, IS WED

One of the unplanned features of the Central Association of the Beauticians League which convened here Sunday, August 6, was the marriage of one of the beauticians, Miss Bernice Lewis, to Mr. Solomon Lavier, both of Des Moines.

The ceremonies were performed following the morning services at the Maple Street Baptist church, at which the group of beauticians were guests. The group assembled at the parsonage of the church at 1610 Walker avenue where the minister, the Rev. A. Rose Brent, read the ceremony to the couple, both of whom were members of Maple Street church.

Mrs. Lavier is at present living in Waterloo, Ia., where she is employed at one of the beauty shops.

DETROIT FAMILY VISITS THE MITCHELLS HERE

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. McCleendon and their two children of Detroit were guests during the week end of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, 1121 Eleventh street. While here they were extended many courtesies by friends before leaving Monday enroute to California.

Miss Olga Elizabeth Bibbs, junior at North High school, attended the Epworth League meeting at Kansas City, Mo., August 1 to 6, as a delegate.

BENEFIT PARTY A SUCCESS

The benefit party given by the unit under the direct supervision of Mrs. Minnie McGuire was a great success. The attendance was large and each and every one spent a pleasant evening. Nearly forty-five dollars was realized from the effort of Mrs. McGuire and her committee. Mrs. McGuire will have charge of several of these benefit parties during the fall and winter.

F. R. J.—Will we get our house finished before this coming winter and if so about when?

Ans: Some incident will arise in the life of your mother that will make her CHANGE HER MIND and delay the repairs and finishing of the house. It is just going to be a matter of months until the place will be finished.

N. C. S.—My husband is going with my best friend woman and she didn't know him until she met me and I wish to know if I should stay on with him?

Ans: Yes. Running out because he is acting sorry will not help matters any. You have found out that this party is not a friend to you... if so she wouldn't stoop to such conduct. Remain in your home for she can't do more than slip around and see him occasionally and he will soon tire of her.

J. W. S.—I read your column and like it fine. Please tell me if there is anything seriously wrong with my son and should he see a doctor?

Ans: His condition is serious enough for him to consult with a doctor. It is so foolish to take a chance with sickness when it is an easy and inexpensive to have the very best advice from a capable doctor. He will recover.

V. M. C.—The gentleman that asked me to marry him, was he really sincere?

Ans: He was, but not you. You should not think of marrying a man when you aren't in love. Return to school this fall and finish your education and don't get the marriage bag until you have finished your training.

V. B. J.—Should I live in hopes of our reuniting or should I try to forget him?

Ans: The logical thing for you to do is to stop thinking about him even though you do feel that you love him yet. The affair between you two just couldn't be worked favorably and it is well that it was realized while you were both young.

C. R. S.—Should I go on my vacation or would it be better for me to stay here?

Ans: The trip home will do you good... but you would be miserably TWO SWEETHEARTS. Decide for yourself whether you wish to go or not... it will not make very much difference between you and these friends if you do leave for a week.

A. R. C.—For the past few years I have been a constant reader of your column. Now I have made up my mind to send my problems to you but I want them to come back to me in a private letter. Can this be arranged?

Ans: Yes. Send a quarter for my latest Astrology Reading covering your sign. Send your full name, correct birthdate and address along with three pressing questions, and I will send your Astrology Reading to you by return mail, along with my free opinion on your problems.

M. L. G.—I suffer from a chronic condition and my sickness puzzles the doctors. Tell me what to expect?

Ans: A cure in time. The doctors are able to relieve you temporary and if you do as they say and try to build up your resistance, it shouldn't be but a short time until you are on the road to recovery.
